The gold bug plucator press has sought to make much capital out of the fact that an assessor at Tarrytown, N. Y., assessed Rockefeller's property too high and Rockefeller got it reduced.
That is something which has occurred to others millions of times before, but in every part of this country, but the fact that Rockefeller is a millionaire has been so much made to account for the enormous press to chronicle his misfortune, that he has been very much more made, and he has suffered on all occasions. In this instance he is made to figure as a paragon of good citizenship, pursued by an anarchist assessor, who tried to confiscate his property by law. If that had been the purpose of the assessor, and he had succeeded, it would have been nothing more than a case of distributive justice, for Rockefeller and his associates have virtually confiscated the property of hundreds and thousands of competitors and put the proceeds in the treasury of the Standard Oil trust, and transformed it thence to their pocket. The assessor was wrong in following outside the law, but he was following Rockefeller's example.

The assessor was not a faithful public official, but he was an angel of light, and an example of moral honesty compared to the international highwayman who rob millions of people, and out of the proceeds purchases newspaper approximately, and vainly tries to purchase immortality. Rockefeller the man may be an admirable as the Tarrytown assessor, but Rockefeller the conspirator and trust builder is a modern monster, the most dangerous product of our nineteenth century civilization. By virtue of his power of combined capital, distributed without mercy, conscience or mercy our legislatures, our courts and our newspapers, have been used and are being used to build up a class which instead of being subject to the laws of God and man, defy both with impunity in the pursuit of gain.

There is nothing more deplorable under the sun than the editor of the so-called public journal who bends the pennant thrusts of his kness to such "third things" as follow fawning.
There is no anarchist so dangerous to peace, order and good government as the trust magnate, the anarchist of wealth. The power of wealth is the profit breeder of the anarchist of poverty. Every paper anarchist is the opportunity of a millionaire anarchist. The difference between the two is that the paper anarchist breaks the law and is punished for it, but the millionaire anarchist bends the law and the machinery of government and law so as to furnish a cover for his schemes of robbery, and is worshipped as a financial genius. Monuments are built to his memory made of the bones of the men he has crushed in his criminal march to wealth and fame, and he is crowned with jewels made from the crystallized tears of the women and children who have fallen under his chariot wheels to die of hunger.

And such as these are held up as examples for the American youth, by the trust owned and trust bribed newspapers.

Their very existence proves that the devil's reign of the combination, powers on earth is in full blast.—The Dispatch.

The kaiser proclaims himself not only the head of the army but the head of the theater. Will it be long before he becomes the head of the church?

SYRUP OF FIGS

BOOMIN BUILDING.

Handsomeness In Hopkinsville

ARE GOING UP.

Two New Dwellings On Walnut Street.

CONTRACTORS BUSY.

The local contractors are in the midst of an unusual rush. This has been a very busy season with them up to the present time and there is nothing to indicate an abatement of the rush. On the contrary scores of people in Hopkinsville, Pembrokes, Trenton and other neighboring towns are having planning and specifications made for the erection of new dwellings and business houses and the aggregate sum spent with Hopkinsville contractors this season will be the largest in many years.

In every portion of the city new cottages and imposing residences are going up and the merry music of the hammer, plane and saw salutes the ear.

In consequence of this unusual activity in building there are few idle workmen.

Including the improvements being made on Hotel Latham the work on contracts in hand in this city will approximate $50,000. This is exclusive of a number of dwellings being erected by local contractors in the country.

Work has actively begun on the handsome dwelling of Mr. E. W. Henderson, on South Main street. It will be pushed to speedy completion and will probably be ready for occupancy by the latter part of October.

Mr. Phil Galtier has just closed a contract with Dagg & Richards for the erection of a very handsome residence on Walnut street. It will be an eight room, two story building and will cost between $2,000 and $3,000. Dirt has been broken and excavation for the foundation begun.

Mr. James West will erect one of the handsomest residences in the city on Walnut street. The contract was let

COMMISSION IS NAMED.

Meacham, Garrett and Young Appointed

TO HOLD ELECTION.

Recommendation of County Committee Ignored.

YOUNG WON'T SERVE.

The State election commissioners of Frankfort have acted, and in accordance with the provisions of the Gesellaw have appointed the commissioners whose duty it will be to conduct the elections in the various counties.

For Christian county the commissioners appointed were: C. M. Meacham, the Garrett and Dr. James Young.

It has been the understanding among the leading Democrats and among the rank and file of the party that the State commissioners would be guided by recommendations of the committees of the various counties.

The interests of fair elections, it was thought, could be best subserved in this way, as the recommendations of the county committees would in some measure reflect the wishes of the people.

Such a course would free the State commissioners from all hint or suspicion of favoritism and divide the responsibility with the county committees.

Pursuant to this plan the Democratic county committees of Christian county met in May and recommended as election commissioners for Christian county Messrs. J. B. Walker, John Childers and D. J. Ware. The Republican committee took no action in the matter whatsoever.

The State committee has ignored the recommendations of the Democrats of this county as expressed through their committee.

While the commissioners named for this county will doubtless discharge the duties of their office acceptably, it would be interesting to know why the State commissioners have treated the recommendations of the regular county Democratic organizations with contempt.

May Not Serve.

Dr. James A. Young was with outcast by a New Era man.

He was reading a Louisville morning paper but he had overlooked the list of county election commissioners.

Dr. Young was surprised when asked by the reporter if he intended serving on the county commission.

I was to him the first intimation of his appointment. He had never been approached on the subject and did not know who had suggested his name to the State commissioners. He was loth to believe that he had been named, until the New Era man pointed to his name in the paper which he was reading.

"I know nothing about the business," he said. "Neither the Democratic, Republican nor Populist committee recommended my name, so far as I know.
They certainly did not do so with my consent. I am ignorant of the duties incident upon the place, and unless I change my mind I shall have nothing to do with it."

NOT AS LARGE.

The crop of tobacco will not be as large in Kentucky as expected. The monthly report of the State Agricultural Department shows that the crop has not fared well recently. There is a great difference between the early and late set tobacco, and the crop will be irregular. In the Western section of the State the crop has suffered from drought, and in other sections there has been too much moisture. One good feature has been the absence of worms, which have not been in evidence this year, to any extent.

DEATH OF REV. DAVIDSON.

The funeral of the Rev. L. B. Davidson, the oldest active minister in the Louisville Methodist Conference, who was killed Saturday night at Brooks Station by an L. N. passenger train, took place Monday morning at 11 o'clock at the Walnut-street Baptist church in Louisville. The services were conducted by the Rev. John W. Lewis, a life-long friend and co-worker of Mr.
Davidson.

The pall-bearers were the Rev. E. W.
Bottomly, E. B. Brown, G. E. Foster,
W. O. Brandon, H. D. Moore and R. B.
Boiler. After the services the remains were sent to Russellville, where the burial took place.

to be successful throughout.

Miss Jennie West, an experienced

SEVERELY SHOCKED.

The people of Clarksville have not been so severely shocked by a death for several years as they were when the announcement was made Sunday evening that John H. Macrae had passed into the great beyond. A young man, in the prime of life, noble, generous and popular, suddenly summoned before his maker, is a terrible thing to contemplate.—Clarksville Times.

DIED AT NEWPORT NEWS.

News has been received here of the death of Robert Barrett, a young volunteer, who went from Caldwell county to recruit the Third Kentucky regiment.
He died at Newport News, Va., of fever. Young Barrett was sent to Princeton from his home for implement repairs about six weeks ago, and while there he was overcome by the malarial spirit that prevailed the town and enlisted and never returned home.

than a week, and when the expediprotracted stay. There will be six teams, two cooks, three wagons, innumerable shot guns and rifles, miles of fish-goods and every conceivable delicacy calculated to promote the comfort

Bids Wanted For Supplying Asylum.

Sealed proposals for furnishing the Western Kentucky Asylum for the Insane, near Hopkinsville, Ky., with coal for one year, beginning September 1, 1898, are solicited. The amount of coal required will be about one hundred thousand bushels, consisting of ninety per cent. Pocahontas or small nut, free from slack, and five per cent. of well screened and picked lump.

Bids will be received at the office of the Superintendent of said asylum until noon, August 29, 1898. Right is reserved to reject any and all bids.

THOMAS W. GARDNER, Supt.

By A. H. ANDERSON, Steward.

THEY ARE AFTER HIM.

A delegation of prominent Methodists from Nashville, consisting of Messrs.
F. D. Whittier, W. C. Dillabel, F. M.
Dorris, Byrd Murray and J. W. Farren, arrived in the city Sunday morning and registered at the Phoenix Hotel. These gentlemen were very reticent concerning the object of their visit. They went in a body to the Methodist church and returned to the hotel they were closest with each other for quite a while. In the afternoon they enquired where Rev.
W. K. Piner lived and called on the brilliant young divine.

It seems that they had been sent as a committee by one of the largest Methodist churches in Nashville to hear Mr.
Piner preach with a view of securing his transfer to the Tennessee conference and inviting him to their pulpit.

What the outcome will be can not yet be stated. It is certain that the Nashville men were delighted with Dr.
Piner, both as a preacher and as a man.

Dr. Piner, however, is not anxious to sever his connection with the Kentucky Conference, in which body he is a conspicuous figure, and he is well pleased with his charge in Hopkinsville and thinks he has plenty of work.

So, it is not improbable that if the Nashville church makes overtures to Mr. Piner, they will be fruitless.

ASSESSMENTS FOR 1898.

GAVE UP THE BONE

They Intended To Dispute Over.

ALL THE ISLANDS

Included In the Spanish Surrender at Manila.

WHY AUGUSTI FLED.

Scripture-McRae League Service.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—It is semi-officially stated that the Spanish surrender at Manila included the whole of the Philippine group of islands.
Dewey and Merritt, therefore, abrogated the provision of the protocol, which, it was feared, would give the peace commission the greatest trouble.
The Spaniards gave up the bone they intended to dispute over.

AUGUSTI'S DEPARTURE

Scripture-McRae League Service.
LONDON, Eng., Aug. 18.—The Times Madrid correspondent says of Governor Augusti's departure from Manila, that as Augusti was Governor of all the Philippines it was feared that the capitulation signed by him would be taken to include the entire territory under his jurisdiction.
Therefore it was decided to transfer a portion to the Governor of Visayas.
Augusti's departure was probably another precaution.

NO UNFRIENDLINESS

NOT YET CONFIRMED

Scripture-McRae League Service.
BERLIN, Aug. 18.—The Government communicated with Hong Kong on hearing the report that Capt. Gen. Augusti had escaped on a German cruiser, but no confirmation of the report has been received.
The Government expects that the action of the German Admiral will be found to mean nothing unfriendly to the United States.

CORBETT'S FATHER'S AWFUL DEED.

Scripture-McRae League Service.
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 16.—(Special)—Patrick Corbett, the aged father of the famous pugilist, James J. Corbett, was the central figure of a terrible tragedy this morning.
Shortly before five o'clock he shot and almost instantly killed his wife, an estimable woman who was beloved by a large circle of friends.

He then turned the weapon on himself and fired a fatal bullet into his brain, dying a few moments later.
He had not had any domestic troubles of any kind.

It is the prevalent opinion that Corbett committed this dreadful deed while in a fit of insanity.
His actions recently have been so peculiar as to lead those who knew him best to fear that he was becoming mentally unbalanced.

In the Carson City fight the elder Corbett had beat all his possessions that his son would win. Lanky Bob's solar plexus blow left the old man without a cent. He had never been quite himself since that pugilistic battle was waged.

CLARKSVILLE NEWS.

(SPECIAL TO NEW ERA)
Clarksville, Aug. 18.—Retiring Sheriff J. M. Collier will this week enter suit against the county for $20,000, claimed as fees collected by the county during the four years of his term of office.
That the Supreme Court has decided the work house laws of Montgomery county unconstitutional is the basis of the suit to be filed by Collier, alleging that he was deprived of fees he was constitutionally entitled to. This suit will be ably contested and much interest is manifested by the taxpayers of the county.

BROUGHT HIM BACK.

Clarksville, Aug. 18.—About three weeks ago a young man giving his name as Edgar Holdman, claiming his home in St. Clair, N. Y., applied to Owen & Moore for a bicycle, stating that he would ride the wheel to the next corner and if it suited he might purchase it. Permission was given by Salesman Moore Dickson, and nothing was seen of Holdman until he was down at Gutierrez last night and arrested by City Marshall Richmond this morning, who brought him to this city. When leaving here Holdman was charged with stealing a hat from Ed Davis. The later Mr. Holdman in Guthrie last night, shaking hands with him, and saw his hat on Holdman's head. Holdman claims to have been in Nashville since his departure from here.

Some of the party will return by way of Washington, and a number will visit many points of interest in Virginia and the East.

L. & N. IMPROVEMENTS.

Clarksville, Tenn., Aug. 17.—The Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company has in process a construction and in contemplation a large amount of extensive improvements on the Memphis Division. Red River bridge, at this point, is being replaced by a plate girder structure and will be completed within five or six weeks. The bridge over the Tennessee River, which is 1,640 feet long, is being replaced by a new one, and the work will require until next March. An electric light plant is being built to allow a night shift of 120 men to work. Other improvements contemplated are a round house at Paris to cost $100,000, and extensive terminal improvements for Memphis. Assistant Engineer Brumby, who has the work here in charge, states that the strengthening of the bridges and other improvements is for the purpose of placing heavier rolling stock on this division. Lowering of some of the heavy grades will follow to enable trains to make faster time.

Scripture-McRae League Service.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 16.—President McKinley this morning announced the names of those who will serve on the American Military Commissions for Cuba and Porto Rico as follows:
Cuban Commission.
MAJOR-GENERAL T. L. WADE, ADMIRAL SAMPSON, MAJOR-GENERAL BUTLER, Porto Rican Commission.
MAJ.-GEN. JOHN R. BROOKE, ADMIRAL W. S. SCHLEY, GENERAL GORDON.
It will be noticed that the name of Gen. Fitzhugh Lee does not appear in the list of the Cuban Commission. The omission is not unintentional. Gen. Lee was originally slated for a place on the commission, but will not serve, owing to his desire to remain at the head of his army corps, the Seventh, will eventually be sent to Cuba, and at that event Gen. Lee will go to the island at his head, preferring this position to a commissionership.

MR. MAYO'S MISTAKES.

He Failed to Fool His Wife.

SHE'S IN PURSUIT.

Innocent Friend Gives the Auctioneer Away.

If Mr. Frank Mayo had been as smooth in other respects as he is in his business as an auctioneer of job lots, if he had displayed the same knowledge of human nature in his relations with women as he does when playing upon the credulity of some prospective purchaser of gim-crack jewelry and checked suits, the New Era might not have had this highly interesting story of man's duplicity and woman's revenge for its readers this evening.

Mr. Mayo has been a frequent visitor to Hopkinsville during the past few years. He has been a familiar figure in front of the court house on public days. Who has not heard his insinuating and persuasive notes as he dwelt upon the quality of the wares he offered, and mark'd the seeming reluctance with which he parted with them at outrageously low prices? Perched upon a wagon filled with boxes and trays, his stentorian voice has often rallied the rascals about him.

Now it happened that about two months ago the chief of police here received a letter from Mrs. Frank Mayo, of Evansville, making enquiries concerning the whereabouts of her husband and a king if he had been to this city.

Capt. Armstrong did not answer the letter immediately but filed it away for future reference. On the first Monday in August Mr. Mayo dropped in with a job lot of clothing, and was more than usually eloquent in front of the court house door that day. So Capt. Armstrong wrote Mrs. Mayo that her husband had arrived. No further correspondence passed between the lady and the chief, and the latter had dismissed the matter from his mind.

About 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon a handsomely attired brunette of prepossessing appearance walked into the chief's office and introduced herself as Mrs. Mayo, of Evansville. She had just arrived over the L. & N. and had made no stop between the station and the chief's office.

Mrs. Mayo lost no time in preliminary work. She came on business and proposed to her husband's mission.

She wanted to know where her recent husband was. Mayo had left Hopkinsville several weeks ago, but the chief did not know his present whereabouts.

"If you will wait a few minutes," said the accommodating chief, "I'll bring a gentleman who may be able to give you the desired information."

While in this city Mr. Mayo had been boarded with Mr. McGough, at the corner of Fourth and Clay streets. It happened that at this very minute Mr. McGough was in the City Court room, the defendant in a civil action then being heard.

He soon came to the chief's office and Chief Armstrong introduced him to Mrs. Mayo.

"Why, I am glad to see you, Mrs. Mayo, and I think we have met before," said Mr. McGough.

"Indeed? Where have we met?" asked Mrs. Mayo blandly.

"Why, in Princeton a few days ago. Don't you remember that your husband introduced 'as,' replied the innocent Mr. McGough.

Mrs. Mayo evaded a direct answer and continued to ply Mr. McGough with questions. When she had secured the information she desired she announced:

"You are mistaken; for I am the only genuine Mrs. Mayo."

Mr. McGough saw that he had innocently gotten Mayo in the middle of a very bad box and loyally attempted to qualify his statements.

Turning to the chief, Mrs. Mayo, her dark eyes blazing with indignation, said: "Capt. Armstrong, you have heard all this conversation?"

The chief admitted that he had.

"Now, sir," she said, turning her flashing eyes upon the hapless Mr. McGough, "don't you dare deny or retract one word you have uttered. You will be called upon later to make those same statements in a court of justice."

This ended the interview.

The only genuine Mrs. Mayo left on the 5 o'clock local for Princeton. We have not learned the sequel, but it is gradual and under the tutelage of Europe, any other regime being barbarism.

A COLORED VETERAN.

Wounded Trooper of the Tenth Cavalry
Arrives in the City.

Private Ben Franklin, a trooper of Co. A, Tenth U. S. colored cavalry, was a passenger on the 9:30 train Saturday. Franklin's home is at Knehl, Montana. He enlisted in the Tenth Cavalry at Chattanooga and was with his regiment in the furious first day's fight before Santiago where the colored troops behaved so gallantly.

While with his command in the advanced position of the American lines a shell from a Spanish gun burst near a group of soldiers belonging to the Tenth Cavalry. Private Franklin fell, with a fragrant wound in his left side below the heart. The flesh was torn by the fragment of a shell. He was sent with a number of other wounded soldiers to Governor's Island, New York, and treated in the hospital there until the 8th, when he was discharged cured and given a furlough of thirty days.

Franklin has a home living near this city named Wesley Parloeb and he came here to see his uncle.

DOCTORS AGREE.

Recent investigations by the authorities of several States have attracted attention to proprietary medicines, and there is a marked disposition to draw a sharp line of distinction between mysterious nostrums and worthy articles of scientific compound and known character.

"Many proprietary medicines," says a leading physician, "are the best possible prescriptions for the diseases which they are made to cure. It is certainly very reasonable to expect that chemists of world-wide reputation and unlimited resources ought to make compounds with exceptional skill, and it is manifestly to their interest to have their ingredients fresh and pure. Take, for example, Lippman's great remedy, popularly known as P. P. P. The formula is on every bottle. Every physician knows that the ingredients are the best possible remedies for purifying the blood, and the compound is a scientific one, which increases the efficiency of the whole. I sometimes prescribe special mixtures of Blood Poisoning, Scrofulous Affections, Catarrh, Eczema and other complaints arising from impure and weak blood, but I always feel safest in prescribing P. P. P., especially where I am not personally acquainted with the druggist. In prescribing P. P. P. (Lippman's Great Remedy), I know I am taking no chances."

When doctors feel such confidence in a standard remedy, it is no wonder that the general public insist upon having it.

P. P. P. is sold by all druggists. 25¢ a bottle, six bottles, $5.
