Mrs. Truman is “Better”: Son Near Her

President Says He’s Encouraged by Last Report

Margaret Coming

President Truman received his first family visit since returning to the White House late yesterday afternoon. The President told reporters that his son, Phillip, 20, had telephoned his mother, Margaret, 70, and said that she was well. He also said that he, his wife, Bess, 50, and their daughter, 17-year-old Margaret, were well.

The President had said earlier that he was not sure how his mother was, but that she was making progress. He said that he had not seen her since she left the hospital on May 16, after a heart attack. She was treated for a heart attack in December and January. She was also treated for a heart attack in her home in Independence, Mo., in January 1946.

The President said that he had talked to his mother since she left the hospital and that she was in good spirits. He said that he was happy to hear that she was getting better.
