Ray Andrus Gets 69, Wins 2nd Ken-Tenn Tournament Sunday

Mayfield Man Given YMBC Trophy
Wilson Randell, Hickman, Hax 74, Ray Clonts In Third Spot With 77

66 Golfers From 11 States Compete
Ray Andrus, former Ken-Tenn champion, gave the race a push at the final hole of the 72-hole tourney Sunday by taking 69 strokes to win.

The tournament, which attracted 66 golfers from 11 states, was held at the Sunset Tourist Cottages Golf Course.

President W. F. O'Donnell said, "Mayfield has one of the most prominent organizations in Kentucky. This is another indication of what Mayfield can do in any competition." Randell, who shot 74, and Hickman, who took 77, were second and third, respectively.
