Heat Wave May Cut Corn, Meat Supply Midwest Fields Dry And Parched; Need Rain Badly

ALL CROPS AFFECTED

Washington, Aug. 12—(AP)—Next year's meat supply hung in the balance today as the midwestern heat wave trimmed official forecasts of corn production and threatened to cause still further losses before harvest time.

Plagued at planting time by cool weather and floods, corn now has run into hot, dry weather which the Agriculture Department, in its regular monthly crop report, described as a "serious threat" to all crops in the Midwest.

Corn is the key to livestock and meat production.

A short crop this year would effect next year's output of meats and other livestock products.

However, for four months of this year and the early months of 1948 are expected to be large regardless of how this year's corn turns out.

The department forecast the crop as of August 1 at 2,659,959,000 bushels, a decline of about 111,000,000 bushels from its July 15 estimate. The later estimate did not take into account damage caused by the hot weather so far this month.

Officials have said that a corn crop of about 2,850,000,000 bushels would be needed to maintain meat production at this year's rate of 155 pounds per consumer. They added, however, that it is highly improbable that corn prospects would deteriorate enough to drop meat supplies to the pre-war average of 126 pounds.

Affected most by the short corn crop would be livestock farmers in eastern and southern areas who depend in full or in part on midwestern grain for their feed supplies.

Despite the gloomy corn outlook, the department painted a favorable picture of overall crop production prospects. Based on August 1 conditions, aggregate production would be two per cent above the 1942-46 average, and only two per cent below last year's record volume.

But continued unfavorable weather could reduce total production below the August 1 estimate, officials said.

The department said most of the largest winter wheat crop in history was harvested by the end of July, and that an earlier promise of a record total wheat crop is being borne out despite a slight decrease in spring wheat.

Production of all wheat was put at 1,428,000,000 bushels compared with last year's 1,355,715,000, the previous record. Officials said more feeding of wheat to offset prospective short corn supplies is likely during the year ahead. More could be fed and still allow record exports of this grain to shortage areas.

C. C. Parker Ends 21-Year's Service With Insurance Co.

When C. C. Parker, 109 Central, South Fulton, retired as agent for the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. on July 26 it marked the end of 21 years' continuous service with that company.

The word "continuous" is used advisedly, Mr. Parker says that he has never had a substitute on a working day during the entire 21-year period.

He retired at his own request, but retains the right to sell ordinary, health and accident insurance at any time if he chooses to do so.

Fred Gibson, Jackson, Tenn., succeeds Mr. Parker as the active agent for the insurance company here.

The Weather EXTENDED FORECAST:

Kentucky and Tennessee—through Sunday—Temperatures for the period will average above normal. Partly cloudy and humid weather with widely scattered thundershowers, mostly toward end of period. Precipitation totaling .25 to .50 of an inch.

Missionary Service To Be Held Aug. 14 At Fulton Church

A special missionary service will be conducted at First Church of the Nazarene Thursday, Aug. 14, at 7:30 p. m. Mrs. Florence Lockwood, missionary on furlough from Argentina, will be the special speaker. Accompanying her will be Mrs. J. A. McCammon, president of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Tennessee District, and Mrs. A. F. Soyars, first vice-president.

MRS. FLORENCE LOCKWOOD To Speak Here

The speaker was assigned to Argentina in 1938, where she has done a successful work. She is also an evangelist and speaker of ability. Something of the missionary program of the Church of the Nazarene will be presented in this service. The church, now operating on 23 mission fields, has raised a million dollars each year for the quadrennium now ending.

The public is invited to attend the special service Thursday.

U. S. Promises To Help Greece

Lake Success, Aug. 12—(AP)—The American delegation said today that the United Nations Security Council fails to solve the Balkan problem the United States is prepared to join with other countries to protect Greece "within the provisions of the charter."

Herschel V. Johnson, deputy U. S. delegate, gave this warning to Russia after charging before the council that Communist groups supported by Albania, Yugoslavia and Bulgaria hoped to set up a totalitarian regime in Greece.

"We do not consider that our obligations of the obligations of the United Nations are ended merely because the Soviet Union sees fit to use her veto to block constructive proposals desired by nine out of 11 members of the Security Council," Johnson said.

"It becomes all too clear that the veto is being used in defense of the aggressions of Yugoslavia, Albania and Bulgaria."

Police here said the accident occurred on U. S. Route 42, three miles north of Union, Ky. Pierce has been charged with manslaughter and the case is expected to go before the Boone county grand jury now in session.

Kenneth Pierce, 53, Louisville, said to be the driver of the Louisville firm's truck which collided with Bowler's car, was charged with negligence in Mrs. Bowler's petition.

Food, Clothing, Housing Price Will Be Investigated, Clark Says

Washington, Aug. 12—(AP)—Attorney General Clark today ordered an investigation of food, clothing and housing prices.

He instructed the Justice Department's anti-trust division to determine whether "conspiracies" exist "to maintain or to increase present prices in the food, clothing and housing fields."

Jail sentences, rather than merely fines, will be sought for any violators, it was announced. A Justice Department statement announcing Clark's action, said:

"Such conspiracies will be prosecuted criminally and in those cases the Justice Department will oppose acceptance by the courts of pleas of nolo contendere (no contest), and upon conviction of the defendants of the department will recommend jail sentences for the individual defendants and maximum fines against the corporations."

The statement said the investigation follows a three months study of the present price situation by Assistant Attorney General John F. Sonnett who took charge of the anti-trust division in May.

Clark feels, it was added, that "the soaring high prices now continuing in the food, clothing and housing fields, require that a new and more vigorous approach be undertaken in these fields."

Hence, it was stated, the decision to press for jail sentences for individuals violating the anti-trust laws.

Shortly before Clark's announcement, the CIO full employment committee had issued a call for a special session of Congress to restore price controls.

Paducahan Is Murder Suspect

Archie Verble Accused In Hammer Slaying Case; Now In Illinois Hospital

Paducah, Ky., Aug. 12—(AP)—McCracken county authorities today sought to return Archie Verble here from a hospital in Anna, Ill., to face a murder charge in the hammer slaying of Mrs. Opal Carrigan, 36-year-old mother of three.

Verble was transferred from a Cairo, Ill., hospital to the Anna institution yesterday after being admitted to the Cairo Infirmary Saturday, a few hours after Mrs. Carrigan was fatally beaten following a daylight chase down a McCracken road.

Sheriff Barkley Graham said "everything possible is being done to bring about Verble's removal to Kentucky."

Mrs. Carrigan regained consciousness only long enough to accuse Verble of the attack.

A murder warrant was served on Verble yesterday by Union county (Ill.) Sheriff E. W. Earl Batson and Graham. Graham said Verble answered, "I don't know" when asked his name and other questions by Batson. Verble's relatives reported they found him slumped over a steering wheel in his brother's driveway in Cairo Saturday and placed him in the hospital.

Obion Farm Group Picnic Held Today At UC Fairground

Union City—The annual Obion county Farm Bureau picnic was held today at the old fairgrounds at Union City, instead of at Turner Field, as originally planned.

Rep. Albert Gore, from the Fourth Tennessee Congressional District was the principal speaker for the meeting. His talk was scheduled at 2 p. m.

A barbecue dinner was served at noon to Farm Bureau members, their families and guests.

Trucking Firm Sued for $50,000 After Hiway Death

Covington, Ky., Aug. 12—(AP)—Central Truckway System, Inc., of Louisville was defendant today in a $50,000 damage suit filed in U. S. district court here by Mrs. Bess Bowie, Glencoe, Ky., in connection with the death of her husband, George Bowie, 50, in a traffic accident last June 25.

Kenneth Pierce, 53, Louisville, said to be the driver of the Louisville firm's truck which collided with Bowler's car, was charged with negligence in Mrs. Bowler's petition.

Police here said the accident occurred on U. S. Route 42, three miles north of Union, Ky. Pierce has been charged with manslaughter and the case is expected to go before the Boone county grand jury now in session.

Husband Admits Mutilation Slaying Of Wife In Detroit

Detroit, Aug. 12—(AP)—Senior Inspector Marvin Lane of the Detroit police said early today that Harold Trecki, 50, had admitted killing Mrs. Ivy Jean Trecki, 20-year-old woman identified as his wife, and cutting her body into five pieces.

Lane said officers obtained a "verbal" statement from Trecki after 11 hours of intensive questioning in the grisly killing. The middle-aged machinist and part-time cook had made no formal statement, Lane added.

The husband admitted, according to Lane, that he struck the fatal blow between 3:30 and 4 p. m. last Saturday, but insisted he hit the woman with his fist.

The inspector said Trecki gave no reason for his action, stating it would "look pretty crude" on paper.

HUGHES WRITES BREWSTER CRITICISM—Multimillionaire Plane Builder Howard Hughes sprawls along at a table in a deserted Senate office building hearing room writing his statement on the end of the War Investigating subcommittee's probe of his plane contracts. He said the hearings were stopped because Senator Brewster (R-Mo.) was "too cowardly."

BIRDWELL STUDIES ANSWER

Russell Birdwell, Hollywood publicity man, rubs his chin before answering a question in the course of a news conference in which he said that he will file a $1,000,000 libel suit against Noah Dietrich, Birdwell objects to testimony Dietrich, an official of the Hughes tool company, gave a Senate subcommittee inquiring into plane contracts awarded to Howard Hughes.

U. S. Convicts 31 At Dachau

All Accused Of Crimes At Nazi Horror Camp

Dachau, Germany, Aug. 12—(AP)—All 31 defendants in the war crimes trial of Buchenwald concentration camp operators were convicted by a U. S. military court today. Sentences will be pronounced Thursday.

Among the defendants was a pregnant woman, Isie Koch, the widow of the former commandant of the camp. She denied on the stand charges that she had made lampshades from the skin of executed inmates.

The notorious camp was captured by Americans in 1945. All the defendants, including many SS guards, were charged with violating the laws and usages of war by personal brutalities and the murder of prisoners of many countries. It is estimated the deaths at Buchenwald totaled from 150,000 to 200,000.

After the court president, Brig. Gen. Emil C. Keil, pronounced the verdict, the prisoners began presenting personal pleas for clemency.

Those convicted included a former American citizen, Edwin Katzen Ellenbogen, himself a Buchenwald prisoner who became a trusty assistant of the Nazis, and Prince Josia Zu Waldeck, former high SS officer who was the first German of royal blood to be tried for war crimes.

Investigators Said To Need Investigating Demos Cheerfully Say Hughes Probe Backfired on GOP

BREWSTER III Standard Printing Co. (S) cted

Washington, Aug. 12—(AP)—The sudden breaking off of the Howard Hughes investigation brought from a Democratic Senator today the comment that Republicans got "a political black eye" and from Senator Brewster (R-Maine) the retort, "that's a matter of opinion."

Senator Robertson (D-Va.) professed, with unfeigned pleasure, to detecting bruises on the G. O. P. political optic.

And another Democrat, Senator Murray of Montana, told reporters that what is now needed is an investigation of Senator investigations.

Murray said the two weeks of hearings by the Republican-controlled Senate War Investigating committee on Hughes' wartime plane contracts represented "just another example of efforts to smear every witness who takes the stand."

Brewster, who is chairman of the committee, commented in Maine that Murray "is trying to stop the War Investigating committee again."

As for Murray's "smear" comment, Brewster said, "that's also a matter of opinion."

Murray said he was serious in suggesting the Senate should investigate its own investigations.

"They didn't have anything to go on and were just depending on sensationalism," the Montana Senator declared. "The same thing has been going on before a lot of other committees."

Murray declined to predict his party's course, but there were indications that the Democrats will try again next January to kill off the War Investigating group, originally headed by President Truman when he was a Senator.

The committee's life was continued until Jan. 31, 1948, by a 49 to 43 Senate vote early this year in which Senator O'Daniel (D-Tex.) alone crossed party lines.

Senator Pepper (D-Fla.) said he and Senator O'Connor (D-Md.) scheduled to take place here today in connection with the murder charge against him in the slaying of John C. Martin, a game warden, near here last Thursday.

Meanwhile, Capt. Bert Feltner of the state Highway Patrol said a representative of a Detroit sporting goods concern was expected here today in connection with an accusation that Cornett stole goods while working for the company. Feltner said Cornett left Detroit four months ago and the firm, Lippman's Tool and Sporting Goods Company, had been searching for him.

National Forester Tells How To Save Kentucky's Woods

Lexington, Ky., Aug. 12—(AP)—A four-part program for the conservation of Kentucky's forests has been recommended here by Henry Sipes, assistant supervisor of the Cumberland National Forest.

In an address before a local club, Sipes urged better fire protection, an increase in reforestation, forestry education and fencing of cattle to protect young trees.

Sipes said Kentucky forests are being cut twice as fast as they are being replaced. He told his audience that removal of forests starts a chain of events which results in a heavy loss in fertile topsoil.

Bullet Fired From Passing Car Barely Misses U. City Minister

Union City—A pistol bullet fired from a passing automobile nicked the windshield of a car driven by Eugene Pitts, minister of the Union City Church of Christ, last weekend on the Fulton-Union City highway. Mr. Pitts said he believed the shot was fired when he flickered the headlights of his car in a request for the other driver to dim his lights.

Mr. Pitts, his wife and their two children driving toward Union City, met three cars coming toward Fulton, the minister related. The middle car pulled over to Pitts' side of the highway in an apparent attempt to pass the car ahead of it, then fell back in line. The shot was fired as the automobile was almost abreast of the Pitts car.

"We regard it as a lucky chance that the bullet was not fired a second sooner, when it almost certainly would have pierced the windshield, or a second later, when it would have entered the window of the car," the minister said.

remarking on the incident, a member of the Church of Christ congregation said to the minister, "If that bullet had hit you that would have just about been the end of us."

"And it just about would have been the end of me, too," quipped the buoyant Mr. Pitts.

The Urge To Be First

Bill Odom was responding to an urge which has long and mysteriously possessed men when he flew around the world to establish a new "fastest trip." It was the same urge that, latent in many men who stay at home, sold Jules Verne's fictitious story of Phileas Fogg's voyage of 80 days. It was the urge which made Nellie Bly a famous woman after her round the world tour of 72 days in 1889. It even obscured the fact that Nellie Bly wasn't her name (which was Elizabeth Cochran), but a pseudonym which her editor on the Pittsburgh Dispatch lifted from a Stephen Foster song.

We cannot say even that Bill Odom established a "world's record" by his flight of 73 hours and 5 minutes. No man has circled the globe in shorter time. But because there is no uniform globe circling route, and distances vary in consequence, the National Aeronautic Association lists under "Circuit of the world" the cautious notation, "no record established."

But if Odom's accomplishment is not measured in an official "world's record," and if, indeed, it seems like an empty effort to some men, it does adjust downward the conception of time and distance. It is only 23 years since U. S. Army airplanes spent 170 days (almost 15 of them actual flying time) in the same experiment. And the pioneer urge to be the first or fastest still is strong.—Courier-Journal.

Fire Is Always Imminent

Summer and early fall present special seasonal fire hazards which are of particular concern in small towns, forests, and agricultural areas.

Carelessness in the forests has destroyed millions of acres of magnificent timber—and has robbed the country of beautiful vacation spots. Under certain conditions, living trees become literally explosive. A large proportion of forest fires are the sole and direct result of carelessness on the part of campers, hunters and fishermen. The most extreme care must be taken in disposing of cigarette butts, matches and other inflammables. They must never be thrown from cars. And, when you are through with a campfire, take every precaution to make sure it is out. Soak it with water, then bury it in dirt.

In towns, grass fires are a constant source of trouble—and some of them have led to conflagrations. Every community should have and enforce a law requiring property-owners to keep grass cut and every property-owner should cooperate wholeheartedly. His welfare—and perhaps his life—is at stake.

On the farm, constant vigilance is the price of fire safety. Wide firebreaks should be ploughed around grain fields and haystacks. Barns and houses should be free of rubbish. Every care should be taken with gasoline and other burnable liquids. Most farms are far from fire departments and when a serious fire breaks out, heavy loss is inevitable.

The only way to lick fire is to work on the proposition that it is always imminent—and to act accordingly.

Registration Time

The period between August 12 and Sept. 5 is the best time for voters not properly qualified to register. It will be the only time for registration before the final election in November, and only those registered at the time of the November balloting can vote in the party primary elections next year.

If you are not registered, go to your county clerk's office and get on the books. If you have moved from the precinct in which you are registered, you can change your registration by mail or through a visit to the clerk's office.—Paducah Sun-Democrat.

World Watches Britain

By Dewitt MacKenzie, AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

The sensational nature of England's economic crisis, involving as it does the great experiment in Socialism, naturally centers world attention on her, but we shouldn't allow ourselves to be misled into regarding this as solely a British disaster.

Most certainly it is one of the momentous international developments of the post-war period. Upon Britain's degree of success in dealing with this emergency must depend largely whether the Western Democracies are able to hold their own against the westward sweep of an aggressive, empire building communism.

England's bad luck is a stroke of rare good fortune for the Red aim and its world revolution. Should the crisis worsen and be protracted, it might prove to be the Samson whose strength would topple the pillars of the already shaky politico-economic structure of Western Europe.

An already terribly weakened France would find it difficult, if not impossible, to keep her feet under such circumstances. French Socialist Premier Paul Ramadier in a speech Monday attacked the aspirations of Communism which he said tried through propaganda to change the meaning of the word "democracy." The fate of the small nations of Western Europe obviously is linked with that of France and England.

Prime Minister Attlee declared Monday Britain is "certain of victory," and the consensus of observers seems to be that this forecast is warranted. However, none can say at this juncture how long the unfortunate country must struggle along the tortuous trail of trial of harsh depression before it finally comes out upon the broad highway to recovery. Attlee himself minced no words over the seriousness of the position.

"We have to face now," he said, "before we have recovered from the effects of the war, and before our long-term plans have taken effect, the necessity of relying entirely on our own resources. This is a situation as serious as any that has faced us in our long history. We must, therefore, act vigorously and drastically."

The prime minister called on the country for a national effort comparable to that which was developed during the war. An estimated ten million radio listeners heard him proclaim:

"We cannot rest upon the help which our fellow members of the commonwealth have been and are giving so generously, and even though plans may be put forward by our friends in America to help bring prosperity back to Europe, we must stand on our own feet."

That is a realistic approach to a tough problem, but there are certain imperponderables to be dealt with. One of them is the strength of Attlee's leadership, which is being questioned by some of his own followers, especially the extreme left-wingers. It's quite possible that the economic crisis may be complicated by a political imbroglio.

A sizable rift has developed over the question of nationalizing the country's great steel industry. This nationalization was on the Socialist election platform but things haven't gone well because of powerful opposition from the steel interests. The left wingers insist on carrying out the program, and the political writer of the London Daily Express says major changes in the government may result.

THREE KILLED IN PLANE CRASH—The wreckage of a biplane (above) struck death and terror into a Sunday afternoon picnic crowd at Los Angeles, when the craft snagged a treetop and crashed, killing the pilot, George Potter, 33, and a woman bystander. A two-year-old girl who was sitting in her buggy was also killed. Hurt perhaps critically was the pilot's wife, Mrs. Brownie Belle Porter, a passenger in the plane. The body of the pilot can be seen in the wreckage.

Social Happenings

UNEDUS MEETS AT CHURCH MONDAY

The Unedus Circle of the First Methodist WSCS met Monday night at 7:30 at the church with Mrs. Thomas Exum, Mrs. H. H. Bugg and Mrs. Herman Drewy hostesses. Twenty-one were present including a visitor, Mrs. Hattie Wood, and a new member, Mrs. Hancock. Mrs. Howard Edwards had charge of the program and Mrs. W. S. Mischke gave the Bible study, "Mary and Martha." The meeting was closed with prayer. During the social hour the hostesses served delicious refreshments.

W. S. C. S. GROUPS MEET MONDAY AFTERNOON

All groups of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist church met yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Group A met in the home of Mrs. T. J. Kramer, Sr., and Mrs. E. E. Mount and Mrs. E. R. Jenkins were co-hostesses. Mrs. Fort Moore, chairman, presided over the meeting and Mrs. Kramer presented the lesson for the afternoon. The hostesses served Coca-Colas and strawberry shortcake to 16 members and one visitor, Mrs. Agnes Roberts. Group B met with Mrs. Edridge Grymes with Mrs. Warren Graham and Mrs. L. N. Gifford as co-hostesses. Mrs. R. M. Lynch gave the devotional and the lesson. Eighteen members were present.

Group C met in the home of Mrs. E. J. McCollum on Maple avenue, with Mrs. Edgar Bell as co-hostess. Mrs. McCollum gave the Bible study. The hostesses served sandwich plates to 17 members and one visitor, Mrs. Wood.

The East Fulton group met with Mrs. J. E. Hutcherson. Mrs. Dick Bandy gave the current Bible Study and Mrs. Eunice Robertson gave a reading. Nineteen members and one visitor, Mrs. McKeen were present. The Wesleyan Service Guild met for a picnic at the Country Club.

Holbrook, Jr., 5, and Davis Holbrook, 7, received cuts and bruises. Edison Holbrook, father of the children and driver of the car, escaped injury.

Frankfort—The attorney general's office has ruled that Kermit Dwyer, Reedyville, will not be violating the Hatch Act if he runs for the legislature from the 23rd House District, and at the same time serving the Butler county board of education as a veterans' teacher. Q. I understand that the government will guarantee up to $4,000 on a business loan. Is this correct?

A. It is correct if the business loan is for the purchase of business real estate property, but if the loan is for non-real estate property the maximum guarantee cannot be more than $2,000.

Q. How is the length of entitlement for education or job-training calculated and does a year of entitlement mean a school year of a calendar year?

A. Under the G. I. Bill, an eligible veteran generally is entitled to education or job-training for a period of one calendar year, plus the time he spent in service between September 16, 1940, and July 25, 1947. The total period of education or training may not exceed four calendar years.

Q. I have been drawing $57.50 each month from my $10,000 war risk insurance policy since my discharge from the Army after World War I. Are such payments discontinued when the $10,000 is exhausted?

A. No. Payments may be continued for the remainder of your life provided your total disability remains unchanged.

Q. Why do I have to pay two monthly premiums instead of one when I reinstate my lapsed GI insurance policy?

A. One premium is for the 31-day period following the date of lapse, during which the insurance was continued in force without payment of premium; the other is for the current month of the reinstatement.

Q. My son, a World War II veteran is in a VA hospital and I would like to know if I can visit him every day?

A. Yes. All VA hospitals have special hours set aside each day for visitors the same as civilian hospitals.

By Ewing Galloway

When I took on this job exactly 90 weekly articles ago I was certain I would never profit financially from it. But expounding the gospel of civic betterment caught up with me. The other day R. L. Hutchison of Hopkinsville called me on long distance telephone.

"We Hopkinsvillians are raising money to build a big public swimming pool, some tennis courts and other recreational facilities, and we need photographs to illustrate our fund raising literature." Whereupon I telegraphed to New York for the pictures.

Hopkinsville civic leaders realize the need of additional recreational facilities and are doing something about it.

Recently I drove 50 miles down U. S. 41 to Madisonville to see a Kitty League baseball game with Cousin Albert Galloway, who lives in that enterprising town, and when we went out to the ball ground I found it in the middle of one of the finest city parks in Kentucky, outside Louisville. About 100 acres of beautiful green hills, half covered with tall, slim oaks, with an 18-hole golf course, a club house worthy of a wealthy private club, three large lakes, barbecue pits, picnic tables, and winding backtop roads. The ball field, built by the city, has a concrete block wall all around it, and a grandstand to seat 3,000 fans. The city acquired the ground as a municipal watershed, and the lakes were built as reservoirs. The city now plans to pump its water from Green River and let the public use the lakes for boating and fishing.

Lady Astor Denies She's Unconcerned

New York, Aug. 12.—(AP)—Lady Nancy Astor denied today that she had said she did not care how many Jews were killed in Palestine.

She called "absolutely untrue" remarks attributed to her by ship news reporters who interviewed her as she embarked aboard the Queen Mary Friday en route to England after a visit to her native Virginia.

Ship news reporters insisted today she told them "you can quote me on that" when the alleged remark was made.

the fine school building in the eastern end of the city. It is a city-county high school serving all high school pupils in Breckinridge county. Buses serving consolidated grade schools haul high school pupils to Hardinsburg and back home. This and other central high schools in Kentucky are taking the place of small village high schools, partly because enrollments of small high schools are falling below the number required by law, partly because large centrally located high schools can do a better job than little schools. By paying larger salaries, the bigger schools can get better teachers. Also, large schools have better facilities generally.

It is impossible to figure exactly the increase in the cost of transporting high school pupils to centrally located county high schools that take the place of scattered district high schools, but it is safe to say whatever extra expense there is may be offset by economies in salaries, heat, and in superior instruction.

I photographed the Hardinsburg school, and as I was setting up my camera I wondered if the tightest tighwad in Breckinridge county ever growled about the cost of the institution after it was built. I'll bet you the price of a three-pound sirloin steak he didn't.

People sometimes complain about the cost of first-class public institutions before they are built. They all point with civic pride to them after they are built. Even the stingiest will do it!

Sports Roundup

By Bob Myers (For Hugh Fullerton, Jr.) Los Angeles, Aug. 12—(AP)—One point overlooked in Prexy Clarence (Pants) Rowland's clamor for major league status for the Pacific Coast League is this: He has focused national attention on the coast circuit and convinced a lot of people out here that the coast's Triple-A ball is practically major league—which it ain't, Chester.

TUESDAY'S INTERLUDE

It may be slightly disillusioning, but the day Cincinnati's Ewell Blackwell was trying for his 17th straight, his little hometown of San Dimas, nestled in the orange grove country near here, looked sound asleep. But don't think the natives aren't proud of Blackie.

Friends say Glenn Davis and Doc Blanchard weren't too happy about being ordered to play in the All-Star game at Chicago. Ordinarily, they'd have been all hopped up about the chance, but the Army only promised 'em 72-hour passes, which will hardly give them time to learn Frank Leahy's signals, much less afford them a fair chance to perform in their accustomed manner.

ANECDOTE DEPT.

Former fight manager-promoter Suey Welch tells of the time manager "Salor" Joe Stanley, a devotee at the time of spiritualism, sold his fighter, Eddie Stanley, on the idea, convincing Eddie that the departed pal named O'Rourke was always right with him in time of stress. One night during a fight at Ocean Park, with Eddie in both stress and distress, Joe reminded Eddie that his pal O'Rourke was with him, and Eddie barked back, "Okay, so maybe he is—but how about letting O'Rourke get out there and take a few of those punches?"

SCRAMBLED NOTES

Golfer Bobby Locke's appearance here was originally dubbed a charity affair. The description was dropped because Locke was promised a fee, but charity will benefit anyhow if there are any profits. Sponsors couldn't understand why it was improper for a golfer to get a fee for a charity match, the same as fighters, horsemen and other sports participants. . . . Road Secretary Eddie Branick of the New York Giants can run for mayor of Hollywood's Vine street any time he chooses. . . . Joe Louis, in agreeing to at least one more title match, apparently disregarded the advice of one of his closest counselors here, insurance executive Artie Stebbins.

Chicks Chase Chickens, Then Drop Second Game To Oilers

Owensboro's pace-setting Oilers nosed out the Chicks 5-4 in an exhibition game at Cordon's new ball park yesterday afternoon and went on a scoring spree in a regular league game at Owensboro last night to win 16-8.

The Oilers teed off on Musgraves for nine runs in the first inning of the nightcap after the Chicks got three in the top of the first, and went on to win easily.

A record paid attendance of 3,475 was on hand for the Oilers' massacre of the lads from the Purchase.

At this considerable distance from the playing field, however, it appears that the Owensboro club employed a deep, dark strategy to tire the Chicks players to the extent that they weren't up to par last night.

Who could play his best game after chasing hysterical chickens all over the back 40, or throwing from the plate at milk cans on second base, or chaffering umpires around in wheelbarrows, or winning foot-races with the fleetest of the Oiler crew? All this, and more, went on in the Owensboro park in a pre-game Radio Appreciation Night extravaganza. Perhaps the Oilers entered and cavorted as enthusiastically as the Chicks—but the 16-8 score seems to belie this possibility.

First on the extra-diamond activity list was the chicken chase. Players who got a buck apiece for each chicken caught were Buck, Gray, Rhodes and Engel. Rhodes and Fropst collected $5 and $2.50 respectively in a race with Owensboro's Neagle and Williams. Freddy Biggs skipper, loaded Guglielmo, crack Kitty umpire, into a wheelbarrow and tied Owensboro Manager Earle Browne, who had Umpire Mel Simons as his payroll, in a race from home to first and third, respectively.

Owensboro's Ferris stood in his accustomed spot behind the plate and beat Fulton's Joe Lis in chucking baseballs at a milk can on second base.

The Oilers topped off the Radio Night circus with races on kiddie bikes, won by Grass, and foot-propelled wagons, won by Joe Casey.

Top money winner on the Fulton team was Dusty Rhodes, who was $5 richer after all the races had been run and the last chicken had been caught.

The exhibition game at Cordon was attended by a number of diamond notables, including Commissioner A. B. "Happy" Chandler, Kitty Prexy Shelby Peace, FBA President K. F. Dalton, Happy Hogan, official Fulton talent scout, Ed Hannephlin, past president of the FBA; Earle Browne, Oiler manager and top batter in the minors last year.

Baseballs autographed by Chandler were auctioned at prices ranging from $3 to $5. All proceeds went to the park fund.

Pete Peterson was on the mound for the losers yesterday afternoon.

The box score on last night's game, which was to have been wired here by the Owensboro newspaper, had not been received at press time today. With the score 16-8, perhaps it's just as well the box didn't get here.

Ken-Tenn Meet Interest High; Set For Aug. 17 Big Entry List Seems Assured

Interest in the Ken-Tenn amateur golf tourney to be held Sunday Aug. 17, at the Fulton Country Club is running high and it appears that the affair will be much bigger than last year's meet in which 55 golfers, most of them from out of town, participated.

Already the Country Club has been assured by word or letter of entries from Dyersburg, Humboldt and Jackson, Tenn., and Paducah, Mayfield and Princeton, Ky.

The Mayfield golfers are finishing their city championship play one day early so that they can send a large group here Sunday. It seems now that the inter-city match between Princeton and Paducah will be held at a later date so that members from those towns can attend the big golf event in Fulton.

Fulton players who plan to enter are urged to play on Sunday morning if possible, so that the club may take care of the many visiting golfers.

In addition to the handsome trophy, now on display in the Ford Clothing store window, there will be a $25 Victory Bond awarded and 20 additional prizes, so that all players will have a chance to receive a worthwhile prize.

"Again, let us say that the need for caddies will be very urgent," the tournament committee declared. "We would like for the boys of Fulton to support us in this match, for after all it is not only a Country Club affair—it's something that will bring to Fulton many visitors, some of whom may see the city for the first time. Last year we received good publicity from the local newspapers and from the Paducah Sun-Democrat, and good publicity is good for our town."

U. N. OUTLINES SCOPE OF ASIAN ECONOMIC STUDY AP Newsfeatures Lake Success, N. Y.—A major step toward actual functioning of a United Nations Economic Commission for Asia and the Far East will be taken on July 7 with convocation of the group to formally draft its program.

Results of this session will be communicated to the parent Economic and Social Council, meeting later in July, and thence to the fall meeting of the General Assembly for final approval.

Meanwhile the commission will get a head start on the task of collecting information when it goes into session June 16 in Shanghai. Representatives meeting in China will concentrate on examining first hand the reconstruction needs of the entire area.

Initially, the scope of the investigation will cover British North Borneo, Brunel and Sarawak, Burma, Ceylon, China, India, the Indo-Chinese federation, Hong Kong, Malayan Union and Singapore, the Netherlands Indies, the Philippines and Siam.

through a glass darkly

There is a passage in the Bible that I love very much. To me it is the most beautiful thing that has ever been written. The words used are so well chosen that only to read them is to experience the meaning they convey.

LUCKY STRIKE presents THE MAN WHO KNOWS-

THE TOBACCO BUYER!

"FOR 25 YEARS I've been in the tobacco business, and year after year I've seen the makers of Lucky Strike buy fine quality leaf... that fine, ripe, mellow tobacco you can't beat for top smokin' quality."

FINE TOBACCO is what counts in a cigarette

FRED EVANS IS RIGHT!... And like him, scores of other experts... who really know tobacco... have seen the makers of Lucky Strike buy "fine quality leaf."

So remember...

L.S./M.F.T. LUCKY STRIKE MEANS FINE TOBACCO
