Oakton Man Tries Suicide

in Clinton Jail
Joe Kimbell Now
In A Hospital;
His Wife Is Dead

ACCUSED OF MURDER

Clinton, Ky. — (Special) Joe Kimbell, 50, of Oakton, was described as being in a critical condition at the Jackson Hospital here after he had attempted to commit suicide in the Hickman county jail several hours after the fatal shooting of his wife, Mrs. LaVerne Kimbell, Oakton postmistress.

County Attorney Jack Roberts said that Hickman County Jailor George Heit reported he found Kimbell in a cell during the early daylight hours with three knife wounds in his body. Roberts reported that the wounds were apparently self-inflicted with a pocket knife.

Kimbell was formally charged in a warrant of "wilful murder" Wednesday morning in connection with the shooting of his wife.

The county attorney said that Kimbell and Herman Clark, brother of Mrs. Kimbell, engaged in a gun fight at Mrs. Kimbell's home Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Kimbell was struck in the abdomen by a bullet and died two hours later, Roberts said.

Kimbell suffered a wound under the left arm. Both men were placed in jail Tuesday afternoon on charges of shooting with intent to kill and were placed under bonds of $3,000 each, the county attorney said.

Roberts reported that neighbors said that Kimbell had entered the post office at Oakton Tuesday afternoon and had gone with Mrs. Kimbell to her home. Clark, Roberts said he was told, came to the house and the gun fight ensued.

Examining trial for Kimbell will likely be delayed pending the outcome of the suicide attempt.

Funeral services for Mrs. Kimbell will be held Thursday afternoon at the Clinton Christian church with the Rev. John Porter, Humboldt, Tenn., officiating.

Survivors other than the husband, include two daughters, Mrs. Jack Allen, Harlan, and Mrs. Eugene Wrigley, of Ohio; the father, Virgil Clark; a brother, Norman Clark; and five sisters, Mrs. Wilbur Crowe, Mrs. Phillip Bussey, Mrs. Helen Asbell, Minnie and Ola Christine Clark.

Burial will be in the Columbus cemetery.

Fulton Countians Profit By Advice Of Swine Experts

John P. Wilson and his father-in-law, Lyle Shuck, of Fulton county, have proof that it pays to follow the sanitation plan with the farrowing of their sows. Two years ago, the fall and spring litters from eight sows yielded only 35 hogs for market, averaging 226 pounds at about 9 months, and bringing $1,460.

Following the recommendations of Farm Agent John B. Watts and swine specialists from the UK College of Agriculture and Home Economics, they next bred their sows to farrow soon after March 1.

Washed and moved to clean lots, the sows farrowed in houses on sloping ground. From the spring litter, they saved 44 pigs out of 51 farrowed. The hogs were sold at about 6 months of age when they averaged 210 pounds, and brought $1,800.

The chairman, Rep. J. Parnell Thomas (R-N.J.) following Taylor's appearance before his committee on Un-American Activities, told newsmen the government representative was Lowell Mellett, former adviser to the late President Roosevelt and Office of War Information official.

Mellett, now a columnist, said

Martin Named Campaign Aide

Mr. Martin, one of Western Kentucky's best-known attorneys, is serving his 26th year as commonwealth's attorney in the first judicial district. He was unopposed in his last four races for this office. He is a past president of the Kentucky Bar Association, and has held other important offices in the association.

Mr. Martin's appointment to head the Waterfield campaign was made during a meeting of Waterfield supporters in Mayfield.

In accepting the position Mr. Martin declared that he was supporting the candidate "because he is a neighbor, a West Kentuckian, well qualified for the office he seeks, and a tireless worker in the interests of the people of his state."

Parking Meters On Streets Owned By Hwy Dep't. OK

Frankfort, Ky., May 15—(AP)—The State Highway Department will approve installation of parking meters on state-maintained city streets, if they do not hamper traffic.

Assistant Attorney General Clem T. Kelly, counsel for the Department, stated its position today in a letter to Muhlenberg County Judge H. T. Harkberg of Greenville.

Kelly said the department can prescribe traffic regulations for city streets which it maintains as part of the state's arterial road system, and added:

"It is recognized, however, that local authorities understand local conditions best, and local regulations are approved by the Department of highways when such regulations do not interfere with the free flow of traffic."

The 72-year-old May, wartime House Military Committee chairman, is charged with taking $55,000 in bribes to do favors for the $78,000,000 Garsson munitions combine which held a total of 68 war contracts.

May himself is expected to be a witness tomorrow after Charles J. Margotti, counsel for the two Garsson brothers, makes an opening defense statement which was postponed when the trial began April 22.

Feeman is not expected to testify until later on, as the defense experts to take a minimum of three weeks more in a case already in its fourth week.

In granting the Freeman acquittal motion, Justice Schweinhaut turned down similar motions to free May and the Garsson brothers.

Schools May Get Collection Refund

Frankfort, Ky., May 15—(AP)—School boards which were charged four percent by sheriffs for collection of their taxes, are entitled to a three percent refund, the attorney general's office declared today.

The opinion, based on a recent Court of Appeals decision that sheriffs in office when the fee was raised by the 1946 General Assembly are not eligible for the increased rate, was given to Douglas Graham, secretary treasurer of Pembroke high school in Christian county.

So. Pacific To Leave State

Railroad To Incorporate
In Delaware; Decision
Caused By Heavy Taxes

Spring Station, Ky., May 15—(AP)—The Southern Pacific Company, which for many years paid approximately $100,000 a year in taxes to the state of Kentucky and Woodford county, plans to reincorporate in the state of Delaware.

The action was decided upon yesterday at a meeting of stockholders here. It had been recommended by the company's board of directors Feb. 20 after the firm paid Kentucky $40,000 in taxes for 1944-45-46.

Payment of the big tax bill followed a year-long hearing ordered by the Kentucky tax commission, which in 1945 assessed the company's non-operating holdings at more than $800,000,000 and declared they were taxable by Kentucky because the firm's corporate domicile was here.

Southern Pacific told its stockholders the reincorporation move was planned to solve the difficult and expensive tax problems which have arisen with the company's incorporation in Kentucky.

Previous to 1944 the company paid approximately $63,000 a year to Kentucky, mainly in franchise taxes reached by agreement, and $37,000 annually to Woodford county and the county's school district.

Charles L. Minor, New York, the company's general attorney, said the firm will pay total annual taxes to Delaware of $15,000. He said a hearing on the re-incorporation plan will be held by the Interstate Commerce Commission, and if approval is given, Southern Pacific will be operating as a Delaware company this fall. If the I. C. C. ruling on the transfer presents any complications, another shareholder meeting will be held here July 9.

Joseph F. Freeman, Acquitted, To Testify For May, Garssons

Washington, May 15—(AP)—Joseph F. Freeman, munitions agent acquitted at the May-Garsson bribery trial, will take the witness stand for the three other defendants.

Counsel for former Kentucky Congressman Andrew Jackson May and arms-manufacturers Henry and Murray Garsson disclosed this today.

Justice Henry A. Schweinhaut, in granting an acquittal motion for Freeman yesterday, ordered the trial recessed until tomorrow.

The 72-year-old May, wartime House Military Committee chairman, is charged with taking $55,000 in bribes to do favors for the $78,000,000 Garsson munitions combine which held a total of 68 war contracts.

May himself is expected to be a witness tomorrow after Charles J. Margotti, counsel for the two Garsson brothers, makes an opening defense statement which was postponed when the trial began April 22.

Feeman is not expected to testify until later on, as the defense experts to take a minimum of three weeks more in a case already in its fourth week.

In granting the Freeman acquittal motion, Justice Schweinhaut turned down similar motions to free May and the Garsson brothers.

Tobacco Growers To Push Exports Of All Type Leaf

Lexington, Ky., May 15—(AP)—Plans to promote the export of all types of tobacco were laid here yesterday with appointment by directors of the Burley Tobacco Growers Association of a seven-man committee to work with other organizations.

Consideration will be given to enlargement of Tobacco Associates, Inc., organization of the flue-cured tobacco growers, to include representatives of other types of tobacco.

Purpose of the program will be to have all work together to create an expanded world market for American tobacco.

The case of H. H. Drury, suing by his next friend, M. F. Glidwell, etc., vs. Wood Shaw and N. D. Curlin, was called late this morning.

Judge E. J. Stahr disqualified himself to occupy the bench during the trial, and Judge L. B. Alexander of Paducah, special judge appointed by the court of appeals, began hearing the case.

The trial, involving a great number of witnesses, was continued this afternoon at press time.

Minimum Wage Rate Increase Appears Unlikely This Year; Conferees Study Labor Bills

Washington, May 15—(AP)—Although President Truman's recommendation for a hike in the minimum wage drew bipartisan Congressional support today, chances appeared slim for any action this year.

The President urged that Congress increase the present minimum wage of 40 cents an hour to 65 cents.

Senator Taft (R-Ohio) told reporters he favors hiking the wage floor but isn't ready to set any figure. However, he said, there is only a bare possibility the Senate can act on such a bill this session.

Senator Pepper (D-Fla.), author of a bill to hike the minimum to 75 cents an hour, said other matters on the Senate calendar were so important as the wage matter while Senator Ellender (D-La.), who favors a hike to 55 cents now and 60 cents later, said there is no prospect for action at this session.

Meanwhile, House and Senate conferees assembled for their first try at compromising differences in the House and Senate labor bills.

Biggest obstacle—the various restrictions in the House bill but not in the Senate version. These include a ban on most industrywide bargaining and an authorization for employers to ask injunctions against some strikes and boycotts.

Action was due today on both the administration's Greek-Turkey and foreign relief programs.

A compromise version of legislation to grant $400,000,000 for economic and military aid to Greece and Turkey was slated for a vote in the House, where approval was foregone. The bill then goes to the Senate for final legislative action.

House and Senate conferees were to meet and see what can be done to iron out differences in the House and Senate bills to provide funds for relief in six countries of Europe and in China. Principal difference in the bills is that the Senate voted $350,000,000 as asked by the President while the House whittled the amount to $200,000,000.

The House Appropriation Committee's economy drive collided today with a bi-partisan demand for more funds for airports.

As the House took up amendments to the committee's $535,723,000 Justice-State-Commerce-Judiciary supply bill, GOP leaders conceded that Rep. Rooney (D-N.Y.) would succeed in his move to add $4,849,000 for air traffic control towers in 150 cities.

Democrats were ready next to try and restore $32,500,000 for federal-aid airport building throughout the country.

Republican lines held firmly yesterday in beating back all efforts to restore parts of a 22 percent cut recommended for the Federal Department. One unsuccessful move would have added $31,381,000 for the Department's cultural relations program.

House leaders hoped for a final vote on the bill during the day.

Admits Part In Lynching

Greenville Man Says He Was In Mob That Killed
Negro Willie Earl Feb. 17

Greenville, S. C., May 15—(AP)—Roosevelt Carlos Hurd, Sr., 45, accused executioner of a negro lynching victim, admitted in a statement today that he participated in the killing but denied he fired the fatal shotgun blast which ripped open the victim's head.

The purported statement was offered in evidence by the prosecution, in the trial of 31 defendants accused of murder and conspiracy to murder in connection with the slaying of negro Willie Earl last Feb. 17. Twenty-eight are Greenville cab drivers.

Hurd, who acknowledged a second-grade education, said he rode with the leaders who went to Pickens, S. C., with taxi cabs and took the negro from Pickens jail. He said the lynching victim was questioned about the fatal stabbing of a white taxi driver.

Relating how the mob stopped at the roadside, near a slaughter-pen, Hurd said one of the other defendants, Ernest Stokes, told the negro he knew he had confessed to the stabbing of T. W. Brown, and demanded to know who the negro's accomplice had been.

"You know we brought you out here to kill you," Hurd quoted Stokes as saying, "and you don't want to die, with a lie on your tongue." The negro, however, insisted he did not know.

Louisville, Ky., May 15—(AP)—Three Louisville patrolmen who claimed their characters were "impugned" by actress Dianna Barrymore and her husband, John R. Howard, filed suit in federal court here yesterday, asking damages totaling $60,000.

The suits came as an aftermath of an altercation on a downtown street corner early Sunday, in which the Howards were arrested and charged with assault and battery and disorderly conduct.

Attorney Thomas H. Young, filed the suits for Patrolmen Joseph Shepherd, Walter Zettwoch and Joseph Martin. Each is asking $20,000.

The suits charge the Howards used vile and vulgar language against the patrolmen and hit them without provocation and with much force as to do bodily harm.

Memphis, Tenn., May 15—(AP)—The kids got their chance to make like royalty in today's Cotton Carnival program.

With city schools closed, the streets were full of bashful pint-sized kings and little queens and duchesses slightly obscured by bubble-gum.

Tonight the youngsters gathered in Crump Stadium to eat hot dogs and cotton candy, squirm through a children's ballet, parade in their royal garb, and check their tickets for the lucky winner of a real pony. Later, the teen-agers will dance.

Springtime Is Fly Time

"When spring unlocks the flowers to paint the laughing soil," then also is loosed man's arch enemy, the housefly. He comes to us in April, as a rule, multiplies rapidly—one pair sometimes giving origin to millions by August. Don't let these come into existence. Keep the first pair from breeding. Diseases transmitted by the common housefly include typhoid fever, diarrhea, dysentery, anthrax, tuberculosis and cholera. To rid a community of this dangerous pest, everybody must declare war on him.

Wherever the housefly goes, disease and death will follow.

His presence is both a disgrace and a danger. He is a product of dirt and filth. Where there is no filth, there will be no flies.

Eternal war should be declared upon the little pest. Strike at the root of the evil. Clean up your own premises, inside and out, and keep them clean. Urge your neighbors to do likewise.

The housefly breeds in animal manure, kitchen offal and the like. Dispose of these materials in such a way that the housefly cannot propagate. Screen all doors and windows and insist that your grocer, butcher, baker and every one from whom you buy foodstuffs do the same.

Fly screens are recognized by the State Board of Health as one of the most efficient safeguards of health. They should be put in place early in the spring and kept continuously in use until the snow flies. With the house well screened and well sewered, and with the premises kept clean, the dangers from the spread of disease by flies that feed upon filth would be practically eliminated.

The surest way lies in removing, as far as possible, all breeding places of flies and in adequately screening all windows and doors, especially the doors and windows of the kitchen and dining room. Swat. The Fly! Kill him, for if you don't, he may kill you!

A Fishy Story

Yakima, Wash., (AP)—C. U. McDonald has found a new use for a can opener—catching fish.

McDonald reached Rimrock Lake and found he had left his trolling gear—those fishing spinners—at home. The can opener in the lunch basket caught his eye and he put a hook and spinner on it, attached it to his line and went fishing.

He caught a silver trout, one measuring 14 inches.

Cheerful Note

New York, (AP)—Charles J. F. Porter borrowed $312 from the National City Bank and along with the cash he was handed his note, marked "paid."

The puzzled borrower then learned that his loan included the billionth dollar loaned by the bank's 21-year-old personal loan department and writing off the loan was the bank's way of celebrating.

College Lucky To Have Mom Like This One

By Hal Boyle

COLUMBIA, Mo., May 15—(AP)—

Mrs. E. E. Tydings has run a college rooming and boarding house for almost a quarter century and still doesn't know whether she has made or lost money.

"I never kept books so I'm not sure whether I broke even," she said. She doesn't seem to worry about it either way.

It is an unlucky campus that doesn't have a woman like Mrs. Tydings. She has mothered a generation of University of Missouri students.

She and her dentist husband, Dr. Tydings, came here originally from Moberly, the home town of Gen. Omar Nelson Bradley. The move represented a personal sacrifice on the part of Dr. Tydings.

"He left a good practice so we could come here to educate our children," said Mrs. Tydings. There were three—Glad Tydings, Merry Tydings and Elsie Pearl. I often wanted to ask Dr. Tydings why he called his children Glad and Merry Tydings—the campus got a big kick out of the names—but somehow I never had the courage to enquire.

The family bought a large white frame house a short distance from the campus. There was more space than they needed, so Mrs. Tydings rented some of the rooms to students. She also boarded them.

Her original idea was to take out the family income while Dr.

Tydings was getting established. After that it just became a habit. More than 150 boys have lived in her home.

"In the main they were well behaved and pleasant," she recalled. "Generally they were serious in their studies and most have done well since. There was one"—she laughed—"whose ambition was to see every picture show that came to town. I don't believe he came to much."

A number of students worked their way through college helping Mrs. Tydings with her cleaning and cooking chores. When I was in school she served hearty country meals of the kind liked by harvest hands and college boys.

There also was always two or three pies, several quarts of milk, and other food left in the kitchen windowbox at night. Every midnight this supply was ravaged by hungry boarders and their friends. Several football players short of money managed to stay in school one year by nocturnal raids on the Tydings kitchen. They paid nothing.

I mentioned this to Dr. Tydings and he said, smiling: "It wasn't accidental that the food was put there."

He was a gentle, talented man tolerant of all but two things—the Republican party and roughhousing by the students in their rooms. He died last June and worked the day of his death. He had always worked.

Mrs. Tydings—grayer but still wearing the same soft smile—has gone on as before, making a home in her big white house for lonely boys who see in her kindness the image of their own mothers.

She is lonely herself now since the passing of her husband. "I miss him so," she said.

Relief For Germany

By Dewitt MacKenzie,
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

Some alleviation of Germany's grave crisis—which is affecting all Europe—may be foreshadowed in the statement by authoritative sources in Berlin that American and British occupation officials have agreed on all major points, barring one which is unnamed, for the economic merging of the two zones.

Such a merger cannot, of course, overcome the damage done by the failure of the Big Four to frame a German peace treaty in the recent Moscow conference. Every day which passes without economic unity of the four Allied zones of the Reich adds to the dangers hanging over a continent whose rehabilitation depends heavily on Germany's recovery.

The situation has become so bad that there is widespread malnutrition and in many areas actual hunger. An AP dispatch from Solingen, Germany, a couple of days ago stated that human figures as emaciated as those of Buchenwald inmates lie abed in the municipal hospital there—and in the hospitals of other Ruhr cities.

The head of the food and agricultural divisions of the American Military Government blamed "incompetent" German officials for the food crisis in the British and American zones, but he said that the bread outlook would improve by the end of May. However, the consensus of the experts is that there can be no sweeping general economic improvement until there is economic coordination of the Russian, French, British and American zones, and along with that the establishment of German government.

However, guilty Germany is far from being the only country which is in the midst of a fierce economic crisis, coupled with the inevitable food shortage. Italy, France, England and many other European nations are having a hard struggle.

But what many folks, even in Europe, don't realize is that many of their ills have their roots in the German collapse. They haven't yet grasped the basic fact that the Reich was the politico-economic heart of continental Europe, and that the body as a whole cannot recover until the heart is restored to health.

Apologies of this general position, the U. S. State Department the other day published a statement made by Herbert Hoover to the supreme council of the Allied and Associated Powers just after the end of the first World War. It was an analysis which might have been made for the present occasion. Hoover—then relief director—declared that the Western Hemisphere couldn't meet Europe's economic needs indefinitely.

"The populations of Europe," he said, "must be brought to a realization that productivity must be instantly increased. No economic policy will bring food to those stomachs or fuel to those hearths that does not secure the maximum production."

All-Star Teams Will Be Picked By Diamond Fans

Chicago, May 15—(AP)—Baseball fans, including those in Canada and Hawaii, next month will select the American and National League players, except pitchers, for this year's 14th all-star game at the Chicago Cubs' Wrigley Field, July 8.

The Chicago Tribune, which promoted the first all-star game in 1933 at Comiskey Park as a feature of the Chicago World's Fair, said balloting by the fans would be conducted by more than 117 newspapers and radio stations, beginning June 6 and continuing for three weeks.

Arch Ward, Tribune sports editor, said that radio and newspaper tabulations would be forwarded to the Tribune and standings would be published daily during the balloting. He said the ballots would come from throughout the nation, Canada, Hawaii and the overseas edition of Stars and Stripes.

Bailes Out Soaks; Doesn't Say Why

Hagerstown, Md.—(AP)—A well-known police officer just as four convicted drunks were led to their cells in default of fines and stopped the procession with the announcement: "I am bailing out all the drunks today." Magistrate Harry Snyder beckoned the spectator to his office for an explanation, but later Snyder would give neither the stranger's name or reason. But the man shelled out 40 dollars and 80 cents, walking away with the comment, "I just wanted to help the boys out."

These Thieves Wouldn't Be Wet Blanket At Party

Morton, Ill.—(AP)—Little is known about the cracksmen who looted the safe in the Beyer Brothers farm implement store, but it seems safe to say they weren't spoilsports. They took $825 in cash and checks, but didn't touch an envelope containing money the employees had been saving for a party.

Army Requests Right Address

Next-of-Kin of War Dead Asked to Make Certain They're Listed Properly

Colonel H. S. Evans, Commanding Officer, Columbus General Depot has announced that the War Department asked all survivors of men and women who died while serving in the Army to make certain that two Army agencies have their present addresses.

Many instances have been found where addresses of next-of-kin in the files of the Casualty Section, Adjutant General's Office, and Memorial Division, Office of the Quartermaster General, are incorrect. Letters sent to these next-of-kin by the two offices have been returned, marked "Moved; Left No Forwarding Address."

Next-of-kin who have moved since last notifying these offices of their addresses were asked to mail a postcard or letter to each office, stating in effect: "I am next-of-kin to (name) (grade) (serial number). My former address was (street, city, state). My present address is (street, city, state)."

The communications should be mailed to:
(1) The War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Attention: Personnel Actions Branch, Casualty Section, The Pentagon, Washington 25, D. C.; and
(2) Memorial Division, Office of The Quartermaster General, Washington 25, D. C.

When, some two thousand years ago, Publius Syrus said a rolling stone gathers no moss, there must have been too many habitual travelers in ancient Rome. Or maybe the empire of the Caesars was cursed with an excess of hoboes and a shortage of people who stayed home and worked and saved money. Otherwise Publius might have added that rolling with limitations afforded considerable intellectual polish.

Your reporter brushed up on a good many things during a recent 2,000-mile ramble through Tennessee, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana, and one of them was agriculture in the Deep South as compared with farming in Kentucky. As I said in last week's article, the South is far ahead of us in timber conservation. But in growing crops and raising livestock we seem to be 100 per cent ahead of those states, on the average, excepting Tennessee.

While terracing and contour plowing are old in the Deep South, liming the soil and using legumes are noticeable only in comparatively few localities. Sharecroppers continue to grow cotton on land that has been getting thinner and thinner for more than half a century, while in Kentucky the majority of farmers are rebuilding the fertility of their soil and improving and increasing their output of meat on the hoof. Down there first-rate farming is spotty, whereas in Kentucky agriculture is improving steadily in at least 100 of the 120 counties.

Our own agricultural progress in the last dozen years has been due largely to the educational work of the Experiment Station at Lexington—to Dean Thomas Cooper and his staff of field men, county agents and home demonstration agents.

I don't mean that the revelations and recommendations in the Committee for Kentucky's report on agriculture are exaggerated. I vouch for everything the report contains, but at the same time it is a pleasure to say the Kentucky farmers are really on the march.

Wall Street Report

New York, May 15—(AP)—Selected stocks shifted to recovery territory in today's market although many leaders stumbled to new lows for the year or longer.

Short covering by professionals and a little buying elsewhere was based on the idea that the list may have been oversold and was due for at least an intermediate technical revival.

Dealings slowed after a moderately active start and fractional advances predominated near midday.

Ahead most of the time were U. S. Steel, Republic Steel, General Motors, Chrysler, U. S. Rubber, Goodrich, Montgomery Ward, Sears Roebuck, Phelps Dodge, American Can, Schenley, American Tobacco, "B," Standard Oil (N. J.), Texas Co., Pepsi-Cola, Southern Pacific and Southern Railway. Occasional losers included Bethlehem, Consolidated Edison, Santa Fe, Pennsylvania Railroad, Norfolk & Western, Baltimore & Ohio, American Woolen and Budd Co.

Bonds were uneven and cotton futures higher.

Lewis Says He'll Try For Contract

Washington, May 15—(AP)—John L. Lewis agreed today to try to negotiate a wage contract with operators representing about 75 percent of the nation's soft coal production.

The Southern Coal Producers Association, which refused to go along on industry-wide bargaining with Lewis' United Mine Workers, asked for separate negotiations.

Lewis replied that he wanted a chance to discuss the Southern's request with his policy committee before giving an answer.

Army's Advantage Over Navy Gone

Annapolis, Md.—(AP)—It's the spirit of the thing, the city council clearly implied in taking steps to cancel an Army advantage over the Navy in this home of the U. S. Naval Academy. West Point cadets, here on exchange visits with the sister service school, have found local taverns open to them—a privilege long denied the Midshipmen. Playing no favorites, the city fathers ordered preparation of an ordinance prohibiting the sale of alcoholic beverages to the cadets.

Food Poisoning Hits State Whiskey Workers

Louisville, Ky., May 15—(AP)—Twenty-nine employees of the National Distillers Products Corporation here were stricken yesterday with food poisoning after eating lunch at the firm's cafeteria. All except one of the victims were hospitalized.

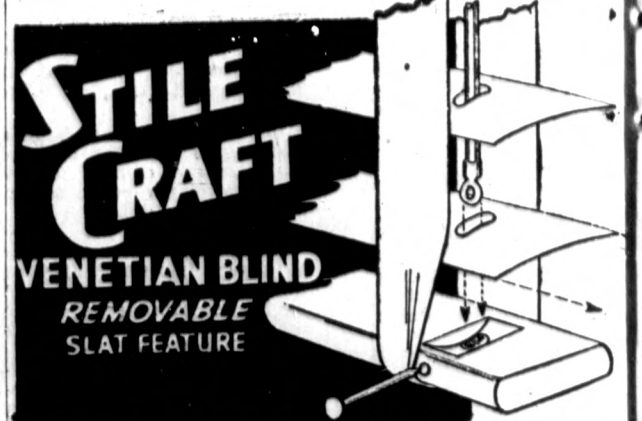

Dr. Wilbur Helms, company physician, said he had tentatively traced cause of the poisoning to chicken a la king, one of the featured items on the noon menu at the cafeteria.

In Kentucky

Henderson—Found guilty in Henderson circuit court yesterday on a voluntary manslaughter charge, Dr. George W. Campbell, 62, a Flora, Ill., physician, was sentenced to three years in the penitentiary. He was tried in connection with the deaths of George W. Edwards, His son Joseph, 10, and friend, George Thurman, 14, who were killed in a wreck on a Henderson county highway July 15, 1946.

Nicholasville—James B. Ritchie, 19, was held to the Jessamine grand jury without bond yesterday, charged with criminally assaulting an 11-year-old Lexington girl.

Louisville—The board of education has approved a new salary schedule for public school teachers which will increase their pay approximately $60 annually. City school superintendent Omer Carmichael said last night the school board will ask the board of aldermen next fall to increase school taxes to support the raises plus "appropriate increases" for other employees.

Let's Talk Sense About Food Prices

In all the talk about lower prices, don't forget this:

Day in and day out, no retailer does a better job of keeping prices down than your food merchant. No food merchant does a better job than A&P.

We would like you to understand two important things about A&P's price situation:

Our net profit during the past five years has averaged only about 1 cent on each dollar of sales. If we were to operate our business without any profit at all, this 1 cent would amount to a saving of less than 4 cents a day on the entire food bill of the average American family.

We sincerely believe that A&P has the lowest cost of distribution of any retail business in the world. When you spend $1.00 in an A&P store, you get 86 cents worth of food and only about 14 cents goes to meet all expenses—wages, taxes, rent, light, heat and the hundreds of other expenses incidental to the stocking and operating of a modern food store—including our very small profit.

Obviously, there is little "fat" in such a price structure. Our operating costs and profits are already cut close to the bone.

Merchants generally have reduced prices on many items on which they were overstocked. In recent weeks we have reduced prices on hundreds of such items. That is common merchandising practice and has no relation to a general or permanent price reduction.

While many food prices have already been lowered we must recognize that no substantial general reduction in retail food prices is possible until the cost of food to the retailer is reduced.

As any housewife knows, A&P's business has been built on the policy of selling quality food at the lowest practical price every day.

We pledge to our customers strict adherence to that policy. We will continue to lower our prices as fast as reductions in costs to us and economies in our operations permit.

Chicks Avenue Loss To Cairo With 7-1 Win

Lynch Pitches Five-Hit Game For The Winners

SERIES ENDS TONIGHT

The tables were turned at Fairfield Park last night when the Egyptians 7-1 avenging their 13-9 loss to the same team Tuesday night.
Whitley Lynch, winning pitcher, gave up only five hits and three walks while striking out five Cairo batters. The Chicks hit Sweet seven times and were aided by three Cairo fielding bumbles. Fulton played errorless ball for the first time in a home game this year.

The final tilt in the Fulton-Cairo series will be played here tonight, and the Chicks go to Mayfield tomorrow night for the first of three games with the Clothiers during the week-end.

Gray and Propst started the scoring for Fulton in the first inning last night. Tommy Buck got the first and only Chick hit in the first. Dusty Rhodes, first man up in the second, doubled, and came in on Buck's single to put the home team in front 3-0.

Neither team was able to score until the sixth, when Currier, Egyptian centerfielder, walked and came home on Hahn's triple.

Lynch, who reached first on a fielder's choice, and Buck and Gray, who hit safely, made runs for Fulton in the seventh. Peterson tripled for Fulton in the eighth and came home on an error by the Cairo first-sacker, Britt, to close the scoring.

Buck was the only player on either team who had a perfect night with the stick, hitting four times in four trips.
