$7,600 War Fund Goal Set For Calloway County

Court House Meet Set for Oct. 11th; Special Speaker

Mr. Roscoe Adrien Schotman, who served as acting mayor of Batavia, the capitol of the Netherlands East Indies, is scheduled to address a mass meeting at the courthouse in Murray at 8:30 p.m. Wednesday, October 11, in behalf of the 1944 War Fund Drive. Following the address of Mr. Schotman, an organizational meeting will be held for the distribution of materials and final instructions to workers will be given. The goal for Calloway county this year will be $7,600, which is $1,400 more than the goal for last year. It is felt, however, that since the people of Calloway county are now more familiar with the War Fund and the good use to which the money is put in providing for USO's, Refugee Relief, War Prisoners Aid, etc., that it will not be difficult to reach this goal.

The following committees have been named by General Chairman Max Hurt and Campaign Director Waylon Rayburn for the drive:

Executive Committee: Dr. J. H. Richmond, chairman; Luther Robertson, Carmon Graham, Clifford Seebor, George Hart, Mrs. Sadie Nell Jones, Mrs. Gladys Scott, and Mrs. Kiska Jones.

Dr. Richmond and M. O. Wrath- ing are being asked to head up the Workers Committee for the College.

Supt. Prentice Lassiter is being asked to work with the one and two teacher schools.

County workers asked to serve are as follows:

HAZEL—D. N. White, J. M. Marshall, Mrs. Kiska Jones, Mrs. L. Denham, and Buford Hurt.

Capacity Crowd Expected For Action Filled Tilt

Feathers and fur will fill the atmosphere tomorrow (Friday) night as the Murray Tigers and Mayfield Cardinals will again meet in their annual clash of long-standing in Murray High stadium at 8 o'clock.

The colorful event of the 44 season finds the two teams with a standing of two wins and no defeats. Mayfield topped Union City 12-0 in her first bout and on last Friday night ran wild over the hoppers Camden, Tenn. eleven.

The Tigers have defeated Huntington, Tenn. High school and Princeton High with comparative ease. Coach Holland, because of early injuries to squad members, has not yet placed all the squad's strength on the field. However, Friday night's clash will see the Tigers in good shape for their arch rival.

Mayfield topped the Tigers last year by three touchdowns via the air route. Twice in the '43 game the Cardinals capitalized on interception of passes to score and on the third tally used their own passing combination.

With almost two full weeks of rest, the Tigers are ready to be ready for the Cards. The backfield has displayed plenty of polish this week and is clicking nicely. Tom Covington, an all-time treat, Bill Ferguson, a fast and sturdy blocker, Tip Miller, a dangerous back when once in the open, and Allan Russell, a shifty and deceptive ball carrier will attempt to present their best game of the season.

In the line Shroat and Saunders, two good boys, will perhaps be at the end posts. Lee Ross Melugin and Gene Carroll should be in the line. The running game will be in the hands of Tom Covington, playing his second year of football for the Tigers, is without question one of Murray High's all-time backs. Tom is a good performer at the half and has one of the best strides ever seen on the Murray grid. Mayfield will have the problem of trying to stop four Tiger backs, however. With Tip Miller, Allan Russell and Bill Ferguson decided threats, it appears the Cards are in for an uncomfortable evening.

Tigers To Meet Mayfield Here Friday At 8 P. M.

CAPT. MELLER'S CREW RECEIVES CITATION

AN EIGHTH AIR FORCE LIBERATOR STATION, England

William P. Mellen, of Murray, Ky., is the group weather officer in the B-24 Liberator group commanded by Col. Jacob J. Brogger, of Butterfield, Minnesota. Under his direction weather data is furnished flying personnel for each of their operational flights. Since there is no more formidable enemy to flying men than weather, no factor has been more important to the excellent safety record accredited to this group than the accuracy of the reports submitted by Capt. Mellen and his staff.

One of the squadrons in this unit was cited for flying sixty-eight consecutive missions without the loss of a crew or a man, while another was cited for flying sixty-two missions over enemy territory without the loss of a crew or a plane; and a third squadron has twice gone through twenty-five missions without loss.

Upon completion of its one hundredth mission, Capt. Mellen's group was cited "for distinguished and outstanding performance of duty in combat. Dropping tons of bombs on targets in both Germany and France, this unit contributed immeasurably to the aerial war against the enemy. Beating down all opposition as they fought their way to targets vital to the enemy's war effort, this group succeeded in completing these many dangerous missions with a minimum of loss. The extraordinary teamwork, skill, and devotion to duty of both air and ground personnel which made possible these accomplishments, reflect great credit upon themselves, their organization and the United States Army Air Forces."

Capt. Mellen entered the service in February 1941, and at the time was employed by the Corning Glass Works, Corning, New York.

Capt. Mellen attended Mississippi State College, State College, Miss., and Lafayette College, Easton, Pennsylvania, receiving degrees from both colleges. He also attended Murray State College, Murray, Ky.

Capt. Mellen received his army training at the California Institute of Technology, Pasadena, Calif. His wife, Mrs. W. P. Mellen, lives at Pasadena, Calif.

Capt. Mellen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Mellen, Murray.

HAM DORMAN WRITES INTERESTING LETTER ABOUT ENGLAND COUNTRY SIDE

Calloway livestock owners will be interested in the following letter because it is written by Dr. Sam Dorman, a young veterinarian who worked in this county a few years ago. He practiced his profession all over the county and had a large number of friends.

Somewhere in England
September 3, 1944

Dear Mrs. Hart:

I'm sure by now you are familiar with my writing habits, so the less I say the less I will incriminate myself.

There is nothing backward about this boy. Where it has taken many fellows two years or so to make the voyage overseas I managed to accomplish the feat in a little better than five months.

The voyage over wasn't bad but I can assure you that in the future I will not make such a trip unless I can afford a better class ticket. We were packed in so closely that the proverbial sardine had nothing on us. Our first night out I almost became a casualty by the loss of my fingers when I reached down to pick my toes and instead poked my fingers in another fellow's mouth. The food wasn't bad either; it taste as good coming up as it did going down. The only time you could get around the ship was during drills, for the passageways and aisles had to be kept open.

The only shooting going on was that of the dice. There were many casualties in those battles.

The saddest sight was seeing the Statue of Liberty disappearing in the background. When we landed we thought we were back in the States. The seaport was an overcast with smoke we thought it was Pittsburgh. Rapid detection told us it couldn't be so and we were sure where we were when we saw the bobbies with their big helmets.

Our camp is located in a beautiful spot. We're in a little valley with rolling hills all around us. The countryside is kept very neat and orderly. Hedgehogs separate one field from another giving the land a crazy-quilt appearance. One thing I have yet to see is land laid through soil erosion. Wooded areas are scarce, and lumber is imported from other countries. The fences are made of stone or brick. The average sized farm is about 80 acres, but I was told that some run up to the amazing size of 300 acres. Wheat and potatoes seem to be the main crops. Sheep is the most common of the livestock seen. The percentage of registered stock is probably much greater than at home. I haven't seen any scrub cattle at all.

However, I was told the English are lazy farmers and do not produce very much. Most of their land is in pasture, yet herds are small. Many farmers don't even have a dairy cow for their own use. I've seen a few chickens and hogs coming here on the train, but none in this vicinity.

Things are indeed different than at home. Their standards are not nearly as high as ours. I understand illiteracy is very high. My impressions of England are not favorable but I am reserving my opinion until I see more of it and have a chance to talk to more people.

My connection with a hospital outfit is as food inspector. It isn't a bad job—but it isn't very exciting.

Give my regards to George and Lucile Fay and my "hello" to all those who may still remember me.

As ever
Sam

This community was saddened last Thursday when a message stated A. C. Orr, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Orr, was missing in action in Belgium. His wife was the former Miss Earnestine Radford, daughter of the late Walter Radford and Ruby Atkins Radford. Richard of the home, Odel and Milburn Orr are brothers and Mrs. Pearl Paschall a sister.

In the Matrons Sunday School class here Sunday prayer was requested for the boys' hearts are so sorely touched, and it is realized that he might be a prisoner and some day return to loved ones. He is a member of Pleasant Grove Methodist Church.

Joe Hal Stark came home Saturday from Nashville. His brother, Charles B. Stark, returned Sunday from their father's bedside at a Nashville hospital and reported some improvement in condition of his father Bee Stark who last week underwent a major operation of the stomach.

Mrs. Dumas Stark returned home Saturday much improved after a major operation at the Clinic several days previous. Her daughter, Mrs. Harvey Ellis, of Pervia, Miss. returned home last Sunday after a week's visit with her mother.

Mrs. Daisy Hill spent several days last week with her son, Bill, and Mrs. Hill did some canning of vegetables.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Tapp, who recently moved from Louisville to near Almo, and Mr. and Mrs. Lube Brown and B. F. Brown were Sunday visitors with their mother, Mrs. S. V. Miller.

Miss Ethel Mae Paschall of Russellville, was a week-end visitor with relatives.

Joe Brown Wilson and parents visited his aunt Donnie Moore and other relatives last week. Joe Brown returned to camp Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jackson have moved to Murray and Mr. and Mrs. Richardson have moved to the farm vacated by them.

Mrs. Versie Trease was leader of the prayer meeting last Sunday evening. In the past this church as well as others have not regularly had weekly prayer meetings. The faithful, fervent prayers of the righteous availeth much.

Hewitt Cooper and Carlos Erwin after a visit with their wives and baby and other relatives, have returned to camp.

Mrs. Grace Hicks and daughter, Mrs. Merdon and baby of Bruce, were week-end visitors of Mrs. Hartie Ellis and family.

Mrs. Homer Farris, of Hazel, and Mrs. Lester Farris of Paris, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Moore. Mrs. Bettie James and daughter Miss Libbie of Hazel.

Mrs. Button of Arkansas who was visiting her brother, Mr. Trease for several days, is returning home this week. Glad to note all the above visitors instead of keeping their hosts and hostesses at home attended services at Pleasant Grove.

After church services Sunday Mrs. Hester Brown and daughter, Glenda, Mrs. Ortie Key and baby attended a birthday dinner at the home of their uncle, Mrs. Kuykendall in honor of their aged grandmother, Mrs. Lovie Myers Kuykendall.

Richmond Speaks to First Chapel Assembly Sept. 27

The first chapel of the 1944 fall quarter on September 27 at 10 o'clock opened Murray State's twenty-second school year. President Richmond, addressing the first assembly of all students, reported an increase of approximately 100 over last year's enrollment.

According to figures released by Mrs. Cleo Gillis Heister, registrar, 411 have enrolled. The total enrollment for the fall of 1943 was 322.

Urging that students cooperate in attending chapel, Dr. Richmond stressed the need of taking advantage of all opportunities offered. He expressed his desire that this be a happy and profitable year for the students and that they might visit his office at any time.

"Let us highly resolve that we will do a good year's work and add something to that life that you are now building," was his challenge to the students now enrolled.

Rev. Charles Thompson, pastor of the First Christian Church, Murray, extended a welcome to all students in behalf of the churches of Murray. The program included the singing of "America" and scripture reading and comments by Rev. Thompson.

Freshman representatives of the Student Organization will be elected at the next chapel period.

"Charity Begins At Home"

"Charity begins at home" is an old saying that illustrates things when speaking of doing our good deeds. I am one who believes in missionary work and know that there is much to be done in that field; but I am a little nearsighted on some viewpoints and believe that the first missionary work is needed in our own back yard.

By that I mean that before we go too far in our good work for others, we must be aware of a serious need of good work for human welfare right here in Murray.

A few months ago my attention was called to the lack of facilities at the Douglas High School. I knew before being told that that school had the barest of necessities, and until the last four years had had nothing in the form of recreational equipment on the school grounds.

The colored people want a gymnasium for their children. They have asked us for our help, and they have assured us that with our support and influence they will raise a large part of the money required. Interested people in town have wanted there and met in groups to talk the project over.

It is possible to build an addition to the present building at Douglas High School and equip it for a recreation place for the colored children of our town. What develops from this interest will be determined by the co-operation of all Murray.

These children deserve a good building. They deserve a place to have their youth center and a place to have wholesome entertainment.

The question of finance, of course, will be a problem. But nothing is impossible when interested people get behind and lend the push that has been found in Murray. Not so many years ago the white children wanted a gymnasium at Murray High School. They asked for it and it is there today being used by hundreds of children. They wanted a city park. They asked for it. . . and they have it, partly finished. The war checked the fullest development of this project, but some day it will be completed.

The colored children have asked for something to play with. They will get it. They are due to have the best. We are proud of our colored citizens and we realize that for them to be their best, they will have to have a better environment and more adequate facilities.

In the recent campaign for the city park, the colored children got some playground equipment. Until then they only had a ditch to play in; a knotted and worn jumping rope was the only playground equipment. I know, for I have been to visit them.

They are our neighbors. They live in our town and we want them to have what they should have. It will not be a hard project to work with. With the support of the town, this building will be erected and, in use before another school year closes. Let's be concerned with our neighbors problems.

Right Food May Be Key to Good School Records

Only the meaneast man would send a horse to work without his morning ration, yet too many school children eat a hasty breakfast or none at all and run for school, according to the War Food Administration.

From supper time the night before until school begins next morning is about 15 hours. Even if a person were at complete rest during those 15 hours, a certain amount of energy would be burned up to keep the body machinery going, and the faster a child grows and the more active he is the more food he needs.

When mothers give their children good breakfasts, says WFA, they supply those young bodies with materials to give them pep and enthusiasm for the morning's work. A big glass of tomato juice or a medium-sized glass of orange or grapefruit juice is a good starter and assures the child most of his vitamin C for the day. Any fruit in season is a good beginner. This, plus bacon and eggs, bread, butter and milk is one pattern for a good breakfast. Or fruit, a whole grain cereal, milk, bread and butter or fortified margarine are all right.

The important part to remember about breakfast, WFA says, is to eat one that will carry its share of the total food needs of the day.

Lunch is just as important. Teachers notice that when children eat a good meal in the middle of the day, listlessness disappears, grades improve and disciplinary problems are fewer. What children eat, not whether it's hot or cold, cheap or expensive, determines good nutrition. To help provide adequate lunches, many schools are getting the assistance of the War Food Administration school lunch program.

A soft drink, a hot dog and a candy bar do not make the right kind of lunch for a boy or girl in school. Unless a youngster gets some fruits and a vegetable or two along with his bread and milk and some other substantial food at lunch he isn't likely to get all the variety he needs for the day. WFA points out. Children should be supplied daily with a variety of essential foods, including: milk; fruit; vegetables; eggs; meat, fish or chicken; cereals and breads; and butter or fortified margarine.

FOUNDER OF PENNSYLVANIA, A CHRISTIAN COMMONWEALTH DEVOTED TO LIBERTY AND JUSTICE. — AND OF PHILADELPHIA, "CITY OF BROTHERLY LOVE." HE MADE PEACE WITH THE INDIANS AND GRANTED THE EARLIEST CHARTER OF LIBERTIES IN AMERICAN HISTORY — GUARANTEEING TO ALL INHABITANTS FREEDOM OF RELIGIOUS CONSCIENCE AND "THE RIGHT TO BE GOVERNED BY LAWS OF THEIR OWN MAKING."

BORN 300 YEARS AGO — A FOREFATHER OF AMERICAN DEMOCRACY.

The Cross Of The World

Sunday was observed as world wide communion day in the churches here and elsewhere. Murray churches observed this solemn meditation which commemorated the death of our Lord Jesus. The wine that represented his shed blood and the bread that typified his broken body reminded us of the cross that he bore for the sins of mankind. We were reminded of the numbers of Christians who sat about the Lord's table that day, and were impressed at the numbers who must be sitting in thoughtful and worshipful services throughout the world.

If there is strength in union, surely that group of worshippers who, if their tables had been placed end to end, would have reached a greater part of the distance around the globe, should have some great influence on the affairs of the world.

Men of all nations and races are found seated about the Lord's table as His guests. And it was in the long ago in an Upper Room when He sat down and the twelve apostles with Him, so it is now. . . There is room for all Christians, from the lowest to the greatest at His table.

We seek forgiveness for all sins of pride, envy, fear, jealousy and selfishness. We seek a renewed faith for our life and strength to go through these dark days. We need the light of faith for our paths. We need the courage and the faith to pray for others too. We need this faith to keep us from becoming too conceited and self-centered.

Last week I read a letter from a soldier in the European war. He was bitter over the fact that the German prisoners were being treated to a few entertainments here. He reminded us that those same prisoners had fought them, killed many of our own sons. They were being entertained while American boys were suffering because of war. He resented the fact bitterly.

In view of the fact these boys, our own soldiers "Have climbed the steep ascent of heaven Through peril, toil and pain. . ."

We must know too that those prisoners of war are not here because of choice. They did not fight because of choice. They like our own men, fought because leaders so ordered it. As Christians, we must do unto those prisoners as we would have ours done unto.

While I write this I am hoping and praying that my own kin, Pvt. Holland Gene Cole, nineteen years of age, just out of high school with a small taste of life as a normal college youth would have had it, is reported missing in action in France. There are others: Pvt. Earl A. Grogan, Sgt. Perry Thurman, Pvt. Amos Hill, Pvt. Owen A. Witty. All of them are in the war not because of choice but because of sin. . . They are reported missing. I am hoping and praying that tonight, they are not dead, I am hoping that they are living and being treated as we would have them treated.

The things that caused this world to be at war are the same things that Jesus died on the cross for. . . greed, hate, jealousy, envy, selfishness, pride, and fear. That is the horrible part of the war. . . the innocent suffer for the sins of others. . . Truly the cross of Jesus is standing today and the shadow of that cross falls across the whole world, still reminding us. . .

"In Christ there is no East or West
In Him no South or North
But one great fellowship of love
Throughout the whole wide earth"

Experts See No Quick Finish to Japanese War

Although there is no question in the minds of American authorities that the Allies will defeat Japan, overall military plans for that defeat are being worked out so that it will take a minimum of from one and a half to two years after the defeat of Germany, according to a report of the Office of War Information, based on data and opinion of authorities in the Navy, War and State Departments and the Foreign Economic Administration.

Military strength, natural resources and quality of fighting forces and equipment all favor United Nations. The United States alone outclasses Japan in raw materials, in capacity to produce fighting equipment and in military might. With the added forces of the United Nations, the power of the Allies is overwhelming.

However, no internal collapse of Japan is expected. In the words of Joseph C. Grew, for ten years American ambassador to Japan: "The Japanese will not crack. They will not crack morally or psychologically or economically, even when eventual defeat stares them in the face. They will pull in their belts another notch, reduce their rations from a bowl to half a bowl of rice, and fight to the bitter end. Only by utter physical destruction or utter exhaustion of their men and materials can they be defeated. That is the difference between the Germans and the Japanese."

Although the Japanese have had their food rationed since 1940, experts do not believe food shortage is as likely to be a strategic weakness as might a shortage of some war materials. Japan raises 80 per cent of her rice, and rice supplies half of the caloric intake of the Japanese. Beans and fish are the other main articles of Japanese diet. Manchuria supplies 40 to 45 million bushels of soy beans, and from soy beans the Japanese people get their proteins and vegetable oils. The war is estimated to have cut her fish consumption by 25 per cent.

The Japanese are basing their hopes on the possibility that the Allies will grow tired and accept a negotiated peace. Japanese leaders have repeatedly predicted that Japan will drag out the war so long and make the Allies jay so early, that the "soft" democracies will be forced into a stalemate.

National Fire Prevention Week

Next week has been declared National Fire Prevention Week and is being observed throughout the nation. Murray is observing this special week by placing advertising and illustrated material where the public can be conscious of the part we are to play in this campaign.

Every week, it seems, is a special week for something. It seems that such a short time would not bring striking results in any lesson, but when a whole community is working intensively at a job, we do become educated to the points stressed.

The Fire Department is giving drills on the proper fire prevention in the town. The schools are having lessons on the proper methods of safety against fire. Children are practicing fire drills and becoming familiar with the speediest method of escape from the building. English classes are writing essays on Fire Prevention. Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts, 4-H Clubbers are studying and illustrating the proper methods of building fires and extinguishing fires. Housewives are going through the attic, basement and storage places to see that all waste paper is properly placed in the salvage, old clothes are bundled and delivered to the proper collection center.

Watches are undergoing examinations for fire hazards. Electric wiring is being checked. Stoves and furnaces and flues are being put in order for the winter heat.

With everyone concentrating on Fire Prevention for a whole week, our community is sure to be much safer against an outbreak of fire for another year. A loss of property because of fire or for any other reason would be a serious problem. Material, labor, and living quarters are scarce. Even though the property is insured, the inconvenience of the loss that could not be replaced would be a problem to the community.

National Newspaper Week

This is National Newspaper Week. In behalf of the newspaper work, we want to mention a few of the things that this newspaper or any other community-minded newspaper does.

This paper has been a constructive part of this community for a long period of years, and has been a positive challenger for the progress of the county. It has made the interests and progress of the people its main interest.

In going over the files for years back, we find news stories and editorials that showed cooperation with the leading minds and individuals of the county in promoting the things that have made Calloway the leading and desirable place it is.

We find the stories of individuals and organizations who have worked through the years to give to this place something better than it had. This paper has maintained a standard of fairness and honesty toward all.

Publicity is one of the oils that lubricates the wheels of a community and keeps that community in touch with the outside world. Without a newspaper whose heart and soul is for the good of the community, a town or county could not make the developments necessary to the kind of civic improvement desired.

A newspaper represents the best interests of the town and reflects the activities and the thoughts of the people in that community. It takes a constructive view of issues of the day and lends its influence in pointing the way out for further progress.

The life of a weekly newspaper editor is full of interests.

Things are never dull, and like the housewife, "The work runs from sun to sun and is never, never done." The writer gets all the blame, all the criticism when things go wrong. Sometimes it seems that criticism is all that is received for long hours of toil. . . Then life is suddenly made bright by the compliments offered by some kind hearted souls.

We are blamed if we don't get the news in, and we are blamed if we do put the news in. One peculiar thing I have noticed in my experience as a weekly newspaper editor is this: For every mistake our hand is called on, there is an equal amount of praise from others.

If that were not true, the life of an editor would be pretty thorny. We stick our necks out for a cause and expect to get a slashing, but strange to say, telephone calls, personal visits and letters from here and across the seas bring expressions of appreciation and agreement.

This paper has tried to put first things first. First things have included all news concerning our service men and women; every kind thing that we have heard about our readers and the citizens of our county; church news; and the cooperation with our government in doing what we could in the war program.

It has been difficult to meet all the requests that have been made of newspapers concerning the publicity that is needed to further the war program. It has meant long, long columns of O.P.A. news week after week; five war bond promotion programs; Red Cross promotion drives; War Fund drives; checking long mailing lists that change daily; writing news about our friends and loved ones who are listed on the casualty lists; and many, many other things that are far from being the normal life of newspapers. All of these things were ours, and we did them as conscientiously as we could.

The Ledger & Times has tried to find the good in all people and to forget the bad. We work on the theory that there is good in everyone and that good makes good news.

We invite you to come in and visit us. Come see the staff working on "Your Home Newspaper." Serving you in a way that is acceptable to you, and promoting the good of our own good county is the main object of this newspaper. We are not trying to follow the style of other papers — we are making the Ledger & Times a paper that fits the community it lives in.

Cotton Goods Will Be "Tight" The supply of cotton goods is "tighter" now than it has been any time during the war and is expected to remain "tight" for from one to two years after the collapse of Germany, the Office of War Information reports, on the basis of facts supplied by the War Production Board and the Foreign Economic Administration.

Production is insufficient to meet military and civilian demands, and the market is short of basic necessities of cotton fabric used in low-cost garments. The Pacific war will require more cotton as the basic military clothing staple, whereas wool has been heavily used in Europe. Cotton fabrics such as certain denims and chambrays will continue to be needed by the military and cotton duck is now on the urgent list. During the first six months after the fall of Germany the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration is expected to ask for 300 million yards of cotton textiles, and the food industry must depend upon cotton bagging due to a shortage of jute from India.

Use Name "A" Coupons Nov. 9 The 17 East Coast States and the remainder of the country will get together on the same "A" rationing coupons November 9, when "A-13's" in the renewal ration books will be good through the country. The Office of Price Administration has announced. The last strip of coupons in the books of East Coast motorists, the "A-12's," will not be used. Only three of the "A-13's" will be good for East Coast motorists, because they will be used only for six weeks.

On December 21, all "A-13's" will expire throughout the country, and on December 22, "A-14's" will be good. East Coast motorists will be advised locally to apply fully and States that "A" ration books are new of their "A" ration books before November 9. Motorists in the rest of the country already have their new ration books.

Sugar For Small "Jam Sellers" Sugar for making home-made fruit butters, jams, jellies and other processed foods for sale—even though these products are ration-free—may be obtained by farm families, housewives and others to the extent that they used sugar for this purpose in 1941 or to the extent of 250 pounds, whichever is greater, OPA says. Prior to September 27, sugar was not authorized for home-processing non-rationed or point-free foods for sale. Application for sugar for this purpose should be made to the local War Price and Rationing Board OPA says.

Free Job Choice For Veterans All manpower controls have been removed insofar as veterans of the present war are concerned. The War Manpower Commission announces. Veterans do not need statements of availability in order to change jobs, they may be hired by any employer without referral by the United States Employment Service, they may be hired without regard to employment ceilings and in seeking employment through the U.S.E.S. they are referred as a matter of right to a referral to any jobs of their choice without regard to essentiality or priority status of such jobs.

Michael Far Veterans Overseas After the defeat of Germany, education or practical training for civilian jobs will be offered soldiers in the army of occupation and those awaiting shipment home, the War Department says. Soldiers may choose the phases of the program they desire but they will be encouraged to select activities having bearing on their individual postwar plans. Academic curriculum will range in level from the sixth grade through second year college and will include courses in liberal arts, scientific and pre-professional fields. Special classes will be provided for soldiers whose ability to read and write is below fifth grade standard. In mechanical and technical courses and in practical training for trades and vocations, equipment of the signal corps, quartermaster corps and ordnance department will be used.

A.A.A. NOTES

BY Q. D. WILSON

WHEAT QUOTAS OUT Marketing quotas and acreage allotments for wheat to be harvested in 1942 have been officially set by the War Food Administration, according to M. D. Royce, chairman of the Kentucky State AAA Committee.

The action was taken on the belief that domestic, military and export requirements will continue at sufficiently high levels to preclude any necessity for adjusted acreages and marketing control.

The official action of the War Food Administration, taken in accordance with the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1933 states that there will be no National, State, county, or farm acreage allotment on wheat for the 1942 crop, and that wheat marketing quotas will not be in effect for the marketing year starting July 1, 1942.

Under the law quotas must be proclaimed by the Secretary of Agriculture whenever crop estimates indicate that wheat production will exceed domestic and export requirements, plus a 35 per cent reserve. Wheat growers balked on the issue in a referendum, with a two-thirds majority required to make marketing quotas into law. Farmers have voted for wheat marketing quotas with substantial majorities, first in 1941 and again in 1942.

The 1943 crop is not expected to assume "surplus" proportions, even though the 65.5 million acre national wheat goal set by the States is about 2 million acres higher than last year.

WFA has cautioned farmers not to exceed the goal, however, as such excess production may become burdensome. Wheat prices are supported at near-parity levels through government loans.

Wag Supper: Price Central Wag Supper: Price Central Approval of the support price period for hogs of $12.50 per hundred weight on the basis of the Chicago market until the end of July, 1942, was announced today by M. D. Royce, chairman of the Kentucky AAA Committee. WFA will support the market at the level for hogs weighing 200 to 40 pounds each when marketed.

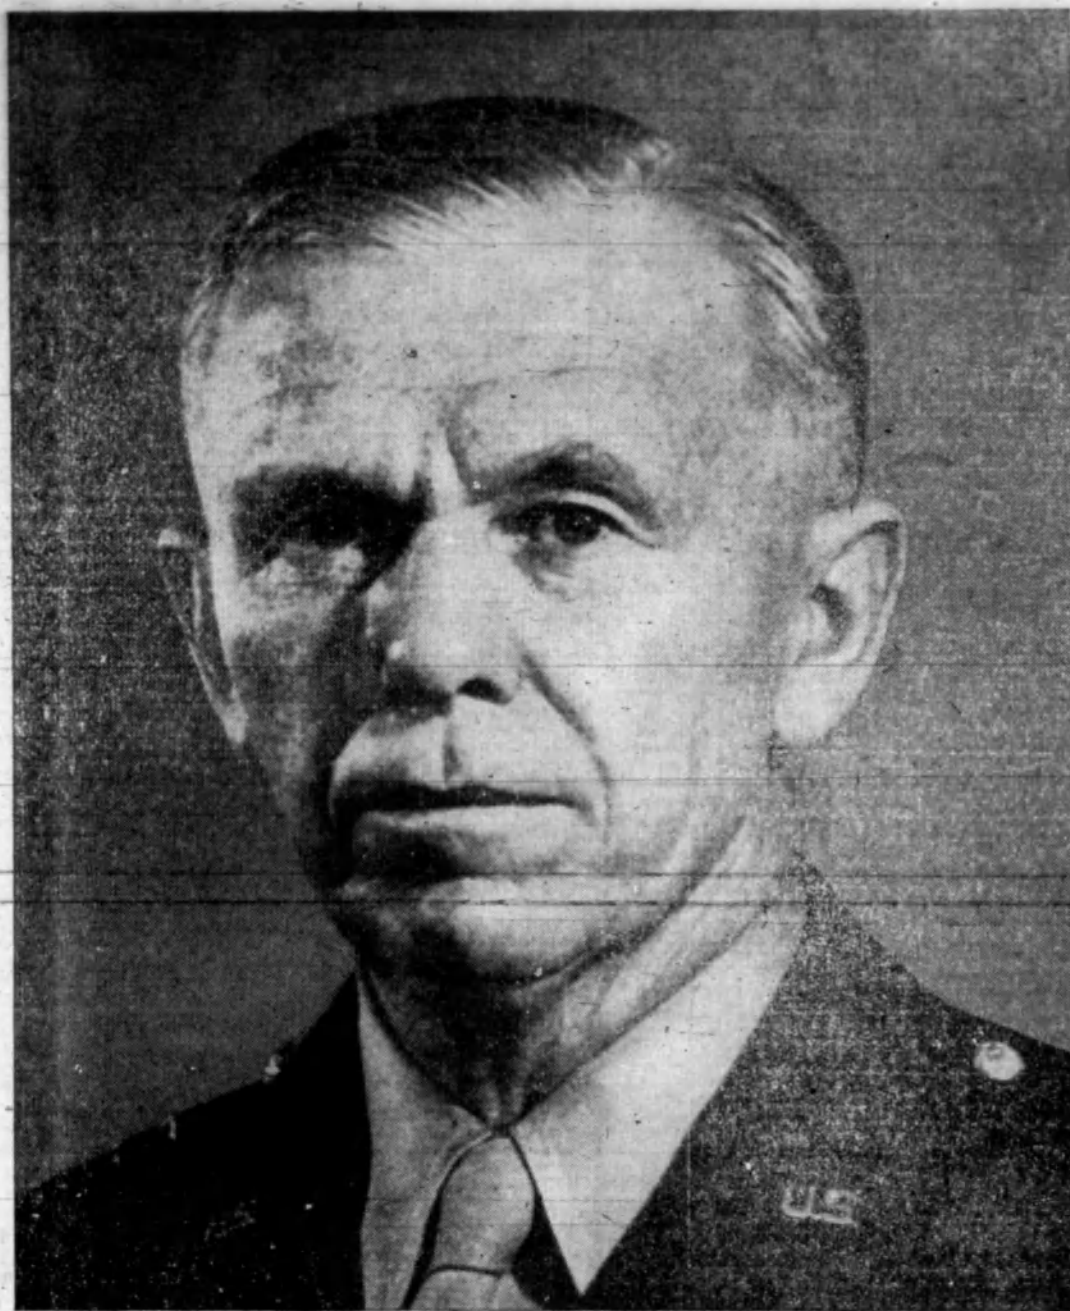

"A" previous announcement by WFA of the hog support price program provided for maintaining the $12.50 level from October 1, 1941 to March 31, 1942, Royce said. "Also" by agreement between WFA and OPA, and with the approval of the Office of Economic Stabilization, present ceiling prices on live hogs will continue until June 30, 1942, Royce said. The present ceiling prices are $14.75 per hundred weight on hogs weighing 240 and over, and $14.00 on heavier hogs.

LIFTING THE BLACKOUT

Admiral Ernest J. King: "The dollars of every patriotic American must continue to build invasion ships to transport our men and materials in increasing numbers to the many active fronts. In 1944, more than ever before, the money we invest in War Bonds is of supreme importance."

General George C. Marshall: "The American people must give not only their full personal effort but the full use of their dollars invested in War Bonds to back these attacks. There is no alternative. Total victory is in sight, but it can only be won by concentrating every resource of America to the task."

The first 3 years have been the easiest!

It's easy to give everything you've got when you're scared to death and fighting for your life.

It's hardest to bear down when things look "in the bag."

As the war looks today, for instance.

Overconfidence may not lose us this war. But if it makes us ease up, it can prolong it.

Even if only one extra day is added to the war—just one—thousands of American boys may die for it. Perhaps, God forbid, a friend of yours, or son, or brother, or sweetheart, or husband.

So don't slow down now. Don't coast. Buy Bonds with that extra cash—all the Bonds you can.

After all, buying Bonds is not only a patriotic but a very wise thing to do. The dollars you put in Bonds now will come back to you—bringing more dollars with them. Dollars that can mean happiness, security, comfort—just when you'll want those things most.

Buy War Bonds for your country. Buy them for yourself. They're the world's safest investment.

Recommendations For Organization Of Kentucky Lake Association

By Henry Ward

Following a meeting held August 28, 1944, at Mayfield, Ky., a committee was appointed to recommend plans for the organization of an association to promote the development of Kentucky Lake—the reservoir of the Tennessee Valley Authority's great Kentucky Dam at Gilbertsville.

I was appointed chairman of that committee. Other members are: Dwight R. Peel, Benton; F. W. Broch, Jr., Clinton; George Hart, Murray; J. Gordon Linsby, Princeton; George W. Boogher, Marion; J. T. Howard, Hickman; F. W. King, Wickliffe; and H. C. Dinwiddie, Mayfield. I have delayed calling the committee together to give its members time to think through on ideas for the association, so they will be in a position to make specific recommendations when a meeting is held.

Meanwhile, I have done some investigating of the matter and have talked with many persons interested, and have reached some conclusions of my own about how the association should be set up. I am putting these ideas on paper in this form and mailing them to members of the committee and others so that there may be a discussion of them before the group is called together to recommend a definite plan of action.

These conclusions follow:

Lake can be made attractive to outsiders.

The interests of these two groups do not necessarily conflict. Earl Wallace, director of the state game and fish division, pointed out at the Mayfield meeting that the more people who visit the Kentucky Lake area, the more emphasis will be placed on developing it for the benefit of hunters and fishermen. Kentucky sportsmen are interested in having a good state division, which requires a lot of money. An increase in the number of non-residents coming to Kentucky to hunt and fish would help that cause, since non-residents pay $2.50 for a fishing license and $15 for a hunting license.

However, in the development of an association, it is most likely that those with a commercial interest in the development of the lake area will have to be dependent upon to pay most of the bill. That is right and proper. Those who profit most should be liberal in helping to finance the work of the group.

It is my thought that the membership fee for the association be small—something like $2 a year—and that a campaign for the real money needed to advertise the lake be conducted as we run our Red Cross or War Fund drives; make up a list of prospects, set a quota for each and go out for the contributions. They could be called sustaining memberships, or something of the sort.

There isn't any need of talking about an association being really effective unless it has funds with which to operate. If what we are after isn't worth spending a little money for, then it isn't worth much effort. It ought to be organized and operated exactly as an individual community would set up and operate its chamber of commerce.

I have seen several highway associations developed in this region, but they have never amounted to much because they were not properly organized and financed. Kentucky Lake is a big thing, stretching almost all the way across the western tip of Kentucky down through Tennessee to near the Mississippi state line. Benefits will flow from its development to scores of communities in its area. Several towns of Tennessee have started their efforts to cash in on the benefits the Willardians need to be organizing, too. If we will work together, sharing in the promotion and the expense, all will benefit that much more. "In unity there is strength" is true.

Through an association, work can be done for all the communities, more easily and effectively than if each tried to do the job alone. And there are many problems the association could handle. For example, right now it seems that the most important thing needed to pave the way for attracting tourist travel and to make the Kentucky Lake area in the vicinity of Kentucky Dam accessible to motorists is the building of a roadway across the top of the dam and construction of a modern highway leading to it from both sides of the river. Tourists will want to see the great dam, largest in the country east of the giants built in the West. Yet there will be a bottleneck at the dam unless the roadway is built across the top.

A lot of work may be required before this roadway can be secured. A Kentucky Lake Association is the very organization needed to promote that project. There will be many others like it that will demand attention in the future, such as the development of the proposed state park near Eggers's Ferry bridge.

These are just some of my ideas. I suggest that members of the committee talk them over with interested persons in their communities. These can be compiled so that a meeting can be called soon at which specific recommendations can be completed.

"Like Chased Animals"
With the beginning of the Nazi collapse in France, the Germans, busy trying to save their own necks, turned their Dutch laborers loose, according to a correspondent for Aneta, official Netherlands news agency. He said that these men "like chased animals, afraid that the hunt is not over . . . introduce themselves often under assumed names, and as they recount their experiences under the Nazis, they look around, shift-eyed, as if to make sure that no Gestapo agent is listening." All are hungry for news of their relatives. They are eager for someone, anyone, to point out a destination in life for them after their years of being tossed about Europe.

U.S. Naval Flight Preparatory School Will Close Officially October 31

3,000 Aviation Cadets Have Trained Here, Lt. Comdr. Hall Says

Having trained approximately 3,000 aviation cadets in its 23 months of operation, the U. S. Naval Flight Preparatory School based on the Murray College campus will officially close October 31. Lt. Comdr. Frederick B. Hall, officer in charge, a native of St. Louis, announced today.

The last group of cadets to be trained was transferred to Chicago on September 27, but several officers will remain until about October 10. The official date of commissioning of the USNFPSS at Murray was January 1, 1943. The first officer in charge, was Lt. Comdr. Charles L. Wiley, who reported to President James H. Richmond on December 21, 1942, to assume his duties as "skipper" of the program here.

The first group of 200 cadets arrived on the campus on January 8. They were housed in the women's dormitory, known as Wells Hall, but designated by the Navy as "Lexington Barracks." Lt. John S. Radtke, executive officer, is the only officer to be connected with the Murray base from its beginning to the conclusion of the program.

We had anticipated buying popcorn in the husk, as we have a sheller that will handle it in that way. But at present the O.P.A. will not permit us buying it in the husk.

Although a group of farmers are filing a petition to O.P.A. in accordance with section 17 of popcorn regulation, MPR-502 as general amendments, whereby anyone seeking modification of Reg. MPR-502 may file same.

Farmers who have popcorn and would prefer selling in the husk, saving much labor, see us for particulars.

Officer In Charge

Lt. Comdr. F. B. Hall

Of the aviation cadets who have reported at Murray, 100 were CPT trainees assigned here for a short refresher course before reporting to Pre-Flight Schools. Lt. John S. Radtke, executive officer, is the only officer to be connected with the Murray base from its beginning to the conclusion of the program.

Since December 28, 1942, 33 officers have been ordered to duty at this activity, 21 of whom have been detached for various other assignments.

Lt. Comdr. Hall, a Yale graduate, has been at Murray since October 28, 1943.

"I have enjoyed my stay at Murray very much," he said, "and I want to pay high tribute to the splendid cooperation we have had from Dr. Richmond, Dean Nash, Mr. Weather, and the college staff."

"Skipper" Hall, who came to Murray from the Naval Air Station, Lambert Field, St. Louis, also paid tribute to the friendliness and hospitality of the students and townspeople. Of his officers and staff, he said, "We have had a splendid staff of officers and instructors and their efforts have added greatly in giving this unit a high rating among the Flight Schools of the nation."

"This school is primarily a ground school," Hall explained, "and the Navy looks to us to provide ground school training for these cadets before they report to the Pre-Flight Schools. We are definitely listed in the upper one-third in that phase of training."

He added, "Murray has always had a good name among the WTS and Navy men."

The reason for the closing of the Flight Prep schools, according to Hall, is the fact that it has become possible for the Pre-Flight and Flight Prep training to be combined at the four big Pre-Flight bases.

President Richmond paid high tribute to the officers and men who have been on the Murray campus for the past two years.

"Lt. Comdr. Hall, his officers, instructors, and cadets have all been courteous, cooperative, and efficient. We at Murray have enjoyed having them with us and the college is proud to have had a part in training men for officers in the United States Navy," he said. "At the same time, the program has enabled us to carry on our regular college classes with a complete staff of instructors. It is with genuine regret that we learn that these men must leave for other duties, but we take pride in the fact that Murray State was honored with having a unit at the beginning of the program and with keeping it as long as any school were continued anywhere in the United States."

Improved SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By HAROLD L. LUNDQUIST, D.D. Of The Moody Bible Institute of Chicago Released by Western Newspaper Union

Lesson for October 8

Lesson subjects and Scripture texts are included and copyrighted by International Council of Religious Education, used by permission.

JESUS' PROGRAM FOR MEETING LIFE'S PROBLEMS

LESSON TEXT—Matthew 4:1-4, 9:31-34, Luke 11:13-17.

GOLDEN TEXT—Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.—Matthew 4:4.

Problems, sorrows, needs, anxieties—how they press in on mankind from every direction. What is he to do about them? He cannot meet them in his own strength. They worry him almost to the point of distraction. What shall he do?

There is just one answer, and it is blessedly simple and completely satisfying. Take your burdens to the Lord and leave them there! Cast all your cares upon Him, for He careth for you (1 Pet. 5:7).

From the teachings of Jesus our lesson tells us why and how we may do this. Let us not miss its glorious and convicting message.

I. We Can Overcome Temptation Through Christ (Matt. 4:1-4). Temptation is the common lot of all mankind (1 Cor. 10:13). The strongest and most noble of men are subject to it. Angels were tempted, and our scripture reveals that even Jesus was tempted. We recognize that Jesus was tempted as the Messiah (vv. 3, 6) and as one without sin (Heb. 4:15), but it is also true that He was apart from sin, and that we may learn from His temptation how we may meet and be the victors over temptation.

We learn of our Lord that temptations may be victoriously overcome—

1. By the right use of Scripture. If Jesus needed that weapon, how can we do without it? But how can we use Scripture if we do not study it and hide it in our hearts?

2. By dependence on God. Every Scripture used by Jesus honored God. We cannot fight Satan in our own strength. To attempt to do so is to fall utterly. The real victory for the Christian is to bring Satan back to the cross where Christ won a decisive victory over him.

3. By denouncing Satan. Jesus sent him away by saying, "Get thee hence, Satan." We must not let Satan use the same in Jesus' name. It is always a serious error to try to argue with Satan or to engage in any discussion with him. Let us stand with Scripture and say, "Get thee hence."

II. We Can Learn to Trust God for our Daily Needs (Matt. 6:31-34). Some want to be rich. Their folly is made clear in verses 19-24. But then there are some who while not wanting to be rich, are in constant anxiety about food and raiment for the morrow.

What is the answer of the Lord Jesus? Consider the birds. They are not able to work, nor are they able to pray, but God feeds them. Consider the glory of the flowers of the fields, for not even a king can dress himself in such beauty. "Are ye not much better than they?" (v. 26).

As far as he knows, no one ever tried to build more nests than his neighbors; no fox ever fretted because it had only one hole in which to hide; no squirrel ever died of anxiety lest he should not lay out enough nuts for the winter instead of one; and no dog ever lost any sleep over the fact that he did not have enough bones laid aside for his declining years! (Public Health Service).

Proper forethought is good and right, for we are intelligent beings, but anxiety about our daily needs is always dishonoring to God.

Yes, says someone that's all very well, but how about the future? Well, why should we fret about that? It is in God's hands, and even if it were in our hands, what could we do about it? Every common sense man needs and its blessings, with its joy and its sorrows, is not yet here, and when it does come, there will be God's gracious provision for each passing hour.

III. We Can Follow Christ in Sacrificial Service (Luke 4:18-21). Let us be clear at once that we cannot do what Christ did, for He is the Son of God. He had a special ministry to perform as the Messiah. But we may learn much from this story.

Jesus began His ministry among His own people even though He knew of their unbelief. He used the Word of God as the background for His calling. He recognized the special need of the poor and the suffering, and especially of those who were bruised and broken by sin.

In all these things we may follow His example. Let us declare the truth to those nearest to us, even if they do reject it. Let us look to God's Word for our call and our consolation—different from that of Jesus, but nevertheless from God and for His glory.

Then, too, let us learn of Him that we are to serve those who are most needy and possibly neglected, serving their physical needs, but above all bringing to them the light of God's redeeming grace.

Here is light from the Lord on our problems of sin, sorrow, supply and service.

Local Club's Ad Appears In Sept. 30 American Field

A large ad, sponsored by the local Conservation Club, appeared in the September 30 issue of The American Field, the largest sports magazine in the United States.

The club made a special membership drive for an advertising fund to be used to publish Murray as the center for sportsmen who will visit Kentucky Lake. The ad included a map including the various highways leading to Murray and the shortest and best routes to the lake.

The Calloway County Conservation Club is the first local club or organization to take definite steps in promoting Murray as headquarters for sportsmen of the United States. As a member of the club said, "Of course our club was not the first to think of such an advertisement but we were the first to put it in action. We have unlimited possibilities in this project and now is the time to act."

John Rudy Oury and Hugh McLaughlin have worked untiringly with other club members to put this advertising project through and are to be congratulated on their successful work.

Asks For Netherlands Harvest—In an appeal to the farmers of Occupied Holland, Radio Orange, the Netherlands broadcasting station in London, pleaded: "The authorities advise the Netherlands farmers most emphatically to avoid any destruction of threatening machines. That destruction would be detrimental to the cause of the fatherland. The country wants the farmers to gather and deliver their harvest and report the results to the authorities 'in charge' of distribution of agricultural products."

Homemakers Club of Hazel Highway

Officers elected were: President, Mrs. Harry Fenton; vice-president, Mrs. Ona Whitnell; secretary, Mrs. Hubert Cochran; major project leaders, Mrs. E. A. Lassiter and Mrs. Oscar Barnes; program conductor, Mrs. Raymond Causey; reading chairman, Mrs. C. L. Vaughn; citizenship chairman, Mrs. W. A. Starks.

The new club was named Hazel Highway Homemakers Club. It meets the fourth Friday of each month. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Oscar Barnes on October 27 at 2:00 p.m.
