PROSPECTS

Better Than Ever For Successful.

Reports received from the board of inspectors and warehousemen of this city show the tobacco market to be in good shape for an auspicious opening of the new year. For this season and sales are not only better, but they were last year, the general state of the market is better, with prices holding stiff, and the quantity of the seed superior.

Most of the warehousemen report all of the inferior lots of tobacco of this year, and their crops are clean for the reception of the new crop as soon as it begins to mature.

Figures are already out in the country, and in a few days there will be great activity in the tobacco business. The very highest prices are being offered, and planters are disposed to sell when they can get a good price.

Never before were so many large orders placed, and the market is in a state of great activity.

The crop that is now ready to be packed on the banks is considered one of the best crops in the year. A boom is looked for as soon as the new crop begins to be delivered.

The monthly report of the board of inspectors shows the receipts for October to be 26 hogheads, as compared with 180 hogheads for the same time last year; receipts for the year, 14,000 hogheads, as compared with 15,700 hogheads last year; sales for past month, 190 hogheads, as compared with 313 hogheads last year; sales for the year, 15,238 hogheads, as compared with 15,780 hogheads last year; shipments for past month, 91 hogheads, as compared with 1,092 hogheads last year; shipments for the year, 10,941 hogheads, as compared with 15,896 hogheads last year; stock on sale, 618 hogheads, as compared with 580 hogheads last year; stock sold, 2,323 hogheads, as compared with 2,150 hogheads last year; stock on hand, 4,141 hogheads, as compared with 2,715 hogheads last year.

THE FOOTPATH TO PEACE.

Some Admirable Advice For Every Human Being.

In this world greatness has been of tenest achieved by the giving of good advice. The human soul without divine guidance is like a ship without a rudder. The principal duty of parents, friends, clergymen, statesmen, is to advise wisely. The Christian is to advise to peace and social betterment, and to human life and the dignity of the human race.

So much by way of preface. Now we ask you to read the book that we have written for you. It is called "The Footpath to Peace."

PRISONERS

Removed to Jail at Louisville.

(SPECIAL TO NEW ERA.)
FRANKFORT, Ky., Nov. 8.—By agreement of attorneys, Henry Tontney and Jim Howard, under confinement for the assassination of Goebel, were removed to the Louisville jail today.

BECKHAM'S ELECTION CONCEDED.

Majority Too Large For Any Doubt.

STATE IS REDEEMED

Talk Of Contest Is Considered Ridiculous.

"NEWS" GIVES IT UP.

(Special to New Era.)
LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 8.—THE EVENING NEWS, THE REPUBLICAN ORGAN AND AFTERNOON EDITION OF THE LOUISVILLE JOURNAL, CONCEDE BECKHAM'S ELECTION IN ITS LATEST EXTRA.

J. W. BECKHAM shows that Beckham will have on the face of the returns 3,000 or 4,000 majority.

(Special to New Era.)
LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 8.—Beckham's majority is absolutely safe. It is so safe that even the most ardent of his opponents are now conceding that talk of a contest is ridiculous.

Republican managers are now refusing to give out any figures. They say the vote is extremely close and that it will take the official count to determine the result. Conservative party men privately admit that Beckham is the winner.

The young leader's majority will be between 3,000 and 4,000. He says that he confidently expects the returns to show a greater majority than that.

Mr. Bryan's majority in Kentucky may reach 10,000.

Can't Fall Below 5,000

(Special to New Era.)
LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 8.—Beckham's majority cannot fall below 5,000. The Courier-Journal has returned from 1,800 out of the 1,800 voting precincts in the state. In these precincts Beckham has a plurality of 4,000 and Bryan a plurality of 7,700.

BRYAN WILL NOT ACCEPT U. S. SENATORSHIP.

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 8.—Nebraska is close, but the Republicans seem to have a bare majority on the face of the returns.

It is almost certain that the Fusionists and Democrats will control the legislature.

This will insure Bryan a seat in the United States Senate, if he will accept it.

LATER, Bryan this afternoon wired the New York Journal that he could not accept Senatorship under any consideration.

He also telegraphed congratulations to McKinley.

Mr. Bryan states that Nebraska is safely Democratic.

MATTERS OF INTEREST TO TEACHERS AND STUDENTS.

The local reading circle will meet at the home of Mrs. McGarvey, on Friday, Nov. 9, at 10:30 p. m. The reading to be discussed at this meeting consists of chapters VI to IX inclusive in Book I of "The Education of a Citizen" by W. H. McCall.

Every member of the circle should read these chapters carefully so as to be prepared to discuss them at the time of the meeting.

The program will be as follows:

PART I. METHOD IN EDUCATION.

Roll Call. Respond with a quotation from Bryant or Emerson.

Chapter VI. Drills, reviews, examinations.

Chapter VII. Relative Values of School Studies.

Chapter VIII. Reading—Primary, Advanced, and Supplementary.

Reading and Analysis of Bryant's "Lines to a Waterfowl." Miss Adella Clifton.

Comparison of Emerson and Franklin as Authors and as Typical Americans.

Chapter IX. Spelling. Miss Sallie Garnett.

PART II. AMERICAN LITERATURE.

The Leatherstocking Tales and Their Place in American Literature. Miss Daisy Rice.

Reading and Analysis of Bryant's "Lines to a Waterfowl." Miss Adella Clifton.

Comparison of Emerson and Franklin as Authors and as Typical Americans.

Chapter IX. Spelling. Miss Sallie Garnett.

VOTE OF SECOND DISTRICT AND CHRISTIAN COUNTY.

Accurate returns have been received from all the counties in this district. Bryan's plurality is 3,669, Beckham's 3,656, and Allen's 5,533.

Second district returns for president are as follows:

	Plurality	McKinley	1901
Christian	1184	1184	1184
Darwin	1184	1184	1184
Hancock	1184	1184	1184
Henderson	1184	1184	1184
Hopkins	1184	1184	1184
McLean	1184	1184	1184
Union	1184	1184	1184
Webster	1184	1184	1184
Totals	4990	4990	4990

For Governor the vote stands:

THE KENTUCKY

Will Be the First American Battleship to Cross the Atlantic.

European diplomats are interested in the passing of the Kentucky through European waters. The Kentucky will be the first American battleship which has ever been across the Atlantic.

When the battleship Oregon and Iowa left New York, the one for the Pacific station and the other for the Asiatic station, they steamed around the horn.

The Kentucky request her to go through the Suez canal. It has been suggested that the Kentucky might stop at a Turkish port in the hope that the moral effect of her presence would produce, would cause the Sultan to pay the indemnity which this government has demanded at frequent intervals for the last six months.

THE COSMOPOLITAN.

The November Cosmopolitan offers a number of articles, rich in matters of interest. Duality Hunter has written very entertainingly of Thebes. Her Rules and Her Measures, this article is elaborately illustrated. There are short stories by Morgan Robertson, H. G. Wells and S. R. Crockett. The Galveston Tragedy is cleverly described by John Jay and graphically illustrated. Rudyard Kipling's first installment of The Way That He Took, is in this number. A Woman's Experience at Cape Nome, is an interesting article by Eleanor B. Caldwell. The Little Lion of France and England, is extensively illustrated by the author, Ernest O. Peixoto. The usual space is given to Sonnets and their Authors. Great Events are cleverly illustrated by famous cartoonists.

A TRIBUTE.

Mrs. Julia Glass McComb, so well known in Baptist circles in Louisville, died last week. She was the wife of John McComb and a member of the prominent Glass family residing in and about Hopkinsville, Ky. Wherever Baptist students have gone there will be sad hearts at the announcement of this news. Her pastor, Carter Holm Jones, and John O. Rust, of Nashville, conducted the funeral services in her home on Third street. A vicarous, daughter, kindly, affectionate spirit has left the earth. In her intense suffering she longed for rest, and confident of the future, fell, quietly to sleep.—Baptist Argus.

WALKER-CRUMBAUGH.

Last night at nine o'clock Miss Alice Crumbaugh and Dr. N. B. Walker, of Drydenburg, Tenn., were united in marriage at the residence of the bride in Paducah. After the ceremony an elaborate reception was given and at midnight Dr. and Mrs. Walker left for New York to remain several months.

SAM JONES WELL.

Rev. Sam P. Jones has recovered, and will begin a lecture tour in Norfolk November seventh, being Shakespeare evening of "The Senator," of South Ken-

DR. WHARTON.

The Rev. Dr. H. M. Wharton, who conducted a series of evangelistic meetings here last summer and who was shortly afterwards arrested in Albany Park, N. Y., on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses, will preach here next week.

The court proceedings against Dr. Wharton are now suspended for several months, and he is pursuing his career as an evangelist. The Y. M. C. A., has engaged Dr. Wharton to preach at a series of evangelistic meetings at its rooms November 12 to 17.—Courier-Journal.

EVERYDAY Religion Is What The People Need.

Talmage Gives Whole-some Advice To "Sunday" Christians.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—This discourse of Dr. Talmage is appropriate for all seasons, but especially in these times of great political agitation. The text is Daniel 4, 18. "Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel and cast him into the den of lions."

Darius was king of Babylon, and the young man Daniel was so much a favorite with him that he made him prime minister, or secretary of state. But no man could gain such a high position without exciting the envy and jealousy of the people. There were discontented in Babylon who were so appreciative of their own abilities that they were affronted at the elevation of this young man. Old Babylon was afraid of young Babylon. The text says: "The king commanded, and they brought Daniel and cast him into the den of lions."
