after their arduous army labors, that one wonders why they should go to a foreign country in search of ill health when they can avoid it by remaining at

A STANDARD OIL SMILE.

Mr. E. S. Taylor, of Chicago, would welcome the Boer. He says:

"The diplomatic part of the work of the envoys at Washington has been done. They have been turned down with a cold, sinister, Standard Oil kind of a smile and are through with that part of it. It is now up to welcome them as Americans should."

THE RIGHT TO ROB.

The trouble comes some curious ideas concerning "rights." An Indiana law requiring factories to pay their employees has just been declared constitutional.
The tin plate, shorn and plate glass trade related this law on the ground that the State had no right to legislate against their "rights." The "rights" they meant were the "rights" to pay when they got ready and such wages as they deemed right.

HOW'S THIS?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Osteopathy that cannot be cured by Hall's Osteopathic Cure.
P. J. O'NEILL & CO., Props., Toledo, Ohio.

We, the undersigned, have known P.
J. O'Neil for the past 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligations made by him.

W. J. TAYLOR, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O. WALKER, KIRK & SONS, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O.
Hall's Osteopathic Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood, and is a cure for the system. Price 10c per bottle. Sold by all druggists.
Beware of cheap imitations.

Hall's Family Pills are the best.

Of course, the Cuban scandal is entirely confined to the civilian appointees and the War Department is innocent.
Of course it is. But still we should resist like to have some further information as to that $25,000-a-mile railway built over good ground.

THE FARMER'S WIFE.

In every careful about her chure. She makes it thoroughly after using and finds it a sure help to sweeten it. She knows that if her chure is sour it will taint the butter made in it. The stomach is a chure. In the stomach and digestive and nutritive tracts are performed processes which are exactly akin to the churning of butter. It is not apparent that if this stomach chure is sour it taints all which is put into it. The vital of a fine stomach is not the best bake in the month and the best breath emanates from it, but the corruption of the chure of the stomach is the worst kind of disease throughout the body.
Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery makes the sour stomach sweet.
It does for the stomach what the washing and scrubbing does for the chure—absolutely removes every taint or corrupting element. "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no alcohol, whisky or other intoxicant and no narcotic.

Taylor probably intends to conduct his campaign by long distance telephone.

Fugitive Taylor is going to Michigan.
That will give Taylor some "real pistol" to look after.

Why doesn't Corbett go to Congress? He would feel at home there as well as any other modern prize fighter in a place where it is all talk and no fight.

Mr. Clark of Montana, has made up his mind that the Senate cannot take him.

Mr. Taylor is another shining example of the adage, "The wicked flee when no man pursues."

School concerts in this neck of the woods have lost their luster. Ensigns are not now held in public.

The Khedive of Egypt is coming to the United States next year. Why not leave him up-riplest, the Sultan of Sul, to meet him and bring a few of his wives along to make things pleasant?

The question now is, how far have United States officers "honorably acquiesced" in "black reconstructions?"

Suppose Ochsner had been guilty of the Cuban peccolations? What wonderful officials we should have had on the subject of their inability to govern their island honestly.

Rathbone has been "suspended." He should have been suspended by the bank if the allegations brought against him are true.

The President has assured the Boer delegates that he will do everything in the world that is within the limits of his power for them except to help them.

What is the use of making all of this trouble about a little thievery in Cuba?
Rathbone was merely trying to run things as he ran Hanne's campaign in Ohio a few years ago.

Amazing reports come from the Philippines. Secretary Root has refused to accept the resignations of seven officers and it is stated that General McArthur has 200 more in his hands, and that the colored men are very near mutiny over the work required of them. It is said that the hundreds reported killed are merely guessed at, as their bodies are almost never found. This is a pretense of state affairs.

Thirty-two thousand dollars a mile for a railway in Cuba over level ground, with an expense for right of way, is coming little too strong, even if, as Assistant Secretary McKimjohn says, "the cost has been paid out of the revenue of the island."

If the Boer delegates are satisfied with a "jolly," that is the sort of thing that McKimjohn will give them. But if they want a resolution of sympathy, such as the United States has already passed to struggling nations, they will get the Klondike face instead.

It is about time that Secretary Hay should decide what he is going to do about it. The Sultan doesn't seem to care much.

A detective has disguised himself as a lobbyist and found that thirteen councillmen of Scranton, Pa., would accept bribe. This is only another indication that most of the smaller Pennsylvania cities are as rotten as Philadelphia, where something like 100,000 illegal votes were cast at the last election.

The Sultan refuses to pay his respects, and Secretary Hay is wondering what he is going to do about it.

CAPT. ALLEN RENOMINATED

By District Committee At Henderson Tuesday Afternoon.

From Wednesday's daily.

On account of the failure of any other candidate than the Hon. Henry D. Allen, of Union county, to announce for congress, the call for a district convention was rescinded, and Tuesday Capt. Allen was renomiated.

The nomination was declared by the district committee at a meeting held for that purpose at Henderson yesterday afternoon. Instead of having the chairman and secretary declare the nomination as the call provided, this was done by the entire committee, in order that there might be no obstacles to placing of legal technicalities, to the pleasing of the name of the nominee on the legal ballot.

FARMER BOYS CAN EN-TER A PROFESSION.

Opie Reed, one of the most successful literary men in the West, a man well acquainted with all phases of life, thus speaks in part to the farmer boy, yet it applies to every man and woman desiring to enter a profession or change their occupation.

"The farmer boy makes inquiry and finds a starvation period with beginners in professions. The young lawyer must wait not months but years, and has no opportunity to progress while he waits.
It is the same with the doctor."

The young preacher feels that it is hardly noticed, so generally have the business structures been decorated.

The Confederates and the other victims have found Louisville swathed with bunting, the stars and bars of the Confederacy predominating, the decorations being the most elaborate ever known here. The building in the night shows part of the city that is not guilty of being so seldom seen that it is
business structures been decorated.

Today's proceedings of the reunion are merely opening exercises. The annual reunion that will be transacted on Wednesday and Thursday. Each division commander will appoint one member of each of these committees, and the business of the reunion will be inaugurated tomorrow morning, when the committees make their reports.

Gen. John B. Gordon, commander-in-chief of the United Confederate Veterans, arrived yesterday from Shelbville.

The meeting was called to order by Maj. Gen. J. M. Foynt. Then there were addresses of welcome by Mayor Weaver, Col. Thomas R. Ballist, Rev.
Carl Helm Jones, Hon. Antille Goff, Judge Henshaw, Gen. S. B. Hockner and Gen. Y. Vance.

The response on behalf of the Confederates was feebly uttered by Mayor John B. Gordon. This was followed by the annual address by Rev. Dr. B. M.
Palmer, of New Orleans. The program for this afternoon follows:

Reception from 2 to 6 p. m. by Mr. and Mrs. Biscoe Hindman to the sponsors, made of honor and United Sons of Confederate Veterans.

Reception by Ladies Monument Association.

Evangelical entertainment.

Oratory by Honorable Jackson Brigsand and Gen. Clark.

The fifth annual reunion of the United Sons of Confederate Veterans will be called to order in the court house tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock, two hours before the meeting of the veterans assembly.

Gen. W. C. Calhoun, Commander-in-Chief, will call the meeting to order and an address will be made by Gen. Biscoe Hindman, who is a candidate for Commander-in-Chief. It is expected that 2,000 sons of veterans will be in attendance.

REVIVAL ENDS.

The revival meeting which has been in progress about two weeks at the Methodist church, ended Sunday night.
Rev. J. P. Blackledge's closing sermon was perhaps the most powerful of any he delivered during his stay here. The meeting has resulted in much good.
There were a number of conversions and several additions to the church.

RESIGNED A PASTORATE.

The Rev. O. Y. Smith has resigned as pastor of the Methodist church at Eldon and will enter the educational field.
He has purchased the Kentucky University, a college for young ladies at Fresco Valley, Ky., formerly under Prof.
T. P. McCall's management, and will leave Thursday to take up his new duties.

MAY RETURN FLAG.

A number of G. A. R. veterans have plan on foot for the return of the Southern battle flag now in possession of the War Department. If the plan is authorized by Congress, the ceremony of returning the flag will take place at the coming G. A. R. meeting in Chilgo, with President McKimjohn officiating.
ELKS' REMARKABLE GROWTH.

Membership Doubled in About Three Months.

From Wednesday's daily.

Every promise of a fine meeting was made good at the session of the Elks last night. Besides the initiation of the large class considerable other business of interest and importance was transacted. The local lodge owns the State and complete paraphernalia in the State and the degrees were given last night in the most approved style.

The lodge is in a most flourishing condition. In three and a half months its membership has been doubled.

PROTRACTED MEETING.

A series of revival meetings opened at the Baptist church at Madisonville Tuesday evening. Rev. J. G. Row, of Paducah, will be the preaching assisted by the pastor, Rev. P. E. Gallin.

ADMINISTRATION BALL.

The administration ball, which is to take the place of the social function which usually marks the closing of a new state administration, will be given at Frankfort Friday night, June 8.
It will be the first social function of the present administration, and no invitation will be issued. Friends of the administration in all parts of the state will be welcome.

GREAT CROWDS

Confederate Reunion Formally Opened.

More People Than Louisville Has Ever Had Before.

LOUISVILLE, May 30.—The tenth annual reunion of the United Confederate Veterans began at noon in the splendid hall erected by the people of Louisville for this occasion.

The largest crowd, perhaps, ever seen here is on hand, and despite the heat and rain most of the morning the streets have been thronged with people.

The Confederates and the other
victims have found Louisville swathed
