Iron Grip Tightens

Ironically, the bare hands behind the iron curtain impose their unyielding rule over the Balkans. Bulgaria is a sad example of how such control can snuff out the gleam of human rights.

A few months ago, the Communists, who have been in power in Bulgaria for over ten years, have tightened their grip on the freedoms of the people. This is evident from the recent clampdown on writers and artists who have dared to criticize the regime.

One such case is that of Mr. Petkov, a well-known writer who has been persecuted by the regime. Petkov's arrest and subsequent trial were nullified by the ruling Communist Party.

Despite the efforts of the American Embassy, who has been working tirelessly to secure his release, Mr. Petkov remains in prison. His case is just one of many that illustrate the"

U. N. Is Struggling

(By James B. White)

Afghanistan's Lease Information

The United Nations is a standard two-year-old, but it has not yet become a full-fledged world organization. The Security Council is grappling with the problem of how to extend its powers.

This is perhaps the most important test of the United Nations' ability to function as an international body. The Council has been working hard to forge a consensus among its members, but progress has been slow.

The Soviet Union, which holds a veto power in the Council, has been blocking any significant action on a number of issues.

In addition, the Council is facing a number of other challenges. The situation in the Middle East is a major concern, as well as the problem of how to deal with the growing crisis in South Africa.

In short, the United Nations is struggling to fulfill its promise of being a truly international body. It remains to be seen whether it will be able to meet the test of time.
Coach Gonarlo Is Disappointed
By Small Squad. Lack of Interest

Coach J. B. Cloranflo told the football squad that he expects to have a good team. "But," he added, "I don't think the players are too interested in football."

The football squad is working out in full equipment now, and the practice schedule has been changed to 7:30 a.m. and 5:30 p.m., instead of 6:30 and 8:30 a.m.

The coach is well pleased with his line. There are four tackles, three guards and two centers (one of them Jimmy Ruddle at center).

H.H. Riddle is a 1/2 down.

The coach is disappointed in the lack of interest in football. The players aren't too long on experience. Four of the guards are inexperienced, and Jimmy Ruddle at center. Also, several lettermen from last year.

Rattlesnake Has Two Heads—Both Ready To Strike

J. F. Thompson, 14 South St., owner of the business, found a two-headed rattlesnake in his chicken coop last Friday. The snake has two heads, two tails, and two pairs of legs. It is estimated to be about 10 feet long. The snake was taken to the county fair where it has been displayed. The owner plans to sell it for $100.
