THE MURRAY LEDGER.

VOL. 26, NO. 13

MURRAY, KENTUCKY THURSDAY, JULY 30, 1914

$1.00 PER YEAR.

HON. ROBERT H. SCOTT

My Fellow Democrats:

On next Saturday you will have the opportunity to vote for a citizen to represent you in Congress. I need not remind you that your only means of correcting existing evils is through government and that government is no better than the men to whom its administration is intrusted.

Before you vote I earnestly ask you to compare the candidates—their public records, and qualifications for statesmanship. The fate of the Democratic party and all it stands for depends absolutely upon what kind of men are elected to make up the Congress which takes its seat March 4th. The work of that Congress will decide whether a democrat will be elected President in 1916. Therefore, every district in the country should take the utmost care to send the very best men available.

Through the press and on the stump I have reviewed my past record of public service and I believe that careful comparison will show that I have a record, not merely of profession, but of actual accomplishment. Without boast but in simple justice to my candidacy I submit that I have done more for the people than any man opposing me. And yet I do not ask the people for this nomination as an endorsement of my record or as a reward for what I have accomplished for them. I merely want to remind you of my record that you may place it side by side with the records of my opponents. If your standard of public service under actual test, then I will abide with confidence your choice on Saturday.

I have made a clean and honorable campaign. I have not traded upon the faults of my opponents but have based my claims for nomination solely upon my own qualifications. I have not used any methods to manufacture public opinion in my favor. All the publicity I have had through the press has been either articles volunteered by the newspapers or over my own name. In no way have I put on a false front. My campaign expenses have been such as are approved by the most scrupulous citizen.

After a thorough canvass I am convinced that I am the choice of the people for Congress and nothing except an unfair count or failure of the people to go to the polls can take the nomination from me.

I herewith append a brief summary of some of my service for the people:

I secured an annual appropriation for the establishment of branch experiment stations which work out under actual experiment the most scientific methods of agriculture. These stations, since their establishment, have been a great benefit to the farmers, for the results have been of great value to them in proving out new and better methods of cultivation.

I introduced and fought for a bill creating a department of Rural Banking under which the farmer could charter his own banks and get his own financial accommodation. The European farmer has worked out a system of rural banks under governmental supervision and assistance and experts have shown that the American farmer can do the same. While this bill failed of passage the reform has been inaugurated and will soon be accomplished.

I secured the passage of a bill relating to the use of school houses out of school hours. Prior to the enactment of this law the people of the rural communities were shut out from their school houses under the erroneous notion that they were meant exclusively for teaching school. This law removes a great injustice and gives the school houses back to the people for their whole use and benefit. Whereas people were locked from their own school houses, under my bill they may now use them for any lawful purpose, social, educational, political, religious, or otherwise to their community's interest.

I introduced a bill to guarantee bank deposits and as a result set in definite motion this just reform. The time is not far distant when the people can deposit their money and have it returned to them whether banks fail or not. Similar laws in other states have worked to the interest not only of the people but of the banks.

I introduced and earnestly worked for the passage of a bill giving the Railroad Commission powers sufficient to regulate railroad rates and service. While the railroads succeeded in defeating this bill, a long step has been taken toward putting Kentucky abreast of other progressive states and giving the people the relief they have sought for years.

I introduced a bill prohibiting the use of free passes by legislators and public officials, and used every honorable means to secure its passage.

I introduced and urged the passage of a bill providing for the bi-monthly payment of wages, known as the two-weeks pay bill.

I introduced and fought for the passage of a bill to prevent the corrupt use of money or other things of value to secure office. This measure struck at one of the great menaces to government, for upon purity in elections depends the perpetuity of our political institutions.

I introduced and secured the passage of a bill for the benefit of tax payers and property owners limiting the time for which delinquent taxes may be collected to five years. This law protects the innocent purchaser of delinquent property and puts the exchange of property on a more intelligent, certain and satisfactory basis.

And finally, during my two sessions in the legislature, one in the House and one in the Senate, I have voted for and supported every measure for which a majority of the people stand, and I challenge any person to go to the open record and find where I have betrayed the trust reposed in me.

I respectfully ask you to do me the justice to weigh my record and compare it with that of my opponents. When you have done this I confidently believe you will vote for,

Yours gratefully,
Robert H. Scott.

Lawn Party.

A delightful lawn party was given last week in honor of Miss Ethel Bridges, of Springfield, Tenn., who is the guest of Miss Lena Pitt, daughter of Mr. Pat Pitt, of this city. The hostess for the occasion were Misses Mary Coleman, Mina Roberts and Lena Pitt. The guests were Misses Corrine Sledd, Mabelle Wells, Juliette Coleman, Novella Glasgow, Dessiree Beale, Marion Dale, Dorris Taylor, of Chattanooga, Tenn., Mabelle Schroeder, Clarice Shipley, of Texas, Mary McElrath and Ethel Bridges. Messrs. Edd Dinguid, Paul White, Hayden Roberts, Henry Smoot, Henry Thornton, Harry Sledd, Lennis Wilkinson, Hubert Parker, Robt. Humphreys, Stanley Houston and John Whittenell.

You're Billious and Costive!

Sick Headache, Bad Breath, Sour Stomach, Furred Tongue and Indigestion, Mean Liver and Bad Bowels clogged. Clean up tonight. Get a 25c box of Dr. King's New Life Pills today and empty the stomach and bowels of fermenting gassy foods and waste. A full bowel movement gives a satisfied, thankful feeling—makes you feel fine. Effective, yet mild. Don't gripe. 25c, at your druggist.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve for burns.

Prof. Jimmie Jones came down from Chicago Wednesday, to attend a meeting of the board of trustees of the Murray school, at which time the text books for the ensuing year were selected. Prof. Jones and his wife are taking a summer course in Chicago University.

Cured of Indigestion.

Mrs. Sadie P. Clawson, Indiana, Pa., was bothered with indigestion. "My stomach pained me night and day," she writes. "I would feel bloated and have headache and belching after eating. I also suffered from constipation. My daughter had used Chamberlain's Tablets and they did her so much good that she gave me a few doses of them and insisted upon my trying them. They helped me as nothing else has done." For sale by all dealers.

PATRONS' DAY PROGRAM

The Calloway County Teachers' Institute will be in session next week, beginning Monday and continuing for five days. It will be conducted by Dr. A. J. Kinnsman, dean of the West Kentucky State Normal School, assisted by Mrs. Roemer, of Bowling Green, Ky., who will have charge of the primary instruction.

On Tuesday there will be a special program for trustees and patrons and a speaker furnished by the state will deliver an address.

Mr. McHenry Rhoads who is perhaps the most practical school man in the state of Kentucky will deliver the address on this occasion and it will be well worth any patron's time to hear him. Mr. Rhoads will doubtless advance many new thoughts and ideas along the line of parents' duties that every parent and guardian should hear. The superintendent and teachers urge all patrons who possibly can to attend. The program prepared especially for Tuesday, August 4, is as follows:

Forenoon.

1. Outline of the program for the day and address on the duties, powers and responsibilities of trustees.—Superintendent.

2. What Should be the Educational Qualifications of Trustees?—A Teacher.

3. What Should be the Business Qualifications of a Trustee?—A Business Man.

4. Why Should the Best Man in the District be Elected Trustee?—A Patron.

5. What Should be the Relation of the County Government to the School System.—A County Official.

6. What Should be the Character and Standing in the Community of the School Trustee?—A Minister.

7. Should a Trustee Solicit the Office?—A Patron and Teacher.

8. Co-Operation Between the Patrons and Teachers.—A Patron and Trustee.

9. Should Trustees Attend Teachers' Institutes and Teachers' Associations? If so, Why?

—A Trustee.
10. Why Should Trustees Attend the Meeting of the Kentucky Educational Association?—A Teacher.

11. Co-operation Between the Patrons and Trustees?—A Patron and Trustee.

12. General Summary Address to Patrons and Trustees.—Mr. McHenry Rhoads.

Afternoon.

1. Round the table discussion of the speeches in the forenoon, by the trustees and patrons separate and apart from the institute.

2. General discussion of trustees' problems.

3. Compulsory attendance discussed.

4. Discuss plans for common school graduation exercise.

Adjournment.
It is earnestly desired that every patron in the county who possibly can will attend this meeting next Tuesday, for we feel sure that you will be benefited by so doing.

Patrons, this program has been arranged especially for you and in order that your children may be benefitted. Come, one and all, and help to make next Tuesday a red letter day in our county's educational interest.

The superintendent will try to arrange for music of some kind to vary the program and for plenty of good water for the occasion. Come, bring a basket, and spend a pleasant day in a good cause.

The home of Maude Clark, on Depot street, was destroyed by fire last Friday night together with the contents. Mr. Clark and family were in Stewart county visiting at the time. The origin of the fire is unknown. He carried $1,500 insurance on the house and contents.

DEMOCRATS, RIGHT THE WRONG!

Wipe Out the Stain Placed Upon the Democratic Party of Kentucky by These Four Traitors and Their Whiskey and Beer Trust Bosses

McNUTT

CHARLTON

MUELLER

Eight years ago the Democracy of Kentucky held a Primary Election to nominate a candidate for the United States Senate. More than 100,000 Democrats participated in that primary. Governor Beckham received a majority of the votes, carrying 91 of the 119 counties in the state. The Legislature which followed was Democratic in both branches, but Governor Beckham had enforced the law as to closing the saloons in Louisville on Sunday, and had stood for the County Unit Law, thereby incurring the enmity of the Whiskey Trust and the Beer Trust, and they sought his defeat in the Legislature. The above four men, elected as Democrats, betrayed their trust and voted for the Republican candidate, W. O. Bradley, thereby electing him to the Senate.

Will You Cast a Vote On August 1st to Endorse This Treachery? If not, Vote for J. C. W. Beckham, and Right the Wrong Done Him and the Democratic Party

ZAPATKA WILL AID IN PEACE PLANS

WASHINGTON GETS ASSURANCES FROM ALL REBEL LEADERS. WILL PACIFY MEXICO.

AMNESTY IS PROMISED

Carranza Sends Renewed Assurances of His Friendliness for United States—Will Give Guarantees Desired by Carbajal.

Washington.—Official advices received that the Washington administration was meeting with success in bringing Provisional President Carbajal, Gen. Carranza, Gen. Villa and Gen. Emiliano Zapata into harmony for the restoration of peace in Mexico.

From these four leaders—representing all factors concerned in the establishment of a stable government—came encouraging messages in answer to the counsel and advice which the United States has been lending to smooth the way to a complete agreement.

Gen. Zapata promised to co-operate with the constitutionalists in the work of pacification. Two emissaries from Gen. Carranza to Gen. Zapata are due in Vera Cruz, and will explain to Zapata the concessions and reforms planned by Carranza. Officials were confident an amicable understanding would be reached and did not attribute any significance to the activity of the roaming Zapatistas bands near Mexico City.

Gen. Carranza through the American consuls accompanying him sent renewed assurances of his friendliness for the United States and indicated he would make satisfactory arrangements concerning the amnesty and guarantees desired by the Carbajal government. Carranza arrived at Tampico while there he met Reginaldo Cepeda, his intimate friend, who has been authorized by Provisional President Carbajal to make preliminary arrangements for the transfer of the government to the constitutionalists.

While Gen. Carranza is ready to grant an amnesty and give guarantees to those who have opposed the constitutionalists, persons criminally responsible for the assassination of Madero and Sarez will not be given immunity. As most of the guilty have fled the country the Carbajal government is not disposed to object to such exceptions, especially as it is intended to prosecute them through the courts.

Provisional President Carbajal himself sent for the Brazilian minister, who is caring for the interests of the United States in Mexico, and asked him to inform the Washington government that he and his associates wanted no share in the new administration, but simply an amnesty and guarantee for the property of all Mexicans. Mr. Carbajal's statement was transmitted to American Consul Silliman, in preparing the way for the peace conferences to be held when Cepeda arrives.

Doubts which officials had expressed over Gen. Villa's attitude also were quieted, when word came from him that he would do all in his power to restore peace in Mexico, and would unite with the other constitutionalist leaders toward that common purpose. Villa's message was sent in response to the personal appeal of the Washington government. Officials felt, after the receipt of Villa's message, that even if political dissension did arise such friction would not be permitted by Villa to develop to the point of counter-revolution.

A message was received from Charles Clouse of the French embassy, who informed Secretary Bryan that an investigation by agents of the French government completely exonerated Villa from personal blame in connection with the killing at Zacatecas recently of two French citizens, members of the Order of Christian Brothers.

HUERTA ARRIVES KINGSTON

Kingston, Jamaica.—Gen. Huerta and the party of fugitives from Mexico arrived here aboard the German cruiser Dresden from Puerto Mexico.

Arrangements had been made in advance for the former Mexican dictator, with Gen. Blanguet and the rest of the party, to remain here for a week or more at a hotel where several other Mexican refugees already have taken up their quarters.

Gen. Huerta declined to see any one while aboard the Dresden, but disembarked and went to a hotel and immediately returned to the expensive suite assigned for him two weeks ago. His arrival caused no excitement.

Los Angeles.—That the Rothschilds of Paris and London purchased 100,000 acres of lower California lands from the Huerta government a month ago for one cent an acre and that the Rothschilds received $100,000 for allowing the sale, is charged by Gen. Carranza in a message to his agents in the United States.

CEPEDA SELECTED AS AGENT

Carbajal's Envoy Goes to Sign Armistice With Carranza—Latter More Yielding.

Washington.—Reginaldo Cepeda, senator from the state of Coahuila and intimate friend of Gen. Carranza, has been selected by Provisional President Carbajal to negotiate the transfer of the government at Mexico City to the constitutionalists.

Mr. Cepeda, who was in hiding in Mexico City during the Huerta dictatorship, left Vera Cruz for Tampico to meet Gen. Carranza. He has full instructions and authority to arrange for the transfer of government.

Jose Castellot, personal representative of Mr. Carbajal, conveyed this information to Secretary Bryan. Messrs. Mangel, Novelo and Urqueta, who, it had been supposed, would constitute the Carbajal commission, it was learned, merely volunteered their services and have no credentials or authority from Carbajal.

As soon as Dr. Cepeda is received by Gen. Carranza an armistice will be formally signed as the first step in the negotiations. Gen. Carranza has indicated his willingness to declare a truce during the negotiations, and the Carbajal government is anxious to do likewise. The Carbajal government has been instructed to ask for only two things—a complete amnesty for political offenders and guarantees of protection to the lives and property of the Mexican people.

Secretary Bryan expressed confidence there would be no difficulty in the way of a Carranza-Carbajal agreement. There are, however, two other factors in the problem—Villa and Zapata—causing uneasiness, but President Wilson said he was sure Villa would cause no trouble. Secretary Bryan named public dispatches from George C. Carothers, special representative of the state department with Villa, saying the fighting general would not break with Carranza.

Mexicans here who have been kept advised of Villa's antipathy toward Carranza say the breach has been healed but temporarily. They say Villa will remain quietly in Northern Mexico and when Carranza reaches Mexico City and a conference of generals is called Villa will make vigorous demands for a share in the government or in the promotions of his friends. Villa's potential strength will be his position in Northern Mexico, he said. He will let Carranza argue his case for him in the capital.

IN TOUCH WITH CAPITAL

Rebels Expect to Enter Mexico City Without Bloodshed—Advance Guard Near City.

Victoria, Tamaulipas, Mexico.—Direct telegraphic communication between Mexico City and Gen. Carranza, constitutional chief, was opened today. Officers with Carranza said afterward that the triumphal entry of the constitutionalists into Mexico City and without bloodshed is assured. Carranza is here en route to Tampico.

From Robles Romero in Mexico City asking for instructions. Dominguez has been General Carranza's confidential agent in the capital since the beginning of the revolution. He also acted as intermediary during the Madero revolution and it was to him that Gen. Diaz turned over the government and the city during the time between his departure for Europe and the entry of Francisco Madero. Gen. Carranza's reply to Mr. Dominguez was not made public here.

Constitutionalist officials here regard it as certain that the preliminary arrangements both through Mr. Dominguez and with commissioners Carbajal and Villa will be completed. It is expected to appoint to confer with Gen. Carranza at Saltillo will be brief capital at the head of his victorious troops with little delay.

The opening of direct communication was not unexpected here. Constitutional officials assert that Gen. Carranza already had received information from diplomatic sources through his agents in the United States that Carbajal formally had expressed his inclination to turn over the government and the city, but also the federal army. The news of the opening of communication with the capital was communicated at once to John R. Silliman, President Wilson's personal representative with Gen. Carranza.

The journey of Gen. Carranza to Tampico was not continued because of the press of business. There was a general feeling of jubilation here, as the impression prevailed that the fighting and bloodshed of the present movement in Mexico is at an end.

It was understood that every precaution would be taken by Gen. Carranza, as well as by the authorities in Mexico City, to prevent disorder or destruction of life or property in the capital until his arrival.

Villa is Sighted. El Paso, Texas.—Gen. Villa has not been invited to take part in the triumphal entry into Mexico City. However, Villa will participate in the ceremony.

Fear New Government. Washington.—The attitude of the future government in Mexico toward federal court decisions under Huerta was the subject of a conference between senators and the state department representatives of all interests in Mexico.

SOUTHERN R. R. IS FLEECE

Useless Branches Are Sold to It—Says V. & S. W. Offered for $5,000,000. Southern Paid $6,500,000.

Washington.—Charges that the Southern railway has been imposed upon, much as the New Haven is said to have been, through the unloading upon it of branches of little worth at fabulous prices, added an unexpected feature to the investigation which a senate subcommittee is making of alleged discriminations against southern ports in coal rates.

B. L. Dulaney of Bristol, Tenn., made the charges in connection with an explanation of why he believed the Morgan interests dominated the Southern railway and directed the action of its officials. He finished his direct statement to the committee, but will go on the stand to undergo cross-examination by attorneys for the Southern railway.

Mr. Dulaney said he once offered to sell the control of the Virginia & Southwestern railway to the Southern for $500,000. A bond issue of $1,000,000 stood against the line. His offer was refused, he said, but later Henry McHarg sold the line to the Southern for about $6,500,000 with a profit estimated at $4,000,000.

The Knoxville & Bristol railway, sold to the Southern for $500,000, Mr. Dulaney said, was offered for $400,000 and he did not buy because he did not think the line worth that amount.

WOULD TALK ON TREATY

Roosevelt Requests Permission to Appear Before Senate Committee on Colombian Treaty.

Washington.—A request from Col. Theodore Roosevelt for an opportunity to appear before the senate foreign relations committee in opposition to the Colombian treaty was considered by the committee, without action, today. As Chairman Stone was unable to marshal a majority, Col. Roosevelt went to marshal a majority for himself. He wanted to tell why he opposes paying $25,000,000 to Colombia for the partition of Panama.

"I replied to Col. Roosevelt's letter personally, saying that I would submit the matter of hearings on the Colombian treaty and his appearance before it to the committee," said Senator Stone.

The Missouri senator said he had not set a date for another meeting of the committee, but that he would try to get the members together soon. The text of Mr. Roosevelt's letter he would not make public, because it was addressed to the committee.

Later Senator Stone made public Col. Roosevelt's letter, in which the former president wrote: "If there is any intention of your committee to act favorably on the proposed treaty with Colombia, by which we are to pay Colombia $25,000,000 and to express regret for the action taken in the past, I respectfully request to be heard thereon."

AGREE ON COTTON MEASURE

Washington.—House and senate conferences on the cotton futures bill agreed at a private conference at the home of Senator Hoke Smith on the Lever bill, which permits trading in cotton futures when in standardized grades of cotton, but through a prohibitive tax of one cent a pound of cotton futures trading on unstandardized grades.

The secretary of agriculture is to fix the standards, by which are required to keep exact records of all transactions and to hold such records open to inspection by agents of the department. Heavy fines are imposed for violation of this provision for public sale of cotton.

The law is to be made to apply to foreign as well as interstate commerce in cotton.

St. Petersburg, Prince Nicholas, editor of Grigolashvili, died here. He was actively active in political affairs.

AUSTRIA AND SERBIA ON VERGE OF WAR

CONFLICT MAY INVOLVE ALL EUROPE—SERBIA MUST MAKE AMENDS FOR DEATH.

ULTIMATUM FROM AUSTRIA

Both Germany and Russia Are Preparing to Take Action—May Mean Much Dreaded Conflict of Triple Alliance.

Vienna.—A war which may involve the whole of Europe is threatened as the result of the slaying of Archduke Francis Ferdinand and Austria's peremptory note to Serbia demanding that the government of that country, in which the slaying occurred, give a satisfactory apology and disclaimer of all connection with the murder. There is no notice of its coming, and an extremely grave crisis has been precipitated. Both Germany and Russia are preparing to take action.

Baron von Gieslin, minister of the Austro-Hungarian minister at Belgrade, has been instructed to leave Serbia with the entire legation staff. The Serbian government has not notified him that it agrees without delay to comply with the demands of Austria's note.

Although the peremptory character of the ultimatum and the brief time allowed to Serbia to reply came as a surprise to the Austrian public, the government's action meets with universal approval.

The relations between Serbia and Austria were felt to have become intolerable. It was believed in Serbia that the time was ripe for the disintegration of the Austro-Hungarian empire and that Austria would suffer nothing rather than run the risk of a European war. Hence Serbian statesmen aspired to bring Bosnia and other Austrian Slav provinces under Serbian rule. Germans and Austrians have for several years attributed the bad trade in the monarchy and the crushing taxation caused by repeated mobilizations to Serbian hostile intrigues, and there is a feeling of relief, therefore, that matters now have been brought to a head and that Serbia will be settled with once, for all.

DEFENSE FALLS INTO TRAP

First Mme. Caillaux Turns Over Letters That Cause Killing—They Prove Harmless.

Paris.—The defense in the trial of Mme. Henriette Caillaux, charged with the murder of Gaston Calmette, editor of the Figaro, was caught in a trap innocently set by Mme. Gueydan, once the wife of the prisoner's husband.

The principal argument of Maitre Labori, counsel for Mme. Caillaux, has been that his client was driven to shoot M. Calmette through fear that two letters, of which she was aware, would be published by M. Calmette and the secrets of her inner life there by made public.

This argument, it is said, will be reduced to nothing by the reading of the letters, which Mme. Gueydan reluctantly gave over to Maitre Labori. She declined to receive them back, replying to a question from him with the words she desired from M. Caillaux: "I do not care what you do with them. Publish all of them if you wish to do so."

Their reading now is considered as inevitable. Mme. Gueydan's counsel, S. G. Archibald, said concerning the letters: "They are innocuous. They contain several disparaging references to Mme. Gueydan, then Caillaux's wife, and consider the possibility of his asking her pardon. She described her methods of defense against what he termed 'the machievian maneuvers of an unfaithful husband.' She testified that he even threatened her life."

Then she left him hoping he would follow her, but he did not, and she asked, with a flash of her eyes and a tightening of her lips: "You know why?" She gained the sympathy of those in the court room with telling phrases. There were murmurs of applause, despite the admonitory rappings of the judge and threats to clear the court.

EXPRESS FEAR OF CIVIL WAR

Trade 'Stagnated' in Ulster While Troops Are Being Armed—Indorse Carson's Plan.

Belfast, Ireland.—Official announcement of the failure of the Buckingham Palace conference on home rule caused no excitement here, as telegrams from the Ulster leaders had been received previously.

The leading business men, clergy, bankers and manufacturers who had declared for an antihome rule movement were unanimous in indorsement of the uncompromising attitude of Sir Edward Carson and Capt. James Craig in demanding the total and permanent exclusion of Ulster from the workings of the home rule bill.

The business community is suffering severely through stagnation in trade and shipbuilding. There is a willingness to order new boats of goods with the fear of civil war hanging overhead.

Miss Havemeyer is the very wealthy young woman who is soon to marry the earl of Euston, oldest son and heir of the duke of Grafton. Her home is in New York, but she has been living in England for several years.

CLAFLIN CREDITORS MEET

Will Elect Committee to Consider Report of Receivers on Assets. Judge Holt to Preside.

New York.—When the creditors of the failed H. B. Claflin company meet here to elect a committee which under the courts ruling will have the power to accept or reject any settlement or proposition the receivers may ultimately make, counsel for international banks, trust companies and mercantile houses representing a capital of many millions of dollars will demand representation on this committee.

The Creditors' Audit & Adjustment association, a credit men's protective organization, composed of these international houses and individuals, the statement announced, have engaged as counsel Frederick W. Lehman to conduct the fight for representation. "They have prepared in other ways to fight any attempt to deny them a voice in the make-up of the committee," the statement says. Mr. Lehman was one of the United States commissioners to the Mexican mediation conference in Niagara Falls, Ontario. He was in New York, conferring with Claflin creditors who will be present or represented at the meeting at which George C. Holt, a former federal judge, appointed as special master, will preside.

MME. CAILLAUX NO. 1 TALKS

Puts Present Mme. Caillaux Upon Rack—Letters in Case Are Given to Labori.

Paris.—Mme. Bertha Gueydan, Joseph Caillaux's first wife, a slender woman with black eyes and wasted cheeks, faced her former husband, the editor of the Figaro, and put upon the rack the woman who had won him from her—Mme. Henriette Caillaux, now on trial charged with the murder of Gaston Calmette.

The emotional climax of the trial was reached when other private letters were handed over by Mme. Gueydan to Maitre Labori, counsel for Mme. Caillaux.

"Here is the packet of letters I took at Marnes," said Mme. Gueydan, giving them to M. Labori. "I will consider with Maitre Chenu what shall be done," said M. Labori, "but whatever we decide, the jury must rest assured that they will be apprised of their contents as is their right and duty to expect."

"Among them," added Mme. Gueydan, "are the two letters referred to as the private letters."

Mme. Gueydan then left the box. Her remarkable personality had completely dominated the proceedings. For three hours she spoke and her voice carried to the remotest corner of the room.

In that time she laid bare many of the secrets of her life with M. Caillaux. She told of his love and of his leaving himself at her knees to ask her pardon. She described her methods of defense against what he termed 'the machievian maneuvers of an unfaithful husband.' She testified that he even threatened her life.

Then she left him hoping he would follow her, but he did not, and she asked, with a flash of her eyes and a tightening of her lips: "You know why?" She gained the sympathy of those in the court room with telling phrases. There were murmurs of applause, despite the admonitory rappings of the judge and threats to clear the court.

Sydney, N. S. W.—The Island Aoba of the New Hebrides group is in immediate danger of collapsing from incessant earthquake shocks, according to advices received here.

Editor Fights Duel. Havana.—A duel was fought here by Leon Ichazo, one of the editors of El Financiero, and Raul Nunez, brother of the secretary of sanitation. Nunez was wounded in the arm.

Cheer Wm. G. Sharp. Washington.—The resignation of Representative Wm. G. Sharp of Ohio, recently appointed, and who had been a member of the House of Representatives, was announced and Mr. Sharp was applauded when he appeared on the floor.

PROHIBITION LOSE OUT IN TEXAS ELECTION

RESOLUTIONS FOR STATEWIDE PROHIBITION LOSE BY LARGE MAJORITY.

ALL "DRY" ENTRIES LOSE

Ferguson Leads Dry Ticket Nominee for Governor of Texas by 40,000. Hobby Leads for Lieutenant-Governor.

Dallas, Tex.—With more than three-fourths of the total vote cast in the democratic primary election returned here, it was regarded as certain that James E. Ferguson of Temple anti-prohibitionist, former lawyer-banker, had been nominated for governor by a majority of perhaps 40,000 over Thomas H. Hall of Houston, former congressman, who was chosen by a prohibitionist staff convention to make the race. It also appeared certain that the demand for submission of a statewide prohibition amendment to the state constitution had been defeated by a majority of 20,000.

Returns also showed that no prohibitionist on the state ticket who had an anti-prohibition opponent had been nominated, except as to the two congressmen-at-large, which result is in doubt.

The result, also was in doubt as to Lieutenant-governor and commissioner of agriculture. In the former race W. P. Hobby, newspaper man of Beaumont, was leading; B. B. Surgeon of Paris. H. A. Hallbert of Coleman and Fred W. Davis of Gainesville had almost an even number of votes for commissioner.

Democratic nomination in Texas is equivalent to election.

HOME RULE FIGHT IS ON

Nationalists Clash With Troops at Dublin and Four Killed.

Dublin.—Three men and one woman are dead and more than 60 persons are in the hospital wounded as the result of a battle of the King's Own Scottish Borderers firing into a mob in the streets of Dublin. Seven of the wounded are expected to die. Among them are three women and a boy of 10.

The affair was the result of a gun-running exploit of the nationalist volunteers, aided by a mob composed largely of women and youths. A consignment of rifles, said to number 10,000, was landed at Howth, nine miles from Dublin, from a private yacht. The nationalist volunteers cut the telephone wires and stopped travel on the Dublin roads, and, according to reports, sent away most of the rifles, together with 70,000 rounds of ammunition in motor cars.

A battalion of the King's Own Scottish Borderers was ordered to capture the arms when the authorities heard of the volunteers were bringing them into the city. The soldiers encountered a detachment of volunteers at Clonmel bridge. Soon a great crowd collected and followed the troops, jeering them and cheering for John Redmond and home rule.

Finally the mob began throwing bottles and stones, injuring several soldiers. To the attack the battalion replied with a scattered fusillade. In an instant the street was covered with wounded, while terrified men, women and children ran in all directions.

AUSTRIA AND SERBIA SPLIT

Serbia's Reply to Austria's Ultimatum May Bring on War—Ministers Given Passports.

London.—Developments appear to furnish new proof that Austria is determined to make war on Serbia. The possibilities of a general European war seem greater than ever have confronted the present generation.

The Serbian reply to the Austro-Hungarian ultimatum was an acceptance of almost all the imperious demands, except that Austrian officials shall participate in the investigation and fix the responsibility for the anti-Austrian propaganda. Serbia proposed an appeal to the powers at The Hague for the settlement of that feature.

Notwithstanding this humiliating surrender, which was more than Europe expected of the proud little nation, the Austrian government gave the Serbian minister his passports, which may be construed as a virtual declaration of war.

Austria committed an act of war by arresting the chief of the Serbian general staff, Gen. Putnik, near Budapest. A formal declaration of war is not expected, because Serbia is not a party to The Hague convention, which requires this.

Collusion Charged. New York.—Collusion by George J. Gould and Howard Gould to deprive Katherine Cleggmon, Gould of her dower rights in the estate of her former husband, Howard Gould, is charged in the answer she has filed to a civil action.

Branded a Massacre. London.—The Daily News calls the affair an inhuman massacre and demands an investigation of the conduct of the soldiers. It says the responsibility upon the weakness of the government.

AT THE BOOKING OFFICE OFF-STAGE COMEDIES by Will Bradshaw

THE STORY OF PERCY, THE ANGEL

Ollie Oneal (character woman)—Listen, bunch! I want to read something I just glommed out of a show sheet. It will make you laugh out loud.

Dad Wadell (who knew Booth—by sight)—Woman, can't you see I am studying a part I will play next season, undoubtedly.

Algy (late of the 'Alis)—Undoubtedly—not! What did you see in the Weekly Buzzer, Ollie?

Ollie Oneal—Listen. Here it is: "One of the most romantic affairs that has taken place this season among stars of the dramatic firmament occurred last week at Los Angeles when Lottie Leydon, leading lady of the Sea Cliff stock company, and Bert Walker, her leading man, were united in marriage. It is said to be a romance of long standing. The couple have an offer from a prominent eastern producer to play an all-season engagement on Broadway."

Will Bately—Holy acrobats! A season on Broadway? What's the matter with those Coast people—getting Jooney right? Why, that boy could—

Ollie Oneal—Hist, Will. Never mind about the Broadway part of it, but tell me what Percy Dittell will say when he reads this little item this morning? He'll do something desperate I know.

Algy—Why should he? Will, tell this English comedian why Percy will hit the ceiling when he sees this.

Will Bately—It's like this, Algy.

Dad Wadell—What did he know about it; he was only the author. I—

Ollie Oneal—That was when Percy first saw Lottie. We were playing Waynesburg, where his father owns three coal mines. Two hard and one soft. Percy was in a box with his family the night we opened. After the act the house manager came back and said there was a millionaire's son out in front wanted to come back and meet the ideal of his dreams. For a minute my heart stopped beating. I thought the fortune teller's words were coming true—

Algy—What did the fortune teller tell you, Ollie?

Dad Wadell—Tell me, I'm a student of the psycho myself.

Will Bately—What about Percy that night?

Ollie Oneal—A fortune teller told me that when fate looked darkest to me a light completed man with a million would cross my path.

Algy—Wonderful! It's about time he'd show up, Ollie. You've been out of booking three weeks now.

Ollie Oneal—Some day he will come, never fear.

Dad Wadell—I hope he will be interested in Shakespeare—

Ollie Oneal—When the Waynesburg manager made that announcement I thought it was my man.

Algy—But it wasn't.

Ollie Oneal—Nope. It was Percy begging for an introduction to Lottie. He met her and from that minute on he was a goner. So was she. Percy's pa heard about it and tried to break

"She Got a Tip Somewhere That Percy Was Going to Spend That Thirty-Five for Flowers."

Poor old Percy was the one who made Lottie what she is today. His drag and his coin.

Tottie Sanders (a eubrette)—I'm glad he got it handed to him, take my word. Spending his dad's change on an actress' fiancée. Serves him right. If he boosted a poor chorus girl and made a leadin' man of her he'd have been appreciated. Do you think if it was my gentleman friend I would have gone on married another?

But, what's the use; I'll never get a chance to play a part like that.

Will Bately—What I don't understand is that reference to Bert as a leading man. When Morris Rosenberg got back from the Coast last week he told me Bert was playing J. venies and doing the job badly.

Dad Wadell—I know Mr. Walker to be an excellent actor. I started him in the business.

Will Bately—He wouldn't be the first peanut peddler you started on the wrong track. Dad, if you take Bert Walker, could you act you ought to get 30 days in the cooler. The truck drivers lost a good man when he took to the boards.

Tottie Sanders—You know it! He ought to be understood to a scene shifter. He worked with us a week one time and the way he played was a shame.

Algy—E must be a blighter, I dire-say.

Lily Williams (chorus lady)—That wasn't it at all. Bert is a fine actor, but he couldn't work in Tottie's company. He was too artistic and refined. Imagine a real leading man, like Bert, out with a four-trunk show playing honky-tonks. That notice Ollie read about him is all to the good.

Dad Wadell—I once taught him the graveyard scene from Hamlet and the excellent way he did it would have gotten him a position in my own company—if I had one.

Ollie Oneal—All I can think about is poor Percy. Imagine the lad's feelings when he realizes that Lottie is gone out of his life forever.

Will Bately—If she married a real actor Percy wouldn't care. He's game. But when he hears it—

Ollie Oneal—Poor Percy was so wrapped up in Lottie. Remember when she was with us in "The Turn of the Road," doing Lucy the miner's daughter?

Tottie Sanders—Did she do Lucy?

Lily Williams—She didn't do a first twice a day. I was with the author one night when she assassinated it. He was ready to throw a fit because that was his pet character.

STATE OFFICIALS MUST NOW SETTLE

EXPENSE ACCOUNT FROM HOME TO CAPITAL IS NO LONGER ALLOWED.

NEW LAW IS INTERPRETED

Expense Only Allowed for Trips on State Business and Necessity Must Be Shown—Is Far-Reaching.

(Special Frankfort Correspondence.)

Frankfort.—Officers or employees of the commonwealth of Kentucky, who have offices located at the seat of government, shall not be permitted to charge for expenses except from Frankfort to the place where the business they are transacting is to be transacted, and from that place back to Frankfort. In no event shall the auditor allow any claim for any official for expenses in going from the seat of government or the place where the official is assigned to duty to the claimant's real place of residence, or in return therefrom, unless it is shown that it was necessary for the claimant to make said trip in the discharge of business for the commonwealth.

"That," said Atty. Gen. Garnett, in reply to inquiry from Assistant State Auditor G. B. Likens as to the application of the act of 1914 to specific cases, "applies without discrimination to all public officers unless specific exception is made in some law referring to the particular office."

It is a section of the act "to require officers and employees of the commonwealth of Kentucky to furnish an itemized statement to the auditor of public accounts of their traveling and incidental expenses while in the performance of public duties required of them by law." It affects most particularly members and employees of public boards and commissions, which meet here at stated intervals, and whose members almost without exception reside away from Frankfort. There has been no law, as in the case of the heads of executive departments, requiring such officers to reside at the capital and it never has been the custom for them to take up their residences here, the expenses of their monthly or semi-monthly trips to Frankfort and their board and lodging for a day or two at a time, being charged up to the state.

Extend Time for Reports.

Thirty days more have been given industrial institutions in which to file information concerning the nature of their business, the number of employees and the pay roll with the workmen's compensation board under the act of 1914. This information should have been filed with the board 30 days after it was organized. That would have been July 17, but allowing for misunderstandings the board decided to extend the time until August 17. The board sent out 1,096 blanks to concerns listed by the labor bureau of the department of agriculture, and so far only 251 have replied. That would be the blank to come in slowly. Employers have until November 1 to notify the board whether they will accept the terms of the compensation act; but whether they intend to or not they must furnish the information required before August 17.

Methodist Church Is Sold.

The First Methodist Episcopal church of Pikeville has been sold by Master Commissioner F. T. Hether for $4,000 to satisfy the indebtedness of a Peck-Williamson Co. The church is a magnificent structure, costing, including the site, $14,000. It was appraised at $12,000. The money which the Rev. Mr. Ackman depended upon to pay the principal part of the cost of the structure failed to materialize, and the local church was unable to meet the indebtedness. This is the first Methodist church ever sold at public auction in the state of Kentucky.

Not To Meet in August.

Owing to a congestion of the docket, which the commissioners wish to dispose of this summer, the railroad commission has decided not to hold another regular meeting until the first of Wednesday in September, but will hold several consultations in August at Louisville or Lexington for the purpose of disposing of the cases now before it. Every case has been passed to the September docket.

Hospitality for the Sick.

The contention that "hospitals for the care of the sick and infirm are the product of Christianity," is probably correct. Although in ancient times there may have been places for the reception of strangers and travelers, it is quite doubtful if there was anything of the nature of charitable institutions for the reception and regular care of the sick. The "Bethesda" of Scripture was probably no more than a collection of sheds built round the ports of alleged miraculous cures. Among the Greeks and Romans there is to be found but little evidence of the existence of hospitals in our sense of the word.

The Hobby-Rider.

When Louis Napoleon was seeking to attract the attention of France in order that he might secure the power which he coveted, he rode a horse up and down the principal thoroughfares of Paris. And so has become known as the Man on Horseback. Many an ambitious person hides his hobbies in the public view long enough to catch the eye of the crowd. But there are some who even a hobby will throw the rider.

Many Concerns Affected.

The Clear Fork Coal and Coke Co. of Fonde, Bell county, has raised the question whether under the workmen's compensation act it can include miners employed over the Tennessee line. Its mine unit is in Kentucky, but its coal enters all in Tennessee. Robert T. Caldwell, of the attorney general's office, advised the company to include in its report to the compensation board only the most actually employed in Kentucky. This opinion will affect a great many concerns located on the borders of the state.

Honorary Vice President.

As governor of one of the seventeen states in 1814, when Francis Key wrote the national anthem, Gov. McCreary has been made honorary vice president of the celebration at Baltimore, September 6 to 15, of the centennial of the writing of the anthem, by the National Star-Spangled Banner association. J. H. Preston is the president and R. E. Lee, secretary.

Receiver Enjoined.

Deputy United States Marshal Oscar West has returned prohibition on the federal court to enjoin the receiver appointed by the state court for administering the affairs of the Olympia Springs Co., bankruptcy proceedings having been instituted in the federal court at Louisville.

Rules Governing Shipments.

Intrastate shipment of live stock in Kentucky are giving the state live stock sanitary board considerable bother. The act of 1914 created the office of state veterinarian and provided for local veterinarians and invested the board with regulation of the movement of stock for the purpose of preventing the spread of diseases. The sanitary regulation of stock cars and the stock yards is provided in the program of the board. The board adjourned.

Need a Little Help.

As usual, the Progressives are confident that with a little help from the Republicans and Democrats they can take charge of the government.

GOOD TIMES COMING

Artificial Depression of Business at an End.

Approach of Boom in Country Has Forced Obstructionists to Get Out of the Way—Era of Prosperity at Hand.

The Pennsylvania railroad has ordered 100,000 tons of steel rails. This order was divided among five steel-making corporations: The steel trust and the Pennsylvania, Cambria, Lackawanna and Bethlehem Steel companies.

The division of such an order proves that the road needs the rails in a hurry. It has held off from ordering them just as long as possible; it needs them now in rush time to take care of the increase of business which has already begun.

Part of this hold-off policy, no doubt, was due to genuine apprehension as to future legislation. More, it is to be feared, was designed to put pressure on the administration and the interstate commerce commission, as a means of forcing favorable action on railroad demands. How long this plan of bulldozing would have been followed under ordinary conditions, no one can tell.

In this case, the near approach of a boom in business has warned obstructionists to get out of the way, and the Pennsylvania railroad is too well managed an institution to be the last to heed that warning.

"There's a good time comin', it's almost here." The prosperity special sweeping in from western farms is almost in sight. The effort to "put Wilson in a hole" by artificially prolonging the period of dull times through which the world has been passing has failed ingloriously; and, now intelligent business men throughout the land are joining to promote and care for the era of progress which Wall Street tried in vain to keep away.

Sees Certain Victory.

Before Norman E. Mack sailed for Europe he dictated a statement concerning the political situation. He does not believe that the Republicans and the Progressives will get together this fall or in 1916, and that in both instances, victory will be certain for the Democrats.

"When Colonel Roosevelt made his Pittsburgh speech," said Mr. Mack, "he again threw down the gauntlet to the Republican party and cleared up the entire political situation."

"As a matter of fact, it was the only thing left for Mr. Roosevelt to do unless he wanted to repudiate all his utterances from the day he arrived at the Chicago convention, two years ago, for the purpose of annihilating the Republican party, which he accomplished at that time. His Pittsburgh speech showed his intention of continuing the fight to a finish until the job is completed."

"The Republican party now is in the same condition that the Democratic party was for 16 years, except that Roosevelt expects to continue the fight for 16 existence, while the contestants in the Democratic party did not from 1896 to 1908."

A Question.

The United States Steel corporation now has unfilled orders ahead for more than 4,000,000 tons of its products. The figure was 3,998,160 tons on May 31, and there has been a steady increase since that date.

This is an increase of 25 per cent over the average unfilled orders during 1910 and 1911, when the Aldrich tariff was in its glory, and "prosperity" was reigning by Wall Street flat. Now, according to the same financial center, there is great "depression" in business, for which tariff and trust legislation are declared responsible.

What makes prosperity, as Wall Street defines the word; actual business, like making steel, or marking stocks up and down on a blackboard?

Really Up to the Country.

Whether President Wilson is right or not in regarding the "tired feeling" of many business men as "merely psychological"—that is, existing only in their own imaginations—it is certain that the foundations of American prosperity are solid.

Good crops have always meant "good times" heretofore. Quite possibly if we could all just make up our minds to take a more cheerful view of the future we would all wake up some fine morning and find prosperity knocking at our doors and refusing to go away unless positively kicked down the front steps.

Good Deal of a Reality.

And that resumption of full-time work by the Allegheny Steel company at Brackenridge, Pa., isn't any psychological stunt, either.—Indianapolis News.

May Trust the President.

It is a certainty that the president and his associates at the capital know more of the innermost details of situations than do their critics. This, of course, applies specially to the Mexican situation. It also applies to all the big questions for which the administration is being criticized.

NO EXPERT WITNESS NEEDED

Quite Evident Mr. Miggs Was Right When He Testified as to the Handwriting.

"Libel, Indeed!"

Old Miggs repeated the words to himself dully and uncomprehendingly, as he tramped along to the court, where he was to appear as a witness in a local libel suit.

Nervously he entered the witness box.

The fierce looking lawyer eyed him calculatingly.

"Do you swear," he asked, "that this is not your handwriting?"

"I don't think so," stammered Miggs.

"Now, be careful," instructed the lawyer. "Are you prepared to swear that this handwriting does not resemble yours?"

"Yes," answered Miggs trembling.

"You take your oath that this does not in any way resemble your handwriting?" solemnly queried the learned man.

"Yes, sir," stammered the witness, now thoroughly frightened.

"Well, then, prove it!" denounced the lawyer triumphantly, as he thrust his head toward the witness.

This action woke the last spark of drooping courage in poor Miggs; and, thrusting forth his head, he yelled:

"Cos I can't write!"

Law's Uncertainties.

"When you poke a toad," said old Farmer Hornbeck, philosophically, "you can't tell which way he will jump, nor how far; and it is just about the same way with a jury."

That so? returned young Jay Green, in a noncommittal way.

"Yep. For instance, in the case of Plunk Jarvis, who has just been tried over at Kickyassett courthouse for pulling out his brother-in-law's whiskers by the roots in a fight, the jury discharged Plunk and fined his brother-in-law 10 cents, the regular price of a shave."—Puck.

Outspoken.

Mrs. Smith's four sons made the life of her old colored servant a burden. One day Uncle Andy was busy in the garden hoeing corn, and for half an hour Tom, the most mischievous of the quartet, had amused himself throwing clouds of dirt at him. At last Andy threw down his hoe and stamped indignantly down to the house.

"Miss Ella," he said, to the little culprit's mother, "Ah jes' has to tell you dat dat boy Tawn am de meanest chile yu got—an Ah tells you fo' yo' face and tells you beehive 'yo' back!"

Still in Vogue.

John Vincent Honeywell, the veteran life guard of Bar Harbor, was talking about bathing suits. "They tell me," said the wise old man, "that the girls 'll wear suits this summer to match the eyes."

He added with a chuckle: "Suits to catch the eyes 'll still be popular, too."

Palatable, Economical, Nourishing.

A Nebr. woman has outlined the prize food in a few words, and that from personal experience. She writes:

"After our long experience with Grape-Nuts, I cannot say enough in its favor. We have used this food almost continually for seven years."

"We sometimes tried other advertised breakfast foods but we invariably returned to Grape-Nuts as the most palatable, economical and nourishing of all."

"When I quit tea and coffee and began to use Postum and Grape-Nuts, I was almost a nervous wreck. I was so irritable I could not sleep nights, had no interest in life."

"After using Grape-Nuts a short time I began to improve and all these ailments have disappeared and now I am a well woman. My two children have been almost raised on Grape-Nuts, which they eat three times a day."

"They are pictures of health and have never had the least symptom of stomach trouble, even through the most severe stage of whooping cough they could retain Grape-Nuts when all else failed."

"Grape-Nuts food has saved doctor bills, and has been, therefore, a most economical food for us."

To the Democratic Voters of Calloway County

For several years I have been interested in the Jefferson Davis Highway, which, starting at Bowling Green, runs through Franklin, Russellville, Elkton, Hopkinsville, Cadiz, Princeton, Eddyville, Smithland, Benton, Murray, Mayfield, and converging at Paducah extends to Wickliffe, Bardwell, Clinton and Hickman. This Highway will cover about 300 miles, with the Jefferson Davis Park and monument in Christian and Todd counties as the center. I have promised to give a shade tree for every fifty feet along the proposed road, requiring 60,000 trees.

When the birthplace of Jefferson Davis was about to be lost I advanced the necessary money to secure it for the people of the South. I have attended three meetings along this Highway to promote co-operation among the communities in planning and constructing this great monument to a great man. For four years I have been collecting funds throughout the South and North to erect a fitting memorial at Mr. Davis' birthplace. We have spent nearly $20,000 in this enterprise. The only purpose I had was to honor Mr. Davis and to construct a memorial which would be a credit to the men and women of Kentucky and the whole South. I have been a steadfast Democrat for forty-two years, always in the very forefront of its fights, and have made more speeches for the Democratic party than any man in the State who never held office.

In view of the work that I have done and hope to do in your county, am I asking too much in requesting your support for the short term of ninety days in the United States Senate?

Did He Vote for Bryan

G. Bennett H. Young, speaking at Madisonville in behalf of his candidacy for the short term, said: "It has been persistently and continuously charged, and never denied, that Hon. Johnson N. Camden, now candidate for United States Senate, for the short term, refused to vote for William Jennings Bryan in 1896, 1900 and 1908, when Mr. Bryan was the Democratic standard bearer for the Presidency. Twenty days ago I publicly stated this and advised Mr. Camden that if he would deny the charge I would take fullest opportunity in every speech I made to right him in this regard. Nothing has come from him on the subject.

"If Mr. Camden could not afford to vote for Mr. Bryan when three times nominated by his party for the Presidency, can the Democrats of Kentucky afford now to vote for Mr. Camden for United States Senate?" "It may be true that Mr. Camden in 1911 and 1912 paid to the campaign funds the fabulous sum of $45,000, but can he, when refusing to support the party leaders, win the votes of Democrats by contributions to campaign expenses, even though these be large enough to stagger belief?"

"As to what party Mr. Camden belonged before 1911 there is no record. He made no speeches, he helped in no canvasses. As far as the public knows he did nothing in advocacy of Democratic principles until 1911. Will two barbecues, where a crowd can be fed at twenty-five cents a piece, and big campaign money make a Democrat suitable for United States Senate?"

What They are Saying of Barkley

"Congressman Barkley has filed his petition at Frankfort, as the law requires, preparatory to being voted for at the coming general primary election for the democratic nomination for Congress."

On account of important business he has remained in Washington at his post of duty nearly all the time since Mr. Wilson was inaugurated March 4th, 1913. This has been a very important congress, and the people of this district are glad to say that Mr. Barkley has been very faithful, not only at his post of duty, but in performing such other duties as are in harmony with the will and wishes of the constituents. He can rest assured while in Washington that the rank and file of the democrats are looking well to his return to Congress.

Although he was elected two years ago as a standard bearer of the democrats of this district by a large majority, yet his majority this time will be much larger than it was then.

He is now very strong in every county in the district, and his friends need not be surprised that he will carry every county in the district by good, healthy majorities.

The people are highly pleased with Mr. Barkley and his services, and it looks now like he will be returned by a greatly increased majority.—Mayfield Messenger.

"It has long been a custom for candidates for Congress to stump the country bi-annually. This always gives the people an opportunity to hear from Washington and learn about the doings of Congress, and this generally took about half of a Congressman's time. During the present administration there has been too much for Congress to do, and hence we have not been visited by our representative during this campaign. Congressman Barkley has been in Washington and is there now looking after our interests and neglecting his own canvass, although two or three men are going up and down the counties hurling misdeeds at him while he is away and unable to come home without neglecting our interests and his own duty. Shall we defeat a man while he is away looking after our interests and send another inexperienced representative to congress next winter just because one is away and the other is among us daily? We know of no good reason why Mr. Barkley should not be returned, and we believe he will be by a big vote.—Fulton News.

"The voters of the First District certainly have a right to be proud of Alben Barkley in his efforts for them. He is Chairman of one of the important committees of the National House of Representatives, and that committee is preparing to introduce a bill into the House that will be worth millions of dollars to the people, and the bill will compel the manufacturers to sell pure goods. When this bill goes through Congress and becomes a law you will know what you are buying, for each garment will have to be labeled stating as to what the goods are made of. Cotton will be called cotton, and wool will be wool. For all this the people of the country are indebted to Mr. Barkley, our present and next Congressman.—Lyon County Herald.

"While we read of the coming and going of numerous Congressmen from their respective homes, many doubtless desirous of fixing their political fences, it is a pleasure to note that the First District's Congressman has remained on the job, with the exception of his brief visit home in behalf of the Democratic nominees at election time and has worked diligently at his post of duty. Congressman Barkley is proving a diligent, conscientious official, and is characteristic of the man, is proving himself loyal to the trust imposed in him by the people of the First District. We need more men like Alben Barkley in Congress.—Mayfield Messenger.

"There is no reason why a Congressman should be away from his duty campaigning over the country for re-election, when his presence is needed at Washington. The present condition of our country needs all the assistance that can be given the present Administration by our Congressmen. Mr. Barkley is only faithfully performing his duties at the seat of government where the people elected him to perform there during sessions of Congress. He is not losing any strength among the rank and file of the people by remaining in Congress and performing his public duties.—Mayfield Messenger.

"Mr. Barkley is remaining at his post in Washington, and so far has lost no time in traveling about over his District, trying to be re-elected. He belongs to that class of Congressmen who believe that they owe their time and service to the people who elected them, and like Mr. Underwood, of Alabama, he will probably remain at his post of duty until a very short time before the primary.—Mayfield Messenger.

"Congressman Alben Barkley, of the First District, who is seeking re-nomination and re-election, seems to have made a hit by remaining at his congressional duties in Washington while his opponents started their campaign and began stumping the District. Leading First District politicians who have been in Louisville lately say that Judge Barkley will be re-nominated by the Democrats down there. They point out that he is serving his first term, and having 'made good' is clearly entitled to an endorsement.—Louisville Times.

"We do not believe there is a Democrat in the District who will not approve of the course of action on the part of Congressman Barkley. That is the class of officials that we need, those who will attend to the duties of the office, and not so much to their own personal affairs. Stay with them in Washington Judge, as long as the duties of the office call you there, and the voters of the First District will show their opposition at the polls August 1st, next, by a majority as large, if not larger than, the one they gave you two years ago.—Arlington Courier.

"Mr. Barkley's name comes first on the Congressional ballot to be voted for at the August primary election. This is the way it will be when the primary is over. His name will not only be first on the ballot, but will be first in the number of votes, and in the hearts of his countrymen. He will carry at least ten of the counties in the District if not all.—Mayfield Messenger.

"Here is our prediction in the Congressional race: That Barkley will carry twelve, if not thirteen counties, and will receive over twice as many votes as both of his opponents. His opponents are nice gentlemen, but the people know of no reason why Mr. Barkley should not be endorsed, because he has been true and faithful at his post of duty ever since he was sworn in as our Congressman, and there is no reason why he should not be re-nominated by a handsome majority.—Mayfield Messenger.

When Croup Comes Treat Externally

The old system of dosing delicate little stomachs with nauseous drugs and opium syrups is wrong and harmful. Try the external treatment—Vick's Vapo-Rub! Croup and Pneumonia Salve. Just rub a little over throat and chest and cover with a warm flannel cloth. The warmth of the body releases vapors of Pine Tar, Menthol, Thymol, and Eucalyptol, that loosen the choking phlegm and ease the difficult breathing immediately. One application at bedtime insures a sound night's sleep. Vick's is better than internal medicines for all forms of cold troubles. Three sizes—25c, 50c and $1.00.

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Rogers had. — Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

About Cutting Tobacco.

Forty nine years ago I began growing tobacco. A few years later I decided that there were certain days better than others on which to cut tobacco for it to cure up nicely and have a rich, waxy and heavy body. To find out the way to tell these dates, and to tell them ahead has been a hard job, but I was finally successful.

To explain, let me say that tobacco has an oily substance

GO WHERE YOU PLEASE EAT WHAT YOU PLEASE

This is what you can do if you take Dodson's Liver Tone. Many people know the danger of calomel, yet they take it because they know of nothing better. Other people are not afraid of calomel, because they do not understand what a dangerous drug it is. Because it has never hurt them, they believe it never will. No one needs to take dangerous calomel (which is just another form of mercury).

Dale & Stubblefield sell Dodson's Liver Tone for fifty cents a bottle and guarantee that it takes the place of calomel.

Dodson's Liver Tone is a pleasant-tasting vegetable remedy that lives up the liver without causing any restriction of habit or diet. It has none of the bad after-effects of calomel and is safe for children as well as grown-ups.

You don't run a single risk when you try Dodson's Liver Tone, because if you aren't entirely satisfied all you need to do is go right back to where you bought it and have your money cheerfully refunded to you with a smile. Isn't that fair?

which is its natural possession. It has a sap (water) like other vegetation. When the sap rises, it runs the oil out through the pores of the leaves, on the principal that oil and water won't mix, and oil being lighter is pushed out by the sap. Tobacco cut and cured in this state will be light and "chaffy," you see, there is nothing but sap in the tobacco and when cured this sap is gone. It evaporates and leaves the tobacco light and worthless. But to cut tobacco when the sap is down and the oil has full sway, you can cure it up nicely and with a heavy body; it will be rich and "waxy." This happens because the tobacco is full of oil instead of sap, and the oil can't evaporate and remains in the leaf to make it rich and heavy.

It has been my experience that we must cut tobacco when there is oil in it, if we expect to have oil in it when cured. For instance, you have experienced cutting one week and have excellent luck and then cut a few days later, probably off the same piece of ground and with riper tobacco, and have no luck at all. I shall be pleased to answer any correspondence from tobacco growers who may want to write me, provided postage is sent for reply.

Yours truly,
D. V. Davis,
Fork, N. C.

A TEXAS WONDER.

The Texas Wonder cures kidney and bladder troubles, dissolves gravel, cures diabetes, weak and lame backs, rheumatism, and all irregularities of the kidneys and bladder in both men and women. Regulates bladder troubles in children. If not sold by your druggist, will be sent by mail on receipt of $1.00. One small bottle is two months' treatment, and seldom fails to perfect a cure. Send for Kentucky testimonials. Dr. E. W. Hall, 2936 Olive Street, St. Louis, Mo. Sold by druggists.

Not Important.

Governor McCreary again denies that he will withdraw from the senatorial race. This is not important. How much difference in the voting would it make if he did retire? Three days ago the Messenger stated that it had been unable to learn of a single supporter of McCreary in Owensboro or Daviess county. This ought to have prompted some McCreary man, if there be one here, to stand up and demand to be counted. But he has not appeared. It may be that this remarkable condition does not exist in other counties, but it seems now a foregone conclusion that the old governor is doomed to a bitter disappointment. Whatever strength he may originally have had will, in the closing days of the campaign, flock to one or other of the two candidates for senator who are at least making a noise like they are running. — Owensboro Messenger.

Severe Attack of Colic Cured.

E. E. Cross, who travels in Virginia and other Southern states, was taken suddenly and severely ill with colic. At the first store he came to the merchant recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Two doses of it cured him. No one should leave home on a journey without a bottle of this preparation. For sale by all dealers.

University to Atlanta.

Atlanta, Ga., July 26.—Atlanta was selected as the seat of the university to be established east of the Mississippi River by the Methodist Episcopal Church-South, at a meeting here to-day of the Education Committee appointed by the General Conference of the Church to choose a location for the proposed institution Birmingham, Ala., and Hendersonville, N. C. were strong contenders for the university. The vote selecting Atlanta was announced as 12 to 2.

Announcements by Bishop, Warren A. Candler, chairman of the commission, that Atlanta had been selected, was immediately followed by official confirmation of the report that $1,000,000 had been given to the new university by Asa G. Candler, of this city, a brother of Bishop Candler.

It was stated on reliable authority today that the university as contemplated will represent an investment of $5,000,000. It is expected that work on the buildings will be started before next winter.

All Coming Back

Some of our Central Kentucky exchanges are noting the reappearance of the wandering Gypsy bands which roam about through the summer, trading horses, telling fortunes, begging and making themselves a general nuisance. They are a severe infliction to any town or community where they happen to be located for the moment. Some of them make the rounds of County Courts and others remain for long periods in the outskirts of the large towns. Kentucky must have a reputation of being "easy," if one may judge from the number of side shows, Gypsy aggregations and fake medicine outfits that infest the State during the summer and fall. — Frankfort Journal.

RHEUMATISM ARRESTED

Many people suffer the tortures of lame muscles and stiffened joints because of impurities in the blood, and each succeeding attack seems more acute until rheumatism has invaded the whole system. To arrest rheumatism it is quite as important to improve your general health as to purify your blood. The cod liver oil in Scott's Emulsion is a great blood-maker, while its medicinal nourishment strengthens the organs to expel the impurities and uphold your strength. Scott's Emulsion is helping thousands every day who could not find other relief. "Endure the alcoholic substitutes."

When you feel lazy, out of sorts and yawn a good deal in the daytime you can charge it to a torpid liver which has allowed the system to get full of impurities. HERBINE cures all disorders produced by an enactive liver. It strengthens that organ, cleanses the bowels and puts the system in good healthy condition. Price 50c. Sold by Dale & Stubblefield.

PROMINENT PEOPLE

EMILIANO ZAPATA, THE REBEL

Emiliano Zapata is the leader of the constitutional forces in south-west Mexico. In describing this man, Francisco Uruqui, a constitutional agent, the other day said:

"Zapata is a peon of Morelos. He comes from a state in which the land is held in fee simple by less than two dozen landlords. He worked out in the fields with fellow peons. He is an uneducated man, because he had no opportunity to get learning. He can read and write, but he learned to do these after he was twenty-one years old. He is a wiry, slim-built man slightly under six feet in height. He is a half-breed, but the Indian blood does not show as strong in him as it does in many of his followers. He is light-complexioned, energetic, and is a dreamer in that he sees things as they might be and is not contented with them as they are."

"Zapata is an idea the peons think worth fighting for. They will not be content until they can get some of the land for their own. If Carranza does as he promises—and I am certain he will do so—the peasants will get land for their own. If he does not carry out the needed reforms and do promptly he will be forced to fight Zapata and the Zapatistas."

"These men have been fighting for years. They fought Diaz, they fought Madero and they fought Huerta."

MURRAY'S PLEA FOR MILEAGE

"Where do members of congress who come to Washington without their families spend their time at night?"

This question was discussed in the house the other day by Alfalfa Bill Murray of Oklahoma in connection with the mileage provision of the conference report on the legislative bill. Alfalfa Bill insisted that it was the duty of all members to bring their families to Washington with them, and he insisted that that was why it was desirable to make a liberal allowance for mileage.

The Oklahoma statesman declared that in the absence of a man's family time was likely to hang heavily on his hands and he would do more roaming around at night than was good for him. Alfalfa Bill wanted all members to have their families with them constantly throughout the sessions in order that they might not grow lonesome.

"Abraham Lincoln, Daniel Webster, James A. Garfield, William J. Bryan and others all took this allowance when they were in the house, and who would dare accuse any of them of being grafters," said Mr. Murray. The house roared with applause as Alfalfa Bill concluded with this statement, "I believe in voting for mileage and taking it."

DOCTOR JORDAN HEADS EDUCATORS

Dr. David Starr Jordan of California, one of the most prominent of present-day educators, was unanimously elected president of the National Education association at the St. Paul convention. No other candidate was mentioned.

The resolutions committee endorsed woman's suffrage, equal pay for equal work without regard to sex, simplified spelling, social centers, larger playgrounds, increased salaries for teachers, pensions for teachers and the settlement of international differences by arbitration. President Wilson's "watchful waiting" policy was approved.

Physical inspection of children for health purposes secured endorsement. A plan for a national university was favored and it was recommended that congress appropriate annually $500,000 for use in improving educational conditions.

The association did not recommend sex hygiene in the schools, but recommended that "institutions preparing teachers give attention to such subjects as would qualify for instruction in the particular field of sex hygiene."

MRS. LONGWORTH'S LITTLE "BREAK"

Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, formerly Alice Roosevelt, made a little "break" at a smart dinner party in London the other night which has been the talk of the drawing rooms there ever since.

Sir Edward Carson, the "uncrowned king of Ulster," is one of the lions of the season. He has been much annoyed for some time by persistent statements that he will shortly marry a niece of Moreton Frewen, the well-known writer on political economy. This matter has never been mentioned in the presence of Sir Edward, but Mrs. Longworth cheerfully and in a loud voice asked him at the dinner: "When's the wedding going to be?"

"There is not going to be any wedding," replied Sir Edward curtly and coldly.

Roswell Eldridge of New York, who is over there to buy horses and fancy cattle, is having many amusing experiences. In being repeatedly mistaken for Lord Lonsdale, to whom he bears a great resemblance.

IN SUCH PAIN WOMAN CRIED

Suffered Everything Until Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Florence, So. Dakota.—"I used to be very sick every month with bearing down pains and backache, and had a good deal of the time and very little appetite. The pains were so bad that I used to sit right down on the floor and cry, because it hurt me so and I could not do any work at those times. An old woman advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I got a bottle. I felt better the next month so I took three more bottles of it and got well so I could work all the time. I hope every woman who suffers like I did will try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. P. W. LANSING, Route No. 1, Florence, South Dakota.

Why will women continue to suffer day in and day out or drag out a sickly, half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, etc.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

"I'm going to be an old maid."

"An old maid, dear? Why?"

"Cause I think I'd like to kiss a man a hundred times and tell him he's handsome every time I do shopping. I'd rather earn money and buy things for myself."

ECZEMA ON CHILD'S FACE

Marpleton, W. Va.—"When my little boy was one year old he broke out in little fine pimples all over his face. At times they would dry up and get scaly and peel off, then they would break out fresh again. He would scratch them until his face would be raw. The eczema looked angry and ran blood and corruption. His face was red and disfigured. He seemed restless and I had to be up with him the greater part of the nights."

I applied various remedies without result. He continued to break out with the eczema until I sent for some Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I used them and the first application eased him. In ten days he was completely cured."—(Signed) Mrs. Lizzie Mollenhan, Jan. 2, 1914.

Cuticura Soap and Ointment sold throughout the world. Sample of each free, with 22-p. Skin Book. Address postcard "Cuticura, Dept. L, Boston."—Adv.

Women Change Subject Too Often?

In the Woman's Home Companion Margaret Busbee Shipp, writing a love story entitled "Sweet Margaret," presents a character whose comments, as follows, on woman's conversation.

"I never had a sister, and I have never known how to talk to women. They embarrass me; they—er—change the subject so often, I never seem quite to catch up."

No Use.

When visiting the wounded men in a field hospital an army chaplain came to one poor fellow who was groaning pitifully.

"Come, my poor fellow, bear the pain like a man," said the chaplain. "It's no use kicking against fate."

"Heard, your," murmured the sufferer, "you're right, especially when, as in my case, they're the fate of an army man."

SPUR FARM LANDS

Many farmers are making a hard or doubtful living on high-priced lands in localities cursed with insect pests, or floods, or drought, or wood plagues, or other enemies to successful farming. The end of each year finds time and energy practically wasted—no progress made. Spur Farm Lands offer relief from these conditions.

The tenant on the high-priced lands further east can make a payment good farmer can pay for them from the products thereof. The Spur Farm Lands offer productive, virgin lands—easily cultivated—at low prices and on easy terms. Splendid crops are raised without irrigation. No soil ever known here. Altitude 2,600 to 2,800 feet.

Considering the reliable production of these lands, prices are lowest in Texas; new country, settling fast; splendid climate, no malaria, chills or fever; good churches and schools. We offer the homemaker a wide range for selection and acre, selling direct—no commission to anyone. The purchaser receives full value in his lands. In dealing direct with the owner an option to paying a middleman several dollars per acre.

Stock Farms and Small Ranch Tracts.

We also offer fine grazing tracts, perfectly adapted to this purpose—one section to fifty—at prices from $5.00 per acre up. Free illustrated booklet, giving all particulars, on application to Chas. A. Jones, Manager for S. M. Swenson & Sons, Spur, Dickens County, Texas.—Adv.

IN NO POSITION TO PREACH

Stranger Lost the Confidence of Truthful Fishermen When He Made His Inquiry.

Representative Frank Clark, Representative Howard of Georgia, and Superintendent George W. Hark of the humane gardens, were having a friendly argument at Washington.

"Howard," said Clark, banteringly, "I just want to illustrate to you in a story how little you know about this. There is in my district in Florida an attractive village named Callahan."

"One day a stranger walking along a road in the country near a creek saw a youth fishing."

"Young man," said the ministerial-looking individual, "can you tell me the way to Callahan?"

"No," replied the boy, "take the first road to your right."

"Instead of proceeding on his journey, the stranger gazed intently at the boy a few moments and said: 'My young friend, don't you know you are wasting your time in a way that is dreadful to contemplate? You are fishing, just fishing, when you ought to be a student of books to prepare yourself for life's struggle. My boy, you're sure on the road to perdition.'"

"Road to perdition?" replied the indignant youth. "What in blazes do you know about roads? You don't even know the road to Callahan."

Snakes Got His Roll.

"I lost $200 trying to kill rattlesnakes, and now I am going to walk back to my home in Brooklyn," explained a man about forty-five years old, who said he is Ezra Sellen.

Sellen said he started for a walk from his boarding place, encountered a lot of rattlesnakes, killed some, fled from the others, waded a stream, and then missed his roll of bills. He said he had just money enough left to ride to this city and took the state road out of town—Middlesex (N. Y.) Dispatch to New York Times.

Carelessness Cause of Fires.

More than 50 per cent of all fires are caused by simple carelessness, which is unnecessary and criminal. Repairs to dilapidated buildings, the removal of all fire-breeding material, care in burning weeds and rubbish, the placing of engines at a safe distance from buildings, the removal of oily waste, proper ventilation—in brief, plain common sense, will minimize the danger from this class of fires.

THEY HAD TO BE "SEBENS"

Bena's Method of Reasoning in Matter of Slippers Caused Pain to These Who Understand.

Bena was much excited over the prospects of camp meeting that was about to take place in her neighborhood. For weeks she had been preparing, and now her outfit was complete, save a pair of much desired patent leather slippers. She approached her mistress.

"Miss Ford," she said, "I sho' wants to get a pair of slippers for de meetin' commences, an' I ain't got a single cent left."

"What size do you wear, Bena?" asked her mistress.

"Mah right numbah is fo'," she replied, "but I has to 'cause fo's hurs' me dat had I jes' natcherly can't hardly walk."—Woman's Home Companion.

Revolutionary Patriot.

James Lovell, a distinguished patriot of the Revolution, died 100 years ago in the town of Windham, Me. Mr. Lovell was born in Boston in 1737 and graduated from Harvard college at the age of fourteen. He delivered, April 2, 1771, the oration before the town authorities on the Boston massacre. Because of his display of patriotism he was imprisoned by General Gage immediately after the battle of Bunker Hill. Subsequently he was conveyed to Halifax with the British army, and remained in confinement until exchanged for Governor Skene in the latter part of 1776. From 1778 until 1782 Mr. Lovell was a member of the Continental congress. In later life he filled a number of public offices in Boston.

The Tango in Church.

Mother, like countless other mothers, had been doing much tangoing and hesitation of late. She had taken dancing lessons. She practised the various steps at home with father. Little Frances had heard much of the tango that goes with the tango and the hesitation. She knew all of the phrases.

A few days ago Frances went to church with her mother. Frances had not learned all of the ceremonies of the church, for, after the mother knelt outside the pew, Frances looked up at her and whispered:

"Mother, what did you do the dip for?"—Indianapolis News.

Can't Find This Perfect Woman.

Belgium has been trying to discover the perfect woman. According to a symposium in Brussels, she must possess the figure of an American, the elegance of an English girl, the hair of an Austrian, the eye of an Italian and the profile of a Spaniard. So far the creature has eluded discovery.

Long-Lived Family.

The record for longevity is held by the Garrett family of Stranraer, Scotland, the oldest member of which, Mr. James Garrett, has just passed away. Mr. Garrett claimed to be the oldest fisherman in Scotland. A native of Stranraer, he was almost a hundred years old. His mother and father, who were also natives of the district, lived until they were one hundred and one hundred and three years respectively. His oldest surviving son is now well over seventy years of age.

YOURS TO SERVE.

P. P. UNDERWOOD

HON. ALBEN W. BARKLEY

To the Democrats of The First Congressional District:

Having been unable, on account of my official duties, as your representative in Congress, to come home for the purpose of making a personal campaign for re-election, I desire to make a brief statement through the press to the democrats of the district.

I am now serving my first term as your representative. Since my election, Congress has been in almost continuous session, and I have been at my post of duty constantly, trying faithfully to represent the people who have honored me with a seat in this body.

I had hoped that we could complete the legislative program in time to enable me to come back among the people and render a personal account of my stewardship. This it has been impossible for me to do, without neglecting the duties of the office which I was sent here to perform, as Congress is still in session, seeking to carry out the pledges for remedial legislation which were made in the democratic national platform.

When I took the oath of office as your representative, I promised to perform its duties to the utmost of my ability. That pledge I have kept. And while I wished to be back in the district among the people whose confidence and esteem I cherish above every office, to discuss with them the real issues of the campaign, I have felt that my duty was here and that I would not be justified in neglecting the people's business in order to look after my own.

This has been one of the most important sessions of Congress in the history of our country. Since the 4th of March, 1913, we have revised the tariff downward in the interest of the masses, and in accordance with democratic doctrine. We have passed an Income Tax Law, shifting a hundred million dollars of the burdens of taxation each year from the shoulders of the poor to the shoulders of accumulated wealth. We have re-constructed our antiquated banking currency system, taking from Wall Street the power to control the financial policy of the United States, and placing that power in the hands of the people. We have repealed that part of the Panama Canal Act which gave to a shipping trust a subsidy of two million dollars per annum of the people's money. We have developed and extended the parcels post system. We have passed laws providing for farm extension work. We have passed through the House of representatives, and hope to pass through the Senate, bills restricting immigration and providing for government aid in the construction and maintenance of good roads. We have passed through the House, and will soon pass through the Senate, the three Anti-trust bills, which were conceived, framed and passed in the interest, and for the benefit, of the masses of our people instead of the trusts and monopolies. We have in course of preparation, and hope soon to enact, a practical and comprehensive Rural Credit Bill, which we hope will afford better facilities to enable the farmers of our country to secure money at lower rates of interest and for longer periods of time, so that they may finance their agricultural enterprises with greater ease and certainty.

The record of the present Congress for constructive legislation has not been excelled by any Congress in the history of the nation, and ought to fill the heart of every true democrat.

with pride and satisfaction.

In all these measures, as well as others which I need not take time to enumerate, I have striven earnestly to represent faithfully the interests of the people of our district and of the country. I have sought to advance the cause of every measure and every movement whose ultimate goal seemed to be the financial, social and moral betterment of the people of this nation. I have done my humble part in the cause of democracy. I have helped as best I could to uphold the hands of our great democratic President Woodrow Wilson, whose administration sheds additional luster upon the democracy of Jefferson and Jackson.

One of the greatest assets a member of Congress possesses in serving the people is experience. No man can do justice to himself, nor to the district he represents, in a short period of service in Congress. It takes hard work and experience to obtain that standing and influence which every district wants its Congressman to possess, and which every member ought to hope to reach. The leaders of the party, and the Chairman of the great committee, all reached those positions by dint of hard work and long service. With few exceptions this has always been true, and always will be.

In the past, as a rule, the people of the First District have kept their representatives in Congress long enough to enable them to reach positions of great influence and distinction. As a consequence, the district points with peculiar pride to a long list of illustrious men, stretch from Lynn Boyd, who became Speaker of the House, to Ollie M. James, who became a Senator of the United States. I may not possess the eminent ability to measure up to such a standard. But my ability, whatever it may be, is enlisted in the cause of the people, and my heart will always beat, I trust, in common with their hopes and aspirations.

Therefore with malice toward none, and with gratitude to all, I submit myself and my record to your scrutiny and judgement, believing that your verdict will issue in fairness and justice.

Faithfully yours,
Alben W. Barkley.

Best Diarrhoea Remedy.

If you have ever used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy you know that it is a success. Sam F. Guin, Whatley, Ala., writes, "I had measles and got caught out in the rain, and I settled in my stomach and bowels. I had an awful time and had not been for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy I could not possibly have lived but a few hours longer, but thanks to this remedy, I am now well and strong." For sale by all dealers.

Jack Dycus was operated upon last Saturday afternoon at the Murray Surgical Hospital for peritonitis. For several days his condition was very critical but at this time he is much improved. Jack Dycus is one of the most splendid young men in the city and his hundreds of friends hope for him a speedy recovery.
