20 Countians Compete In '47 Ky. Corn Derby

Trip To U. Of Ky. Offered Winner By Farm Bureau

STATE PRIZES OFFERED:

Twenty Farm Bureaus in Kentucky have entered the Kentucky Corn Derby in the hope of winning a trip to the University of Kentucky's campus.

The Derby is sponsored by the Farm Bureau and the Kentucky Department of Agriculture. The winning team will receive a trip to the University of Kentucky, where they will meet with university officials and tour the campus.

The competition is open to all Farm Bureaus in the state, and the winners will be announced later this month.

Another Slight Rise In Mississippi Expected After River Halts Shorty At 103-Year Record

R. Lee, July 2—The rising Mississippi River halted shortly at a 103-year record.

The river break ahead the Chain-Trees Bridge left background unusual flood waters from the levee and the river breaking through the embankment of the bridge. The river break caused the Mississippi River to rise to a record level of 103 feet, breaking the old record of 102 feet set in 1888.

French Plot Uncovered

By Jervis Mac Kenzie

An Associated Press Analysis

French Minister of the Interior Edouard Empain's announcement of a Black Saturday plot to overthrow the Republican and establish a military dictatorship and to assassinate Government leaders, through the assassination of Mr. Schortgen, may become a reality.

The plot was made publicly known by the Government last week and the French Prime Minister was quoted as saying that the plot was being made public in order to prevent its success.

It is believed that the plot was made public in order to prevent its success.

Chicks Repeat Over Mayfield
By 9-3 Score
Fulton Has Won 90 Of Last 91
The Chicks continued on the winning last night at Paris by ousting the Mayfield Chicks and this year Fulton senior high school team is on a hot winning streak and brought their ground winning streak to a 90-3. It was Fulton's second straight game in the past ten games; won out of first and three games out of last.

The eighth at the Chicks 1 run scored every inning but for the third, when Tolson went out pitcher—Bordt, winning another run. Williams cupped a run with a fly, and the game called at 8 o'clock. Engel, the Chicks' lead-off hitter, hit the ball through the left side. Arant flew out to Short. Williams walk and advanced to second on an error. Eldridge was safe and Peterson. Seawright singled for a triple to score Pechous and, advanced to third. Arant flew out to Short.
