An automobile-pony traffic accident case occupied the attention of a jury in Marshall County Circuit Court Tuesday. The pony was killed in the accident. The owner of the pony, T. L. Riley, was awarded dam-

The Rebels trailed 14-15 in the first quarter and 25-26 at the half. Miller, with 14 points, was high man for the Rebels.

Gilbertsville Camp Boys Feted at Dinner

Members of the Gilbertsville Boys Camp were treated to a big dinner last Thursday night, Nov. 9, at Ky. Dam Village Auditorium.

The party was sponsored by churches, civic clubs, and business men.

Rev. Frank Norfleet of Paducah was the main speaker. He said "fellowship between us and our fellow men is a must."

Carl Monhollen, camp superintendent, also spoke. He said the Gilbertsville camp had been a success that two more such camps in Kentucky are being planned.

The 34 boys sang for the small crowd at the dinner. One boy also sang a solo, and a quartet sang. Several boys made brief talks. They invited the public to visit the camp and said it had helped them a great deal.

Monhollen gave a brief sketch of how a day at the boys camp is spent. "We get up around 6:15 and eat breakfast at 7. After breakfast the boys do their chores, which includes cleaning the mess hall, showers and living quarters. Half of the boys go to school at 8 while the other half goes to a nearby tree nursery. The boys return to camp at 11:15 for lunch and the schedule for the afternoon is rotated from the morning."

"The youngsters come back to camp at 3 and have recreation until close to 5. We eat at 5 and have group therapy at 6. Our bed time is 9."

Other personnel who work at the camp besides Monhollen are the Rev. Orville Easley, school teacher; Louis McClellan, supervisor; Ralph O'Neil, supervisor; Mrs. Wilbur Kaye, night supervisor; Bill Lampley, recreation director; Bill Miller and Martin director; Leon Shoemaker and Poe, cooks; Leon Shoemaker and Mrs. Cathryn Woodward, social workers.

The civil case of Stoney Griggs versus Joe Darnall of Benton was settled out of court. The suit resulted from a traffic accident.

Calvert Men Bag Deer On Hunting Trips

Calvert City deer hunters didn't travel very far afield to bag their coveted prizes.

Jim Solomon got a fine deer specimen while hunting near Park City, Ky. Bud Oser, Tommy Stevenson and Edison Stevenson had good luck over in neighboring Livingston County.

George Lamb and Paul Gray of Calvert City and Vernon Stahl of Murray bagged deer near Pennyrite State Park, Dawson Springs. Their companions, Johnny Harrell and Steve Bray, didn't have any luck but they all had lots of fun.

And it proves that Kentuckians do not have to leave their state nowadays to hunt, and kill, deer.

The Benton Chapter, Future Homemakers of America, held its annual "Sadie Hawkins Day" Friday, Nov. 10.

Tags went on sale in the home economics department at 5:30 a. m. and were sold at various times throughout the day.

After purchasing a tag for 75 cents each girl proceeded to catch her man. After catching her man, she then was responsible for furnishing his evening meal and paying his way into the ball game. Those who tagged early had to furnish the boys' breakfasts.

For the basketball game, the girls dressed up in sack dresses made of burlap bags with patches or other appropriate ornaments.

During the half-time period of the game, a skit from Dog Patch was given. Daisy Mae chased Lil Abner down the ramp and out onto the field. And she was unsuccessful in catching him, he thought that he had gotten away until a group of girls ran from various places, grabbed him, and held him until Daisy Mae tied her tag on him.

After the ball game, a party was held in the Community Building. The recreation room was decorated with a hillbilly theme. Charlotte Locue, clad in a "Minnie Pearl original," acted as mistress of ceremonies. The first thing on the program was a wedding, at which time Daisy Mae and Lil Abner got hitched.

Daisy Mae was clad in a well-fitted black-polka-dotted blouse and a very short black skirt. Lil Abner had on his bib overalls without a shirt.

A farm wagon and several bales of hay formed the altar. Marlin Sam tied the knot good and proper, signed the certificate and sealed the vows with chicken rings. During the evening, every couple there was given the opportunity of getting hitched.

Following the wedding, various games and contests were enjoyed by all.

Delicious refreshments consisting of punch served from a churn and sheet cakes decorated with sketches of Lil Abner and Daisy Mae were served at approximately 125 people.

Daisy Mae was played by Jackie Kay Jennings, Lil Abner by Jim Mosely, Mammy Yokum by Sandra Taylor, Pappy Yokum by Jerry Malone, and Marlin Sam by Johnny Lovett.

Certainly our city folks and farm folks are very dependent upon each other, and the more we co-operate the better off we all are.

Let's all pull together for a better and more prosperous Marshall County.

Letter to the Editor

Fantainebleau, France
3rd Ordinance Co.
Oct. 23, 1961

Mrs. Cordie Morgan,
Benton, Ky.

Dear Mother:

Just line to say hello and let you know I am o.k.
We left Ft. Campbell at 2 a.m. on Oct. 18. After sitting in the airline station all day at New York, we boarded a jet for France. Six hours later we had traveled 5,000 miles.

We have a pretty good place to stay. The barracks are warm and cozy, kindly like an old hotel a little bit dirty and dilapidated. There are 12 men in my room and we do not have enough showers, but some are being fixed up by Frenchmen.

Fantainebleau is a little larger than Murray. The streets are narrow and most of the people seem to be very poor, the homes no not have electric heat or hot water, and few have bathrooms. It is more like olden times, I guess. They ride bicycles to work; in fact, most everywhere they go.

Mom, the chow is good, and I don't see much chance of losing weight. The boy who said he would watch over your little boy is here with us. You know, the good-lookin' gone. I hope you did not feel too bad about not seeing me. But I was not sure just how I was going. Besides, I think it was better that way.

We have quite a bit to do to pass the time. We have a service club, pool room, ping pong table and a library. I have just checked out a book, "The Long Season," written by a major league ball player.

We have two dances a week but I can't dance and I do not think I can learn. We have a TV set, but I can understand very little it says. We have a piano and one boy can really play it.

Another boy and I went through an old castle. It was once Napoleon's home, and is old and very beautiful.

Well mom I got a two-day pass over the weekend, but did not feel like I could hitch hike over the week-end to Benton, eh. Tell everyone hello for me. It won't be long until I will come bouncing upon the porch, and you'll start picking up after me.

So long now.

Love, Bill.

Mrs. Gene English of Route 7 was a shopper in Benton Saturday and also visited The Courier office to have the date on their paper marked up for another year.

Farm-City Week Is Scheduled To Be Held On Nov. 17-23

President John F. Kennedy has proclaimed the week of Nov. 17-23 as Farm-City Week for 1961 and plans now are being completed for Kentucky's observance of the event.

A kick-off meeting to brief community leaders from all parts of the state on planning for the week was held in September at the ballroom of Freedom Hall at the Kentucky State Fair and Exposition Center, Louisville.

J. O. Matlick, Kentucky commissioner of conservation and chairman of the Kentucky committee, pointed out, "It is important that all groups—labor, business, industry and all consumers join in observing Farm-City Week, along with farm groups, as evidence of our appreciation of all those on the farms and in the cities who provide us with the food and fiber for better living."

In his proclamation President Kennedy said, "The interdependence between prosperity on the American farm and the economic health of the American city has never been more significant. . . . I request the Department of Agriculture, the land-grant colleges and universities, the cooperative extension service, and all other appropriate agencies and officials of the Government to cooperate with national, state, and local farm organizations and other groups in preparing and carrying out programs for the appropriate observance of National Farm-City Week. . . ."

The fire department was called out Friday afternoon to put out a grass fire on the lawn where the kindergarten school is held.

The pattern of our daily life is flexible when we have faith in God. We are not limited to a set way of doing things. We successfully meet all challenges. We happily accept our opportunities.

of writing to my individually I will try what I hope is a news paper and maybe read it. My former Corbett Colie, would a clever way to save stamps.

been to two "to-dos" both were informative. On Wednesday I the 49th annual conference of the Kentucky Hotel, in the mezzanine, where the press and by word of mouth met Mildred Kingcade. She was with Clara Dismukes, a public health nurse from Paducah. Mildred Kingcade is an important personage in Kentucky Public Health circles. When I speak of her I am often told, "Oh, I've heard of Mildred Kingcade." I am always glad to say, "She's from my county."

I didn't stay to hear all of the speeches, but the address of Dr. Hugh Storrow, a professor of psychiatry at the University of Kentucky, was quoted widely in the press and by word of mouth by those who heard it. He asked, "Why should an unwed mother stop having children and act against her own financial interest just because a social worker tells her to?" He suggested that they be paid a bonus for maintaining the status quo. He asked why should a man on relief get a job to help support his family when he knows his public assistance money will be cut?

On Friday I went to the 5th District Teachers Association held in Lowe's theater. There I heard Governor Combs say that fears that the State will weaken local control of Kentucky's schools are unfounded. He continued, "Nothing I might recommend to the General Assembly will weaken the school program at the local level. That's where it ought to be and that's where I'd like to leave it." He is not an eloquent speaker but he seems to believe what he says whether his listeners do or not. I felt like saying, "Local level, my eye! who at the local level asked for the schools to be integrated, and who at the local level asked for their children to be carted halfway across the country to a consolidated school?"

State Superintendent Wendell Butler is a good speaker, and he is not nearly so fat as his pictures show him to be. He told the group that there appears to be a campaign to transfer powers from his office to other State offices. He strongly opposes such transfer.

Dr. Lyman Ginger, who seemed to be their really big wheel, spoke briefly on the subject of the State Commissioner on Education. He is the former head of N. E. A.

One of the most pleasing features of the program was the appearance of the Valley High School choir which sang six songs as against the 14 sung by the Negro choir the last time I attended a Louisville teachers association. You know Valley is the biggest high school in Kentucky. Bald Knob's Reason Newton teaches Math there. I keep hoping he and his wife Mildred will come to see me some Sunday. Mrs. Booker and Blanche, who used to live at Hardin, came one Sunday not long ago.

Back to reporting the teachers' association: The presiding officer was a Mr. Walker from Spencer county who as master of ceremonies carried off the program gracefully enough, but a mixing of his adjectives at the very last minute sent the crowd out on a gale of laughter. After he was sure all the compliments had been paid, he said, "A black lady's purse has been left up here..." There were a good many Negro teachers in the crowd. I heard a white woman laugh, "Oh, I hope that doesn't touch off a demonstration." You know demonstrations are all the style in Louisville.

NATIONAL FARM-CITY WEEK PROCLAMATION

Whereas interdependence of farm and city people is of such great importance that mutual understanding of each others' problems is a necessity;

Whereas problems of production, marketing, distribution, and consumption affect all people from the producer to the ultimate consumers;

Whereas the knowledge and skills of our people have improved and thereby improved the efficiency in producing goods and services as key factors in the American economy;

And whereas, people throughout our land will be observing National Farm-City Week November 17-23,

We, Artelle Hamilton, County Judge of Marshall County and

Guy Mathis, Mayor of the City of Benton, do proclaim November 17-23 as National Farm-City Week in Benton and Marshall County, Kentucky and urge all our citizens to take cognizance of the fact of mutual helpfulness of both farm and city people to our general welfare.

Quail Season Opens

Today; More Birds

In West Kentucky

A slight increase in the overall quail population of Kentucky, along with sectional boosts in the number of rabbits, highlight the impending small game hunting season which opens in Kentucky on Nov. 16 and continues through Jan. 14.

In Western Kentucky, the quail population increase is sharp while in other areas only a small increase is noted over the previous years. After a small rabbit kill last season, the rabbit population is beginning to bounce back.

Again this year the bag limit is eight with a possession limit of 16 after two or more days and for quail the daily limit remains at 10 with double that number permissible after two days in the field.

Squirrel hunting, after a brief closed season, will reopen on

Nov. 16 for the state as a whole.

Closing date in Western Kentucky will be Nov. 27.

Richard Powell Smith of Gilbertsville, Route 1, was a recent patient at the Baptist Hospital in Paducah.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wolfe of Southfield, Mich., will spend Thanksgiving holidays in Benton with Mrs. Max Wolfe.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere thanks to all who helped us in our time of need for their words of comfort, food, beautiful flowers at the time of our beloved husband's death.

We especially thank E. A. Mathis and R. Moore for their words of comfort and the Filbeck-Cann Funeral service.

May God bless you. Mrs. Lonnie Filbeck Children and Grandchildren

You've never seen anything like it, because there's never been anything like it... until today. On the outside the new Ford Fairlane 500 measures a quick 197 inches from stem to stern. A good foot shorter than the cars from which it borrowed its name, it calls the snuggest parking places home. At the same time, on the inside the new Fairlane 500 is every inch as big as some of the biggest Fords ever built.

The new Fairlane 500 is priced way under previous Fairlanes, well under many compacts. But Fairlane economy doesn't stop with a pretty price tag. It runs to amazing gas savings—with the world's first economy V-8 or the nickel-nursing Fairlane Six. Routine service is reduced to a minimum—30,000 miles on many items, only twice a year or 6,000 miles on the rest. And it adjusts its own brakes.

Way back in 1941, when prices were much cheaper than they are today, a Benton grocery store was advertising two 24-ounce loaves of bread for only 19 cents. And three small cans of Pet Milk were only 23 cents. A whole quart jar of peanut butter was only 23 cents. Ten giant bars of P. & G. soap were only 39 cents.

And a dry cleaning plant was advertising men's and ladies suits cleaned for only 50 cents. A console model Philco radio—a big one that stood on the floor—was only $89.95. That was before television, of course.

Dr. and Mrs. N. E. Green had

2 Indians Deserve Credit For First U. S. Thanksgiving

Two Indians with an English accent deserve much of the credit for the first Thanksgiving in America. They taught the Plymouth colonists how to make a home in the New World and helped them establish a peace that lasted for more than 50 years.

The first to approach the colonists, reports World Book Encyclopedia, was Samoset, a chief of the Pamaquid Indians. He walked into the colony one day in March 1621 and unsettled the settlers by addressing them in English. Samoset, it turned out, had earlier met some English fishermen along the coast of Maine and learned some of the language from them.

Two weeks later Samoset dropped in with his friend Squanto, a well-traveled brave of the Pawtuxet tribe. Squanto had been kidnapped twice, once after having been kidnapped and sold as a slave in Spain by an English sea captain. He had returned to America in 1619.

Samoset introduced the colonists to Massasoit, chief of the Plymouth area. With Squanto acting as interpreter, the chief and the Pilgrims concluded a treaty of friendship that lasted until Massasoit died in 1661.

Meanwhile Squanto went to live with the colonists, teaching them how to plant corn, pumpkins and beans and showing them where to fish.

That year the Pilgrims had a bountiful harvest and Governor William Bradford declared the celebration that became the first Thanksgiving.

held a Halloween party at their home.

Mrs. Clark Hunt had entertained at her home with a shower in honor of Mrs. Charles Griffey.

Mrs. Will Gay and Mrs. Kenneth Scholar had entertained at a shower for Mr. and Mrs. Barkley Smith. Mrs. Smith was the former Emma Jo Copeland.

The ladies of the Oak Level Christian Church had held a quilting party.

Those present were Mesdames Luther Hamlet, Ed Holmes, John Byerley, T. M. Reid, Rollie Byerley, Newt Tynes, T. D. Parker, John Phelps, John P. Owen, T. H. Smith Durwood Copeland, Andrew Powell and Rosa Hamlet; Misses Ollie Hamlet, Pearl and Ma Mae Bonduant, Flora and Ona Lee Hamlet, Carol Ruth Tynes and Janice Copeland.

The Unity correspondent reported that Dick Glover had sold some hogs for $120.

Also that Mrs. Boyce Jones had gone to Chicago to join her husband, who was employed there.

Elbert Copeland and Miss Eleanor Cadger had been married in Detroit.

And Laueva Thompson and Paul Seay had been married in Fremont, Ohio. Miss Thompson was the daughter of the Luther Thompsons of Benton.

Mrs. Rosa Hamlet had held a quilting party at her home. The quilts were made for her daughter, Mrs. Andrew Powell.

And that's all the old-time news for this week. See you soon.

ASC News & Facts

BY ROBERT RUDOLPH

Legislation enacted by Congress late this year permits the leasing of a 1962 tobacco acreage allotment from one farm to another under certain conditions, Renloe Rudolph, chairman, Marshall County ASC Committee, announces. The new program provision applies to all kinds of tobacco, except burley.

Specifically, the new provision permits the owner and operator acting together if they are different persons—of any farm for which an "old farm" 1962 tobacco acreage allotment is determined, to lease all or part of the allotment to any other owner or operator of a farm in the same county which has a 1962 allotment, old or new, for the same kind of tobacco.

Any allotment acreage leased to a farm may not be subleased to another farm.

The 1962 "new farm" allotment may not be leased or transferred under this program provision, and any farm for which the 1962 allotment is reduced to zero will not be eligible to receive any leased allotment acreage.

Furthermore, the 1962 tobacco acreage allotment for a farm which for 1962 is entirely covered by a Conservation Reserve contract is not eligible for lease or transfer. If only part of a farm is covered by such a contract, no more allotment acreage than the permitted acreage may be leased from the farm, and no more than the amount by which the regular 1962 allotment is less than the permitted acreage may be leased to the farm.

Growers who want price-support protection for their 1962 wheat crop are reminded about the conservation requirements of the 1962 wheat stabilization program. Renloe Rudolph, chairman, Marshall County ASC committee, points out that wheat growers will have to take an extra step this year if they want to be eligible for price support on their 1962 crop.

In other years, it was necessary for a producer to comply with his farm wheat acreage allotment in order to qualify for loans or purchase agreements on his wheat crop. In 1962, such compliance is still required, but there is an additional requirement that an intention-to-participate form be filed and that the acreage diverted from the production of wheat be devoted to an approved conservation use. Program payments will be made to producers for conserving the diverted acreage.

The 1962 wheat allotment notices sent to growers before the wheat marketing quota referendum last August reflected a 10 per cent reduction below what the allotment would have been under previous legislative authority.

Chairman Rudolph suggests that farmers check with the ASC office about approved conservation practices and also about double cropping and grazing of designated land.

First Showing IMPERIAL OF 1962

IMPERIAL LE BARON FOUR-DOOR SOUTHAMPTON

A forthright challenge to everyone who plans to buy a luxury car this year

In a few days, you will receive a personal invitation to drive a 1962 Imperial. Not the usual vague "see your dealer" . . . but a specific challenge to compare your own car with the best Imperial we've ever built.

At your convenience, a dealer in your area will deliver a 1962 Imperial to you . . . for a thorough comparison-tour that you conduct by yourself.

We believe anyone planning to invest from five to seven thousand dollars in an automobile is entitled to the unembroidered facts right from the car itself.

Naturally, our dealers explain the advantages of torsion-bar suspension . . . tell you how the alternator supplies current even while the engine idles . . . quote engineering data on the superior performance of our new transmission . . . and answer any other question you ask about Imperial.

But you can find out only so much about Imperial by mere listening. To give the facts substance and meaning you must drive and compare.

So, when our invitation arrives, take us up on it. It obligates you not at all. And whether you eventually buy an Imperial or not, you'll never forget that once you drove a car as great as is supposed to.

R.S.V.P. Even though our invitation may somehow miss you, an Imperial comparison-tour may easily be arranged by writing on your letterhead to: General Manager, Imperial Division, 12200 East Jefferson, Detroit, Michigan.
