Strange Bedfellows

We are all familiar with the trite but true saying, "Politics makes strange bedfellows." We found a striking example of this recently on the opening night of the Kitty League season at Fulton.

We went down to see the ball game, and to say "howdy" to another Transylvania College man, "Happy" Chandler. The former U. S. Senator and Governor was there in his official capacity of baseball commissioner for the season's opener. That fellow really loves baseball, in fact all sports.

We couldn't resist joshing "Happy" about the support he is said to be giving Earle Clements in the current race for Governor. For there is an exceedingly strange angle in this race; "Happy" is now lined up right alongside his ancient arch-enemy, John Y. Brown. "Happy" or any other politician can forgive factional opponents, but Chandler has for several years given John Y. precedence over Judas Iscariot and even "Old Nick" himself. To top it all, even the babes in Kentucky politics know that no two politicians in the state are closer, personally and politically, than Earle Clements and John Y. Brown. It is said that neither has made any sort of important political move in years without first consulting the other, and it is well known that they confer and consult regularly on political matters.

So, at Fulton the other night, we asked "Happy" if the more or less "undercover" support he is giving Clements at this time meant he was "crawling in bed" with John Y. Brown. And here are the exact words of "Happy's" reply: "As far as I am concerned, John Y. can crawl under the bed."

Surely "Happy" Chandler isn't naive enough not to know that, if Clements should be nominated and elected, the hand of John Y. Brown would in all probability be the strongest around the Governor's chair. How Chandler must hate Waterfield, to be able to swallow John Y. in supporting Clements! Truly, this is indeed "an unholy alliance" that does not bode well for the people of our Commonwealth. (Hickman County Gazette).

Henry To The Rescue

Henry Wallace has come to the rescue again. Yessir, this time he's told us how to avoid a depression.

It's simple, says Henry. All you have to do is reduce prices 10 per cent, raise wages, and keep taxes high for those who can afford to pay.

Sounds mighty good, doesn't it? If it would work, everyone could have his cake and eat it, too. Unfortunately, it has been demonstrated to the satisfaction of everyone except Mr. Wallace that prices and wages go hand in hand—when one goes up, the other is not far behind.

Still, it's a lovely theory Mr. Wallace advanced. Maybe he really is thinking about running for president in 1948.

SUB-DISTRICT LEAGUE MEETS

Mt. Pleasant as host, reported a fine Youth Fellowship meeting Monday night. Approximately 70 members were in attendance from Paducah, Wickliffe, Bardwell, Arlington, Clinton, Mt. Vernon, Salem, and Mt. Pleasant with five ministers present.

The following young people from Salem and Mt. Pleasant were on the program: Misses Lola Stroud, Dot Wilson, Betty Jane Armbruster, Carolyn Rogers, Shirley Scott, Judith Ann Bone, Joan Burkett, and Maurine Eberhardt, Mr. and Mrs. George Burkett, Autis Mullins, Dana Stroud, Robert Burkett, Malvon Stroud, Joe House and Sonny Armbruster.

Philip Porter, Jr., is District president and Betty Lou Green, Clinton is Sec-treas.

The host church served sandwiches and drinks.

Mrs. L. W. McClure is taking her daughter Alpha Mae to the Cripple Children Clinic at Paducah today. Alpha Mae has been having trouble with one of her legs for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Kell of Pontiac, Mich., and brother, Otis Kell of Berkeley, Mich., arrived Monday for a ten day visit. The latter is house guest of his brother Pete Kell and family and Dick and wife are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Allen.

Lee Vaughan of Charleston, Mo., spent Monday night with N. C. Jackson.

Mrs. Nannie Jones of Clinton spent Tuesday night with Mrs. Randy and Docie Jones. Aunt Nannie said she was a "little riled up" at me for giving her age at 92 last week (oldest mother at Salem) when she was only "90 young" and not near ready for that half-bent posture with walking cane. She still reminds me that she made 2 or 3 trips to Memphis to take care of me when I was seeing a specialist ten years ago. However, she will be 91 this September. Guess it's time to apologize for I made a bigger blunder in reporting the youngest mother at Mt. Pleasant. Unintentionally, I used the name of Mrs. Wilma Inman, wife of Clifford Jr., when it was really Mrs. Wanda Lock, wife of Elmo Lock who received the flower corsage for the youngest mother. Why I made a break I don't know for the Innans are a young married couple with no children. All are good friends and good sports as they laughed it off. And that reminds me of an item several years ago when I gave a childless couple, Arnold and Balah Parrott of Detroit "two children" (in print) and none of us ever knew what became of them!

L. K. Stroud had a fine horse to drop dead at the plow Sat. Chester Willey lost a mule Monday afternoon and Lloyd Wilson had a good mare to die last night.

The Chicks Introducing

Jack M. Williams, Louisville, pitched and won his first game for the Chicks against Clarksville here this week. The new moundman is 6 ft. 2 in. tall, weighs 175, and is 25 years old. He came to Fulton from Gadsden, Ala.

His family was originally from Bardwell. Jack played with the Washington, Pa., club (near Pittsburgh) in the Pennsylvania State Association in 1941 before entering the army. He served for four and one-half years as first sergeant in the Engineers, and played some baseball while in uniform.

Mrs. Williams, known to her friends as "Mike" and professionally as "Lynn" started her career as a vocalist in Pittsburgh, singing for private banquets, business clubs and with a "cocktail unit." Later she made a tour of midwestern states with the "Modernaires." She entered the WAVES in 1942, and was stationed at the Naval Air Technical Training Center, Millington, Tenn., as Machinist's Mate first class. She often sang with Clyde McCoy's orchestra, also stationed at Millington.

Her home is in Washington, Pa., and it was there that she met her husband in 1941. They were married in Memphis in 1943. Mr. Williams was stationed at Camp Tyson, near Paris, Tenn., at that time.

He was discharged by the army in January, 1946, and she returned to civilian life in June, 1943.

Tilghman Wins In Track Meet

Murray High Second and Fulton In Third Place In Regional Competition

By The Associated Press

Athletes were qualified yesterday in regional competition for the state track and field meet of the Kentucky high school athletic conference in Lexington June 4.

The regional meet at Murray was won by Paducah's Tilghman high, which scored 89 points. Murray high was second with 39½ points and Fulton third with 10½.

Henry Clay of Lexington captured the Central Kentucky regional meet as seven records were broken and two were tied.

Henry Clay racked up 50 points to 34½ for its nearest rival LaFayette high, also of Lexington.

In Louisville, Male high defended its regional title by tallying 54 2-3 points. St. Xavier was second with 42 1-6 and DuPont Manual third with 38 5-6.

Barrett high of Henderson won the regional there by amassing 92½ points. Providence was second with 38½ and Corydon third with nine.

At the Murray meet, Aubrey Glasco was fourth in shot put; Burns Davis third in pole vault; Jimmy James fourth in 100-yard dash and 220-yard dash; Eugene Pigue third in 220; Jimmy Ruddle fourth in mile run; Jimmy James, Hunter White-sell, Burns Davis and Eugene Pigue second in one-half mile relay; and the Fulton mile relay team finished fourth.

Since no Fulton contestants won a first or second, none is eligible for state competition.

Ott's Critics Are Silenced By His Success

Mize Home Runs Help Last Year's Cellar Team Win

MUNGER COMES BACK

Manager Mel Ott's critics are speechless these days as his New York Giants career along at the top of the National League on the booming home runs smashes of Big Johnny Mize.

By and large the current Giants are the same fellows who finished in the league cellar last September. Outside of rookie Bob Thomson in center field, Clint Hartung, now of the pitching staff, and Larry Jansen, the same old names show in the box scores.

Mize continues to wear out the Boston Braves pitchers who have been victimized by five of his 11 home run blasts. St. John's became the latest victim when he struck for a grand slam homer by Mize during a six-run Giants uprising in yesterday's 8-1 Giant romp.

George (Red) Munger gave St. Louis Cardinal Manager Eddie Dyer a pleasant evening when he shut out Pittsburgh with six hits, 2-0, his first win since April 16.

Brooklyn eased out a 5-4 night game edge over Philadelphia on a streak of wildness by Ben Chapman's pitchers. The Dodgers scored twice in the seventh without a hit. Dutch Leonard, whose five-game win streak was broken, walked one man and then threw left on two attempted sacrifice bunts to load the bases. Reliefers Ken Heintzelman and Tommy Hughes each walked a man, forcing in the tying and winning runs. Rex Barney earned his first decision on relief.

Sports Roundup

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.

New York, May 24.—(AP)—Latest hot tip to come out of Mississippi is that the projected brother act of Shorty McWilliams and his kid quarterback brother, "Little Shorty" won't perform at Mississippi State next Fall. The story is that Little Shorty, who is quite a passer, will turn up at Louisiana State instead. If that happens, citizens of Jackson, Miss., likely will call for help from that gal who throws chocolate pies—Jimmy Grippo.

Joe Hamilton, former P. G. A. golf champion: "When Nelson told me he was going to quit at Augusta, I told him: 'Byron, don't hang up that swing. Just let me use it for a couple of years and then I'll join you on the ranch.'"

SPORTSPOURRI

Ken Doherty, Michigan track coach, figures that 19-year-old Herb Barten will run the half under 1:52 and the mile under 4:10 within the next year. He wants only someone to push him, says Ken. . . The Kent (Conn.) school crew will be making its seventh trip to the English Henley Regatta in 20 years next month. It has won the famed Thames Challenge cup twice . . . believe it or not, Oklahoma's track athletes spent Friday morning before the Big Six meet in the Nebraska U. Library, studying for final exams.

They'll never complain about Sal Yvars, Jersey City catcher, having a weak arm . . . in a throwing contest at Manchester, N. H., last Summer, Sal stood about 376 feet from the plate, and heaved the ball into the dugout . . . then he asked for another chance because he had been "off balance" and on the next try he almost cleared the grandstand, the ball dropping into the last row of seats.

Hoppers Beat Chicks Again

Win 11-4 At Hoptown In Second Series Game; Play There Again Tonight

Fulton's luckless Chicks took another walloping from the Hopkinsville Hoppers there last night, 11 to 4, in the second contest of a three-game series.

They play the Hoppers again tonight, tangle with Clarksville Sunday and Monday, and open another series with the Hoppers here Tuesday night, May 27.

The Chicks now have a .500 average in 18 games, while Hoptown has won eight and lost nine. Mayfield's Clothiers are out in front with 11 wins and only five losses, followed by Owensboro and Madisonville.

The Hoppers took a five-run lead over the Chicks in the first and were never headed, scoring one more in the third, two in the sixth and three in the seventh.

The Chicks got one in the third and sixth and two in the ninth.

Both teams got the same number of hits as in Thursday night's game, Fulton 8 and Hoptown 14. Atchley pitched the Hoppers to victory, and Eldridge and Huck were on the hill for Fulton.

Elsewhere in the Kitty League last night, Mayfield beat the second place Oilers at Owensboro by 10-5. The winners put on a five-run attack in the eighth that broke a 5-5 tie.

The Egyptians, aided by homers by Gallo and Bridges, new additions to the Cairo squad, romped over Madisonville 11-4 at Cairo.

The Union City Greyhounds went scoreless until the fifth inning in their game with third runless job in four victories.

What We Believe

Charles L. Houser

"Whom shall we regard as the HEAD of the church?" is a question that every church member should settle in his own mind. We believe that Christ is (still is) the head of His church.

The "Sermon on the Mount" was so impressive, because Christ spoke with authority (Matt. 7:28-29). At His transfiguration, God Almighty recognized Him as His Son and announced the importance of hearing Him (Matt. 17:1-5). In one of His great sermons, Peter quoted Moses' prophecy concerning Christ (Deut. 18:18, 19), and warned that those who refused to hear Him (Christ) would be destroyed (Acts 3:22, 23). After His resurrection and just before His ascension, Jesus said, "All power (authority R. V.) is given unto me in heaven and in earth. Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: (Matt. 28:18-20). Note two things in this statement: First, Jesus Christ claims "ALL authority in HEAVEN and in EARTH;" and then he charged the disciples to teach the people to observe ALL THINGS whatsoever He had taught them. This certainly shows that the (the apostles') authority consisted of teaching only those things that Christ had taught them. Not one statement in the Bible indicates that Christ is merely "a head," as the head of the church. He was, and He will be the head of His church, even to the end of time.

Long after Christ had returned to Heaven, the inspired apostle Paul declared that Christ "is the head of the church: God (Christ's) feet, and gave Him to be HEAD over all things, to the church" (Eph. 1:22). "For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the HEAD of the church; and He is the Saviour of the body" (Eph. 5:22). "But," says one, "how can He be the head of the church, since He is no longer on earth?" With regard to ancient Abel, Heb. 11:4 says, "He being dead yet speaketh." If you can understand how Abel though dead still speaks, you ought to be able to see, how Christ can be the head of His church, even though He be in heaven. Our Lord once exercised His authority by His spoken word, but now He does this through His written word. From His throne in heaven Christ reigns as King of kings and Lord of lords (1 Tim. 6:13-16), and "He must reign, till He hath put all enemies under His feet. The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death" (1 Cor. 15:25, 26). Hence, Christ will continue to be the head of His church until the general resurrection (Jh. 5:28, 29).

In view of the abundant divine evidence which clearly states that Christ IS NOW the head of His church, how absurd it is for anyone else to claim this office.
