BROADWAY

NEW YORK - The Big Street has never been more gay than for the opening of the latest and most immensely successful hit since "The Merry Widow." "The Gypsy" has entrances with sigh and a little goose step. The music is spirited, the dance is light and gay and the acting is ex spectacular. If you have never been to a musical comedy, this is the one to see. It is the story of a young girl who falls in love with a gypsy and leaves home to follow him. But when she finds out that he is really a common man, she returns to her home and marries a rich man.

The musical numbers are sung by a cast of 100 and the dance is performed by a group of 50 professional dancers. The show is directed by the famous producer, who has won many awards for his productions. The set design is by a famous artist and the costumes are designed by a famous designer. The show is a huge success and is running to sell-out houses.
