Music Program Presented By FHS Students Orchestra, Band, Chorus Heard; Exhibits Shown

LARGE CROWD THERE

Before a large and appreciative audience, the three high school's music departments, under the direction of W. H. Hardman and W. W. Warren, presented a delightful program, performed as Carl Linderman as part of the program was the pageant, "The Time O' the Year," with a scene of a blog, "The Time O' the Year,"

The dramatic presentation, augmented by costume, was well received by the audience.

The German Black Markets

By Dewitt Mac Douglas.

ABC News Service

On a recent visit to Berlin, Dewitt Mac Douglas, correspondent of ABC News Service, visited a number of markets which are well known to the Americans. He found that the Germans are doing everything they can to keep their money out of circulation. They are willing to make a great sacrifice to see that their black markets are not used.

In the first place, the Germans are doing everything they can to keep their money out of circulation. They are willing to make a great sacrifice to see that their black markets are not used.

The American Government is doing everything it can to keep their money out of circulation. They are willing to make a great sacrifice to see that their black markets are not used.

When he awoke, his wallet and companion had been wrung dry. He knew that there was nothing left for him but to make his way back to the city alone.

They cannot be allowed to defy the authorities. The chief organizer of the black market is doing everything he can to keep his money out of circulation. They are willing to make a great sacrifice to see that their black markets are not used.
