ARE YOU A DEMOCRAT?

From Friday's daily.

Young Mr. Democrat, representing the Brown ticket, and representing all the teachers that the Brown ticket stands for, spoke last night at the Court house to about 100 persons. Of the audience there were perhaps twenty Democrats, and the rest were curious to hear how a Brown man would define his position and justify his action in inviting the defeat of the party whose principles he professes to believe. The use of the word "curious" was made up of a crowd of men, to attend everything at the Court house that is free, and leading local Republicans, who occupied the most conspicuous seats, and manifested sympathy and approval in all that the young man said. The Democratic ticket, then, Mr. Democrat spoke for an hour and a half, defining the state and showing how a Brown man would define his position and justify his action in inviting the defeat of the party whose principles he professes to believe. The use of the word "curious" was made up of a crowd of men, to attend everything at the Court house that is free, and leading local Republicans, who occupied the most conspicuous seats, and manifested sympathy and approval in all that the young man said.

There is an opportunity to vote for the Democrats who really love their party and its cause, and who are not afraid to stand up for the principles of the party. The Democrats are not afraid to stand up for the principles of the party. The Democrats are not afraid to stand up for the principles of the party.

SORROW

Hovers Over Hopkinsville Homes.

MRS. QUARLES DEAD.

Mr. Wallace Ware Passes Away After a Long And Useful Life.

From Monday's daily.

Mrs. Josephine Harbald Quarles, wife of Mr. P. M. Quarles, died at nine o'clock last night at her home on South Main street, after a lingering illness of consumption. This sad announcement will occasion less surprise than sorrow. Mrs. Quarles had been in failing health for more than a year. Her illness was accompanied by a long and painful struggle with the disease. She was a devoted wife and mother, and her death is a great loss to her family. She was born in 1825, and lived for 65 years. She was a member of the Methodist church, and was a very active worker in the church. She was a very kind and generous person, and was loved by all who knew her. Her death is a great loss to her family, and to the church. She was buried in the cemetery at 10 o'clock this morning.

THE MUNICIPAL TICKET.

From Saturday's daily.

The Democratic municipal ticket is now in the field, and the battle between organized Democracy on one hand and Republicans and Independents on the other has begun. At the primaries held in the several wards of the city yesterday the candidates for councilmen were chosen. There being no contest in the Second, Third and Sixth wards, there was no occasion for activity. Mrs. Ware, West and Wall in these respective wards, however, received flattering complimentary votes from their friends.

In wards where Democrats were contesting for the councilman, the party vote was strong and much interest was manifested. The vote in these wards was as follows:

FIRST WARD

H. W. Tibbs 44
Martin Davis 18
Tibbs's Majority 26

FOURTH WARD

Geo. D. Dalton 41
F. L. Waller 29
Dalton's Majority 12

SEVENTH WARD

Jo. N. Fowright 59
J. H. Eggleston 48
Fowright's Majority 11

The defeated candidates accept the verdict of the primaries with becoming grace and are in line for the ticket.

Mr. Tibbs is a member of the present council and has served his constituency faithfully during the past two years. He is public spirited and progressive, and at the same time watchful of the city's revenues. He is opposed for re-election by Mr. Jackson Tate, who will run as an Independent.

Mr. J. D. Ware has no opposition for re-election in the Second. He is a conscientious and faithful official and gives his time to the interests of the people.

Mr. James West, who will contest Dr. Bentley's re-election in the Third Ward, has had no experience in municipal legislation, but he is one of the most popular and efficient business men in Hopkinsville, and will bring the qualities which have made his life a success, into the administration of his official duties, should the people of the Third choose him for their representative.

A narrow escape.

Thankful words were written by Mrs. Ada R. Hart of Oregon, S. D. "Was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs; cough set in and finally terminated in consumption. I was given up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles. It has cured me, and thank God, I am saved and now a well and healthy woman." Trial bottles free at L. L. Elgin's, O. K. Wry's, R. O. Hardwick's, J. O. Cook's and A. P. Harwood's, and $1.00. Guaranteed or price refunded.

PREACHER IN POLITICS.

The Paris Christian church has granted Elder J. S. Seavey leave of absence for several weeks to make a number of speeches in the interest of his race for Auditor. He will speak in Hopkinsville Saturday, Oct. 7.

JOHN G. ELLIS. Popular Young Man Ready for Business in His New Store.

Mr. John G. Ellis, one of the most popular and widely known young men in Christian county, has opened a novelty store on Main street next door to Hardwick's jewelry establishment. Mr. Ellis has been receiving his stock during the past two weeks, opening and arranging the goods attractively. The house has been remodeled and repainted preparatory to its opening.

Mr. Ellis opened the doors of his store Friday and the establishment was visited by hundreds of friends and customers. He began with every promise of success and with the best and best wishes of so many warm friends as any man in Christian county can claim.

The shelves and show cases of Mr. Ellis' establishment are crowded with articles of ornament, utility and pleasure. The stock is infinite in its variety. It is impossible to enter the store without finding something that you have long needed in your household and neglected to buy. The most astonishing thing is that there is not an article in the establishment whose retail price exceeds ten cents. It is strictly a five and ten cent store, conducted by a gentleman whom everyone in this community knows and esteems. Mr. Ellis has engaged as assistants Misses Beulah Harrod and Clara Wilkins.

MR. HANNA RESIGNS.

Reports Steadily Increasing Sentiment For Good Roads.

Hon. O. M. Hanna, of Shelby county, who spoke here in behalf of good roads Tuesday, has resigned as lecturer. He will be succeeded by Mr. Robert Dula, of Bowling Green, who was here with him.

Mr. Hanna spoke on good roads before the latest State Commercial Convention, and as a result, he was sent out by the Commissioner of Agriculture, the Hon. Lucas Moore, to organize farmers' institutes all over the State. He is designated as Agricultural and Good Roads Commissioner, and Mr. Hanna appointed a President, Vice President and Secretary for each one. The entire matter is part of the State government, just as the Teachers' Institute is.

Mr. Hanna reports that the sentiment in favor of good roads is steadily growing all over the State.

country, regardless of politics, counted for anything. Gen. Oleson would have been removed from the command of the army in the Philippines long ago.

If the shortage of man's memory were not proverbial, the present senatorial of the civilized world against France, on account of the treatment of Dreyfus, would compel the abandonment of the Paris Exposition, in spite of the pardon.

Any foreigner conversant with recent events would be likely to give credence to the story that this administration has imperialistic designs upon the whole American continent; it is not surprising therefore, that the story should be causing excitement in Mexico and Brazil.

The alleged investigation of trusts, by the industrial commission, at Washington, was turned into a case of "the hot little battle," when the Standard Oil officials attacked vice chairman Phillips, of the Commission, who is connected with an oil company, and who was charged with trying to make a combination with the Standard Oil Trust.

The growing restlessness of the trust makers is strikingly illustrated in the last reported combination—a champagne trust. As long as the article mentioned was a necessity and not a luxury, the suffering people have had to supply, but champagne is not absolutely essential to the maintenance of life, and if the American laboring man puts his mind to it he can easily train himself to do without it and leave it out of his dinner pail as he goes to work in the morning. Then surely the trust promoters will see that they have gone too far.— Toledo Bee.

RIGHT TO DIE.
Justice Simon E. Baldwin, of the Connecticut Supreme Court, in an address on "Man's Natural Right to Death," before the American Social Science Association, took the ground that when a person is mortally ill it should be lawful for doctors and nurses to assist in and prolong his life and agony for a few days.

"Man has a natural right to die," said Judge Baldwin. "When death has set its seal on one, when life has nothing to offer but a prolongation of medical ethics compel doctors to fight for the brief prolongation of the useless, hopeless life? It should be made illegal for them to do so."

There are diseases which naturally end in a speedy death, but may be so treated as to lead to a protracted and suffering and weakness incompatible with any enjoyment of life or useful activity.

In advanced nations such diseases are of short duration. In civilized nations it has become the pride of many in the medical profession to prolong such lives at any cost of pain to the sufferer.

"The suffering, or at best the lethargic existence, is successfully protracted, but the body will soon fail and fall in the unavoidable functions forced upon parts of the body for other use, and death comes, to the relief of the dying and the living alike. To prolong a useless existence means misery to the patient and profit to no one but the doctor and nurse."

WE CAN RULE FINANCES OF WORLD.
In determining what a powerful force such a nation as the United States would have in establishing the parity of the metals, we must take into consideration the physical position that it occupies as to the monetary systems of the world. The silver-standard nations, which make their demands upon silver alone for currency, constitute one-fourth of the nations of the world in commercial importance. The one which is then divided into nations, one-fourth of which are upon the silver standard and three-fourths are upon the gold standard.

The United States alone constitutes in wealth, commerce and power at least one-fourth of the world. Let that power of the United States be transferred from gold to silver, and you immediately have the world divided into equal parts—one-half the nations in commercial importance making their demands upon gold—and thus we have an equal demand upon equal metals, which, according to the principle of supply and demand, must make an equal price.

Great as the government is, there is something still greater, and that is the people of the United States. We are the greatest producers and consumers on the face of the globe. Our 75,000, 000 of people are equal to 700,000,000 of the average of the balance of the world.

It is strange, but nevertheless true, that many Americans do not appreciate the great power and wealth of this country, and it is remarkable that in order to prove our high position among the nations we have to quote from foreign authorities. Mr. Mullin, an eminent statistician of England, a few years ago, in an article in the North American Review, analyzed the effective force and power of this country and made the startling statement that in 1900 the effective force of the United States was nearly equal to Great Britain, France and Germany combined. He said:

"If we take a survey of mankind in ancient or modern times as regards the physical, mechanical and intellectual forces of nations, we find nothing to compare with the United States."

BEAR THIS IN MIND.
It is contended by our opponents that bimetallism could not be maintained, because a year or two after introduction $1.00 an ounce, its production would be so great as to depress the demand of this metal. That reasoning as to increase of production could be applied to wheat, corn or other products

NARROW

Escape of Mile. Ida Le-Roy

FROM INSTANT DEATH.

Train Stopped Barely In Time To Save Her Life—Her
Leap.

Mile. Ida LeRoy, the daring young woman who will be one of the chief attractions of the great fair street fair in this city next month, had a remarkably close call last Thursday from instant death, just as she was completing a successful parachute leap at Milwaukee, where she is appearing at the State Fair.

The Daily Sentinel says: She landed on the railroad tracks outside the fair grounds just as a freight train was thundering by. Luckily the engineer saw the young woman's peril and stopped the train a few feet from her as she was making a rapid descent in the middle of the track directly before the snorting locomotive.

Mile LeRoy is a young woman about 22 years old, and has made thousands of successful descents, and while she has been a number of thrilling adventures, none so dangerous as the one she experienced yesterday. The accident had been delayed during the afternoon owing to rain that had to be made to the city alike, because the day before it had rained through an air train. It was therefore nearly 6 o'clock when the balloon went up. Higher and higher went the big gray ball, smaller and smaller grew. Then suddenly Mile LeRoy dropped from the ropes on which she had been galloping. She
