620 Missing As Ship Sinks Near Bombay Waves Capsize Indian Steamer; 20 Bodies Found

SANK IN 5 MINUTES

Bombay, India, July 18.—(P)—About 620 persons were missing today from the coastal steamer Ramdas, which capsized under two enormous waves and sank swiftly in the Arabian sea 12 miles south of Bombay yesterday.

R. D. Thathi, traffic manager of the Bombay Steam Navigation Co., said there were at noon, "about 100" survivors of the 721 persons aboard the 400-ton vessel, which was but a dozen years old.

He said search parties had picked up 20 bodies and that survivors were brought to Bombay and taken to the villages of Rewas, Dharamatar, Karanja and Pirwadi.

The ship went down in five minutes. Most aboard appeared to be Indians, although three Europeans were reported among the passengers.

Most passengers were en route to Ratnagiri village in the district from which Bombay draws a large number of laborers.

Commander H. J. Mills, principal sea transport officer of the government of India, came here today and began an official inquiry into the disaster. He questioned some survivors this morning and expected to hear from the captain and other ship's officers this afternoon.

The Bombay Port Trust, the Royal Indian navy and many fishermen cooperated in the search for survivors in a sea still running high from the week-old monsoon.

The 11-year-old Ramdas capsized under the impact of two tremendous waves and sank within five minutes near Gull Island.

The vessel at the time was near the end of her regular passenger run from this city to the fishing village of Rewas, across Bombay harbor, with 673 passengers and a large crew aboard.

The bodies of two farmers, Newton McMurry, 79, and Ed Morgan, 59, were found early yesterday in a field on a farm near Knoxville. Coroner O. K. Williams reported they apparently were killed when lightning struck a barbed-wire fence near where they were working late Wednesday.

Southern Bell Must Post Bond

Company Must Put Up $200,000 To Cover Its Latest State Rate Hike

Frankfort, Ky., July 18.—(P)—The Southern Bell Telephone & Telegraph Company was ordered by the Kentucky Public Service Commission yesterday to post $200,000 bond to cover the company's latest increase in its charges in this state, effective Aug. 1.

The company estimated the new rate rises will bring in $595,000 of new revenue a year. J. M. McAllister, Kentucky manager of Southern Bell, said the $595,000 boost was needed to meet wage raises given telephone workers after a recent strike.

Kentucky law allows a utility to raise its rates without permission of the Public Service Commission provided the utility posts a bond. This bond is required to be adequate to meet refunds in even the commission later decides the increase was unwarranted.

The new bonds will increase rates on business and residential phones 25 cents a month, except in Louisville, where the rate will be raised only 15 cents on individual, two-party and four-party phones. A five-cent boost also will be made on calls of more than 56 miles distance.

Last January, Southern Bell put into effect in Kentucky new rates estimated to bring in $1,400,000 additional yearly. That rate schedule had not been formally approved by the commission. However, the phone firm posted two $500,000 bonds to keep the schedule effective.

Commission Chairman Charles E. Whittle said a hearing on one of the rate increases will be held here Aug. 20 and that probably the other increase would be consolidated with it at that time, for consideration.

Basketball and Football Top "Book-Learning" At Kentucky Colleges, Griffenhagen Reports

Frankfort, Ky., July 18.—(P)—Basketball tops "book-learning" at Kentucky's state-supported institutions, says a report to Gov. Simeon Willis on higher education in this state.

"Recommending a return from 'professionalized sports' to 'playing for fun,' a survey by Griffenhagen and Associates declares the football teams at the four state teachers colleges and the University of Kentucky are good, and adds:

"If the colleges and the university can achieve correspondingly as high academic standards as they have achieved in basketball, gifted and ambitious students from all over the United States will pound hard on the campus gates for admission to their halls of learning."

Less stress on intercollegiate athletics and more on intramural sports—games played by boys and girls on the campus—was urged in that part of the survey dealing with sports.

Change Needed
Programs whereby the intramural players get the old and discarded equipment and their play directors are paid $2,000 to $2,400 a year should be reversed, the report continues.

The view of the Chicago firm's investigators is explained by saying that intramural play gives training to a large number

12.6 Pct. Cut In Foreign Aid Funds Asked By House Group

Washington, July 18.—(P)—A 12.6 percent cut in the administration's $1,548,361,400 foreign-aid spending program for this fiscal year was recommended today by the House Appropriations committee.

Part of the reduction apparently was intended to express congressional disapproval of Russia's ability to persuade Poland and Hungary to boycott the Paris European recovery program.

In recommending a total cut of $1,353,024,900, or 19.6 percent, the committee said there "is a limit to the resources of this country, and the governments of other countries must not expect that relief from the United States is limitless."

The committee's action came after several high-ranking Republican members first publicly predicted and later privately disavowed drastic cuts in the program. Secretary of State Marshall made a personal appeal for the funds at a secret meeting with GOP leaders last week.

The four major items in the immediate foreign-aid program the committee recommended this action in an overall $1,603,199,094 supplemental appropriation bill:

1. Aid to Greece and Turkey: the full $400,000,000 previously authorized by Congress.
2. Relief to war-devastated countries (Poland, Austria, China, Greece, Italy, Trieste and Hungary): $332,000,000 of the $350,000,000 requested.
3. The $18,000,000 cut, the committee said, "represented the

Durbin Given Radio Funds

When Paul Durbin returned to Fulton yesterday after a campaign trip to Henderson and other cities along U. S. Highway 60 he found a welcome surprise awaiting him. A number of his Fulton friends interested in his candidacy for First District railroad commissioner had voluntarily contributed over $400 to be used to purchase advertising time on six radio stations in the district.

The money was turned over to Durbin today. Most of the radio advertising will be concentrated in the last week before the August 2 primary election.

This campaign fund was raised quickly and quietly by Durbin's friends, who preferred not to let the candidate know that they were doing it.

Durbin left Fulton this morning for Bowling Green. Tomorrow he will work his way back to Fulton along Highway 62 visiting friends and supporters and soliciting votes.

Invitations for bids on the Harris Fork creek project were mailed to highway contractors yesterday. J. Stephen Watkins, commissioner of the state Highway Department, has announced.

The Fulton project, which includes 1.4 miles of creek bed in Kentucky and Tennessee, was among 21 projects on which contractors have been invited to bid. Cost of all these projects will be approximately $1,250,000, with the local work expected to cost $35,000 or less.

The Highway Department has announced that the Harris Fork project contract probably will be awarded on August 8 or shortly thereafter.

Lions Club Plays Host To The Chicks

Hannephin Calls This Year's Club 'Best We've Had'

FBA REPRESENTED

"The best baseball team Fulton has ever had"—the 1947 Chicks—were guests of the Fulton Lions Club today at the regular luncheon meeting.

J. E. Hannephin, past president of the Fulton Baseball Association and of the Kitty League, summarized the "sentiments" of the club in praising the players and their pitcher-manager, Freddy Biggs, for their phenomenal climb from seventh to second in the Kitty race.

K. P. Dalton and Foad Homra, representing the baseball association, and Smith Atkins, club program chairman, also congratulated the Chicks for their record of 30 wins against nine losses since Biggs took over.

Chicks' present were Biggs, Propst, Peterson, Engel, Lynch, Buck, Hardestie, Gray, Seawright, Rhodes, Williams, Litzengeler and "Tadpole" Richard Crutchfield.

Mr. Hannephin assured the Chicks that they were being watched closely by big league scouts, and named several former Kitty players who moved into the American and National leagues.

Another guest of the Lions today was Paul Phillips, member of the Paducah club.

Car Thieves Give Cop Good Advice

Ballantyne said no, he didn't leave his keys in the car. It has a defective ignition which can't be turned off.

State Poll Says Waterfield Will Win By 30,000 Majority

Louisville, Ky.—Harry Lee Waterfield will defeat Earle C. Clements for the Democratic nomination for governor by a majority of 30,320 votes and will carry every Congressional district in the state except the Second and Sixth, a statewide poll of public opinion indicated this week.

Incomplete reports from the First Congressional District show a majority of 21,700 for Waterfield. Returns from strong Waterfield sections of the district are expected to push his poll majority to approximately 3,000.

Waterfield's surprising strength in the Second Congressional District, which Clements is supposed to represent in Congress, is upsetting some of the political observers. Early in the campaign predictions were general that Clements would pile up a heavy majority in his home district.

Truman Again Vetoes Tax Bill; GOP Says House Will Override, But Has Slight Hope In Senate

Recreational School Is Held

Ballard, Carlisle, Fulton And Hickman Counties Send Ladies To Clinton

The district recreation training school for Ballard, Carlisle, Hickman and Fulton counties was held at Clinton high school Wednesday, July 16.

Program conductors met to get new recreation material for the year beginning September 1. Some of the games were so much fun that many of the leaders are planning to use them for community picnics for July and August.

For the buffet lunch Ballard brought sandwiches, Carlisle salads, Fulton pies and Hickman drinks and hostess for the day.

The morning was spent learning new songs. In the afternoon the time was divided between active and quiet games.

The following program conductors from Fulton county were present: Mrs. John Barnette, Brownsville; Mrs. Hill Holland, Bennett; Mrs. Clyde Corum, Crutchfield; Mrs. Hillman Collier, Palestine; Mrs. Clyde Linder, Sylvan Shade; Mrs. John Dwyer, Victory; Mrs. O. L. Sutton, Western; and Mrs. W. D. McLeod, home demonstration agent.

Miss Leone Gillett, assistant state agent, conducted the school. She emphasized the fact that the material given out at the meeting was prepared as a suggestion and a time saver for the leaders, and not to take the place of any thing that they might want to plan.

Will Reveal Clements' Deal

Raymond Vincent to Talk Saturday Night on WHAS In Support of Waterfield

Raymond L. Vincent, Harry Lee Waterfield's assistant state campaign chairman and director of the speakers' bureau, will make a radio speech Saturday night, July 19, from 9 to 9:30 over station WHAS, Louisville.

He says this will be one of the hottest speeches of the campaign. Vincent will charge that Clements has made a deal with Happy Chandler to make Happy President of the United States if Happy will support him for governor.

He will further charge that Clements has made a deal with John Whitaker to make him Congressman from the Second District, if he and the Rhea machine will support him for governor.

Vincent also charges that Clements has agreed to sign the Moss Bill if it passed in the next legislature, in order to get the support of the Kentucky Utilities in this campaign.

State Poll Says Waterfield Will Win By 30,000 Majority

But the first poll three weeks before the election bears out rumors that Clements is in trouble in several counties of his district, and that Waterfield will actually carry some of them.

In the Third District, Louisville and Jefferson county, where Waterfield is meeting organization with organization, the Clinton and Fulton publisher is leading by a 3,000 majority.

Poll returns from the Fourth give that district to Waterfield by a small majority. The Fifth is also in the Waterfield column.

The Sixth, the poll shows, will go to Clements by approximately half the Waterfield majority in the Third.

The Seventh, Eighth, and Ninth all show substantial majorities for Waterfield, with both the Seventh and Ninth indicating the vote on election day will give Waterfield a larger majority than the poll now indicates.

Chief Repeats His Criticism Of Revised Bill

ONLY DATE CHANGED

BULLETIN

Washington, July 18.—(P)—The House voted today to override President Truman's second veto of the Republican-backed $4,000,000,000 tax cut but indications are that the Senate may sustain the President and thus kill the bill.

The House vote to override was 299 to 108, 28 more than the necessary two-thirds majority.

A total of 63 Democrats joined 236 Republicans in the vote to override the President.

Chairman Taft (R-Ohio) told reporters the Senate Republican Policy committee will press for a vote later today on the veto.

Washington, July 18.—(P)—President Truman today sent Congress a second veto of the Republican-backed $4,000,000,000 tax cutting bill with the assertion it is still the "wrong kind of tax reduction" at the "wrong time."

House leaders planned an immediate vote and confidently forecast the necessary two-thirds majority to override. But Republicans foresaw little hope of rolling up an overriding majority in the Senate.

Failure of either house to override, they say, will allow tax reduction for the current session of Congress.

Mr. Truman's veto message went to the House which originated the income tax slashing measure to become effective January 1. The first bill he vetoed was identical, except that it would have taken effect last July 1.

Situation Unchanged

Since that veto, the President said, "there has been no lessening of the need to make substantial payments on the public debt."

Mr. Truman said that when the time comes to lessen the wartime tax burden it should be reduced "on a basis that is fair to low income groups as well as to high income groups."

Without specifying when he thought the time would be ripe for cutting taxes, the President asserted:

"I am unequivocally committed to the right kind of tax reduction at the right time. The right kind of tax reduction must be based upon a careful consideration of all elements of our tax structure."

The Republican bill trims taxes from 30 per cent in the lower taxable incomes to 10.5 per cent on incomes over $302,000.

But Mr. Truman termed this measure "a premature and faulty tax reduction bill" which would inject into the tax system "iniquities which would greatly increase the difficulty of making desirable revisions."

"A Bad Bill"

He added that the legislation is "at complete variance with the fundamental requirements of a good tax bill," and said he is "compelled" to veto it.

"Our responsibilities for international rehabilitation have an important bearing on our efforts to secure lasting peace. The recent refusal of certain nations to join in common endeavors to establish conditions of world stability increases the difficulty of our task and exposes us to greater risk."

(Mr. Truman apparently referred to the refusal of Soviet Russia and eastern European nations under her influence to participate in the Paris conference on economic rehabilitation which England and France called on the suggestion of Secretary of State Marshall.)

"Until we are better able to establish the cost of our investment in world peace and collective security, it is unwise to make so large a cut in our government's future income that our ability to meet our needs would be impaired."

The president said the bill represents not only "unsound fiscal policy" but would contribute "to inflationary pressures which we have made progress in combating but have by no means overcome."

Rumor Factory At Work

Earle C. Clements and his paid lobbyists recently have circulated a canard to the effect that Harry Lee Waterfield favors a sales tax. This malicious and unfounded rumor has been spread here in Fulton county, as in many other sections of Kentucky, in an apparent attempt to confuse the voters. To keep the record clear we wish to submit the following evidence to prove that Mr. Waterfield has not advocated and does not advocate a sales tax:

On July 12, speaking at Falmouth, Ky., Mr. Waterfield said: "Kentucky does not have a right to impose more tax upon its people than is required to operate its government. I am opposed to any additional tax on farms and homes, and a sales tax. I do propose to levy a 5 per cent minimum tax on parimutuel betting." "If it requires any additional tax to carry out by progressive program for the people of Kentucky, I will appoint a legislative research committee to make recommendations for a sounder distribution of the tax burden, and then take those proposals to the people of this state for approval or rejection."

In support of his contention that no new taxes would be needed to carry out his program, Mr. Waterfield submitted the following statistics:

Total revenue last year was $52,500,000. Total prospective revenue for four years would be about $210,000,000, plus $30,000,000 cash surplus now on hand, making a combined total of $240,000,000. The last Legislature appropriated $39,000,000. The cost of the additional services recommended by the candidate would be—schools $15,000,000; hospitals and health centers $2,500,000; aviation $500,000, for a total of $18,000,000. This would make the cost of operating the state government $37,000,000 per year, or $228,000,000 for four years. If the income for four years is $240,000,000 and the expenditures $228,000,000, obviously there will be $12,000,000 left as a surplus at the end of the next governor's term.

We regret very much that the Clements forces have been circulating this falsehood about Mr. Waterfield's position on the sales tax. We believe Mr. Waterfield is entitled to a fair hearing in his effort to secure the high office he seeks, and we resent the attempt to distort and misrepresent his open and above board rejection of the sales tax.

Big Day At Cayce

We join the officials of the Fulton-Hickman counties Rural Electric Co-operative in urging all members and friends to attend the annual meeting scheduled at Cayce high school Saturday, July 19, beginning at 10 a. m. Members will vote for directors of the organization, musical entertainment is provided, and educational displays on the use of electricity on the modern farm will be shown.

Farm folk who enjoyed the blessing of cheap electric power are the envy of less fortunate neighbors. We are heartily in favor of the REA co-op program, and hope to see its continued growth and development throughout Kentucky.

Our Greatest Problem

By Dewitt MacKenzie,
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

That was a stern warning regarding the dangers of the European crisis which Secretary of State Marshall gave us in his address before the conference of governors at Salt Lake City.

"There is no blinking the fact that this country now stands at a turning point in its relations to its traditional friends among the nations of the old world," said Marshall. "Either it must finish the task of assisting those countries to adjust themselves to the changed demands of a new age, or it must reconcile itself to seeing them move in directions which are consistent neither with their own traditions nor with those of this country."

"In the latter case, the United States would be faced with a radical alteration of its own position in the world. I ask you to consider most carefully the implications of such a development for the future prosperity and security of our country."

The general has left us to dot the 'i's and cross the 't's, but that's not difficult. If we don't help the still free European democracies to regain their feet, they will be brought under Russia's Communist domination. Thus America will be cut off from her old friends. Her security, both economically and militarily, will be weakened.

But that's only a snap-shot of the threat. Europe's economic crisis is by no means due solely to the ravages of war. A fundamental fact which a lot of folk fail to realize is that Europe in particular, and the Eastern Hemisphere in general, are in the throes of the Communist world-revolution which was projected back in the days of the Bolshevik upheaval of 1917 and only now is in full swing.

Professional observers even before the last war, recognized the idea of world-revolution as a cardinal goal of Russian Communism. It was held up pending the strengthening of the Soviet Union economically and militarily. This was achieved in the successive five year plans carried out by Marshall Stalin.

Meantime, observers were giving the Moscow regime credit for forecasting that another general war was brewing. This war would provide the chaos which would be favorable to the inauguration of the world drive for the expansion of Communism under direction of the Comintern in Moscow.

Well, the war came, Russia and Germany signed their non-aggression pact and, with this in his pocket, Hitler lashed out. Then he attacked the Soviet Union—which wasn't according to Hoyle. However, although Russia suffered grievously herself, with allied aid she emerged strong enough to undertake a wholesale expansion of her sphere of influence. This has resulted in the establishment of Communist controlled governments throughout eastern Europe—and the expansion continues.

Naturally all Moscow's activities have been dominated by the central idea of spreading Communism and thereby strengthening Russia's own position. You see that in the methods employed in establishing domination over the countries of eastern Europe, and in the obstructions created in the United Nations and in the various European conferences. You see it in Moscow's refusal to cooperate in the economic rehabilitation of Europe.

So the greatest problem of the United States and the other democracies is to deal with this Red world revolution.

NLRB Boss Is Optimistic

Denham Says New Labor Bill Will Be Benefit To Labor and Industry

Washington, July 18—(AP)—Robert N. Denham, newly-appointed key man behind the Fair-Hartley labor law, predicted today that "under proper administration the new act will do a great deal to benefit both labor and industry."

As President Truman's choice for the powerful post of general counsel to the expanded National Labor Relations Board, the 62-year-old Republican told a reporter:

"I believe the labor situation will clear itself up much more rapidly than some people believed."

He said he has no intention to use his powers under the new act to "dictate" labor relations.

"I don't think labor needs a czar," he declared. "Neither does industry."

Along with Denham, now an NLRB trial examiner, the President announced yesterday his two choices for the additional board memberships created by the act—Abe Murdock, former Democratic House member and Senator from Utah, and Republican J. Copeland Gray, labor relations expert of Buffalo, N. Y.

All three jobs pay $12,000 annually and the appointees are subject to senate confirmation. Murdock and Gray will serve with members of the existing board, including Chairman Paul Herzog, John M. Houston and James J. Reynolds, Jr., whom Mr. Truman formally reappointed yesterday.

Neither Senator Taft (R-Ohio), chairman of both the Senate Republican Steering and Senate Labor committees, nor Senator Ball (R-Minn.), member of the Labor committee, had any immediate comment on the nominations. Senator Ives (R-NY), also on the labor group, said he did not know any of the three new appointees.

Refugee Jews Battle Tommies

Immigrants Fail In Try To Stop Boarding Party

Jerusalem, July 18—(AP)—Some 4,500 angry Jewish immigrants aboard a refugee ship used tear gas, smoke bombs, steam jets and other weapons today in a vain battle against a 50-man British boarding party off the Palestine coast, British authorities announced.

Five British destroyers escorted the vessel toward Haifa, where the refugees will be transferred to troopships for transfer to detention camps in Cyprus.

The announcement said no fatalities were suffered by either side, but that three members of the boarding party were injured.

A broadcast, purportedly emanating from the ship, had reported earlier that one Jew was killed and 25 were wounded seriously. The broadcast, which ended at about the time the boarding party took over, said five of the wounded were dying.

New York, July 18—(AP)—Smiley Quick, the chunky guy from California, won't defend his National Public Links golf championship at Minneapolis next week and, as a matter of fact, there'll be a great dearth of ex-champions in the field of 180 is Robert Clark of St. Paul, the 1940 winner. Maybe that's because the Public Links get too good. Joe Dey, who picks this tourney as his favorite "sporting event," points out that the qualifying record of 134 which Jimmy Clark set last year is the lowest of any U. S. G. A. championship.

besides Quick, Bud Ward, Harry Givan and Scotty Campbell started golfing on public courses and went on to make the Walker Cup team; and such public links notables as Ed Furgol, Bruce McCormick, Pat Abbott, Les Bolstad, Jimmy Clark and the 1941 winner, William Welch, have become pros.

Buck's Single And Run In 13th Give Chix 6-5 Win Over Miners

With the score tied at five all in the bottom of the thirteenth, Buck, the first man up, singled sharply to take first safely and set up the winning run of the ball game as the Chicks went on to down the Madisonville Miners 6-5 at Fairfield last night.

Buck took second on Gray's perfect sacrifice. Propst was passed intentionally after Zubic consulted his hip-pocket statistics and the Miners elected to pitch to Pechous. Zubic then let a wide one get away and Buck raced to third while Propst moved up to second. Whereupon Zubic changed his strategy and passed Pechous to first. Rhodes then lifted one to short center field which Harrington took easily.

Buck was off for home with the smack of the ball in Harrington's glove. It looked like a dead heat between the runner and the horsehide at the plate, but as the umpire spread his hands apart to signal the run safe, there was Zubic with his mitt on Buck's leg and the white ball on the ground about eighteen inches away, shining beautifully in the dust.

Biggs, Chick skipper, although in trouble a time or two, pitched the full thirteen innings and bore down at the right times to deserve the win. He singled once to drive in two runs.

Buck, besides his game winning single in the thirteenth, hit the air just after he kayoed Tony Zale, "Hello, Ma, the bad boy done it," reminded this listener of various pillars of society and business who like to boast of having been the toughest kid in town. The Rock freely admits that he has been a bad boy, and if he didn't plenty of folks would tell about it anyway.

safely in the seventh and ninth to lead his teammates at the plate with three for the night. Propst, Seawright, Lis and Hardcastle each had two apiece, and Gray and Rhodes were credited with a single each. One of Seawright's was a resounding triple, high up on the scoreboard in center field. Lis and Hardcastle hit two baggers.

Sepich led the Miners with four for six, followed by Zubic with three for five, one of which was a homer. Harrington and Schmitt had two for four. Propst had the other safety for the Miners.

In the second inning Pechous was safe at first on an error by Schmidt. Rhodes was safe at first on a fielder's choice, forcing Pechous at second. Seawright then smashed out his triple to score Rhodes. Lis and Hardcastle drew walks to fill the bases. Biggs singled to score Seawright and Lis and sent Hardcastle to third. Buck filed out to Zubic in front of the plate and Gray fouled out to Zubic to retire the side.

In the third, Buhl led off for the Miners by grounding out to Propst. Harrington was safe at first on Rhodes' high throw to Propst and promptly took second while the ball was being recovered. Sepich singled to score Harrington. Proulx made the second out on the ground. Biggs to Propst, and Sepich took second on the play. Sepich singled to drive in Sepich, but was out at second trying to stretch his run.

The Miners scored twice more in the fourth on an error and a home run. Schmidt was out, Buck to Propst, Phelan was safe at first on Buck's error, Zubic then slammed out a home run to score Phelan ahead of him and put his team in front 4-3. Pechous, the only man in the Kitty who rides a bike and wears pole climbers tending center field, was shaken up when he ran into the fence after Zubic's homer. Morris was safe at first on Rhodes' error, but was out at second when Buhl took first on a fielder's choice. Harrington filed out to Pechous to retire the side.

In the bottom of the fourth the Chicks came back to tie the score when Lis led off with a double, took third on a wild throw and came home on Hardcastle's two-bagger. Biggs was safe at first on an error by Morris. Miners' right fielder, Hardcastle who tried to take third on the play was thrown out. Buck struck out and Gray filed out to Phelan. Madisonville went ahead by one run in the ninth. The first man up, Buhl, struck out. Harrington singled and took second on Sepich's single. On a fielder's choice Proulx forced Sepich at second and moved Harrington to third. With Saponid batting, Lis threw to second to try for Proulx who was stealing. As a rule, this is the play that makes Lis the most feared catcher in the league by base runners.

Timing on the play was off a bit and Harrington raced home with a run. Biggs then struck out Saponid, to end the rally.

The Chicks sent the game into extra innings when they tied the score in the last of the ninth. Buck led off with a single, took second on Gray's sacrifice and raced home with the tying run on Propst's single. Propst moved to second on the throw in and an error by Zubic. It took Hale and Compton five minutes to decide if Propst should be allowed to take third on the ball passed by Zubic. It seemed to be a question of whether Propst had reached second before or after Zubic let the ball away. The fuss wound up with Propst on second. Pechous was passed. Rhodes hit to Proulx who took the ball and tagged out Propst, unassisted, without trying for Rhodes at first. Seawright then forced Rhodes at second, Schmidt to Sepich.

That was all for either side until the bottom of the 13th when Buck came home with the winning run.

The second game of the series will be played at Fairfield tonight starting at 8 o'clock.

St. Louis Browns Sign Two Negroes, Option Third

St. Louis, July 18—(AP)—The St. Louis Browns have become the third modern major league ball club to open the door to negro players, joining the Brooklyn Dodgers and Cleveland Indians by signing two men and purchasing an option on a third. Infielder Henry Thompson and outfielder Willard Brown joined Herold (Muddy) Ruel's club last night with Thompson seeing action at second base against the Philadelphia Athletics—but he went hitless in four batting trips and chalked up an error on a grounder.

Big Peach Crop Seen In South; More Sugar, Too

Atlanta, Ga.—Put a double lock on the pantry. Mother; Junior knows there'll be peach jam.

Two things—an all-time record-breaking peach crop, and the recent ending of sugar rationing—will work together this year to restock pantry shelves with delicacies that were woefully short during the war years.

Russell H. James, southern area supervisor of the Production and Marketing Administration's food distribution program branch, today called on housewives throughout the south to take full advantage of this year's abundance of peaches for canning, and to lay in supplies for the months ahead.

Well Street Report

New York, July 18—(AP)—Selected stocks made a little headway today while many market leaders retreated before light selling.

Numerous customers stood aside on the idea that the lengthy upward drift called for more of a technical correction. A revival of doubts regarding the business outlook served as a restraint.

A fairly active opening was succeeded by slowdown. Fractional declines prevailed near midday.

Occasional advances were shown for Douglas Aircraft, Woolworth, Goodrich, Great Northern Railway, Standard Oil (N.J.), Lowenstein (on an initial extra dividend) and Philip Morris. Steels and motors were narrow. Intermittent losers included Western Union "A," Montgomery Ward, Sears Roebuck, Sperry, Deere, Anaconda, American Smelting, Westinghouse, Allis-Chalmers, Baltimore & Ohio, Southern Railway, Southern Pacific and N. Y. Central.

Bonds were mixed and cotton futures lower.

Trauth Says Guilty To Armed Robbery

Newport, Ky., July 18—(AP)—Robert Trauth, 22, Cincinnati, pleaded guilty to armed robbery in Campbell county circuit court today and was sentenced to life imprisonment.

The one-time elusive bandit, who escaped a number of traps set by Kentucky and Ohio authorities before finally being captured, also pleaded guilty to a charge of robbery and was sentenced to five years' imprisonment on the count.

Ten other indictments against Trauth were filed by Commonwealth Attorney William J. Wise.

Death was caused by a wound, apparently self-inflicted, from a 22-caliber rifle, and was instantaneous. He was shot on the left side of the chest, just over the heart.

The spinach plant, probably of Persian origin, was introduced into Europe about the 15th century.
