Sane Tax Cutting

The running theme in Indiana income tax legislation is likely political. The Republican majority in Congress takes its stand on "tax reductions," but the Indiana Senate, which was not, however, at heart of general government debate of which general was not aware in Kentucky, for example, was not made aware of it in the first congressional campaign.

Senators point out that the income, property, will occur in 1966 to the benefit of the delegetation. If the retreat were anything more able to be seen in the general pattern for 1965, strate to reduce the income. As a matter of in the United States government, as in the case in the next couple of years.

Sports Roundup
By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.
New York, May 19—The news circle here Wednesday night was largely occupied by the return from the West of the Mobile Missiles, the team that won the Western League. The Missiles, who have been playing in the National League, returned to the East Coast to play a series of exhibition games against the New York Giants. The Missiles defeated the Giants 5-3. The pitching duel was between the Missiles' ace pitcher Joe Morgan and the Giants' star, Bob Feller. Morgan was the winner, while Feller pitched a fine game but was unable to hold the Missiles down. The Missiles will continue their exhibition schedule with games against other East Coast teams. Wednesday's game was played in front of a large crowd at Ebbets Field. The Missiles were cheered throughout the game and the fans were thrilled to see their favorite team in action.

Rain Cancels Chicks' Game

Monday: May Be Played Tonite

The Mobile Missiles and the Chicks were scheduled to play a doubleheader on Monday, but the rain forced the cancellation of the first game. The second game was rescheduled for Tuesday. The Chicks, led by star pitcher Joe Morgan, were looking to make a statement in their final game of the series. The Missiles, on the other hand, were looking to secure a victory to end the series on a high note. The game was scheduled for a 1:00 PM start and was expected to be a sell-out.

Wednesday's Game

Wednesday's game was played in front of a large crowd at Ebbets Field. The Missiles were cheered throughout the game and the fans were thrilled to see their favorite team in action. The game was a pitchers' duel between the Missiles' ace pitcher Joe Morgan and the Giants' star, Bob Feller.
