National Coal Strike Averted

By New UWM-Owner Contract;

Means More Pay For Less Work

Lewis Believes
Entire Industry
Will Sign Pact

WASHINGTON, July 8—The long winded coal strike was averted today by John L. Lewis and a majority of the industrial operators.

In negotiations that Lewis and "labor friends" on both sides of the border were going through in a last-minute attempt to forestall a labor shut down, according to the coal operators, the entire industry will "sign" the new UWM-Owner Contract, which the coal miners agreed to accept today.

The agreement was to be signed by the operators and miners at 9 a.m. today in the Industrial Contract Commission to come into force at midnight tonight.

For the workers, it means the closing of the East and West coal fields at night when "waking off".

For the public, it means safety in the case of fire and the closing of the mines through the work day provided in the contract.

The agreement originally was scheduled to come into effect on July 1, but it was not signed until today.

Lewis said that the new contract would "cost" the country about $250,000,000 in the first year and that the operators would "not" want to sign it.

Canning Factory
At Barlow Burns

The county board of education voted today to close the Barlow Burns Canning Factory, which canned 12,000,000 quarts of tomatoes, beans and hominy in 1947.

The factory, which canned 12,000,000 quarts of tomatoes, beans and hominy in 1947, will be closed for the winter.

The factory is located in the town of Barlow Burns, county seat of the county.

As Old As Oppression

By William A. Blythe

The battle of the sexes between the Russian line and the Western Power's attitude toward the spread of communism is a subject which has received little attention in the American press. The question of what to do about the spread of communism is one of the most important problems facing the nations of the world today.

Communism, as an ideology, is inherently opposed to democracy. It seeks to replace the existing order with a new order based on the principles of collectivism. The spread of communism threatens the stability of the world, for it undermines the foundations of democratic society. It is therefore essential for the United States to take a strong stand against the spread of communism.

In conclusion, the battle of the sexes between the Russian line and the Western Powers is one of the most important issues facing the world today. The United States must take a strong stand against the spread of communism, for it threatens the very foundations of democratic society.

Chicks Back on Victory Road With 17-5 Win Over Chounds

Pittsburgh locked up all the newspapers with the news that "flying" had described William H. "Bill" Chouteau, 24, of the Chicago backfield, as the Chicago backfield's new star.

Chouteau, who had been a star for years, was brought to the Chicago backfield by Coach John L. "Bless" Marchetti, who had been impressed with Chouteau's ability to "fly".

Chouteau made his debut against the New York Giants on Friday night, and his performance was so impressive that the newspapers went into a frenzy of praise.

"Chouteau is the greatest backfielder I've ever seen," wrote one sportswriter.

"He's a natural," wrote another.

"He's the future of our backfield," wrote a third.

Chouteau's performance was so good that the newspapers were already talking about him as a future star of the Chicago backfield.
