The Weather

FORECAST:
Kentucky—Partly cloudy with scattered showers and not much change in temperature tonight and Friday.

Mercury Goes Back to 100 F. After Showers

Paris And Cairo Weather Bureaus Report 104, 102

CROPS DOING WELL

A high temperature of 104 for the week just closed was reported today by the U. S. weather bureau station at Paris, Tenn., and the station at Cairo, Ill., reported a high for the week of 102.

Low temperature at Paris for the week was 63 and the average 85, while at Cairo the low was 69 and the average 86. Neither station recorded any rainfall for the period.

Fulton county was cooled off somewhat last night by the electrical storm and accompanying rain, but the mercury began climbing again early this morning.

Several instances of lightning striking houses and trees near Fulton were reported today. Jim Gibbs, who lives on Route 2, said lightning struck his house and ignited the wallpaper

PARIS MAN HEAT VICTIM
Tennessee's second death attributed to the current heat wave was recorded in Henry county, where 56-year-old Lucian Hilliard collapsed and died while operating an ice truck route in the Pine Hill community. The state's first death was reported at Chattanooga early Tuesday.

In an unused upstairs bedroom. He smelled something burning, but did not locate it until this morning. Then he found that the wallpaper had dropped on a bed and that the mattress had caught fire.

Rainfall all over the state was generally light during the past week, and the weather was mostly favorable for field work. Except for a little harvesting and threshing of oats still to be completed in northern and eastern counties, the harvest of small grains is complete.

The tobacco crop is considerably improved and is generally well cultivated. Blooming is general and some priming and topping are being done. Corn is in fair to good to occasionally excellent condition, and practically all of the earlier crop has been laid by. Some slight damage was done to corn and tobacco during the early part of the week by wind and hail in scattered sections of central and western Kentucky. Soy beans are generally good and pastures and forage crops are mostly good to very good, though some pastures are becoming dry. Much hay of all kinds and good quality was made during the week.

In the western counties peaches vary from good to excellent and picking and marketing are progressing well. Apples are rather spotted but average fair, and some picking of early varieties is being done.

By The Associated Press
Thunderstorms and cooling breezes cut further into the mid-west's worst heat wave of the year today after deaths from the four days of 100-degree temperatures had risen to at least 69.

"The heat wave is definitely broken at Chicago and all points north and west and is being broken eastward," the weather bureau said after a shower at Chicago early today tumbled the mercury from 81 to 72 within a few minutes.

Elsewhere, though, the forecaster said continued high temperatures could be expected today, particularly from south-eastern Michigan southward through Indiana, across southern Illinois and throughout the southern plains states.

At Joliet, Ill., about 40 miles south of Chicago, a brief but heavy downpour was accompanied by strong winds which blew down many trees and disabled the city's power system. Some houses and automobiles were damaged by the falling trees.

Fatalities as a result of the heat, including some drownings, included: Chicago 25, St. Louis 11, Wisconsin 11, Ohio 8, Iowa, Alabama and Arkansas three each, Louisville, Ky., two, Indiana, Pennsylvania and Tennessee one each.

Boy, 9, Drowns In Graves Pond

Visitor From Chicago Was In Water 25 Minutes Before Body Recovered

Mayfield—Ronald Guaneri, nine-year-old son of Mrs. Louis Guaneri, Chicago, drowned shortly before noon yesterday in a pond on the Ivo Hobbs farm, three miles west of Mayfield on the Pancy Farm highway.

Efforts of volunteers and physicians, who worked for two hours, failed to revive the youngster. He had been in the water 25 minutes when rescuers arrived.

The youth, his mother and younger sister were visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Carrieco, near Pancy Farm, and he had gone swimming with his cousin, Jimmy Hobbs, and another youth. When the Guaneri boy went under, the Hobbs boy ran to his home and summoned aid.

The boy's father lost his life in the European theater during World War II. In addition to his mother and grandparents, the victim is survived by a sister, Louise Ann, 5.

Her husband was the founder of the Ballard Yeoman, weekly newspaper published at Wickliffe.

Graves Jailer May Be Without Home If His Jail Is Sold

Frankfort, Ky. (AP)—If the Graves county jailer is deprived of his living quarters when the jail is sold, the fiscal court cannot increase his salary, the attorney general's office said.

State law requires that the jailer or one of his four deputies must reside within 40 yards of the jail, but the court need not furnish him lodgings, the opinion said.

The Graves county jailer lives in the jail, but the county is thinking of selling it. The opinion said the court could provide lodging for the jailer in the new jail if it wished.

S. F. Clinic Tomorrow

The Obion county nurse will conduct a clinic at the South Fulton school tomorrow, Aug. 8, from 10 a. m. to noon.

PLEADS INNOCENT—Actress Madge Meredith of the screen enters superior court in Los Angeles, Calif., where she pleaded innocent to charges of kidnapping, robbery and felonious assault, during her arraignment with three co-defendants. The complaint against the quartet resulted from a beating which Nicholas Giannacis, former business agent for Miss Meredith, says he received in the Hollywood hills.

WHEN TRAIN MEETS TRAIN—The Illinois Central railroad's "Green Diamond" passenger train and a Burlington railroad freight train collided near Litchfield, Ill. This aerial view shows the freight train's locomotive, upper left, went on and its tender was derailed. State police headquarters at Springfield, Ill., reported "at least 10 or 11 persons" had been injured. This picture was made by Lester Linck, of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Conservatives And Left Wingers Join In Opposing Attlee Plan

London, Aug. 7.—(AP)—Conservatives and left wing Laborites found themselves in the same camp today in opposition to Prime Minister Attlee's new program to avert economic disaster in Great Britain—calling mainly for sharp cuts in imports and increases in production for export.

The leftwingers were discontented because the announced reduction in Britain's armed forces under the new plan would leave more than 1,000,000 men under arms by next spring—far more than the reduced number they have been advocating ever since they attacked Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin's foreign policy last November.

The Conservative opposition blasted the Attlee program on the ground that it was "too little, too late." They made three specific points in their criticism: 1. They said the government was dealing with the crisis too hurriedly, at too late a time. 2. They said the plan was not detailed enough. 3. They said the government had failed to give the country a full statement of the peril it faces. Several London newspapers predicted the Conservatives would vote against the government tonight on the adjournment motion under which the crisis debate was being held. Such a step would constitute a protest without involving a vote of censure.

The Daily Express said disaffected Laborites had called on Hugh Dalton, Chancellor of the Exchequer, after a post-midnight meeting and added that Dalton "will try to appease these critics" when he speaks late today.

Attlee, in his grim and gloomy speech yesterday, told Britons that his program would mean less food, less gasoline, less wood for new houses, less goods in the stores, fewer Hollywood movies, and longer hours of work. He said it entailed "limited" labor controls, "some sacrifice" of personal liberty and Spartan hardship.

VA Making Survey Of Student Vets At State Colleges

A survey of all student veterans enrolled for the summer term in Kentucky colleges is being made by the Veterans Administration as part of a plan to expedite enrollment of veterans in schools this fall.

Veterans now enrolled under the G. I. Bill are being asked by VA training officers if they plan to enroll for the fall term and whether they will request accrued leave during the interim between the summer and fall sessions.

During the fall registration period, VA training officers will be present at educational institutions to assist in the registration and entrance of veterans into training. Training officers will determine that the proper VA forms are forwarded daily to the VA regional office to insure the prompt authorization of subsistence allowance.

Five coaches of the passenger train and six cars of the freight train overturned. The injured were taken from the wreckage through coach windows.

The Green Diamond, enroute to Chicago from St. Louis, carried 150 passengers.

Brewster Testimony "Is A Pack Of Lies," Angry Hughes Cries

Declares Senator Made Proposition For Airline Deal

BREWSTER DENIES IT

Washington, Aug. 7.—(AP)—Howard Hughes denied the lie at Senator Owen Brewster today and in a turbulent session before a Senate committee got the Maine Senator to acknowledge visits to a residence maintained here by Pan American Airways.

Brewster, on this part, steadfastly maintained that there is no truth in Hughes' charges that Brewster once offered a "deal" to call off the Senate investigation of Hughes' $40,000,000 warplane contracts.

Hughes said Brewster, a Republican, proposed to drop the inquiry by the Senate War Investigating committee if he (Hughes) would agree to a merger of his Trans World Airlines with Pan American.

Brewster denied that from the witness chair yesterday. Today, Hughes took the same seat and shouted to the Senators: "Pack of Lies."

Senator Brewster's testimony yesterday is a pack of lies and I can tear it apart if I am allowed to cross examine him," Brewster went back to the written questions Hughes gave to Chairman Ferguson (R-Mich.) of the Senate sub-committee.

In his replies, Brewster: 1. Acknowledged that he had eaten at least "three breakfasts in the last few months" at a special residence maintained here by Pan-American Airways as a guest center for officials and employees.

2. Agreed that Sam Pryor, a vice president of Pan American and former Connecticut Republican national committeeman is a close friend of his. That it was true that he had spent two Thanksgiving vacations of about one week each at a home Pryor had at Hobe Sound, Fla. Brewster said Pryor was not then a national committeeman. He purchased his own food and borne all expense.

3. Acknowledged that he once accepted free transportation in Pan American's special private airliner from Washington to Raleigh, N. C. He said he went to Raleigh to confer with the late Senator Bailey (D-NC) at Bailey's request about aviation legislation.

Brewster also repeatedly hit at Hughes' story of a "proposition" for a merger.

"It's Ridiculous" "The suggestion that I held a whip over Mr. Hughes is ridiculous," he declared.

The hearing was thrown into an uproar soon after the committee convened.

Chairman Ferguson (R-Mich.), presiding at the hearing under control of a subcommittee, demanded first of Hughes and then of Brewster if they had any written questions ready for each other.

Hughes, having some difficulty understanding Ferguson, asked his attorney, Tom Slack, what had been said.

Then Hughes asked to make a statement to "clarify my position."

Vote Valued Lightly

Less than half the registered Democratic voters in Fulton county were concerned enough about their state government for the next four years to go to the polls last Saturday in the primary election. Only 2,417 votes were cast. Over 6,000 Democrats' names are on the registration books. Granting that many of these names should be purged, we are allowing a minority of our voters to decide who shall hold office. The same apathy was evident all over the state.

A number of registered voters complained that they would have been forced to stand in line to receive their ballots and that they did not have the time to "waste." If this is the only reason for the light vote, it could be remedied. It would not be too difficult to speed up the voting, even without voting machines. But this is not the real reason why over half the registered voters were not present at the polls on election day. Many say "My vote won't make any difference." Others frankly admit that they aren't interested.

The controlled voters always are cast. It remains for the "independent voter to make his own decision and to express it with his ballot if we are to have a truly democratic government. We value too lightly our privilege of choosing those who will make and administer our laws.

Nothing For Scrapbook

Senora Peron, wife of the Argentine president, changed her mind and crossed England off the itinerary of her European junket. Probably just as well. With Britain's new cut in newspaper, the photogenic Eva would have missed out on all that expensive photographic coverage to which her semi-triumphal tour must have accustomed her.—Park City News, Bowling Green.

Butch Gets An Assist

Frankfort, Ky.—(AP)—Credit "Butch," pet fox at the state Game and Fish Division farm here, with an "assist" in hatching a quail. Three eggs being tested for incubation were found not quite fresh and were put in "Butch's" pen, the division reported. While foxes dote on eggs, "Butch" wasn't hungry. He buried them in shallow earth. The hot summer sun did its work and out came a tiny quail. Before "Butch" noticed the youngster it had wiggled through the wire netting and is now destined to be among quail used to stock farms and dodge hunters this fall.

There's probably nothing to this heat wave story—but we heard a fellow claim that all his hens had been laying hard-boiled eggs for the past three days.

Dollars For Socialism?

By Dewitt MacKenzie, AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin isn't one to compromise with convictions, as witness his reiteration of the Socialist government's policy of nationalizing the factories and mines of Germany's great Ruhr—a policy which the U. S. A. strongly opposes on the grounds that this is a matter for the German people themselves to decide.

One can admire—and surely cannot quarrel with—the constancy of Mr. Bevin. Still, it is given to wonder why he should find it necessary to emphasize such a highly controversial politico-economic issue at this tense moment in Britain's own economic crisis whose solution depends upon American largess.

After all, if even "heaven tempers the wind to the shorn lamb," surely John Bull might refrain from blowing the hot breath of socialistic nationalization down the neck of capitalistic Uncle Sam.

Now of course it would be presumptuous to the nth degree for an American to raise the point of whether Socialism is good for Britain, and this column doesn't refer to the subject in an argumentative way. That's for England to decide. However, in view of America's heavy involvement in the economic rescue of her ally, the question does arise whether British socialism is good for the U. S.

To get down to cases, there is a good deal of quiet uneasiness in the United States over the economic aspects of British socialism as they relate to international affairs. The situation worries the practical business man, who recognizes that it is the exercise of private initiative which has made his country the richest and most powerful of all time. He believes rightfully or wrongly, that complete nationalization of a country means totalitarianism and the death of private initiative.

We got an indication of this feeling when Congress was debating the British loan a year ago. Some congressmen wanted to know why U. S. dollars should be appropriated to save British Socialism.

Well, the matter of helping finance the Marshall program for European economic rehabilitation presumably will come up in Congress in due course. And the signs are that the legislature will be even more searching in its inquiry than ever before.

England knows all this and for that reason one would think she would go slow on demanding nationalization in a foreign country like Germany. Such insistence on spreading Britain's politico-economic program abroad is unhappily suggestive of an international crusade. It isn't particularly good promotion for aid from America.

It is the economic aspect of socialism, rather than the United States has made it quite clear that she wants to be helpful to her good ally in this crisis, but wants to do so without cutting her own throat.

Fire Fighters Busy In Spite Of Heat

Los Angeles, Aug. 7.—(AP)—Weary fire fighters fought grimly today against the still uncontrolled big Tujunga Canyon brush fire which has killed two men, injured or burned an estimated 75 and scorched 3,500 acres of watershed.

Now in its third day, one branch of the fire jumped the southeastern rim of Big Tujunga and licked down toward the town of Tujunga. This constituted the most serious threat to homes but water lines had been laid between the town and the fire five miles or more away.

The eastern flank of the fire was slowly coming under control. The northeastern offshoot was whipping toward the Condor Peak area.

Sports Roundup

By Jerry Liska (For Hugh Fulton, Jr.)

Chicago, Aug. 7.—(AP)—There is plenty of grumbling around the Windy City about the second-division floundering of the Cubs and White Sox, but the popular pilots of both clubs, Charley Grimm and Ted Lyons, still appear to be out of sniping range.

For one thing, both Grimm and Lyons stand solid with the boys who write pieces for the papers, because both are genial fellows who disdain double-talk and alibis.

If either has felt that a couple of real professionals would help his club considerably—which is only too obvious in both camps—he has refrained from publicly putting the squeeze on his front office.

Grimm's Cubs still are virtually the same club which won the 1945 National League pennant against war-decimated opposition and it's beginning to creak at the joints. The White Sox have a better blend of youth and veterans, but injuries and erratic pitching have taken their toll.

Old Halas U. better known as the Chicago Bears, also functions outside of the National football League. Owner-Coach George Halas had to send quarterback Nick Saccorini of Wake Forest the curricula of three Chicago medical schools before he signed a Bear contract. Saccorini will work for his medical degree while playing pro football just as did Dr. Danny Fortman and Dentist Bill Osmanski.

Babe Didriksen Zaharias, the queen of American and British golf, has announced that her next major tourney would be the National Women's Amateur at Franklin, Mich., Sept. 22-28, but don't count her out of the Women's Western Amateur at Evanston, Ill. That's the only important title which has eluded her. The Babe was whipped in the 1945 Western Amateur finals by Phyllis Otto, and last year she bowed to unheeded Mary McMillin of Green Bay, Wis., in the semi-finals. Babe may be thinking over those rare defeats while tending her Denver rose garden.

Chicks Get Scalzi's Goat

Madisonville Manager's Top Blows Off Easily

Harry Bolser, Courier-Journal staff writer, passes along a couple of stories about peppery Frank Scalzi, manager of the Madisonville Miners, and his troubles in Fairfield Park.

Hardcastle, Chicks pitcher, was in a hole pitching to Scalzi, the count being three balls and no strikes. On the next pitch Hardcastle cut one loose at Scalzi's head. It was an old-fashioned duster, and Scalzi hit the dust. "What kind of baseball do you call that?" the Miner skipper yelled.

Hardcastle said later, "I just didn't want to give him a chance to hit one of my 3-0 pitches. So I decided I would keep him loose up there even if I did walk him."

Another incident involving Scalzi, often the victim of practical jokes by opposing players, happened at Fulton. With a left-handed hitter up, Scalzi always moves over close to second base. Joe "Double Duty" Lis was on second. Every time Scalzi moved Lis would move directly in front of him, blocking his view to the plate. Finally Scalzi became so incensed he called time and asked Lis: "What the H—kind of county fair baseball do you call that, Lis?" To which Lis replied: "The kind that gets your goat and makes you nervous."

Jews Halt Work For Three Hours To Protest Arrests

Jerusalem, Aug. 7.—(AP)—Jewish leaders decreed a complete three-hour work stoppage this afternoon in protest against the internment by British authorities of three Jewish mayors and some 40 other Jews for the avowed purpose of checking terrorism.

Violence continued meanwhile. British authorities announced that 12 oil tank cars were wrecked by a mine explosion at Ras Ain, between Tel Aviv and Haifa. The blast ripped up 300 yards of railway track, but caused no casualties, the announcement said.

An extraordinary meeting of Vaad Leumi (the Jewish national council) and other leaders decided upon the work stoppage in the Jewish areas of the Holy Land. They ordered all Jewish traffic halted and, all Jewish shops, restaurants and places of amusement closed from 2 p. m. to 5 p. m.

Indonesia Asks U. S. Mediation

Want Help In Settling Two-Year Dutch Dispute

Batavia, Java, Aug. 7.—(AP)—The Indonesian government asked the United States today to use its influence with the Netherlands and the United Nations Security Council to mediate Dutch-Indonesian conflicts.

The statement, broadcast in the name of Republican Premier Amir Sjarifoeddin over the Jogyakarta radio, was in reply to a United States offer of its "good offices" in mediating the dispute, in which an uneasy truce now prevails. The Dutch previously accepted the offer.

In effect, the Indonesian statement amounted to rejection of the United States as the sole arbiter of the controversy.

"The Indonesian government feels," the statement said, "that in view of the fact that two years of mediation and negotiation have failed to halt hostilities, United Nations arbitration is the only means to settle the matter."

Sjarifoeddin earlier said he hoped that such a commission would be made up of the United States, Great Britain, Australia, India, the Philippines and perhaps Siam.

Airplane Plunges Down Gas Flue, Killing 4 Aboard

Everett, Mass., Aug. 7.—(AP)—Thomas Mandell, 46, an official of the Carrier-Mandell Air Conditioning Corporation, plunged to a fiery death with two daughters and the pilot of a chartered plane when it shot down into a gas-fume chimney of the Beacon Oil Plant early today.

Police said the motor of the small craft apparently "conked out" over the big vent and "dropped in like a dead pigeon."

Perishing with Mandell, the son of George S. Mandell, former publisher of the old Boston Transcript, were his daughters, Anne, 22, and Harriet, 19, and the pilot, Nelson Pell.

Officers Go Up On Merit Only

Truman Signs Measure Abolishing Promotions By Virtue Of Seniority

Washington, Aug. 7.—(AP)—The Army's archaic system of promotion by seniority went out the window today with President Truman's signing of legislation setting up a permanent promotion-by-merit program for the Army and Navy.

One of the lengthiest and most-complicated measures enacted by the 80th Congress at its first session, the legislation is the outgrowth of months of study by committees.

In addition to setting up a new promotion system for the Army and tightening the Navy's existing advancement system, the bill cuts down on the number of high-ranking officers in both services and abolishes in peacetime the wartime rank of five-star officer. However, it does not effect the rank of the eight officers now holding five star rank.

Affecting directly or indirectly the status of an estimated 175,000 officers in both services, the legislation is intended to encourage the better-qualified men and to weed out through a process of elimination those advancement. Failure to meet the advancement qualifications twice in succession, authors of the bill said, will automatically drop an officer from the service.

Wall Street Report

New York, Aug. 7.—(AP)—Selected rails and industrials managed to edge forward in today's stock market although many leaders were stalled by light offerings.

Dealings were negligible from the opening on. The ticker tape frequently halted for a minute or so at a time. Mild irregularity ruled near midday.

American Woolen started on a 5,000-share block up a point, in the wake of a $2 extra, but eventually slipped. Supported at intervals were Republic Steel, Youngstown Sheet, General Electric, Johns-Manville, Santa Fe, Nickel Plate preferred and Norfolk & Western. Occasional stumblers were U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Chrysler, General Motors, Standard Oil (N.J.), Twentieth Century-Fox, Consolidated Edison, Northern Pacific and International Nickel. Bonds were uneven and cotton futures easy.
