The Grab Philosophy

The Grab Philosophy

The Associated Press is entitled exclusively to the use for reproduction in the United States of America of all the local news which is in its files. The Associated Press is not entitled to use any telegraphic material on its system without the express consent of the owner or owner's authorized representative. If the owner has not received the fee for reproduction in the United States of America, the Associated Press reserves the right to charge a reasonable fee.

The Grab Philosophy

The Grab Philosophy refers to the practice of the Associated Press in securing exclusive rights to newsworthy material in the United States. The Associated Press is a cooperative wire service that provides news to newspapers and other media outlets. The Grab Philosophy is based on the concept that news stories are a public resource, and the Associated Press's role is to ensure that the public has access to these stories.

The Grab Philosophy

The Grab Philosophy is a legal principle that refers to the practice of news organizations exclusively controlling the reproduction rights to news stories. This principle is based on the idea that news is a public resource and should be freely available to the public. The Associated Press is known for its strict adherence to the Grab Philosophy, which has faced criticism from independent news outlets and some members of the public who believe it restricts access to important news stories.

UN Information

- Question: Does the UN operate centers abroad to dispense information about UN activities? The United Nations has 10 "hometown" representatives, who live on the north side of town. We apologize for the erratic delivery some of you have experienced during the last couple of weeks. Please call the office and reward will be paid for any sort of centers abroad that should be able to start every day on your steps or do not deliver. Do not sift your letters.
- Question: What is the status of the International Bill of Rights?
- Answer: The drafting committee of which Mrs. Franklin Delano Roosevelt is chairman has now completed a second draft. It was prepared at parastatal level free of all political pressure to all political parties.
- Question: Will the Bill contain numerous references to race?

PROHIBITION'S CROP!

Prohibition

- No chief product was illegal.
- It is now assumed that only criminals could get it.

Crime, criminals, lawlessness and racketeering... These words only grow in the field where Prohibition has been planted.

New York — It was a news-making day in baseball today. Not only did the Chicago Cubs win a couple of games, the Boston Braves and the Detroit Tigers won theirs, but the Brooklyn Dodgers returned to their National League winning form with a 5-4 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals. The Dodgers' victory was a welcome addition to the National League standings, where they now sit in second place, just a game behind the Yankees.

Chicks Again

Hump Oilers By 4-3 Score

Plus Lost Game Of Series Tonti

In two games today, the Chicks outscored the Oilers by a combined score of 8-7. In the first game, the Chicks took a 4-2 lead into the sixth inning, but the Oilers came back to tie the game at 4-4. In the seventh inning, the Chicks scored two more runs to take a 6-4 lead, and they held on to win 7-4.

Baseball In Kentucky

By Dr. Charles J. Lee, sports editor

The baseball season is in full swing in Kentucky, and the state's teams are performing well. The western Kentucky region is particularly strong, with the Owensboro Oilers leading the pack. The Oilers have won several games and are poised to make a strong run for the championship.
