The Murray High Stage Band, directed by Joe Sills, played for the program.

County School Board Meets Thursday

The Calloway County School Board approved a reorganized basketball program for the elementary schools at its regular meeting last night.

Beginning next year, there will be one boys team and one girls team in basketball at each of the elementary schools. At this time, there are two boys and two girls teams at each school.

Also included in the reorganization will be an intramural program for the students who are not involved in either of the other competitive teams.

In other action, the board approved a purchasing agreement with Murray State University, pending final approval by the state departments of finance and education. This agreement will allow the board to utilize MSU's purchasing arrangements and save money on some purchases.

The energy crisis was discussed at some length by the board, and it was decided to continue schools meeting one hour late during the month of February. The school calendar was also discussed but no recommendations or actions were made on makeup days.

Supt. Dr. Jack Rose told the board that the practical arts program in the school system has been funded by the state. This program is a career orientation project for grades six through eight at this time.

Glendale Road Proposal Denied By City Council

A proposal that would have extended Glendale Road making it a four-lane interconnector route between U. S. 641 (S. 12th St.) and Ky. 121 (S. 4th St.) was denied by the Murray Common Council last night.

The action came after a group of approximately 30 to 35 residents of the Glendale Road area voiced their opposition to the project, which had been described as a four-lane, concrete roadway between 641 and 121.

Mayor John E. Scott had requested the council's approval of an agreement between the city and the state Department of Transportation which would have opened the door for the project. The mayor explained, in recommending that the council approve the action, that a transportation study conducted in 1966-67 for the city had placed a high priority on the establishment of an east-west corridor between U. S. 641 and 121 in the vicinity of Glendale Road.

It was explained that, if the city agreed to the proposal, the state would construct a four-lane thoroughfare on the site. But several councilmen, as well as many of the citizens in the audience, questioned the need for a four-lane road, indicating that they felt a two-lane road would be sufficient.

Mayor Scott said that four lanes had been recommended by the highway department adding that the route is projected to be handling over 10,000 vehicles per day by 1990.

Two of the most outspoken opponents of the project were Johnny Rickman, who owns property on the south side of Glendale, and M. C. Garrott, who owns a home at the corner of Glendale and Circarama.

"Give us," Rickman said, "if you're going to give us anything, ... a two-lane highway, curbs and gutters if you want to. But you don't have to use 60 feet."

"Why don't you pull that thing in and use what it would take to make a nice two-lane street through there with curbs and gutters," Rickman added.

Rickman then asked if the mayor had the figures on what the project would cost the city and if the city had the money to fund the project.

Mayor Scott said that the exact cost could not be determined until the highway department had completed the design plans for the project.

"Aren't you asking a little early for the authorization for this?" Rickman asked. "...they're (the council) giving you a blank check," he said.

"I have to have authorization before they (the highway department) can start," Mayor Scott said.

Rickman then asked the council not to give the mayor authorization for the project without subjecting it to further study.

"Then if you see fit to sign it," Rickman said, "give us an opportunity to see on blueprint what we're getting out there."

Following several minutes of discussion between Rickman and Mayor Scott concerning the costs of the project, councilman Melvin Henley said that he had some figures on the projected cost.

Henley referred to a memo from a highway department official that he said was received in September of 1976.

"The cost to the city in direct money," Henley said, "... is $50,802."

Mayor Scott said, however, that no funds would be used from the city's general fund for the project. He said that state municipal aid funds would be utilized for any capital that the city would have to come up with for the project.

It was later pointed out that much of the city's portion of the project would be "in-kind" work and that the Calloway County Fiscal Court had also agreed to participate in the project.

"What you're asking me to do is just rubber stamp whatever you want to do," Henley told the mayor.

"I'm not asking you to rubber stamp anything," Mayor Scott replied, "this is something that the state offered the people of Murray and Calloway County if we want it. ... if we don't want it you can cut out the campaigning and say we don't want it and vote it down tonight."

Garrott, who read to the council from a prepared statement, referred to the four-lane proposal as a "fiasco" and called it "utterly preposterous."

"At a time when confidence in government generally has been shaken to its very bedrock, I still have to pinch myself to recognize that this proposed fiasco is a reality," Garrott said.

"First of all," Garrott charged, "it is an idea that has been shrouded with such secrecy that it smells like a mess of five-day-old croppie."

Garrott said that it is the consensus of the residents of the Glendale area that a connecting road from 641 to 121 is inevitable but said it is "not really needed."

"Sycamore Street already serves this purpose," Garrott said.

"We are resigned to the fact that the city is determined to connect the two roads through Glendale," Garrott added, "...but it is our feeling that the purpose can be just as well served with a two-lane connecting road - not an expensive, destructive, four-lane eyesore."

Garrott told the council that he, as well as others in the area, feared their property values would decrease if the four-lane road were constructed.

Howard Brandon, who owns property on the proposed interconnector route, was the only private citizen to speak in favor of the proposal.

"What do we want?" Brandon asked. "Do we want progress? Do we want some decent roads in this county and this city?"

Brandon directed a comment to the opponents of the four-lane and said that he felt everyone of them would vote for a two-lane road.

"That's where you're cheating yourself," Brandon said. "It will become another Sycamore Street - congested. The city will be out very little more for the four-lane than the two-lane," Brandon added.

"The main point is," Brandon said, "there will be just as much traffic on the two-lane road as the four-lane road."

Mayor Scott attempted to withdraw the proposal from consideration but councilman Henley moved that the council deny the agreement.

The vote to deny the agreement was recorded, following several more minutes of discussion during which some councilmen expressed concern as to whether or not the council's rejection of the four lane proposal would also shelve a chance at having a two-lane road constructed. That question was never answered.

"I don't believe we ought to deny the community a two-lane road through there if we would do so by rejecting this proposal," Dr. C. C. Lowry, a member of the council said.

Council members voting in favor of denying the agreement were Loyd Arnold, W. R. Furches, Ruby Hale, Melvin Henley, Howard Koenen, Dr. C. C. Lowry, Tom Rushing, Buel Stalls, Jr., and Dave Willis. Councilman Art Lee cast the lone negative vote on the matter and H. Ed Chrisman abstained from voting.

Plans Approved For Renovation At MMS

The Murray City School Board approved final plans and specifications for renovations at the Murray Middle School, and voted to advertise for bids, at its regular meeting held Thursday night.

Supt. Fred Schultz informed the board that state agencies have approved the final plans for the Middle School renovation, which includes new heating systems, rewiring, and boiler room construction, as well as acoustical work to some ceilings.

The board approved the final plans, and voted to advertise for bids, which will be opened at a special meeting of the board on Feb. 24.

In other action, the superintendent reviewed a report with the board on increased operating costs due to the winter weather. This report included an estimate of $7,234 for damage to frozen pipes; $1,675 for damage to roof structures; and an undetermined amount for damage to paved areas on school campuses when the ground thaws.

The board approved a routine amendment to the general fund budget for the current year, and the superintendent reviewed with the board a meeting between Gov. Julian Carroll and state school superintendents.

The governor told the board that school districts will not be penalized in average daily attendance funds due to makeup days, and that the school term has been shortened by five days. He also pledged his efforts to seek money to help districts, and to explore the idea of capital outlays to install alternate fuel systems at schools in the state.

The school calendar was discussed at some length, and recommendations from faculty members were presented on their choices for makeup days. The highest priority days were April 29, May 30, March 17, and March 18, holding the spring break intact, which was the lowest priority for makeup days.

Local Republicans To Meet Feb. 17

The Republican Party of Calloway County will meet at the Murray City Hall, February 17, to organize for the May Primary and to nominate candidates for the various offices that are up for election this year.

Ed Thurmond, Republican County Chairman, said "that by having a Republican Primary the county will benefit by once again having a two party system." All registered Republicans are urged to attend this meeting - February 17, 7 o'clock at Murray City Hall Council Chambers, 4th and Poplar Streets.

Long Range Plans For MSU Unveiled By Curris

Long-range plans for physical facilities at Murray State University, including the permanent closing of 15th Street from Olive Blvd. to Chestnut St., were unveiled by MSU president Dr. Constantine Curris this morning.

Dr. Curris, in an open forum before a group of local citizens, said that although no final decision has been made on converting 15th Street to a pedestrian mall, "our thinking at this time is that the permanent closing is the best route to go."

Dr. Curris also outlined some $16 million worth of construction that is either presently going up on the campus or is planned for the near future.

He said the $5.5 million central heating and cooling plant is predicted for completion by early 1978.

The conversion and renovation of the present student center into the Harry Lee Waterfield Library Complex is expected to be completed by summer of 1978. That project is estimated to cost $3.5 million.

Curris said that the university hopes to begin construction on the new $7 million student center by late summer of this year. That building is to be located north of the Carr Health Building on what is now a parking lot.

The president also addressed himself to the proposed pedestrian overpass over Chestnut Street at the intersection of Chestnut and 15th.

"We've had some delays in our effort to build the pedestrian overpass," Dr. Curris said.

He explained that current plans call

Rain

Slowly increasing cloudiness today with a chance of rain by late afternoon. Highs in the upper 50s to low 60s. Cloudy tonight through Saturday with rain. Lows tonight in the low 40s. Highs on Saturday in the mid 50s. The outlook for Sunday partly sunny with a chance of showers. Precipitation chances 30 per cent today, 90 per cent tonight and 70 per cent Saturday.

for the lowering of Chestnut Street and curving it to the south so that the overpass could be designed without steps.

The southerly curve of Chestnut would begin at Waldrop Drive and continue for approximately 700 feet where it would be brought back in line with the present Chestnut Street. The street would be dropped to the approximate level of the baseball field and the old tennis courts would be removed.

A temporary closing of Chestnut Street while the state highway department is constructing the overpass and rerouting the street is expected, Curris said.

It was pointed out that the present design of the overpass will force the closing of 15th Street to vehicular traffic on either side.

Plans on the drawing board at this time call for eight additional tennis courts to be constructed north of Springer Hall to replace those lost due to the construction of the overpass and rerouting the street.

Curris pointed out that the main reason for the commitment toward the pedestrian mall on 15th Street and the overpass at Chestnut Street is the safety factor.

In addition to the safety factor, Curris said the problem of cars is compounded, as the city and the university grows

Hairdressers Have Scoop For The Spring-Summer

Women throughout the United States not only will "get the scoop" at their beauty salons, but they also will wear the scoop on top their heads for Spring-Summer 1977, according to the 64,000-member National Hairdressers and Cosmetologists Association.

The scoop is the name of a semi-short, softly-textured hair shape that features volume over the ears and the forehead.

Designed by the National Hairdressers and Cosmetologists Association to complement Spring and Summer's fashion moods of bareness and fantasy, the face-framing hairstyle has a "scoop-like" appearance over the head.

"It also offers simplicity with enough volume for versatile styling," says Lylal McCaig, National Styles Director for the association of United States hairdressers.

The Spring-Summer scoop is designed for buoyant hair movement. "Today's hair must be precision cut to move naturally and still fall back into beautiful form," McCaig explained.

Control is provided within the scoop haircut itself through graduated lengths.

The scoop hairstyles, which can vary in length, width, curl and straightness to suit almost any facial shape, personality or lifestyle, are created through a soft, textured cut to accentuate both the starkness of Spring-Summer's bare looks in apparel and the diversity of the many fantasy fashions.

The scoop also leaves much room for creative stylists to add extra touches for different beauty requirements, said McCaig, who created the scoop form and designs together with the national association's Spring-Summer Coiffure Design Committee, which includes Rita Clayborn of Atlanta, Georgia; Margaret Vinci Heldt of Chicago, Illinois; Travis Johnson of Ft. Worth, Texas and Harold Williams of Hickory, North Carolina.

Hair ornaments, including combs, barrettes, bows, ribbons, hairpins and artificial or live flowers, will be very fashionable for Spring and Summer. They work beautifully with the shape and volume of the scoop designs to enhance the season's fashions.

The wispy scoop, which features naturally-dried curl, is one of the scoop looks that best complements the gypsy and peasant fantasy fashions for Spring and Summer.

The National Hairdressers and Cosmetologists Association believes that hair for Spring-Summer will express moods of softness, healthiness and quality. Hair color will be multi-faceted, with underlying shades of a deeper tone, graduating to lighter colors with much sheen and glaze.

Perming — for extra fullness or for wispy curls — will continue to be an important beauty service during Spring and Summer, when carefree, easy-to-wear hair is most important to the active American woman.

Several variations of the Spring-Summer 1977 scoop, are now being studied and interpreted by hairdressers throughout the United States. Spring-Summer hair will have variety with a wispy scoop, a wavy or curly scoop, or a combination of both. There is also a scoop with a naturally smooth look, a scoop with wider or smaller width proportions and scoop cuts with bi-level and tri-level dimensions.

THE SCOOP, the "in" haircut for spring and summer 1977, may be worn in many variations, as those pictured above. The styles were designed by National Hairdressers and Cosmetologists Association.

Slide Talk On South American Travels Held. Teachers Meeting

Mrs. George S. Hart and Mrs. A. C. LaFollette presented a colorful slide lecture and travelog on South America at the first meeting of the year of the Calloway Retired Teachers Association, February 7, at Ellis Center.

Dr. Harry Sparks, president of the association, reported that the membership of the group has risen to 106. Dr. E. B. Howton of the membership committee was in charge of the program and presented the speakers. Otis Lovins gave the devotional.

Mrs. Hart and Mrs. LaFollette, both prominent in educational and club activities, made the trip to the South American countries a year ago. Mrs. Hart, member of the Murray State Board of Regents 1967-1971, has been an editor, teacher, writer and club leader for many years. Mrs. LaFollette, currently president of the First District Federated Woman's Club, formerly taught in Calloway and was an English teacher at Ohio University.

The two speakers explained the slides they made in the South American countries and gave interesting sidelights on the manners, customs and traditions of the people. Among the countries they visited were Brazil, Peru and Chile. One of the many outstanding pictures presented on the program was the slide of the Statue of "Christ the Redeemer," which stands guard over the harbor of Rio de Janeiro. In the background was the famed Sugarloaf Mountain.

The Incas, South American tribe of the Quechuan linguistic stock, were depicted by the speakers as most fascinating. At the height of their power, the Incas attained a level of civilization probably unsurpassed by any other Indian nation of the Western Hemisphere.

Dr. Sparks announced that the executive board of the First District Retired Teachers Association would hold their next meeting Feb. 17, at 10 a. m. at the Kentucky Maid Restaurant at the junction of Highways 641 and 68. Officers of the Calloway Retired Teachers will be elected at the next meeting

April 4 at 2 p. m. at Ellis Center.

On May 9 the association will have a breakfast meeting at nine a. m. at the Colonial House in Murray.

At the conclusion of the Feb. 7 meeting, refreshments were served by Mrs. Harry Sparks, Mrs. A. B. Austin and Mrs. Helen Bennett. The minutes of the previous meeting and the treasurer's reports were approved by the group.

Officers of the Calloway Retired Teachers Association are: Dr. Sparks, president; Hazel Tarry, vice president; Mrs. Agnes McDaniel, secretary; and Lorene Swann, treasurer.

DULL SURFACE
 To cut grease in the kitchen, add a tablespoon of household ammonia to the wash water. But stay clear of course scouring powders for your range surface. They may permanently damage the finish, leaving a dull or discolored spot. Acid foods may do the same, so wipe them up immediately.

Special Idea Given For Valentine's Day

Since Valentine's Day comes but once a year, you won't want to miss taking advantage of this sentimental occasion to please your special man.

A pork loin roast prepared to perfection is a real heart warmer.

To be sure of success, use a slow oven (325 deg. F.) and roast the meat to an internal temperature of 170 deg. F. as indicated on a roast meat thermometer, inserted so the bulb is centered in the roast.

Avoid overcooking if you want to tender the flavorful roast at its present, juicy best.

Strike Out Fifth-Time Loser

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1977 by Chicago Tribune-N.Y. News Synd. Inc.

DEAR ABBY: I am 23, and five months ago I got married for the fifth time. All my previous marriages ended in divorce.

My husband is 29, divorced and has four children. He had a vasectomy that he didn't tell me about until after I married him. This was a dirty trick because I've never had children and have always wanted some.

My biggest problem is the way he treats me. I've gone to the hospital for emergency first aid four times after he's beaten me up. He uses the excuse that he's drunk when he beats me, so he's not responsible for what he does. He's locked me out of our trailer overnight and refused to give me any of my personal belongings. (It's my trailer.)

Should I try to make this marriage work? I really love him because he's so sweet when he's sober and he's awfully good to my dog.

G. IN GAINESVILLE, FLA.

DEAR G.: I think you both need help. Having picked five losers at age 23 should tell you something. And to stick around for the physical abuse he hands out (drunk or sober) is literally asking for it.

Please go to your nearest mental clinic for counseling, unless you don't mind having your bridgework rearranged. (P.S. Take the dog with you. That bully you're living with might get drunk and take it out on the dog.)

DEAR ABBY: One day my husband came home from work like an enraged bull because the lunch meat in the sandwich I had packed was spoiled. (He accused me of trying to poison him!)

Abby, it must have spoiled between 7 and noon while his lunch bucket was sitting in a warm locker.

I told my friend how mad my husband got because of this. She said she always makes her husband's sandwiches the night before and puts them in the freezer overnight. By lunch time, they're all thawed out and fresh.

Well, I did this for a while and everything was fine—no complaints. Then one night, my husband saw me putting his lunch in the freezer, and he blew his top. He said I was feeding him like a dog because I was too lazy to make fresh sandwiches in the morning.

This isn't true. I told him that I'd go back to making them fresh every morning, but if he ever came home complaining that his lunch meat went bad, he could just buy his lunch, which I think is what he wants. Any suggestions?

CAN'T GET THROUGH

DEAR CANT: If you think that's what he wants, let him buy his lunches from now on, and you'll both be happier.

DEAR ABBY: I am an 86-year-old man with a pet peeve of long standing.

Some suits for men come with two pairs of trousers, but pajamas come with only one pair of pants.

Coats outlast pants, so I have accumulated many pajama tops that lack bottoms.

If my complaint appears in your column, maybe it could start the manufacture of pajamas with two pairs of pants.

J.B.S., STATEN ISLAND, N.Y.

DEAR J: Some men wear only pajama tops, and some wear only bottoms. A new kind of "pajama game" could be the exchange of tops and bottoms—unless some courageous pajama manufacturer starts selling tops and bottoms separately.

FOR SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1977

What kind of day will tomorrow be? To find out what the stars say, read the forecast given for your birth Sign.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 20) Persistence will be the key to advancement of your personal plans. Keep trying and friends will rally 'round and give their support.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 to May 21) Be especially cooperative with associates. Good teamwork will produce better results than lone-wolf action.

GEMINI (May 22 to June 21) The success of an old friend will certainly call for a celebration. Do YOUR part to make it a truly convivial one.

CANCER (June 22 to July 23) You cannot afford to take wild chances, but neither should you be hesitant, timid, unsure. Somewhere in between is the sensible, intelligent road.

LEO (July 24 to Aug. 23) Certain situations could annoy if you permit. Take all in stride. Also, think well before making decisions. Some revisions in your thinking could bring about better results.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 to Sept. 23) Generous influences stimulate your ingenuity and imagination. Use both well, and rewards will please. Reach into the unusual; study new trends.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 to Oct. 23) You may be too close to a problem. A close friend could have a different—and better—solution. Listen carefully.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 to Nov. 22) Organize your schedule so as to eliminate time-wasting confusion. A good activity day for those born under this Sign.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 to Dec. 21) Shun negative thinking and indecisiveness. Positive and constructive action needed. Consider all potentials and choose those which best suit your needs.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) You can achieve most in your own surroundings now—discussing ideas and plans with compatible friends and associates. Results should be most worthwhile.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Be careful how you express yourself now. Reach conclusions in a logical, orderly manner. Your decisions could affect many; also, your example.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Your imagination highly stimulated and, while you may not capitalize on new ideas immediately, they should be highly productive in the future.

YOU BORN TODAY are endowed with a fine intellect and the will power to achieve the most lofty ambitions. When you are guided by reason alone, your path to success is comparatively easy, since you find quick solutions to problems and are not dismayed by obstacles. But once your emotions take over, you flounder and lose yourself in a morass of indecision and anxiety. Try to master yourself, therefore, and you can master the world. Your ideas are progressive and you tend toward the creative in your choice of a life work. You make excellent writers, musicians, painters and entertainers; could also succeed in the law and statesmanship. Birthdate of: Abraham Lincoln, 16th Pres., U.S.A.; Gen. Omar Bradley, U.S. Army; Lorne Greene, TV star.

"As I would not be a slave, so I would not be a master."

With these words, Abraham Lincoln demonstrated his deep understanding of the nature of man. He realized that the system of slavery reduced man to little more than a piece of property. While the slave was the primary victim of this system, the master also suffered for he, too, became less than the human that God intended him to be. In his great wisdom, Lincoln understood this principle — that no one really benefits from a system in which man is treated less than fully human. Lincoln's words echo the Golden Rule, "Do unto others, as you would have them do unto you." Make Lincoln's birthday a time to reflect on the meaning of his words, and their implications for the continuation of his spirit in this great country.

Gophers Continue To Get Success On Road

By KEN RAPPOPORT* AP Sports Writer
The Minnesota Gophers have one of the most successful road shows in college basketball this season.

Among their big hits of the year, the Gophers have won by 24 points at Detroit, 19 at Indiana and 17 at Illinois and Marquette.

Thursday night, they played another smash performance by beating Ohio State at Columbus 91-65.

"We're a much better road team and I don't know why," said Minnesota Coach Jim Dutcher. "I can only enjoy it."

The eighth-ranked Gophers have won 17 of 19 games and are challenging for the Big Ten lead. The splendid season has restored some dignity to a school on NCAA probation and shorn of any post-season playoff hopes.

"Being a conference contender is enough," said Dutcher. "We've got a chance at our school record of 11 conference victories and 21 over-all. I told our kids they were eighth in the country and there are only a handful of teams with better records. That's incentive enough."

Elsewhere in college basketball, top-ranked San Francisco defeated Nevada-Reno 92-76, second-ranked UCLA defeated Washington State 65-62, No. 10 Nevada-Las Vegas trimmed Denver 106-84 and No. 13 Arkansas blasted Baylor 77-57.

Mike Thompson, Kevin McHale and Ray Williams combined for 68 points to lead Minnesota. The victory boosted the Gophers into a second-place tie with Purdue in the Big Ten behind Michigan.

Winford Boynes scored 21 points to lead a balanced attack as undefeated San Francisco ran its winning streak to 24 games. The powerful Dons connected on 51 per cent of their shots from the field and dominated the boards with a 48-36 advantage.

"I was a little concerned in the first half, early on, after they made their first six or seven in a row, but I told the guys to stay loose and play our own game," said San Francisco Coach Bob Gaillard. "And that's what we did. We came back in the second half, stuck to our game plan and won it the way we planned."

Reserve center Brett Vroman scored eight of his 10 points in the second half, leading UCLA back from a four-point deficit to victory over Washington State. Vroman entered the game after starter David Greenwood picked up three first-half fouls.

Eddie Owens' 28-point performance established the career scoring record at Nevada-Las Vegas and led the Rebels past Denver.

Marvin Delph scored 18 points and Steve Schall added 15 as Arkansas defeated Baylor and virtually sewed up the Southwest Conference race.

Elsewhere, California UCLA defeated Oregon 107-102 in a near-record five overtimes.

Rupp Says Early Start Making Good Shooters

By BOB COOPER AP Sports Writer
LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—Adolph Rupp says modern day basketball teams have better shooting averages because youngsters start playing organized ball earlier than they once did.

"You've got kids now who are playing in organized leagues when they are only eight years old," the winningest coach in the history of collegiate basketball said in an interview Thursday.

He's an expert on that. His grandson, Chip, is in his first year in an elementary school league and he's just 10.

"It's practice, practice, practice and that makes the shooters a whole lot better on every team in the country," Rupp said.

He noted that five of the 11 players on this year's Kentucky basketball team are shooting 50 per cent or better from the field, but said the hot hands aren't limited to teams such as the No. 3 ranked Wildcats.

"I watched the Transylvania-Thomas More game last night on television and those guys were shooting the hell out of that thing," Rupp said.

Rupp, who retired several years ago as coach at Kentucky, said that free throw shooting, however, isn't nearly as accurate as it was in his day.

"Until the last few years that I coached, we shot free throws (underhand) with two hands and it's a more ac-

Warriors Begin Climb Toward Division Lead

By The Associated Press
The Golden State Warriors, seeking to regain the pot of gold at the end of the National Basketball Association rainbow, finally are panning out... most recently against the Denver Nuggets.

The Warriors, NBA champions in the 1974-75 season but dethroned in 1975-76 by the Boston Celtics, "probably are playing our best basketball of the year," according to Coach Al Attles.

The affable Attles made his observation Thursday night after Golden State scored a glittering 114-101 triumph over the Nuggets, the team with the best winning percentage in the league... it was the Warriors' fourth consecutive victory.

"What I'm most happy about is our consistency," said Attles, whose Warriors have boosted their record to 30-23 and moved within four games of the Los Angeles Lakers and Portland Trail Blazers, who are in a virtual tie for the Pacific Division lead. "I don't want to see 135 points one night and 85 the next."

Swen Nater topped the Bucks with 28 points and Bob Dandridge scored 21, 17 in the second half. Ron Boone topped Kansas City with 22.

Cavaliers 116, Pacers 101
Elmore Smith, making his first start for Cleveland since being acquired from Milwaukee last month, had 13 points, 13 rebounds and six blocked shots against Indiana.

Jim Brewer's 18 points paced a balanced Cleveland offense. Indiana's Billy Knight scored 26 points.

In other NBA games, the Washington Bullets rallied for a 109-103 victory over the Phoenix Suns, the Milwaukee Bucks overcame the Kansas City Kings 112-102 and the Cleveland Cavaliers beat the Indiana Pacers 116-101.

Phil Smith paced the Warriors with 21 points while Rick Barry and reserves Jamaal Wilkes and Charles Johnson each scored 18. Denver's David Thompson collected 27, but only two in the first half when Golden State took a commanding 60-48 lead.

Bullets 109, Suns 103
Washington, trailing 101-93 with 4:23 remaining, overtook Phoenix with the help of Phil Chenier's three field goals in the last 1:25 for its seventh victory in the last nine road games.

The Bullets, leaders by one game in the Central Division, were led by Elvin Hayes and rookie Mitch Kupchak with 22 points apiece. Chenier finished with 21. Paul Westphal scored 29 for Phoenix.

Bucks 112, Kings 102
Aggressive play by reserves Rowland Garrett and Lloyd Walton helped the Bucks rally from a 30-10 first-quarter deficit against Kansas City.

Ali Considering Title Defense With Foreman

By GORDON BEARD AP Sports Writer
ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP)—Nothing is official yet, but it appears that the suspect retirement of Muhammad Ali is about to end.

Herbert Muhammad, Ali's long-time manager, has given promoter Don King permission to set up a May title bout for the heavyweight boxing champ in Seoul, South Korea.

The 35-year-old Ali hasn't fought since scoring a disputed decision over Ken Norton last September, but the Korean venture is viewed as Ali's tune up for a lucrative return match with George Foreman—who lost the title to Ali in 1974.

"I'm convinced that Ali wants to fight again," King said Thursday, reiterating that in a Dec. 19 letter from Ali, he was given 90 days to arrange a rematch with Foreman.

King still is trying to put together a money package worthy of an Ali-Foreman bout, but his efforts should gain fresh impetus with the positive signs from the Ali camp.

In Korea, King said, Ali would fight "someone of repute," and mentioned such possible opponents as the upcoming young Americans Johnny Boudeaux and Larry Holmes, or South African champion Mike Shutte.

Two, other, productions promoted by King will be staged this weekend, even as he works to tie up loose ends on two more bouts scheduled for March 17.

King spent two days in Annapolis, promoting the second of four quarter-final cards of his U.S. Boxing Championships. They will be held Sunday at the U.S. Naval Academy.

On Thursday night, King hustled off to Puerto Rico for the lightweight title bout he promoted between World Boxing Council champion Esteban de Jesus and Buzzsaw Yamabe of Japan.

Signs Contract

CINCINNATI (AP)—Joe Henderson, a 30-year-old relief pitcher who led the American Association with a 2.31 earned run average at Indianapolis last season, has signed his 1977 contract with the Cincinnati Reds.

Henderson, 7-3, appeared in 54 games last season but only once as a starter.

Henderson won two games for the Reds after joining the team late in the season and allowed only one run in 11 innings.

AIMING HIGH—Lillian Neal (24) of St. Mary had to aim high to get this shot off as Marilyn McKenzie of the Lakers defended. McKenzie had a good game on the boards and scored six points.

Teacher Refuses To Use Father's Book

FT. DIX, N.J. (AP) — Sgt. William Alexander Haley teaches young soldiers the history of minority groups, but he refuses to use his father's famous book.

"Roots" leaves me with personal feelings that deal with my family. I wouldn't want to convey these feelings in class," the son of Alex Haley said in an interview Thursday.

Still, for William Haley there's no escaping the impact of "Roots," which is the nation's best-selling book and history's most-watched television program traced the Haley family tree back to pre-slavery days in Africa.

"I walk down the hall and I hear people saying, 'That's the son of Roots,' and I just laugh," Haley said.

"They just can't believe that the author of 'Roots' has a son who has chosen the Army as a career," said Haley, 31, whose classes are conducted at the military base here.

He said he has received over 200 phone calls and a dozen letters from people reacting to the book. Some expressed concern that it might be inflammatory, he said.

But "Dad's intention was not to document the history of America's blacks because they have been an oppressed minority," Haley said. "He was writing an American story about our family roots."

"It wasn't just for black people. Whites can look at it and say 'Yeah, I can identify,'" young Haley said.

"If 'Roots' had been out in the 60s and early 70s, when we were having a lot of trouble, it might have fanned the fires," he said, adding that he thinks Americans since have grown more tolerant.

Haley, who has been in the Army since he was 18, said it was not until he was sent to Vietnam in 1969-70 that he really got to know his father, who himself spent 20 years in the Coast Guard.

"I think we became closer than ever before. He shared my anxieties and wrote long, detailed letters which made me fully aware that he was working steadily on 'Roots,'" the soldier said.

Haley said writing is "not one of my talents."

"It's teaching for me," he said. "I enjoy it and I think I'm good at it."

Good enough, Haley said, that "I tell Dad someday people are going to point to him and say, 'That's Bill Haley's father.'"

Hank Lindsey

Lindsey Named To Post

FRANKFORT — Western Kentucky native Hank Lindsey, former Administrative Assistant and Deputy Secretary to Gov. Julian Carroll, has been appointed Executive Assistant to Commissioner of Commerce W. Terry McBrayer.

A native of Hopkinsville, Lindsey started at his new post Jan. 16.

From 1971 to 1974 Lindsey was executive Director of Kentucky's Western Waterland, Inc., an association for tourism development and promotion around Kentucky Lake and Lake Barkley. He is a former Hopkinsville city councilman and member of the Board of Directors of the Kentucky Travel Council.

A 1961 graduate of South Hopkins High School in Nortonville, Lindsey was news director of WHOP radio station in Hopkinsville from 1966 to 1971. While there he won three national awards: The National Headliners Award in 1968 for coverage of the preparations of the 101st Airborne Division for deployment to Vietnam; the National Headliners Award in 1970 for coverage of Kentucky politics; and the Southern Baptist Association Abraham Lincoln Award in 1970 for community involvement as a broadcaster.

"In my new position," Lindsey said of his appointment, "I hope to assist in the development of Kentucky's economy. Through the development of new industry and the development of international and domestic trade we can create new jobs for Kentuckians and insure the retention of jobs. Commissioner McBrayer has ideas that will benefit commerce and industry in this state, and I want to help."

Lindsey became interested in commerce while in the Governor's office where he acted as liaison to the Commerce Department as part of his duties. He worked with the Commerce Commissioner when McBrayer was Chief Executive Officer to Gov. Carroll in the early days of his administration.

Kiritsis Frees Hostage After 63 Hours

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Anthony G. Kiritsis, the revenge-minded gunman who thought he could walk away free by releasing unharmed a hostage he held for 63 hours, instead faces kidnapping charges after police grabbed him in what he called "a cheap shot."

Despite a promise of immunity from prosecution, Kiritsis, 44, was seized Thursday night after he freed mortgage company executive Richard O. Hall from a third-story apartment he had fooled police into thinking was rigged with dynamite.

Kiritsis, enraged because he felt Hall's company swindled him in a property deal, was held on $250,000 bond awaiting arraignment on state kidnapping charges.

Hall, 42-year-old father of four, was taken out by stretcher, checked briefly at a hospital and returned to his family. Authorities said his only physical scars from the three-day, two-night ordeal were minor abrasions on his neck and wrists.

Police, who had waited frustrated outside the building since the siege began Tuesday, entered Kiritsis' apartment to discover that what he had claimed was 100 pounds of dynamite wired to explode was nothing more than a maze of string, weighted to break two glass wine jugs — possibly filled with gasoline — placed near a single burning candle.

Prosecutors said the immunity offer was invalid because Kiritsis failed to keep his part of an agreement to let Hall come out of the building alone.

Instead, Kiritsis shocked police by marching Hall out with the shotgun he used to abduct him still wired to his victim's neck. Surrounded by police sharpshooters, Kiritsis then staged a 30-minute confrontation on live television, alternately cursing, shouting and joking with reporters and onlookers as Hall stood frozen in fear. He repeated his statement that he abducted Hall because he was convinced the mortgage company had tried to cheat him on a $130,000 land loan.

Commission To Review Energy Conservation Plan On Monday

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — The state Energy Resources Advisory Commission is scheduled to review development of an energy conservation plan Monday, according to Energy Commissioner Damon Harrison.

The plan, prepared by the Energy Department, will set energy utilization standards for state government as an example for the rest of the state, Harrison said Thursday.

The 35-member advisory commission, created to focus on the role of energy in economic development, will forward the plan to the Federal Energy Administration (FEA) for approval.

Kentucky could get about $400,000 in federal funds to implement the plan, Harrison said.

He said he will ask for a one-month extension of the March 28 deadline for submitting the plan to federal officials.

Harrison said state energy officials have been busy dealing with the current energy crisis and have had little time to develop the long range conservation plan.

The plan will, among other things, establish thermal standards for new buildings and purchasing policies for energy-related items such as state automobiles and air conditioning systems, Harrison said.

The advisory commission also is scheduled to discuss tentative energy legislation. Harrison said some parts of the conservation plan will require action by the 1978 General Assembly.

He suggested, as an example, tax breaks for installation of solar energy units or added insulation in homes and other buildings.

The advisory group will examine several aspects of power plant development, energy research and promotion of synthetic fuel plants, Harrison said.

The public meeting is scheduled for 10 a.m. in the Capital Plaza Auditorium.

Kiritsis listed seven wrongs he said the company perpetrated against him, including blocking commercial development on the land where he wanted to build a small shopping center, and demanded $5 million he said the project would have earned him.

After finally releasing Hall back inside the building, Kiritsis walked to an open sliding glass door and fired his sawedoff shotgun into the sky.

"See, I told you this was loaded," he said, as a terrified Hall bolted from the room.

Then, as Kiritsis laughed to police that "I really pulled one over on you" with the dynamite bluff, officers grabbed him and took him away in a patrol car.

"Tony, you lied to us," Police Chief Eugene Gallagher told Kiritsis. "You didn't let him go as you said... You blew it."

"This is a cheap shot, a cheap shot," a disbelieving Kiritsis shouted, before slumping down in the seat in silence.

Marion County Deputy Prosecutor George Martz said Kiritsis, who described himself as a "stable man," would undergo psychiatric testing. The immunity that had been promised him earlier in the day specified he would not be mugged, fingerprinted, booked or subject to mental tests.

Remains Of 1,600 Year Old Woman Found In Alaska

FAIRBANKS, Alaska (AP) — The frozen remains of an Eskimo woman who lived 1,600 years ago show that air pollution was a problem even then.

"She definitely had severe black lung," said George S. Smith, a National Park Service anthropologist. Black lung, caused by inhalation of coal dust, is common among miners.

Smith said the woman, who apparently died in a landslide or earthquake, probably acquired the lung condition by inhaling fumes that accumulated in constricted living quarters from lamps that burned seal oil or whale blubber.

He said the remains found on St. Lawrence Island in the Bering Sea — the oldest human body ever found in Alaska — also indicated that the woman suffered from coronary atherosclerosis and emphysema.

But there was no evidence of tuberculosis, a disease that has been prevalent among Eskimos since their association with the white man.

"We were hoping there would be some indication of diseases that still afflict Eskimos," said Zorro A. Bradley, a research anthropologist with the park service. "But there was not."

Dr. Michael Zimmerman of the University of Pennsylvania Hospital, who did an autopsy, said he found the internal organs "remarkably well preserved," indicating that the body was frozen immediately after the woman died.

Three Eskimo brothers from Savoonga — Ray, Gabriel and Bradley

Gologergen — found the body, partially exposed, in October 1972. They reburied it in the permafrost, then told Bradley of their find.

The body was exhumed, shipped to the University of Alaska near here and placed in a deep freezer. Scientists from around the nation were recruited for a detailed examination.

Bradley said the naked body was found in an area long inhabited by people who lived in earthen houses. The woman's knees were drawn up to her chest, one side of her face was crushed and moss-like material was found in the lungs. Some chickweed was clutched in one hand.

STRIKING STRAWBERRIES—Workers cover the ground around strawberry plants in a field near Oxnard, Calif., with strips of plastic. The plastic reflects the sun's rays, holds water in the soil and keeps the berry plant and fruit off the ground preventing chemical damage. This area in Ventura County is the largest producer of strawberries in California.

Carter To Spend Weekend At Plains, Georgia Home

WASHINGTON (AP) — After less than a month in office, President Carter is longing for the peanut fields of home. And that's where he will spend the weekend.

Carter planned to journey to his Plains, Ga., home today for the first time as President after a series of White House meetings on foreign affairs, defense and economic matters.

His first meeting was with a delegation from the National League of Families, a group pressing for an accounting of men missing in action from the Vietnam war.

He also planned to confer with Secretary of State Cyrus Vance and the U.S. negotiators in the Panama Canal treaty talks, Ambassadors Ellsworth Bunker and Sol Linowitz. Bunker and Linowitz leave for Panama on Sunday, with the talks starting a week later.

Carter planned to discuss New York City's finances with Mayor Abraham Beame.

He also set up a business luncheon on the defense budget with Vance, National Security Adviser Zbigniew Brzezinski and budget director Bert Lance, with Defense Secretary Harold Brown joining in later.

Press Secretary Jody Powell said the President planned to review major budget issues during his weekend stay in Georgia. The Defense Department, where Carter has pledged to make spending cuts, was one budget area Carter will be looking into, Powell said.

Carter and his family scheduled their flight to Georgia aboard a new $117.4 million military jumbo jet that was built to serve as an aerial command post in case of national emergency such as a nuclear attack.

Carter will be the first president ever to fly on the sophisticated Boeing 747 communications plane, one of two jumbo jets kept in readiness at Andrews AFB in nearby Maryland. Carter asked military commanders to brief him on the plane's operations during the 90-minute flight from Andrews to Warner Robins AFB near Macon, Ga.

On Thursday, Carter continued his tour of government agencies, telling civil servants his reorganization plans will not put them out of work and exhorting them to aid the reorganization effort in order to provide better service for the public.

Hundreds of workers at the Treasury and Housing and Urban Development departments cheered the President when he promised that no one would be discharged or demoted and that any transferred employees would be retrained for new jobs at government expense.

The White House also announced that the President will field questions from the public on a live radio show from 2 to 4 p.m. on Saturday, March 5. The show, called "Ask President Carter," will be broadcast by the CBS radio network, with anchorman Walter Cronkite as moderator. Special toll-free telephone lines will be set up for the show.

Carroll To Travel To Los Angeles

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — Gov. Julian Carroll is scheduled to present horse of the year honors to a Kentucky-bred horse tonight at the Thoroughbred Racing Association's 35th annual Eclipse Dinner in Los Angeles.

The event will kick off a 10-day California visit. Carroll plans to open a west coast office of the Kentucky Department of Commerce, call on some California-based industries and host a Kentucky Film Commission news conference and luncheon, his office announced Thursday. Commerce Commissioner Terry McBrayer said the Los Angeles office, which Carroll will open Monday, will be staffed by Joe Riley of Hopkinsville, former assistant director of the 21-county Southern Kentucky Industrial Development Association.

"Basically, it will be a branch of the Department of Commerce, making daily calls on various industries out there, not only the ones that presently have facilities in Kentucky but ones that show some interest," McBrayer said.

Weight Watchers To 'Help Heart'

Weight Watchers members in Murray during February will "give up their fat to help Heart."

"For every pound of fat our members lose during 'Heart Month' we will donate two cents to the Heart Fund," explained Weight Watchers Area Director Kay Morrissey.

Statistics will be kept on each of the 150 classes in Kentucky and Southern Indiana and all that is lost in the Murray group, which meets every Monday at 6:45 p.m. in the First Methodist Church on Maple Avenue, will be credited to the local campaign drive, Mrs. Morrissey said. The class lecturer here is Dolores Boggess.

"The Weight Watchers organization participated in the 1973 campaign," Mrs. Morrissey said, "and members throughout Kentucky and Southern Indiana gave up a grand total of 51,965 pounds."

This joint statement was made by state Heart Association executive directors Robert A. Thornbury of Kentucky and Dale M. Byerly of Indiana. "We are very pleased that Weight Watchers in Kentucky and Indiana during 1977 will be cardiovascular disease deaths (diseases of the heart and circulation). An appalling 19,500 deaths in Kentucky and 26,500 in Indiana, and that's more than half of ALL deaths in the two states!"

Researchers report that more than 40 million Americans are so overweight that their health is directly threatened. Many believe that more than 50 per cent of the one million annual heart-disease deaths in the United States are diet-related.

Complaints Received On Lighting Products Sales

FRANKFOUR — Attorney General Robert F. Stephens today warned Kentucky business people that the Consumer Protection Division has received a number of complaints about an out-of-state lighting products company that is shipping merchandise not properly ordered and attempting to charge several times the normal retail price.

This company begins its routine by making telephone contact with the local business and asking permission to send a "few" fluorescent light-bulbs. In some instances, representations are made about free gifts, or previous orders which, in fact, were never made. Assurances are also made that orders will be confirmed prior to shipment, but these confirmations often are not made with a responsible purchasing authority.

Several days later, the business receives a shipment of about four dozen bulbs which are invoiced for around $250. When the local merchant attempts to return the bulbs, the company refuses to accept delivery and demands payment for the order.

Stephens also said that while the company insists that prior approval of the order has been given by local businesses, the invoices do not contain the signatures of local store owners, business managers, or purchasing agents. There has also been a failure to disclose the precise type of product, number of units, price per unit, total cost or date of delivery.

Stephens suggested that all Kentucky business people should be aware of these activities and should warn employees to be cautious about some phone solicitations. Employees should be instructed to bring them to the attention of the manager.

The Attorney General's Division of Consumer Protection asks anyone having knowledge of this problem to write the Attorney General's Office, Division of Consumer Protection, Frankfort, Ky. 40601.
