

9-4-1913

The Murray Ledger, September 4, 1913

The Murray Ledger

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.murraystate.edu/tml>

Recommended Citation

The Murray Ledger, "The Murray Ledger, September 4, 1913" (1913). The Murray Ledger. 712.
<https://digitalcommons.murraystate.edu/tml/712>

This Newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by the Newspapers at Murray State's Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Murray Ledger by an authorized administrator of Murray State's Digital Commons. For more information, please contact msu.digitalcommons@murraystate.edu.

THE MURRAY LEDGER.

VOL. 85, NO. 20

MURRAY, KENTUCKY THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 4, 1913

$1.00 PER YEAR

WORK OF PERFECTING PLANS FOR MURRAY-BENTON-PADUCAH ROAD NEARING COMPLETION.

ooooo
A public mass meeting is called for Saturday of this week to be held at 2 o'clock prompt in the court house.
An invitation is extended to every citizen of the county to attend. Come prepared to assist in the work of building the Murray-Benton-Paducah gravel road.

THIS WEEK'S HONOR ROLL.

Rudy Smith, $3.00.
J. R. Melugin, $3.00.
W. B. Graham, $3.00.
H. H. Graham, $3.00.
J. C. Erwin, $6.00.
R. T. Wells, $12.00.
I. H. Lawrence, team two days.
T. H. Theobald, team two days.
Will Sparkman, two days.
J. C. Erwin, two days.
J. D. Hamilton, two days.
M. T. Morris, two teams two days.

The Calloway county executive committee of the Murray-Benton-Paducah gravel road was convened Wednesday morning at the office of Mr. R. T. Wells, a member of the committee, and an organization perfected. Mr. L. A. Langston was elected chairman; O. J. Jennings secretary, and W. H. Finney treasurer. After organization it was deemed advisable to issue a call for a general mass meeting of all the citizens of Calloway county who are interested in better roads to be held at the court house Saturday afternoon of this week at which time a general discussion of good roads will be had. The committee is in hopes that every citizen who possibly can will attend this meeting. The business men of Murray are urged to attend. The meeting will be in session one hour only and will be called promptly at 2 o'clock and adjourn at 3 o'clock.

A committee composed of many of the well known citizens of the county was appointed at the meeting to solicit funds, teams and laborers sufficient to complete the undertaking within the two days and is composed of the following citizens:

J. H. Farley, Cato Wilcox, Clint Drinkard, Rufe Ward, Jno. Holland, W. E. Gilbert, Gene Gilbert, Jack Sledd, Elmus Trevathan, Herbert Trevathan, Given Miller, C. E. Hatcher, U. P. Hendricks, Bob Thweatt, F. M. Youngblood, Alvis Edmonds, Newt Chapman, John Haley, Cratus Cleaver, Gene Tarry, Mack Mizell, Gus Walston, J. W. Wade, Gene Woodall, Dr. C. N. Tyree, Dr. B. B. Keys, Dr. C. O. Gingles, O. J. Jennings, R. D. Simpson, Will Sparkman, Guy Farley, Joe Clark, Tom Morris, H. B. Gilbert, N. L. Gilbert, N. M. Lassiter, W. O. Hargrove, Wade Crawford, T. A. Beaman, J. H. Farris, L. Y. Woodruff, Crit Farmer, J. I. Brewer, Leonard Wilson, Nicholas Robinson, Dave Padgett, Will Johnson, Plenty Farris, W. O. Wear, W. H. McKee, Bart Pardon.

The executive committee is very desirous that every member of this sub-committee attend the mass meeting here Saturday and lend such assistance as possible to complete every detail for the work to be done. Not only satisfied with asking the county people to lend a helping hand in building highways the executive committee adopted the following resolution and the Ledger would be glad to see a prompt response and will publish the names of the firms from week to week who will join hands with the folks in the country in building this gravel road. It is conceded upon every hand that the merchant is equally benefited with the farmer in the construction of gravel roads. The resolution is as follows:

"Resolved, that each business and professional man within the city of Murray be asked to leave their respective places of business on Oct. 8th and 9th and personally aid in the construction of the said Murray-Benton-Paducah gravel road. That they do their blue jeans and with pick or shovel labor side by side with our fellow countrymen in the construction of said highway."

The Ledger is pleased to note the daily increased interest manifested in the building of this road, and the assistance that is coming from progressive citizens living many miles distant from the road is evidence of a neighborly spirit and proves that old Calloway is waking up to the fact that every improvement, whether on the east side, north side, west side or south side, makes for the betterment of the condition of every citizen. The road is going to be built, it will be built by progressive citizens, not by knackers or croakers. The frog pond is good enough for the croaker. Let him stay there, but every citizen who can possibly do so is urged to assist in the undertaking. Below are two blanks, sign and send to the county secretary at the very earliest date possible. Do not delay but join the progressive good roads move today.

O. J. Jennings, Secretary,
Murray, Ky.
I hereby pledge to pay $..... to the fund to gravel the road from Murray, via Benton to Paducah.

Signed:.....
Address:.....

If you wish to donate your services for two days, or a team, use this form:

O. J. Jennings, Secretary,
Murray, Ky.

I agree to give two days work, or the use of a team for two days with driver, in the movement to gravel the Paducah-Benton-Murray road.

Signed:.....
Address:.....

Transformation in Tobacco Crop.

Tobacco growers the county over are congratulating themselves upon the good showing of the crops since the rains fell some two weeks ago. Tobacco is a true weed, for no matter how bad the treatment to which it is subjected, if it is ever given a show before the winter freezes come, there will be a "come out" to the crop. No better proof of this could be had than in the crops now being worked by the growers of Graves county. It is safe to say that in no recent years has there been a lot of better looking tobacco than now.

It is true that there is but little of the crop left, and the growers are not required to worry themselves over the amount to be cared for as in former years, but they are expecting to realize nearly, if not quite, as much as was gotten for a bumper crop last year at lower prices for inferior quality. What was lost in getting out a small crop will be made up by the heavy quality. The buyers claim the weight of the entire crop will not fall below any previous. Mayfield Messenger.

Mother of 18 Children.

"I am the mother of eighteen children and have the praise of doing more work than any young woman in my town," writes Mrs. C. J. Martin, Boone Mill, Ky.

"I suffered for five years with stomach trouble and could not eat as much as I desired without suffering. I have taken three bottles of Chamberlain's Tablets and am now a well woman and weigh 108. I can eat anything I want to, and as much as I want and feel better than I have at any time in ten years. I refer to any one in Boone Mill or vicinity and they will vouch for what I say." Chamberlain's Tablets are for sale by Dale & Stubblefield.

New Concord.

We are having some dry weather and people are busy hauling water around here.

Bro. Henry closed a meeting at Hickory Grove last Sunday, with 14 additions to the church.

The crowd at the baptizing Sunday was estimated at 1000 people.

Well, the people are all satisfied over the election down here. There was a large crowd here at the ice-cream supper Saturday night.

Bluff is getting about all the work he can do in the blacksmith shop now.

Diarrhoea Quickly Cured.

"I was taken with diarrhoea and Mr. Yorks, the merchant here, persuaded me to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. After taking one dose of it I was cured. It also cured others I gave it to," writes M. E. Gehhart, Oriole, Pa. That is not at all unusual. An ordinary attack of diarrhoea can almost invariably be cured by one or two doses of this remedy. For sale by Dale & Stubblefield.

Don't Look Behind, Keep On.

The combined reports of the three counties engaged in the Paducah-Benton-Murray road plan, indicate that progress of high order is being made. It wasn't anticipated that the raising of sufficient money for the McCracken end of the work would be very difficult, but there were doubts expressed about getting enough men to say they would swing a pick or use a shovel, and stick to it. We believe this doubt has been removed. Man after man has come forward with the assurance that he will be in the game strong and do a man's work so long as there is need.

This condition isn't confined to McCracken. Marshall and Calloway are up and doing and have even a healthier list of would-be road workers than we, although he are bound to catch up with them.

Interest in the execution of this ambitious idea is general throughout the state and has been since it was first announced. The fact that the motion picture companies are after a film record of the "doings" shows that this interest has carried over the borders. We have made a big boast, they have all heard it and they will keep their eye peeled to see whether or not we make good. Its strictly up to us to do it now or never.

In the nation today, every conceivable scheme for the improvement of roads and the establishment everywhere of bodies to see that they are kept good, is fostered, but in the whole collection there isn't anything which will give good roads the impetus that getting out and doing it accords.

If this scheme is put through as it is planned we will take enough self-confidence out of the results to go after good roads with a vengeance. If we fall down, it will be a long hard climb getting back again. Its every man's business now. Paducah Sun.

Caught a Bad Cold.

"Last winter my son caught a very bad cold and the way he coughed was something dreadful," writes Mrs. Sarah E. Duncan, of Tipton, Iowa. "We thought sure he was going into consumption. We bought just one bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and that one bottle stopped his cough and cured his cold completely." For sale by Dale & Stubblefield.

Now a Church Member.

Cole Younger, forger, robber and bandit, joined the Christian Church last week during a revival at Lee's Summit, Mo. Younger was a member of the James gang when it terrorized the country shortly after the war, and he served a prison term for some of his crimes, but was pardoned a number of years ago.

Honored by State Fair.

Mr. Tremon Beale, of the firm of Beale & Son, of this city, has been appointed superintendent of the department of machinery of the State Fair to be held in the city of Louisville from the 15th to 20th of this month. Mr. Beale's appointment comes through the secretary of the State Fair and is one of considerable importance. The Ledger extends to Mr. Beale congratulations and also to the management of the fair in being able to secure his services.

Religious Gathering at Bowling Green.

The eighty-first annual Convention of the Churches of Christ in Kentucky will be held in the First Christian Church at Bowling Green, September 22-25, 1913. The Convention Church was dedicated only a few months ago is a beautiful modern $34,000 plant. The program for the convention which has just been issued announces an opening session on Monday night the 22nd, with the convention sermon by Rev. R. N. Simpson, of Harrodsburg; the Christian Woman's Board of Missions, the national missionary organization of the women of the Church of which Mrs. Louise L. Campbell of Lexington is the Secretary, will convene on Tuesday; the Kentucky Missionary Convention, H. W. Elliott Sulphur Secretary, has its session Wednesday and Bible School Day will be Thursday the 25th. On the program are the names of State and National leaders of the Church. Rev. P. H. Welshimer of Canton, Ohio, who superintends the largest Bible School in the world and whose church leads the Disciples of Christ in membership, will close the convention with an address Thursday night.

An attendance of one thousand or more is expected, representatives coming from all Churches of Christ in Kentucky. For this convention the railroad rate will be one and one half fare plus a quarter for the round trip from all points in Kentucky. Dates of sale September 22-25, good returning September 29.

Detroit, Texas.

Editor Ledger: I will write you a few lines on the condition of crops and health. It is still dry and very hot here. Crops have been very badly damaged by the long drought. Red River county has a very good corn crop, some parts is fine. The cotton crop has been cut almost half, but I think the price will be very high which will be as good as a full crop. I think it will go to 15c and may go higher. Health is extra good.

I am sending you a sample of my corn crop by Mr. Lee, who has been on a visit here with his two boys for some weeks, also a picture of myself holding a large fish caught in Eusage Lake. We had a party of thirty-four on the lake and caught something near 800 pounds of fine fish. Richard Lee has been in bad health every since we came back with a fish trouble. We were glad to see the boys and would like to have more of the Kentucky people come out to see us.

The corn I am sending you will make 40 bushels per acre, grown on land that I bought for $5.00 per acre, now worth $40 per acre.

I think there will be several of the Texas people visit Kentucky this fall. I hope to see old Calloway this fall.

Wishing you success I am,
Yours truly,
J. T. Phillips.

Soon to Commence Work.

The right-of-way has been secured over nine-tenths of the property the interurban railway is to pass. Bennie Andrews, of Sedalia, who has been associated with the company for sometime, has been securing the right-of-way through the farms of Graves county, and he says that the farmers are doing their share by granting permits for the road to pass through their land. There are only a few more details to complete before the active work will begin on the road and this will be but a short time. Mayfield Messenger.

When you have an aching, stretchy feeling and you are all dull, tired and discouraged it is a sign of approaching malaria or chills. You should act quickly to ward off an attack. HERBINE offers you the help you need. It destroys the malarial germ, and drives out all the impurities, and makes you feel bright, vigorous and cheerful. Price 50c. Sold by Dale & Stubblefield.

PROGRAM

Calloway County Baptist Sunday School Rally to be Held at Murray, September 20th.

10:30—Song service led by Supt. J. B. Swann. Devotional by Supt. J. H. Thurman. Special music by quartette, Hazel Sunday School.

11:00—Address: "Essentials of a first class Sunday School" by Mr. L. P. Leavell. Song by the Scott's Grove Sunday School.

12:00—Dinner on the ground.

1:30—Song service led by Mr. Finis Futrell. Special song by Elm Grove Sunday School. Solo by Mrs. Ben Keys.

2:00—Address: "The Challenge of the Sunday School," by Secretary Louis Entzmyer. Song by the Locust Grove Sunday School.

Conferring of awards. Special music by the junior department of the Murray Sunday School.

There will be no march as was previously announced, but we will assemble by schools at the Baptist church at 10:30 a. m.

Each school will be expected to bring its own dinner and arrangements will be made for a general spread.

Remember that a splendid map will be given to the school having the most present. Let every Sunday school pupil in the county be present.

The Dead of The Week.

Dill Phillips died last Sunday after a lingering illness of heart trouble at his home near Cherry. Mr. Phillips was one of the best known citizens of the county and had many friends. He was a son of H. F. Phillips and is survived by a wife and five children, two brothers and two sisters. The burial took place Monday in the City Cemetery, of Murray.

Mrs. Jane Andrews died last Monday at the home of Ben Enoch, on the west side of the county, at the advanced age of 72 years. She was one of the community's eldest and most highly respected citizens. The burial took place at Beech Grove.

Clete Arnett, who lived about two miles northwest of Lynn Grove, died last Saturday night after a few weeks illness of typhoid fever. He was about 23 years of age and a well known young man. The remains were buried in the Young graveyard.

Mrs. Joe Barber died last Sunday at the home of Miller Marshall, southeast of the city, after a lingering illness of stomach trouble. She was about 70 years of age. The remains were shipped to Benton county, Tenn., for burial.

U. D. C. Program.

J. N. Williams Chapter U. D. C. will meet Friday evening Mrs. Mrs. Ed Owens with the following program.

Business.
Response to roll call: Quotations on education.
Southern Historians—Mrs. Inez Sale.
Poets of the South—Miss Nevada Baker.

For dyspepsia, our national ailment, use Burdock Blood Bitters. Recommended for strengthening digestion, purifying the blood. At all drug stores. $1.00 a bottle.

ALLOWAY COUNTY FAIR OCTOBER 1, 2, 3, 4

THE MURRAY LEDGER

PUBLISHED WEEKLY.
MURRAY, KENTUCKY

NEWS OF THE WEEK

HAPPENINGS OF THE SEVEN PAST DAYS ARE BRIEFLY PRESENTED.

FROM AROUND THE PLANET

Dispatches From Our Own and Foreign Countries Are Here Given In Short Meter for Busy Readers.

Trial of the government's case, at San Francisco, against eight officers, directors and employees of the Western Fuel company was continued by Judge Maurice T. Dooling in the United States district court until Monday, Oct. 13.

By a vote of 15 to 1 the house seated William J. McDonald as a representative from the twelfth Michigan district, succeeding H. Olin Young, who resigned when McDonald questioned his right to the seat. McDonald immediately was sworn in as a member. He is a Progressive.

Judge Roan, at Atlanta, Ga., sentenced Leo M. Frank, convicted of the murder last April of Mary Phagan, 14 years old, to be hanged Oct. 10.
Frank received his sentence stoically.

Tammany Hall placed District Attorney Charles S. Whitman (Rep.) on the ticket for re-election.

Slavery in the full meaning of the word exists throughout the Philippines, even in the city of Manila, and peonage is general in the islands, according to a special report coming from the Philippine commission.

At Atlanta, Ga., Leo M. Frank was found guilty of the murder last April of 14-year-old Mary Phagan, an employee at the National Pencil company's factory, of which Frank was superintendent.

For the first time President Wilson intimated his Philippine policy to his callers. Ultimate but not immediate independence of the islands is his plan.

The Breathitt county (Ky.) feud has broken out again and Greenburg
Combs is the first victim of the revival of this noted guerrilla mountain private warfare of 20 years' standing.
Combs was shot and instantly killed on Long's creek.

The arbitration treaty with Japan expired by limitation and a supplementary treaty proposed to extend the provisions remains unacted upon by the senate.

The Hoosier Limited, a fast train on the Monon, crashed into an automobile loaded with eight persons near St. John, Ind. Five persons were killed and the other three were severely injured. The passengers in the automobile were all Chicagoans.

Col. Dan G. Scouten, a survivor of the Quantrell raid on Lawrence, died at Leavenworth, Kan., on the fiftieth anniversary of that historic border massacre of civil war days.

President Wilson got a glad surprise when Mrs. Wilson and his daughter, Miss Eleanor, slipped down to Washington from Cornish, N. H., to spend a few days with the vacationless executive. The president hadn't an inkling that they were coming.

A resolution favoring the submission of the Panama canal tolls controversy between Great Britain and the United States to the Hague arbitration court in the event of diplomatic failure, was adopted by the international peace conference.

That his life had been threatened because of his advocacy of the Dyer bill regulating loan sharks in Washington, was the sensational charge made to the house lobby investigators by Representative Johnson of Kentucky.

Edward Hayes of Buffalo was murdered by Mexican federalists when they took the town of Madero several days ago. Hayes was timekeeper for the Madero Lumber company.

Rev. Dr. H. Perry Silver of Kansas has been appointed chaplain of West Point by Secretary of War Garrison, who acted with the consent of President Wilson.

An effort will be made, according to confidants of Gov. Sulzer, to procure the indictment of several members of the legislature who were most active in the impeachment of the governor, and also of certain men high in Tammany Hall who are not officially connected with the legislature.

Lieut. Schmidt of the army aviation corps was killed at Halberstadt, Prussia, in a fall of more than a mile. He had begun a spiral descent when one of the wings collapsed and the machine plunged to the ground.

The Japanese governmental departments of agriculture and foreign affairs announced definite decisions to participate in the Panama-Pacific exposition at San Francisco. Business men throughout the empire are expected to arrange to exhibit.

Michael Maybrick, who, under the name of Stephen Adams, wrote "The Holy City," "Nancy Lee" and other popular songs, died at Buxton, England, aged 68. He was three times mayor of Ryde, his home city, on the isle of Wight.

Two counterfeit $10 national bank
notes have appeared in Washington.
One bill is accredited to the First National bank of Chicago and the other purports to have been issued by the Farmers and Merchants' National bank of Los Angeles.

That the amendments proposed at the Chicago bankers' conference would emasculate the "administration" currency bill and that the principal ones will be rejected was clearly indicated to his callers by President Wilson, who also made clear his belief that a few "big bankers" dictated
the proposed amendments.

The house judiciary committee unanimously decided to have introduced a resolution authorizing an investigation of the charges recently filed against Federal Judge Speer of Georgia.

The United States embassy at Constantinople has dispatched Lewis Heck, acting vice-consul, to open an inquiry into the circumstances attending the murder of Dr. Charles H. Helbrook, an American missionary, at Soushehir, Asiatic Turkey.

Edward E. McCall, chairman of the public service commission, was designated as majority candidate of New York by the Democratic city committee. Herman A. Metz was unanimously designated for comptroller. Congressman Joseph A. Goulden was selected for president of the board of aldermen.

Attempts to increase the limit of the proposed income tax on the larger incomes failed in the senate
when Senator Borah, Bristol and Cummings led an effort to amend the income tax section of the Democratic tariff bill.

A duel with swords between Count
Stephen Tisza, premier of Hungary, and Marquis George Pallavicini, an Austrian army officer, at Budapest, resulted in both men being slightly wounded in the head.

The Henry agricultural amendment to the Glass currency bill, providing that farmers' notes, backed by farm products, have the same value as commercial paper to federal reserve banks, was unanimously adopted by the house Democratic caucus.

Two troops of the Pennsylvania constabulary, under Capt. L. G. Adams, proved a welcome sight to the people of Erie, who had witnessed a wild night of rioting in which one man was almost killed and the city filled with fighting private detectives
on one side and striking iron molders and their sympathizers on the other.

Senator Penrose introduced a resolution to place in Mexico such troops to act as constabulary as would adequately protect American citizens and their property. This action was expressly declared in the resolution not to be an act of war against Mexico.

Vernon L. Whitney, governor of Iowa province, and a native of Iowa, was wounded in a struggle with two treacherous Moros who attacked him.
He killed both his assailants.

A suit asking divorce from Congressman R. Y. Thomas, Jr., of Central City, Ky., has been brought at Greenville, Ky., by Mrs. Annie L.
Thomas. She alleges cruelty, im-man treatment and habitual drunkenness.

An explosion said to have been caused by the collision of a car loaded with iron and another filled with dynamite on the streets of Tacubaya, a suburb of Mexico City, killed and injured more than 100 persons.

To tax senators who insist on lengthening the tariff debate by long winded speeches, a report was made the senate suggestion of Senator Thomas of Colorado.

Rapid progress on the tariff bill is being made in the senate. The wool schedule was disposed of so far as it could be considered by the senate in committee of the whole, and a deep inroad was made to the free list.

Secretary Bryan will spend two days early in September stamping out Third Maine congressional district for William Pettigrew, Democratic candidate.

Gen. Leon J. Garcia, governor of the state of Falcon, Venezuela, attacked and completely defeated the rebel followers of Gen. Cipriano Castro at Coro, according to an official announcement.

Charges by Senator Bristol that the department of justice has connived in the evasion of the purpose of the Sherman law to make court decisions in the tobacco trust, Standard Oil and Union Pacific and Southern Pacific merger cases were paper dis-solutions set the senate ago.

EFFORT TO AMEND INCOME TAX FAILS

TRY TO LEVY FIVE PER CENT ON $100,000 IN SENATE.

DEMOCRATS VOTED SOLIDLY

Ten Republicans Come to Aid of Democrats—As Usual, Senator Root Shows Himself a Friend of Corporations.

Washington.—Attempts to increase the limit of the proposed income tax on the larger incomes failed in the senate
when Senators Borah, Bristol and Cummings led an effort to amend the income tax section of the Democratic tariff bill. Senator Borah offered an amendment increasing the graduated tax on larger incomes until it would have reached 5 per cent on those above $100,000 a year.
The Democrats, aided by 10 Republicans, defeated the amendment, 47 to 17.

In the pending bill the rates on larger incomes are:

One per cent on incomes from $20,000
to $50,000; two per cent from $50,000
to $100,000; three per cent from $100,000
to $200,000; four per cent from $200,000
to $500,000; five per cent above $500,000.

Senator Borah proposed the following "additional tax":

One per cent on incomes from $10,000
to $20,000; two per cent from $20,000
to $50,000; three per cent from $50,000
to $100,000; four per cent from $100,000
to $500,000; and five per cent above $500,000.

The Democrats voted solidly against the increase, and were joined by Senators Charles D. Wadsworth, Gallinger, Lippitt, Lodge, Glavin, Eastman, Kent, Sumner, Warren and Weeks from the Republican side.

Senator Root said the plan to tax the undivided "gains and profits" of all corporations or partnerships would be impossible of administration. He insisted that these undivided profits were part of a stockholder's capital, and not his income.

THAW WILL PROLONG FIGHT

Writ of Habeas Corpus at Sherbrooke Withdrawn.

Sherbrooke, Harry K. Thaw's Canadian attorneys late Monday withdrew the writ of habeas corpus obtained last week
in his behalf, and the fugitive from Mat-tawson will not be arraigned in the supreme court, as had been expected. The withdrawal of the writ may prolong the proceedings indefinitely. Rumors had been bandied all day that the writ might be withdrawn, but it was not until evening that the notice was filed with the clerk of the court. At the same time a telegram was sent to Judge Arthur Gibson, at Montreal, who directed the arrest, that such was the counsel's desire. The next move in the Thaw case is now distinctly up to those desiring his apprehension. Under the present commitment he might remain in the Sherbrooke jail indefinitely.

JUDGE SPEER TO BE TRIED

Substance of Charges Against Him Submitted to the House.

Washington.—The house passed a resolution authorizing investigation of charges against Judge Emory Speer of the federal court of Georgia. The investigation will be conducted by a subcommittee of the judiciary committee, which originates impeachment proceedings. In response to repeated demands
by Republican Leader Mann, Chairman Clayton of the judiciary committee gave the house the substance of the charges made against Judge Speer in a report from Attorney General McInerney.

Nanking's Fall Denied

London.—A dispatch received by the Exchange Telegraph company says that the claims made by a northern general that Nanking had fallen is untrue. The northern cavalry entered the town, but were driven up by a gun.

American Released

Prague, Oct. 11.—The American held at Prague, formerly by the authorities, was released after requests had been made by the American legation in Prague.

AMENDMENT TO CURRENCY BILL

AGRICULTURAL PAPER CAN BE USED AS SECURITY.

ALL FACTIONS ARE SATISFIED

Maturity of Notes Admitted to Discount Is Extended From Forty-five to Sixty Days—The Last of the Controversy.

Washington.—An agricultural cultury amendment to the administration currency bill was adopted by the Democratic caucus. After several preliminary skirmishes, in which other amendments were beaten, the caucus, without a dissenting vote, adopted an amendment, agreed to by both the "independent" contingent and banking and currency committee, to put paper based on agricultural products on the same basis as commercial paper for banking purposes.

It also would extend the maturity of notes and bills admitted to discount under the amendment 60 days, instead of the originally proposed 45 days. This action disposed of the last of the big controversial issues in the administration currency bill.

The amendment, the result of many conferences and concurred in by administration leaders and those unsuccessfully seeking other amendments, reads, in part:

"Upon the indorsement of any member bank, any federal reserve bank may discount notes and bills of exchange arising out of commercial transactions;
that is, notes and bills of exchange in-sued or drawn for agricultural, industrial or commercial purposes, or the proceeds of which have been used or may be used for such purposes, the federal reserve bank to have the right to determine or define the character of the paper thus eligible for discount within the meaning of this act."

L. FRANK GUILTY OF MURDER

Superintendent of Atlanta Pencil Factory Unmoved.

Atlanta.—Leo M. Frank, who had no visible signs of emotion when informed that he had been found guilty of the murder of 14-year-old Mary Phagan, the factory superintendent's wife was with the prisoners when the message was delivered. More than an hour before Frank was notified the jury's verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree was received with a noisy demonstration
by a crowd estimated at more than 2,000 persons, which had assembled outside the court house. All spectators were evicted from the court upon the face of the verdict was announced. By agreement of counsel the prisoner was permitted to remain in his cell at the county jail. Only lawyers, court officials and newspaper men heard the verdict.

Stop Abuse of Alcohol

Ghent, Belgium.—The international congress on neurology, at which 30 nations are represented by over 100 physicians, adopted a resolution introduced by Dr. Regis, inviting the various governments, in view of the disastrous consequences of alcoholism in the colonies,
to take prompt and rigorous measures to put an end to the evil common to all peoples. Dr. Regis read a remarkable paper on the subject.

Two Aviators Killed

Versailles, France.—Lieut. Sansonnet and kamer-ladegue were killed at Villacoubly while making an aeroplane flight.

10 Per Cent Allowed

Washington.—Ten per cent, or $5, 000,000, already has been deposited in southern banks out of the $50,000,000 fund that the government is placing with national banks in agricultural states to aid in the movement of crops.

Supra Will Fall on Thaw

Washington.—The snow will be thick
on the ground before Harry Thaw leaves Canada, predicted William A. Stone, former governor of Pennsylvania,
Thaw's leading attorney.

MEXICO WARNED TO BE GOOD

AMERICANS NOTIFIED TO GET OUT OF COUNTRY AT ONCE.

THEY CAN'T BE MISTREATED

Circular Sent by Secretary of State
Bryan to All Consular Officers, Contains Extracts From Address of President Wilson.

Washington.—The United States government Wednesday night advised all Americans to leave Mexico and at the same time warned Mexican officials that they will be held responsible for the safety of Americans in that country.

This action was taken by Secretary of State Bryan, acting by direction of President Wilson and in accordance with the message which the president delivered to congress in the afternoon.

The advice and warning are contained in a circular of instructions sent to Nelson O'Shaughnessy, American charge d'affaires at Mexico City, and all United States consular officials in the southern republic.

These officers were directed to inform all American citizens that they were advised to leave Mexico and that they will be furnished transportation to Mexican ports where ships will be provided to take them home.

All civil and military authorities in Mexico are warned in this note of the president that they will be held "strictly" accountable for the mistreatment of American citizens and for damage to their property.

Extracts from the president's message were sent with the circular of instructions.

At about 9 o'clock Wednesday night
Secretary Bryan went to the White House and communicated such parts of the latest note from Mexico to Envoys
Lind and as had come in up to that time.
At 10 o'clock Mr. Bryan left and went to the state department.

Before leaving the White House, he said:

"A part of the message from Mr. Lind has come in and it has been shown to the president. The only comment to be made on it at this time is that it is encouraging and that is the only word that ought to be used as comment."

Charles S. Mellen, for almost ten years president of the New York, New Haven & Hartford system of railroads, travels and steamships, has submitted his resignation, asking that it take effect not later than October 1 next.

HAIL GLYNN AS GOVERNOR

Three Messages Are Received From Him
and Accepted.

Albany, N. Y.—Martin H. Glynn was officially recognized as acting governor of New York by the legislature, when three messages were received and accepted from him three special messages.

They recommended:

First—Imposition of a direct tax of sixteenths of a mill to make good a $10, 000,000 deficiency threatened at the end of six months of Suler's rule.

Second—Payment of $400,000 to farmers for cattle condemned and destroyed
by the state.

Third—An appropriation of $70,000 to compensate legislative employees during a special session which Suler called, but as governor Glynn refused to authorize recompensating them until the legislature pledged passage of his pet bill.

Miss Wilson Hurt

White River Junction, Vt.—As Dr.
Charles W. Worthen of White River Junction was on his way to visit a patient at Plainfield, N. H., he came upon a young woman lying unconscious by the road. It proved to be Miss Mary Wilson, daughter of President Wilson.
While out riding with her father, Francis B. Sayre, had been driven from her horse. Mr. Sayre had been riding a little ahead and knew nothing of the accident until the roadless horse reached past him.

IMPROVEMENT IN MEXICAN SITUATION

HUERTA WITHDRAWS REQUEST FOR EXCHANGE AMBASSADORS.

MEXICAN ELECTIONS IN OCT.

John Lind Authorized to Return to Mexico City in His Discretion,
—Such a Step Was Deemed Advisable.

Washington.—This was the Mexican situation in brief Thursday.

Huerta has withdrawn his request for an exchange of ambassadors and asked that the present diplomatic status continue until after Mexican elections in October. By some that was interpreted as a concession.

A request for recognition as the temporary government of the interim, which was coupled with the proposal for an exchange of ambassadors, was however interpreted by many officials as a practical restoration of the original stand of the Huerta government.

Senor Gamboa, Mexican foreign minister, pointed out that the American demand for the elimination of Huerta would be a violation of the 1913
"consent" which makes a provisional president ineligible to reelection. The Washington government, however, desires assurances from Huerta
that he will not be re-elected.

John Lind was authorized to return to Mexico City from Vera Cruz, "in his discretion," so worded, although it is believed Huerta would not that he be interpreted publicly as a restoration
may be re-elected.

President Wilson and Secretary Bryan regarded the situation as encouraging, and indicated they expected some change in the attitude of Mexico toward the American consular officers, though outgoing Mexico were rounding up Americans, advising them to leave Mexico.

Mr. Lind's return was to take possible charge of any military measures to execute strict neutrality.

WOODROW WILSON,
President of the United States.

FIRE ON STEAMER IMPERATOR

Passengers Slumber—Officer Perishes Leading Fight on Fire.

New York.—Flames swept the steamship Imperator as it lay at its Hoboken dock with its crew and 1,111 steerage passengers aboard last night before the fire was subdued. Tons of water had been poured into the vessel's hold and it had litten fifteen degrees. Second officer Goldblatt, perished when he led volunteers into the hold to fight the flames.
Smoke cut off his retreat and he was suffocated. When the army in the steerage card the cracking of the flames they rushed to the pier, where they were surrounded by armed guards because they had not been inspected by immigration outfit. The great ship was dark with all aboard asleep, save the watch officers, when smoke seceding from the provision room, was discovered.

GOVERNORS TO MADISON, WIS.

Entire Executive Committee of Conference Re-elected.

Colorado Springs, Col.—Madison, Wis., was selected as the next convention city for the conference of governors of the United States. The entire executive committee, consisting of Govs. McCreary, of Wisconsin; O'Neal, of Alabama, and Ammons, of Colorado, were re-elected.
The office of secretary-treasurer was abolished. Separate officers being created for each. Mr. C. E. Relyea was elected secretary, and J. F. Fort Treasurer.

Killed at Camp Perry Shoot

Camp Perry.—The first fatal accident to happen on the Ohio ranges at Camp
Perry occurred when Francisco Zarza Babin, of the Peruvian team, was killed by one of his fellow contestants, Juan F. Zambrano, an Argentine, while the trainer of his failed shot.

Falling Building Hurls Many.
—Peterson, Ontario.—Five persons of more were killed and several injured in the collapse of the J. C. Turnbull company's store. Weakening of walls, due to alterations, caused the collapse.

FRAN

BY JOHN BRECKENRIDGE ELLIS

ILLUSTRATIONS BY
O. IRWIN MYERS

(COPYRIGHT 1912 BOBBS-MERRILL CO.)

THE KITCHEN CABINET

THE devil is content that we should excel in good works, provided he can make us proud of them.

HELPFUL HINTS.

One may boil a pudding in a double boiler instead of the old-time pudding bag. Line the upper part of the boiler with oiled paper, turn in the pudding and it will come out in good shape.

A good habit to follow is folding the string which came round the parcel in the wrapping paper, then when a paper and string is needed the string will fit the paper.

Wedding plates used for engraving cards of invitation or announcement may be made into useful articles. Some have them made into trays, others into small stands for teapots or vases by having small balls soldered to each corner.

Make a list of medicines, antidotes for poisons and keep it fastened inside the medicine closet, where it can be quickly glanced at. Such a precaution may save a life.

Have your kitchen table made to fit you, high enough to work at it without stooping.

When it is necessary to beat upholstered furniture and it cannot be taken out doors, a good way is to cover it with a damp cloth and beat; the dust clings to the cloth.

When a finger is cut while working, wrap a thin piece of cloth over the end and slip on a thimble until there is time to attend to it properly.

When using a dish pan, turn the handles so the washes will not be splashed by striking against the handles.

Coarse sand paper kept near at hand will save much scraping of dishes which are scorched.

When hemming children's dresses on the machine, use very fine thread, then when the times comes for lengthening, a pull will break the threads.

Under skirts made of the same kind of goods as the work dress are neat, and always look better than a petticoat of another color.

When gold fish are sluggish, a salt bath does them good. Let them lie in the water not longer than five minutes, and they will be as lively as ever.

Over and over again.

No matter which way I turn, I always find in the book of life, some lesson that I must learn. I must take my turn at the mill. I must grind out the golden grain. I must work at my task with a resolute will.

Over and over again!

HURRY-UP DISHES.

This is a simple dessert which may be prepared on short notice.

White Pudding and Chocolate Sauce.—Beat together until smooth three-fourths of a cup of flour, a teaspoonful of salt and a cup of milk; when smooth, add three more cups of milk and cook twenty minutes in a double boiler. Then turn into a pudding dish and serve with chocolate sauce. Mix in a saucepan a cup of sugar, one and a half squares of chocolate, grated, and four tablespoons of boiling water. Stir and cook until smooth and glossy. Then add a cup of hot milk, flavor with vanilla and serve hot.

Curried Rice.—Wash a cup of rice and put to cook in a quart of boiling water with half a teaspoonful of salt. Boil rapidly until the rice has absorbed all the water; set back and cook until dry. Let stand covered in a warm place for an hour. For the curry, put one and a half tablespoons of butter in a saucepan and add a sliced apple and onion; stir and cook until brown, add a tablespoonful of sugar, one of flour and a teaspoonful of curry powder. Stir until well mixed, then add a quart of stock; if no stock is at hand, use water with a teaspoonful of beef extract. Season with salt. Meat and fish may be added to this sauce, and the rice may be put as a border to the meat and sauce on the platter.

Nellie Maxwell.

Smile at Time's Flight.

Since time is not a person we can overtake when he is past, let us honor him with mirth and cheerfulness of heart while he is passing—Goethe.

Conclusive Statement.

Experts declare that idle men make the best lovers. It doesn't require an expert to prove the fact that idle men also make the best villains.—Youngstown Telegram.

Daily Thought.

How much lies in laughter; the chipmunk's whizz with his deplorable little man.—Cavell.

A narrow belief begets a destiny.

and we do not easily believe what we cannot see.—Dryden.

SYNOPSIS.

Fran arrives at Hamilton Gregory's home in Littleburg, but finds him absent. He repairs thither in search of him. He tells her Gregory is a wealthy man, deeply interested in charity work, and a pillar of the church. Ashton, become greatly interested in Fran and while taking leave of her holds her hand and is seen by Sapphira Clinton, sister of Robert Clinton, chairman of the school board. Fran tells Gregory he wants a home with him. Grace Noir, Gregory's private secretary, takes a violent dislike to Fran and advises her to go away at once. Fran hints at a twenty-year-old secret and Gregory in agitation asks Grace to leave the room. Fran relates the story of how Gregory married a young girl at Springfield while attending college and then deserted her. Fran is the child of that marriage. Gregory explains that Mrs. Gregory insists on her making her home with them and takes her to her arms. Fran declares the secretary must go. Grace begins nagging tactics in an effort to drive Fran from the Gregory home. Abbott, while taking a walk alone at midnight, finds Fran on a bridge telling her fortune by cards. She tells Abbott that she is the famous lost letter, Fran Nonpareil. She tried of course life and sought a home. Grace tells of seeing Fran come home after midnight with a man. She guesses part of the story and surprises the rest from Abbott. She decides to ask Bob Clinton to go to Springfield to investigate Fran's story. Fran enlists Abbott in her battle against Grace. Fran offers her services as a secretary during the temporary absence of Grace. The latter, hearing of Fran's purpose, returns and interrupts a touching scene between father and daughter. Fran goes fishing with Mrs. Gregory's brother, Abbott, whose retention as superintendent, is to be decided that day, finds her sitting alone in a box. He joins her and is discovered by Clinton and his sister. Grace tells Gregory she intends to marry Clinton and quit her service. He declares that he cannot continue his work with her and goes away by bus. Fran takes her in his arms. Fran walks in on them, and declares that Grace must leave the house at once.

CHAPTER XVI.—Continued.

Gregory beheld the awful secret quivering upon her lips. The danger drove him mad. "You devil!" he shouted, rushing upon her.

Fran stood immovable, her eyes fastened on his. "Don't strike me," she said tensely, "don't strike me, I warn you, unless you kill at the first blow." He staggered back as if her words possessed physical impact. He shrank in a heap in the library chair and dropped his head upon his arms. To prevent Grace from learning the truth, he could have done almost anything in that first moment of insane terror, but he could not strike Fran.

In the meantime, Mrs. Gregory had been ascending the stairs. They could hear her now, as she softly moved along the hall. No one in the library wished, at that moment, to confront the wife, and absolute silence reigned in the apartment. They heard her pause, when opposite the door, doubtless to assure herself that the typewriter was at work. If she did not hear the clicking of the keys, she might conclude Grace was absent, and enter.

Gregory raised his haggard head with an air suggesting meditated flight. Even Grace covered back instinctively.

Swift as a shadow, Fran darted on tiptoe to the typewriter, and began pounding upon it vigorously.

Mrs. Gregory passed on her way, and when she reached the farther end of the hall, an old hymn which she had been humming, broke into audible words. Fran snatched the sheet from the typewriter, and bent her head to listen. The words were soft, full of a thrilling faith, a dauntless courage—

"You Devil!"

had been humming, broke into audible words. Fran snatched the sheet from the typewriter, and bent her head to listen. The words were soft, full of a thrilling faith, a dauntless courage—

"Still all my song shall be 'No more my God to Thee, No more!'"

A door closed. She was gone. Gregory dropped his head with a groan. It seemed to Fran that the voice of his wife who was not a wife, lingered in the room. The hymn, no longer audible, had left behind it a fragrance, as sometimes lingers the sweet flavor of a prayer, after its "amen" has, as it were, been blown back into the house whence it issued. Fran instinctively held out both arms toward the direction of the door just closed, as if she could see Mrs. Gregory kneeling behind it.

"Almost," she said, in a solemn undertone, "thou persuadest me to be a Christian."

CHAPTER XVII.

Shall the Secret Be Told?

Fran had expected Robert Clinton's return in four or five days, as had Grace Noir, but secrets that have been buried for many years are not picked up in a day. However, had the chairman of the school board returned the day after his departure, Abbott Ashton would have met him at the station. Twice, in the opinion of Fran, the young man had failed her by allowing Grace's mind to flash to important discoveries along the path of his insulated remarks about the weather. This third time was more equal, since he was to deal with no Grace Noir—merely with a man.

As Littleburg had only one railroad, and a "branch," it was not difficult

Fran knew very well what he meant. If she told the secret, it would drive Grace Noir. The revelation might drive Grace away, though Fran did not think so, but certainly whether Grace went, or stayed, it would break the heart of the one she loved best in that home. Gregory was right; Fran could never betray him.

She turned blindly upon Grace: "Then have you no conscience? You are always talking about one. Does no sense of danger warn you away? Can't you feel any shame?"

Grace did not smile contemptuously. She weighed these words at their real value, and soberly interrogated herself. "No," she declared with deliberation, "I feel no sense of danger because I mean to guard myself after this. And my conscience bids me stay, to show that I have not really done anything." But she could not deny the feeling of shame, for the burnings of her cheeks proved the recollection of hot kisses.

"But suppose I tell what I have seen?"

"Well," said Grace, flashing out defiantly, "and suppose you do?"

Gregory muttered: "Who would believe you?"

Fran looked at him. "Then," she said, "the coward spoke." She added: "I guess the only way is for you to make her leave. There's nothing in her for me to appeal to."

"I will never tell her to go," he assured her defiantly.

"While, on the contrary," said Grace, "I fancy you will be put to flight in three or four days."

Fran threw back her head and laughed silently while they stared at her in blank perplexity.

Fran regained composure to say coolly, "I was just laughing." Then she stopped to her father's chair and handed him the sheet she had drawn from the typewriter. The upper part was an unfinished letter to the Chicago mission, just as Grace had left it in three or four days.

Fran threw back her head and laughed silently while they stared at her in blank perplexity.

Fran regained composure to say coolly, "I was just laughing." Then she stopped to her father's chair and handed him the sheet she had drawn from the typewriter. The upper part was an unfinished letter to the Chicago mission, just as Grace had left it in three or four days.

Hamilton Gregory glared at them at first incomprehendingly, then in growing amazement. They read—

"Ask her why she sent Bob Clinton to Springfield."

He started up. "What is this?" he exclaimed wildly, extending the paper toward Grace.

She read it and smiled coldly. "Yes," she said, "the little spy has even ferreted that out, has she? Very well, she won't be so cool when Mr. Clinton returns from Springfield."

"From Springfield?" echoed Gregory aghast.

"From Springfield," Mrs. Gregory, I have made the discovery that this Fran, whom you imagined only about sixteen years old, and the daughter of an old friend, is really of age. She's nothing but a circus-girl. You thought her joking when she called herself a lion-tamer, but the way she meant for us to take it, but she can't deceive us. She's nothing but a show-girl pretending to come from Springfield. But I know better. So I've sent Mr. Clinton there to find out all about the loyalty of your friend, and in particular about the girl that this Fran is impersonating."

"You sent Bob Clinton to Springfield?" gasped Gregory, as if his mind could get no further than that. Then he turned savagely upon Fran. "And did you tell her about Springfield?"

Fran smiled her crooked smile.

Grace interposed: "You may be sure she didn't! Do you think she would let her father find out that she was so blinded?"

"You are so blinded?" said Fran, "that you won't investigate her claims? I decided to do this for your sake. When Mr. Clinton comes back, it's good-bye to this circus girl!"

Fran looked at her father, incredulously.

"I believe, after this," she said, "it will be safe to leave you two together."

CHAPTER XVIII.

Shall the Secret Be Told?

Fran had expected Robert Clinton's return in four or five days, as had Grace Noir, but secrets that have been buried for many years are not picked up in a day. However, had the chairman of the school board returned the day after his departure, Abbott Ashton would have met him at the station. Twice, in the opinion of Fran, the young man had failed her by allowing Grace's mind to flash to important discoveries along the path of his insulated remarks about the weather. This third time was more equal, since he was to deal with no Grace Noir—merely with a man.

As Littleburg had only one railroad, and a "branch," it was not difficult

Fran knew very well what he meant. If she told the secret, it would drive Grace Noir. The revelation might drive Grace away, though Fran did not think so, but certainly whether Grace went, or stayed, it would break the heart of the one she loved best in that home. Gregory was right; Fran could never betray him.

She turned blindly upon Grace: "Then have you no conscience? You are always talking about one. Does no sense of danger warn you away? Can't you feel any shame?"

Grace did not smile contemptuously. She weighed these words at their real value, and soberly interrogated herself. "No," she declared with deliberation, "I feel no sense of danger because I mean to guard myself after this. And my conscience bids me stay, to show that I have not really done anything." But she could not deny the feeling of shame, for the burnings of her cheeks proved the recollection of hot kisses.

"But suppose I tell what I have seen?"

"Well," said Grace, flashing out defiantly, "and suppose you do?"

Gregory muttered: "Who would believe you?"

Fran looked at him. "Then," she said, "the coward spoke." She added: "I guess the only way is for you to make her leave. There's nothing in her for me to appeal to."

"I will never tell her to go," he assured her defiantly.

"While, on the contrary," said Grace, "I fancy you will be put to flight in three or four days."

Fran threw back her head and laughed silently while they stared at her in blank perplexity.

Fran regained composure to say coolly, "I was just laughing." Then she stopped to her father's chair and handed him the sheet she had drawn from the typewriter. The upper part was an unfinished letter to the Chicago mission, just as Grace had left it in three or four days.

Fran threw back her head and laughed silently while they stared at her in blank perplexity.

Fran regained composure to say coolly, "I was just laughing." Then she stopped to her father's chair and handed him the sheet she had drawn from the typewriter. The upper part was an unfinished letter to the Chicago mission, just as Grace had left it in three or four days.

Hamilton Gregory glared at them at first incomprehendingly, then in growing amazement. They read—

"Ask her why she sent Bob Clinton to Springfield."

He started up. "What is this?" he exclaimed wildly, extending the paper toward Grace.

She read it and smiled coldly. "Yes," she said, "the little spy has even ferreted that out, has she? Very well, she won't be so cool when Mr. Clinton returns from Springfield."

"From Springfield?" echoed Gregory aghast.

"From Springfield," Mrs. Gregory, I have made the discovery that this Fran, whom you imagined only about sixteen years old, and the daughter of an old friend, is really of age. She's nothing but a circus-girl. You thought her joking when she called herself a lion-tamer, but the way she meant for us to take it, but she can't deceive us. She's nothing but a show-girl pretending to come from Springfield. But I know better. So I've sent Mr. Clinton there to find out all about the loyalty of your friend, and in particular about the girl that this Fran is impersonating."

"You sent Bob Clinton to Springfield?" gasped Gregory, as if his mind could get no further than that. Then he turned savagely upon Fran. "And did you tell her about Springfield?"

Fran smiled her crooked smile.

Grace interposed: "You may be sure she didn't! Do you think she would let her father find out that she was so blinded?"

"You are so blinded?" said Fran, "that you won't investigate her claims? I decided to do this for your sake. When Mr. Clinton comes back, it's good-bye to this circus girl!"

run it to suit the new ideas. This rich man—chum of mine—went West, bought land, sat on it, got up with his jeans full of money. Wants you to come at once."

Abbott was glared. "What kind of new ideas, Bob?" he asked joyously.

"Of that impractical nonsense of teaching life instead of books. You know what I mean, but I don't think I do. Don't worry about it now—something terrible's on my mind—just awful! I can't think of anything else. What you want to do is to scout out to Tahleah, Oklahoma, to this address—here's his card—tell 'em Bob sent you." He looked at Abbott feverishly, as if almost hoping Abbott would bolt for Tahleah then and there. His broad red face was set determinedly.

"This news is splendid!" Abbott declared enthusiastically. "I had all ready applied for a country school; I was afraid I had lost out a whole year, on account of everything I must think."

"Abbott, I don't want to be thanked, I haven't got time to be thanked. Yonder's Hamilton Gregory's house and that's where I'm bound—good night."

"But, Bob, I haven't told you my business."

"I'll hear it later, old fellow—dear old fellow—I think a heap of you, old Ab. But I must go now—"

"No, you mustn't! Before you go into that house, we must have a little talk. We can't talk here—people are coming and going—"

"I don't want to talk here, bless you! I want to go in that house. My business is private and pressing. The gate was but a few yards away. He looked at it fixly, but Abbott held his hand upon the agitated arm.

"Bob, what I have to tell you can't wait, and that's all about it. I won't keep you long, just turn down this alley with me, for it's a matter of life and death."

"Confound your life and death! My business is life and death, too."

At that moment, a light was turned on in Gregory's library, and Grace Noir was seen to pass the window.

Abbott's hand tightened on the other's arm, as he urged: "Down that alley, a nice dark place for talking—"

"Nice dark," he barked, growled Robert.

"What business can you have with me that wouldn't wait till morning? Look here, I'm desperate!"

"So am I," retorted Abbott. "Bob, you've been to Springfield."

Robert Clinton snatched open the yard-gate, muttering, "That's my business."

"Miss Noir sent you to unearth a secret."

"Oh!" exclaimed Robert, in an altered tone, stopping in the gateway, "did she tell you about it?"

"No—but you've brought back that secret, and you must not tell it to Miss Noir."

"Not tell her?—That's funny!" Robert protested a second which he expected to pass as laughter. "So that's what you wanted to tell me, is it? Do you know what the secret is?"

"According to the Berlin correspondent of the Lancet, the number of suicides during the year 1911, when 21 cases were registered for each 100,000 of the population, as compared with 22 in 1910. The actual number of persons who took their own lives was 8,422, of whom 5621 were men and 2,805 were women.

The relatively highest proportion of suicides was for each 100,000 occurred in the province of Brandenburg; next came Berlin, with 32 per 100,000.

The tendency to commit suicide increases with the age which proportionately is not surprising, as periods are as follows: Between fifteen and twenty years, 25; between twenty and thirty years, 23; between thirty and forty years, 25; between forty and fifty years, 22; between fifty and sixty years, 21; between sixty and seventy years, 20; between seventy and eighty years, 19; and over eighty years, 18.

About 25 per cent. of suicides are said to be caused by insanity. In 873 cases bodily suffering, in 469 cases alcoholic excess, in 942 cases sorrow and in 604 cases remorse were the causes assigned. In 1,785 cases the cause was absolutely unknown.

The smallest number of suicides happened on Fridays and Saturdays, and the highest number on Mondays and Tuesdays.

is only found in a comparatively, short time that the Japanese have glass as accidentals know it. When the first railroads were built, passengers if the coaches often put their heads through the glass, supposing the frames of the windows to be paneled pictures on the glass to call attention to the fact that a solid substance was behind them. The masses of the Japanese today do not know the mirrors as it is known in the west. The richer people have one mirror, indeed, but usually the glass used in the mirrors sold to the people is not quicksilver, being merely well polished. As for cut glass, it is practically unknown in the island, and glass drinking cups are rare.

SUICIDES, MALE AND FEMALE

Three German Men to One Woman Kill Themselves, According to Prussian Statistics.

If Prussian statistics give any idea of the relative proportion, then women must be much fonder of life than men, for more than three men commit suicide for every woman who takes her own life.

According to the Berlin correspondent of the Lancet, the number of suicides during the year 1911, when 21 cases were registered for each 100,000 of the population, as compared with 22 in 1910. The actual number of persons who took their own lives was 8,422, of whom 5621 were men and 2,805 were women.

Three German Men to One Woman Kill Themselves, According to Prussian Statistics.

If Prussian statistics give any idea of the relative proportion, then women must be much fonder of life than men, for more than three men commit suicide for every woman who takes her own life.

According to the Berlin correspondent of the Lancet, the number of suicides during the year 1911, when 21 cases were registered for each 100,000 of the population, as compared with 22 in 1910. The actual number of persons who took their own lives was 8,422, of whom 5621 were men and 2,805 were women.

The relatively highest proportion of suicides was for each 100,000 occurred in the province of Brandenburg; next came Berlin, with 32 per 100,000.

The tendency to commit suicide increases with the age which proportionately is not surprising, as periods are as follows: Between fifteen and twenty years, 25; between twenty and thirty years, 23; between thirty and forty years, 25; between forty and fifty years, 22; between fifty and sixty years, 21; between sixty and seventy years, 20; between seventy and eighty years, 19; and over eighty years, 18.

About 25 per cent. of suicides are said to be caused by insanity. In 873 cases bodily suffering, in 469 cases alcoholic excess, in 942 cases sorrow and in 604 cases remorse were the causes assigned. In 1,785 cases the cause was absolutely unknown.

The smallest number of suicides happened on Fridays and Saturdays, and the highest number on Mondays and Tuesdays.

is only found in a comparatively, short time that the Japanese have glass as accidentals know it. When the first railroads were built, passengers if the coaches often put their heads through the glass, supposing the frames of the windows to be paneled pictures on the glass to call attention to the fact that a solid substance was behind them. The masses of the Japanese today do not know the mirrors as it is known in the west. The richer people have one mirror, indeed, but usually the glass used in the mirrors sold to the people is not quicksilver, being merely well polished. As for cut glass, it is practically unknown in the island, and glass drinking cups are rare.

is only found in a comparatively, short time that the Japanese have glass as accidentals know it. When the first railroads were built, passengers if the coaches often put their heads through the glass, supposing the frames of the windows to be paneled pictures on the glass to call attention to the fact that a solid substance was behind them. The masses of the Japanese today do not know the mirrors as it is known in the west. The richer people have one mirror, indeed, but usually the glass used in the mirrors sold to the people is not quicksilver, being merely well polished. As for cut glass, it is practically unknown in the island, and glass drinking cups are rare.

is only found in a comparatively, short time that the Japanese have glass as accidentals know it. When the first railroads were built, passengers if the coaches often put their heads through the glass, supposing the frames of the windows to be paneled pictures on the glass to call attention to the fact that a solid substance was behind them. The masses of the Japanese today do not know the mirrors as it is known in the west. The richer people have one mirror, indeed, but usually the glass used in the mirrors sold to the people is not quicksilver, being merely well polished. As for cut glass, it is practically unknown in the island, and glass drinking cups are rare.

is only found in a comparatively, short time that the Japanese have glass as accidentals know it. When the first railroads were built, passengers if the coaches often put their heads through the glass, supposing the frames of the windows to be paneled pictures on the glass to call attention to the fact that a solid substance was behind them. The masses of the Japanese today do not know the mirrors as it is known in the west. The richer people have one mirror, indeed, but usually the glass used in the mirrors sold to the people is not quicksilver, being merely well polished. As for cut glass, it is practically unknown in the island, and glass drinking cups are rare.

is only found in a comparatively, short time that the Japanese have glass as accidentals know it. When the first railroads were built, passengers if the coaches often put their heads through the glass, supposing the frames of the windows to be paneled pictures on the glass to call attention to the fact that a solid substance was behind them. The masses of the Japanese today do not know the mirrors as it is known in the west. The richer people have one mirror, indeed, but usually the glass used in the mirrors sold to the people is not quicksilver, being merely well polished. As for cut glass, it is practically unknown in the island, and glass drinking cups are rare.

is only found in a comparatively, short time that the Japanese have glass as accidentals know it. When the first railroads were built, passengers if the coaches often put their heads through the glass, supposing the frames of the windows to be paneled pictures on the glass to call attention to the fact that a solid substance was behind them. The masses of the Japanese today do not know the mirrors as it is known in the west. The richer people have one mirror, indeed, but usually the glass used in the mirrors sold to the people is not quicksilver, being merely well polished. As for cut glass, it is practically unknown in the island, and glass drinking cups are rare.

is only found in a comparatively, short time that the Japanese have glass as accidentals know it. When the first railroads were built, passengers if the coaches often put their heads through the glass, supposing the frames of the windows to be paneled pictures on the glass to call attention to the fact that a solid substance was behind them. The masses of the Japanese today do not know the mirrors as it is known in the west. The richer people have one mirror, indeed, but usually the glass used in the mirrors sold to the people is not quicksilver, being merely well polished. As for cut glass, it is practically unknown in the island, and glass drinking cups are rare.

is only found in a comparatively, short time that the Japanese have glass as accidentals know it. When the first railroads were built, passengers if the coaches often put their heads through the glass, supposing the frames of the windows to be paneled pictures on the glass to call attention to the fact that a solid substance was behind them. The masses of the Japanese today do not know the mirrors as it is known in the west. The richer people have one mirror, indeed, but usually the glass used in the mirrors sold to the people is not quicksilver, being merely well polished. As for cut glass, it is practically unknown in the island, and glass drinking cups are rare.

is only found in a comparatively, short time that the Japanese have glass as accidentals know it. When the first railroads were built, passengers if the coaches often put their heads through the glass, supposing the frames of the windows to be paneled pictures on the glass to call attention to the fact that a solid substance was behind them. The masses of the Japanese today do not know the mirrors as it is known in the west. The richer people have one mirror, indeed, but usually the glass used in the mirrors sold to the people is not quicksilver, being merely well polished. As for cut glass, it is practically unknown in the island, and glass drinking cups are rare.

is only found in a comparatively, short time that the Japanese have glass as accidentals know it. When the first railroads were built, passengers if the coaches often put their heads through the glass, supposing the frames of the windows to be paneled pictures on the glass to call attention to the fact that a solid substance was behind them. The masses of the Japanese today do not know the mirrors as it is known in the west. The richer people have one mirror, indeed, but usually the glass used in the mirrors sold to the people is not quicksilver, being merely well polished. As for cut glass, it is practically unknown in the island, and glass drinking cups are rare.

is only found in a comparatively, short time that the Japanese have glass as accidentals know it. When the first railroads were built, passengers if the coaches often put their heads through the glass, supposing the frames of the windows to be paneled pictures on the glass to call attention to the fact that a solid substance was behind them. The masses of the Japanese today do not know the mirrors as it is known in the west. The richer people have one mirror, indeed, but usually the glass used in the mirrors sold to the people is not quicksilver, being merely well polished. As for cut glass, it is practically unknown in the island, and glass drinking cups are rare.

is only found in a comparatively, short time that the Japanese have glass as accidentals know it. When the first railroads were built, passengers if the coaches often put their heads through the glass, supposing the frames of the windows to be paneled pictures on the glass to call attention to the fact that a solid substance was behind them. The masses of the Japanese today do not know the mirrors as it is known in the west. The richer people have one mirror, indeed, but usually the glass used in the mirrors sold to the people is not quicksilver, being merely well polished. As for cut glass, it is practically unknown in the island, and glass drinking cups are rare.

is only found in a comparatively, short time that the Japanese have glass as accidentals know it. When the first railroads were built, passengers if the coaches often put their heads through the glass, supposing the frames of the windows to be paneled pictures on the glass to call attention to the fact that a solid substance was behind them. The masses of the Japanese today do not know the mirrors as it is known in the west. The richer people have one mirror, indeed, but usually the glass used in the mirrors sold to the people is not quicksilver, being merely well polished. As for cut glass, it is practically unknown in the island, and glass drinking cups are rare.

is only found in a comparatively, short time that the Japanese have glass as accidentals know it. When the first railroads were built, passengers if the coaches often put their heads through the glass, supposing the frames of the windows to be paneled pictures on the glass to call attention to the fact that a solid substance was behind them. The masses of the Japanese today do not know the mirrors as it is known in the west. The richer people have one mirror, indeed, but usually the glass used in the mirrors sold to the people is not quicksilver, being merely well polished. As for cut glass, it is practically unknown in the island, and glass drinking cups are rare.

is only found in a comparatively, short time that the Japanese have glass as accidentals know it. When the first railroads were built, passengers if the coaches often put their heads through the glass, supposing the frames of the windows to be paneled pictures on the glass to call attention to the fact that a solid substance was behind them. The masses of the Japanese today do not know the mirrors as it is known in the west. The richer people have one mirror, indeed, but usually the glass used in the mirrors sold to the people is not quicksilver, being merely well polished. As for cut glass, it is practically unknown in the island, and glass drinking cups are rare.

is only found in a comparatively, short time that the Japanese have glass as accidentals know it. When the first railroads were built, passengers if the coaches often put their heads through the glass, supposing the frames of the windows to be paneled pictures on the glass to call attention to the fact that a solid substance was behind them. The masses of the Japanese today do not know the mirrors as it is known in the west. The richer people have one mirror, indeed, but usually the glass used in the mirrors sold to the people is not quicksilver, being merely well polished. As for cut glass, it is practically unknown in the island, and glass drinking cups are rare.

is only found in a comparatively, short time that the Japanese have glass as accidentals know it. When the first railroads were built, passengers if the coaches often put their heads through the glass, supposing the frames of the windows to be paneled pictures on the glass to call attention to the fact that a

THE MURRAY LEDGER

O. J. JENNINGS, EDITOR.

Entered at the postoffice at Murray, Kentucky, for transmission through the mails as second class matter.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 4, 1913

A Word to The Farmers.

The time of year has come again for cutting and curing another crop of tobacco, and I want to urge upon the farmers the importance of giving their tobacco special attention from the field until delivered. We have recently been blessed in most of the country with good rains that are making the tobacco grow and mature, and the indications are that extra good quality can be made of the crop if properly treated, and one reason that farmers in this district do not get as high prices for their tobacco as is gotten in some sections is because they don't properly see after it and give it the attention it should have. Now, in the beginning I will say that you should leave your tobacco in the field until thoroughly ripe, before cutting, and even after it has begun burning on the lower leaves the improvement in weight and quality in the top of the plant will more than double off set any damage from burning or field firing as we call it, then when you begin cutting try and arrange it so you will not let it sun burn in the field, and don't crowd it too close in the barn, if you can scaffold it in the field for a few days and let it yellow there, this is better than putting it in the barn when first cut, and when you have it ready to begin firing, fire very slowly in the start until you get it just the color you want it, and after you have got the colors set, you can fire faster if you so desire, but the best method of making good and fine tobacco is to fire very slowly and be two weeks or more curing it up. Where your tobacco is very large you will have to watch it before firing as well as after and see that it does not get too sweating, if crowded too close in the barn it will sweat, which produces house-burn, or if you quit firing before it is thoroughly cured it is liable to house-burn, which is a very serious defect as it reduces the quality as well as the weight, which is very expensive to the farmer. After you have your crop cured throw your doors open and let it thoroughly air out, if wet weather sets in see to it that it doesn't brown, or color good tobacco get too soft which will cause

A STITCH IN TIME

Murray People Should Not Neglect Their Kidneys.

No kidney ailment is unimportant. Don't overlook the slightest backache or urinary irregularity. Nature may be warning you of approaching dropsy, gravel or Bright's disease. Kidney disease is seldom fatal if treated in time, but neglect may pave the way. Don't neglect a lame or aching back another day. Don't ignore dizzy spells, irregular or discolored urine, headaches, weariness or depression. If you feel you need kidney help begin using the reliable, time-tried remedy, Doan's Kidney Pills. For 50 years, Doan's have been found effective. Endorsed by Murray people.

H. B. Miller, Murray, Ky., says: "We still use Doan's Kidney Pills in our family and find that they do a world of good. You are at liberty to continue using my former endorsement of this remedy."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

the stems to mould and sometimes leaf to drop off the stalk. Then when the stripping season sets in be careful to class your tobacco well putting different lengths and colors in bundles to themselves and tying your lugs and keep them separate from your leaf. You can use inferior leaves of the same color for tie small neat bundles; and you will find that you will get very much more money and be better pleased with the results than you have been in doing it in a haphazard way. Worms are not bad and if you use Paris Green at all in killing the worms, use it very sparingly because it injures the leaf. You may expect good prices this season for good tobacco well cared for, but I can't say about the common. The world wants ripe, brown to light brown, or color good tobacco and is willing to pay for it.

Thank I have expressed the sentiment of buyers generally and believe you will profit by heeding the advice.

Yours very truly,
W. R. Kennedy.

Swellings of the flesh caused by inflammation, cold, fractures of the bone, toothache, neuralgia or rheumatism can be relieved by applying BALLARD'S SNOW LINIMENT. It should be well rubbed in over the part affected. Its great healing and penetrating power eases the pain, reduces swelling and restores natural conditions. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by Dale & Stubblefield.

In Loving Remembrance of Lottie.

Lottie Lee Rose, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Rose, born June 19, 1890, departed this life April 30, 1913, aged 22 years, 1 month and 11 days. She has gone to join her father who was called from this earth to that eternal home three or four years ago. She leaves a mother, one sister, one brother, and a host of relatives and friends who have been made sad and lonely because of her going away, while we realize at the same time that our loss is her gain.

Lottie was a kind and loving daughter and sister, a true friend and a faithful Christian. She joined the Christian church in early life of which she remained faithful until death. She was a blessing to her home and community in which she lived, held in high esteem by all who knew her, both old and young, for her kindly words and deeds. She had a kind word and a pleasant smile for every one.

Lottie had been afflicted several years but had not been confined to her bed but about three months before her death. She bore her afflictions as patiently as anyone I ever knew and with an untiring effort in trying to regain her health, thanking you for each little kindness shown her. Everything that loving hands and physical assistance could do was done in her behalf.

We loved her, yes we loved her, But God loved her more, He has called her.

To yonder shining shore, and while we miss her so much from our midst, let us ever be submissive to the will of an all-wise Creator who knoweth and doeth all things well. Earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal, if we go to Him with our trials. He is our strength and consolation.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. W. M. Ethridge, after which the remains were laid to rest in the Trevathan graveyard. May God's blessings rest upon the bereaved family, relatives and friends who rendered so much sympathy and assistance during her illness, and finally be reunited in that home where parting comes never more.

is the earnest desire of her cousin, Hallie Rose.

Report of Sales.

Report of sales by the Plant Protective Association of Murray and Tennessee (the) for the week ending, Saturday, Aug. 30, 1913, and for the season to date:

Sales places	this wk.	this season
Clarksville	383 lbs.	14,000 lbs.
Springfield	166 "	10,550 "
Paducah	483 "	4,551 "
Hopkinsville	76 "	1,513 "
Total	1,108	30,710

D. T. Foust and H. Crutchfield, Auditors.

Face-Wall.

Home of Judge and Mrs. ... was the scene of a wedding on last Friday. Mr. J. B. Wall, of ... and Miss Evelyn Pace, of ... were quietly married by Rev. C. J. Shippey, pastor of the South ... they will be at home

O. T. HALE & CO.

1913 FALL ANNOUNCEMENT 1913

We desire to announce the return of our Buyer from the Eastern markets, and that we will soon be receiving the most beautiful line of goods that your eyes ever beheld. We have spared neither time nor effort in getting together for this season's business, all that is BEAUTIFUL, NEW and UP-TO-DATE IN ALL LINES.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 1913,

Marks the Opening of the Fall Season at Our Store
YOU ARE CORDIALLY INVITED TO ATTEND

Opening Sale begins Wednesday morning, September 24, and ends Sept. 25. Free Souvenirs to each family represented at our store on Opening Days. In connection with this Opening Sale, and beginning with Sept. 24, we desire to announce that our business will be placed on a STRICTLY CASH BASIS. We believe this is the most important announcement that we have ever made to the buying public of Murray and Calloway county. We have been considering this step for more than a year, and we are more convinced now than ever, that what the people want is better service, and better goods for the same money. The business of this country will eventually come to a cash basis, and we are taking the lead in this, as in all other matters. While we have been studying over this matter, we have taken the occasion to count the cost of doing a credit business and the natural advantages of a cash business over the old way of selling goods on the credit, and we are going to take you into our confidence long enough to tell you of some of the advantages of a strictly cash business.

First, we will suppose that with a credit business, $3,000 is carried at all times on the books as accounts. The interest on this amount alone would be, at 6 per cent, $300, or about $1 per day, for each business day of the year. The salary of a book keeper and collector must be paid, and this item will amount to about $350, and with some losses that will come to any credit business, the total amount will be swelled to somewhere between $1,000 and $1,500. Now, this is the amount we have decided to save for the customers that buy their goods from us, henceforth. As we said in the beginning, we have studied over this matter for more than a whole year, and we are fully convinced that we will sell goods STRICTLY FOR CASH, and this does not mean that the man who really thinks he needs a little credit will get it, and the man who is at the head of some banking institution will be given credit the same as heretofore, but our terms will be strictly CASH to one and all alike. In doing this we desire to say that we feel good towards every one. We have just as much confidence in you now as in the past. No more spots on us at all. But we have caught the vision of being of greater service to you, through the medium of a strictly cash business, and plans are all made to give you better service in the future than in the past, and to give you more goods for the same money, than any other living concern can, or will give you.

Again We Invite YOU to be Present at Our Store on These Opening Days. A Beautiful FREE Souvenir Will be Given to a Member of Each Family Represented.

O. T. HALE & CO.

MURRAY,

KENTUCKY

to their friends in Corbin. The bride is a bright, charming young lady, and has many warm friends and admirers. Mr. Wall is one of Corbin's leading attorneys, and is a handsome, distinguished looking gentleman. We wish them much joy in their married life. Mountain Echo, London, Ky.

Rare Exhibit During Institute.

The ladies of Murray and Calloway county will have the pleasure of inspecting the crafts exhibit of the State Federation of Women's Clubs at the Murray school house next Wednesday morning, and Thursday. This exhibit includes the very best of every character of needle work, weavings, etc., and is worth more than a passing notice. An earnest invitation is extended to every lady in the county to come and make copies of the work, and make a study of the exhibit. There will be no charge for copying or inspecting, the exhibit is absolutely free.

Irvin Palmer and G. W. Upchurch, two prominent tobacco men of Murray, spent Wednesday night of last week here, going on to their home in Murray Thursday morning. They were making the trip in their automobile, and had been into a number of Kentucky and Tennessee counties looking at the growing crop. They think the crop will not average more than fifty per cent. Cadiz Record.

here very much regret their removal from our town. —Puryear Gazette.

KIDNEY GLOBES

Bright's Disease

Steals on YOU Unawares.

Watch for the symptoms and begin treatment with first appearance of Heavy, Thick or Dark Colored Urine, Sand, Gravel, Headache, etc. The formation of uric acid is prevented by the use of

YOU NEED

LARK'S KIDNEY GLOBES.

Uric acid in the blood produces Gout, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nerve, Nervousness, Dropsy, Lumbago, Stone in the Kidneys, Headache, etc. The formation of uric acid is prevented by the use of

LARK'S KIDNEY GLOBES.

15 day Treatment for 50c.

Lark Manufacturing Co. Inc., Paducah, Ky.

For Sale by E. D. MILLER

Announcement....

We have just put in a full line of Abdominal Supports, Shoulder Braces, Inguinal and Scrotal Trusses, in Spring, Hard Rubber and Elastic Styles, also Crutches.

Manufactured by

The Ohio Truss Co.,

CINCINNATI, O.

Such an assortment heretofore has been carried only by special houses in this line. If you are a user of anything in the above line, it will pay you to give us a call before going elsewhere.

This Is a Superior Line of Goods.

E. D. MILLER, Druggist

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Call for the new cash cut grocery. Both phones 104.

Mrs. J. A. Edwards has returned home from an extended visit to her son in Oklahoma.

I want some fresh hen eggs. Will pay 15c per doz. J. M. Cole.

Miss Lena Pool has returned home after a several weeks visit to friends in Lexington, Tenn.

Try one for the best flour and canned goods and you will come again. Thomas & Parker, Hughes' old stand.

Albert Jones has returned to his former position with J. L. Martin & Co., as salesman.

Miss Lula Ellison has returned home from an extended visit to her sister, Mrs. Bode Adams, of Eula, Texas.

Patent Flour $4.50 per barrel. Cash only. Money talks. J. M. Cole.

Mrs. C. A. Bishop and children have returned home from an extended visit to relatives in the upper part of the state.

FOR SALE. Twelve nice pigs at $1.50 each. Want to sell in one lot. A. B. Beale.

Mrs. E. J. Beale has returned home from an extended visit to her parents, Judge T. P. Cook and wife of Hopkinsville, Ky.

A household remedy in America for 25 years. Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. For cuts, sprains, burns, scalds, bruises. 25c and 50c. At all drug stores.

Hardy Curd and family, of near Buchanan, spent several days of this week in Calloway the guest of relatives.

Frank Hays, of Golo, Graves county, was in town this week and spent several days in the county the guest of his father, southwest of the city.

GRIGSBY'S LIV-VER-LAX, that delicious liver syrup, has displaced calomel in nearly every home. Good for grown-ups and children alike. Ask E. D. Miller, Druggist.

COLT SHOW. I will have my mule colt show at Kirksey the 3rd Saturday September at 1 o'clock. Premiums on mule colts only. All who are indebted to me must settle on this day. A. L. Hughes, Mgr. 944

WHITE FROST Flour, a guaranteed highest patent flour on the market. Every barrel good, none bad and none better. You can buy it in Murray from Bucy Bros., in Hazel from Jno. D. McLeod, and after using the first barrel you will never use any other. U. B. Brandon, McKenzie, Tenn., selling agent.

FOR SALE. Twelve nice pigs at $1.50 each. Want to sell in one lot. A. B. Beale.

Jeff Sarant is again proprietor of the White Front restaurant, having purchased the business the past week from Hallet Grogan.

Why be CONSTIPATED when you can buy LIV-VER-LAX from E. D. MILLER?

J. D. Sexton and family left last Friday for Stewart county where they will be the guests of his parents, J. M. Sexton and wife, for some time.

Corn, Oats and Bran, all the best quality and cheap for cash, at Thomas & Parker's grocery, Hughes' old stand.

YOUR LIVER LACKS GRIGSBY'S LIV-VER-LAX. Try a bottle today. Satisfaction guaranteed. Ask E. D. Miller.

Frederick Holland, who is employed as railway stenographer at Lexington, Tenn., came home Tuesday of this week quite ill and his sickness has been pronounced typhoid fever.

Concrete building material, blocks, well tile, sewer tile, anything that you may need. See O. W. Harrison, just west of the city or call over either phone. 8282

COLT SHOW. I will hold my annual colt show the third Saturday of this month at my place near Lynn Grove. The public is also invited to attend. L. T. Crawford.

FARM FOR SALE. 100 acre farm, 6 miles southeast of Murray, 60 in cultivation, well improved, plenty of water, close to school and church, good orchard and plenty of timber. Will sell at a bargain. Write or see T. C. Wilkins, Murray, R. 7. 7318

The seven months old child of Dan Calhoun, of the mouth of Blood river section, died Tuesday night after a short illness of summer complaint.

HERBINE is the medicine that cures biliousness, malaria and constipation. The first dose makes you feel better, a few additional doses cures completely. Price 50c. Sold by Dale & Stubblefield.

COLT SHOW. I will hold my annual colt show at my residence the 2nd Saturday Sept., at 1 o'clock. All who are indebted to me for season fees come prepared to make settlement. Walter Farris. 8283

QUIT CALOMEL; it is dangerous. TRY GRIG-BY'S LIV-VER-LAX, that vegetable liver syrup guaranteed to produce even better results than calomel. It is absolutely harmless and pleasant to take. Any child can take it with safety. Ask E. D. Miller, Druggist.

$1 for Ledger—a big bargain.

Scott & Bown, Bloomfield, N. J. 18-44

Gaius Adams and family, Wirt Alderson and family, Bert Ray and family, Barto Bailey and daughter and Uncle Seth Burton left the first of the week to spend several days near the mouth of Blood river on the Tennessee.

HABITUAL CONSTIPATION and all liver troubles can be cured by using GRIGSBY'S LIV-VER-LAX. Ask E. D. Miller, Druggist.

Bud Cross, of Benton, the editor of the Tribune-Democrat, spent Sunday in Murray. He got lost in the new court house and was not discovered until a very few minutes before his train departed for home.

"I have been somewhat constipated, but Dan's Regulets give just the result I desire. They act mildly and regulate the bowels perfectly."—Geo. B. Kraus, Altoona, Pa.

On Saturday night Esq. W. T. Snow officiated at a double wedding of Kentucky people, when he pronounced the words uniting D. Y. Ely to Miss Lottie Trice and Charley Overstreet to Miss Vera Chapman. —Paris Parisian.

If your child is pale and sickly, picks at the nose, starts in the sleep and grinds the teeth, while sleeping, it is a sure sign of worms. A remedy for those parasites will be found in WHITE'S CREAM VERMIFUGE. It not only clears out the worms, but it restores health and cheerfulness. Price 25c per bottle. Sold by Dale & Stubblefield.

Sidney Smith, of near Coldwater, last his home and contents by fire last Sunday night. The family was at church and the origin of the fire is not known. Only a few of the contents of the building were saved.

Did you know that CALOMEL IS MERCURY, and that its mercurial effects will ruin the system, while GRIGSBY'S LIV-VER-LAX is purely vegetable and can be used with perfect safety? Ask E. D. Miller, Druggist.

Miss Elizabeth Parker has returned from Nashville, and other eastern markets, where she purchased the largest and best line of millinery she has ever shown. Her goods are arriving daily and will soon be ready for your inspection and approval.

MOONLIGHT FLOUR—that sounds like pure, white, light flour and that's what it is. It is guaranteed in every respect; is made of the best grade of wheat and makes biscuits, cakes, in fact all the good things to eat. Just try one barrel and get it from Broach & Bell. You'll come back for the next barrel after using it. U. B. Brandon, McKenzie, Tenn., selling agent.

Mrs. Marion Darnell, a highly esteemed woman, died at her home near town last Sunday afternoon of cholera morbus. She was taken very suddenly Saturday night and her condition was not thought to be alarming until about noon Sunday, when no effects could be derived from the medicines, then all hopes of her recovery were lost.—Hardin Enterprise.

FARM FOR SALE. 50 acre farm 2 1/2 miles west of Murray, on Murray and Brown's Grove road 35-40 cultivation; new 5-room house; 2 tobacco barns; good stables and crib; well, cistern and pond water; good orchard. A very desirable place and will sell for $2,500, 2-3 cash, balance 1 and 2 years.—Virgil Wilson.

Mrs. Forrest and family have moved into the Clifford Melugin home, on North Curd street. Mr. John Myers, of near Lynn Grove, has moved to the home on West Price street vacated by Mrs. Forrest. Mr. Myers is a son of Dock Myers and only recently lost his home by fire.

Any skin itching is a temper tester. The more you scratch the worse it itches. Doan's Ointment is for piles, eczema—any skin itching. Get it at all drug stores.

Information was received here this week to the effect that L. W. Holland, who underwent an operation for cancer in Louisville some several days ago, was progressing nicely and that his physician stated that he would be able to be out within a few days.

NOTICE. All parties owing me for Rawleigh's Remedies will please send me the amount due by P. O. money order at your earliest convenience. Have been sick and not able to get around to see you.—H. W. Grogan, Murray, R. 4. 8282

Mrs. Will Myers, of Hazel, was received at the Murray Surgical Hospital Tuesday of this week for an operation for appendicitis. She was taken ill while on a visit to relatives near Clarksville, Tenn., and was hurried to this place as quickly as possible.

Mr. George Braboy, a clever citizen who lived near Ferguson Spring between the rivers, died last Friday night of heart trouble. He awoke in the night feeling badly and sent his brother to the telephone to call up his sons who lived near. When the brother returned to the room he found Mr. Braboy dead.—Cadiz Record.

FOR SALE. 40 acre farm, five miles southeast of Murray; 30 in cultivation, 10 in good timber; 3-room house; 2 tobacco barns; orchard, good water; one-half mile of good school, convenient to church; good stable and crib and other outbuildings; wire fence around entire place; a good level 40 acre farm. At a bargain if sold at once. Write or phone E. E. Roach, Murray, R. No. 7. 8284

Work was commenced Tuesday morning on the remodeling of the Gatlin building. A concrete floor will be constructed in the basement and the second floor of the large building will be converted into offices. The entire building will be overhauled and when completed will be one of the most splendid pieces of realty in the city.

T. M. Jones has purchased the J. D. Hamilton residence on North Curd street and at an early date will move to town and occupy the place. Mr. Hamilton has purchased the Duncan Holt place near Stones school house of Mr. J. W. McKeel and will move to the place within a few days. Mr. Hamilton will continue in the real estate business and will have offices in town.

Farm For Sale. Good farm of 35 acres or can sell 65; 1 mile south of Harris Grove; good house, stables; barn, orchard, good water, one-half bottom land, plenty of timber; possession early this fall. For sale by the owner at a bargain. Oswell West, Murray, R. 4, or N. M. West, Murray. 7248

Get the Ledger—1 Per Year.

Walter G. Johnson, M. D.
Medical and Surgical treatment Diseases of Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat.
Office
Upstairs Allen Building

Blacksmith Shop at Stella

WE have formed a partnership and are now ready to do all kinds of blacksmith work at Stella. J. C. Beaman, one of the firm has had eighteen years experience, while Mr. Childers, well known throughout the county, has also had a long experience. We are going to make endeavor to satisfy every patron and will do your work at the very lowest rate possible and will guarantee our work and our prices.

Horse Shoeing a Specialty

Will Shoe all round for 80 Cents, Cash

This work we will give our close, personal attention and will guarantee it to be as good as any man can do. Give us a share of your patronage and we will satisfy you.

Yours truly

J. C. Beaman
Jess Childers

Speight & Dean

Attorneys-at-Law

Practice in courts of Calloway county. Write us, phone us, come to see us at Mayfield, Ky.

Tell us the facts, we'll tell you the law.
Will meet clients on request at Murray, Ky. 51513

Notice.

All parties owing grocery accounts to E. A. Hughes & Co., must be ready to settle same July 1, 1913, as we want to engage in business and want all old claims adjusted before hand. Thanking each one for past favors we are, yours respectfully,
E. A. Hughes & Co.

Mr. J. Woodward Hicks and Miss Kate Rose were united in marriage last Sunday at the home of Mrs. Ada Diuguid, sister of the bride. Rev. Pickens, pastor of the Methodist church, saying the ceremony that united the popular and well known couple in wedlock. Mr. Hicks is an employee of the Ryan & Sons Co. store and is one of the most popular salesmen in the city. His bride is a splendid young woman, loved and admired by a wide circle of friends. The wedding was quite a surprise to the many friends of the contracting parties and they have been the recipients of many congratulations since the happy event.

A Telephone for Every Farmer

Do YOU want one?

We will tell you how to get it at small cost. Fill out and return this coupon today.

CUMBERLAND TEL. & TEL. CO.
INCORPORATED.
Please send me your free booklet describing your plan for farmers' telephone service at small cost.

Name.....
R. F. D. No.....
Town and State.....
Address.....
FARMERS' LINE DEPARTMENT
Cumberland Telephone and Telegraph Company
INCORPORATED.
34 SOUTH PRYOR STREET, ATLANTA, GEORGIA.

FOR THE NEXT THREE MONTHS WILL MAKE THE FOLLOWING SPECIAL PRICES

on GLASSES

Solid Gold Frames.....	$8.00
Gold Filled, 15 year guarantee.....	4.50
Platanoid.....	3.00
Aluminum.....	3.50
German Silver.....	1.50

NOSE GLASSES:

Solid Gold mounting, Vici.....	$6.50
Gold Filled, 15 year guarantee.....	4.50
Rims.....	3.00
Platanoid.....	2.50

Filled with best Crystalline Lense, complete at above prices.

Extra For Bifocals.....	$1.00
Per Toric Lense.....	$2.00

Dr. Johnson

ALLEN BLDG. MURRAY, KY.

PRESIDENT READS HIS MESSAGE; MEXICANS NOT TO HARM CITIZENS

Asks United States Remain Neutral by Prohibiting Arms Being Shipped From This Country—Advises All Americans to Leave There.

Washington, D. C. — President Wilson's message, read before a joint session of congress, contained a complete history of our negotiations with Mexico, and included the following advisory statements:

That all Americans be earnestly urged to leave Mexico at once.

That Mexico be informed summary punishment will be made if American lives are outraged.

That he deems it his duty to let the various Mexican factions fight out their troubles.

That he must prohibit shipment of arms to both federal and rebels to insure strict neutrality by the United States.

Failure of the negotiations of Special Envoy John Lind was reported by the president, but he said the door was not closed to resumption of peace overtures.

The president regards the situation as critical. The spirit of his address was friendship for the Mexican people, but extreme pessimism as to the outlook for immediate restoration of peace, because of President Huerta's rejection of the mediation plan.

The Message in Part.

In part, the president said:

"It is clearly my duty to lay before you fully, very fully, and without reservation, the facts concerning our present relations with the republic of Mexico. The deplorable posture of affairs in Mexico I need not describe, but I deem it my duty to speak very frankly what this government has done and should seek to do in fulfillment of its obligations to Mexico."

"We are friendly and neighborly, and to the American citizens whose lives and vital interests are daily affected by the distressing conditions which now obtain beyond our southern border."

Meanwhile, what is it our duty to do? Clearly, everything that we must do must be rooted in patience and done with calm and disinterested deliberation. Impatience on our part would be childish and would be fraught with every risk of wrong and folly.

"We should afford to exercise the self-restraint of a really great nation which realizes its own strength and seems to use it. It was our duty to offer our active assistance."

"It is now our duty to show what true neutrality will do to enable the people of Mexico to set their affairs in order again and wait for a further opportunity to offer our friendly counsel."

The door is not closed against the resumption, either upon our own, or the effort to bring order out of the confusion by friendly cooperative action, should fortune again offer.

Contest With the Shogun.

"While we wait, the contest of the rival forces will undoubtedly for a little while be sharper than ever, just because it will be plain that an end must be made of the existing situation, and that very promptly, and at the increased activity of the fighting factions will come. It is to be feared, increased danger to the non-combatants in Mexico as well as to those actually in the field of battle."

The position of outsiders is always particularly trying and full of hazard where there is civil strife and a whole country is upset.

"We should earnestly urge all Americans to leave Mexico at once and should assist them to get away in every way possible—not because we would mean to slacken their lives and their interests, but because it is imperative that they should take no unnecessary risks when it is physically possible for them to leave the country."

"We should let everyone who assumes to exercise authority in any part of Mexico know in the most unequivocal way that we shall vigilantly watch the fortunes of those Americans who cannot get away and shall hold those responsible for their sufferings and losses to a definite reckoning. That can be and will be made plain beyond a possibility of a misunderstanding."

For the rest I deem it my duty to exercise the authority conferred upon me by the law of March 14, 1912, to see to it that neither side to the struggle now going on in Mexico receive any assistance from this side of the border. I shall follow the best practice of nations in the matter of neutrality by forbidding the exportation of arms or munitions of war of any kind from the United States.

Should Have Had More Thought.

An Atchison man committed suicide by drowning himself in a stream. Why, in the name of all that's just and fair, demands the Libby's, "didn't he jump into the river instead of spilling a streamer full of good water?"—Kansas City Star.

Have View of Ocean's Depths.

Every boat engaged in the Japanese sponge industry has a water glass or pane of glass inserted in the bottom of a box of sponges, through which the sponges are readily detected.

kind from the United States to any part of the republic of Mexico—a policy suggested by several interesting precedents and certainly dictated by many manifest considerations of practical expediency. We cannot in the circumstances be partisans of either party to the contest that now distracts Mexico or constitute ourselves the virtual umpire between them."

Repeated declarations of friendliness of this government for the Mexican people were made in the message.

"But we are not the only friends of Mexico," the president declared. "The whole world desires her peace and progress; and the whole world is interested as never before. Mexico lies at the heart of the world's commerce."

"The great routes of the world's trade and intercourse running from ocean to ocean to the isthmus. The future has much in store for Mexico as for all of the states of Central America; but the best gifts can come to her only if she is ready and free to receive them and to enjoy them honorably."

"America, in particular America north and south, and upon both continents, waits upon the development of Mexico; and that development can be sound and lasting only if it be the product of a genuine freedom, a just and ordered government founded upon law. Only so can it be peaceful and fruitful of the benefits of peace. Mexico has a great and enviable future before her if only she choose and attain the path of honest constitutionality."

Here the president gave a word picture of conditions in Mexico today:

"The present circumstances of the republic," he said, "I deeply regret to say, do not seem to promise even the foundations of such peace. We have waited many months, months full of peril and anxiety, for the conditions there to improve, and they have not improved. They have grown worse."

The territory in some spots controlled by the provisional authorities at Mexico City has grown smaller, not larger. "The prospect of the pacification of the country even by arms has seemed to grow more and more remote; and its pacification by the authorities at the capital is evidently impossible by any other means than force."

"Difficulties more and more entangle those who claim to constitute the legitimate government of the republic. They have not made good their claim in fact. Their successes in the field have proved only temporary. War and disorder, devastation and confusion seem to dominate the scene. The settled fortune of the distracted country, as friends we could wait no longer for, a solution which every week seemed further away. It was our duty to at least volunteer our good offices to offer to assist in the effort to bring some arrangement which would bring the relief and peace and set upon a universally acknowledged political authority there."

The president then said he "took the liberty" of sending John Lind to Mexico as his personal spokesman and representative. He gave instructions to Lind which outlined the mediation plan with the following four distinct proposals:

"An immediate cessation of fighting throughout Mexico and definite armistice solemnly entered into and scrupulously observed."

"Security given for an early free election, in which all will agree to take part."

"The consent of Huerta to hind himself not to be a candidate for election as president of the republic at this election."

"The agreement of all parties to abide by the results of the election and co-operate in the most loyal way in organizing and supporting the new administration."

The president said Lind's instructions were to represent that in advising the plan the nations of the world looked to the United States to act as Mexico's nearest friend and to offer this nation's good offices in assistance."

"Mr. Lind executed his delicate and difficult mission with singular tact, firmness and good judgment, and made clear to the authorities at Mexico City, not only the purpose of his visit, but also the spirit in which it had been undertaken," said the president. "But the proposals he submitted."

Knowledge by the Foot.

Information was formerly measured by the page. It may soon be computed by the foot. One motion picture firm is sending out letters announcing that it has in stock 19,000 feet of architecture, 30,000 feet of science and 90,000 feet of geography. The World's Work.

Shows Man at His Worst.

Another paradox is the fact that a case of "insanity" is more common among the mad than among the sane. A madman makes a man look like a lunatic.

ted were rejected in a note, the full text of which I take the liberty of laying before you.

"I am glad to believe that they were rejected partly because the authorities at Mexico City had been grossly misinformed and misled upon two points. They did not realize the spirit of the American people in this matter, their earnest friendliness and yet sober determination that some just solution be found for the Mexican difficulties; and they did not believe that the present administration spoke through Mr. Lind for the people of the United States."

"The effect of this unfortunate misunderstanding of their part is to leave them singularly isolated and without friends who can effectively aid them. So long as the misunderstanding continues, we can only wait the time of their awakening to a realization of the actual facts. We cannot trust our good offices upon them. The situation must be given a little time to work itself out in the new circumstances; and I believe that only a little while will be necessary. For the circumstances are new. The rejection of our friendship makes them new."

"I am happy to say that several of the great governments of the world have given their support to our generous moral support in urging upon the provisional authorities the acceptance of our proffered good offices in the spirit in which they were made. At the world expects us . . . to have Mexico's nearest friend and intimate ally."

There is nowhere any serious question that we have the moral right in the case of that we are acting in the interest of a fair settlement . . . not for the promotion of some selfish interest of our own."

"The present of mankind in what we are attempting to do, the great nations of the world, to what we may attempt in dealing with the distressed people at our doors, should make us feel the more solemnly bound to do the utmost length of patience and forbearance in the painful and anxious business."

"The steady pressure of moral force will before many days break the barriers of pride and prejudice down and we shall triumph as Mexico's friends sooner than we could triumph as her enemies—and how much more hand-somely—with her much higher and finer satisfaction of conscience and of honor."

Rebels Want Arms.

Houston, Tex., March 14. — Given unrestricted opportunities to buy munitions of war in the United States, the Constitutionalists will sweep Provisional President Huerta from power, assume responsibility for injury done foreigners, hold a free and fair election and re-establish Mexico in firm cordial relations with the United States, according to a statement from Gen. Jesus Carranza, which Dr. Henry Allen Tupper and Capt. J. T. Armstrong of the international peace forum are carrying to President Wilson.

Dr. Tupper and Capt. Armstrong, public the statement of Gen. Carranza, who is a brother of the Constitutional commander-in-chief. They were commissioned by the peace forum to confer with Constitutional leaders in an effort to devise possible peace measures.

Lind at Vera Cruz.

Vera Cruz, Mexico. — John Lind, special envoy from the United States, awaiting instructions. He is prepared either to start back to Washington or retrace his steps to Mexico City.

He knew of Foreign Minister Gamba's latest statement, construed to mean that Mexico desired to reopen negotiations, but Gen. Huerta had not asked him to return nor had Washington indicated, so far as could be learned here, what Lind's next move would be.

Hay Feverties Hold Banquet.

Bethlehem, N. H., March 14. — Maj. Richard Mackie, of Philadelphia, who has suffered from hay fever 75 years, was banqueted as the "oldest sneezer" by 25 fellow feverties.

Original Spelling of Coffee.

Nowadays the "coffee" is the last name in which any one looks for coffee, but originally that was the French name for coffee, and appeared on the sign outside of the coffee houses of Paris. Other drinking was introduced later, until gradually the cafe came to mean a barroom, nothing more.

When the sun-dried specklers get around to it, will they kindly attend to the words, from the original word to "Plyket" motion picture.

AN IMMENSE NEW INDUSTRIAL PLANT FOR CHICAGO

When completed, the new plant of the Calumet Baking Powder Company, now under course of construction, at South 41st avenue and Pilmore street, will prove a fitting monument to the ability, honesty and progressiveness which have rendered possible the tremendous growth of one of Chicago's most prominent industrial institutions.

This immense plant, the estimated cost of which is $250,000, is a strictly modern five-story and basement, fireproof, re-enforced concrete building, 260x100 feet. One of the novel and interesting features of this, the largest and most efficiently equipped baking powder plant in existence, will be a cantilever shipping platform projecting over to a switch track on a level with the second floor.

Automatic machinery, modern appliances and passenger and freight elevators of the latest type will be installed and employed in manufacturing and handling the company's product.

Plans which make possible a maximum amount of glass area and the highest degree of sanitation have been carefully and scientifically prepared. Spacious and splendidly appointed rest rooms are provided for employees.

One entire floor will be devoted to laboratory and research equipment. The installation of a modern bakery for experiment purposes, insures the maintenance of the high standard of excellence for which Calumet Baking Powder is famed.

The Calumet Baking Powder Company was organized a quarter of a century ago by Mr. Wm. M. Wright. The company first began the manufacture of baking powder in a comparatively small way, with limited capital. Modern methods, combined with high grade materials and an unwavering determination to produce an article of superior quality, have created a demand which necessitated the erection of the new Calumet plant—a substantial factor in the industrial life of Chicago, and won for it a patronage which is a benefit and a credit to the city.—Adv.

Its State.

"Don't you think the ideal of an Indian opera is original?"

"I should call it aboriginal."

No. SIX-SIXTY-SIX

This is a prescription prepared especially for Malaria or Chills and Fever. Five or six doses will break any case, and if taken then as a tonic the fever will not return. 25c.—Adv.

The Way of It.

"Miss May" made a hit with Jack the first glance she gave him.

"I see—a sort of glancing blow."

Pleasures of the Rich.

"Mrs. van Millon is back from Europe."

"What is she so tickled about?"

"Seems she smuggled in two packages of foreign cigarettes."

Compensation.

"I hear the young attorney sends you some very clever stuff."

"Yes," replied the editor, "but we always give him as good as he sends."

Puzzle.

"Dad, tell me one thing."

"What is it, my son?"

"If the fathers were to hold congresses to agree on what they wanted like the mothers, would they be 'pop' concerts?"

Would Make It Right.

He was an Irish lover, an Irish lover and a practical headstrong fellow. It was St. Patrick's eve and in his hand he bore a pot of real Irish shamrock.

They were raised on the out-said. He said, as he presented the pot to Biddy, raised on the out-said of Ireland.

"Sure now, Murphy," cried his lady in delight, "how really sweet of you. Sure, I do believe that there's a little dew on 'em yet."

Murphy flushed slightly. "Begorra, I know there is," he reluctantly confessed. "But, praise heaven, it'll be paid tomorrow."

LIGHT BREAKS IN Thoughtful Farmer Learns About Coffee.

Many people exist in a more or less hazy condition and it often takes years before they realize that tea and coffee are often the cause of the cloudiness, and that there is a simple way to let the light break in.

A worthy farmer had such an experience and tells about it, in a letter. He says:

"For about forty years, I have had indigestion and stomach trouble in various forms. During the last 25 years I would not more than get over one spell of bilious colic until another would be upon me."

"The best doctors I could get and all the medicines I could buy, only gave me temporary relief."

"Change of climate was tried without results. I could not sleep nights, and my heart would palpitate at times so that it seemed it would jump out of my body."

"I came to the conclusion that there was no relief for me and that I was about worn out, when I saw a Postum advertisement. I had always been a coffee drinker, and got an idea from the ad. that maybe coffee was the cause of my trouble."

"I began to use Postum instead of coffee and in less than three weeks I felt like a new man. The rheumatism left me, and I have never had a spell of bilious colic since."

"My appetite is good, my digestion never was better and I can do more work than before for 30 years."

"I haven't tasted coffee since I began with Postum. My life now is all according to directions and I relish it as well as I ever did coffee, and I was getting tired of it."

Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Write for copy of the little book, "The Road to Wellville."

Postum comes in two forms: Regular Postum—My coffee well boiled. Instant Postum—a soluble powder. A teaspoonful dissolves quickly in a cup of hot water and, with the addition of cream and sugar, makes a delicious beverage instantly.

"There's a reason," for Postum.

Wrong Idea.

"The magistrate wouldn't give me an interview."

"He takes the wrong views of things. A magistrate has no business to be non-committal."

Exactly.

"We've nicknamed Mildred 'Explosive.'"

"On account of the powder she uses, I suppose."

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children teething, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays a painful wind colic, cures a bottle.

Driven to It.

"My husband doesn't care for grand opera."

"But I notice he applauds vigorously."

"He does that to keep awake."

Raw cotton from Africa and Asia imported into England and re-exported to the United States during January-April weighed 58,000,000 pounds.

It takes a wife with true faith to brag about her husband's ability, even when she doesn't believe in it herself.

The man who first ate a lobster had nerve, but he who first manipulated a dish of chop-house hash was a hero.

Libby's

Soups

Soup making is an art. Why trouble with soup recipes when the best chefs in the country are at your service? A few cans of Libby's Soup on your pantry shelf assures you of the correct flavor, ready in a few minutes. There are Tomato, Vegetable, Chicken, Oxtail, Consomme, Mock Turtle and other kinds. Your grocer has them.

Libby, McNeill & Libby Chicago

The oldest and best Chill and Malaria Tonic on the market.

Pleasant to take Perfectly Harmless

Dr. R. A. ARMISTEAD'S AGUE TONIC

18 72

Not Working.

"May I ask what your business is?"

"I'm a seeker after truth."

"Do you expect to find it in this community?"

"Sir, I'm taking a little vacation now."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Weird Work.

"What's this volcano in action?"

"No."

"Then on fire?"

"No, sir, with life. Piece of buckley berry pie, painted by a cubist."

"A neck that should not be dated as wedlock."

DETECTIVE WORK

Write Dept. 2 and we will tell you about it.

DAVIS HODGINS AND DETECTIVE SERVICE, 1000 Broadway, New York

Regardless of Price or Previous Prestige

For Sale by
A. B. BEALE & SON,
J. M. COLE,
BROACH & BELL,
OVERBEY & PURDOM Murray, Ky.
BUCY BROTHERS,
W. W. McELRATH
THOMAS & PARKER
P. P. UNDERWOOD, Cherry, Ky.
J. M. LINES Almo, Ky.

HOLLY FLOUR

is the finest, whitest, most perfectly milled flour on the market today--- Costs a little extra, but worth a lot more.

ONE PACKAGE TO CONVINCE

Made and Guaranteed by

PADUCAH MILLING COMPANY, Paducah, Ky.

J. P. HOLT

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW

Murray, Ky.

Will practice in the Federal Courts in Kentucky and Tennessee.

NOTICE

¶ We have made arrangements with the mill
at Puryear, Tenn., to exchange their whole wheat Flour and Bran to the farmers for wheat at the usual rate of exchange.

BRING US YOUR WHEAT. ALL
FLOUR Guaranteed.

MURRAY
PLANING MILLS

Notice.

The Fiscal Court of Calloway County, Kentucky, will receive sealed bids for complete line of furniture for the new court house at Murray, Kentucky, up to noon,
September 15, 1913.
T. W. Patterson,
Chairman of Committee.

BIG BILLS

AND LITTLE BILLS!

WE WANT

YOUR BIG BILLS

Of Course---That goes without saying. But we want you to know that we want your Little Bills as well. Your One Dollar William Bills as well as your Hundred Dollar William Bills. Let us

Figure Your Bills!

We Sell at Right Prices: LUM-BER, LATH, POSTS, SHINGLES,
SASH and DOORS.

Head, Frazier & ...

"What Is the Matter With the World?"

The solution of this age-old problem is easy. The remedy for all the ills afflicting the human race may be readily found,
when once the cause is ascertained. As effect follows cause so a remedy to be effectual must be applied to the source of the trouble.

There is one cause for all political corruption, social evils, financial frauds, industrial ills, liquor traffic, wars, poverty, disease, strikes, lockouts, shame, misery, sorrow, and suffering.

There are many branches to the great tree of evil, and reformers have been hacking away at them for time immemorial, but anyone looking out over the world will be forced to the conclusion that most of the evils of our time are growing ones.

Was there ever a time when preparations for war were on such a gigantic scale? Were the industrial ills ever as serious as today? The fearful spread of social evil, the terrible white slave traffic, the number of divorce cases, the more than sixty per cent. of humanity afflicted with loathsome disease due to immorality, all attest the awful condition of our race.

Experience has demonstrated that it is futile to attempt to remove the branches of evil. The tree itself must be killed. The only way to kill the tree is to strike at the roots. What are the roots? The answer to this is the answer to the entire problem of "What is the matter with the world?" It is selfishness in the human heart. Analyze every evil in the world and it can be traced to this one source.

Remove selfishness, and the evils will fade away. How can this be done? It will require the divine power of the Creator.
Hopeless indeed would be this world if God had not provided the remedy. This, which is beyond the power of man to achieve, will be done when Mes-siah's kingdom is established in the earth. His righteous reign will be inaugurated for the very purpose of removing the stony hearts of selfishness and of giving to mankind hearts of flesh, dispositions of love and kindness and goodwill. --Isaiah 9:6-9; Ezekiel 36:26, 27. --The Wandering Jew.

Miss Maye Phillips has returned from the eastern markets after spending several weeks in purchasing millinery for L. E.
Graham & Co. Miss Phillips is receiving the new goods daily and extends a cordial invitation to the ladies of the city and county to inspect the fall head-wear. She will be in charge of this line again this year and will make every endeavor to please the patrons of the store.

USE LIV-VER-LAX

For Lazy Liver and the Troubles of Constipation.

Feel right all the time. Don't lay from work for days by taking calomel
when you want fine Ver-Lax keeps you on your feet, while giving your trouble. Safer too, and easy to take. Don't take anything else. You can't afford it. (Eliminates poisons, cleanses system and relieves constipation. A natural remedy, natural in its actions, sure in its effect and certain in results. It won't be long before Liv-Ver-Lax will completely displace calomel in every home. Children can take it freely and with perfect safety. Every bottle guaranteed. 50c and $1 in bottles. Sometimes without the illness and signature of L. E. Graham. For sale by

Sold by E. D. MILLER

Murray, Ky. Hazel, Ky.

Fall Announcement.

L. E. Graham has returned from the markets where he has been purchasing one of the most beautiful lines of dress goods and novelties ever on display in Murray. We extend a most cordial invitation to everyone to call and see the splendid line of fall goods now on display. We have made great preparations for fall and are very enthusiastic about our display, and invite you to come and see our new line. Your visit will be both profitable and interesting. You will see the choicest line that could be purchased, something that is beautiful, stylish, exclusive and different.
L. E. Graham & Co.

Despondency.
Is often caused by indigestion
and constipation, and quickly disappears when Chamberlain's Tablets are taken. For sale by Dale & Stubblefield.

Mrs. Wm. Melton, who made her home near Patterson's store
on the east side of the county, died Monday night at the Murray Surgical Hospital. She was received at the hospital Sunday afternoon for an operation for tumor. It was found that she was suffering from cancer of the stomach and after a more extended investigation it was deemed advisable not to operate. She was about 65 years of age and a splendid christian woman and her death is the cause of genuine sadness in the locality where she lived. She is survived by a husband and several children together with a number of other relatives in Calloway and Stevart counties.

Advertised Letters.

T. E. McChesney, H. B. Mc-Kinney, Grace Hayes, Lawton
Alexander, Garvin Edwards,
A. J. ...

What Kansas Whiskey Will Do.

A farmer up in Kansas is said to have lost a can of syrup while taking poisoned bran to his field to kill the grasshoppers that are ruining the crops in that state this year. He had a full quart of whiskey which he mixed with the bran in place of the syrup.

The farmer says, according to the Kansas City Times, that a hopper would come along, take a bite of the bran, jump about four feet in the air and spit a stream of "tobacco juice" light down, take another bite of the bran and start out to lick the first hopper he met. In this way all the hoppers in the field were soon fighting each other. As soon as one hopper killed another he sought a new opponent and this way there was soon but one big hopper left. Soon a rooster came along and made a dive for this hopper, but the hopper instead of allowing himself to be eaten jumped up and kicked the old rooster in the face, spit "tobacco juice" in his eyes and chased him under the barn.

Work Commenced on Sewerage.

Work was commenced Tuesday of this week excavating for the septic tank for the Murray Sewerage Co. under the supervision of Mr. Alley, who will have charge of the construction of the entire system. The tank will be located on the Mrs. Emma Brame property, in the northeast part of the city, near the railway right of way. The work of installing the system will be pushed as rapidly as possible and will be completed before the first of the year.

Mr. Alley was overcome by the heat Wednesday and he has been quite ill since. He is at the home of Mr. Sidney Roberts.

Results--An ad in the Ledger,
Try an ad in the Ledger.

Tax Books Now Ready

Since the last Legislature provided us with a new method of making tax receipts and thereby delaying the commencement of this years' collection, we earnestly request that each and every one avail himself of an early opportunity to pay the 1913 tax.

Also, no tax books will be in hands of deputies except on days and dates named below. The law provides that we furnish no duplicate receipts, so we are forced to handle the books in this manner.

Give Attention to the Time and Place that Suit Your Convenience and Meet Us and Get Your Receipts.

WE WILL BE AT PLACES AT TIMES NAMED BELOW:

Concord, Dexter and Lynn Grove on Sat., Aug. 23, and Wed., Sept. 17.
Brandon's Mill, Browns Grove and Hazel on Wed., Aug. 27, and Sat., Sept. 20.
Hico, Backsburg and Almo on Sat., Aug. 30 and Wed., Sept. 24.
Newberg, Kirksey and Crossland on Wed., Sept. 3, and Sat., Sept. 27.
Pottertown, Coldwater and New Providence on Sat., Sept. 6, and Wed., Oct. 1.
Patterson's store, Harris Grove and Copeland's store on Wed., Sept. 10, Pine Bluff on Sat., Sept. 13, and Sat., Oct. 4.

Remember, that the books for all the districts will be in the office except on dates named above.

Arrange to meet us at the place that is convenient to you and get your receipt before the last day (before penalty time) as we can not handle so many receipts in a day as heretofore.

Thanking you for your promptness in years gone and believing you will again respond, I am,

Yours very respectfully,

C. I. JORDAN, Sheriff Calloway County