15 Are Killed In Ship Blast At Brest, France

422 Others Hurt As Nitrate Cargo Explodes, Burns

CAPTAIN IS CASUALTY

Brest, France, July 29—(AP)—Officials reported 15 dead and at least 422 injured in this port today from the explosion and fire that wrecked the ammunition-laden Norwegian freight ship Liberty yesterday.

Four of the injured died this morning, the French ministry of marine said. Badly injured and hospitalized at nearby Landerneau were 46 others, five of whom doctors termed critical. In addition, Poncelet Hospital reported it had treated 376 for cuts and bruises inflicted by flying debris.

Hundreds more were severely shaken when the nitrate went off with a shattering blast that smashed in building fronts along the sea front, set off an explosion in the city's gas system, fired a gasoline storage tank and demolished lines of communication.

Most of the dead were described as dock workers or seamen. The fatalities, however, included one unidentified woman about 30 years old. The crew of the Liberty had been taken off before the vessel's cargo exploded, but her captain was reported fatally injured when struck by a flying piece of metal while standing on shore.

Fires started by the blast still were burning today. Much of Brest had been destroyed by aerial bombardments during the war and many of the buildings in the business district consisted of pre-fabricated one-story wooden structures that went up like matchboxes.

Paris newspapers estimated the death toll as high as 23. The explosion occurred as the American-built Liberty ship was being towed out to the Roadstead after an unsuccessful five-hour battle to extinguish a fire discovered in her hold as she lay alongside a dock waiting to discharge her cargo.

The blast rocked the entire city, many of whose residents had fled to the hills in response to warnings.

(Reports from Falmouth, Eng., 120 miles from Brest, said a fairly sharp earth tremor was felt there yesterday which shook doors and windows, and the British Press Association speculated that the Brest explosion might have been responsible.)

Smithland Man Drowns In Ohio As Family Watches

Paducah — William Ansel Tracy, 39, Smithland, was drowned at 4:30 p. m. Sunday in the Ohio river above Birds-eye, Livingston county.

It was reported that Tracy, his wife, their only daughter, Janet Connor Tracy, and a little girl friend of the daughter had climbed on a sand bar after leaving a boat. While Tracy was seeking for minnows, the boat drifted off the sandbar and he swam out into the river to recover it.

He sank in the water in view of his wife and children, none of whom was able to swim. The body was recovered four hours later.

Kaiser Says "Smear Campaign" Directed At Him As Senate Investigates Wartime Plane Contracts

Washington, July 29—(AP)—Henry J. Kaiser protested at a Senate investigation of his wartime dealings with the government today that a "smear campaign" has been directed against him.

"I have never in my entire history had such a smear campaign directed against me," the West Coast industrialist told a Senate War Investigating subcommittee as it prepared to hear his story of his $18,000,000 wartime cargo plane contract.

Before Kaiser was permitted to testify, Senators Ferguson (R-Mich.) and Pepper (D-Fla.) clashed sharply over the procedure to be followed.

Kaiser had prepared a statement on his contract but Ferguson announced immediately after Kaiser was sworn as a witness that he wanted to ask some questions.

The statement, which Kaiser already had given to newspaper reporters, declared his plans to build a vast fleet of cargo-carrying airplanes—and thus thwart Hitler's submarines—got a "clever, mysterious kiss-off." "Can't you find out why?" the statement asked the Senators.

When Ferguson started to ask questions, Kaiser said he would prefer to be allowed to read his statement first and then answer questions.

"I'd rather ask you a few questions and then we'll make your statement a part of the record," Ferguson said.

Pepper, a subcommittee member, objected.

He said if Kaiser were permitted to proceed in his own way it would give him a "fairer opportunity to present his story."

The industrialist and wartime shipbuilder was called to testify as the committee opened its second day of public hearings into some $40,000,000 worth of plane contracts awarded to Kaiser and Howard Hughes, millionaire movie producer.

No planes produced under the contracts are in use by the armed service.

In his statement to the committee, Kaiser categorically denied: 1. That he put "the heat of Hell on Washington" to build the cargo planes as Secretary of the Interior Krug declared last week.

2. That he was present at any of the parties at which Hughes entertained high government officials.

3. That Elliott Roosevelt, son of the late President, had anything to do with the letting of the cargo plane contract.

"This committee is welcome to question me in detail about Hollywood glamor or blondes, but the only girls I know about are the patriotic women who left their kitchens, entered war industries and did an unforgettable job toward winning the war," Kaiser asserted.

"Referring to sensational rumors preceding this investigation I want to state that I do not recall ever having met Elliott Roosevelt, and I never have had any business relations with him."

Marietta, O., July 29—(AP)—Dr. William Allison Shimer, president of Marietta College, today had a statement from the school's trustees declaring he had been asked to resign because of his divorce and remarriage.

Two weeks ago while on a wedding trip in Canada he received a letter demanding his resignation. Returning here, he requested an explanation.

The trustees sent him a letter yesterday stating, "The reason was simply your separation, divorce and remarriage. The board was not concerned with the pros and cons of the divorce. It believes, however, that the way of life of a college president must be an inspiration to the students and a model both on and off the campus for all to live by."

Dutch Report Some Sabotage

But Situation Favorable Generally, Army Declares

Batavia, July 29—(AP)—Dutch military authorities, busily extending their hold on the rich resources of Java and Sumatra, today reported scattered instances of republican sabotage in oil field areas and elsewhere but said that the general situation was "developing favorably."

The republic's air force, reported at the outbreak of hostilities to consist of about 40 Japanese planes, was declared in a broadcast Indonesian communiqué to have bombed Dutch positions in Semarang and Salatiga and returned unharmed.

Semi-official Dutch dispatches said seven persons were killed and seven wounded by the bombing and strafing of Semarang.

Hundreds of fires, set as part of the Indonesian scorched earth policy, crackled across the rice lands and rubber plantations of southwest Java.

The Netherlands army meanwhile said its casualties had reached 50 killed, 86 wounded and nine missing—a total of 145—since hostilities began July 20. (General Soedirman, Indonesian commander, Saturday estimated Dutch losses at 9,000. His army reported 763 soldiers in Dutch service surrendered yesterday.)

The Dutch military, issuing two communiqués, said that in the captured north Java port of Tegal, some 35 miles east of Cheribon, a bank, a power station and half the docks had been destroyed.

(A republican communiqué issued in the Indonesian capital of Jogjakarta said a Dutch warship bombed Pekalongan, 30 miles east of Tegal, Saturday.)

Waterfield Motorcade Begins Swing Thru District July 30; Will Be Here At 2:30 Friday

WANTED: A TIDAL WAVE

July 25, 1947
Box 3609
University of Kentucky
Lexington, Kentucky

The Editor
The Fulton Daily Leader
Fulton, Kentucky

Fellow Fulton Countians:
My home is on the Hickman-Fulton County line near Crutchfield, but I am a law student here at the University and this summer I am in Lexington which is in the heart of Waterfield's opposition.

The reasons for such opposition are as follows. The home office of the Kentucky Utilities Company is located right here where 75,000 people live. The Editor of the Lexington Herald is Tom Underwood who is also Earle Clements' State-Wide Campaign Manager. The race horse industry is firmly established in this immediate area, and they are against Mr. Waterfield because of his proposal to tax the winning tickets at the race tracks. About every machine politician known in this vicinity, as well as in all Kentucky, is behind Mr. Clements, and he proudly admits it. In short, everything connected with special interests and political dictatorship will see that the people have their choice defeated at all possible. This means that every underhanded trick available will be tried, and several Clements backers are openly bragging about it to me and others.

The Clements supporters, along with the boys who are putting up large bets that he will win, are relying on the possibility of an over-optimistic attitude of you people west of the Tennessee River. The eyes of other Kentuckians are upon you. They are counting heavily upon the interest that you show on August 2nd. Bad weather must not keep us away from the polls, because the machine boys will get their vote out regardless of the weather.

Mr. Underwood has said that nothing short of a tidal wave of opposition can defeat Clements. Well, he asked for it and let's give it to him.

Yours truly,
Jennings Kearby

France Asks Reds To Help Enforce Sec. Marshall Plan

Lake Success, July 29—(AP)—France made a new appeal to Russia today to join in implementing the Marshall plan.

The appeal was made by French Delegate Georges Boris as the United Nations Economic and Social Council launched a general debate on the economic commission for Europe.

Boris said distrust between Russia and the western powers was paralyzing European economic recovery. He blamed the failure of the recent three power conference in Paris on this distrust and urged that the big powers make every effort to develop "freedom from distrust."

Efforts Made To Have Large Vote On Aug. 2

OFFICIALS NAMED

The Harry Lee Waterfield-Governor motorcade will begin its swing through the First District tomorrow, July 30, just three days before the August 2 primary election in which Fulton countians will vote for their next governor, lieutenant-governor, secretary of state, attorney general, auditor of public accounts, state treasurer, superintendent of public instruction, commissioner of agriculture, railroad commissioner and in the city of Fulton six members of the city council.

Election officials for each precinct in the county have been named by the county board of election commissioners. Sheriff A. G. Wynne, Kent Hamby (Democrat) and C. P. Freeman (Republican).

County Court Clerk C. N. Holland said yesterday that there are 6,609 registered Democratic voters in the county, 645 Republicans, and a few independents.

All candidates are intensifying their efforts to "get out the vote." The Waterfield campaign workers are especially anxious to have a large vote in Fulton county and throughout the First District, since they believe the margin of victory for their candidate may well lie in the support he receives in his home district.

The Waterfield motorcade is scheduled to leave Paducah Wednesday morning at 9:30 a. m. and go to Kevil, L. Center, Barlow, Wickliffe, Bardwell, Arlington, Milburn and Fane Farm, where the candidate will be heard in a radio broadcast at 3:30 p. m. Earle C. Clements, another Democratic candidate for governor, will speak at the annual Fane Farm picnic prior to Mr. Waterfield's address.

All Fulton countians who can attend the picnic and hear Waterfield's speech are urged to do so.

Waterfield's motorcade then will go to Benton for a speech at 8 p. m. Wednesday. The group will leave Benton at 9:30 a. m. Thursday, and visit Smithland, Salem, Marion, Fredonia, Kuttawa, Eddyville, Princeton, Hopkinsville and Cadiz later in the day.

Friday the motorcade leaves Cadiz at 9:30 a. m. and is scheduled to arrive at Hardin at 10 o'clock. Many Fulton county cars are expected to meet the motorcade there and accompany it through the western part of the First District. Those who can furnish cars for this trip or who wish transportation, are asked to contact Maxwell McDade, Phone 82, or W. L. Holland, Phone 129, as soon as possible.

From Hardin the Waterfield parade will go to Murray for a talk at 11 a. m. Farmington at 11:30, Mayfield at noon, Wingo at 1:30 p. m., War Valley at 2 p. m., Fulton at 2:30 p. m., Hickman at 4 p. m., Clinton at 8 p. m., for a state-wide broadcast.

The Ultimate Challenge

It has been said that hunger and cold are communism's most efficient allies. That aphorism underlies the present United States foreign policy, with its emphasis on material aid to nations threatened by Soviet diplomatic and economic aggression.

France is a perfect example of this. France must have two basic materials from the United States—and if she doesn't get them from us, the way will be paved for her complete descent into totalitarianism. One of the commodities is wheat—France's own crop will be only about one-fifth of her normal prewar crop. The other commodity is coal—and, to quote a Life editorial, "Coal for France means the difference between just getting by and utter industrial collapse."

Fortunately, the United States will have a bumper crop this year, and tilling France's requirements will not be an excessive drain. Coal, however, is another matter. We have plenty of it in the ground. But it cannot be used to aid France or to serve ourselves unless the miners get it out. To quote Life once more, "The man who burns coal in Main Street must understand why he must conserve just as clearly as John L. Lewis must understand the necessity of avoiding a coal strike." If we fail to deliver the coal, we will be playing straight into the hands of the communists. If France ever enters the Soviet orbit, the iron curtain will soon cover all of Europe.

What this amounts to is that American materials are now a diplomatic weapon. If the greatest democratic power in the world cannot succor distressed peoples, stricken nations will turn to the greatest dictatorship in the world, and the cause of human freedom will be irretrievably damaged. Here is the ultimate challenge to American industry—and to American labor.

Infant Possibilities

The sensations of an American father holding his two-weeks-old son are many and varied. This creature, so small, so soft, coming defenseless into a world that can be cruel and merciless, makes him think of the refugee children of Europe. Every child is entitled to this one's heritage of loving care, suitable food, a well-planned education. Men, in their stumbling way, are working toward that end.

What the father sees is not his son's likeness to grandfather or uncle, but his likeness to every other child who has ever been born. Hitler, hard as it is to imagine, once had this endearing softness. Jesus of Nazareth grasped Joseph's thumb with the same tiny tenacity. In this round, fuzzy head may repose the brain of an Einstein or the strangely convoluted mind of a tyrant.

It is a wonder, the father thinks, that anyone dares to have a child. But in the fact that they keep on coming, with all their infinite promise, lies the hope of the world—Frankfort State Journal.

Our Readers Say—

"The following letter from veteran students at the University of Kentucky was sent originally to the Kentucky editor, Cincinnati Times-Star, Cincinnati, O.:

As veterans at the University of Kentucky, with overseas service in the recent war, and Democrats interested in the welfare of our State and Party, we should like to take this opportunity to urge the young Democrats of Kentucky to vote in the coming August primary.

We recommend that serious consideration be given the choice a voter makes between Mr. Clements and Mr. Waterfield. The decision to support any candidate should not be based on the fact that a particular candidate is a veteran of any war, because being a veteran does not necessarily qualify a person for the high office of governor of Kentucky. It is our belief that a candidate should be elected on his record, his program and the quality and character of his political associates and supporters.

We have examined the record. We know that while we were overseas Harry Lee Waterfield, prevented from entering the service by a physical handicap, was lighting the efforts of Earle Clements and the Kentucky Utilities Company to destroy E. E. A. and T. V. A. in Kentucky. We realize that the prosperity of Kentucky rests on the well-being of its farmers, miners, and working people in the hundreds of small communities in the State and that any force harmful to them threatens the welfare of all of us. We believe the influence of Mr. Clements in the Kentucky Legislature represented such a force. We view with pride the successful fight waged by Mr. Waterfield against those efforts and understand

Coal Vital In Europe

By Dewitt MacKenzie,
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

The vital part which coal production is playing in the European economic crisis, and consequently in the turbulent political situation was well emphasized by two developments during the week-end—one in England and the other in Germany.

British Foreign Minister Bevin in an impassioned appeal to his country's workers in general, and to the coal miners in particular, warned that they must produce more or risk the fall of the socialist government and a weakening of Britain's position in world affairs. Increased production, he said, would enable the country to give foreign credits which would help diplomacy.

He was addressing thousands of miners whose production is the key to England's economic recovery.

"My God, working men and women," he cried, "This is the first labor (socialist) government you have got. Don't let it fail, for the sake of generations to come. Your labor government is carrying on in foreign affairs without the tools to do the job and it must be helped out."

That's strong and must unusual language to come from a cabinet minister, but it doesn't exaggerate the dangers of the situation in which the government finds itself as it struggles with England's first all-out experiment in Socialism. The government maintains that it has been caught in a rush of war-born circumstances which it hasn't been able to control thus far, while Bevin's predecessor in the foreign office, conservative Anthony Eden, said in an address Saturday that labor has divided the nation when a united effort is needed.

Be that as may, British conservatives are saying that unless production is increased the people will suffer hardships which will impel them to turn out the Socialist government and elect new leaders. Bevin noted in his speech that such talk was going the rounds.

The German incident related to the Ruhr hard-coal production upon which the economic recovery of the continent depends so heavily. The output is so far below requirements that the situation is critical.

In an effort to remedy this, the British and American occupation authorities have revised a plan which is calculated to give the miners an incentive for digging more coal. This is a bonus in food—a matter of moment among people who have been going on short rations. Folk who are hungry think with their bellies.

The authorities have set a target for production in each mine, and if the workers reach the goal in the eleven weeks, beginning today, each will receive a "ten-in-one" ration package from U. S. Army stocks—the equivalent of 40,000 calories. In addition, the men in the mine showing the highest production will get an additional 40,000 calories.

clearly that we, as veterans, owe him a debt of gratitude.

We have read the program advanced by the two candidates. We fail to see a progressive element in the vague generalities advanced by Mr. Clements. We accept with approval the program advanced by Mr. Waterfield, based on extended State services in the badly needed fields of education, public health, assistance to the blind and old, rural roads, R. E. A. and conservation. We endorse the proposal that all interests shall bear a just and equitable share of taxes, including the multi-million dollar horse racing and gambling interests.

A great factor in our decision has been the character of the supporters attracted to the two candidates. We have viewed with suspicion the alignment of old discredited political bosses behind Mr. Clements. We have been unable to reconcile our conception of government for the people with the picture of such special interests as the Kentucky Utilities Company and the Racing Industry supporting Mr. Clements. On the other hand, we have seen the common people of this state enrolled under the standard of Harry Lee Waterfield. We have seen community after community where the progressive elements backed Mr. Waterfield, while the courthouse politicians were for Mr. Clements. Our decision to support Mr. Waterfield has been more than justified by this alignment of interests.

In view of these facts, we again urge the young Democrats of Kentucky to consider the record of the candidates, their program and supporters. In casting their vote this August, we feel confident such consideration will elect Harry Lee Waterfield as our next governor.

In Kentucky

Lexington—Richard Fisher and Archie Roberts, Lexington war veterans, were credited today with bringing under control a fire that caused $500 damage to the Christ the King Roman Catholic church in the eastern section of Lexington.

Hopkinsville—Four men were at liberty today on $300 bond each pending action of the September grand jury on charges of maliciously maiming Mrs. Myrtle Young, 32, wife of J. L. Young, Hopkinsville businessman. They were listed as J. W. Witty, 26; James Hammonds, 23; and Marion Smith and Jack White, both 21. The men waived hearing in county court and were ordered held on bond for the grand jury. Mrs. Young was struck in the face, as she drove the Young's car, by a beer bottle tossed from a passing auto. Authorities expressed fear she would lose the sight of one eye.

Jenkins—Ending a work stoppage, the first of nearly 1,500 miners at three pits of the Consolidation Coal Company began returning to work yesterday. Personnel Manager J. H. Hendry said all the miners were expected back on today's shifts. Cause of the stoppage was not disclosed officially.

Paris—(AP)—France has restored 99 per cent of her inland waterway transport since the war. J. Dubreuil, chairman of a French transport committee, has announced.

Of 12,000 boats on inland streams, 2,000 were destroyed during the war, he said.

He pointed out that the inland system's 3,700,000 tons was 900,000 tons more than the seagoing merchant marine and that Paris's port traffic of 14 million tons surpassed even Marseille's eight million tons of goods handled.

Sports Roundup

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.
New York, July 29.—(AP)—Judging by the entry lists for the national junior and boys tennis championships, the stream of young players that has made Southern California synonymous with top-flight tennis has just about run dry. Only five of the 90 entrants in the junior division hail from California and only one, Matt Murphy of San Francisco, is seeded. . . . In the boys' group Robert Perry and Conrad Woods of Los Angeles are seeded one and three and five others are in the field. . . . From the looks of this tourney, Texas may take the place of California as the birthplace of racket stars. . . . Anton Raadik, Estonian middleweight who makes his Garden debut Friday, and Sweden's Olle Tandberg both were members of the European Golden Gloves team that fought in Chicago in 1939.

Dade Park Ready For 600 Horses On Opening Day

Dade Park, Ky., July 29.—(AP)—Officials of the Dade Park Jockey Club reported today about 600 horses—the stables' capacity—are expected to be on hand for the opening of Dade Park's summer race meeting Saturday. The 26-day session, which closes Labor Day, Sept. 1, will be Dade Park's 24th meeting. Eight races are on Saturday's card, featured by the $1,500 Inaugural Handicap. The handicap is a six-furlong sprint for three-year-olds and upward. Minimum purse for the other races on the initial program is $900.

James S. Ellis, president and general manager of the Dade Park Jockey Club, said he is well pleased with the large turnout of horses for the meeting. . . . The Football Giants, always noted for their strong lines, think that this season they may have the best two lines in the National Football League.

END OF THE LINE
Bob Cheneas, the San Francisco pitcher, is one of the first baseball players invited to compete in Cuba next winter under the new agreement with organized American baseball. . . . Indiana's Bo McMillin is happy to hear that George Tallaferrro, 1945 freshman star, is out of the Army. Says Bo: "George probably won't run over every one like he did in 1945, but unless he's lost some of his cat-footedness, he'll gain a little ground for us."

Sharp Price Drop Seen In Yearling Sales At Keeneland

Lexington, Ky., July 29.—(AP)—A $3,612 drop in average price from last year's opening figure was recorded as the annual Keeneland thoroughbred yearling sales got under way here yesterday and last night. . . . A total of 111 head brought $778,500, averaging $7,014, compared with last year's opening average of $10,626.

The downward trend was evident when the big consignment of A. B. Hancock's Paris, Ky., nursery brought an average of $7,494, compared with $11,987 last year. He and his associates auctioned 34 colts and fillies last night. . . . In sharp contrast, "Hancock Night" last summer brought sales at $50,000 and more. ## Hoppers Win 11-10 In 2nd Extra Inning Chix Come Home To Play Colts

Despite an 11-10 defeat in the eleven innings at Hopkinsville last night, Fulton's Chicks retained their precarious grip on third place in the Kitty League standings, seven games out of first and a scant half game ahead of Madisonville.

The Chicks tied up last night's game at 8-9 in the eighth inning. Both teams failed to score in the ninth, each got one in the tenth, and the winning Hoppers marker came in the eleventh. . . . Manager Spaul grounded out to start the Hoppers' half of the eleventh inning. Chapman tripled to left field, and Secrest and Stank were walked. . . . Foster went in to hit for Spaul. The Hoppers pulled their lead wider to 11-10 when they scored on a play to right. . . . Chapman was tagged the plate before the Chicks could field the ball.

Manager Freddy Biggs relieved Engel on the hill for the tenth and was charged with the loss. Engel was reached for 14 hits in 9 innings. Gambel, Hopper reliever, got credit for the win. . . . The inevitable home runs were reduced to three last night—by Gray, Scalzi and Secrest. This brought the total of four-baggers for the three-game series to 14. Newt Secrest, former Chick, also got a double and a triple last night. Jake Propst led the losers at the plate with four for six. . . . The Chicks play the Clarksville Colts at Fairfield Park tonight.

44 ways To get "Something for Nothing"

The railroads have received 44 "rules" demands from the leaders of the operating unions . . . representing engineers, firemen, conductors, trainmen and switchmen. They say they are seeking only changes in working conditions—not a wage increase.

More Money For Less Work
But what kind of rules are being asked for? Twenty eight of them would compel railroads to pay more money for the same, or less work; 7 would require additional and unnecessary men to do the same work; the rest would bring about changes in operating practices at increased cost.

For Instance:
The Union leaders demand additional train and engine crews on Diesel-powered trains—one full crew for every power unit in the locomotive. A freight train hauled by a 4-unit Diesel would have to carry 4 engineers, 4 firemen, 4 conductors, and at least 8 brakemen, or a total of 20 men instead of 5.

"Made Work"—Sheer Waste
The Union leaders demand that full-length freight trains be cut to about half their length, even though such trains are most efficient for low-cost service to you. This rule would call for twice as many locomotives, would double the number of trains, and make accidents more likely.

Additional equipment, yards, and other facilities required to take care of these short trains would cost hundreds of millions. What the Union leaders really want is to make more jobs. . . . The Union leaders demand that when a crew in one class of service perform incidental service of another class, they will be paid not less than a day's pay for each class, even though all service ductors and trainmen be reduced from 150 to 100 miles, which would have the effect of increasing their pay 50%. Such a run often takes only two or three hours!

You Can't Afford This Waste
Demands like these are against the interests of the whole American people, who depend on railroad service for nearly everything they eat, wear and use.

These rules would cost a BILLION DOLLARS annually—a gigantic waste which neither the railroads nor the country can afford.

Railroad workers are good citizens and good employees, with pride in their calling. Their record during the war was outstanding. We do not believe they fully understand the "featherbed" rules which the Union leaders are demanding. We do not believe they understand the harmful results which these rules would have to the railroad industry, to the millions of men and women dependent on railroads for their livelihood, and to the shipping and consuming public.

The great strength of America is in production—an honest day's work for an honest day's pay.

For only through greater production can we hope to stop the steady upward surge of living costs.

Surely, if ever there was a time in our history when we needed to work, not waste, this is it.

SOUTHEASTERN RAILROADS
We are publishing this and other advertisements to talk with you at first hand about matters which are important to everybody.
