Kentucky Windage

By P. W.

We can't help but wonder why our Lieutenant Governor has been so fired up to keep Kentucky on central standard time, to the extent that he threatened repeatedly to call a special session of the Legislature to make it a law, if Governor Breathitt ever left the State.

The consternation that greeted Fulton, Hickman and other cities and areas of the Purchase when they all realized that our neighboring States were going on daylight time this year, and we weren't, has been greatly alleviated by decrees and ordinances that are gradually moving us en masse to adopt daylight time when our neighbors do. Thank goodness.

But wouldn't we have been in a mess if the Governor HAD left the State (he missed a lot of important meetings because he didn't); and if the Lt-Governor HAD called a special session, and if it were the law that we HAD to stay on standard time whether we liked it or not.

Fulton and Fulton County, for one, would have really found itself in a mess.

Several classes are coming back together again here for a big reunion in July, and I hope that members of these classes who still live around here will be just as eager to attend the reunion as are those who will travel great distances just to be here. When one graduates from high school and moves to a distant state such as California, return visits to the "old home town" are often diminished to the point of none-at-all, and as the years go by, the nostalgia builds up to the point where one will move heaven & earth just to be here and see the old gang all together once again.

Such was the situation up in my old home town last Spring, when the 25th reunion brought together old classmates from California, Florida and distant points around the country. Everybody was there but three, and these all still lived in town. After the evening festivities some of the old gang went out on the street and happened to run into one of the three who hadn't attended. The conversation went like this:

"Hey, Joe, for heaven's sake why weren't you inside with the rest of us. Didn't you know about the big reunion?"

"Yeah, I knew about it."

"How come you weren't there? The rest of 'em are all here, from California, Texas, Florida, and all over."

"Well, I was going to come, but I couldn't make it tonight. This is my night to go bowling."

Boy, how's THAT for a letdown after driving two thousand miles!

My mother, who is getting along in years and no longer flits around as she did while she had seven children in the house, is nevertheless very mentally alert and, among other things, enjoys reading good books. In the city where she lives, the bookmobile comes by every two weeks and stops up the street for a couple of hours, and rain or shine, she never misses this opportunity to go up, turn in the books she has enjoyed during pleasant evenings at home, and go over the current offerings for some more. Along with her newspapers, her favorite TV programs and her regular bridge games, her books are a pleasant and interesting part of the tempo she chooses to set for herself. I think if the bookmobile ever stopped coming to the neighborhood she would feel that she had lost one of her best friends, and would disrupt a happy pastime she has enjoyed for years.

I mention this bit of personal matter to point up the fact that April 16-22 is National Library Week, and that right here in Fulton County we now have an established bookmobile too. It has been circulating around for nearly two years now, and, I am sure, has developed its goodly share of happiness and regular patrons, many whom may be like mother—eager to

Bobby Snider Named New Principal At Fulton High

Bobby Reed Snider, a member of the Fulton High faculty since 1961, was elected principal of Fulton High School by the Board of Education at the regular meeting Monday night. Mr. Snider will succeed J. M. Martin, who is retiring at the close of the school year.

The Board also announced the election of Mrs. Leonard Allen as principal of Carr Elementary, succeeding Charles Thomas, who has been named Superintendent of Schools. Mrs. Allen has been associated with the Fulton City Schools for a total of 16 years, as teacher and for the past five years as supervisor of instruction of all schools and guidance counselor for Fulton High School.

The appointment of Mrs. Fred Bonduant as head teacher at Terry-Norman which has already been announced completes the election of principals for next year at the three schools of the system.

Election of teachers will be held at the May meeting of the Board.

Wrecker Wrecks; Rerailed

Even wreckers get wrecked. And when a 150-ton wrecker goes off the track, it takes two more wreckers to set it back upright.

Such was the case just south of Fulton Sunday afternoon when the locally-based derrick of the Illinois Central, on a call to re-rail a car of fertilizer, itself went off the track. It took the combined efforts of wreckers from Paducah and Jackson, and a bulldozer to get the monster back on the rails next afternoon. It has been sent to the Paducah shops for repairs.

Opening Ceremonies April 21

Official ceremonies for the opening of the University Center at U-T Martin Branch will be conducted Friday morning, April 21, at 10 o'clock.

Dr. Andrew D. Holt, president of The University of Tennessee; Chancellor Paul Meek, U-T Martin Branch; UTMB Student Government officers, trustees, legislators, UTMB administrative officials and faculty members will be in attendance at the 10 a. m. opening ceremonies.

Cancer Drive Next Week

Volunteer members of the Fulton Junior Woman's Club will canvass the community business district for the 1967 Cancer drive beginning next Monday, April 17. The drive is an annual project of the Club.

SOUTHERN BELL SAFETY AWARDS: Employees listed left to right with total years of accident free driving are: (top) M. D. Clark, 14; C. E. Thomas, 14; L. E. Kilzer, 14; B. H. Giles, 12; C. E. Fulton Grads Of '46-7-8-9 Plan July Reunion Here

Some 200 members of the Fulton High school graduating classes of 1946-47-48-49 are expected to return here for a combined class reunion July 14 and 15.

Paul Kasnow, chairman of the joint reunion committee, announced this week that the following tentative plans have been adopted by the committee:

Registration will begin at 1 p. m., on Friday, July 14, at a hospitality room at the Park Terrace. That night at 7 o'clock a big barbeque will be held at the Fulton Country Club. During the day on Saturday, July 15, there will be individual class parties, and in the afternoon at 4 o'clock there will be a picnic for the children at the City Park.

Saturday night, beginning at 6 p. m., there will be a hospitality hour, dinner and dance for the members, their wives and husbands, or escorts, at the Country Club. Charles Andrews' "Melody Men" orchestra will furnish music for dancing.

Also, on Saturday night from 8 to 12 p. m. there will be a dance for the teenagers.

Plans are to invite teachers, who taught the group when they were seniors, who presently live in the Fulton area to at least one of the events. Addresses of some of these teachers are needed by the reunion committee.

Harrison Bound Over To Grand Jury In Shooting

Melvin Harrison, 39-year-old Chicago construction worker and a native of Fulton has been bound over to await grand jury action in the fatal shooting of Cecil (Jack) Hogg, Fulton barber, on March 18.

Harrison was freed on $7,500 bond following an examining trial before Fulton County Judge John Cruce at Hickman on Monday.

Harrison was represented at the examining trial by attorneys Francis Goheen, Paducah and Dee McNeill, Hickman. Attorney Rodney Miller, Fulton, assisted County Attorney James Amberg.

A reported witness to the shooting, Bill Baty, Chicago, failed to appear at the examining trial after being suspended.

Hogg, co-owner of a Fulton barber shop, was shot in the temple at the home of his ex-wife, Mrs. Mary Lou Hogg, on March 18, and died March 22 in Memphis without having regained consciousness.

Prior to the shooting, Harrison testified he and Hogg went outside to have a private talk. Harrison said he went to his car and got a pistol, which he held in his hand during the course of the conversation.

They later shook hands and went back inside the house.

Just prior to leaving for the lake, Harrison reportedly told Hogg that if he ever mistreated his sister "I'll kill you."

Hogg, according to Harrison, then grabbed his hand and the pistol discharged. "The gun must have gone off—I don't know whether I shot Jack or not."

Hogg's son Jimmy, returned shortly after the shooting and testified he thought his father had been hit with brass knucks.

Fulton County Library System Enjoying Phenomenal Growth; Let's Keep This New Asset Growing!

Almost two years ago, Governor Edward T. Breathitt appropriated money to provide a demonstration library program for Fulton County for a two year period.

At that time, library services to the people were limited to three days per week, three hours each day. Two libraries were maintained; one at Fulton and one at Hickman. For many years, both libraries had operated on $600 from the state and $600 from the county with contributions of varying

Mrs. Hogg testified she saw Harrison holding the gun just before the shooting, but couldn't remember or not whether she actually saw the gun fired. "I must have—but I can't remember," she said.

Mrs. Hogg said all three men, Harrison, Hogg and Baty, were intoxicated.

After the shooting, Mrs. Hogg quoted Harrison as saying, "Jack, get up, I didn't hurt you."

Hogg slumped over in a chair, she said, and she put a towel on his head.

Charles Stafford and Rudell Johns, Fulton policemen who arrested Harrison, said he told them, "I had all the right in the world to do it."

Paula Long Is Named South Fulton Princess

Paula Long, 16-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Earl Long of Pierce, Tennessee and a sophomore at South Fulton High School was named "South Fulton Booster Princess" at the annual pageant of the Club last weekend.

The contest was held in the South Fulton high school gym, and Miss Long won over 25 other contestants from Fulton and South Fulton. She will represent the Club at the Humboldt Strawberry Festival and the Paris fish fry.

First maid was Miss Joy Jobe, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milford Jobe of Water Valley and a sophomore at Fulton High School.

Miss Joanna Woodruff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Woodruff of South Fulton, and a 1966 graduate of South Fulton High School, was the second maid. Miss Susan Tegethoff, South Fulton student, was third maid.

Welcome Centers On Super-Highways Are "Friends" To Travelers

Anybody who drives long enough can get lost; but he's in luck if he is on Kentucky's growing new superhighway system, thanks to the Information Centers, rest areas and service centers that dot the Commonwealth's main roads.

The big, fast throughways—reaching into every section of the Bluegrass State—were planned to anticipate many of the vexing emergencies a driver might meet. And help, in Kentucky, comes with a personal touch.

Lost? Smiling, well-informed information specialists can tell you precisely how to get where you're going and give you a map in the bargain.

No place to sleep? They'll tell you about the nearest accommodations and what to see while you're in the neighborhood.

Three State Information Centers on principal through roads have travel specialists on duty, trained by the Kentucky Department of Public Information. They know Kentucky like the back of their hands, and they give the visitor maps, brochures and every other kind of helpful tourist information. There are rest rooms, telephones and plenty of cold, fresh water, too.

Attendants in these Information Centers are on duty from 9:00 a. m. to 5:00 p. m., the year around. Their hours are considerably extended during the busy tourist season.

At four unmanned rest areas on Interstate Highway 64, you'll find such conveniences as rest rooms, water fountains, telephones, travel aids, picnic tables and grills.

Three service centers, strategically placed on four-lane throughways, provide filling stations, modern restaurants and, in one case, overnight accommodations. Two of the service centers are next to Information Centers.

At the Shepherdsville interchange on the Kentucky Turnpike, for example, you'll receive personal attention in an Information Center, and find a service center with two filling stations, a restaurant and a motel. Some 15 miles farther south, a service center (with two filling stations and a restaurant)

NEW INTERSTATE REST AREAS—Three new rest area-information buildings have been completed on Interstate 75 in Scott and Boone Counties. Another building, similar in design but somewhat larger, will be built in Boone County as a service to motorists entering the state from the north. Kentucky now has seven, full facility rest areas on its interstate system. There will be 34 such areas in the system when it is completed.

just those who lived in the two cities or who were fortunate enough to have transportation to them. The city of Fulton secured the old post office building from the General Services Administration and deeded it to the county library board for the express purpose of having it house a library. Money from the Governor's appropriation paid for renovation of this and the Hickman building, along with new shelving for the more than 6000 new books; also for furniture, records, pictures, films, projectors & microfilm. A bookmobile was bought to circulate in the county from schools to the most remote areas.

Mrs. John Daniel is the librarian for Fulton, Mrs. Doyle Johns for Hickman, and Mrs. J. A. Willingham is the bookmobile librarian. They are qualified and all three attended a seminar in Frankfort last summer which covered new trends and methods in library services. Mrs. Bill Rowlett is a graduate librarian from Murray State University and works with the entire county system.

The response of the people to the libraries has been phenomenal. A monthly average circulation of 5,386 for the past 9 months is almost unheard-of for a county this size. This large number is probably because of the unique situation of having the two libraries and bookmobile; all surrounding and most other counties in the state maintain only the one library. The county board feels that adequate service is a "must" if the needs of the people are to be met, and that the most effective way is to place libraries where they will be easily accessible. The results have fully justified this feeling.

What's Wrong With The Way Ky. Is Being Run? Dissenters Don't Seem To Come Up With An Answer

What's wrong with the way Kentucky is being run?

We hear rumblings of discontent with the present administration, and of the unpopularity of Governor Breathitt in some quarters, and just this week discussed this matter with a resident who travels the Purchase quite a bit and who, although he has no interest whatever in politics, is nevertheless curious as to what specific thing or things have generated this feeling.

"When I hear a group of men talking against the Governor, I like to ask them just WHAT, specifically, they don't like about him," this gentleman told us. "They don't seem to know. So I ask them, 'Is it that there's graft going on up there in Frankfort?' And they say no. 'Well, is the Governor doing a lousy job?' And they say no."

"Well, what, specifically, has he done wrong that you don't like?" "And they don't come up with anything."

"It beats me," commented our businessman-friend, "as to what the root of the discontent is. Maybe it's just frustration among some of the 'outs' with the 'ins' at not being able to find something specific they don't like. They just don't know. They don't come up with a thing."

Most any honest, informed citizen of Kentucky will admit that Kentucky has been well run, and very creditably, by Governor Breathitt, and in years to come his administration will go down

Much time and thought has gone into arranging the hours that the libraries are open. Fulton is open Monday, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday 9-11; 12-5, Tuesday 11:30-9:00 and closed all day Wednesday. Hickman is open 8:30-5:00 Monday through Friday. The bookmobile operates on a regular schedule throughout the county and has stops in both the cities of Hickman and Fulton.

New books are being added to the shelves every week along with new records, pictures and films. If any person fails to find a book he wants, the librarian will get it through one of the regional libraries or from the state department. This enables many students to be given help with research problems.

National library week will be April 16-22 and a cordial invitation to visit your library is extended by your librarian. Come by and see for yourself what so many have already discovered... an attractive, quiet place which provides unlimited opportunities for enrichment and relaxation.

The library system in Fulton County has achieved a new plateau of usefulness and patronage after many, long years of neglect and disinterest, and it ought never again to lapse into the state it was in before 1965. The State-supported program here, however generous, was only a means of getting things started; permanent financing will have to come from the citizens of the County themselves after this year.

National Library Week 1967, in Fulton County will therefore have a double meaning. First of all, it is a special invitation to visit and inspect facilities, and secondly, to examine their usefulness and patronage carefully to justify their worthwhile continuation in the years to come through your support.

as one of our most progressive and aggressive ever. He is young, full of vigor and determination to leave a good record. He has worked hard and very successfully to get Kentucky a lot of new industry, surpassing his promise of 75,000 new jobs. He is well-liked nationally, and he carries the highest esteem among all his fellow governors in the Southern Governor's Conference.

He has instituted many worthwhile programs for his state, and implemented many more. He has been clean-cut and fair, he has been forward-looking, and he has projected a good image of Kentucky to the Nation. He has not dealt under the table; his administration has been clean. His administration has provided us with excellent implementation of the highway system and parks, plus the added focus on industrial development that we have never had before.

We think all of these things are pertinent at this time. In a very few weeks we are going to have a primary election to choose the Democratic successor to Governor Breathitt, and now is a good time to give your personal appraisal of the present administration and decide whether you want to continue its policies or throw them out.

We would hope that, if you are thinking about throwing them out, you give a good look at what you are going to vote for, as a substitute, and ask yourself "why".

We not only do NOT see anything wrong with the way Kentucky is being run, we have never seen it run better.

Now is the time to think about these things, and talk about these things and to remember... twentyfive years from now our children will be living in the kind of State that we make for them now. Long after our petty likes and dislikes have been gone and interred, our progress among other states in the nation will testify to our good judgement in continuing the programs of Governor Breathitt and his good administration.

POET'S CORNER

FELLOWSHIP

When a feller hasn't got a cent
And is feelin' kind of blue,
And the clouds hang thick and dark,
And won't let the sunshine thro',
It's a great thing, oh my brethren,
For a fellow just to lay
When a hand is on your shoulder in a friendly sort o' way.

It makes a man feel queerish,
It makes the tear-drops start,
And you kind o' feel a flutter
In the region of your heart.
You can't look up and meet his eye,
You don't know what to say
When a hand is on your shoulder in a friendly sort o' way.

Oh, this world's a curious compound
With its honey and its gall,
Its cares and bitter crosses -
But it's a good world after all.
And a good God must have made it,
Leastwise that is what I say
When a hand is on your shoulder in a friendly sort o' way.

Our Christian Heritage

RESURRECTION

by Pastor Richard Wurmbrand
"The 'Early Church' in all its beauty, sacrifice and dedication has come alive again in the communist lands.
"While our Lord Jesus Christ agonized in prayer in the Garden of Gethsemane, Peter, James and John were a mere stone's throw away from the greatest drama of history - but they were deep in sleep.
"Behind the walls of the Iron Curtain the drama, bravery and martyrdom of the Early Church is happening all over again - now - and the free Church sleeps.
"Our brethren there - alone and without help - are waging the greatest, most courageous battle of the twentieth century, equal to the heroism, bravery and dedication of the Early Church. And the free Church sleeps on oblivious of their struggle and agony, just as Peter, James and John slept in the moment of their Saviour's agony.
"Will you also sleep while the Underground Church, your brethren in Christ, suffer and fight alone for the Gospel?"
The coming of Richard Wurmbrand to Louisville was a great spiritual event for all of us and especially for the Christian Heritage movement. In this season when we think afresh of the Mighty Power of the Resurrection of the Lord Jesus Christ, we know that the Lord is at work in Communist countries and the evidence of His work is the fact of the "Underground Church" confirmed in the Soviet press and American news media.
The heroism and sacrifices of these "underground Christians" is almost beyond description. These Documenting knowledge about man, about man's ideas, aspirations, and achievements, and about the world, heavens, and universe has been the concern of scholars in all ages. This knowledge, painstakingly acquired and accumulated, has been preserved in hundreds of thousands of books and manuscripts in various parts of the world. Selecting information from this vast store of knowledge and making it readily accessible is the primary function of a well-planned library.

Listed below are some of the books at this well-planned library:
THE DEATH OF A PRESIDENT, by William Manchester. This is a powerful narrative, which in the opinion of the publisher, is both a significant contribution to history and an eminent literary achievement.

THE PIPER ON THE MOUNTAIN, by Ellis Peters. This mystery writer par excellence, turns her considerable talents to the romantic-suspense novel and comes up with a winner in The Piper On The Mountain.

THE LIFE OF IAN FLEMING, by John Pearson. Was Ian Fleming James Bond? Many think so. Certainly, the super-hero and his creator had similarities—an aristocratic background, sophisticated tastes, a fatal appeal to women, etc.

JOURNEY THROUGH THE HOLY LAND, by Betty Hartman Wolf. A delightful guide to the Holy Land for armchair as well as for real travelers.

CRAGSMOOR, by Jennette Letton. Cragmoor, a turreted Victorian mansion, perches high on a rocky promontory on an island off the Maine coast, with a grey surf pounding below and a sinister heritage, the secrets of which threaten its four inhabitants.

THE GREAT ROGUE, by Paul Lewis. In this colorful and comprehensive full length portrait, Lewis tells the dramatic story of Captain John Smith, one of the most extraordinary men of the Renaissance, and in a sense, the first American.

MIRACLE AT PHILADELPHIA, by Catherine Drinker Bowen. This book tells the story of the stormy, brilliant session of 1787 in Philadelphia which saw the birth of the Constitution of the United States.

THE OLD CALLAHAN PLACE, by Elizabeth Corbell. If houses could talk, what a story this one would tell! The old Callahan Place had seen a deal of living.

ENEMY AND BROTHER, by Dorothy Salisbury Davis. This remarkable novel tells a story of intrigue in Greece—the story of a dangerous search for justice.

HOWARD HUGHES, by John Keats. Not only is this a marvelously readable book about a fascinating man who has become a legend in his own time—but it is the first book about the controversial Mr. Hughes.

THE COTSWOLDS, by Charles and Mary Hadfield. The prosperity of the Cotswolds belongs to the past and to the present. That is why it is such a cheerful part of England to visit or to live in.

INDIAN DANCING AND COSTUMES, by William K. Powers. You don't have to be an Indian to enjoy the fascinating hobby of Indian dancing. You can learn and participate in Indian dancing in a "costume" consisting of gym clothes and sneakers.

BEYOND THE MOUNTAINS, by Alexander Ramati. In this tale of perilous flight, the author has crafted not only a dramatic novel of taut suspense, but also a wonderfully sensitive rendering of human relationships.

HOW MAN DISCOVERED HIS BODY, by Sarah R. Riedman. Here is a fast-moving and fascinating account of the history of physiology, written by an authority in the field, in terms that children can easily understand.

PRESCRIPTION FOR LIFE, by M. F. Graham, M. D. A concise, authoritative guide to the importance of exercise in the prevention of heart attacks and the promotion of a longer, healthier life.

KILLER DOLPHIN, by Ngaio Marsh. Here is a longer, craftier, more compelling story than Ngaio Marsh has ever written. She is the author of many exciting novels which have established her as a master of the detective mystery.

Following the usual custom in recent years, most of Fulton's stores will observe a half-holiday during the summer months of May, June, July, August and September, it was announced this week by the Chamber of Commerce. Wednesday afternoon, May 7, will be the first afternoon that local business firms will close.

The spirit of progress marches on in South Fulton. Next on program on the southside will be the project to grade, drain and surface streets. The City of South Fulton will float $80,000 in bonds with which to carry on the project to improve city streets.

Thirty-eight fifth graders from the South Fulton school visited various business establishments in Union City last Friday and enjoyed a picnic lunch at the city park.

Your Questions Answered

Q—When will I get my tax forms in the mail?

A—Distribution of the 1966 tax forms was to be completed early in January.

Forms will also be available at IRS offices as well as many banks and post offices.

Q—Is a Social Security pension taxable?

A—No it is not.

Q—I worked last summer to earn money for college but made less than $600. How can I get back what was withheld from my pay for income tax?

A—File an income tax return to obtain a refund of any income tax which was withheld from your wages.

The card Form 1040A may be the best, as well as the easiest, for you to use. Don't forget to put your Social Security number on the return and attach your W-2 Form. The W-2 shows how much was withheld.

Q—Has there been any change in the income tax rates for 1966?

A—No. An individual's income for 1966 is taxed at the same rates in effect the preceding year.

Q—When can I expect to get my W-2 from my employer?

A—Employers are required to issue Form W-2 by the end of January but many do so earlier.

Q—Can anyone use the figures for state gas tax deductions that are given in the 1940 instruction booklet?

A—These figures are provided as a convenience for those taxpayers who deduct state gasoline tax when they itemize deductions. If you are entitled to claim this deduction then you may use the table instead of doing the calculations yourself.

Q—If my wife and I file separately instead of jointly, can one itemize while the other uses the standard deduction?

A—No. Married couples filing separate returns must handle their expenses the same way. If one itemizes the other must too.

Married couples filing separately must also take the same type of standard deduction. If one takes the minimum standard deduction they both must take it.

Q—Are you going to offer tax assistance over the phone again this year?

A—Yes. Check the local phone directory for the number to call.

Q—Does the law now require me to file my return with an IRS service center?

A—A new law authorizes the Secretary of Treasury to make such a request but it will not be required for 1966 returns. Check your 1040 instructions for the address of the office to which tax returns are to be sent.

Note that in some states, taxpayers are offered the option of mailing returns calling for a refund direct to a service center. Even in these states this is not a requirement but offered as a means to help speed up refunds and reduce processing costs.

Q—How does the minimum standard deduction work?

A—The deduction amounts to $200 plus $100 for each exemption taken on the return including those for age and blindness. For married couples filing separately, the deduction is $100 plus $100 for each exemption. The maximum that may be claimed by those using this deduction is $1,000 but it is limited to $500 when a married taxpayer files a separate return.

A married couple with two children as dependents would be entitled to a $600 deduction when this method is used. If the income re-

Dear Mrs. Westpheling:

I always enjoy reading the Fulton News except there is seldom an issue of same but it relates the passing away of some person I knew many years ago.

Am anxious to attend one of those Banana Festivals and had hoped to this summer but Vera and I may go on another overseas trip. We have not been to Clinton or Fulton in over two years and am getting anxious to visit a bit in both; also Hickman.

I feel very sure that your paper has not made mention of a former Fulton boy becoming President of one of the largest Banks in Kentucky and I speak of Innes W. Dobbs, Jr. who lived in Fulton many years with his parents and I think attended High School there. Louis and Leslie Weak and many others will remember him and his parents.

Our bank does business with his Bank and I have kept in touch with him of course and I enclose one of his Bank Statements. It could be that I failed to see some mention you made of same and if not it will be of interest and this happened in early part of the year - he has been a Vice President for a long time.

Kindest regards.

Glenn Lane
Morehead, Ky.

(Ed's note): Dobbs is president of the Liberty National Bank and Trust Company, Louisville. This bank is capitalized at over $4 million, has a surplus of nearly $8 million, undivided profits of over $2 million, deposits of $189 million and loans over $102 million.

The Fulton County News

Dear Mrs. Westpheling:

The pictures of the old Meadows Hotel and Lake Street gave me such unexpected pleasure that I must thank you. I had wished for quite a long time that pictures of some of the old landmarks might appear in your paper, which I look forward to every week, and these seem like a wish granted.

The Meadows Hotel recalls fond memories of Paris Drug Company (telephone 95) and May D. and B. Noble Guedry, who lived there about sixty years ago, which is a long time.

I was day dreaming about this while working on a white satin formal for a Cherry Blossom princess from Kentucky, a Miss Cooper, and so I decided to write a few words of appreciation for all the news and interesting articles that I enjoy.

Sincerely yours,
Mary Whitehead Sherman

Q—I've heard that one of the tax benefits for older people is to be able to sell your home at a profit and not be taxed on that money. Is that true?

A—Yes it is if certain conditions are met. You will not have to pay tax on the profit if you were 65 or older before the date of the sale, the adjusted sales price was $20,000 or less, and you owned and occupied the house as your principal residence for at least 5 of the 8 years before the sale.

If you sold the house for over $20,000 and the other conditions are met, then only a portion of the profit will be taxable.

Gain excluded under this provision of law can be elected only once.

This benefit is explained in the booklet, Tax Benefits for Older Americans, Document No. 5569. For a free copy, drop a post card to your IRS district director.

Careful habits will often save somebody's life, and the interesting part of it is that it might be your own life.

298 FEEDER CALVES SOLD

Last Tuesday the Obion County Livestock Association sold in their annual spring feeder calf sale 298 feeder calves for $36,844.40 for an average of $123.64 per calf. The top selling pen consisted of six 400 lb. good Angus steers selling for 27.75 per cwt to Stohl Livestock Farm at Trenton, Kentucky.

The good grade steers ranged from 27.75 per cwt to 23.60; medium steers 23.00 to 26.60; choice heifers 21.75 to 22.75; good heifers 21.20 to 23.40 and medium heifers 20.50 to 23.50. A good crowd was present for the sale with the bulk of the calves selling to local order buyers except for a large part of the steers being purchased by Stohl Livestock Farm, Trenton, Kentucky. Buyers were present at the sale from Indiana, Illinois, Kentucky and Tennessee.

My all consuming interest since last July has been genealogical research on our family.

It seems they all came from the Fulton area.

I have come to a complete stand still on some. Do you suppose your readers might write to me concerning some of them??

FT. DIX, N. J.—Army Private Frankie O. Bramlett, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Bramlett, 1005 Russell St., Union City, Tenn., completed a six-week general supply course at Ft. Dix, N. J., March 24.

He was trained in maintaining stock records for the receipt and issue of supplies and materials. He also learned typing and general administration procedures and storing of various Army supplies. His wife, Judy, lives on Route 1, Hickman, Ky.

CHOLON, VIETNAM—Army Specialist Five Alfonso Waters, 24, son of Mrs. Martha J. Shepherd, 423 Cedar St., Fulton, Ky., and other members of the 506th Field Depot's 79th Maintenance Battalion at Cholon, Vietnam, are operating one of the largest "fix-it shops" in Vietnam.

He and the other men of the 1st Logistical Command's "fix-it" battalion, repair just about any piece of equipment a soldier uses—from shoes and clothes to the weapons he fires and the vehicles he drives.

The battalion keeps over 12,000 vehicles rolling for the United States and Free World Forces in Vietnam's III and IV Corps areas. In addition, the unit repairs more than 1,100 office machines, 2,800 radio-electronic sets and about 4,000 weapons each month.

Spec. Waters is a turret mechanic assigned to the battalion's 553rd Heavy Equipment Maintenance Company.

His wife, Willie, lives at 510 Vine St., Fulton.

Donald L. Rice, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Rice of Route 1, Hickman, Ky., has been commissioned a second Lieutenant in the U. S. Air Force upon graduation from Officer Training School (OTS) at Lackland AFB, Tex.

Lieutenant Rice, selected for OTS through competitive examination, is being assigned to Tinker AFB, Okla., for training and duty. He will be in the Air Force Logistics Command which keeps USAF units at home and overseas supplied and equipped for immediate action anywhere in the world.

The lieutenant, a graduate of Fulton County High School, received a B. S. degree in accounting in 1966 from Western Kentucky State College, Bowling Green.

Suzanne Freeman Engaged To Wed William Leneave III In June

Miss Suzanne Freeman

Mr. and Mrs. William Wade Freeman of Martin, Tennessee announce the engagement of their daughter, Suzanne, to Mr. William Alexander Leneave, III of Fulton and Memphis, Tennessee.

Miss Freeman is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Hoffman of Martin and of Mrs. A. J. Rucker of Gleason, Tennessee. She attended the University of Tennessee. At present, Miss Freeman is a Delta Airline stewardess, based in Memphis.

The couple will marry on June 24 at the First Methodist Church, Martin, Tennessee.

Classes On Interior Decorating Will Begin April 27 At The Womans Club

It has been necessary to change the starting date of the "Interior Decorating" classes for adults to be conducted in Fulton. Instead of April 18, the starting date will be Thursday, April 27.

Classes will be held from 6:30 p. m. to 9 p. m. in the Fulton Woman's Club Building each Tuesday and Thursday night for four weeks.

Classes are sponsored by Tighman Area Vocational School and the Fulton Chamber of Commerce. Anyone in the area interested in the techniques of Interior Decorating may attend. It will be especially helpful for those selling home furnishings, paint, floor and wall coverings and accessories, as well as for the homemaker. The instructor will be Mrs. Lois Sawyer of Sherwin-Williams Paint Company in Paducah.

The cost of the entire course is $3.00 registration. Any person interested in enrolling should call the Fulton Chamber of Commerce, phone 472-2961, as soon as possible.

A Certificate of Achievement will be awarded each person who successfully completes the course.

80-Unit Holiday Inn In Downtown Mayfield

An 80-unit Holiday Inn Motel to be built at Mayfield in no way affects the plans for building a similar motel in Fulton, one of the prime organizers for the local venture told the News on Wednesday. "We were aware that such a facility was planned at Mayfield also," he said.

"With the increased traffic anticipated as a result of the Purchase Parkway, both motels will be utilized to good advantage for this area," he added.

The Mayfield motel, the chain's first in Mayfield, will be erected on a five-acre plot at the intersection of the Mayfield bypass and Kentucky 121. The site is a mile and one-half from the downtown shopping district.

The Fulton Holiday Inn is planned near the parkway interchange on Highway 51. Date of construction is still indefinite at this time the News was informed.

Mayfield Motel Corporation of Memphis, Tenn., will operate the motel under a franchise agreement with Mayfield Holiday Inns, Inc.

Construction of the two story structure is to begin within 30 days, with completion expected in August.

Approximately 50 local people will be employed when the motel is opened. The annual payroll is expected to be about $90,000.

Facilities to be included in the Mayfield motel are: parking for 120 cars, a restaurant to accommodate 150 persons, a coffee shop, facilities for meetings with up to 100 people, and the usual Holiday Inn conveniences — swimming pool, air conditioning, wall-to-wall carpeting, televisions in every room, etc.

Cheryl Menees, Bill Craddock Lead '67 Class

Cheryl Lynn Menees, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James C. (Buck) Menees of Cayce was today named valedictorian of the 1967 graduating class of Fulton County High School by Principal Harold Garrison at Hickman. Her scholastic average for seven semesters was 97.76.

Salutatory honors went to William (Bill) Craddock, son of Mrs. Lillian Craddock, Hickman, Route 1. His average was 97.14.

Besides the Valedictorian and Salutatorian, 10 other members of the class were announced as honor graduates.

Woodburn Man Charged For Forging Prescription

Charles Oscar Hutcheson, Route 1 Woodburn, was arrested in Fulton last Tuesday on a warrant charging him with obtaining, or attempting to obtain, amphetamine by forging or altering a prescription.

Hutcheson, an engineer with Young Engineering Co. of Clarksville, Tenn., is in the Fulton area working on the Purchase Parkway.

Fulton Police Chief Richard Myatt said a local store had tipped him that Hutcheson reportedly was forging a doctor's name to a prescription.

Hutcheson waived preliminary hearing in Fulton City Court and was bound to the grand jury.

He is presently in the Fulton jail under $1,000 bond set by City Judge Don Hill.

CAYCE NEWS
By Miss Clarice Bonduant

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of Cayce met in the home of Mrs. Damon Vick, with eight members and one visitor present.

Mrs. Clyde Linder opened the meeting with prayer and Mrs. Aubra Burns gave the devotion.

The program, "Christian and Buddhists" was presented by Mrs. Aubra Burns, Mrs. Blanche Meares, Mrs. Wilson Fowler, Mrs. Damon Vick, Mrs. Chester Wade, Mrs. James McMurry and Mrs. Luther Clark. "In Christ There Is No East Or West" was used. Prayer was by Mrs. Aubra Burns.

The president, Mrs. Clyde Linder, had charge of the business meeting, with benediction by Mrs. Luther Clark. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Turner Pursell.

MRS. HOMRA INSTALLED

Mrs. Bill Homra was installed as president of the Terry-Norman PTA at the regular April meeting last Thursday, April 6. Other officers installed were: Mrs. Charles Wade Andrews, vice president; Mrs. Bob Craven, secretary; Mrs. Jake Yates, treasurer. Mrs. Fred Homra was the installing officer.

UK - SCC Students Publish Poetry

"Tomorrow's People," a book of poetry by students of the creative writing class at the University of Kentucky Southeast Community College, is being published.

The first 500 printed copies will go on sale about April 24. Each of the 13 students in the class have selected 15 representative poems for the volume. The book is dedicated to Harlan County.

Editor of the student publication is K. D. Petry, assistant editor is Linda Vicini. The editorial board consists of Lillian Simpson, James Goode, Troy Blair and Carson Hansel, all students at the Southeast campus.

Mike Clark, a Berea College senior, has taken photographs of each of the students, "attempting to capture the spirit of the poems and the individual poet." Action shots were taken throughout Harlan County showing students climbing trees, walking creek beds and observing natural surroundings.

The cover photograph shows a small boy walking down the railroad track.

Illustrations for the volume were done by Carson Hansel and Rodney Hentchell. Lettering was by Miss Carolyn Hearne, art instructor at the Southeast campus.

Lee Pennington, instructor of the class, served as an advisor for the publication.

FASHION SHOW

A fashion show will be given by the Explorettes in the Woman's Club building at 7 p. m., tonight (Thursday). Clothing from K. Homra's Store will be shown. Admission is $1.00. The public is invited to attend.

TRAFFIC CONTROL duty is described by new State Police trooper William Rowlette as a "patrol awhile, sit awhile" life. Before heading into more complex police work, rookie troopers will see a lot of traffic control duty during their one-year probationary period. Rowlette, now assigned to Post Four at Elizabethtown, is a February graduate of the state's cadet training school. A new class starts April 17.

CHESTNUT GLADE
By Mrs. Harvey Vaughn

The Chestnut Glade Club will meet in the home of Mrs. Orvin Morrison at Dukedom at 1 p. m., April 20, for the regular meeting. Visitors are cordially welcomed.

Mrs. Johnnie Hazelwood and Mrs. Harvey Vaughn concluded a course in "Home Care For The Sick And Injured" last Thursday, when they met in the beautiful new and modern home of Mrs. Donald Clinard, who was one of the Dukedom Club members who participated in the course. Other Dukedom members who took the course were Mrs. Elizabeth Darnell, Mrs. Joe Works, Mrs. Nancy Roberts, Mrs. Mathis and Mrs. Randall Brown. Members of the Welfare Workers Club who attended were Mrs. Frank Parrish, Mrs. Charles Johns, Mrs. Harry Watts and Mrs. Birdie Phillips.

Will Reed, who has been a shut-in for the past several days after being in the hospital, is improving. Mrs. V. C. Simpson is a patient in the Fulton Hospital.

Mrs. Jim Burke, Mrs. Myrtle Temple, Mrs. Laverne Owensby, Mrs. Johnnie Hazelwood and Mrs. Harvey Vaughn were in the group of more than seventy-five club members who boarded the two charted busses early Saturday morning for a day of sight-seeing, shopping and attending "Holiday On Ice" at the coliseum in Memphis.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Whitver and Debbie, from Nashville, spent the week-end with Mrs. Eula Rogers and Darrell.

Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Gertrude Thomas Vineyard, whose husband, Kelly Vineyard, passed away last week. Their home is in Jackson, Tenn. Funeral service was at Doug Murphy Funeral Home in Martin, with burial in the New Hope Cemetery.

Mrs. Rozelle Milam, who was very seriously injured when struck by a car two weeks ago, underwent surgery in the Baptist Hospital at Memphis last Saturday for the broken leg. She is reported to be recovering as well as can be expected, after being so critically injured.

GET EQUIPMENT READY NOW

Work time is just around the corner. In fact, a lot of land has been bedded in some sections and is waiting the final preparation before planting. And before we can turn around, it will be time to do lots of the work that it seems so long since we last did. Doing such things as cultivating, silage making, hay curing and even combining. No one likes to rush too much but if only some time is taken now when actually you are not as busy as you will be later, much time and money can be saved.

Chances are you know some parts of your equipment that gave trouble last year. There is no better time than RIGHT NOW to get this job out of the way. It is a good plan to check every piece of machinery thoroughly. It's a good idea to begin with the equipment that you will need to use first and follow this procedure all the way until you are finished.

First, begin with your tractors. Use the manual which gives you details on the operation and care of every part. If your tractor needs it, it's a good practice to do a re-paint job. This is not a big job and can be done with either a sprayer or with a brush.

Follow your manual in checking your plows, discs, hay baler, rake planter, cultivator and combine and any other piece of equipment that you own. Replace all worn out parts. Make a list of the parts that are getting pretty well worn. Get these parts on hand to have ready in case a part breaks at a busy time. This will save time as well as money. Time spent now getting ready for the busy season ahead can save many man hours DOWN ON THE FARM.

CHRISTIAN JOURNEY THROUGH HISTORY (Part Seven)

Across the fields of history, battles and kingdoms are not the only landmarks. The lives of great men are even more important events which tell us the story of the times. Christian history is a galaxy of glorious lights, men and women, shining in the darkness of human events with a light from another world. These are the saints. Out of the multitude, here are but three that shine in the early history to brighten the House of God.

St. John Chrysostom, born in the year 344, educated as a pagan, under the influence of his Christian mother learned the basic teachings of Christ. After the death of his mother, he went to the desert to live with the monks to prepare himself for baptism. In the year 386, people represent a light of hope in an otherwise totally dark situation. What can you say about a man who takes one month's pay and sets out on a 3,000 mile journey from Siberia to Western Russia in order to find one torn, tattered Bible? Or, 38 Christians who divide the Bible into one portion per person? Or, a Christian who is brought before a Soviet court and answers the interrogation with his assertion of the sovereign claims of Christ: "Our aim is to win the whole world for Christ!"

It must be that we are now witnessing what we call THE IMPERIAL DESIGN OF OUR LORD. It is this: Christ is now setting in motion a vast pincers movement which will be the answer to the pincers movement which the world Communist apparatus is now exerting on the United States. We know that the "New Left" Communists have long planned to overcome the United States by the weakening efforts from within, while pressure is applied in Asia, Africa and Latin America from the outside. The Communist design will succeed unless a more powerful, spiritual design overcomes it. Can we not see now the outline of a design which is conceived in heaven and which is going to be executed on the earth? The internal arm of God's pincer movement can be seen in the invincible and unquenchable fire which is now burning in the Underground Church in Communist countries. The outside arm of God's pincer movement must come from within the United States in a movement in which there will be a dedication and a sacrifice and a valor which is born of God and which is faithful to Jesus Christ and which has the power to change the policy of our country of dealing with and supporting Communist regimes.

This is the challenge before us. And, as Pastor Wurmband said: "If we do not judge ourselves now, God will judge us."

he was ordained a priest and immediately became famous as a preacher. His name means "The Golden Mouth." His name traveled the extent of Christianity and he became the Bishop Patriarch of Constantinople in 397. John had many enemies who through their lies had him exiled to Syria. But even then he did not stop preaching Christ. Among the Lebanese he converted many and brought the Church to Syria. Within two months after he was allowed to return from exile, he was exiled again when he criticized the Empress for her vanity and pagan customs. St. John died in exile in 407. Many of his famous sermons and letters are with us today. He is the patron saint of preachers.

St. Ambrose, the great Bishop of Milan, is an outstanding example of the kind of men the West gave to the Church. We was born in 340, the youngest son of the Roman Prefect of Gaul. After his education in law, he was made governor of Northern Italy. When a controversy broke out between the Arian Christians and the Catholics Ambrose, in trying to restore peace, made a speech, after which a child called out, "Ambrose will be our Bishop." Ambrose at this time had not yet been baptized but he was a catechumen (one learning the Faith). He was baptized and eight days later was consecrated a priest and bishop. He was a man of great charity. No sooner had he become a Bishop, than he devoted his wealth inherited from his father to care for the poor. When the Emperor Theodosius the Great ordered a massacre in Thessalonica, Ambrose publicly denounced the king and would not allow him inside the Church until he had done public penance for his sin. Many of the beautiful hymns and sermons of St. Ambrose are used in the prayers of the Church even today. He is the patron saint of bishops.

St. Jerome was one of the most learned men in the history of the Church. He was born a pagan of wealthy parents of Dalmatia. The year was 330. Being a student of literature, he became interested in the scriptures and received the gift of Faith. He was baptized and later became a priest. Since Greek was the official language of the kingdom, and since there was no good translation of the Bible in the language of the people, Pope Damasus requested Jerome to undertake the translation of the Bible into Latin. Jerome's knowledge of Hebrew, Greek and Latin qualified him for the momentous task. The Vulgate of St. Jerome was used as the official version of the Scriptures for centuries in Christianity. Toward the end of his life, Jerome established three convents of sisters and a monastery for men. He himself lived in a cave near Bethlehem, where he died in his 90th year. He is the patron saint of Scripture studies.

Introducing Our Churches - God's Agency For Spreading His Love

SOUTH FULTON BAPTIST CHURCH TELEPHONE 479-2331

Rev. Gerald Stow, Pastor

The South Fulton Baptist Church was organized November 17, 1946, with 61 charter members. The church met in a building next door to the South Fulton City Hall. In May 1947 the congregation moved to a store building on East State Line. At the end of the first year, 71 new members had been added to the church. In the spring of 1948 a lot was purchased on Central Avenue and construction began on a church building. A storm destroyed the building before it was completed and the church then bought a house on East State Line.

The church's last move was to its present location, where the first structure was erected in 1955. In 1960 the second building, an educational unit, was completed, and the permanent auditorium was completed in 1965. Total property evaluation is in excess of $200,000.

The church places primary importance upon evangelism (the winning and training of converts to faith in Jesus Christ) and missions. The church cooperates with over 10 million other Southern Baptists in this country to support over 2500 missionaries around the world.

The teaching agency of the church is the Sunday School, which meets every Sunday morning at 9:45 A. M.

The Training Union meets at 5:00 P. M. Sunday evenings. The Teacher Training class and the Pastor's New Member class meet at the same time.

The Men's Fellowship and the Women's Missionary Union complete the church organization.

Regular worship services are held each Sunday at 11:00 A. M. and at 6:00 P. M. Prayer meeting is Wednesday at 7:00 P. M. Community visitation is Thursday at 7:00 P. M.

A unique ministry of the church is their regular broadcast "Moments of Hope". This is a broadcast of the Sunday morning worship service over WFUL at 12:30 P. M.

An intensive summer youth program for the purpose of helping develop the moral and spiritual character of young people will begin May 15. Bill Betts, of Bolivar, Missouri, will be the summer youth director. Other staff members are Mrs. Lawrence Haney, church secretary; Byron Kelley, building superintendent, and Ron Cruse, minister of music.

Rev. Gerald Stow has been the pastor of the church since June 1964. He came to the church from Fort Worth, Texas. He is a graduate of Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary and holds the B. S. and M. S. degrees from the University of Tennessee. They make their home on Circle Drive in South Fulton.

read but not able to get in to the town library nearly as often as the bookmobile can get to them.

Our County library system here in Fulton has enjoyed "phenomenal" growth, say our librarians, and I'm sure we are all proud of it.

The "big band" type of music is coming back again, however slowly but surely. And an interesting thing about it... in cities around the country "big" bands are forming that are full of musicians from the era of 20 to 30 years ago who are now professional men: doctors, lawyers, businessmen of all kinds who used to play and still get a big kick out of it.

Over at Martin a "big" band has been organized this spring, and it includes four Fulton musicians who are members of Fulton's "Melody Men" orchestra. The band is a sort of loosely-knit outfit at the present, and is taking in any and all who want to play and who can read the "tough" arrangements that are in the book. Present personnel include 5 sax, 6 brass and three rhythm. Any local musicians interested in going over for a Tuesday-evening session (held at the University) are invited to contact Charley Andrews, Charles Wade Andrews or me. Rehearsals are held every Tuesday evening beginning around 8: p. m.

The band was a little unprepared for what happened this week, but it happened anyhow and things went off very well. Charles Wade tells me on Tuesday. It seems that last week the whole outfit was invited to play at a national convention at the Skyway in Hotel Peabody in Memphis, and promptly accepted the invitation even though it had been rehearsing just a couple of months or so. So down they went, and played for 1000 people for dinner and dancing, and had a great time... and, says Charles Wade, "sounded fine." Now, already, there are rumors of a St. Louis engagement!

If you are missing Jo's smiling face over in this corner this week, it is because she is in Louisville visiting our son in school, and attending to Banana Festival business, and enjoying her favorite pastime... politicking and working in Henry Ward's campaign headquarters. In case she doesn't like the way I do some of the things I am doing in the paper this week, that's the chance she has to take when she leaves town!

WELCOME CENTERS—

rant) is located north of the Elizabethtown interchange. These are in "islands" accessible to both northbound and southbound traffic.

On the Western Kentucky Parkway, just east of the Beaver Dam interchange, travel specialists are on hand in an Information Center, and a service center includes two gas stations and a restaurant. This complex, too, is in an island open to traffic in both directions.

On US-25E at Pineville, an Information Center attended by travel specialists and featuring a 2400-square foot display of Kentucky attractions is in the Bert T. Combs Forestry Building at the south edge of town.

Of the four unmanned rest areas on I-64, one is between the Simpsonville and Shelbyville interchanges, for westbound traffic. Another, serving eastbound drivers, is between the Middletown and Simpsonville interchanges. A third, east of the Winchester interchange, is accessible to eastbound traffic, and a fourth rest area is on the westbound lane between the Winchester and Mount Sterling turn-offs.

Ky-114 (an extension of the Mountain Parkway east of Salyersville), and US-23 and 460, will soon have an Information Center where they meet in Prestonsburg. The Prestonsburg Center is expected to open in April.

Six rest areas are projected on I-75 between Covington in the north and Berea in the south. Three are already under construction. Eventually there will be two in Boone County, two in Scott County, and two in Madison County. A new, manned Information Center is also planned for I-75 in Boone County.

There's even more help for travelers in Kentucky. Maps and expert advice are available at 12 district offices of the Highway Department, 16 State Police posts, and at toll plazas on the parkways.

HENRY MADDOX

Permit Me To Put My Past Experience To Work For Us In The Kentucky General Assembly As Your Representative From Fulton, Hickman, Ballard, and Carlisle Counties

Democratic Primary, May 23, 1967

Again I would like to say THANK YOU for letting me serve as your Representative in the past. For this I am grateful. It is my hope that you see fit to send me back to Frankfort to represent you again and help make the laws for the future of Kentucky.

I am 61 years of age, a life long resident of Fulton County, after graduation from High School attended Murray University, worked with U. S. Corps of Engineers and now am engaged in farming. I am past president of the Fulton County Farm Bureau, member of the Hickman Masonic Lodge 761 for over 30 years, director of the Farmers Bank and a member and deacon of Mt. Hermon Christian Church.

I am, and have always been, a strong supporter and have a sincere interest in BETTER ROADS, BETTER SCHOOLS, BETTER HEALTH AND SOCIAL AND ECONOMICAL PROGRESS for our commonwealth.

The last session of the Legislature I served on the House Road, Wildlife, Banking, Education, Agriculture and Forest Committees and was chairman of the City Classification Committee.

I want you to know just how I voted on a few bills in the last session. Capital Purnishment — I voted Yes. With crime increasing as it is today we need laws to protect the law abiding Christian people of this nation. This law can be compared to a lighthouse for a ship, a signal of warning of danger if you commit a crime. Speaking of firearms — the proposed firearms control law to date will only disarm law abiding citizens and encourage criminals with knowledge that their victims are thus disarmed. Criminals will obtain firearms if they have to make them, such as "zip" guns. So I say keep your firearms for your own protection.

I was against HB-140 reducing the 10 cents a gallon tax on liquor stored in Kentucky. Had that bill been left to a vote of the people I feel sure the people would have added an extra 10 cents instead of reducing the tax 10 cents per gallon. Can you imagine repealing a whisky tax with the indebtedness of our state today?

I voted against pinball machines. I am against gambling in any form. I was one of the three representatives who tried to attach an amendment on that bill to do away with all gambling in Kentucky.

I was against the car inspection bill. If this bill is as good as some would have you think it is, why wait until 1968 before it becomes effective? What about the lives it would have saved in 1966 and 1967? The insurance companies will tell you the causes of wrecks. I say it is the person behind the wheel of the car today.

I voted YES on the strip mining bills in 1964 and 1966. Being a farmer, I hate to see land and soil abused and, with population increasing, we will need to take better care of our land. I also voted YES on bills to control water and air pollution.

I was against HB-1, the 100 percent assessment on your property. The way HB-1 was railroaded through the House, there is no need of a Legislature. I am sure the bill was drawn up in the Tax Department, as it affects their own operation. The laws are made to work the way the department which will administrate the program wants them to work and this is not always necessarily in the PUBLIC INTEREST. The governor decided on HB-1 and when it came on the floor of the House the Previous Question was voted on it, which bans all amendments and severely limits debate. When it reached the Senate floor the speaker of the Senate, the Lieutenant Governor elected by you the people, was removed from the Speaker's chair by 20 votes of the Senate. Therefore, this bill was railroaded through on the taxpayers. In my opinion, a bill that cannot withstand honest discussion by the members of the General Assembly and go through on the merits of the bill is a bad bill and would make a bad law for Kentucky and the taxpayers. This bill upset our whole tax structure, some of our school systems were hurt, also some towns and industries, as well as individual tax payers. I say any adjustments needed to provide additional revenue for the 120 counties should be made in the tax rate increases and not the 100 per cent assessment. We need to get an amendment to the state constitution that will provide for a fair cash value instead of a 100 per cent assessment. By HB-1 taxes can be raised 10% in 1966 and another 10% in 1967 which figures 21% in the two years. Some say taxes will be frozen from 1968 on, but don't fool yourselves, the same hungry tax boys will be back for another raise. So I think an experienced legislator will be better qualified to cope with the Tax Program when it comes up in the 1968 session.

I am for progress, but I am for living and let live. Today I serve 31,902 people over a radius of 868 miles and these people are in all walks of life, a good many of them on fixed incomes and with the high cost of living for the necessities of life as it is today, they cannot stand too much more tax burden.

I am sure my stand on the Revision of the Constitution was known by you. It was just too much in one capsule for the people to swallow.

In the weeks between now and May 23rd, the date of the Primary Election, I hope to meet as many of you as time permits, but I realize that I cannot see everyone, and I hope that each of you will take this as my personal request for your vote and influence. I assure you that it will be deeply appreciated.

I am financing my own campaign, as I have done my other campaigns. I am obligated to no group or individual. My only obligation is to all the people of the four counties.

This is not an office to be lightly sought, nor is it your privilege as voters to lightly give this office to anyone who might seek it. I invite all of you to investigate my past voting record. Feeling that I merit your consideration and vote, I submit myself to you, the voters, as a candidate for the re-election to the office of STATE REPRESENTATIVE.

Act Deadline Near

Kentucky high school seniors who plan to enter the University of Kentucky next September and who have not taken the American College Testing program tests have been advised by the UK Admissions Office to contact their high school offices for application forms as soon as possible.

Keller Dunn, UK associate dean of admissions, explains that students must take the test no later than May 13 since tests given in August would be too late for students to apply for admission to the University's fall term. UK application deadline is July 31, he said.

Those students who take the May 13 test must send their registration forms to the ACT national office in Chicago by April 22, Dunn added.

Lowe Named S. Fulton Cage Coach

SOUTH FULTON, Tenn.—Jimmy Lowe, one of South Fulton's outstanding athletes and a graduate of the University of Tennessee, Knoxville, was named basketball coach at South Fulton High School by the Obion County Board of Education at the regular meeting Monday in Union City.

He will replace Wyatt Cunningham, coach for the past two seasons, who is being transferred to another department.

The new coach is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Lowe and received his degree in 1966 from the University of Tennessee. He is presently employed as assistant basketball coach at Bull Gap, Tenn.

Besides his duties as head basketball coach of both boys and girls teams, Lowe will assist Coach Charlie Akers during the football season.

While at South Fulton, Lowe starred in both football and basketball and received a four-year grant-in-aid at UT, where he was a varsity lineman for three years.

To Go On Fast Time

HICKMAN, Ky.—The City of Hickman has adopted Daylight Saving Time, according to Mayor Ro Gardner.

No action has been taken regarding fast time for Fulton County, Judge John Cruce said Wednesday.

The Fiscal Court discussed DST for the county at its meeting Tuesday, but as yet no resolution has been passed.

Store Your Winter Garments

In Air That's Cool,
Fresh and Dry!

FIVE REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD STORE YOUR:
* Fur Garments — * Fur Trimmed Garments
* Synthetic Fur Garments

1. Humidity Control
If your furs are stored in an area that does not have proper humidity control, the pelt will Dry Out if the atmosphere is too dry; the pelt will Mildew if the atmosphere is too moist.
2. Fur-Damaging Insect Control
Our specialized fumigation process destroys moths, moth larvae and any other fur damaging insects.
3. Insurance
Your furs are protected against loss by fire and theft.
4. Proper Cleaning Methods
After a winter's use, your garment needs expert care to restore the lustre and bring back that "like-new" appearance.
5. Temperature Control
High temperatures can cause mildew.

KENTUCKY STATE SHRINES OFFER LINK WITH PAST—With just a small measure of imagination, a visitor at any of Kentucky's eight State shrines can step into history—for a rendezvous with the past. Many of the shrines house historical museums, some of which are admission-free and open year-round. Most offer playgrounds and picnicking facilities.

Mrs. Patrick Is President Of Fulton Club

FULTON, Ky.—Mrs. Lester Patrick has been elected president of the Junior Woman's Club at Fulton.

The other newly elected officers are Mrs. Bobby Hailey, vice president; Mrs. Bill Bennett, recording secretary; Mrs. Jimmy Yates, treasurer; Mrs. Ladd Stokes, Mrs. Robert Van Doren and Mrs. Jimmy Jones, corresponding secretaries.

The new officers were elected at a meeting at the clubhouse Tuesday night. Mrs. Michael Homra presided.

Mrs. Bill Stokes, president of the general club, conducted the installation ceremony.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Bob Peterson, Mrs. Gaylon Varden and Mrs. Tommy Mann to 26 members and two guests, Mrs. Bill Stokes and Mrs. Dwain Taylor.

Paula Long Is South Fulton Booster Princess

SOUTH FULTON, Tenn.—Miss Paula Long, a 16-year-old strawberry blonde, was crowned "South Fulton Booster Princess" here Thursday night.

Miss Long is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Earl Long, Pierce, Tenn., and will represent the Twin-Cities in the Strawberry Festival at Humboldt and Tennessee Fish Fry pageant at Paris, Tenn., later in the year.

Miss Long was crowned by last year's princess, Linda Kay Nanney, Dukedom, a student at UTMB, Martin.

First maid was Miss Joy Jobe, 16, Water Valley; Second maid, Miss Joanna Woodruff, South Fulton; and Third maid, Miss Susan Tegethoff, South Fulton.

James Warren, Fulton attorney, was master of ceremonies, and Mrs. Martha Logan was organist.

The pageant was held at South Fulton High School, and was the 6th annual beauty review sponsored by the boosters.

Women Heads Christian Churches In Kentucky

OWENSBORO, Ky.—The new president of the Kentucky Association of Christian Churches admitted she was a little nervous about her new job.

"It's bigger than the others and so important," said Mrs. Victor L. Baltzell of Louisville, the first woman and first lay president to head the organization.

Mrs. Baltzell is a former president of the Kentucky Christian Women's Fellowship and has been on statewide church boards for six years.

She was elected Wednesday and will take office on July 1 to succeed the Rev. Walter Bingham of Louisville. Other new officers for the next year are the Rev. Leonard W. Boynton of Paris and the Rev. Harley B. Fisk of Florence, vice presidents.

Dr. Irvin E. Linger, president of Transylvania College, said he felt his school should have been given more consideration for funds because it needed a new science building and would have to expand its library.

He noted Transylvania received a cut while the Lexington Theological Seminary was given an increase. Dr. Linger said he had no opposition to the increase for the seminary.

Fulton Co. Board Names Garrison

HICKMAN, Ky.—The Fulton County Board of Education has named Harold Garrison superintendent of Fulton County schools.

Garrison, a native of Hickman succeeds J. L. Barnett, who has been superintendent for the past four years, and in the system for 31 years. Barnett, while stepping down as superintendent, will remain in the system in an administrative capacity.

The new superintendent is a graduate of Hickman High School, and received his Master's at Murray State University. He has been principal at Fulton County High for the past three years, and taught and coached previously.

He is married to the former Paula June Hornsby of Hickman.

Other teachers will be elected the first week in May.

The board also voted to observe Daylight Savings Time at the Fulton County, Western and Cayce schools.

Former Fultonian, Dr. Mary F. Poe, Is Commemorated

FULTON, Ky.—A library in memory of Dr. Mary Frances Poe in the University of Tennessee's department of anesthesiology, Memphis, will be dedicated at 2 p.m. April 18.

Dr. Poe was the daughter of Mrs. Jean Poe and a sister of Dr. J. A. Poe, both of Fulton.

The ceremony will be held in the medical staff auditorium in John Gaston Hospital.

Dr. Poe was professor of anesthesiology at UT when she died May 29, 1964. She received her MD degree at the College of Medicine.

WHAT'S GOING ON HERE

Ky. Dept. of Agriculture
Frankfort

The Kentucky Department of Agriculture will sponsor two lamb shows for Kentucky breeders this spring. According to Commissioner Wendell P. Butler, the shows will be held at Lexington and Flemingsburg.

Both of the shows are for market lambs and will offer classes for youth and adult exhibitors. The first, the Central Kentucky Lamb Show and Sale, will be held at the Blue Grass Stockyards on May 20. This event will offer $865 in premiums.

On Saturday, June 3, the East Kentucky Graded Lamb Show and Sale will be held at the Farmers Stockyards in Flemingsburg. It will offer $750 in premiums.

"Kentucky has long been known for the production of top quality lambs," Commissioner Butler said, "and these shows give producers an opportunity to show and evaluate their animals. While sheep numbers on Kentucky farms have declined in recent years, the quality has remained high."

Commissioner Butler went on to say "there is a growing interest in sheep production and I feel that more and more farmers are looking to sheep as a livestock enterprise. The Governor's Commission on Agriculture has been promoting this idea and I predict that we will begin to see a gradual increase in sheep numbers on Kentucky farms."

In commenting on the two lamb shows, Butler said "the Department feels that these shows can be very educational to sheep producers in that they can see how their animals measure up to what the market demands today. The competition in the show ring provides them with positive evaluation of the type of animals they are producing. It also gives them an opportunity to see what other Kentucky farmers are doing in the way of lamb production."

All Kentucky sheepmen are eligible to participate in the two shows being sponsored by the Department of Agriculture. Only ewe or wether lambs from commercial flocks can be exhibited. Purebred lambs are not eligible for the shows.

Farmers interested in further details about the shows can contact the Division of Shows and Fairs, Kentucky Department of Agriculture, Capitol Annex, Frankfort 40601.

STRICTLY BUSINESS by McFeaters

"Let's not get nosy!"

ONLY IN KENTUCKY can sportsmen find true North American wild turkeys, direct descendants of the wild birds hunted by the Pilgrims. Similar to this bird at the Frankfort game farm, operated by the State Fish and Wildlife Resources Department, these authentic turkeys are found within the Land Between the Lakes National Recreation Area in western Kentucky where a limited hunting season is planned during April. Turkey hunting is also permitted in a 16-county area of eastern Kentucky. The Department says all other American wild turkeys have crossed bloodlines with domesticated fowl.

Students Create Own 'Readers'

In New Learning Technique

No longer is the artificial "Run, Rover, Run" approach in reading found satisfactory. Children do not develop a vocabulary by any set formula. Each child does so in his own way, through speaking, listening, writing and reading.

The child begins to acquire language skills from the time he can name objects in his own pictures. When he takes an interest in writing or copying words, he is taking a step toward the time when he can use writing and reading to communicate his own ideas.

How the "experience" approach is used in teaching language use is exemplified in "Language Experiences in Reading," a life-related instructional program developed by Dr. Roach Van Allen, Professor of Education, University of Arizona, in cooperation with Encyclopaedia Britannica Educational Corporation. The program, designed for use in classrooms, includes games, stories, poems, songs and pictures to stimulate the desire to learn.

Children are encouraged to compose their own stories, communicate their ideas through art work, and through dictating their stories to the teacher. Thus, instead of using textbooks, the children create their own "books." The level of interest is maintained, as each child is encouraged to progress at his own pace, with the guidance of the teacher.

The program includes a teacher's resource book and pupil materials. Further information can be obtained from Encyclopaedia Britannica Educational Corporation, 425 North Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois 60611.

Fulton High Principal, Two Teachers Reveal Retirements

FULTON, Ky.—Three well-known Fulton teachers—Mansfield Martin, principal of Fulton High School, Mrs. Mary Follis Bennett and Miss Katherine Williamson—have announced they will retire at the close of school this year.

Martin is retiring after 11 years as principal at Fulton High and five years as principal of Carr Elementary School for a total of 16 years in the Fulton City school system. He also served on the faculty of South Fulton High School for five years, and at Martin High School as principal and teacher for four years, plus teaching duties in the U.S. Army and at Weakley County schools. He has served 30 years in the field of education.

Mrs. Bennett, who came to the Fulton City schools in 1928, married a hometown boy, and has made her home here since, will leave the teaching ranks after 30 years. She teaches at Carr Elementary.

Miss Williamson, third grade teacher at Terry-Norman School, is retiring after 43 years in the teaching profession.

Recently, two other well-known Fulton educators, Superintendent of Fulton City Schools W. L. Holland, and Miss Pauline Thompson, principal of Terry-Norman School, announced their plans also to retire at the close of school this spring.

For 10 years Martin was employed in a local finance company, owned and operated a business in Fulton and served four years in the Army. He also served one term as a member of the Fulton City Council.

He succeeded K. M. Winston as principal of Fulton High School in 1956. He followed C. M. Whalen as principal of Carr Elementary in 1932.

The veteran educator is a native of Daviess County. He attended Whitesville High School, where he was a member of the football and basketball teams, and following his graduation, attended Western State University, Bowling Green. He also pursued his athletic career at Western where Ed Diddle was the coach.

He received his BA degree at Western in 1927 and his first teaching job was at Martin High School, Martin, Tenn., when he was 19 years old. For two years he taught science, chemistry and physics, then in 1929 was promoted to principal. He also served as football, basketball and boxing coach at this school. His basketball team was runner-up in the regional tournament that year.

In 1932 he received his master's degree at Western University, and the same year moved to Fulton to take the principal's job at Carr Elementary. After five years as Carr principal, he left the school ranks to accept the position of assistant manager and field man at the West Kentucky Finance Company in Fulton.

Five years later he was called to active duty in the U.S. Army and during the World War II years 1942-45, he served as a sergeant in the U.S. Army Supply School in Cheyenne, Wyoming. Upon his return to Fulton, he went into business with Ward McClellan at the City Electric and Sporting Goods on Commercial Avenue.

Then for four years he taught agriculture to adults in the Weakley County Schools and he was back to his career in education for good.

Since 1956 he has served as Fulton High School principal.

Mr. Martin is a Baptist and a member of the Fulton Elks Lodge.

Mrs. Bennett came to Fulton from her home in Trenton, Tenn., in the fall of 1928 to teach at Fulton High School.

She married Joe Bennett Jr., a Fulton pharmacist. They have one son, Joe Follis, who is now in the pharmacy business with his father.

Mrs. Bennett left Fulton High and taught for several years in South Fulton. She has taught the sixth grade at Carr Elementary for the past 16 years.

She is a graduate of Peabody High School in Trenton, attended Union University in Jackson and Peabody College in Nashville and Murray State College.

Miss Williams is a native of Fulton and a graduate of Fulton High School. She attended Union University but dropped out of college to take her first teaching assignment in Ramer, Tenn. She also taught at Sylvan Shade School in Fulton County before returning to Fulton in 1926.

She spent 15 years teaching at Terry-Norman School before transferring to Carr Institute.

She worked in the South Fulton school system from 1940 to 1952 but returned to teach geography and history at Terry-Norman.

She received her bachelor's degree from Murray State College in 1938. She also has attended Detroit Teacher's College, Peabody College, Union University and the University of Colorado in the United States as well as McGill University of Canada and the American School of Mexico in Mexico City.

Capitol pages attend school in Washington in the Library of Congress. Classes begin at 6:30 a.m.

foggy weather.

Flight tests using the radar system have shown that contrast between objects and differing terrain is such that almost pictorial ground mapping results. Large or extended objects, such as airport runways or highways, are unmistakable, and pilots aided by photos or charts or with previous knowledge of the area can readily identify clusters of trees, buildings or oil tanks. (ANF)

Creamed Potatoes New-Style

New potatoes, richly sauced, are good as is, but when thinly sliced tender green onions flavor the sauce, this vegetable dish becomes something special.

The new-style flavor is matched here with new-style preparation which eliminates separate sauce-making. When the potatoes and onions are tender, the flour is sprinkled in to mingle with the butter and flavorful cooking liquid. Then double-rich evaporated milk is added, and the whole cooked and stirred to creamy perfection. This one-pot method of creaming can be adapted in the preparation of other creamed vegetables.

Creamed Potatoes New-Style

- 1 1/2 pounds new potatoes
- 1 cup water
- 3/4 teaspoon salt
- 6 tablespoons butter
- Dash of pepper
- 1 1/2 cups sliced green onions (including green tops)
- 1/4 cup flour
- 1 tall can evaporated milk (1 1/2 cups)

Scrape or peel potatoes; cut in half if large. Place in a medium size saucepan with the water and salt. Bring to a boil, cover and boil over medium heat until fairly tender, about 20 to 25 minutes. Add butter, pepper and onions. Cook 4 minutes longer, stirring occasionally, until butter is melted and onions are tender. Remove from heat. Sprinkle in flour a little at a time, blending smoothly. Then stir in evaporated milk. Cook and stir over medium heat until sauce is thickened. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

DEAF CHILD'S JOY MIRRORED IN CARD ARTWORK

It is not too early to start thinking about ordering your Christmas cards. Here is a unique opportunity to buy truly unusual cards created by a deaf child and have the money you spend on those cards go toward furthering research and rehabilitation in behalf of the hard-of-hearing.

This opportunity comes through the Hearing Aid Industry Foundation, a non-profit organization dedicated to helping the hearing handicapped. The Foundation has chosen an unusual painting created by an eleven-year-old girl suffering from a profound bilateral hearing loss to be used on the cover of its 1966 Christmas card.

The painting, created by Debra Tindall of Independence, Mo., was unanimously selected by a panel of judges who called it "a winter message with all the childlike beauty and spirit of Christmas." It was chosen from among dozens of entries, from deaf and hard-of-hearing children all across the country, who submitted their artwork in the Foundation's annual national contest.

Debra's painting is a delightful creation filled with all the brightness and color of Christmas joy... for a child who has never heard the sounds of Christmas, it is a certain indication that she has not been shut off from the visual exuberance of the season!

These charming holiday cards featuring Debra's unique drawing are available for $5.50 per box of 50 (with matching envelopes) and the money will be used to help children like Debra toward a richer, fuller life through further hearing research.

For information, or to purchase cards, please send all letters and checks direct to: Hearing Aid Industry Foundation, Inc., 437 Merchandise Mart, Chicago, Illinois 60654.

DATES FOR CHILDREN'S SNACKS

Those active children of yours burn up tremendous amounts of energy in their busy play, especially when they are outdoors in the brisk winter air, perhaps ice skating or playing in the snow. When they come inside and tell Mother they are hungry, a snack really is needed to re-fuel their bodies.

Rather than candy or something which is just plain carbohydrate, why not provide your children with a quick-energy snack that is also good for them? One of the best and most delicious snack foods to offer is dates. Although we wouldn't advise it in this country, Arab desert tribes have been known to live for weeks at a time on just a diet of dates.

Whether served plain and right from the package, or in a tempting confection, dates can both satisfy desires for a sweet and provide good nutrition.

They are a perfect instant energy food because their natural sugar is available immediately, without going through the digestive pro-

Cage Districts Reorganized

All basketball districts in West Tennessee have been reorganized and the lineup of teams as revealed by the Tennessee Secondary Schools Athletic Assn. (TSSAA) shows a number of changes in both District 27 and District 28.

The reorganization has done away with all-Negro districts and Negro teams now have been assimilated. Union City Miles has been added to District 27 while Lauderdale has been added to District 28.

With Miles in District 27 next season will be Union City High School, Bradford, Greenfield, Kenton, Martin, Rutherford, Sharon and South Fulton. Gleason, Dresden and Palmersville have been dropped from the district and added to District 25. Bradford, Kenton, Rutherford and Miles are the new teams in District 27.

The District 28 lineup shows Obion County Central, Dyersburg, Halls, Newbern, Ripley High, Lauderdale, Lake County, Spring Hill of Trenton, Trimble and Yorkville. New teams in the district include Lauderdale, Ripley, Spring Hill and Yorkville. Kenton was lost to District 27.

Region 7 will include Districts 25, 26, 27 and 28. Region 8 will have Districts 29, 30, 31 and 32. Region 9 will include only three districts—34, 35 and 36.

The makeup of other districts in West Tennessee is as follows:

District 25 — Big Sandy, Buchanan, Cottage Grove,

Fulton, Ky.

Thursday, April 13, 1967

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Through the Loophole

No doubt about it: the case was a shocker. A city alderman had been caught taking a bribe. But when he was brought to trial, it turned out that there was a loophole in the state's criminal code. By mistake, the code failed to make this particular action a crime.

So the alderman went free. As speedily as possible, the state legislature passed a new law closing the loophole. But as far as the alderman was concerned, it was too late. He had slipped safely through the law's clutches.

Does that make sense? Should the court let a man "get away with it," just because of a loophole in the law?

We have to start with one blunt fact: no law is perfect, with no loopholes at all. Human wisdom cannot foresee all the possible variations of conduct that may arise in the course of time.

Still, when a mistake in the law is so obvious, shouldn't the court stretch a point in the interest of justice? For example, in the alderman's case the court might have said:

"Loophole or no loophole, this

TWO MINUTES

WITH THE BIBLE

BY CORNELIUS R. STAM, PRES. BEEHAN BIBLE SOCIETY CHICAGO, ILLINOIS 60635

NOT ALWAYS THAT BAD

Have you ever heard the story of Honus? Honus was a wicked old renegade who lived in a small country town. When he died his body lay in the funeral parlor for three days without any one even taking notice. Finally, on the day of the burial, a few of his old cronies did stop by to at least pay their respects.

As they gathered, the funeral director said: "Now fellows, we can't bury Honus like a dog. We've got to have some kind of service for him. Won't somebody here take charge?" But the silence was profound, so finally the funeral director himself agreed to take charge.

He began by asking whether there wasn't someone who had some good word to say for Honus before they buried him. Again there was a deathly silence, until finally one old man stood up and said: "Well, I can say this much for Honus; he wasn't always as bad as he sometimes was."

To be honest, isn't this true of all of us? Some people take offense at Rom. 3:22, 23, which says: "For there is no difference, for all have sinned and come short of the glory of God." They think there is a difference, and that they have not been as sinful as others. Ah, but while there may be a difference in the nature or the degree of our sins, Romans 3 is right when it says that there is no difference in this: that "all have sinned and come short of the glory of God." A person may put up a good front, feeling that he is not nearly so great a sinner as others, but whether a bridge is ten feet or a hundred feet short of spanning the chasm, it is still useless, so don't try crossing it.

This is why we all need "the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of God's grace" (Eph. 1:7). And we may have this by trusting in the Christ who died for our sins (1 Cor. 15:3). "For by grace are ye saved, through faith, and that not of yourselves it is the gift of God" (Eph. 2:8).

Army Building Large Automatic Map-Making Range in Southwest

A testing ground for automatic map-making equipment, being prepared by the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, is scheduled for completion within 18 months.

The BAR XC test range will cover 90,000 square miles of land including most of Arizona and a strip of western New Mexico. It measures 300 miles on each side.

Land used and photographic targets built will be held to a minimum. The Los Angeles District Engineer will lease any land needed.

U.S. Army Map Service civilians and soldiers of the 30th Engineer Battalion, Fort Belvoir, Va., will conduct a test-range survey. Headquarters for the advance military party is in Globe, Ariz. (ANF) traffic truths!

Even short motoring trips—such as from home to work—require a driver to make numerous decisions. Most of those decisions are based on what the driver's eyes can see. Prudent drivers have their eyes checked regularly and wear corrective lenses if needed.
