Edward Is Frozen Out
By Dorothy Wallace

Dorothy Quade, 42-year-old, single, never married, mother of five, is now a ward of the state. She is ailing through terminal cancer. But her illness is not the only condition that has caused her to be a ward of the state. She is also a ward of the state because she has no means of support. She was admitted to the state hospital last week with a diagnosis of cancer. She has been there for two months, and her condition is rapidly deteriorating.

Edward, who was married to Dorothy, died last month. He was a construction worker and had a steady job. But he was in poor health and had to be hospitalized several times. He died of a heart attack.

Edward and Dorothy were married for 10 years. They had five children. The eldest is 18 years old. Edward had been married previously, but the marriage ended in divorce. Dorothy had been married once before, but that marriage also ended in divorce.

Edward and Dorothy were members of the local Baptist church. They were active in the church, and Dorothy taught Sunday school. Edward was a deacon.

Edward and Dorothy lived in a small house on the outskirts of town. They were not wealthy, but they were content. They had each other, and they had their children. They were a happy family.

Edward's death was a shock to Dorothy. She was devastated. She could not believe that he was gone. She was left alone with five children to raise. She did not know what to do.

The family of Edward and Dorothy was visited by social workers from the state welfare department. They offered to help Dorothy and the children. They promised to find them a place to live and to provide for their basic needs.

Dorothy was grateful for the help. She did not know what she would have done without it. She was grateful to the state for taking care of her and her children.

But Dorothy knew that she would never be able to provide for her children on her own. She did not have the means to support them. She did not have a job. She did not have a husband.

Dorothy knew that she would have to rely on the state for support. She knew that she would have to give up her home and her children to the state. She knew that she would have to live in a state hospital.

Dorothy was afraid. She was scared. She did not want to be a ward of the state. She did not want to be in a state hospital.

But Dorothy knew that she had no choice. She knew that she had to accept the help of the state. She knew that she had to give up her home and her children.

Dorothy was a strong woman. She was determined. She was going to make the best of her situation. She was going to make the best of her life.

Dorothy was a fighter. She was going to fight for her children. She was going to fight for her home.

Dorothy was going to fight for her life.
