Leaf Problems, Medical Care To Be Discussed

TO BE IN LOUISVILLE

Tobacco problems, rural medical care needs and many other things affecting farm welfare in Kentucky will get a thorough round of discussion at four state-wide Farm Bureau meetings to be held the week of June 23 in Louisville, announces L. F. Allen, Bowling Green, president.

Heading the list is the Federation's quarterly board meeting June 24. The major item is the study of the organization's policy statement and resolutions to determine paramount legislative issues.

Farm Bureau Tobacco Committee will meet June 27 to study tobacco problems and make recommendations to the board. The Rural Medical Care Committee meets June 23 to study and make recommendations on health problems. The state staff meets June 23 to plan procedure in general, and district meetings of county officers in particular.

Members of the Board of Directors and their counties are: Roscoe Stone, Fulton; M. W. Thomas, Trigg; Richard Cooke, Ballard; L. F. Allen, Warren; C. A. Dempsey, Henderson; W. W. ## In Kentucky

Paducah—The TVA has announced it is ready to begin work on a vehicular bridge over Kentucky Dam, including a separate bridge over the lock and paving of the earth section between the spillway and the lock. The cost has been estimated at $1,153,000.

Lexington—Nine staff members who walked off the job ahead of closing time have been replaced at the University of Kentucky's radio station, E. G. Sulzer, head of the U. K. radio arts department, reported. He said one of the station's engineers was dismissed for insubordination and the others quit in sympathy. The students said they quit "because of unpleasant conditions under which they were expected to work."

Louisville—U. S. Rep., Thurston B. Morton, here for a Memorial Day address, told newsmen that he is going to be neutral in the race for the Republican nomination for Governor. Morton some weeks ago announced his candidacy but later withdrew.

Bowling Green—The Western Kentucky Teachers College Alumni Association has elected Joe Howard president. An instructor at Louisville's Dupont Manual high school, Howard succeeds Kelly Thompson, assistant to Dr. Paul L. Garrett, president of Western Kentucky.

Lancaster—J. R. Haselden, Lancaster, announced his candidacy for Democratic nomination in the 46th state House of Representatives District, composed of Garrard and Boyle counties.

Mattie Lou Pollard, 14-year-old Thomaston, Ga., one-room school pupil, smiles broadly after winning the 26th annual National Spelling Bee at Washington, D. C. It was her second try. She holds her identification number, which she said brought her luck.

New Car Output At 1.5 Million

Nation's Auto Makers Report On Five Months

Detroit, May 31—(AP)—The nation's automobile industry wound up the first five months of 1947 with an indicated total output of slightly above 1,415,000 passenger automobiles.

But for the Memorial Day holiday that limited all car makers to four days' operation the total would have been at least 15,000 units higher.

The week which accounted for approximately 50,000 passenger vehicles, saw Buick produce the 100,000th car since Jan. 1, while Chevrolet, the industry's heaviest producer now and during most of the pre-war decade, ran its total for the year to date to about 280,000 cars; Ford's Ford division neared the 245,000 passenger car level and Plymouth reached approximately 152,000. The continuing shortage of sheet steel needed for car bodies held passenger automobile output down again this week, and according to industry authorities will continue to hamper production on programs for another month or more.

Italian Premier Has No Socialists, Reds In Cabinet

Rome, May 31—(AP)—Premier Alcide De Gasperi announced today the membership of his fourth cabinet—the first since the liberation to contain no Communists or Socialists. It is composed of five independents and 11 members of De Gasperi's moderate Christian Democratic party.

Luigi Einaudi, governor of the Bank of Italy and a political independent, was named vice premier and minister of the budget, a new post in which his responsibility will be to balance Italy's finances.

Carlo Sforza, 63-year-old diplomat-author and also independent, was reappointed foreign minister.

Lewis, Coal Operators End Negotiations Today; Government Scheduled To Leave Pits In Month

Washington, May 31—(AP)—Negotiations between John L. Lewis and soft coal operators of the north and west were suspended indefinitely today without explanation.

Lewis had nothing to tell reporters as he led his delegation from a 35-minute wage contract conference with the operators representing 75 percent of the bituminous industry. He referred questions to Ezra Van Horn, Ohio operator representative and chairman of the joint conference.

Van Horn, sober faced, said: "This meeting was adjourned by joint assent." He refused to comment further or explain the breakup of negotiations.

The breakdown of negotiations comes just a month before the government is scheduled to return the mines to the owners. Both sides have been non-committal as to progress of the contract talks.

Nevertheless, a report got out that the Lewis wage increase demand equals 35 cents an hour for the 400,000 soft coal miners. According to persons in touch with the negotiators, this is made up of a combination of shorter hours, a boost in the $1.18 1-2 hourly pay rate and other benefits.

There was no indication as to what the next move will be to get the operators together with Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, and other union representatives.

The negotiations began two weeks ago at the request of Navy Capt. N. H. Collisson, coal mines administrator for the government, in an effort to have a contract signed before the mines are returned to the owners for operation beginning July 1.

The coal miners traditionally do not work without a contract and an agreement on wages and working conditions would forestall possibility of a work stoppage in mid-year.

Truman Faces Tax Cut, Labor Bill Decision

Had Opposed Both Measures Before Passage

SIGNS AND BILL

Washington, May 31—(AP)—President Truman must make up his mind about two of the most difficult problems of his Presidency so far.

Should he try to kill the new tax-cut and labor bills with a veto or let one or both become law?

He's been opposed to both. But the Republicans in Congress, with the help of some Democrats, have rammed them through.

The decisions he makes will affect the whole country: everyone who pays taxes, labor unions, employers, and the general public.

So his decisions seem bound to have an effect on the 1948 Presidential elections when Mr. Truman's Democrats line up against the Republicans.

Congress, after months of work, is just finishing up both bills. Mr. Truman probably will receive them within the next few days.

He must make up his mind within 10 days after they reach him. That's law. So there should be an answer somewhere around June 15.

President Truman today signed the $350,000,000 bill for relief of war-devastated countries in Europe and Asia.

State Observes Memorial Day

Colors Put On Vet Board Here; Other Cities Had Speeches and Dedications

The American Legion colors and the American flag were flown on the Veterans Memorial Board on Lake street yesterday by the Fulton American Legion Post, Commander James Warren placed the flags there yesterday afternoon, and they were removed at sundown.

Other memorial services had been held here Sunday, May 18. Elsewhere in Kentucky, graves of soldiers from the Civil War to the second world struggle were decorated. Speakers urged the promotion of peace in the post-war world. A monument to the memory of World War II dead was dedicated.

Highway Commissioner J. Stephen Watkins of Lexington, in dedicating the Glays Ferry bridge linking Fayette and Madison counties said:

"No more fitting monument to the memory of your brave dead could be envisioned than this gigantic structure which binds together kindred communities as we would bind up the wounds of a war shattered world."

Plaques will be erected at each end of the bridge by American Legion posts from the two counties in memory of the 432 war dead from the two communities.

In exercises at the Hopkinsville courthouse, Maj. Gen. P. W. Clarkson, commander of Camp Campbell, Ky., told his audience a strong America is required to obtain "the goal of a peaceful America." He suggested that citizens of the United States take the lead in teaching warlike people the ways of peace.

170 Were Killed In Plane Crashes During Past Week

THREE STILL MISSING

By The Associated Press
The two worst disasters in the nation's commercial aviation history killed 93 persons within 24 hours and four other plane crashes around the globe—in Japan, Iceland, the Netherlands, and Alaska—boosted the total number of dead to at least 170. Three persons were missing and 30 suffered injuries in the six plane mishaps.

The most disastrous of the crashes occurred yesterday—Memorial Day—near Port Deposit, Md., when an Eastern Airlines DC-4 transport crashed up, killing all 53 persons aboard—49 passengers and four crew members.

Less than 24 hours before the Memorial Day crash in Maryland, 40 persons lost their lives when another DC-4, a United Airlines transport, crashed-landed at New York's La Guardia Field.

In other plane mishaps around the world on Thursday: Forty were killed in Japan; 25 in Iceland; 12 in the Netherlands and three were missing in Alaska.

The series of plane crashes in the last two days increased to 425 the total number of persons killed in the world since Jan. 1 in 16 major commercial and military crashes.

The bodies of 25 persons were found by searchers in the wreckage of an Icelandic Airways DC-3 plane which smashed up on a rocky mountainside Thursday.

There were 10 women and four children among the passengers, all Icelanders and Norwegians. The crash of a C-54 Army courier plane, southeast of Tokyo, east of the line of 38th parallel, eight officers and four civilians. The bodies of all were reported burned beyond recognition.

Three members of a crew of a B-29 which crashed shortly after a takeoff at Fairbanks, Alaska, still were reported missing today. Nine other crew members who arrived suffered injuries.

Twelve persons were killed at Tillburg, the Netherlands, in a collision of two planes. Four civilians suffered severe burns at Lichfield, England, yesterday when a Royal Air Force Liberator bomber crashed on an airport runway blew up. The plane was destroyed by the explosion, the cause of which was not determined.

At Port Deposit, Md., the four-engine Eastern Airlines transport plunged suddenly 1,000 feet into a wooded ravine, killing all 53 aboard in the nation's worst commercial airline disaster.

Eye-witnesses differed on what happened just before the big DC-4 plummeted to the ground at a 45 degree angle.

Several said they heard an explosion and saw the tip-end of the tail section tear away.

Others said the plane was flying along smoothly at about 1,000 feet when the engines suddenly roared thunderously and the big aircraft came over on its back and started falling.

It tore into the wooded hillside, snapping off six and eight-inch trees and burst into flame with a mighty explosion.

Largest single bit of wreckage was not more than 12 feet long, apparently a section just forward of the tail. Debris and dismembered bodies were strewn over an area 20 yards wide and 75 yards long.

By dawn, rescue workers had collected 25 distinguishable bodies but most of them were mutilated beyond recognition.

They were taken over trails hacked through the woods to nearby Bainbridge Naval Training Station, where investigators this morning started the grim job of trying to establish identifications.

Civil Aeronautics inspectors meantime looked through the strewn wreckage seeking evidence which might establish the cause of the crash.

Third Party Hopeless

As usually happens a year or so before a Presidential election, talk is making the rounds concerning the possibility of a third-party entrant into the greatest race on earth. This idea was broached to Mr. Wallace when he was abroad, and he made a statement to the effect that he sought no office but would be glad to serve in any capacity that would advance the cause of peace. Prior to that, Mr. Wallace had suggested that Senator Pepper would be a good standard bearer for a party whose main plank would be better relations with Russia. The Senator declined the honor with alacrity.

The history of third-party movements in this country is certainly not encouraging to possible aspirants. The electoral system, plus the very practical fact that only the established parties have the local organizations that get out the vote, works against them. Even Theodore Roosevelt, running as an ex-President with an enormous personal following, couldn't make the grade. The elder La Follette was one of the driving personalities of the time, but the best he could do was carry Wisconsin. The last third-party candidacy, that of Representative Lemke, collapsed like a pricked balloon. And the perennial minor-party candidates—Socialist, Prohibition, etc.—rarely carry even a single U. S. county. This is definitely a two-party nation.

The next election, it seems certain, will be a fairly exact reflection of the Roosevelt-Willkie race to the extent that there will be no important difference over what our foreign policy should be. The isolationists, in either party, are now so heavily outnumbered that they hardly count. The campaign, as a consequence, will be almost entirely conducted on domestic issues—unless, of course, some great and unexpected event occurs to entirely change the outlook.

It usually is taken for granted now that Mr. Truman will be the Democratic candidate, that he will dominate the convention and write his own ticket. At the moment, the Republicans in the strongest positions are Taft, Vandenberg and Dewey, with Stassen and Warren as the principal lesser contenders. Party solidarity on major domestic problems is reasonably good, and there should be no important defections of the kind that occurred during the Roosevelt campaigns when many big-name Republicans backed him.

A President whose party had lost control of both branches of Congress would normally be regarded as a hopeless standard-bearer. Usually, loss of but one branch at mid-term has been sufficient to assure defeat for the incumbent. Yet the Republicans now have a very healthy respect for Mr. Truman's possibilities as a vote-getter, and they have lost the over-confidence that followed the last national election. The public opinion polls indicate that this may be the closest contest in a great many years—possibly the closest since the Wilson-Hughes campaign. That in itself is a novelty after a series of campaigns in which the result was never seriously in doubt.

Preparedness

Rochester, N. Y., (AP)—The nation's oldest Civil War veteran, 105-year-old James A. Ward, met a sharp dip in the temperatures with a strategic counter-offensive, as he made preparations to serve as grand marshal of Rochester's Memorial Day parade.

Alongside his old campaign uniform he laid out a new suit of long underwear.

What We Believe

Charles L. Houser

In the previous article it was clearly set forth that Christ is the head of the church. This being true, the idea that Peter became the head, or that the church was built upon Peter is false. It is some times contended that since Jesus said, "upon this rock I will build my church," and since Peter's name in Greek means "a rock," then the church was built upon him. But students of Greek know better than this. The quotation (Matt. 16:18) is, "I say unto thee, that thou art Peter (Greek, Petros), and upon this rock (Greek, Petra) I will build my church." Petros, Peter's name in Greek, is a noun of masculine gender—it means a pebble or stone. But Petra, that upon which Christ built his church, means a ledge, a mass or a foundation of rock; it is a noun of feminine gender.

However, we need not become so technical, for one simple scripture is an adequate explanation. "For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, WHICH IS JESUS CHRIST." (1 Cor. 3:11). Hence, the rock upon which the church was built is Jesus, the Christ, the Son of God.

It can not be established that Peter ever went to the city of Rome. We are told of his having gone to Lydda, Joppa, Caesarea and other places, but in all of the inspired writings and history of the church there is no intimation of his ever having visited Rome. The absence of such a reference is peculiarly significant.

A few years after his conversion, Paul spent fifteen days with Peter in Jerusalem (Gal. 1:18); some years later Paul spent two years in Rome, yet nothing indicates that he saw Peter while there. Don't you know that if Peter had been in Rome, that he would have seen so valiant a soldier of the cross as was Paul?

Upon his arrival in Rome, prominent people came to him saying, "We desire to hear of thee what thou thinkest; for as concerning this sect, we know that everywhere it is spoken against." (Acts 28:22) If Peter had been in Rome, would they not have already known from him about the sect called Christians? This is a strong implication that Peter was not, and never had been in Rome.

Paul's epistle to the church in Rome has sixteen lengthy chapters, yet in all of that divinely inspired book there is no reference to Peter and neither was he recognized as the head of the church. The letter is conspicuous by a total absence of anything that suggests that Peter is to be regarded as having been God's chief representative on the earth.

Sports Roundup

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.

New York, May 31.—(AP)—Scouting report: When Willard Nixon, 19-year-old freshman, pitched the Auburn baseball team to a 3-0 victory over Georgia recently, he personally accounted for 20 of the 27 put-outs. Willard fanned ten, threw out nine and covered first on one putout. . . at the last report six major league scouts were on his trail. . . Ray Fisher, Michigan coach, believes another 19-year-old freshman, Bob Fancett, is the best major league prospect he has handled in 27 seasons of coaching. Bob's fast ball not only scares opposing hitters, but it scares Bob, too, since he smacked down a couple of batsmen. . . Virginia Tech had an infield this spring that completed ten double plays and a triple killing in 17 games and an outfielder, Dave Poole, who hit .446. . . a few miles from there, 17-year-old Bill Ramsey, catcher for Jefferson high at Roanoke, Va., hit .613 this Spring. . . and at Rochester, N. Y., Southpaw Johnny Antonelli of Jefferson high struck out 57 batters in four games, 17 in a seven-inning no-hitter. . . what team did that guy Jefferson play for?

Chicks Lose Both Halves Of Twin Bill

By 5-4 And 4-3

The Fulton Chicks ran into trouble on the road again at Cairo yesterday afternoon and last night, losing both ends of a double header by one-run scores, 5-4 and 4-3.

Two home runs were responsible for three runs in the afternoon tilt. Crain, Cairo second baseman, homered in the ninth with two out and the score tied 4-4 to kill the chance of extra innings. Dutch Gray hit a four-bagger in the fifth for Fulton with one on.

Jack Williams was the losing pitcher, giving up nine hits during the afternoon.

Fulton took a 2-1 lead in the first inning of the night game, but the Egyptians pulled ahead in the second 3-2. Neither side could score until the seventh, when the final Fulton run came home.

Thiele, Cairo hurler, started the ninth inning with a double, went to third on a sacrifice and scored on a long fly.

The Egyptians got a total of nine hits off Ed Engel, losing pitcher.

The Chicks remain in sixth place, ahead of Cairo and Clarksville. They play Cairo there again tonight, and open a home series with Union City Sunday.

Mauri Rose Wins Indianapolis Race At 116 mph Average Speed

Indianapolis, May 31.—(AP)—Mauri Rose of Chicago, a confident little guy with a black mustache and a big pipe, was down in the books as a second-time winner in the 31st annual 500-mile race at Indianapolis Motor Speedway, but the first two places should have been labeled "Lou Moore entry."

Rose and Bill Holland of Bridgeport, Conn., the No. 2 finisher, drove identical new four-cylinder cars owned by Lou Moore of Ventura, Calif., and called the Blue Crown Spark Plug Specials.

Holland appeared headed for certain victory in his first speedway start as the last few laps were reeled off. Then Moore's pit crew waved a blackboard marked "Easy" and Rose passed Holland with only 17 miles to be run. Afterward there was loud talk behind the garage doors and Holland looked definitely unhappy.

Rose, going into the winner's pen, said he won only because Winnsboro, S. C.—(AP)—Gene Pate, 15, and his brother, Joel, 15, are both Eagle Scouts.

Their father, Dudley Pate, a section man in the twisting department of Winnsboro Mills, wears the Eagle badge. It was pinned on him recently by his mother.

Grandmother Pate is a Scout enthusiast, too. She knows every Boy or Girl Scout in this modern cotton mill community and attends all court of honor ceremonies.

Pape Pate took over as scoutmaster of Troop 27 when the leader went away to war. Soon the girl troop found itself without a leader and Mrs. Pate pitched in as scout mistress.

Harvard Found Full Of Worries

Cambridge, Mass.—(AP)—Traditional Harvard indifference now has changed to "tenseness and worry," says Poet T. S. Eliot, class of 1910.

Arriving from his English home, for a visit to his Alma Mater, Eliot described the student body as a "worried generation."

"Nobody ever seems to stop working," he said, "it certainly was not like that in my day."

Section 4. That the bonds hereby authorized be executed as herein provided and the City Clerk is hereby authorized and directed to cause notice for bids for the purchase of said bonds to be published in the Courier-Journal, a newspaper published in the City of Louisville, Kentucky, such notice not less than ten days prior to the date specified in the notice for consideration of such bids. The proceeds derived from the issuance of said bonds shall be used and applied to pay the cost of said flood control system, which shall include engineering and legal expenses and all other expenses necessary or incident to the construction of said system and placing same in operation. Any surplus remaining after completion of such construction shall be converted into the "Harris Fork Creek Flood Control Bond and Interest Redemption Account." All accrued interest as may be received from the sale of the bonds shall be paid into said Redemption Account.

The purchase price representing the proceeds of the bonds hereby authorized shall be received and deposited by the City Treasurer. All funds representing such proceeds, pending expenditure thereof in the manner and for the purpose as herein stated, shall be subject to a lien and charge in favor of the holder or holders of the bonds hereby authorized, and shall be further security for said bonds until lawfully expended. After withdrawal from said proceeds of the sum provided by Section 5 hereof for interest on the bonds during the construction period the balance of such proceeds shall be deposited by the City Treasurer in a separate account with a qualified city depository bank and may be disbursed, from time to time only upon approved estimates, as representing at least a like amount of the cost of the work embraced in the preliminary report and plans and specifications of the engineer upon which the issuance of the bonds is predicated.

Section 5. That the construction of said flood control system shall be completed and put into operation promptly, and it is hereby represented that same will have been completed and put into operation on or prior to January 1, 1948. From and after the date of such completion and thereafter so long as any of the bonds issued pursuant to this ordinance shall be outstanding said system shall be owned, operated and maintained and shall be annually assessed and collected as to account thereof by said city so long as any bonds issued pursuant hereto are outstanding. The revenues of said works shall be set apart from all other municipal funds to be disbursed and paid out as hereinafter provided. There is hereby created a special fund to be designated as "Harris Fork Creek Flood Control Bond and Interest Redemption Account," into which there shall be paid such portion of said revenues and assessment collections as shall be sufficient to pay the interest on and the principal of the bonds hereby authorized as the same become due. On the basis of fiscal years commencing on January 1 the amount to be so paid into said special fund shall be not less than the amount of interest becoming due on July 1 of such fiscal year plus the amount of principal and interest becoming due on January 1 of the succeeding fiscal year for all of said bonds, plus an additional amount as a reserve, namely, at least the sum of $1,600 during the year commencing January 1, 1947; at least the sum of $3,000 during the year commencing January 1, 1948; and at least the sum of $5,000 each such year thereafter.

All funds in said account shall be used for paying the interest on all such bonds as such interest becomes due; for retirement of said bonds at or before maturity; and for the payment of premium upon bonds retired by call or purchase; provided, that no withdrawals shall be made therefrom for retiring bonds in advance of maturity so as to thereby reduce the balance in said special fund below ten per cent (10%) of the principal amount of the bonds to remain outstanding, nor to such an extent as might thereby cause a default in the payment of the principal of, or interest on any bonds to remain outstanding. The sum of $1,600 received as part of the proceeds of said bonds, and including all sums received as accrued interest, shall be paid into said special fund at the time of the issuance of said bonds to represent interest to accrue on said bonds during the construction period.

Section 6. While any of the bonds authorized hereunder remain outstanding and unpaid it is further covenanted and agreed by said city with the holders thereof that it will perform all duties with reference to said works required hereunder and by the Constitution and laws of Kentucky, and said city hereby irrevocably covenants, bonds and obligates itself not to, in any manner, dispose of said works or abandon the same until all the bonds issued hereunder shall have been paid in full, both principal and interest, and said city further covenants and agrees with the holders of said bonds to maintain in good condition and to operate said works and to establish and maintain just and equitable rates of assessments for benefits and services rendered thereof so that the aggregate thereof shall always be sufficient at all times to meet the payments provided for in Section 5 hereof.

If a default shall occur in the payment of principal or interest of any of said bonds, then upon the institution of a suit by any holder of said bonds or of any of the coupons, any court having jurisdiction of the action may appoint a receiver to administer said works on behalf of said city, with the power to enforce and collect rates of assessment sufficient to provide for the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds outstanding, and for the payment of the operating expenses and to apply the revenues therefrom in conformity with this ordinance.

Section 7. The bonds authorized to be issued hereunder and from time to time outstanding shall not be entitled to priority one over the other in the application of the revenues of said works, regardless of the time or times of their issuance, it being the intention of the Council that there shall be no priority among the bonds authorized to be issued under the provisions of this ordinance, regardless of the fact that they may be actually issued and delivered at different times, and provided further that the lien and security of and for any bonds or obligations thereafter issued that are payable from said revenues shall be subject to the priority of the bonds hereby authorized as may from time to time be outstanding.

Section 8. So long as any of the bonds shall remain outstanding the city shall:

(a) Keep proper records and accounts (separate from all other records and accounts), in which complete and correct entries shall be made of all transactions relating to said work. The city shall furnish to the original purchaser of the bonds and to any holder of any of the bonds, at the written request of such holder or purchaser, not more than thirty days after the close of each fiscal year, complete operating and income statements, in reasonable detail,

Section 9. That the property included within the boundary of the survey plan now on file with the County Court Clerk of Fulton County, Kentucky, and as heretofore established by ordinance adopted September 9, 1946, is hereby declared and determined to be the property benefited by the construction of said flood control system and to be the property against which assessments shall be annually charged and collected so as to produce the revenues for and payments of the bonds issued pursuant to this ordinance. The principal of the bonds issued annually for payment of the interest on and principal of said bonds shall be assessed against said property in proportion as the assessed value of each parcel or item of property for city or item of property for city assessed value of such property as shown by the tax records of said city, and it is hereby declared that the aggregate benefits to said property so to be assessed will be not less than $60,000.

In addition to assessment against said property to produce revenues for the payment of said bonds and interest thereon there shall also in addition thereto be assessed against said property in like proportion and manner such charge as may be required to pay the annual expenses of operation and maintenance of the works, but said assessment of operation and maintenance shall not be included as a portion of the benefits to said property by reason of the construction of said flood control system but shall be in addition thereto.

Section 11. All ordinances, resolutions and orders, or parts thereof, in conflict with the provisions of this ordinance are, to the extent of such conflict, hereby repealed.

Dream on, young lady. Dream of what tomorrow holds in store for you and those you love. Dream of the home and family that will be yours... of the happiness the years so richly promise.

But wait! Are day-dreams enough?

They merely give us visions of things hoped for—as yet unseen. Like the sculptor, who brings from rough-hewn rock the graceful lines of his once-untried dreams, we must shape and mold the character which will measure up to ours.

And even this is not enough!

To find the tools and skills with which to fashion the fullness of our dreams we must sit at the feet of the Master Sculptor, and learn from Him the art of fashioning life.

The Church reveals these priceless truths of God. The Church shows us how to use them... how to bring the real beauty out of life's roughness... how to improve each all-important detail until our dreams come true. Make the Church your workshop for molding a great tomorrow!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, there is no sound reason why every person should attend service regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church on Sunday and read your Bible daily.
