Tax Assessment Values Increase In This County

Percentage Rise Of 6.1 Recorded By State Office

STATE AVERAGE 10.4

Frankfort, Ky., July 7.—A 10.4 per cent increase in tax assessment values in Kentucky over the previous year (after equalization by the state tax commission) is shown in the total $2,609,353,368 turned in by the state's 120 counties.

In addition, the commission later fixes assessment values on approximately $1,750,000,000 of taxable property, consisting mainly of franchises and property of railroads and various utilities, building and loan company stock and whisky in storage.

Azro Hadley, state revenue commissioner, reported a total of $1,502,454,815 in the net equalized assessed valuation of real estate, an increase of 5.1 per cent. Largest percentage increase was shown in tangible personalty, which totalled $402,276,176, a rise of 18.6 per cent. Assessed value of 1946 intangible property was $757,858,491, a gain of 17.6 per cent.

Net equalized assessments made by county tax commissioners were released for publication today.

Fulton county's real estate assessment was $8,860,954, an increase of 2.2 per cent. The tangible personalty assessment was $1,452,791, an increase of 10.6 per cent. The county's intangible personalty assessment total was $1,066,727, up 42.3 per cent. Total county assessment was $9,380,472, and total percentage change was 6.1.

In Graves county, only other in the state to show a decrease in the assessment released today, the assessments and increases were: real estate—$15,050,287, 10.1; tangible personalty—$358,620, 29.4; intangible personalty—$5,200,029, 28.8; total $23,424,866, 18.2.

The amounts are based on taxpayers' returns of July 1, a year ago.

Payments are due by March 1, 1948. Assessments made by county tax commissioners are "equalized" annually by the state commission at 80 per cent of estimated fair value.

Real estate tangible property includes household goods, motor vehicles and equipment of all kinds. Intangible personalty includes stock and bonds, mortgages, accounts due and other values represented by notes.

Kentucky Today

By The Associated Press

Lexington—Ninety-one districts of the state Soil Conservation Service are in operation in 89 Kentucky counties, the service announced yesterday. (Logan and Hopkins counties have two districts each.) State conservationist H. K. Gayle said proposals are under consideration for creation of two additional districts in Trigg and Daviess counties.

Lexington—Farmers were urged yesterday by the Kentucky College of Agriculture to make a special effort to save late hay. Considerable loss of early hay has been reported, due in part to wet weather.

Lexington—Two additional emergency rooms have been added at Good Samaritan Hospital here. The hospital said yesterday the added rooms would permit handling approximately 25 per cent more cases. Cost of the project was put at $7,500.

Pineville—Bell county superintendent of schools W. M. Slusher announced today that rural schools in the county will open July 28th, instead of July 14th, as planned. The extra two weeks of vacation time has been added, Slusher said, to allow for repair of school buildings damaged by recent flash floods.

Ashland—Charles H. Gartrell, candidate for the Democratic nomination for Lieutenant governor, said yesterday he would use an airplane next Saturday in his campaign tour which will cover Pikeville, Williamstown, Greenville and Mayfield.

Flood Halved Farm Output

Southeastern Kentucky's Damage Is Estimated By U. K. Agronomy Head

Lexington, Ky., July 7.—(AP)—Approximately half of the normal farm produce can be harvested by southeastern Kentucky farmers whose crops were damaged by recent flash floods if favorable weather conditions prevail.

That was the word today from E. J. Kinney, head of the University of Kentucky agronomy department, who added, however, that the outlook for tobacco is dim because of the lateness of the season and the difficulty in obtaining plants.

Kinney said that with favorable weather conditions, farmers have a good chance to raise late gardens and fair prospects for late corn.

Damage to pastures was sufficient to cripple the dairy industry in some counties, according to word received from W. Clark Wilson, supervisor of county agricultural agents in the southeast section of the state. He cited Clay county as an example.

Washed out crops and other damage caused by the flood in depositing sediment will run into several million dollars, Wilson said, adding that several thousand acres were affected. Much land will not be sufficiently dry to replant for another week, he said.

The affected area included Clay, Knox, Bell, Owsley, Harlan, Jackson, Leslie, Lee, Breathitt and Boone counties. From an agricultural standpoint, Wilson said Clay county was hardest hit. At least 2,000 acres of crops were destroyed there, 1,500 families lost part or all of their gardens and hundreds of other felt some damage.

W. M. Majors Services Held

Graves County Farmer Died At Home Sunday; Rites At Mt. Pleasant

Funeral services for William M. Majors, 76, prominent Graves county farmer, were conducted at the Mt. Pleasant Church of Christ at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Burial was in the church cemetery, with Jackson Brothers Funeral Home of Dukesboro in charge.

Mr. Majors died at 2:30 Sunday morning, July 6, at his home in the Palmire community, about six miles north of Dukesboro. He had been seriously ill for about one week.

He was a lifetime member of the Mt. Pleasant church. His wife, Mrs. Nora Majors, preceded him in death by several years.

He leaves two daughters, Miss Ruth Majors, who made her home with him, and Mrs. Ruby Williamson, Graves county; a son, O. B. Majors, Wingo; two grandsons, and other relatives.

Plane Crash In Germany Kills Louisville Pilot

Louisville, Ky., July 7.—(AP)—A report was received here yesterday of the death in an airplane crash in Germany of Capt. Craigie J. Krayenbuhl, 25, a veteran combat pilot.

Mrs. Robert Craig, mother-in-law of the pilot, said she had received a telephone message from her daughter in Germany. Mrs. Jean Craig Krayenbuhl, telling of the death.

Should Admit "Substantial Number" Of DP's, Truman Tells Congress; Asks Special Legislation

Washington, July 7.—(AP)—President Truman today asked Congress to admit a "substantial number" of Europe's displaced persons into the United States as immigrants.

In a message, Mr. Truman told Congress "special legislation" limited to this particular emergency "would be necessary if the United States is to share in offering 'an opportunity for a new life to these people.'"

Capt. E. J. Smith, United Air Lines pilot of Seattle, holds a dinner plate as an illustration for stewardess Toni Carter of Chicago, while describing the much discussed mystery "flying disc" which Smith and his crew reported seeing on a flight from Boise, Idaho, to Portland. Smith is shown as he arrived at the municipal airport in Chicago, from Seattle.

Saucers. Rumors Are Flying; Everyone Thoroughly Confused

San Francisco, July 7.—(AP)—From one end of the country to the other, new reports of disk-like "flying saucers" skimming through the skies today added to the mystery which has baffled the nation since June 25.

There was no satisfactory explanation of the phenomenon. The saucers first were reported seen in the state of Washington on June 25. Then persons in other western states said they had seen them. The peak came over the July 4 holiday, when they were reported seen east of the Mississippi.

The latest tabulation showed the mystery objects had been reported seen in 38 states, the District of Columbia and in Canada.

Yesterday they were reported to have been seen in more than a dozen states, and in southwestern Ontario.

An aerial patrol by the Oregon National Guard reported it had failed to sight one of the objects. The guard planned to send a plane today to a spot near St. Maries, Idaho, where a woman said 10 persons saw eight of the disks disappear in timber on July 3.

Kenneth Arnold, businessman, pilot of Boise, Idaho, first reported seeing the disks. He said nine flying in formation at a speed estimated at 1,200 miles an hour over the Cascade Mountains, other observers have given the objects various speeds and, in at least one case, said they appeared to be suspended in the air.

Most observers usually agreed that the objects were round or oval. Guesses as to their size have ranged from that of a five-room house or large airplane to one description of "a silver ball, six inches in diameter."

The Army, the Navy and the Atomic Energy Commission all disclaimed any connection with the mystery. An Army Air Forces spokesman in Washington said the AAF had been checking the reports but added that "we still haven't the slightest idea what they could be."

Some scientists suggested that reflections of light, such as aircraft, might account for the bright objects which have been reported. In some cases, the observers have insisted that the "saucers" have been accompanied by sound.

The objects were reported seen since June 25 in Canada, the District of Columbia and the following states: Oregon, Washington, California, Idaho, Arizona, New Mexico, Texas, Montana, Wyoming, Colorado, Missouri, Nebraska, Minnesota, Michigan, Wisconsin, Indiana, Louisiana, Kentucky, Georgia, South Carolina, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Ohio, Illinois, Arkansas, Tennessee, Maine, Florida, Utah, Maryland, Iowa, Kansas, Oklahoma, Connecticut, New Hampshire, New York, Alabama and Virginia.

6 Nations OK Marshall Plan

Only Finland Has Refused To Accept Anglo-French Invitation To Cooperate

Paris, July 7.—(AP)—The French foreign ministry announced today that six nations had accepted the Anglo-French invitation to cooperate in continental economic reconstruction under the Marshall program and that similar notes were expected soon from eight other countries.

The six acceptances were from Belgium, Italy, Portugal, Greece and Turkey.

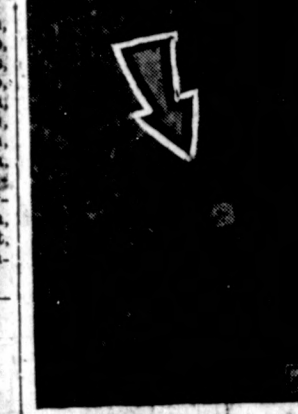

Acceptances "in principle" have been received officially from Holland, Luxembourg, Austria, Denmark, Iceland, Norway, Sweden and Switzerland.

French quarters said that thus far only one nation, Finland, had given a provisional negative reply, and that that was "for political and geographical reasons."

Dairy Judging School Scheduled

The District 4-H Club Dairy Judging Training School will be held at the McCracken county fairgrounds Wednesday, July 9, beginning at 10 a. m.

County agents from all Purchase counties and Livingston county plan to attend, taking with them the judging teams which will be entered in the state fair events in September. Animals entered in the McCracken fair will be used for the judging training classes, and the club members and agents also will attend judging of the fair entries, to take place Wednesday afternoon.

Coastguardsman Frank Ryan reported he photographed mysterious "flying disc" near Seattle, and said he thought object is white and indicated by arrow. Photo is enlarged about 20 times from original.

GOP Describes New Tax Bill As Last Chance

New Bill Same As That Vetted, Except For Date

KNUTSON IS AUTHOR

Washington, June 7.—(AP)—Republicans sought to tie a "this or nothing" tag on the new $4,000,000 tax-cutting measure today in their drive to plop the once-vetted bill on President Truman's desk before the week ends.

Chairman Knutson of the House Ways and Means committee, author of the bill, identical with the one the president rejected except that it effective date would be Jan. 1, 1948, instead of July 1, 1947, made two moves to head off any further changes:

1. He asked the House Rules committee to approve procedures to prohibit any amendments being offered when the House takes up the measure tomorrow. The House is a cinch to approve the bill as it is, probably by more than a two-thirds majority.

2. To head off possible Senate revisions, Knutson wrote Senator Byrd (D-Va.) promising action in January on a husband-and-wife community property law. The letter said it would be "most unfortunate" if Congress acted "hastily on this matter before we found an adequate solution."

Meanwhile, one of the biggest threats to passage of the bill—a possible filibuster in the Senate—subsided.

Senator Taylor (D-Idaho), who led the talkfest that delayed the Senate vote to override Mr. Truman's veto of the Taft-Hartley labor bill, told reporters that although he opposes the tax cut measure: "I don't think (it) is a life and death matter with the country and I have no intention of talking at length about it."

Leon Fields Now Kroger Manager, Replacing Rucker

Leon Fields, head checker at the Fulton Kroger store for two years, has been promoted to manager, succeeding Edmund Rucker.

Mr. Rucker has taken a position in Kroger's branch office in Memphis. His family will join him there in the near future. He had been manager of the local store for the past 15 months.

Fields' appointment as Kroger's Fulton manager made him the second local chain grocery store head with that name. Other Leon Fields is manager of the Fulton A & P store.

Water Classes Being Taught By Red Cross

Tuesday Group To Be Divided Starting July 8

BOY SCOUTS HELP

Swimming and water safety classes, sponsored by the Fulton Red Cross Chapter and taught by Mrs. Russ Anderson, which began July 1 are continuing at Sunny Dip swimming pool even Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday afternoon from 5 to 6 p. m.

Attendance has been very good. The Tuesday class is such that Mrs. Anderson has been forced to divide it into two groups. Beginning tomorrow, she asks that only those boys old report on Tuesdays, and that those eight, nine and ten years old report on Thursdays at the same time the advanced students meet. This will give her the opportunity to supervise the beginners more closely.

To ensure their safety while learning, Mrs. Anderson is being assisted in caring for the children by a group of Boy Scouts from the local Scout troops.

All members of the Wednesday and Thursday classes are asked to report at the pool as usual.

Mrs. Anderson is also very pleased with the progress being made with the classes. She reports that one little fellow who was afraid to go into the water on his first day now can make a pretty "feet" dive and then swim half way across the pool.

Those in attendance are, ages six to ten: Billy Mack Morris, Joe Dallas, Bobby Logan, Delbert Woods, Watt Sevier, Burnham Dallas, Jerry Cousen, Norman Owen, Herbert Calhoun, Joe Johnson, Peggy Owen, Milton Owen, Jerry Speight, Julia Ann Speight, Jackie Edwards, Jean Hyland, Diane Bennett, Wayne Anderson, Beverly Burgess, Molly Wiley, Tommy Exum, Ellen Gifford, Zach Gifford, Edwin Hamlett, David Ruddle, Tommy Brady, Benny Frank Jones, Bobby Cursey, Richard Cardwell, Butch Watkins, Gayle Logan, Marian Blackstone, Fols Bennett, Glen Ed Bradley, Ann Fall, Sidney Callahan, Max

Anti Poll Tax Bill Hits Snag

Illness Of Committeeman May Delay Vote On Bill Backed By GOP In House

Washington, July 7.—(AP)—The anti poll tax legislation being pushed by House Republicans is hung up on a parliamentary snag.

Chairman LeCompte (R-Iowa) of the House Administration committee told a reporter today the illness of Rep. Cole (R-Mo.) may keep the bill from reaching the full committee for a vote as early as planned.

Cole is a member of the subcommittee which closed hearings on the measure last week. The others are Chairman Gamble (R-NY) and Reps. Vursell (R-Ill.), Pickett (D-Tex.), Harrison (D-Va.) and Smathers (D-Fla.).

"With Cole gone," LeCompte said, "the vote in the subcommittee is three to three. Gamble is going to see whether the Democratic members will agree to let him vote a proxy for Cole, or whether we will have to appoint another Republican in Cole's place."

Cole has gone to a hospital here for an eye operation which LeCompte said will keep him from his office for at least two weeks.

The bill, which is on the House "must" schedule for the current session's final month, would outlaw the payment of a poll tax as a prerequisite for voting in federal elections. States which would be affected are Arkansas, Mississippi, Tennessee, South Carolina, Alabama, Virginia, and Texas.

Many Mississippi Levees Weak, May Crack, Army Engineers Say

St. Louis, July 7.—(AP)—Army engineers warned today that although the flooded Mississippi was subsiding south of St. Louis, many levees were in a weakened condition and required even greater vigilance.

Even though falling, the river is still at stages "which in other years would have been classed as a major disaster," Col. R. E. Smyser, Jr., St. Louis district engineer, declared.

"It will be some time before we can make plans for adequate repair of damaged levees. Meanwhile, though they will not be topped, they will require ceaseless patrolling day and night," he said.

The river here fell from 39.1 at 7 a. m. yesterday to 38.79 late in the day and was expected to drop as much as two feet in 48 hours.

At Cape Girardeau, Mo., 150 miles south, the river crested at 41.9 feet, remaining at that mark for 24 hours. Two-thirds of Grand Tower, Ill., remained

Rest Of Industry May Be Tied Up At Holiday's End

NEW DEMANDS MADE

Washington, July 7.—(AP)—A strike of at least 60 percent of the nation's 400,000 coal miners appears inevitable tomorrow as the wage pact which was to lead the way to peace in the bituminous fields bogged down in last-minute legal tangles.

The other 40 percent of the industry may also be strike-bound Tuesday, when the miners' ten-day vacation is due to end, if the race to complete a contract for the northern and steel company "captive" mines is lost.

A tentative agreement on general terms was reached last Wednesday but this contract must be completed before (A) coal mine owners of the south, midwest and far west can determine whether they want to "buy" peace at the same price. (B) Lewis will even talk about an agreement with anyone else.

The legal snarl therefore was not only delaying the northern-steel company settlement pending near the strike deadline, but it had all but wiped out any hope of getting agreements for the remainder of the industry in time to bring the miners from other areas back into the pits by the first shifts at midnight tonight. The "captive" mines produce coal only for steel making.

Wants Protection

Some operators said Lewis was demanding legal protection against any future strikes under the Taft-Hartley labor law, and that the industry representatives working on the northern-steel pact had balked.

Because the new act would permit the coal companies to sue the United Mine Workers for any breach of contract, Lewis is said to have insisted on a provision stating the miners need work only when they are "willing and able."

Otherwise the tentative agreement negotiated by Benjamin F. Fairless, president of the U. S. Steel Corporation, and George M. Humphrey, chairman of the Pittsburgh Consolidation Coal Company, is reported to contain these general terms:

1. The daily pay for an inside day miner is set at $13.05 for eight hours underground, with no premium pay for portal-to-portal travel but with the hourly rate hiked from $11.8 1/2 to $16.3. The miner actually would work only six and one-half hours. Thirty minutes would be allowed for lunch and one hour to get to and from the mine opening underground. This worker got $11.85 for a nine-hour day under the government contract which expired when the federally-seized pits were returned to private ownership last Monday.

2. Inclusion of the federal mine safety code in the contract, superseding the hodgepodge of state laws.

3. Boosting of the controversial tonnage royalty for the miners' welfare fund from five to ten cents. At the latter figure, the fund would get more than $50,000,000 a year if accepted by the entire industry.

Wants Veto Power

Operators said Lewis was insisting that the miners' representative be chairman of the three-man board of trustees for the welfare fund, and that the chairman have veto power. Presumably Lewis himself would be chairman under those conditions.

Political Pressure Blamed By Sutton In Leaving Tax Job

Frankfort, Ky., July 7.—(AP)—E. Ellis Sutton, Lexington Democrat, today handed in his resignation as director of the state division of income taxation.

In a letter to revenue commissioner Azro Hadley, Sutton charged that Hadley and unidentified persons wanted his resignation "solely to obtain relief from partisan political pressure."

Map locates Grand Tower, Ill., where flood waters covered a greater part of the Mississippi River town, following a break in a five-foot sandbag barrier. The barrier, which the town's 1,000 inhabitants had labored to build, gave way during the night.

The Ideal Target

The No. One mystery in the United States today is the origin and identity of the so-called flying saucers that have been spotted from coast to coast, on the ground and from planes.

Some say they're just hallucinations, but a lot of people who have seen and even photographed them are inclined to argue the point.

Whatever the saucers may be, it wouldn't surprise us to see some of the economy-minded Republican Congressmen who want to slash farm, flood control and other funds suggest that the Army and Navy anti-aircraft trainees take pot shots at them instead of at expensive tow targets. This would be as logical as some of their economy proposals, and possibly a direct hit or two would help solve the mystery.

Born Too Soon

The Lyon County Herald, Eddyville, goes all out in complimenting Lyon county's entry in the "Miss West Kentucky" beauty contest at Paducah.

The Lyon miss, says the Herald, possesses "charm, intelligence, humor, poise, character, refinement and friendliness." After this buildup, a lot of us old married men classed ourselves with the famous J. R. Williams cartoon characters who were "Born Thirty Years Too Soon."

Challenge Ignored

We have heard nothing as yet, and expect to hear nothing, from Congressman Earle Clements in reply to Harry Lee Waterfield's challenge to join in "reading our respective public records" in all Kentucky counties so that the people may know the facts in the Democratic campaign for the gubernatorial nomination.

Paid advertisements inserted in Kentucky's weekly newspapers last week claimed that Mr. Clements always had been a friend of TVA and TVA in Kentucky. The opportunity to prove these claims has been offered Mr. Clements. He is significantly silent.

Of course, everyone familiar with Mr. Clements' record in the Kentucky Senate knows that he has consistently favored the interests of the private utilities trust in opposing cheap electricity through publicly-owned power systems. Mr. Waterfield always has sided with the people on this and other important campaign issues. The record is plain and clear. The moving finger writes, and having writ moves on—nor all Mr. Clements' propaganda and misleading advertisements shall lure it back to cancel half a line, nor all his claims erase a word of it.

Sports writer Elmer Kelley (Madisonville Messenger) was considerably upset when the newly Clarksville Colts took a couple from the Miners. The headline on his story said: "Double Murder Committed in Clarksville," and over one of the box scores in big black type was "What-the-Hell-p."

Shall We Feed Them?

Round and round goes the vicious circle in occupied Germany. The Germans in the combined British-American zones cannot raise enough food to sustain themselves, and must produce export articles to pay for food imports. They cannot produce anything unless they have an adequate diet. The only way to prime the production pump, then, is for America and Britain to pour food into Germany. Yet if we guarantee the German diet from our own resources, there is danger that the Germans will not bother to grow as much food or produce as much goods as they are capable of doing.

This dilemma has haunted the two years of our occupation. It would appear that a policy decision has been made in the announcement by Secretary of Agriculture Anderson that America will guarantee by shipments a 1,550 calorie minimum diet for the Germans in the two zones for the next 12 months. This assurance will have its value to the military governor of our zone, Lt. Gen. Lucius Clay. He can make his plans for German production on the basis of a guaranteed diet.

Things would be easier, of course, if the Germans went all out to solve their own food problems. Man's inhumanity to man, however, is sadly demonstrated in the attitude of many German farmers toward their fellow-countrymen. Food hoarding is an almost universal practice on the fat farms of Bavaria and other rural districts, while people in the industrial centers live in the shadow of hunger. The average German farmer takes no responsibility for the condition of his countrymen, as long as his own larder is full and Uncle Sam can be blamed for any shortages. If the Germans feel little concern for each other's needs, they display actual resentment against the Volkdeutsch, the German minorities in Czechoslovakia and Hungary who have been obliged to move back to the Reich, and who must also be fed.

A complete lack of Russian co-operation has destroyed the original economic program for Germany as a whole, worked out at the Berlin conference. America and Britain have had to proceed with a blueprint for half a Germany. Cut off from the nation's main food-growing area in the East, the planners for Western Germany have had to resort to a program for higher industrial production than our representatives thought safe at Berlin. This is truly a tight-roped act for our policy makers. If they set German industry at too low a level, the Western zones will never become self-sufficient and we will have to support the people indefinitely. If they set the industrial level too high, there is danger of a quick build-up for another German war of aggression.

The only answer is for America to stay on in Germany for many years to come, co-operating closely with the British. Conversion of German industry to a war basis can never occur while Anglo-American experts keep a watchful eye on the factories. We need not maintain a huge force in the occupied country. We must maintain a small force for a long time, however, and it must contain experts highly trained for the intricate business of occupation. —Courier-Journal.

OLD GLORY

Old Glory flies high in yon blue sky
As free men press ever on,
Unfurling to the four great winds
A challenge from dawn till dawn.

A symbol for a way of life,
An inspiration for man's unquenchable flame,
Into her fabric are woven the dreams
Of men who immortalized her name.

Born in the days of long ago
When armies in rags fought through,
Today she waves in all her splendor
Free beauty of Red, White and Blue.

One Of Quints Expected To Live To 86 Or Older

New York—(AP)—The Dionne quintuplets now are 13 years old, and at least one probably will live to be 86 or older, says the Statistical Bulletin of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company.

On the basis of life expectancy rates among females in Canada, "the chances are about 95 in 100 that all five girls will reach their majority, about 65 in 100 that they will all attain age 45, and more than 30 in 100 that they will all live five to celebrate their 65th birthday."

It may be expected that the last survivor of the group will live to 86, it adds. The special case given the quintuplets, and the continued general gains in life conservation, will improve their chances for long life.

National forests of the U. S. include 73-million acres capable of growing commercial timber crops.

Secretary of Agriculture Says

American Women—

Your Used Fats Are Still Needed!

America's homemakers have saved and turned in over 600 million pounds of used cooking fats since 1942. This is an average of nearly 20 pounds for each family in the United States. It is a record of which every woman can be proud.

However, it is still necessary to conserve every pound of fat, since the over-all fat supply situation is little better now than it was last year when we were desperately short, particularly of industrial fats.

Manufacture of many of the things we all use and wear in our daily lives requires industrial fats or the products of industrial fats. Used cooking fats turned in by American women have been and continue to represent an important part of our total industrial fats supply. Every pound of salvaged fat helps meet the need.

Sports Roundup

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.

New York, July 7.—(AP)—Lew Burston, head of Mike Jacobs' foreign dept., pulled off quite a feat when he got both Ole Tander and Joe Bakst to sign contracts to fight Joe Louis, but Jersey Jones maintains that Lew has been doing a bigger job in Europe, locating new talent to build up the foreign department and boxing in general.

as Jersey explains it, Burston looked over about 40 prospects and Jack Solomons, the London promoter, told him to bring in as many as he wanted for tryouts. . . out of that, they expect to find eight or ten boys worth further investigation and schooling and maybe three or four good enough to bring to the United States. . . They're all kids about 18-19 years old who never got near London where Solomons would see them," says Jones. "We're providing him with some new attractions and if we find some good ones, we'll use common sense about bringing them along instead of tossing them right in against headliners. It may take several years, but now our foreign department is down to just Marcel Cerdan."

But Joe says he'll go back to school and study engineering unless he's sure of moving into higher class baseball.

Seems they were enrolled at Southern Methodist, which was taking no chances on having them snatched.

Things Are Tough When A Jailbird Takes Out Warrant

Things are getting pretty tough when a fellow in jail has to take out a warrant to protect himself, but that's exactly what happened in Bowling Green last week.

The Park City Daily News reported that Richard Pearce was lodged in county jail on a charge of drunkenness in a public place. Two women and a man heard about it and allegedly decided to tour the countryside in Pearce's idle vehicle. The latter heard about that, and the three were arraigned on a charge of operating a motor vehicle without the owner's consent.

County Judge G. D. Miliken freed two of the defendants, and ordered one of the women, reportedly the driver of the car, held to the grand jury under $250 bond. Pearce meantime paid a fine and was released.

Mrs. Copeland Pulls 'Em Out

Caught Two Large Ones At Walnut Log Sunday; Others Had Luck, Too

Even the fishes are convinced that it is no longer a man's world. Yesterday afternoon at Walnut Log, Reelfoot Lake, fishing with her husband and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Copeland, Mrs. Billy Copeland pulled out a seven pound grennell and a five and one-quarter pound bass. The bass was a whopper, measuring 21 inches in length. Mrs. Copeland advises all men fishermen to use a number nine stream hook with roach bugs for bait. That was what she was using when she made her prize catch.

It was a very pleasant day for the Copelands. In addition to Mrs. Billy Copeland's catch, the party brought back several medium-sized bream and catfish. The pleasures of the day will last a week or more for Mrs. Copeland as she tells her friends about the one that didn't get away.

W. O. Jones hit safely twice against Water Valley to lead the VFW batters, and Welons and Henry Lok got three hits apiece against McConnell.

Chicks' Streak Snapped At 12 By Egyptians

Fulton Lost Two, Won One At Cairo

Everybody knew it couldn't last forever—and Cairo's Egyptians were the team that snapped Fulton's winning streak last weekend after 12 consecutive victories.

Cairo took what would have been the Chicks' win No. 13 by a score of 5-2 Sunday afternoon at Cairo, and won the nightcap 19-10. The Chicks had won over the Egyptians 7-2 there Saturday night.

Eldridge pitched Fulton to its lone victory at Cairo, allowing the losers only five hits. Ed Engel lost his third game in 13 starts Sunday afternoon. Shublon started for Fulton last night but was relieved by Williams.

The two losses put the Chicks back in third place, one game behind the Mayfield Clothiers who took both ends of a double-header at Union City Sunday.

Nat. League Team Is Cocky

All-Stars Are Certain They'll Win At Chicago

Chicago, July 7.—(AP)—For a baseball club that has been flattened nine times in 13 starts, the National League squad today was a surprisingly cocky outfit on the eve of the 14th All-Star baseball game at Wrigley Field.

So confident was the older circuit of winning from the Americans tomorrow that Brooklyn's Ralph Branca and Boston's Warren Spahn, two important members of All-Star pitching staff, hurried yesterday in a championship game between the Dodgers and Braves, just two days before the inter-league battle. Thus Spahn, the number one lefthander of the National League, and Branca, one of the top righthanders who trail only Cincinnati's Ewell Blackwell in total victories with 12 1/2 in 11, respectively, have practically eliminated themselves from all-star competition.

On Saturday night, Philadelphia's Schoolboy Rowe, another member of the staff of seven, hurried a complete game against the New York Giants. And Choolie, only player to make both league All-Star teams, has not worked all season without a full week's rest between assignments.

That leaves Blackwell, the hottest pitchers in the majors, Harry (The Cat) Brecheen and Red Munger of the St. Louis Cardinals and Boston's Johnny Sain as the only National League hurlers who will be fully rested for tomorrow's fray.

On the other hand, every member of the American League's eight-man mound corps will have had four days of rest with the exception of Frank Shea and Joe Page. Shea, the sensational rookie righthander of the New York Yankees, won his 11th game last Saturday but will have three full days of rest. Page was called upon by the Yankees in relief yesterday. Hal Newhouse, Detroit's mighty lefthander, also worked two innings, conceivably to loosen up for Tuesday's starting assignment.

FULTON - Today & Tomorrow

Fandberg Upsets Baski; Now Who'll Fight Joe Louis?

Stockholm, July 7.—(AP)—

Confusion was general throughout the heavyweight division today, a condition brought about by the Swedish champion, Olle Tandberg, who upset Joe Bakst and lot of plans here yesterday by gaining a disputed decision in their ten-round boxing bout.

With the possible exception of Tandberg, nobody was more surprised than Bakst—a 3 to 1 favorite from Kulpmont, Pa.—when the referee and one of the judges called the fight a draw. Even Swedish sports writers and home town fans threw up their hands in amazement and Bakst's handlers questioned the decision in terms of open disgust.

But the question left unanswered was who, if anybody, is going to climb into the ring with Joe Louis later this year to challenge him for the world heavyweight crown he has worn for a decade.

Spanish Voters Confirm Franco As Their Leader

Madrid, July 7.—(AP)—

Unofficial returns indicated today that Spanish voters had ratified yesterday by a margin of approximately 10 to one a law confirming Generalissimo Francisco Franco as chief of state and giving him the right to propose his successor, who would become either king or regent. Results tabulated by the Associated Press from 12,918 out of 21,242 polling places showed 5,664,904 affirmative votes to 350,477 opposed and 195,855 blank. Approximately 16,185,000 persons were eligible to vote in the elections—the first to be held in Spain in 11 years.

Yanks, Frauliens Shouldn't Be Wed, Clergymen Believe

Berlin, July 7.—(AP)—

Two visiting American clergymen—a Methodist bishop and a Jewish rabbi—are convinced after talks with U. S. Army chaplains the marriages between American soldiers and German girls in the former Reich should be banned.

Dr. Fred Pierz Corson, Methodist bishop of Philadelphia, and Rabbi James G. Heller of the Isaac M. Wise temple at Cincinnati, here with a group of U. S. clergymen as guests of the War Department, expressed their views to newsmen.

Rabbi Heller declared that German girls indoctrinated with Nazism—were a potential political menace and should not be permitted to enter America "without years of fumigation."

Thistle And Dandelion Salads All The Rage In Postwar Reich

AP Newsfeatures
Berlin—Epoures can now add thistle, nettle, dandelion, and wild vegetable salads to their tasty dishes list. Berliners are eating these "exotic" dishes every day and finding them as good as that old standby—Waldorf Salad—well, almost.

They say all one needs is a trip into the woods, a mixing pot, and a good imagination.

Expert thistle-salad eaters call the dish a fine substitute for ordinary green salad and swear by the concoction. Amateurs unused to the ways of the thistle usually swear at it.

"The upper parts of the thistle should be cooked for at least 40 minutes," warn thistle enthusiasts. "After cooking, put through the meat grinder, and then serve cold."

To achieve the supreme in tastiness one should mix together many wild vegetables. One salad mixer described his dream salad as follows:

"First I take some 'jumping' weeds, which grow here in all meadows, and place in boiling water. Then I put in three rhubarb leaves, a handful of oak leaves, and a small bunch of either lime, elder, or acacia leaves."

"After mixing this around for five minutes on a slow flame, I add some spicy weed such as peppermint, camille, or yarrow. I boil this mixture for ten minutes more, add a pinch of salt—just a pinch—and then put everything through the meat grinder. Place in a salad bowl, add a drop of vinegar, and you have the finest wild vegetable salad in postwar Germany."

State Weekend Deaths Now 14

Four Killed In Wreck In Bullitt County; Four Drowned During Holiday

By The Associated Press

Fourteen violent deaths were reported in Kentucky over the three-day July 4th holiday period.

Ten of the victims died in traffic mishaps and four were drowned.

Four of those killed met death in one accident early Sunday morning on the Louisville-Shepherdsville road in Bullitt county, about one-half mile from the Jefferson county line.

Killed in that accident were Mr. and Mrs. Russell Tharp, both 25, their seven-months old son, Theodore, and a niece of Tharp, 8-year-old Doris Ann Sapp. All were Louisville residents.

State police reported the automobile in which they were riding failed to make a turn, hit a tree and went down a 10-foot embankment. A wet, slippery road caused by a light rain was held responsible for the crash.

Model Stagecoach Minutely Accurate

San Diego, Calif.—(P)—Henry E. Haenke, retired Navy man, makes models of horse-drawn vehicles—stagecoaches, carts, buggies and the like—so accurately that even the square-head nuts that hold the wheels on are true to the scale of one inch to the foot. But what he takes special pride in is the fact that the wheels are lubricated with real old-fashioned axle grease, not so easy to get these days.

Lexington Police Chief Is Accused Of Nonfeasance

Lexington, Ky., July 7—(P)—A warrant was served today on police chief Austin B. Price charging nonfeasance in office.

Sheriff Ernest Thompson said, after the Fayette grand jury returned an indictment against the 73 year old officer.

The charge was made in connection with disorders June 19 during the city wide bus strike.

The offense carries a maximum penalty of $200 in fines and dismissal from office upon conviction.

"The only thing I have to say," said Price, a member of the police force since 1904, "is that when all the facts are made public I think the grand jury will be made to feel a little remorseful for its action."

Diamonds are found in shades of green, pink, deep blue, brown and even black.
