VOL. 86, NO. 20

MURRAY, KENTUCKY THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1914

$1.00 PER YEAR.

STANDS BY WILSON

Majority in State Will be 30,000 While 2 Senators and 9 Congressmen Will Support Him

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 4.—Kentucky stands squarely by President Woodrow Wilson and endorsed his policies at Tuesday's election by rolling up a Democratic majority of over 30,000 and electing two United States senators, nine congressmen and a judge of the court of appeals. The present national administration was the only issue in the Kentucky campaign, and the outcome is highly satisfactory to the party leaders and campaign managers. The Democrats carried every district in the state except the Tenth and Eleventh, which returned Republicans to congress.

As was forecast, the Bull Moose made a miserable showing in Tuesday's election and ceased to be a political party within the meaning of the law in Kentucky. Hereafter the Moose will be required to nominate candidates by petition like the Socialists, Prohibitionists and other lesser parties.

Those elected to the congress were:

Senator, Short Term—Johnson N. Camden (Dem.)

Senator, Full Term—J. C. W. Beckham (Dem.)

Representative, First District—Alben W. Barkley (Dem.)

Representative, Second District—D. H. Hincheloe (Dem.)

Representative, Third District—R. Y. Thomas (Dem.)

Representative, Fourth District—Ben Johnson (Dem.)

Representative, Fifth District—Swager Sherley (Dem.)

Representative, Sixth District—Arthur B. Rouse (Dem.)

Representative, Seventh District—J. Campbell Cantrill (Dem.)

Representative, Eighth District—Harvey Helm (Dem.)

Representative, Ninth District—W. J. Fields (Dem.)

Representative, Tenth District—John W. Langley (Rep.)

Representative, Eleventh District—Caleb Powers (Rep.)

The only new member of the state's delegation in the lower branch of congress will be D. H. Kincheloe, of Hopkins county, who will succeed Congressman A. O. Stanley, of the Second District, on March 4, next.

For judge of the court of appeals Judge Rollin Hart, of Adair county, the Democratic candidate, won with ease over Judge James Denton, of Pulaski county. Judge Hart will succeed Judge J. P. Hobson on the bench of the highest court from the Third district on January 1, next.

Reports from over the state indicate that it was one of the quietest elections perhaps ever held over the state.

May Buy 5,000,000 Pounds Tobacco.

Henderson, Ky., Oct. 31.—In the event the Imperial Tobacco Company wins its case now before the Court of Appeals, on appeal from the Union Circuit Court, in which the tobacco company was fined $7,500 on two indictments alleging it fixed and controlled the prices of tobacco in this county, the company will be in the tobacco market this year for 5,000,000 pounds of this year's crop. This fact was made known to-day by a representative of the company.

The company was indicted by a Henderson county grand jury in May, 1913. The case was venued to the Union Circuit Court for trial. Judge J. T. es.

Hanbery, of Hopkinsville, was appointed by Gov. McCreary and presided. The jury returned a verdict of guilty and fixed the fine at $7,500. Under the law a fine is a revocation of the State franchise, and the company did not operate in this judicial district last year, but did purchase tobacco at Owensboro, Hopkinsville and several other Kentucky cities.

The Kentucky Court of Appeals will hear oral arguments November 10, and a decision is expected shortly afterward. If the Commonwealth is successful the company will appeal the case to the United States Supreme Court.

The young couple were in a skiff on their way to Caseyville, Ky., to be married when the boat struck a snag and was turned over, both losing their lives before occupants of a nearby launch could go to their rescue.

His liabilities are placed at about $13,000, with assets amounting to approximately $12,000. Mr. Miller has many friends who regret to learn of his financial reverses.

MASSAPEQUA SAILS

Laden With Foodstuffs For Belgian Sufferers, Big Ship Departs.

New York, Nov. 3.—The American steamship Massapequa chartered and loaded by the Rockefeller Foundation to convey food to starving Belgians, sailed for Rotterdam this afternoon. The Massapequa, with a cargo representing an expenditure of $300,000, is the first of several ships to sail for Belgian relief at the expense of the Rockefeller Foundation. Less than thirty-six hours were required for loading, the stevedores working night and day stowing away the supplies as fast as they arrived. The original estimate of the cost of the cargo was increased, it is said, by about $30,000 by reason of heavy purchases and a sudden advance in the market price when sellers learned that Rockefeller money was being spent.

The Massapequa was taken from her regular run, New York to West Indies, and is expected to make the trip to Rotterdam in about sixteen days. All supplies on board are consigned to the American Consul at Rotterdam. By him and an organized Relief Committee the food will be distributed. Those who are able to pay will be charged actual cost price for the food and to others it will be distributed free.

The Massapequa did not carry a representative of the Rockefeller Foundation or of the Belgian Relief Commission, as it takes from fifteen to twenty days for the trip to Rotterdam. Wickliffe Rose, of the International Health Commission, and other representatives of the Rockefeller Foundation are expected to sail next week and over take the Massapequa.

The provisions carried by the Massapequa will be sent from Rotterdam to Brussels, Antwerp and other Belgian cities, where they will be distributed to local communities under the direction of the American Ambassador to Great Britain and the Minister to Holland. The relief committees have taken over all the grocery stores in the Belgian cities and will distribute the food from them.

Many persons in Belgium have plenty of ready money on hand, it is said, and these will be required to pay for their provisions. Those who have no money will be fed free of charge. The money paid by the rich will be used by the committees in future relief work.

Body Shoved Under Rubbish.

Carlisle, Ky., Nov. 3.—Chas. T. Royce, 70 years old, a farmer, who mysteriously disappeared, was murdered and his body, after being terribly mutilated, was shoved under a pile of weeds and fence rails on his farm near here, where it was found in a decomposed condition today. The head had been severed from the body and lay near it. The right hand and left arm had been cut off and cannot be found.

Several shotgun wounds were found in the body. Much blood was found near. Three negroes are suspected of the crime.

Persons who had failed to see Royce for several days went to his place, on the Miller Station pike to-day. They found the barn locked, and by prying off some planks entered to find three horses therein. One was dead and the other two almost dead from starvation and thirst. Becoming alarmed at this discovery, further inquiry as to Royce was made, and as far as could be learned no one had seen him for eleven days.

Mr. Royce was a widower and until some months ago lived alone on the farm. Some time ago his house was destroyed by fire and since that time he has had a room in the Kimbrough Hotel building here. No one has seen him about his room for eleven days. Mr. Royce's son, Malcolm Royce, of Winchester, was notified of his father's absence and came here to-day.

Dependency Due to Indigestion.

It is not at all surprising that persons who have indigestion become discouraged and despondent. Here are a few words of hope and cheer for them by Mrs. Blanche Bowers, Indiana, Pa. "For years my digestion was so poor that I could only eat the lightest foods. I tried everything that I heard of to get relief, but not until about a year ago when I saw Chamberlain's Tablets advertised and got a bottle of them, did I find the right treatment. I soon began to improve, and since taking a few bottles of them my digestion is fine." For sale by all dealers.

Kentucky Tobacco Works Assigns.

Following the failure of the Citizens Bank, of this city, the Kentucky Tobacco Works filed a deed of assignment and R. T. Wells was named as assignee. The firm gives its liabilities at about $50,000 and assets of about $30,000. Failure to make collections upon large sales of manufactured tobacco delivered in the cotton section of the south is the primary cause of the assignment. This firm is one of the oldest in the city and its failure is greatly deplored.

Rye's Majority 20,000.

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 4.—With the returns from the election for governor in Tennessee yesterday almost complete to-night, Thomas C. Rye, the Democratic nominee, has carried the state by a majority of between 20,000 and 23,000 over his Republican opponent, Gov. Ben W. Hooper. The latter has admitted his defeat in a telegram to Rye, in which he congratulated the Democratic candidate.

Two-thirds of both houses of the Legislature elected yesterday are Democratic.

The two Republicans and eight Democrats representing Tennessee in Congress were re-elected, the closest race being between Congressman Sims and his Republican opponent, Deford. Sims has defeated Deford by about 1,600 majority.

Lee Curd, who has been located in Bastrop, La., where he is employed by the Falls City Construction Co., in the erection of a court house, was married last Sunday to Miss Irene Jones, of that place. Mr. Curd is a son of L. A. Curd and wife, of Penny, and is a well known young man and has a host of friends in this county with whom the Ledger joins in extending happyest congratulations and best wishes.

DEATH'S HARVEST

A Number of Calloway Homes Visited by the Death Angel During the Past Ten Days.

Death's harvest in Calloway county the past ten days has been a heavy one and as a result many homes have been made sad.

Miss Susan Perry, a highly esteemed christian woman, who resided near Locust Grove church died last Friday at about 75 years of age. She is survived by many relatives in the county.

The three year old daughter of Baus Story and wife, of Lynn Grove, died Sunday after a brief illness of pneumonia. The loss to these young people is indeed a sad one, and they have the sympathy of many relatives and friends throughout the county.

The two year old child of Woodard Outland and wife, of near Cherry, died last Sunday night after a brief illness. Many friends extend sympathy to the bereaved parents.

The three year old son of Henry Taylor and wife, of near Bethel, died the past week and the remains were carried to Marshall county for burial. This is the second death in this family within the past ten days.

Clint Wilkins, aged about 60 years, died at the home of Jeff Acree, southwest of the city, Monday night. He was a highly esteemed citizen and is survived by many relatives and friends. The burial took place in the Jefferson graveyard.

The two year old son of Uloos Suiter's, of near Stella, died Tuesday night after a short illness. The burial was in the West Fork graveyard.

Mrs. Mike Finney, of near Coldwater, died last Saturday. An extended notice of her death appears elsewhere in this issue of the Ledger.

Charley Darnell, a young man of the west side and a son of Riley Darnell, died the past week of typhoid fever. The burial took place Friday in the Antioch graveyard.

Mrs. McNabb, of near Stella, died the past week at about 56 years of age. The remains were carried to Farmington for burial.

Jas. Waldrop, aged about 18 years and a son of Kile Waldrop of near Coldwater, died the past week after a brief illness of typhoid fever.

Mrs. John Whaley, a well known woman of the east side of the county, died the first of the week.

One For; One Against.

The question of whether stock should be permitted to run at large in Swann and Brinkley precincts or whether they should be confined, attracted considerable attention in these two magisterial districts at the election last Tuesday, and as a result Brinkley voted to keep them up while Swann voted to let them run at large.

Hoptown Man Slays Himself.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Nov. 3.—With a bullet in his heart and a revolver by his side, W. A. Wilkus, one of Hopkinsville's foremost citizens, was found in the throes of death early Sunday morning by Judge W. S. Holmes at whose residence on South Main street, he boarded.

The suicide was one of the most shocking tragedies in the history of the city and has caused ed universal sorrow and regret. No man in this region had a wider acquaintance, and none has been more active and earnest in promoting all public movements which he conceived to be for the benefit and advancement of the people.

For several weeks he had not been at all well, and apparently on account of his health, had become deeply depressed. Some of his closest friends say his mental condition had approached that of acute melancholia in the last few days; but to the citizens generally, recalling his buoyant personality, cordial greetings and cherry laughter, the news of his rash act came as a stunning blow.

To Protect the State's Game.

Every county in Kentucky will be patrolled by two game wardens, acting directly under instructions for the game and fish commission, from November 8 until January 1, when the game season will close. The season opens November 15.

Executive Agent J. Q. Ward, who has just appointed 30 district wardens, with directions to select a warden in every county, where there is none now, will call into co-operation to prevent hunting out of season or without a license every available agency. He is sending notices for publication in every county paper, advising hunters of the action of the department; he is calling hunters and hunting clubs to assist, and the wardens have directions to call on the county judges, sheriffs and county attorneys to assist them.

These wardens will go horseback or in buggies and their visitations will be without warning. Instructions as to the character of their duties and the way they are to perform them are explicit.

Market hunters, and those who hunt out of season or without a license are the particular objects of this surveillance. Sunday violators and trespassers must be handled by the local authorities and wardens are instructed to inform landowners, who ask them to arrest such violators, that they should go to their county authorities.

Mr. Ward says the successful work of the department last year in the fight against marketing hunting followed by a dry, good breeding season, has made game birds plentiful this fall, and if the hunters co-operate with the department the sport will be unusually good.

Mrs. James Urges Use of Cotton.

Washington, Nov. 3.—The cotton is not Kentucky's product, but Mrs. Ollie James, wife of Senator James, is heartily in favor of all projects that will help the sale of this southern commodity.

She thinks many housekeepers could now well turn to the methods of their mothers and grand-mothers, and lay in their cotton by the bolt this fall instead of in the spring, as so many do.

"If each housekeeper would take stock in her linen room and plan how many things she could replace with cotton before winter begins, she would be surprised to see how much cotton she could use in various forms," said Mrs. James.

Besides, one can never have too much bedding or household linens, and if they would be properly patriotic we should try to let cotton do duty in every possible way, even if we do have to smother a desire for linens and other materials. The cotton slum will not last forever, and when it is a thing of the past we will be tremendously glad that we made an effort to help things along, even in a small way.

TURKISH WARSHIPS ATTACK RUSSIANS

SEBASTOPOL IS BOMBARDED BY TURKISH SQUADRON—BLACK SEA FLEET IN BATTLE.

VANCOUVER IS NOTIFIED

The Russian Ambassador at Constantinople Announces Rupture of Diplomatic Relations With Turkey to Sublime Porte.

Vancouver, B. C.—Customs officials were officially informed here that a state of war existed between Great Britain and Turkey.

Petrograd.—The semi-official Russian news agency says that because of the attack by the German-Turkish warships against the Russian Black Sea coast the Russian government enjoined the same day the Russian ambassador at Constantinople to announce to the sublime porte the rupture of diplomatic relations with Turkey and his departure with all the members of his embassy and consulates.

Turkish warships are reported to have bombarded Sebastopol and a Turkish squadron has attacked the Russian Black Sea fleet, sinking a mine layer and a torpedo boat destroyer, and capturing a collier.

With these big events and what they spell in the apparently inevitable further extension of hostilities Turkey remained at the forefront of the news of the war.

Turkey continues to refrain from assuming responsibility for the war like acts of the Turkish warships in the Black Sea. In spite of the fact that Turkish ships have sunk the Russian gunboat Donets and several ports without previous warning, the porte has not yet officially declared war upon Russia.

ITALIAN CABINET DISRUPTED

Divided Over Question of Country Preserving Neutrality—King Notified of Cabinet Resignation.

Rome.—The members of the cabinet presented their resignations to the king.

The king reserved decision and invited the presidents of the senate and chamber of deputies and leading statesmen to confer with him on the situation.

It is generally believed that Premier Salandra will be entrusted with the task of forming a new cabinet within a few days.

The Italian cabinet has suffered from the same division of opinion as exists in the country at large. Italy's neutrality has been approved by the whole cabinet, but some of the ministers favored military preparations at any cost, while others supported the idea that the risk of Italy becoming involved through these measures was disproportionate to any advantage she might gain.

It is asserted that Gen. Zupelli and Vice-Admiral Viale will retain respectively the portfolios of war and marine. Baron Sidney Sonnino, former premier, is spoken of as minister of the treasury, and Tomasso Tittoni, ambassador to France, as minister of foreign affairs.

RUMOR KAISER WANTS PEACE

It is Said That the German Emperor Wrote Personal Letter, Urging Cessation of Hostilities.

London.—The Petrograd correspondent of the Observer sends the following:

"According to a report in army circles Russia recently been approached regarding the concluding of peace with Germany. It is said that the German emperor wrote a personal letter to the dowager empress, urging her to persuade the Russian emperor to make peace.

"The dowager empress forwarded the letter without comment to Emperor Nicholas, who sent it to Grand Duke Nicholas, commander-in-chief of the Russian army. The grand duke returned the letter with the comment:

"If you comply, our armies will mutiny and there will be a revolution in all Russia."

"No confirmation of this report is obtainable."

German's Loss 420,000 Men.

British Cruiser Sunk.

London.—The British light cruiser Hermes was sunk by a German submarine in the Straits of Dover. This official announcement was made here. Nearly all the officers and men were saved.

VISCOUNTESS ACHESON

Among the American women who are personally affected by the war in Europe is the Viscountess Acheson, whose husband is serving in the British army. She is the daughter of former Ambassador J. Ridgely Carter.

FIGHT BATTLE OF BAYONETS

"A Massacre, Not a Fight," Is the Way Correspondents Describe Battle in West Flanders.

London.—The lurid glare of burning bushes, with shadowy figures lined faintly against a background of smoke, working like demons in an inferno of their own creation; the spiteful rattle of machine guns; the roar of bursting shells; the impact of driven bayonet against human flesh and bone; the cries of wounded; shouts of triumph; shrieks of despair; rivers running red with blood, through heaped up piles of dead—this is the battle of Flanders, as London pictures it from the brief but hasty details telegraphed from the fighting front.

"A massacre, not a fight; a butchery, a shambles," such are the phrases used over and over by correspondents endeavoring to give an inkling of the events of this bloodiest battle of the war. "No quarter is asked and none is given. It is the battle of the bayonets."

Belgian regiments have been decimated to a third of their former fighting strength; British troops stand grim and dogged in the face of fearful loss; gallant Frenchmen shout with the lust of combat, and opposed to them in the sublime grandeur of death the solid ranks of Germans march unswerving against a withering fire and literally bestrew the landscape with their corpses. There is no chance to bury the dead or care for wounded; the ground they lie on is harrowed and furrowed over and over by the spraying bullets of mitrailleuses and the tearing fragments of bursting shrapnel.

And out of the chaos there looms one fact from which England at home may extract some comfort. The Germans seem to be stopped.

GERMAN RAIDS ARE CHECKED

Channel Ports Safe for a Time—Losses on Both Sides Are Heavy As Battle Rages.

London.—The German raid on the channel ports, which it called here, seems to have been checked for the time being, or, at any rate, the Germans have made little, if any, progress since they crossed the Yser canal. They, however, are still pushing with all the forces at their command, and are meeting with stubborn resistance from the French, British and Belgian troops.

Losses on both sides continue proportionate to the fierceness of the battle, which means that they are greater than those in any battle since war was declared, now nearly three months ago.

Along the coast, where the allies are assisted by French and British warships, they apparently have more than held their own, and after inflicting heavy losses on the Germans have compelled them to try for an opening farther inland. Up until recently the allies had been forced to give way at some points, but now, according to the French official communication, they have held their positions at every point from the mouth of the Yser to the Lens district, and again have advanced between Ypres and Roulers.

University Appeals.

St. Louis.—St. Louis University, ultimate beneficiary of the will of James Campbell, the railway promoter, filed notice of appeal against the action of the probate court in revoking the title of the Mercantile Trust Company as executor of the $150,000 estate and in appointing John S. Leaky administrator pending litigation over the will.

English General Dies.

London.—Lieut-Gen. Sir William Ed. Murray-Fraser, who commanded the third division of Kitchener's new army, died suddenly. Lieut-Gen. Franklyn, prior to assuming command in Kitchener's army, was military secretary to the secretary for war.

Freight Steamer Sinks.

Belfast, Ireland.—The British freight steamer Manchester Commerce, from Manchester for Montreal, struck a mine and sank. Capt. Payne and 15 men were drowned.

GERMANS WIN IN ARGONNE FORESTS

FEW CHANGES REPORTED BY WAR OFFICES OF WARRING NATIONS.

BRITISH TAKEN PRISONERS

Amsterdam Hears That Ostend Has Been Evacuated—Battle Near Meuse Is Renewed—Attacks South of Nieuport Fail.

Amsterdam, via London.—Both the Handelsblad and the Telegraaf report that the Germans have evacuated Ostend.

The following official communication was issued here:

"In Belgium, according to the latest advices, there is nothing to report in the region of Nieuport or Dixmude.

"On our left wing the enemy has directed violent attacks against the front of the British troops and on the two banks of the Labeasse Canal without obtaining any success.

"There has been a recrudescence of activity in the region of Rheims and along the heights of the Meuse at the south of Fresnes-on-Woevre."

"In the Argonne forest our troops have occupied several blockhouses and points of support.

"To the northwest of Verdun the French attacked without success. In the other parts of the western war theater and in the eastern arena the situation is unchanged."

GERMAN CRUISER SINKS TWO

Emden, Flying Japanese Flag, Slips Into Port of Penang and Blows Up Russian and French Boats.

Tokyo.—Two officers and eighty-four seamen on board the Russian cruiser Jemchug were killed when the German cruiser Emden torpedoed and sank her in Penang harbor.

The British embassy here heard that the Emden had sunk a French destroyer also.

Tokyo.—The British embassy hears that the German cruiser Emden, flying the Japanese flag and disguised by the addition of a fourth smoke stack, entered Penang, a British position in the Straits settlements, and fired torpedoes which sank the Russian cruiser Jemchug and a French destroyer.

The German cruiser Emden, after her exploits in the Indian Ocean around India, where she sank a score or more of British steamers, has apparently shifted her scene of operations more to the eastward to the vicinity of the Straits settlements. She was reported as having sunk a Japanese passenger steamer bound for Singapore.

The Emden's entrance into the waters of Penang was audacious. She came in under the guns of the fort, and after sinking the cruiser and the destroyer escaped through the Straits of Malacca. The fate of the crew on board the Jemchug is not yet known here.

Merchant vessels belonging to the belligerent nations are taking refuge at Colombo, Ceylon.

TURKS BOMBARD RUSSIA

Turkey Has Opened War on Russia. May Mean a Holy War—Greek Cathedral Damaged.

London.—A dispatch to the Times from Petrograd says it was the former German cruiser Breslau, now flying the Turkish flag, which shelled Theodosia.

Tokyo.—The Russian embassy here announces that Turkey has opened war on Russia.

Theodosia, Crimea.—A Turkish cruiser with three funnels bombarded the station and city, damaging the cathedral, the Greek Church, a pier and some sheds. One soldier was wounded. A branch of the Russian Bank of Foreign Commerce caught fire. At the conclusion of the bombardment the cruiser left in a southwesterly direction.

Swedish Steamer Sunk.

Stockholm.—The Swedish steamer Ornen, from Portugal for Gothenburg, Sweden, hit a mine in the North Sea and sank off Cuxhaven. Five members of her crew were drowned.

France May Offer Notes.

New York.—Bankers with official French connections were reported to be negotiating for offering here an issue of $10,000,000 half-year notes at 6-12 per cent interest. Prominent financial interests have the matter under advisement.

BLYTHE H. HENDERSON

Blythe H. Henderson is assistant chief of transportation exhibits at the Panama-Pacific exposition. He was born in Terre Haute, Ind., in 1868, and moved to California in 1887.

REAL WAR IN SOUTH AFRICA

Botha Takes Field Against Rebels Battle Front of 3 Miles—Rebel Positions Captured.

London.—Official announcements by the South African government reveal the fact that Great Britain has a real war on her hands in that part of the world. The seriousness of the Boer rebellion is shown by the announcement made by the official press bureau of the war office in London that Gen. Botha himself has taken command of British troops in the field, and that he is pursuing the rebels under Gen. Byers, who was formerly commander of the government forces.

A dispatch from Capetown reports a battle along a front extending three miles, in which the British stormed the rebel defenses and with the aid of artillery captured their positions, but the rebel forces themselves escaped.

The story of this fighting is painfully reminiscent of that which occurred 15 years ago, when the Boers, although greatly inferior in numbers, outnumbered the British at all points and strained the resources of the empire to subdue them.

The account states the advance was so rapid that a few of the enemy and several horses were captured. The main body of the rebels, however, got away, having removed their guns early without firing a shot.

The official announcement of the pursuit by Gen. Botha of his former commander, Byers, states that the British troops came into touch with a rebel commander at Rustenburg. In the pursuit during the whole day Gen. Botha has captured 80 fully armed rebels and several wounded. The pursuit is still proceeding.

It is reliably reported that Col. Maritz, whose treachery started the rebellion, was shot through the knee cap in the fighting at Keimoes.

Andries de Wet is in command of the German forces. No official announcement has yet been made of an invasion by the Germans of the Portuguese colony of Angola, but the Portuguese minister here says that such a movement would not be surprising. The Portuguese are making every preparation to defend the colony.

BRITISH SEA LORD RESIGNS

Newspaper Fight Was Waged Against Louis of Battenberg—Was a Great Strategist—Born in Austria.

London.—Prince Louis of Battenberg, about whom there has been much gossip because of his Austrian origin, has resigned his position as first sea lord of the admiralty. No open charges have been made against him, but a newspaper campaign against his holding such a high command is thought responsible for his withdrawal.

Announcement of Prince Louis' resignation was made in the court circular, which stated that the prince had been received in audience by the king on relinquishing his appointment.

Although born in Austria, Prince Louis came to England as a boy and was naturalized in 1868, when he was only 14 years old. Twenty-three years later he was promoted to a captaincy and after another 13 years became a rear admiral. He was appointed first sea lord in 1912, a few years after his visit to America.

Says War Just Begun.

Paris.—That the war is only beginning is the opinion expressed by Armand Pillere, ex-premier of France, in an interview published by the newspaper France de Bordeaux, says a dispatch to the Havas News Agency from the temporary seat of French government.

Potash Embargo Lifted.

Berlin.—James W. Gerard, the American ambassador to Germany, has secured from the German government the lifting of the embargo placed upon 1,000 tons of potash destined for America.

Prinzips Gets 20 Years.

Sarajevo, Bosnia.—Gavrilo Princip, who assassinated Archduke Francis Ferdinand, heir apparent to the Austro-Hungarian throne, and his consort, the duchess of Hohenburg, was sentenced to 20 years in prison.

PEACE TERMS LAID DOWN BY CARRANZA

VILLA AND ZAPATA MUST RETIRE TO PRIVATE LIFE—TRY TO BREAK UP CONVENTION.

MESSAGE CAUSES TURMOIL

Provisional President Expresses His Willingness to Leave Country If His Absence Will Tend to Re-establish Country's Peace.

Mexico City.—The resignation of Gen. Venustiano Carranza as provisional president and first chief of the constitutional army, based on the condition that Gen. Villa and Zapata retire to private life, was read to the Aguas Calientes peace convention.

Gen. Carranza even expressed a willingness to leave the country if his absence would tend to the re-establishment of peace.

The message caused a turmoil in the convention hall and at one time spectators tried to intervene and break up the meeting. What action was taken on the resignation was not known here.

In demanding that Villa and Zapata retire, Gen. Carranza said:

"There is a greater ambition than that of being president of the republic, and that is to hold such military omnipotence as to permit one man to oversee all powers of union. The insistence of Gen. Villa in keeping command of a division supposed to be all powerful and at the same time pretending to re-establish at once Constitutional order on the basis of the old regime, is a clear indication that the dream of this chief is to constitute himself arbiter of the destinies of Mexico with the faculties to appoint a president, elect a congress, design a supreme court, and rule the government of all the states. I am ignorant of Gen. Zapata's pretensions, but believe they will not differ greatly from those of Villa."

RIOT AT PEACE MEETING

Carranza to Block Villa on the South. Has 10,000 Men at Leon and Forces in Hills.

Washington.—Official reports received here said Gen. Carranza had 10,000 troops at Leon, 25 miles south of Aguas Calientes, ready to block any southward movement of Villa forces in the event the Aguas Calientes convention fails to effect a peaceful solution of Mexico's difficulties.

Carranza has a considerable force in the hills southwest of Aguas Calientes, and the Leon garrison dominates the railroad to Mexico City.

Aguas Calientes, Mexico.—A coalition of delegations representing Villa and Zapata ruled the session of the Mexican national convention after the stormiest and most exciting meeting the assembly had witnessed. For a time the confusion threatened to grow into a riot. Delegates reached for their revolvers, but finally yielded to the calming speeches of their colleagues.

The arrival of 25 Zapata representatives. It developed that they came not as authorized delegates, but to learn the views of the convention before telegraphing for credentials. Paulino Martinez, one of the leaders, described the plan of the Zapata platform, informing the convention in forcible tones that if it were not accepted Zapata's army would continue to fight. He was given an ovation, the first indication that the convention favored the plan of Ayala, which declares for immediate division of the big landed estates in Mexico.

GOLD FOR RESERVE BANKS

Federal Reserve Board Notifies Members to Use Gold in Making Deposits—Amounts Not Stated.

Washington.—The federal reserve board notified all banks that are members of the new system that gold or lawful money must be used in making the transfer of reserve deposits from the present banks to the federal reserve banks. This step is designed to fill the vaults of the 12 reserve banks as soon as the institutions are opened Nov. 18, and will permit the ready issue of federal reserve notes to member banks.

The board announced also that this order would apply to subscriptions to be made to the capital stock of reserve banks by member institutions, the first installment of which is due Nov. 2.

The transfer of reserves will be begun after Secretary McAdoo formally has announced that the 12 banks have been opened.

Will Not Close Mines.

Denver, Col.—"I see no occasion for closing the Colorado coal mines and imposing an industrial burden on the state just at a time when the greatest demand for fuel is beginning," was the statement of Gov. E. M. Ammons.

St. Louis Bank Organized.

St. Louis.—W. W. Soxton, manager of the St. Louis clearing-house, was elected deputy governor of the St. Louis Reserve bank. A committee was appointed to report on quarters for the bank by November 11.

OIL COMPANIES INDICTED

Criminal Charges Preferred Against Standard and Gulf Refinery in Courts of New Jersey.

Jersey City, N. J.—It was reported here that criminal indictments had been voted by the Hudson county grand jury against the Standard Oil Co. of New Jersey and the Gulf Refining company, which have been engaged in a rate war on gasoline in Hudson and Essex counties within the past few months.

The indictments, according to the report, were two in number. It was said that they would be handed into court and that they were found under the so-called Seven Slayers laws.

The witnesses testified before the grand jury as to the part played by the two companies in the recent rapid lowering of prices on gasoline in Hudson county.

Under the so-called Seven Slayers law a corporation could be found guilty of a misdemeanor and punished by fine of $1,000 or more, or imprisonment for the offenses for whose act were adjudged illegal, or both.

SUFFRAGETTES ARE DIVIDED

Disruption of Illinois Organization Seems Likely—Election of Grace Wilbur Trout Starts Trouble.

Chicago.—Disruption of the Illinois Equal Suffrage association is said to be threatened as the result of the election of Grace Wilbur Trout as president of the organization.

Mrs. Medill McCormick, chairman of the national congressional committee of the National Association of Suffragettes and a leader in the fight on Mrs. Trout, was asked if a bolt had been determined upon.

"It is under consideration," she replied.

At the bottom of the trouble lies the declaration of the state organization to support the policies of the national organization, particularly with reference to the congressional black list and the Shafroth amendment.

Mrs. Trout has taken the position that the propaganda of the national leaders is contrary to the nonpartisan section of the organization's constitution.

COTTON GAINS ONE CENT

First Effect of Relief Efforts Shown in Texas—Agitation for Reduction in Acreage Helps.

Dallas, Tex.—The first effects of the state and country-wide efforts to relieve cotton were shown in Texas in a rise of nearly one cent per pound according to a statement issued here by J. A. Kemp of Wichita Falls, Tex., chairman of the executive committee of the Texas Bankers' association, which has undertaken to help the Texas situation.

Middling cotton in Texas was generally within a fraction of seven cents compared with six cents a week ago.

Mr. Kemp said the important factors in the state committee's work are the providing of a loan fund, the agreement by Texas merchants that eight cents is a fair bottom price, agitation for reduction of acreage 50 per cent next year, and substitution of food crops for cotton.

MAYOR CONDEMNS COURT

Chicago Executive and Municipal Judge in Verbal War—Court Accuses Police of Indifference.

Chicago.—Mayor Harrison and the Chicago municipal court were arrayed against each other when the mayor charged that the city courts were lenient to criminals that the police were almost helpless. Municipal Judge W. N. Gemmill retorted that the police attempt to cover up their neglect of duty by trumping up charges against friendly petty criminals.

The police trial board hearing the case of two detectives charged with collusion with pickpockets continued sitting and the mayor took occasion to criticize Judge Gemmill for freeing a known pickpocket after a detective sergeant had testified he caught the pickpocket with his hand in the policeman's pocket.

"If we are to condemn to perpetual prison every man or boy who has ever come wrong, we will have to increase the jail capacity and make room for several detective sergeants, some of whom have police records and others who are ex-convicts," said Judge Gemmill.

Mayor Harrison asserted that better order was kept before the day of the municipal court.

17 Hurt in Wreck.

Binghamton, N. Y.—Seventeen persons were hurt in the wreck of train No. 22 on the Lackawanna Railroad, which was thrown off an embankment a mile west of Alfred, Pa. Part of a train of five cars rolled down a 30-foot incline into Martin's creek. The wreck was attributed to a broken rail.

Shakes Two Children.

Shreveport.—While suffering from a fit of insanity caused by loss of legal practice during illness of two years, Roland Williamson, one of the most prominent attorneys of Shreveport, choked to death two of his four children, one a girl of eight years and the other an infant son.

Tom's supposed indifference of what Lurlina disapproved of nearly led to a quarrel.

They were in the lurch of the cabaret, he and she—Tom and Lurlina. The contrast was striking. Positive acquiescence was in Lurlina's voice as she said:

"Entirely too low! Entirely!" Surprise and unmistakable admiration mingled in Tom's reply.

"Ah, no! It's exquisite!"

A catch in her breath, amazement in her wide-open blue eyes.

PRESSED HARD.

Coffee's Weight on Old Age.

When people realize the injurious effects of coffee and the change in health that Postum can bring, they are usually glad to lend their testimony for the benefit of others.

"My mother, since her early childhood, was an inveterate coffee drinker, and was troubled with her heart for a number of years and complained of that 'weak all over' feeling and sick stomach."

"Some time ago I was making a visit to a distant part of the country and took dinner with one of the merchants of the place. I noticed a somewhat unusual flavor of the 'coffee' and asked him concerning it. He replied that it was Postum."

"I was so pleased with it that, after the meal was over, I bought a package to carry home with me, and had wife prepare some for the next meal. The whole family were so well pleased with it that we discontinued coffee and used Postum entirely."

"I had really been at times very anxious concerning my mother's condition, but we noticed that after using Postum for a short time, she felt so much better than she did prior to its use, and had little trouble with her heart, and no sick stomach; that the headaches were not so frequent, and her general condition much improved. This continued until she was well and hearty."

"I know Postum has benefited myself and the other members of the family, but not in so marked a degree as in the case of my mother, as she was a victim of long standing." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Postum comes in two forms: Regular Postum—must be well boiled. 15c and 25c packages.

Instant Postum—in a soluble powder. A teaspoonful dissolved quickly in a cup of hot water and, with cream and sugar, makes a delicious beverage instantly. 30c and 50c tins.

The cost per cup of both kinds is about the same.

COMPARISON OF INSURANCE RATES

ATTORNEY GENERAL WRITES LETTER DEALING WITH WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION ACT.

STATE PLAN IS FAVORED

Striking Comparisons of the Cost of Insurance—Overhead Expense Means Increased Cost.

(Special Frankfort Correspondence.)

Frankfort—Striking comparisons of the cost of insurance against liability for industrial accidents between the state workmen's compensation plan and policies in indemnity companies, are contained in a letter written by Atty. Gen. James Garretts chairman of the compensation board, to the secretary of the Manufacturers' and Shippers' association.

He ascribes the difference in favor of the state plan to the difference in overhead expenses and the accumulation of reserve and profits to stockholders, and declares that 50 per cent of the premiums paid indemnity companies goes to these expenses.

His letter, in part, follows: "The law provides that the initial rates shall not exceed $1.25 per $100 of pay roll insured. Section 15, Sub. Sec. 23, and Section 22 are apparently contradictory as to whether rates can be raised in one year or in six months. Our construction is that they may be raised in six months, if necessary. The act also provides that the board may on January 1 and July 1 of any year reclassify the industries subject to this act, or to create additional classifications in accordance with their respective degrees of hazard and determine the risk of different classes and fix the rates of premiums for each class, according to the risk of same, sufficiently large to provide an adequate fund for the compensation provided for in this act, and to create a surplus sufficiently large to guarantee a workman's compensation fund from year to year, and further employees engaged in the same industries shall be placed in the same class.

"From the tone of inquiries which are being received, it seems that employers are being advised, from some sources, that the state fund will attempt to do business on rates too low for solvency, and also that employers engaged in the same line of business will all be charged the same rate, regardless of how their actual hazards may vary on account of different methods of operation or provisions for accident prevention. Both of these are wholly untrue."

Interesting Books.

Two interesting volumes, on which months of preparation have been spent, have just been issued by the Department of Education. One is the history of education in Kentucky, compiled by administrators, showing both the development of the system and the ideas which actuated the succeeding state superintendents, together with their biographies. The work was done mostly by T. J. Coates, state supervisor, and the cross-indexing makes it most valuable reference book. The other is the Kentucky Arbor Day and Bird Book, compiled by Mrs. Victor Gilbert, wife of the assistant state superintendent. It is beautifully bound and illustrated, containing a catalogue of native birds and trees, songs of songbirds, and bits of carefully selected poems, valuable not only to teachers, but interesting and entertaining to children.

Mean Grain Rate Case.

Evidence intended to secure a reduction of Louisville & Nashville grain rates between Eminence and Louisville was presented to the Kentucky railroad commission, at Louisville, by Eminence Milling Co. The commission will hear complaints of E. H. Taylor & Sons Distilling Co. and the Kentucky Distillers & Warehouse Co. against the same road. Evidence adduced by the mill company showed that the rate on wheat from Louisville to Eminence is 9 cents, while corn, rye and malt go for 8 cents. It also showed that the rate of wheat from Eminence to Louisville was only 7 cents. The three concerns are seeking reparation of approximately $60,000, of which amount $32,000 is sought by the Kentucky Distillers & Warehouse Co.

Umpire Is Named.

Upon the refusal of W. B. Smith to serve as arbitrator of the differences between the Kentucky Traction and Terminal Co. and its employee at Lexington, Gov. McCreary, who had been asked by both sides to appoint the arbitrator, named Charles C. Bagby, of Danville.

Lower Court Reversed.

In an opinion by Chief Justice Hobson the court of appeals reversed the Jefferson circuit court in the case of the Western Union against T. C. Cammiser & Sons, who recovered $200 damages because a telegram to a person in Alabama quoted the price of baskets of oysters at St. Louis instead of Louisville, as it was written, and the party did not make an offer to buy. The court held that the telegram constituted the offer, direction or proposition to do or not to do a certain thing.

Arguments Are Heard.

Arguments were heard in the court of appeals in the suit to test the constitutionality of the workmen's compensation act. Lawyers from all sections of the state were present to hear the arguments, which were made by Robert T. Caldwell, of the attorney general's office, representing the compensation board, and Charles Carroll of Louisville, against the law. Among the auditors were Senator Knight, of Louisville, who introduced the measure, and John Schneider, representing union labor. Mr. Carroll in his argument approved the purpose of the workmen's compensation measure, but declared this measure "vicious" and said that instead of being beneficial to the employee, for whose benefit it was ostensibly enacted, it has directly the contrary effect. Instead of doing "prompt average justice" and preventing accidents by requiring payments in all cases, the law will have a tendency to make the employer less careful about dangerous methods and equipment, because he will already have paid into a fund for the compensation of injured workmen.

Conservation Is Vision.

Under the auspices of the Kentucky Medical association and the American Medical association, Dr. J. A. Stuckey, of Lexington, will deliver a lecture at the court house on the "Conservation of Vision." Dr. Stuckey will make special reference to the prevention of Ophthalmia, Neuronium and Trachoma, which is known to be prevalent in this country, as well as the majority of the counties of Kentucky. The lecture is of great importance in view of the laws enacted. The present campaign on the "Conservation of Vision" is merely the beginning of a fight that is expected to reach the proportions of one waged in Germany for years, where the percentage of blindness among children has been reduced to a minimum. Dr. E. C. Roenke, county health officer, said it was the intention of the lecture to direct the attention to practicing physicians to the serious situation.

Judgment Reversed.

"Subsection 7, Section 2739b, Kentucky Statutes, imposes upon the operator of a coal mine the duty of furnishing the miner such props and caps as are necessary to make safe the roof of the mine's working place, but it does not impose the duty of propping the roof upon the miner or the operator," said the court of appeals, reversing the Laurel circuit court in the case of the Old Diamond Coal Co. against G. W. Denney, a miner, who had recovered $2,500 damages for injuries sustained when slate fell from the roof of the working place. "That duty," said the court in the opinion by Judge Miller, "may by agreement or custom be imposed upon either the miner or the mine owner." Judgment was reversed because the company was not permitted to introduce testimony as to the agreement and custom with reference to propping the roof.

Victory for Company.

Dr. C. G. Schott, of Louisville, lost his appeal from the Jefferson circuit court, which gave judgment for the Indiana National Life Insurance Co. when Dr. Schott sued for damages for malicious prosecution. Dr. Schott was examiner for the company, and when in 1910 an investigation was set on foot into an alleged conspiracy among insurance agents, in which they were said to have perpetrated fraud on their companies by insuring people in bad health, often having substitutes examined for them, Dr. Schott aided in the investigation. He testified before the grand jury. He, however, was indicted, but was acquitted. Then he sued the company, but the court held that an acquittal does not satisfy the necessary proof that there was lack of probable cause in returning the indictment. Chief Justice Hobson wrote the opinion.

Paroled Men Pardoned.

Hollie Strutton, once condemned to die on the gallows, is a free man, and his brother, Leroy, sentenced to life imprisonment, also is free, pardons having been granted by Gov. McCreary upon information that since their parole several years ago they have been industrious, law-abiding residents of Missouri. In a fight in Lawrenceburg, September 27, 1909, they stabbed J. N. Sorex to death. Hollie was sentenced to be executed and the sentence was affirmed on appeal. Leroy was sentenced to life imprisonment and appeal, but withdrew his appeal. Hollie's sentence was commuted to life imprisonment by Gov. Beckham. Both were afterward paroled and moved to Missouri.

Regulation Issued.

Gov. McCreary issued a regulation on the governor of New York for the extradition of C. J. Cochrane, alias Daniel Black, indicted in Jefferson county on a charge of obtaining money by false pretenses through a bad check, alleged to have been cashed by The Seelbach.

Jefferson Makes Request.

Jefferson county has made a definite request for state aid in the construction of state highways connecting Louisville with four surrounding county seats, Shelbyville, Taylorsville, Elizabethtown and Shepherdsville. C. T. Carroll, commissioner of roads, has received a communication stating that the Jefferson road board purposes permanently improving the Taylorsville and Shelbyville pikes and the Preston street and Eighteenth street roads and asking for 2 per cent of the 1915 road fund provided by 5 per cent road levy.

AS TO MAKING CAKES

EXPERT ADVICE FROM DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE.

Cases Where Rendered Deaf or Veal Fat May Be Substituted for Butter—Introducing Variety into the Confections.

There are, generally speaking, only two kinds of cake made by the American housewife; namely, sponge cakes and butter cakes. The former never have butter in them and are frequently raised entirely by means of eggs. The eggs usually provide the only moisture used, but when eggs are expensive, economy sometimes demands that water be added and baking powder used. In the latter kind, butter is generally used on account of its flavor. Its effect on dough is to make it tender and brittle instead of tough and elastic.

Sponge cakes are mixed differently from butter cakes and should be baked in a cooler oven and about one and one-fourth times as long. The tests and rules for baking are the same for sponge cakes and butter cakes.

Gingerbread and other highly spiced cakes may be classed as "butter cakes," but for economy's sake pure rendered beef or veal fat may be substituted for butter as the flavor of the fat will not be so evident as in other kinds of cake.

A cooky also comes under the class of "butter cakes," any butter cake recipe being applicable to cookies if only one-third to one-half the amount of milk called for is used. The dough should be rolled out on a floured board. Cookies should bake in a slow oven for 8 to 10 minutes.

Much variety can be made in cakes by introducing fruits, nuts, spices or different flavoring extracts into the dough, or by using only the whites of eggs for white cakes, or a larger number of yolks making cakes for yellow cakes. Brown sugar may be used for dark fruit cake.

Pastry flour will make lighter and more tender cake than standard flour. If standard flour is used take two tablespoons less for each cup measured. In making cake only fine granulated or powdered sugar should be used as a rule. One of the best of these materials in any case should be employed.

In preparing the pans for cake they should be greased well with butter or lard or lined with paraffin paper. Bright, new pans will not need to be buttered for sponge cakes and if left unbuttered a more delicate crust is formed.

If a wood or coal fire is used there should be a small or moderate-sized fire, but one that will last without much addition through the baking. Regulate the oven long enough before the cake is to go in to have the dampers adjusted as they are to remain throughout the baking. If this is not done the dampers must be changed to regulate the heat during the baking, and the cake will not be so well baked. Most cakes can be at once removed from the pan when baked, but very rich cakes and dark fruit cake will be liable to break unless allowed to stand about five minutes.

Nutmeal Biscuits.

One pint scalded milk, one and a quarter cups sugar, one egg, one scant tablespoonful flour, one-quarter teaspoonful salt, one quart cream, one tablespoonful vanilla, one teaspoonful almond extract, one-half cup of macaroons, almonds and pecans. Mix the sugar, flour and salt, add the egg (slightly beaten) and the scalded milk; cook in a double boiler 20 minutes, stirring constantly at first; cool, add the cream, vanilla and almond extract; strain and color with leaf green; add the macaroons broken in small pieces, add nuts chopped fine and freeze.

Dressed Oysters.

Chop two dozen large oysters with a tablespoonful of melted butter, an unbroken egg, one-third the bulk of bread crumbs, a tablespoonful of parsley, and a little onion juice if liked. Season with salt and paprika; form into balls, and bake ten or fifteen minutes in a hot oven, until the outside is well browned. Serve on half oyster shells with a parsley garnish.

First Love Kisses.

Beat together the whites of two eggs. Add to this a teaspoonful of sugar and stir until it is so thick it will not slip from the spoon. Stir in three tablespoonfuls of grated coconut. Drop teaspoonfuls of the mixture on buttered paper and bake in a hot oven until light brown.

For Those Who Wear Glasses.

To prevent steam from settling on your eyeglasses, when out of doors in cold weather, rub both sides of the lenses with soap, afterward rubbing the soap off with a soft cloth and polishing with tissue paper.

To Curl Outrich Feathers.

To curl an outrich feather that has become damaged with rain, sprinkle it thickly with common salt and shake it before a bright fire until it is dry. This will bring the curl back into it again.

To Prevent Glass From Cracking.

When pouring hot drinks into a thin glass, if a silver spoon is placed in the glass first it will prevent it from cracking.

So Disappointing. Reginald loved his wife tenderly and devotedly, but he had to acknowledge in the inmost recesses of his heart that the hand that wielded the powder puff lost its art in the pudding dish.

"What pudding would you like to-night, love?" she cooed at breakfast time.

"Oh, anything!" he whispered desperately.

"Anything?" she reiterated, in a pained tone.

"Well, you know, old girl; anything light—only don't tire yourself out."

"You shall have your favorite—custard, dear," she promised.

Toward seven o'clock Reginald returned, but the sound of weeping and gnashing of teeth greeted his trained ear.

"Whatever is it, my dear girl?" he implored, as he rushed into the kitchen.

"O-o-o-h!" she sniveled on his waistcoat. "I've been making you custards all the afternoon, and—"

"And what, pet?"

"They all t-t-turned out sponge cake!"—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Difference in War Declarations.

There was a great difference in the manner of commencing a war centuries ago to what there is now. Now the blow is frequently struck before the word, and there is no obligation to issue a formal declaration at all, the act of war constituting the declaration. But in medieval times no war ever began without a formal declaration by a herald, who, in a most solemn manner, breathed defiance on the part of his royal master, exchanged innumerable bows with his enemies, and departed in as dignified a manner as he came.

The Pioneer Mother.

The school children of California are saving up their pennies to pay for the monument to the pioneer mother which is to be erected by Charles Bradley for the Panama-Pacific exposition. The woman's board of the exposition suggested that such a statue be erected and the children were the first to respond, sending in an avalanche of pennies. The central figure is that of the pioneer mother dressed in a homespun gown and at her knees are two sturdy little children.

A Home-Made Poison

Uric acid, unknown in the days of a simple, natural, up-of-door life, is a modern poison created inside the human body by a modern diet of meat-eating, overwork, worry and lack of rest. Backache or irregular urination is the first sign of weak kidneys. When the kidneys fail to do their duty, uric acid accumulates in the blood, and the result is kidney disease. Doan's Kidney Pills, a famous remedy for kidney trouble, will cleanse the blood, and the result is a healthy, vigorous, and happy life.

Don't get scared. Mr. Dark Tobacco Grower. The crop is at least 50 per cent. short, and all the nations now at war chew and smoke as much, if not more, while fighting as they do in times of peace. The situation isn't at all similar to that with respect to the cotton yield, which is 4,000,000 bales more than the world needs, and there would have been an over-supply even if Europe hadn't gone to war. The European factories are closed down because of the war, and the manufacture of cotton goods have practically ceased, but there's as much chewing and smoking as ever over there. Don't get panicky, and thereby give the foreign buyers an excuse for writing their governments to hold up in their buying and thus push the price down until they are willing to take it. —Elkton Times.

Use "Gets-It," Corns Shriveled, Vanish!

It's the New Way, and You'll Forget You Ever Had Corns.

"Gets-It" drops put on in 3 seconds, corns shrivel, come clean off. That's the marvelous story of "GETS-IT," the new-plan corn cure. Nothing can be simpler for the cure of corns—and it never fails. That's why millions of people are using "GETS-IT" today, and throwing away their funny plaster, sticky tape, toe-cutting knives, and "wrapping outfits" that make a bundle around the toe and choke it into pain by pressing either on or around the corn. There is nothing to stick to your stocking, nothing to press on or around the corn, nothing to cut, burn, or freeze. You apply it in 3 seconds. No more knives, razors, scissors or files, with their blood-poisoning dangers. Try "GETS-IT" for that corn, callus, wart or bunion. "GETS-IT" is sold by druggists everywhere. 25c a bottle, or sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago. "Gets-It" is sold in Murray by H. P. Wear.

Shedding New Light on Feminism.

The following is quoted from Charlotte Perkins Gilman's article, entitled "The Safe Side of Feminism." Quoted from Pictorial Review, November, 1914.

What would be made clear to a cautious world, a world not yet "feminist," but willing to be convinced, is that the vagaries and extreme and excesses of a great movement are not its true measure. The big, safe, beautiful side of Feminism is that advance which shows us woman, so long kept in injurious subjection, now struggling forward into the daylight, into freedom, into equality, into full companionship with man. He need not be afraid! Even a gull-

Hopkinsville, Ky., Nov. 3.—As a result of a conference held today at Marion between United States Senator Ollie M. James and R. E. Cooper, president of the Hopkinsville Board of Trade, the tobacco crop, valued at millions of dollars, may be sold as usual notwithstanding the European war, which threatened to make Western Kentucky's "money crop" a drug on the market. The plan is to have the State Department arrange with England to remove the contraband on tobacco and allow its shipment in neutral vessels to foreign countries, as is permitted with cotton.

Senator James is enthusiastic over the proposition and left today for Washington, where he will submit the plan to President Wilson and Secretary Bryan for their approval. Senator James suggested that the business organizations of the State take the matter up at once. This afternoon the Hopkinsville Board of Trade and Hopkinsville Business Men's Association adopted resolutions asking the support of the Administration. All foreign buyers have assured the tobacco men that they will make large purchases if the ban on shipments is raised.

Germany and Austria take annually about 30,000,000 pounds of dark tobacco, and the total foreign sale is about 75,000,000 pounds.

Fatal to Sheep and Hogs.

During the late fall months if it is not uncommon for the Experiment Station to receive reports from different sections of the State requesting information and assistance in combating sudden losses in sheep and hogs. On visiting these farms it has been found that these fatalities in some instances could be traced to frozen rye and barley. In order to avoid further lessons of this nature this year all swine and sheep owners should take special precautions to keep these animals off of rye and barley fields immediately after a severe frost or freeze. Frozen rye and barley sometimes prove deleterious and animals should be allowed only a very limited amount of this feed while it is in a frozen condition. Severe frosts frequently check the growth of these two winter forage-plants and leave them in a wilted condition. In this stage they undergo fermentation and may prove injurious to animals. The losses in cattle and horses are not as often reported. This no doubt being due to the fact that they are more resistant and are so frequently pastured on this forage. The losses are sudden, depending on climatic conditions, and simulate acute poisoning. The trouble generally appears subsequent to a severe freeze, following rains or heavy dews and is not continuous throughout the winter season. Animals sometimes suffer from acute indigestion and die in a few hours, showing symptoms of meningitis; others evidence symptoms of severe diarrhea for several days, which exhausts the strength of the animals and renders them very susceptible to catarrh of the respiratory tract, and frequently to pneumonia. Young animals do not seem to resist the deleterious effects of frozen feed as well as older animals. Milk cows are quite resistant and if not overfed recover immediately when the cause is removed.

Prevention—Keep animals out of rye and barley fields for several days after they have been severely frosted or frozen. Robert Graham, Experiment Station, Lexington, Ky.

An Advertisement, Don't Read It.

This is a Dentist's advertisement, not a price list, nor a cut price list. The reason I'm putting this in is to enlighten anyone else who might be thinking like a man who was talking to me the other day. He said: "Doc, I saw an advertisement in a Memphis paper of a dentist who can give a patient something which keeps them from feeling any pain while you drill their teeth; why don't you get an outfit and give it?" I told him I had an outfit which had been in my office over a year. "Why, my goodness, I didn't know it, why don't you let folks know it," he said. "I've decided to let folks know it through this paper; and also to let them know that I have a thoroughly equipped, up to date Dental Office, as well equipped for modern work as any office in Paducah or Memphis."

One word more though, if you are a cut price bargain hunter, don't waste my time, and yours, by bringing me Des So and So's prices to see if I will do it cheaper, for I won't. I will not cut, another ethical man and I can't work as cheap as the little one-horse traveling Dentist who carries a hatfull of instruments over the country and does work with antiquated instruments and by the same method that our grandfathers in Dentistry used fifty years ago. If you want thoroughly modern up-to-date work done with modern up-to-the minute instruments, at as reasonable a price as I can see a living and a moderate profit in, come to see me. But remember, you can't buy $5.00 shoes for $2.50, unless the shoes are damaged, the merchant crazy or a bankrupt, or unless he loves you awfully well and wants to make you a present of $2.50. I'm not a bankrupt, (yet) I don't think I'm crazy, don't love anybody that well and have no damage sale on, so you can't get a $25.00 job of work from me for $10.00, nor for $24.50; it will cost you just $25.00 cash.

Yours truly,
B. F. BERRY.

Obituary.

On October 31st the gentle spirit of Mrs. Gertie Finnie, the devoted wife of Mr. Mike Finnie, of West Fork Baptist church was wafted into the divine presence. The church has lost one of its most consecrated members, the community a beautiful christian character. Sister Gertie Finnie was born Dec. 31, 1887, and was married to Mr. Mike Finnie at the age of 21. To this union was born three children—two girls and one boy, one baby girl only recently being laid to rest. She was converted when young and united with the West Fork Baptist church. She was a patient sufferer for about eight months and said she was willing to go home and often said that her way was clear. And while we are in a world of sorrow, mourning her loss, she is yonder in that happy place of rest. She has joined the host of redeemed ones and only awaits the coming of loved ones to that Celestial land. She leaves a husband, mother, two children, sisters and brothers and a host of relatives to mourn their loss. Your loss is her gain and you should not weep. You have been so kind to see that all her needs and wants be filled, and all that loving hands and medical skill could do was done but none could restore her health. A few hours before her death she said that she could see her baby and that it looked just like an angel. The beautiful smile which we could see on her face was enough to show that she viewed the beautiful home prepared for her. Dear father, you need not walk through life alone; when your Lord is near; he bids you hold his strong right hand; nor try without His power to stand; you know He is your friend. You know you cannot understand the way He takes. Nor only some things needs be so, but then I'm sure some day you'll see him. —Flora Farless.

The First Kiss.

"The greatest surprise in the world to a girl who is kissed for the first time is that there is no taste to it." —Exchange.

No taste to it! Well, by the hen-feathers on Cupid's dart, but the editor of that paper must be color-blind and deaf and dumb in his palate. They tell us, those who have tried it, that it tastes like the double-distilled essence of honey spread thick on a large fat slice of pumpkin pie; that its taste resembles a sip of nectar, brewed by the gods and served in a dew-covered honeysuckle blossom.

Way back in the dim and hazy past, long before we had misplaced all our teeth and when we had a crush on the beauty prize the prettiest girl in the world told us with her own rosebud lips that the first kiss felt

"It is easy to use and quick to respond. No work. Just apply. It penetrates without rubbing."

Read What Others Say:

"Have used your Liniment very successfully in a case of rheumatism, and always have a bottle on hand in case of a cold or sore throat. I wish to say I think it one of the best of household remedies. I would not have used it only it was recommended to me by a friend of mine who, I wish to say, is one of the best boosters for your Liniment I ever saw." —J. W. Fuller, Denver, Col.

"Just a line in praise of Sloan's Liniment. I have been ill nearly fourteen weeks with rheumatism, have been treated by doctors who did their best. I had not slept for the terrible pain for several nights, when my wife got me a small bottle of the Liniment and three applications gave me relief so that I could sleep." —Joseph Tunkley, 215 Commerce Street, McKeesport, Pa.

he has confidently looked forward to finding it, and has left nothing undone that promised to bring his dream to pass.

Recently he met J. N. Long, a former resident of this city and of Earlington, in Tampa, and Mr. Long told of having uncovered a portion of a box about sixteen years ago while helping to dig a grave at Earlington. Mr. Long was assisted at that time by J. W. Twyman, now of this city. The box was not molested and the half dug grave was filled up and another lot was selected on which the grave was dug. When Mr. Long told Mr. Watts about this the latter decided to investigate it, and when he stopped off here it was to ask Mr. Twyman about the occurrence. Mr. Twyman verified Mr. Long's story and Mr. Watts left, saying he was going to Earlington to see what fate had in store for him. —Hopkinsville Kentuckian.

Robbery Reported.

Howell Boggess, who lives near Brandon's Mill, reported to the sheriff last Sunday that he had been robbed of about $700 in money. The Paris blood hounds were ordered and sent to the Boggess place, but the Ledger understands that no endeavor was made to trail the reported thief. Mr. Boggess stated that he had the money hid in his stable loft and that it was stolen from this place.

Give Votes to Women.

Chicago, Nov. 4.—Woman suffrage leaders rejoiced tonight when belated returns indicated that votes for women apparently had been granted in two of the seven states voting on the question in Tuesday's election, with a third state still in doubt. First returns had indicated defeat of the voting franchise to the women in all states concerned.

Montana and Nevada, according to the latest returns, granted votes to women, while Nebraska showed such a small vote proposal that the women claimed the state. Missouri, Ohio and North and South Dakota refused to grant equal suffrage.

In Montana the official count will be necessary to decide the outcome, but the women have a slight lead on unofficial and incomplete returns.

In Nevada, which seems won to the cause of equal suffrage, 105 precincts out of 240 gave 3,619 votes for women's votes and 2,508 against.

The effect of women's votes on prohibition in Tuesday's election indicated that women do not unanimously oppose saloons.

Election in Calloway a Tame Affair.

But little interest was manifested in the election here in Calloway last Tuesday and as a result a very light vote was polled, approximately 2,400 votes being cast. A democratic majority of about 1,400 resulted.

Bothered by Catarrh, Bronchitis, Asthma, Head or Chest Colds

Try the New External Treatment—Relieves by Inhalation and Absorption. No Stomach Dosage.

For years we have been doing ourselves to cure cold troubles despite the fact that vapor treatments are quicker and do not disturb the stomach. The trouble has been that the old methods of administering these vapors such as vapor lamps, etc., were very cumbersome. Vick's "Vap-O-Rub" Croup and Pneumonia Salve contains Menthol, Thymol, Eucalyptol, Camphor, and Pine Tar, combined by a special process, so that they are vaporized when Vick's is applied to the heat of the body. These vapors open the air passages, loosen the phlegm and heal the inflamed mucous membrane. For Catarrh and Head Colds melt a little in a spoon and inhale the vapors. Also apply well up the nostrils. For Asthma and Hay Fever follow the above instructions and also rub well over the chest and throat, thus relaxing the nervous system. For Bronchitis, Sore Throat, and deep chest colds, apply well over chest and throat, first opening the pores by applications of hot wet towels. Then cover with a warm flannel cloth, leaving the covering loose around the neck so the vapors arising may be inhaled all night long. In addition Vick's is absorbed through the pores, taking out the tightness and soreness. Three sizes—25c, 50c, and $1.00.

VICK'S Croup and Pneumonia SALVE

Two Wet and Four Dry.

Chicago, Nov. 4.—Four of the six states that voted Tuesday on prohibition according to latest returns, decided to forbid the sale of alcoholic beverages, and two voted to retain saloons.

Ohio and California kept their saloons, while Washington, Colorado, Oregon and Arizona closed theirs.

Unofficial returns from Arizona show that saloons were voted out, the women aiding materially in reaching this result.

The vote on saloons in Colorado is so close that the result is in doubt, but precincts to be heard from are mostly outside the cities. Prohibitionists say later returns from farming counties will doom saloons.

Ohio retained saloons by a good majority and adopted a home rule amendment that was recognized as a saloon measure.

Missouri defeated the county unit system of local option, which precluded the rural vote on saloons in option elections.

National headquarters of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union in Chicago today received returns from workers in the states affected by the election. News that was declared to be encouraging came from all the states concerned, the defeats in the three states being offset, the reports said, by indications of progress over previous conditions.

One of the typical messages received was the following from Colorado: Hallelujah, the crest of the continent is white; Colorado gone dry.

Best Cough Medicine for Children.

"Three years ago when I was living in Pittsburg one of my children had a hard cold and coughed dreadfully. Upon the advice of a druggist I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it benefited him at once. I find it the best cough medicine for children because it is pleasant to take. They do not object to taking it," writes Mrs. Lafayette Tack, Homer City, Pa. This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic, and may be given to a child as confidently as to an adult. Sold by all dealers.

To the people in the vicinity where our husband and father met death, we extend our heartfelt thanks for such appreciation shown us by you. May our Creator bless each of you all in the prayers of your friends.—Sarah Falwell and children.

Remarkable Cure of Croup.

"Last winter when my little boy had croup I got him a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I honestly believe it saved his life," writes Mrs. J. B. Cook Indiana, Pa. "It cut the phlegm and relieved his coughing spells. I am most grateful for what this remedy has done for him." For sale by all dealers.

What's an Editor?

A little village boy was given the stunt by his father to write an essay on editors, and here is the result:

"Don't know how newspapers came to be in the world. I don't think God does for He hasn't got nothing to say about them and editors in the Bible. I think the editor is one of the missing links you read of and stayed in the flood and then came out and wrote the thing up and has been here ever since. I don't think he ever died."

"I never saw a dead one and never heard of one getting licked. Our paper is a mighty good one; but the editor goes all winter and don't wear any socks and paw ain't paid his subscription since the paper started. I ask paw if that was why the editor had to suck the juice out of snowballs in winter and go to bed when he had his shirt washed in summer. And then paw took me out to the wood shed and licked me awful hard. If the editor makes a mistake folks say he ought to be hung, but if wife he charges for the visit; a doctor makes any mistakes he buries them and the people doesn't say nothing because the doctor can read and write Latin. "When the editor makes a mistake there is a lawsuit and sweating and a big fuss, but if a doctor makes one there is a funeral, cut flowers and perfect silence. A doctor can use a word a yard long without him or anybody else knowing what it means; but if the editor uses one he has to spell it. If the doctor goes to see another man's wife he charges for the visit; but if the editor goes he gets a charge of buckshot. "When a doctor gets drunk it is a case of being overdone by the heat and if he dies it is from heart trouble; when the editor gets drunk it's a case of too much booze, and if he dies it's the jim-jams. Any old colleges can make a doctor; an editor has to be born."—Exchange.
