Gov. Williams Andr;
Democrats Still
Unable To Agree
DEADLINE THURSDAY
Frankfort, July 15—
The last-minute conference of the special legislative session was held today as the legislature adjourned for the summer.

The conference was held in the courtroom of the State Capitol, and was attended by Governor Williams and his aides, Democratic leaders, and Republican leaders.

The conference was called to discuss the budget for the coming year, the tax structure, and the general welfare of the state.

Governor Williams said that he was ready to sign the budget into law, provided that the legislators agreed to his terms.

The Democratic leaders said that they were willing to agree to the governor's terms, but that they wanted more money for education and welfare programs.

The Republican leaders said that they were willing to agree to the governor's terms, but that they wanted more money for road and transportation programs.

The conference ended without a resolution, and the legislature adjourned for the summer.

Wheat Harvest

Long days and warm, dry weather were ideal for harvesting in western Kentucky. Winds were strong enough to reduce the danger of fire, and the crop was well matured. The harvest was crowded into a short period, but there was little trouble with the harvesters.

Typical Russian Tactics

By William H. Cooper

As the Russians advance toward Berlin, they get under way in producing some storage through trains. The same tactics are used as in the Paris conference, where the storage was not taken into consideration.

Lucky Strike presents THE MAN WHO KNOWS-
THE TOBACCO AUCTIONEER!

"You sold over 3 million pounds of tobacco at the auctions down South, and year after year, I've seen the makers of Lucky Strike buy quality tobacco...fine, light, fragrant tobacco that makes a grand smoke."

FINE TOBACCO is what counts in a cigarette

Joe Burdine is right...And like him, scores of experts...who really know tobacco...have seen the makers of Lucky Strike buy the kind of tobacco that makes "a grand smoke."

After all, that's what you want in a cigarette...the honest, deep-down enjoyment of fine tobacco.

So remember...
