TIGERS TO MEET MARION GRIDDERS HERE FRIDAY, 8P.M.

Shake-up In First Eleven May Be Seen In Future Games

After playing and defeating an inspired Fulton eleven here two weeks ago by a 13-7 count, the Murray High School Tigers failed to "get going" last Friday night over at Bowling Green and the Warren countians proceeded to upset the dope bucket by pasting the Murrays by a 20-6 score. Coach Holland says a shake-up in the starting eleven will probably be seen Friday night in the Murray stadium when Coach Paul Woodall will bring his Marion Tigers over for a battle royale. Coach Holland, graduate of Murray State, will endeavor to match strategy with Coach Woodall, a Hilltopper grad.

The game Friday night is designated as Homecoming. It will be remembered that last year the Marion gridders smeared the locals 19-7 and the Tigers, stung from the Bowling Green encounter, will be out to do a little evening up on their own accord.

A highlight of the Friday night event will be special and intricate maneuvers by the Murray High school band and pep squad who in previous game have put on a splendid show for the spectators. School officials pointed out that the band and pep squad are really going to put on a real show and are spending no little time in perfecting the drills.

Coach Holland and Assistant Coach Crider are far from pleased with the type of defense offered by the Tigers, and Holland made no bones in stating that something was being done about it this week. "Of course we know that most of our fellows are new at the game, however, they have room to make marked improvement on defensive play and we have devoted practice this week in an endeavor to bring the boys along in this phase of the game," the veteran mentor said. "We have a good bunch of boys and they will improve steadily as the season goes on as inexperienced players learn the many techniques of the game only by playing under actual fire." Holland concluded.

IT'S OUR DUTY TO VOTE

While our boys are overseas in an effort to improve the "citizenship" of the world, the least we at home can do on November 2 is to go to the polls and vote for the candidates and issues of our choice. That is "citizenship" at home.

It is a strange phenomenon of human nature that many who cry out most vociferously against the activities of their governmental officials are frequently the same persons who stay at home on election day. For over one thousand years men have fought, argued, and legislated for the privilege of voting, for the privilege of being a citizen. Surely today, after all these years of struggle, we can and should exercise that privilege in Calloway County.

We should study the issues clearly and carefully. We should decide what man we want to elect. Then we ought to go to the polls and register that decision. That's democracy at its best.

Let's not be content this time merely with going along to the polls—let's see to it that our friends, relatives, and neighbors go along. It's patriotic to vote and it's patriotic to share a ride.

REMEMBER: VOTE ON NOVEMBER 2.

—L. J. Hortin.

THE SCRAP METAL DRIVE

Most of the schools in the county observed Monday, October 12, as Scrap Holiday. We are endeavoring to get all the scrap in, that is possible. This county has almost 1100 men in service. They are giving their time and in many cases their lives that we may have the things we have enjoyed so long. What are we doing? Are we helping to build this Victory Scrap Bank? Every true American is willing to do his part.

The present supply of scrap metal will be exhausted in forty-five days. It is our business to see that this does not happen. Every man, woman, boy and girl can do something, so please help gather the needed scrap and then trucks will pick it up.

Salvage is necessary to win the war. We are winning battles, but we haven't won the war. We will need many thousand guns, tanks and planes.

There is a severe shortage in some of the vital materials scrap iron for the making of steel; tin for food and medicine containers and war machine parts; fats and greases for glycerine; for ammunition and medicine; paper for cartoons in which to ship food and medical supplies. This means that every person in the entire nation will have a personal job to salvage these materials.

The help from the schools and school people is more vital than ever before.

—Prentice Lassiter, Calloway School Superintendent and Chairman of the Scrap Drive.

The entertainment was sponsored by James M. Thomas and Wayland W. Perry of Hazel.

OUR HEROES...

AND CALLOWAY'S PURPLE HEARTS

Calloway men in the service of our country are many. Some of them will never return. Many will come home, injured beyond remedy. There will be the fortunate ones who will come back to Murray and Calloway County, their home, for whose freedom they fought . . . alive, well to go on living gloriously.

All of these are our HEROES. Some have had the Purple Heart awarded; some will win the Distinguished Service Cross, others the Distinguished Flying Cross. But to all of those who have gone valorously into battle, each of us owes a very personal debt of gratitude, over and above the honor officially conferred.

Our chance to pay that debt of gratitude will not be when the war is over. The time is NOW. We must do everything in our power to shorten this war so that every fighting man may return home, to live and enjoy these things for which he is fighting.

We must KEEP ON BUYING WAR BONDS and fully co-operate in the coming War Fund Drive, as well as the Scrap Metal Campaign, ALL of them are essentials.

When these, our Heroes, return from the present day sacrifices can you say: "I Did All I Could"?

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By HAROLD L. LUNDQUIST, D. D.
Of The Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.
(Selected by Western Newspaper Union)
Lesson for October 17
Lesson subjects and Scripture texts set for a complete year of study by the Council of Religious Education; used by permission.
JESUS AND THE SABBATH
LESSON TEXT—Exodus 20:8-11; Isaiah 58:13, 14; Mark 2:23-28.
GOLDEN TEXT—And he said unto them, the sabbath was made for man, and not man for the sabbath.—Mark 2:27.

The sabbath was essentially a day of rest and worship; hence the principles which surrounded it and directed its life may be applied to our day of rest, which is the first day of the week—the Lord's day.

That word "rest" sounds a little strange in this busy world of ours, and yet it is an important one. It means quiet for the struggling one, calm for the troubled, repose for the weary, tranquility for the disturbed, cessation of labor for the worn-out one.

God in His infinite wisdom saw that the best man would soon destroy himself, and He made provision for one day in seven when labor should cease and man should be free for that recreation of soul and body which should fit him for the labor of the week.

Our lesson answers two important questions about our rest day, namely: Why? and How?

I. Why We Keep a Day of Rest (Exod. 20:8-11; Isa. 58:13, 14).
The chief reason is that God commands it. One day out of seven is the recreation by rest and worship. That should be sufficient to cause His people to "remember" the day "to keep it holy."

Doubtless it is true that essential work and related activities must be carried on, even on Sunday. God did not forbid work of necessity. But even though there is this need, we will deny that many Sunday workers are that not essential and countless others devote it to godless pleasure.

Notice that the day of rest was to be not only for the family, but also for servants and for visitors. The employer who unnecessarily operates his factory or office on Sunday violates this commandment. Note also that the man who is to rest on the seventh day is supposed to work on the six days.

The precept of Exodus 20 is enforced by the promise of Isaiah 58. The man who delights in keeping God's commandment regarding the day of rest, will find that God delights in and honors him. Both men and nations have found this to be true.

II. How We Keep a Day of Rest (Mark 2:23-28).
The formalists of Christ's day, the Pharisees, had overlooked the heart of God's law and the joy of living which it was intended to produce, and had bound up even the observance of the sabbath (which was intended to be a day of rest and gladness) in such a mass of technical "thou shalt not's" that it was a day of fear. They had a false outward profession of worship and had entirely missed the true spirituality of God's law, a fact which drew upon their heads the anger and rebuke of our Lord.

The two incidents in this portion of our lesson reveal the law of the sabbath, the Pharisees were actually covering their own hypocrisy and their hatred for Christ. The accusations against the disciples because they had taken and eaten grain was not on the ground that they had stolen, for the law (Deut. 23:25) guaranteed that right to the one who passed through his neighbor's field. The Pharisees contended, however, that the disciples had worked on the sabbath in picking and hulling the grain.

The healing of the man with the withered arm revealed back of their professed concern for the sabbath was a real hatred for Christ. It is an appalling thing that in the house of worship on the very sabbath day, these men, outwardly so religious, were plotting against our Lord.

"They watched him," and even so the enemies of the Cross watch us who are His followers. They are not concerned that the man with the withered arm, or with the withered soul may be helped, but only that they may find something to condemn.

Jesus cuts across human hypocrisy and hatred to declare that the true keeping of the sabbath is to do the work of God. No work of necessity (like plucking the grain) or of mercy (like healing the withered arm) is ever out of place on the day of rest.

A word of caution is needed, for some have sought to interpret this Scripture as providing a biblical ground for doing all sorts of things on their day of rest. That day is for man's good, not for his destruction. His greatest good is served by rest, worship, spiritual development, Christian fellowship, and the doing of deeds of necessity and mercy.

The desecration of the Lord's Day in our time is a serious matter. Let us not contribute to its deterioration. America needs Sunday as a day of rest and worship.

FDEA President Writes Article for State School Journal

Ray McDonald, newly-elected president of the First District Education Association and principal of the Trigg County High School, Paducah, has written an article, "Putting a High School on a Wartime Program," for the October Kentucky School Journal.

The general plan for reorganizing the school's program, advocated by Mr. McDonald, was to reorganize the school's program on a wartime basis. The plan was to reorganize the school's program on a wartime basis. The plan was to reorganize the school's program on a wartime basis.

For the future, Mr. McDonald has insisted a basic course in mathematics required of seniors who reveal a deficiency in the subject. Increased emphasis on science, a pre-induction course open to all boys approaching their 18th birthday, regardless of grade, elimination of courses of "fads and fashions," introduction of "Spanish" and the study of Inter-American relations and a more complete testing program and record keeping.

Cites Chinese Casualties
On the thirty-second anniversary of the Chinese Republic, the statement was made that "For every American casualty in this war, 34 Chinese have suffered death or wounding since the day when we now realize was the beginning of the world war, the invasion of China by Japan."

Dutch Farmer Tricks Nazis
One Dutch farmer has devised a novel method of evading Nazi restrictions on sale of food. The farmer advertised in the local paper a column of a local paper that he had lost a purse containing 100 guilders and offered one guinea as a reward for its return. Next morning dozens of persons lined up with the purses which they offered to "return" for the reward.

New Regulations for Draft Delinquents Go Into Effect Nov. 1

Colonel Frank D. Rash, State Director for Selective Service for the Commonwealth of Kentucky, in a statement made recently said that Selective Service regulations have been revised to take effect November 1, 1943, and in compliance therewith, all local boards will classify or reclassify all delinquents on that date.

The answer is Yes, says Gustav Egluff, president of the American Institute of Chemists and research director of the Universal Oil Products Co., written in a recent issue of the Rotarian magazine. Oil is probably being produced by Nature faster than it is being consumed by Man, Dr. Egluff maintains. There are doubtless millions of acres of oil-producing territory in the western hemisphere not yet discovered or developed, and many other parts of the earth should prove to be not less rich.

But in addition to its 375,000 producing wells—the United States has billions of barrels available from other crude oil sources, he contends. Investigations have brought to light facts regarding earth processes which convince us that oil is constantly being formed, Dr. Egluff asserts, citing the diatoms found in closed basins of the North American Continental Shelf, particularly along the west coast of California. Diatoms (brown, one-celled plants, growing in jellylike masses in both fresh and salt water) are constantly depositing in the deeper waters of the Pacific Coast, and their organic content is constantly increasing.

Dr. Egluff estimates that the diatoms in the Monterey shale-oil fields would alone produce 2 billion barrels of oil by an ether process extraction—and these represent only one limited area where diatoms are plentiful.

From the foregoing we may conclude that Nature is producing oil at a faster rate than gas pressure or pump strokes can bring it to the earth's surface, writes Dr. Egluff. So we may take heart for the future.

Training School Colts Practice Daily For 1943-44 Cage Season

Coach Roy Stewart, who recently took over the reins of the Murray Training School Colts, is sending his men through daily workouts for the ensuing season.

H. W. Wilson and Max Turnbow were elected captain and alternate captain at the meeting.

The Training School should have its best season in several years as six experienced men from last year's squad return along with two transfers from Trigg County High.

The Colts experienced a fair season last year. They got off to a slow start but hit their stride soon after Christmas, clinching their season by holding a highly-rated Manual five-to-a 38-34 decision and then advancing to the semi-finals of the fourth district tournament.

Wilson and Turnbow, who succeed Marvin Harris and Joe Windham, are the only two men left of last year's first team, but along with Charles Laister, Duell Burken, Hugh Puppa and Harry Russell should give a good account of themselves this year.

Coach Stewart, who succeeds Ed Seales as the Colts' coach, is well known to sports fans in this area. He was graduated from Union University as an outstanding athlete, winning letters in five major sports, and being placed on the S. I. A. A. football team as half-back in 1934.

Following his graduation, Stewart remained at Union as coach until 1932. Coming to Murray State in 1932 Stewart had no time in getting into coaching in Australia, where he coached an undefeated, untied football team which won the SIAA championship. Again, in 1937 his team won the crown.

HERE'S HOW THAT SERVICE FLAG FIRST CAME INTO GENERAL USE

Who first thought of the blue, starred and gold-colored, red-bordered pennant which today tells us proud Americans "Millions of American Windows today?"

The answer is to be found in the "Millions of American Windows" story. The story is told in the "Millions of American Windows" story. The story is told in the "Millions of American Windows" story.

Captain Quincey Lida caught the pennant flag at Gies-Jordan's present building in the city of Cleveland and made it his own. He declared in favor of its use, while the state of Ohio shortly followed suit. A one-time member of the Cleveland Rotary Club, the originator of the service flag did not live to see its use.

Crude Oil Supply Won't Fail, Says Petroleum Expert

Will the earth's petroleum supply stand the enormous drain of global warfare? Will it meet the needs of postwar years—which will add many new items to the list of 2,000 products now being made from crude oil?

The answer is Yes, says Gustav Egluff, president of the American Institute of Chemists and research director of the Universal Oil Products Co., written in a recent issue of the Rotarian magazine. Oil is probably being produced by Nature faster than it is being consumed by Man, Dr. Egluff maintains. Applicants for B and C Gasoline Rations. Must Have Absolute and Bona Fide Need

The War Price and Rationing Boards throughout the Louisville District of the Office of Price Administration were sent a bulletin issued by Paul Dexheimer, District Mileage Rationing Officer, giving authority to the gasoline panels of those boards to accept applications from B and C ration holders, beginning October 15.

"We are at a critical stage in our program of gasoline conservation," said Dexheimer. Instructions emanating from the Office of the Petroleum Administrator for War have consistently emphasized the necessity for restricting the use of gasoline to minimum essential requirements. It is our opinion that the public has accepted the recent reduction in coupon value from three gallons to two gallons with the feeling that each one is making an individual contribution to ward solving the shortage problem. We are further convinced that thousands of holders of B and fifteenth will only join the boards and make it virtually impossible for efficient handling. No person who feels he is entitled to a restoration should make his application sooner than it is necessary. It is recommended that he wait until at least two weeks before the earliest renewal of his present ration, with the exception of those cases where it is obvious that coupons will be exhausted before that time. Applications may be made in person or by mail. In the latter case the applicant must obtain the form at the local board office and the completed application must be accompanied by the tire inspection record.

Dexheimer paid a particular compliment to the gasoline panels of the various boards throughout this district by stating that "they have done a magnificent job under the most trying circumstances. It is their responsibility to see that gasoline is conserved and we know they will do an intelligent and constructive job in this new effort."

Lloyd H. Futrell Writes From England

Lloyd H. Futrell, the son of Mrs. Frank Futrell, Murray, Route 3, wrote an interesting letter this week to his mother and told her of some of the things that were of special interest. The Ledger and Times is happy to print this letter and any other news that concerns Calloway County giving services to their country. Mrs. Paschall has a just right to be proud of this son and his good work that he is giving.

Dear Mother:

I hope this letter finds everyone at home fine. I am alright and made it over here O.K. It was an awful long trip, but didn't get sea sick although some of the boys did. It is a pretty nice country here—what I have seen of it. A lot of things are pretty much like they are back home—and a lot of things are different. All that I can say about my location is—I'm in England. I am going to write Pug and Mable tonight. The people here sure are friendly. Tell Sister Nell's folks I said hello. Lots of love—Lloyd H. Futrell.

Prof. W. H. Brooks Congratulates Champion Tomato Growers of '43

Pictured above are Prof. W. H. Brooks (left), president of the Calloway County Vegetable Growers Association, shaking hands with J. D. Wade of Lynchville, Ky., who won the championship this year in growing tomatoes. At the extreme right is Q. K. Wiggins of Mayfield, Ky., Star route, who was second in tomato production. Standing to the right of Mr. Brooks is Rudolph Guerin of East Calloway who ranked third.

Mr. Wade won the tomato-growing title with a sales record of $715.35 per acre. Mr. Wiggins was second with $642.24 per acre and Mr. Guerin took third place with an average of $602.15.

In its annual report released today, the Association announced it had packed 10,722 lbs. (half-bushels) of green-wrapped tomatoes and has sold them for $25.121.73. The general average per lb. was $2.34. After deducting for plants, commission, and expenses, the growers received $18,290.02 for an average of $1.70 per lb.

Mr. Wade said he was handicapped this year by getting a bad stand, necessitating the re-setting of his crop. His record crop was raised on red clover "branch bottom" land, to which he applied manure and fertilizer. He said he ploughed his crop three times, following the level cultivation method. "Shallow cultivation is best," he said. Next year he plans to grow at least three acres of tomatoes.

Ammonium Nitrate Arrives In County

Another 30-ton car of ammonium nitrate was distributed to TVA demonstrators of Calloway county last week, according to reports by Assistant County Agent Kelley.

This is the second car load of this fertilizer which the demonstrators have received this year. This ammonium nitrate which is 32% nitrogen is being furnished by the Agricultural Relations Department of TVA for demonstration purposes only.

The first shipment received was applied to row crops and, although many of the crops were too mature to show great results, some have shown a definite increased yield. This shipment will all be applied to approximately 600 acres of small grains within the next month. Check plots will be set up in every field on which this fertilizer is used and complete records on the use of it will be released at a later date.

Can You Afford To Sell Cream?

100 lbs. of average Jersey milk at this season contains 5 lbs. of butter fat which is now worth at the milk plant 65c per lb.

Plus subsidy of $3.25 per 100 lbs.

Total you get for 100 lbs. of 5% milk $3.60 or 72c per lb. of fat

Less hauling 30 cents

Net to you, 66c per lb. of fat or $3.30 per 100 lbs. of milk

If sold as cream you can only recover about 4 lbs. of fat by hand skimming or a water separator, hence you can only sell from 100 lbs. of whole milk (so separated) 4 lbs. of fat in cream at 49c per lb. of fat or $1.76

Plus subsidy on fat in cream of 4c .16

Total cash sales value if sold as cream $1.92

EXTRA MONEY you will receive for 100 lbs. of milk if sold as whole milk $1.38 per 100 lbs.

That leaves just one question—CAN YOU AFFORD TO FEED SKIM MILK AT A COST OF $1.28 per 90 pounds (what is left after cream is removed) which is more than 17c per lb. for the 8 lbs. of solid food contained in the skim milk? The shortest road crop in America is milk for manufacturing purposes. If not selling milk—better think about it.

Bro. Sam Martin to Deliver Farewell Sermon Oct. 31

The Rev. Sam P. Martin, pastor of the First Baptist Church for the past seven and one half years, will deliver his final sermon in his present pastorate Sunday, October 31, and his congregation is interested in having all his friends and fellow workers as well as members of the church be present to say goodbye to their leader on that date.

A committee composed of the Rev. J. E. Skinner, Ronald W. Churchill, and Trevor Beale from that church, was assigned to give the following announcement:

"By order of the First Baptist Church, Murray, Ky., October 13, 1943, the undersigned committee was appointed to give due consideration and public notice concerning the retirement of our beloved pastor, Dr. Sam P. Martin. From the pastorate of the First Baptist Church on October 31, 1943, to enter upon another field of service.

"It is with deepest regret on the part of this committee and of the entire membership, that conditions over which we have no control, and which we have no right to control, make it necessary for this relationship to be severed. For seven and a half years he has faithfully and successfully led this flock into larger fields of service and usefulness in the Kingdom of God, for which we are grateful both to him, and the great Head of the church; and for that reason we cannot and must not question the divine guidance which is now removing him from among us to other fields of service, but must bow to the will of God.

"On Sunday morning, October 31, he will preach his last sermon as pastor of this church, and will be taking his leave of us soon thereafter; and the committee therefore requests and will expect the local membership of the entire church, along with his many personal friends in the community to be present on that occasion, and extend thereby our greetings of love and good wishes to him and his faithful companion. Other and unlimited freedom of expressing our love and appreciation will be afforded everyone of us in this never-to-be forgotten service of love.

Frank "Woosy" Ryan Writes Mother From Australia

Mrs. Joe Ryan, the mother of two sons, Frank and Charles, in the service, received a letter from our old friend and her son, Frank, who is in the cavalry somewhere in Australia, this week. The letter is filled with bits of Frank's thinking that is interesting to the Ledger & Times and to his many friends. The editor of this paper remembers Frank who attended her classes in the local high school and pleasantly recalls many interesting days working with him and many other young men who are scattered over the face of this world—still giving their all and doing their best as they did in those good old school days.

Sept. 14.
Dear Mother:
Am wondering if by now my letters are reaching you in a reasonable time. In your last letter you mentioned that you had only received two, and it seems that it took some time for them to get there. Imagine that the service that way is much slower, because I have been getting yours pretty regularly. Have been getting the papers also, and keep them coming. For I really enjoy reading about all the goings on at home. Of course there is a lot that is new to me, don't know the people and things like that but read every single line, right down to the ads. At the present haven't gotten the blades but am sure that they will be here in time. They will have to come by boat, and that is much slower. About the Christmas business, think I am a little too far to be expecting anything from home, and I think it would be a good idea to let it slide this year, but if you must send something, make it chocolate candy.

Am absolutely starving for good old U. S. Candy. Got a letter from Charles, and he seems to be much better satisfied. Hope he remains that way. Wrote him a letter this morning so he should be hearing from me soon. Be sure and send me Skip Neal's address, you know I haven't heard from him in over a year. Guess Pooch is home by now. Certainly hope he is getting along O. K. He really had his share of this war.

Haven't been going anywhere to see sights, so can't tell you any more. Know my letters are not very interesting, but there is just exactly nothing to write about. Saw in the papers that the College isn't going to have football this season. Guess that Murray fans are disappointed, but maybe they will come through with enough to satisfy them. Wish I could be there to see him lay it on a few of the

You keep asking about pictures. We can send them if we are careful what they are, but I don't have a camera, remember I sent mine home, so don't see a chance of getting any. However I have a lot to tell you when I get home.

This letter may seem short, but remember it is typewritten. Lots of mistakes too, don't you think. So till next time, I will sign off. Keep the letters and papers coming. All my love,

Some Early History John Wright Holzapfel, Temple, Texas

In the closing decades of the nineteenth century many Kentuckians left the Dark and Bloody Grounds of their native State to spy on, and possibly settle in, the Lone Star State. Being one of those who came as early as 1888 I have seen much coming and going. In fact when I had spent the year 1889 in Texas I returned to my native State with the avowed purpose of returning here to make my future home. So after spending a year and a half in Kentucky I came back to Texas and have been here ever since.

I preached my farewell sermon at Benton, Ky., on the last Sunday in November, 1888, and my first in Texas at Cisco, Texas, the first Sunday in December. At Cisco I met several from Western Kentucky who gave me a regular Kentucky welcome. Among these were Blakes, Hines and others. They were from Ballard county and we knew many friends in common. I was engaged without the loss of any time to preach at Abilene, Cisco and Eastland. At Cisco they told me of a revival meeting just previously held there by General Gano and T. W. Caskey. Gano was a pathetic preacher and Caskey was quite logical. Caskey did most of the preaching and Gano most of the exhorting. They said Caskey would conclude one of his logical sermons in which he could almost prove that BLACK IS WHITE, and a hymn of invitation was sung without any acceptance, Caskey would ask Gano to exhort a while. When the latter did so and several came forward Caskey would say, "Oh! so everybody could hear: 'Brother Gano, can't you cry some more?'"

In the course of a few months I held revival services in the church of the church was the name of a man who habitually hung around saloons but never came to church. I went to see him and obtained a promise that he would come to church the following Sunday and be restored to the fellowship. He said, however, that if he did not come I could tell the congregation what had happened and that we might drop his name from the church roll. Well, he was not there at the appointed time and I told just what had happened. He was notified. He got drunk, rented a double barrel shot gun, and sent me a note saying that the town was not big enough for us both, that he expected to stay, etc. Horace Wisner brought me the note and a shot gun. Pretty soon Tom Blake came up to the house where I was, bringing a gun with him. He said he just came to talk to me. He said, "When we reached the church I went in and he remained outside the door with both guns. We had a full house but the other gun man never showed up so nothing happened. The next day we were all summoned to court. After hearing all the testimony the magistrate said he would require the gun man to make bond to keep the peace, but he said he could not do so unless I requested it. I told the judge that I would not require it. So the trouble ended. The revival meeting went on with renewed interest. In about a week the afore-said gun man was in my audience one night. When the invitation song was started he started down the aisle toward me. I soon saw there was no fight in his eye but penitential tears instead. When he extended his hand he said 'I don't want to be a dog. I want to be a man; I don't want to go to hell. I want to go to heaven. There were many happy hearts that night. Many felt like shouting in the good old Methodist fashion. So far as I know my new-made friend loved a faithful Christian life thereafter.

Mudhens Are Tasty If Cooked Properly, Says Game Authority

So you don't think you'd care to dine on mudhens—sometimes called coots?

Well, then, you've never eaten "Coot Bouhys," prepared according to the recipe of Bob Becker, famous sportsman. If Mr. and Mrs. Average American give up some of their foolish taboos, he points out in the August, Bohemian magazine, they'll find mudhens, jackrabbits, and other often-spurned game will save many ration points.

Here's Becker's recipe for "Coot Bouhys." You start with 10 coots. Wash birds thoroughly; slit for 24 hours, then wash again. Boil slowly in plenty of water, skimming this until surface clears. Add salt and pepper to taste, along with allspice and bay leaves. (Keep adding salt and pepper as you add other ingredients.) After broths clear, add pint of fine-cut onions, 3 pints of cut cabbage, pint of fine-cut celery. Add quart can of tomatoes, or pint of tomato soup. Add all these items one at a time. Simmer until meat begins to get tender, then add hearts and livers, with pint of diced turnips, pint of diced rutabagas, 2 pints of sliced or diced carrots, and 2 quarts of potatoes, cut to inch cubes.

Keep adding water as needed, keep seasoning frequently. Stir constantly, as broth burns easily in thickening. Cook until meat starts to fall from bones. (One way to serve is by stripping meat from bones and then serving as thick soup for main dish.)

Getting rid of that extra-gamey taste in wild-fowl and animals is just a matter of smart cookery, Becker points out. In the case of rabbit he advises that a teaspoonful of vinegar be added to the water in which it is boiled. Another secret is never to boil rabbits too rapidly. Muskrats should be soaked overnight in salt water to draw out the blood and reduce the gamey flavor. As for the common complaint that pheasant meat is too dry, Becker suggests rubbing the bird with olive oil mixed with salt and pepper, or basting with sour cream during the cooking period.

This year hunting is more than a sport, the author asserts, for sportsmen can add to the family larder and help farmers "harvest" wild fowl eating their grain. Last Fall, American hunters "cropped" more than 254 million pounds of wild-game meat—venison, elk, moose, rabbits, pheasants, and wild fowl. This year game laws are liberal and the War Production Board has made about 82 million shotgun shells and approximately 12 million rifle cartridges available to hunters.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

How to make the packed lunch appetizing day to day is a lesson, homemakers' opinion to study. Planning that meal when the regular family meals are considered is the best scheme, in the opinion of Miss Florence Inlay, foods specialist at the Kentucky College of Agriculture and Home Economics. Then all may be built around the basic-seven foods which are necessary for good health.

A hunch gizzard makes the daily task easier. It should include milk served in its natural form, or as cocoa or soup; bread of enriched or wholewheat flour, usually made into sandwiches with cheese, eggs, fish, meat, poultry, or peanut butter; a cooked or raw vegetable or fruit, and a simple dessert.

One food to be served hot, which may be soup, cocoa or a creamed or scalloped vegetable, should be arranged for, if possible. In many schools where a prepared hot lunch is not served, foods carried from home are easily heated by setting the containers in hot water for a half hour.

School lunch menu: Ham and egg sandwich, carrot sticks, peanut butter cookies, milk and apple.

Peanut Butter Cookies

1 c. peanut butter
1 c. sugar
2 eggs
2 c. sifted flour
3 tsp. baking powder
1/2 tsp. salt
1 c. milk
Mix the sugar, peanut butter and well beaten eggs. Sift together the dry ingredients and add alternately with the milk to the first mixture. Divide by teaspoonfuls on a greased baking sheet about an inch apart. Bake in a moderate oven, 250° degrees, about 15 minutes, or until lightly browned.

Russia Thanks American Farmers

The sincere appreciation of the Russian people for American seeds sent to aid Russian farmers in the war-devastated areas recaptured from the enemy was recently expressed by Russian officials, the Department of Agriculture has reported. As of July 1 this year, nearly one million pounds of vegetable seed and two and one-half million pounds of field seed had been contributed to the Russian war relief agency through the efforts of United States seed improvement associations, extension services, and thousands of individual farmers and seedsmen.

It's HIGH TIME to Change in Kentucky!

For 12 years now, state administration has been in the hands of a gang!

In spite of changes in outward leadership, the gang has remained unchanged. Its policy, from first to last, has been to keep itself in power.

And so we have seen the waste of money and the abuse of trust. We have seen sleepers on the payroll and leeches on the public purse. We have heard of deals and bargains and conspiracies against the general interest. We have read of political assessments against state employees and illegal contributions to campaign funds. We have seen the public service degraded and standards of honor cast aside. We have borne a heavier and heavier burden of taxation.

By these means, the machine has fattened and grown strong, until now we can free ourselves from it only by united and resolute action.

YOU can help save Kentucky

The Republican party, by nominating nine independent and able citizens pledged to the elimination of political gangsterism, offers the opportunity for freedom and good government. By supporting them, we strike a blow for liberty and take sides against dishonor.

Vote Republican!

TO THE MEMORY OF JOHN LUTHER GRUBBS

On the morning of August 22nd, 1922, God smiled on Mr. and Mrs. John B. Grubbs as a son was born to their union. He was named John Luther. In 1897, after hearing the gospel story of Christ, and believing it, he confessed his Lord and Savior and was baptized while Bro. Wright Ray was preaching. He remained a faithful and attentive member of the Blood River Congregation of the Church of Christ until his health confined him to his home. In 1925 he selected Miss May LeFevre Fisher for his life's companion. They were married on November 17, 1925. To this union four children were born. One girl and three boys. They are: Alvin L. Grubbs has given up his education at Detroit, Michigan. Clovis Grubbs of this vicinity. And Pvt. William Grubbs of the United States Army at Camp Lee, Virginia. There are three grandchildren. Elvin Freeland of Henderson, Tennessee, and Baby Lowell Grubbs.

Not a day passes that we fail to see the power of God manifest in some way. We are slow to notice and realize the value of the things we think beautiful. But we are reminded when God calls a loved one to step out of this stage of action. God greets and God takes away. He has given each of us life and soon he will beckon us to come too. We may not be ready to go, but none will fail to answer God's call. Paul said as he was about to cross death's chilly stream, "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course. I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, shall give me at that day; and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing." If we do those things which Paul said he had done, we may have that same hope that he had.

The writer heard Mister Grubbs say awhile before he crossed death's dark valley "I have worked hard all of my life. I haven't had much of this old world's goods; but what I have had, I obtained honestly. Isn't it wonderful to be able to say that at the end of life's short day?" Mister Grubbs passed on to realms beyond life's shadows on October 1, 1943, at the age of 81 years, 1 month and 9 days. We do not know where he will spend eternity. Nothing that we can say or do can alter his eternal destiny. He is now in the hands of a merciful Heavenly Father. That is all that we know of a surety. That is enough. We believe that he will rest in those mansions that Jesus has gone to prepare. We can prepare to go there and meet him in that fair city, where the river of life flows free, when we have come to the end of the journey of life and cross the dark river of death, we hope to hear it said, "Well done thou good and faithful servant, enter thou into the joys of thy Lord" and be with friends and loved ones to walk on the glad hills of God's glory and hear the welcome bells resound their enraptured melodies of eternal endurance, for "Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord."

CARD OF THANKS

We, the family of Mrs. Wash Dick, wish to thank the neighbors and friends for their kindness to us during the illness and death of our dear mother, especially do we wish to thank the Church Hill Funeral Home, Rev. H. L. Lax and those who furnished the music. We pray God's blessings on you all. —The Children.

Of Course You're Thrilled, Young Lady!

... So many things have been happening since school started... so many new friends to talk to, and so much to talk about.

Certainly you're thrilled, young lady! But before calling, please remember that all telephone lines are crowded now. If you're a party line user, it's especially important to avoid unnecessary calling — and to speak briefly always. Telephone materials aren't available to build enough lines for everybody, so we must make the most of the facilities we have. Your help in keeping the lines clear will be appreciated by a lot of people.

S. Pleasant Grove

To many in other localities who formerly lived here, the first big day came Saturday night, but this Monday brings warmer weather. Mrs. Bill Guerin left Wednesday for Detroit, after a few weeks' visit with relatives and with her husband, who with Orta Key and 17 other Calway men, left Wednesday for Army service. For the present Mrs. Orta Key and baby will make their home in Murray. Her sister, Miss Leola Erwin, who has a home in Scott's shop is still staying with her. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Guerin last week visited the latter's grandparents and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. John McPherson and Mr. and Mrs. Robert McPherson.

Waver Erwin, a pilot in the air corps, left Saturday for service after a week's furlough.

Joe Tom Erwin, Richard Nesbit, and Burton Erwin of this vicinity took their Army exams in Evansville, Ind., Monday.

Loss of fruit and vegetables, estimated at some 20,000 quarts, has been caused in this section. The canneries at Hazel was quite a help.

Peyton Beaman, son of the late Albert Beaman, formerly of this vicinity, was visiting relatives in the county last week. His only son is in the Army.

Mrs. Vile Miller returned home last week after several days' visit with relatives near Hazel.

The Parks district superintendent, Bro. Clark, will preach at Pleasant Grove next Saturday morning and hold quarterly conference for Hazel Church Sunday afternoon. As usual free dinner will be served on the church lawn. These meetings are for all who find it convenient to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Charlton and children of Detroit arrived Thursday for a 4-day visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gro.

Now Many Wear FALSE TEETH With More Comfort

FASTEETH, a pleasant alkaline tooth powder, holds false teeth more firmly. To eat and talk in more comfort, just sprinkle a little FASTEETH on your plates. No funny, sticky, pasty taste or feeling. Checks "plate odor" (retention breath). Get FASTEETH at any drug store.

Mrs. Payne and Mrs. Bruce Jones were elected major project leaders.

The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Gussie Crouse November.

Elgie B. Williams.

IN MEMORY

In memory of Fred Eugene Atkins. Twelve long months have gone by. Since the passing away of our dear Fred. Although his memory is with us still.

In the grave dear Fred is sleeping. His form lies beneath the sod. But in peace his soul is resting. In the Paradise of God.

We will not say that Fred is dead. He is just away. With a soft sweet smile and a wave of the hand. He is viewing the promised land. He and Mrs. T. D. Atkins and Family. Miss Elma Ray Buckley.

Chinese Get Liberty Ships

Two American Liberty ships regularly assigned by the United States to the Chinese government for operation during the war are the beginning of the first Chinese owned merchant marine. Dr. T. V. Soong, Chinese foreign minister, commenting on the event said: "Flying the Chinese flag and manned by Chinese crews, these ships will represent an important symbol for China and the thousands of Chinese sailors now sailing on ships of the United Nations." One of the ships was named "Chung Shan" in honor of Dr. Sun Yat-sen, father of the Chinese republic, and the other "Chung Cheng," courtesy name of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, China's president and wartime leader.

Blessed are the OPAs

For they have repented for their neglect of little children. They have consented to have 11 million boys' overalls made; also some children's underwear. Just how long it will take to get them in the hands of the retailers, I don't know.

I have on the way now 6 dozen boys' union suits, shipped the 11th. It seems the petitions of the mothers have reached the ears of the regulator. This ruling should have been made in July. Now pray for some sturdy shoes for school children. Better late than not at all. OPA needs some one around the place to attend to little things; they are too big to look after such things. Now large men need work clothes and large shoes. None to be had.

They do not ask for luxuries, nor for fashion flowers to bloom in winter; only bare necessities. I have been selling work clothing since 1887. Never saw them so scarce. Many old fellows have gone back to work on the farms to furnish food, and will suffer from exposure without proper clothing.

The school boys did not complain as long as the katydids and grasshoppers were out; but now Jack Frost has driven them into winter quarters and have warned farmers and school children of flu and colds.

The Mothers' Clubs should make complaint to Washington. I have just received men's heavy unionsuits up to size 46.

Come in every time you are in town.
