1947 Graduation Exercises Held Thursday Night

CONVICTS SPEAK

Missouri\'s Harmon, Ohio\'s Cunningham, and several prominent figures in the state\'s educational system were among those present at the South Fulton High School graduation exercises in the evening. The Rev. J. B. Cunningham, pastor of the South Fulton church, delivered the invocation.

South Fulton, Kentucky May 16 — Assailant unseen, ruthless and unmerciful, poured a volley of bullets into a group of night workers who were leaving the night shift at the Southern Coal and Coke Company last night, killing two men and wounding four others.

Angry Negro Kills Two Men in Washington

Sword Had Been Denied Right To Practice Law

THREE ARE WOUNDED

Washington, May 16—A Negro, armed with a sword, killed two white men and wounded four others outside his home last night.

Decision On Summer Coal Strike May Lie In Lewis, Onerer House

Following the invocation by Principal Ed Eller, with a short talk by Mr. Flemming, the singing group appeared with a song. Miss Irma Hamilton introduced Susie Lee Clements, Dorthae Margaret Burcham, Mary Beth Jo Williams, Marion E. Yates, and Bettie Joe Williams, who received awards.

Fires

FBI agents today arrested a Negro for the murder of two white men in Washington, who were shot to death last night.
