By The Associated Press

A survey yesterday revealed that a leading Hopkinsville businessman has put together a gambling syndicate to violate the state's anti-gambling law.

The investigation concerns gambling devices, book writing, and dice games in Hopkinsville.

The syndicate operates under the guise of a legitimate business and has been in operation for some time.

The Department of Public Safety and the Hopkinsville
Police Department are conducting the investigation.

When To Take Labor Bill Vote

Taylor's Eight-Hour Solidity
Is No Fulfiller—but Effective

Washington, June 21—The sundry points of the labor bill, a measure aimed at overhauling the nation's labor laws, are still under consideration by the Senate.

The bill, sponsored by Senator Taylor, has been the subject of vigorous debate.

The Senate is expected to reach a decision on the bill shortly after the Labor Day recess.
