65 Million Cut In TVA Funds

Is Advised By House Committee

The House Committee on Appropriations has recommended a 65 million dollar cut in the Tennessee Valley Authority's budget for the current fiscal year.

The cut is part of a larger bill that would provide $700 million in defense contracts and $400 million in new buildings and roads. The bill is expected to be voted on by the full House next week.

31 Flies Battled at Restaurant

1927

June 9

The foreman of a small restaurant near the airport in New York City has been arrested for flying 31 planes over the restaurant without permission.

The incident occurred at about 11 a.m. today, when the foreman brought one of the planes to a window of the restaurant. He then proceeded to fly the plane around the city, causing some discomfort to customers.

The incident is being investigated by the Federal Aviation Administration.

The Restaurant

The restaurant is one of several that have opened in the area in recent months, catering to the needs of pilots and their families.

The restaurant is located at 123 Broadway, New York City.
"Unless We Work"

Bernard M. Baruch, one of the great American statesmen and financial experts, said: "We have wanted every luxury, but we have not wanted to labor to earn it. Our whole philosophy of late has been the Widal one. If you don't tend your garden, how can you expect it to produce flowers?" He meant that one who wants to enjoy the fruits of life must work for it just as the farmer must harvest his crops.
