THE MURRAY LEDGER.

VOL. 43, NO. 41

MURRAY, KENTUCKY THURSDAY, JANUARY 11, 1912.

$1.00 PER YEAR.

OLLIE JAMES

Former Congressman is Honored With Election to U. S. Senate. The People Remembered in Acceptance.

Wednesday the Kentucky legislature elected Ollie M. James, U. S. Senator over Edwin P. Morrow, Republican, by a vote overwhelming.

"With his voice thick with emotion, the United States senator-elect confronted the legislature and expressed his heartfelt thanks for the honor conferred upon him.

Proceeding further he pledged himself anew to the principles of democracy and declared that it shall be his purpose to labor for the good and welfare of his native state and country. Mr. James began his career in Kentucky twenty-five years ago as a page in the general assembly. His election in the United States senate today was the dream of his life come true.

Senator James thanked the members for the honor in a brief address, pledging his vote for the popular election of the United States senators, income tax, tariff reduction, restoration of copper, and for what he conceived to be for the interests of the people. The joint assembly dissolved at one o'clock. The session in the house in the afternoon was occupied with the announcement of the standing committee and the reading of the rules governing the committee.

Leds Winter's Troubles.
To many, winter is a season of trouble. The frost-bitten toes and fingers, chapped hands and lips, chilblains, cold sores, red and rough skins, prove this. But such troubles fly before Bucklen's Arnica Salve. A trial convinces. Greatest healer of Burns, Boils, Piles, Cuts, Sores, Bruises, Eczema and Sprains. Only 25c at Dale & Stubblefield.

Heavy Penalty Named.

A bill has been drawn up by the Kentucky Veterinary Medical Association and will be introduced at the coming Legislature for enactment into a law. The bill is similar to one introduced at the last session, but has been revised and corrected, not including any part of the tuberculosis question. It has for its purpose, to place the veterinary practice in Kentucky in the hands of competent and educated men, and thereby elevate the profession. It provides among other things for a board of veterinary medical examiners; compels the issuance of licenses to practitioners upon examination, together with the registration of these licenses; and provides a penalty by fine or by imprisonment, or both, for violation of the act.

Pilson's Form A Cens.

From Rev. H. Stullson, of Alton, Ia., in praise of Dr. King's New Life Pills: "They're such a health-giving thing. In every home these pills should be. I have tried them in vain. And be well again. Only 25c at Dale & Stubblefield."

Christian Church.

As the extreme cold weather so seriously interfered with our regular church work last Lord's Day, the membership should make the more earnest effort to be present Sunday morning and evening. The following sermons will be the theme:

Morning—These Sayings of Mine.

Evening—Emotion and Religion.
May we by no means neglect the Sunday school. It would be a great thing if many of our members would start the new year with the determination to make the most of 1912 and to study in the work of the Lord. If there are in doubt as to our spiritual condition we can determine that for ourselves by examining our record for regular church attendance. Our spirituality can be accurately measured by our attendance upon the house of the Lord.
South Hawkins, Minister.

This company had only been advertised for one night, but the demand was so urgent and the attendance was so good that they stayed over Tuesday and Wednesday nights. The present management is to be congratulated upon the many and good shows given at the opera house this winter. Happy Hoeligan wants to see all of his friends at the opera house Saturday night Jan. 13. This is one of the most laughable shows on the road and will be well worth the price of admission, 25c, 35c and 50c.

BONDS VALID

Court of Last Resort Declares That The Water Works Bond Issue of City of Murray Is All O. K.

The court of appeals of Kentucky, the whole court sitting, affirmed the decision of the Callaway Circuit Court declaring valid the $22,000 water works bond issue of Murray which was voted by the public sometime ago.

The suit was a friendly one and was brought by W. S. Swan and others merely for the purpose of having the bonds passed upon by the highest court prior to their sale.

It is declared that the bonds can now be easily disposed of and the outlook for water works for Murray is good. Attorney Pat Holt is the lawyer who put the matter through to a successful finish.

Hamlin, Ky.

We wish to make our bow to the scribblers circle for 1912 and give the readers of the old reliable the happenings of our little village.

Our little burg is still building up, we now have three stores, a blacksmith shop, gasoline ferry and there are prospects for a doctor in the near future.

The first snow of the season fell Saturday to a depth of four or five inches.

Mr. Thompson has moved from Wood to Dan Leececks.

Richard Roberts is carrying the mail from Hamlin to New Concord.

Some of our farmers have been delivering tobacco.

We are sorry to hear that our old friend and neighbor, Buddie Harndon has lost his mind. They say he actually paid $18 to get the blood hounds from Paris to hunt down an imaginary foe whom he supposed had killed a lot of his choice geese. But upon closer observation it proved to be a prowling cur. We always thought Bud was a little weak in the top piece, but had no idea the disease would go down to his pocket-book.

"Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" says: "What-ye-face needs is smiles." In "Hooligan's Troubles" which comes to the Opera House for one night only, Saturday, Jan. 13, there are nothing but smiles. The sort that comes from honest merriment, caused by irrepressible enthusiasm, from following the continuous moving panorama of comedy and music which for three hours floats merrily along in front of you. "Laughing with Happy" is the following day's word for truly "happy" the sunny "Tramp" will get you going and will keep you moving with his quaint sayings and musical tongue. "Happy?" "Why happiness is my stock in trade; when the world looks dark to me I just put all my troubles down at the bottom of my heart, then I sit on the lid and smile."

TAKEN TO THE HOSPITAL

After Operation Failed to Help, Mrs. Kendrick Found that Cardui Made Her Well.

Jonesville, S. C.—"I suffered with womanly troubles," writes Mrs. J. B. Kendrick, in a letter from Jonesville, "and at times, I could not bear to stand on my feet."

"The doctor said I never would be any better, and that I would have to have an operation, or I would have a cancer."

"I went to the hospital, and they operated on me, but I got no better."

"They said medicines would do me no good, and I thought I would have to die."

"At last, I tried Cardui, and I began to improve, so I continued using it. Now, I am well, and can do my own work. I don't feel any pains. Cardui worked like a charm."

"There must be merit in this purely vegetable tonic remedy for women—Cardui—when it will help such an apparently hopeless case as this. Its ingredients are mild herbs, with a gentle, tonic effect, on the womanly constitution."

"If you suffer from any symptoms of womanly trouble, take Cardui. It will help you to get well."

"Cardui goes to the spot—reaches the trouble—relieves the symptoms, and drives away the cause."

"Have you tried it? If not, do so. It may be just what you need."

N. H.—Write to Ladies' Advisory Board, Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., for special instructions, and 66-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent in plain wrapper, on request.

WANTED HER TO SUFFER.

Mr. Henpeck—Do you pull teeth without pain?
Dentist—Oh! yes, sir.
Mr. Henpeck—Then you won't do my mother-in-law. I want to get seven extractions, so I'll have to take her elsewhere.

Was Testing the Baby.
Little Phil Warriner, of Addison road, was detected in the act of pulling out the baby's hair despite her frantic protest.
"I just wanted to see," he said in explanation, "whether she was cold storage baby. Teacher told us that's the way you can tell a chicken. If the feathers come out easily the chicken has been in cold storage."
Needless to say, Phil is doing penance—New York Times.

Reconnitered.
Mamma was dressing when seven-year-old Freddy burst into the room with a loud "Roar!"
"Why, Freddie, dear," expostulated she, "you mustn't open my door without knocking. I mightn't have been dressed at all."
"Oh, this was all right," said Freddy. "I looked through the keyhole first."—Judge.

MEETING OF COMMITTEE

Of Kentucky Educational Association to Pass Upon Points in Bill

WILL ASK FOR LEGISLATION

Most of the Recommendations Are Enabling Rather Than Compelling—A Few Are Quoted.

Frankfort.—The Legislative Committee of the Kentucky Educational Association met here today to pass upon the bills that will be submitted to the next legislature to amend the present public school laws. Most of the recommendations are enabling, and not compulsory acts. Among them are the following:

"That the present State Board of Education be abolished and that a State Board of Education shall be substituted therefor, consisting of seven members as follows: The State Superintendent of Public Instruction, ex-officio; Chairman; the Attorney General; the Commissioner of Agriculture; three professional school men and one layman, to be appointed by the three elective officers."

"That school inspectors be appointed by the State Board of Education, whose duty it shall be to inspect the expenditure of the county and state funds and the general conduct of the office of County School Superintendents and report the same to the State Board of Education."

"That the minimum salary of the County Superintendent of Schools shall be $1,000 and the maximum salary $2,000, said salaries to be fixed by the County Board of Education and paid out of the county school fund."

"That the County Board of Education be given power to provide supervisors for the rural schools."

"That the State Board of Education shall have power to determine the qualifications for teachers in public high schools."

"That an efficient compulsory attendance law be enacted."

"That legislation will be provided which will enable the county to vote upon the proposition of bonding itself for building and equipping school houses."

"That the teaching of agriculture, domestic science and music in the rural schools be made compulsory after 1914."

Recipients of Many Gifts.
Santa Claus visited the Capitol, leaving presents to many of the state officials and their employees. Secretary of State Bruner was presented with a diamond fraternal ring, combining the Scottish Rite and Knight Templar emblems; Russell Wetzel, the Capitol mail master, was presented with a gold watch fob; Garrett Smith was presented with $12.50 in gold; State Auditor Frank P. James called each of his employees into his office and gave each a handsome pin of pearls and diamonds. Secretary of State Bruner entertained the Capitol Conference Club with a smoker, which was attended not only by the newspaper men of this city, but by many of the state officials. The cigars smoked by Secretary Bruner and his guests were sent to him from the Philippines 12 years ago, and when he received them he said that they would not be smoked until he had been elected to a state office.

Court Clerks.
The Circuit Court clerks throughout the State are endeavoring to obtain new legislation to facilitate the matter of collecting costs in cases that are pending in court for a long time. It is estimated that the present system of taxing costs is antiquated and has not kept pace with the evolution in the practice of law. A number of clerks met with Louis Summers, Circuit Clerk of Jefferson county, and discussed the situation. Mr. Summers is president of the Kentucky Circuit Clerks' Association.

Kentucky Banks.
Statement of the resources and liabilities of 136 Kentucky national banks, exclusive of Louisville, as given by the Federal Reserve Bank to the Comptroller of the Currency at the close of business on December 5: Resources—Loans and discounts, $43,360,932; gold coin, $177,550; specie, total, $2,358,386; total, $72,311,922. Liabilities—Individual deposits, $38,563,129; legal reserve, $16,92 per cent.

Farms Changing Hands.
Winchester.—Several Clark county farms have changed hands recently, and a large number of prospective buyers are in the city. The sale of the 600 acres of the blue grass land belonging to Col. H. P. Thompson was attended by a large crowd, a great many being from other counties. Two hundred and sixty-six acres was sold to Clifton Frewitt, of Montgomery county, at the price of $56 per acre. The tract containing 214 acres was taken down at the price of $97.50 per acre.

Frankfort Boy Honored.
The president sent to the senate the nomination of George Wetzel, of this city, to be minister to Nicaragua. The appointment is based on merit. Mr. Wetzel being a valued employee in the state department, where he has been located for a number of years. He is a Spanish linguist of note, has discharged several important missions for the state department, and upon his record was recommended for appointment to the Nicaraguan post by Secretary of State Knox. He will receive a salary of $10,000 a year.

New Law For State Asylums

Many changes in the laws governing the asylums are contemplated in a new law that will be submitted to the next legislature. J. H. A. Wells, of Murray, a member of the board, codified all of the laws governing the charitable institutions, and has made them all into one chapter of the Kentucky Statutes if the bill is passed. The law will provide that the Chairman of the Board of Control shall receive $3,000 in salary, and that he shall devote all of his time to the institutions, and that the superintendents of the asylums shall receive $2,500 instead of $2,000 as they now do; the first assistant physician, $1,500; the second assistant, $1,200; the third assistant, $1,000, and all other assistants, $850. It also provided that the steward get $1,200.

One of the most important features of the bill is that the per capita be raised from $150 to $180, which will mean an annual increase in revenue of $100,000, which is to be used to increase the salaries of the employees, and to erect suitable hospitals. It is provided that no patients shall be admitted to the asylum unless having been examined by two physicians, and they have pronounced the patient insane.

A hospital for the criminal insane, to be located at Lakeland, is also provided for. This place would not have more than three dozen inmates under the present conditions. The feeble minded would be those under 18 years of age who are capable of taking manual training, and those under 20 years of age who are likely to benefit their kind.

Census Figures.

Frankfort.—A new census bulletin devoted to an analysis of Kentucky population figures has just been issued. It contains the following:

In 1910 Kentucky's urban population was 24.3 per cent of the total, or 655,442. These persons dwelt in all incorporated cities and towns of over 2,500 inhabitants. In 1910 Kentucky's rural population was 75.7 per cent, or 1,734,463 persons, who dwelt without the incorporated cities and towns.

In 1900 the urban population percentage was 21.8, or 467,068 persons, and the rural population was 78.2, or 1,525,591 persons. There has thus been a slight decrease in the proportion of urban population.

There are 24 counties that show a larger proportion of urban population in 1910 than 1900, and five counties a smaller urban proportion. Of the remainder, 84 Kentucky counties are shown to have been wholly rural at the taking of both the 1900 and 1910 censuses.

A comparison of the total population in 1910 of the cities and towns having a population of not less than 2,500 each with the total population of the same places in 1910, shows an increase of 14.9 per cent. During the same period the rural population increased 4.2 per cent. The population of urban areas thus increased more than three times as rapidly as rural in Kentucky, while in the United States as a whole, urban population increased 34.9 per cent, and rural 11.2 per cent in the last decade.

For Better Bed Sheets.

Providing for two clean sheets to the bed, each sheet to be at least 408 inches long, a bill seeking to regulate the operations of hotels in Kentucky has just been introduced by the Legislative Committee of Post Day Travelers' Protective Association, and will be introduced at the coming session of the General Assembly. The measure also provides for the office of Hotel Inspector, to be filled by appointment by the Governor, the inspector to receive $5 a day and actual traveling expenses while in the actual discharge of his duties.

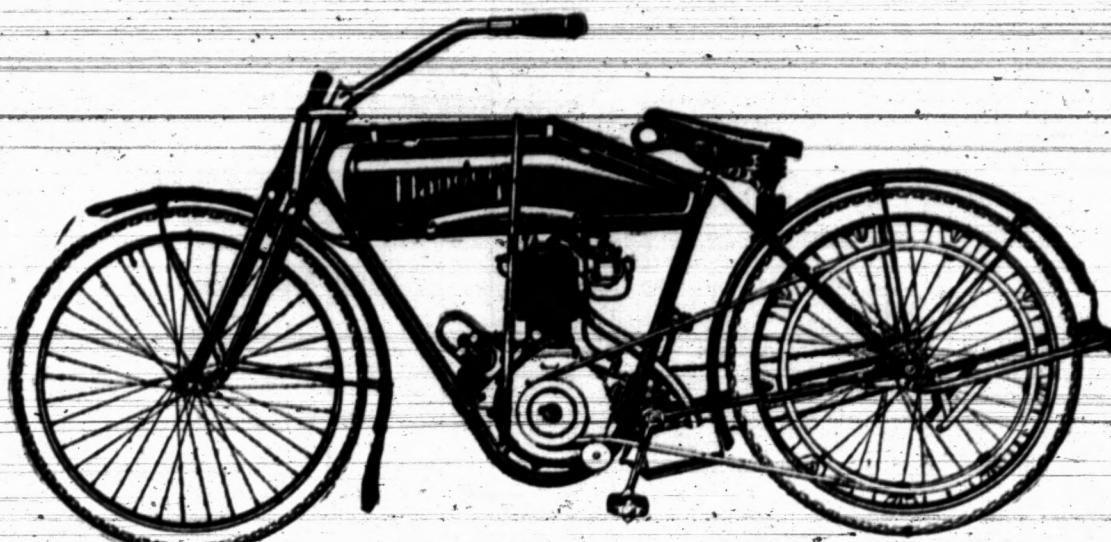

Dr. Ben L. Bruner, soon to retire from the office of Secretary of State, was elected chairman of the committee that framed the bill. It contains eighteen sections, covering practically all matters pertaining to hotels.

Provided the bill is enacted, so-called roller or endless towels, may no longer be used in public washrooms. The measure also provides for adequate means of escape from hotels in case of fire, and deals with hostilities from the standpoint of sanitation and comfort.

Old Club Reorganized.

With a record of sixty years to sustain the Assembly Ball Club, perhaps the oldest organization of its kind in this country, has been reorganized and will begin giving weekly balls on the night of January 2, the day the Legislature begins its sessions this winter. The new club, which is a continuation of the old, with many members who have been members for some years, claims to have more attractive entertainments than the previous record. The new president, Pruitt Graham, is a past master in the art of leading Germans and arranging for balls. He was in charge of the inaugural ball, and made that a decided success. He was selected as president of the Assembly Club this winter because of his executive ability.

Flanders "4" Motorcycle

$175 f. o. b. Factory—Magneto Included of Course

Has Them All on the Run

WHAT AN UPSETTING of prices the arrival of the Flanders "4" Motorcycle has occasioned. Why, the other makers seem to be in a panic.

IT'S FUNNY, TOO, when you recall the unkind things they said about the Flanders "4" when we first advertised it and stated the price.

OF COURSE THEY SAID a first-class four horsepower motorcycle could not be made for $175, even with battery ignition. And a magneto included—utterly impossible.

WE WISH WE COULD print all the things they said in their frantic efforts to discredit the Flanders "4" and justify their own prices—which at that time were $250 and $275 for machines of same power and less quality.

YOU WILL REMEMBER they all said the only way it could be done was to make the machine out of poor materials and throw them together. They not only admitted, they protested, they could not duplicate the Flanders "4" at the price—or anywhere near it.

THAT WAS BEFORE we had begun to ship Flanders "4's" to our dealers and customers. They felt safe in making such statements—for though they knew in their hearts that this concern could not afford to turn out a second grade article—they had no idea what a sensation it was going to create.

SO THEY LAID TRAPS for themselves—and now we are driving them right into them.

THEY MUST EAT their own words—they said they would have to use poor material and poorer work in the making to meet the price of Flanders "4."

WELL, THEY HAVE ALMOST met the price—and they will have to meet it and go lower before they can sell their antiquated machines in competition with this up-to-the-minute motorcycle.

NOW IT DOESN'T REALLY MATTER, but we are to assume that what they said was true and that they are now making punk machines to meet Flanders "4" in competition—or that they told fibs about it?

FRANKLY WE DON'T BELIEVE they are making them any worse—some things are impossible. And we do know that until Flanders "4" arrived on the scene, prices of motorcycles were high above all reason.

WE SAID IN OUR AD that Flanders "4"—magneto included—selling for $175, left a mighty small profit to us on each machine.

BUT WE ARE SATISFIED with a small profit on each machine so long as we can build 50,000 per year. And the price—$175, magneto included—has created a demand sufficient to justify us in building that many.

HERE'S A POINT YOU HADN'T NOTICED perhaps: Other makers did not drop their prices until we had actually begun to make deliveries. Do you know why? There were two reasons.

FIRST: OUR AD CREATED a tremendous demand which we were as yet unable to supply. The other makers saw that and determined to supply some of it at high prices. And they did. Then they began to think it was going to continue.

SECOND: THEY HOPED that when this machine did appear it would not be up to all our claims—and would give them a new lease of life.

NOT ONLY THAT: But in addition to hoping, they set about picking it to pieces before they had actually seen it themselves.

IT IS A FACT that, before we had shipped one motorcycle we heard stories told by competitors of how this part was weak and that part wrong, etc. The wish was father to the thought—that was all.

OH! WHAT A BUMP they got when we began to send them over the country. The effect was electrical.

PRICES BEGAN TO TUMBLE: First they chopped off $25.00—made theirs $250 and $225 instead of $275. But it didn't do. Dealers wired them—"You must meet Flanders prices. No use to damn the machine—it has Flanders' name on it and the public knows."

OFF CAME ANOTHER $25—and another. Here and there they put on a magneto and tried to hold the old price. No go—Flanders had said, "No motorcycle is complete without a magneto."

WELL, THEY HAVEN'T YET reached our price. Can't stay in business, because most of them are not manufacturers—only assemblers. They buy motors and other parts and pay one or two extra profits on them.

IT COSTS THEM MORE to build the same machine than we can sell it for. Get that?

WE HAVE THE FACILITIES—a $2,250,000 concern. We make every part. We buy right and pay cash and it costs us less to sell—because folks know a dollar's worth when they see it, and Flanders "4" is the biggest value ever offered. It sells itself.

EVERY DEALER KNOWS. Didn't they all "hot foot it" to Detroit to get the agency? Of course we couldn't give it to them all—we picked the best and of course those who didn't get it are sore. Naturally. And they are getting sorer every day.

WHEN A DEALER KNOCKS the Flanders "4"—as, of course, he must, to sell other makes—just ask him why he was unable to get the agency when he asked for it. You won't miss one in a hundred.

MEANTIME what you want to know is how soon can you get a Flanders "4." That is the burning question with thousands. And we are doing our best to answer it definitely.

IT DEPENDS ENTIRELY on how soon your order is in our dealer's hands. We can't promise to deliver on the minute—for we have none in stock. Demand is away ahead of supply all the time. But get your order in—pay a deposit so the dealer will know you mean business and you won't have to wait more than a month—perhaps not more than two weeks. The dealer will tell you for he knows when we have promised to ship him. Or you may write direct to us and we will gladly tell you.

THE FLANDERS GUARANTEE goes with every machine. That means that if the machine we ship you isn't right we will make it right. The name Flanders stands for quality—you know that.

DEALERS: This ad is published in several newspapers that circulate widely—in other towns than the one in which they are published. If you live in a town where we have as yet no representative this is your chance to obtain the best seller—because the best value—in the entire motorcycle field. Better write the factory direct today.

Captain Keith. Why did this man
Hendley send me to the Salt Fork?

"He thought he was dealing with Christa MacLair. He had some reason for getting her away; getting her where he could exercise influence over her."

"That's what you like?"

"Yes; but what makes the matter so hard to unravel. She doesn't even know herself. Hawley is going to take advantage of her ignorance in this respect, and convince her that she is the person he wishes her to represent—but who is the person? If I knew that we might block the game."

Both sat silent, striving to figure out some reasonable explanation.

"Do you know of any special papers your father carried?" he asked.

"No," she said, outside his business agreements.

"Has any one ever disappeared?" he asked with your family? Did you have an older sister?"

"Fred and I were the only children," she said, "but that question?"

"Because something of that nature would seem to be the only rational explanation. Your brother must have told Hawley something—some family secret—which he felt could be utilized."

"That's what he said," she said. Then he saw your picture, and was immediately reminded of the remarkable resemblance between you and Christa."

Under all the circumstances this was natural enough, and he did not blame her.

He glanced into the bar-room as she passed, and in any anticipation, but merely from the vigilance which became second nature upon the frontier. Hawley stood leaning against the bar, where he could see any one passing through the saloon. He was waiting for his next met, but the gambler never moved, never changed his attitude, although Keith noted that his right hand was hidden beneath the skirts of his long coat.

"I am warning my enemy, until he reached the outer door. There was a sneer on Hawley's dark sinister face like an invitation, but a jerk of the girl he had just left caused him to turn away. He caught sight of Keith to avoid an encounter. He would fight this affair out in a different way." As the door opened and he slipped forth into the gloom, he dropped again to the floor. He must wait. The gleam of light for a moment instant upon the face of the other—was Scotty with the two moosehide trousers?

They had been waiting for him here—that? No!

It was not Scotty without, were they waiting to determine when he left the hotel, would probably dog his footsteps to discover where he went

SHARP DEBATE IN SENATE.

Newlands Resents Remark of Bailey Concerning Demagogues.

Washington, Senator Newlands of Nevada precipitated a lively debate when he attempted to force upon the senate his resolution providing for a legislative program. He sought to have his resolution made the unfinished business, with the result that the ensuing discussion took a wide range, entering the complicated field of the tariff. The report of the tariff board and the board itself were the subjects of discussion.

Speaking of the board, Senator Reed of Missouri characterized it as "an unauthorized and illegally constituted body." When Senator Smoot, supporting the board, expressed the hope that its recommendations would be embodied in legislation, the Missouri senator replied that he would not permit any five men to tell him how he should vote on the tariff or any other question. He did not believe congress should abdicate its functions.

When Mr. Newlands declared it had been thirty years since the country had experienced a reduction of the tariff, Senator Gallinger called attention to the enactment of the Wilson law of the late Cleveland administration. He added that the country had remained a long time in the same position.

"Oh," responded Mr. Newlands, "that is ancient history."

"It is not forty years ancient," said Mr. Gallinger.

The proceeding also involved a spirited discussion between Mr. Newlands and Senator Bailey of Texas. Replying to a charge by the Nevada senator that representative government had proved a failure, the Texas declared that congress had been especially responsive to the people will during the past twenty years, and that the country was better than for some demagogues there would have been still more effective response. When Senator Newlands manifested a disposition to construe the remark as a personal reflection Mr. Bailey disavowed any such intention.

"I am not," said Mr. Newlands, "going to be responsible for without adding that," said Mr. Bailey.

Says Treaty With Great Britain E

Washington.—Flatly charging that the administration was "denying the fact," Senator Hiltchew of Nevada, on the floor of the senate, denounced the proposed arbitration treaty with that body. "I declare the plan to postpone the president to appoint arbitrators," he said, "is a plan of arbitration without the consent of the senate has revolutionary and dangerous. The proposed treaty, he said, would vine out this nation's true-honored treaty making power result virtually to the president and the process practiced by the monarchial power."

The president could authorize the commissioners to negotiate and submit the differences to arbitration without consulting congress, an official representative of the people of the United States," he stated. "That is the ultimate and best interpretation of the treaty. That is what the joint high commission is."

"It is the trap in this treaty, it is a device to enable the president to treat, without restraint from the senate with the government of Great Britain and in my opinion, Mr. President must lead to, and be condemned to, the foreign policy of Great Britain."

President's Friends Advised Not to

Washington. Word has been broadcast to supporters of Roosevelt that under no circumstances will the president condemn attacks on Col. Theodore Roosevelt, no matter how serious the grounds for Roosevelt in regard to the Republican presidential nomination might be.

It is said the president has expressed himself as being at a loss as to say for reports that relations between self and Col. Roosevelt were strained. He has not taken opportunity to reply directly to any utterances of Col. Roosevelt, but has been asked in some quarters as attacks upon policy of the administration, and said does not wish his friends to go further than he has.

PITIFUL SIGHT WITH ECZEMA

"A few days after birth we noticed an inflamed spot on our baby's face, which soon began to enlarge until the baby was completely covered even on his eyes, ears and scalp. For eight weeks he was bandaged from head to foot. He could not have a stitch of clothing on. Our regular physician pronounced it chertosis, and we called a very famous physician and Frank wrote the best in this locality, nevertheless the disease began spreading until the baby was completely covered. He was losing flesh so rapidly that we became alarmed and decided to try Cuticura Soap and Ointment. After we had used it I commenced using Cuticura Soap and Ointment and we felt what he looked like, as we dared not wash him, and I had been putting on application after another on his face removing the crusts. I could not stand it off, and left him entirely bald, but since we have been using Cuticura Soap and Ointment he has grown as much hair as ever. Four weeks after we began to use the Cuticura Soap and Ointment he was completely cured. I can't believe anyone could have eczema worse than our baby."

"Before we used the Cuticura Remedies we could hardly look at him, he was such a pitiful sight. He would fuss until I would think he would never be well again. I am so much cured I can tell him so much. Cuticura Soap and Ointment stand by themselves and the result they quickly and surely bring is their own recommendation." (Signed) Mrs. E. C. One day when the mail bag for that town was thrown from the train the pouch was caught up by this diminutive courier, who started off as his was his own, on a brisk trot to the post office.

As he was founding a corner of the station he encountered a larger boy, with the result that the little courier was upset. HAS HISTORIC PAST

Harper's Ferry One of the Country's Interesting Towns.

Quaint, Picturesque and Almost Foreign Village in the Shenandoah Valley Has Prominent Place in History.

Harper's Ferry, Va.—Among the many interesting towns in the United States, none is more quaint, picturesque, and almost foreign than Harper's Ferry. Everywhere the new screams at the old, while the old retaliates with silence, conscious that its appeal to the imagination is profound. The first impression of the town, as it lies on the river, is that of a foreign village, extending from the station to the river from which it takes its name and uniting with the road which extends for many miles down the valley. The first impression gained of the town, is from this street, and if one is looking for the modern "City Beautiful," disappointment will surely result for this ancient street has tales to tell, and memories to cherish.

It is history which claims attention, even before the station is out of sight. Hardly ten steps distant is the monument erected on the spot where John Brown took refuge in the old engine house. There, too, are the tablets which tell all about it, though the "Fort" itself, after visiting the World's fair at Chicago, and rusticating for a few years at Kate Field's summer home on the Susquehanna, has now found a permanent abiding place on the grounds of Storer College.

A stone's throw from the station, a structure whose horizontal walls, wrinkled with age, spill over the sidewalk and women, babies, dogs and cats, fighting for supremacy on the stone doorsteps, tell with the eloquence of action of the decadence wrought by the passing years. It was in the early part of the last century that its hospitable doors first opened to the tired traveler. The wide verandas echoed to the tread of gay kilted and lady fair, mail from beyond the ferry, sealed and without envelopes, or stamps, passed through its portals, and when in 1812, the army of England invaded the land, the hostelry served as headquarters for a panic-stricken countryside.

Yet, this is not the oldest spot. Farther down the street, in a cottage whose shining coat of whitewash belies its ancient timbers, Part logs and partly of rough-hewn boards, the small house once served as a village inn, before its older looking competitor had dreamed of entering the field. It was here that Washington and some of his officers were several times entertained. It is now the home of "Uncle Joe."

It was earlier still that the town received its name. When Robert Harper, native of Oxford, England, came to the place in 1747, there was already a man in possession, a squatter named Stevens, who lived at "The Hole," in Shenandoah street. Harper, in love with the beauty of the location, bought out Stevens, settled in his house and established the ferry from which the town takes its name. In 1775, or thereabouts, he erected the old brick house on High street, in which he lived till his death in 1833, and which still stands, in ivy, still stands, a fitting monument to the good judgment of the old pioneer.

Ten years later, when the government needed a site for an arsenal, Washington chose Harper's Ferry. In those days water power was even more important than it is at present, and in this particular the location was unrivaled. The place could be easily fortified, and it was near enough to the new capital at Washington to be quickly reached. Though the rocky bed of the Potomac and its swift current precluded navigation, a canal was feasible and was soon under construction. The canal is still in good condition and for many years has been owned and used by the Chesapeake and Ohio company in transporting coal from Cumberland to Georgetown.

The Shenandoah, "Daughter of the Stars," which unites with the Potomac at Harper's Ferry, is no less swift and rocky than its companion stream, and like that "lordly" river, its waters have been long used, for industrial purposes. Still, it is a subject of a rifle factory, a flour mill, etc., remains a subject of question and comment.

PUBLIC FUNDS AID THE WORK

Gratifying Sign That the People Are Awake to Value of Fight Against Tuberculosis.

Compared with the expenditures for tuberculosis work in 1910, those of the past year are practically the same in the aggregate, but they are almost double those of 1909. The National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis, in its third annual statement, points out, however, what it considers more significant than the aggregate expenditures, namely, that the percentage of money spent from public funds is greater in 1911 than ever before, being 95.2 per cent of the total, in 1909 only 53.9 per cent of the total expenditures was from public funds, and in 1910 it had increased to 62.6 per cent. In 1911 over $9,000,000 of the $14,000,000 spent was from federal, state, municipal or county funds. Since the chief work of the anti-tuberculosis association is to urge the public authorities to provide for tuberculosis patients, and thus to assume the responsibility for stamping out this disease, the increased percentage of public money is regarded as a very favorable sign of progress.

Appropriations of over $10,000,000 for tuberculosis work in 1912 by local, state, federal and county bodies. Of this sum about $4,700,000 is from state appropriations, and about $5,300,000 for county and municipal purposes. In addition to these sums, the federal government spends about $1,000,000 every year supporting its several special tuberculosis sanatoria.

THE SAFE LAXATIVE FOR ELDERLY PEOPLE

Most elderly people are more or less troubled with a chronic, persistent constipation, due largely to lack of sufficient exercise. They experience difficulty in digesting even light food, with a consequent belching of stomach gases, drowsiness after eating, headache and a feeling of lassitude and general discomfort.

Doctors advise against cathartics and violent purgatives of every kind, recommending a mild, gentle laxative tonic, like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, to effect relief without disturbing the entire system.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the perfect laxative, easy in action, certain in effect and without unpleasant taste. It possesses a tonic property that strengthens the stomach, liver and bowels and is a remedy that has been for years the great standby in thousands of families, and should be in every family medicine chest. It is equally as valuable for children as for older people.

Druggists everywhere sell Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin in 50c and $1.00 bottles. If you have never tried it send your name and address to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 201 Washington St., Monticello, Ill., and he will be very glad to send a sample bottle for trial.

The Better Part.

Accordingly the village band gathered. When at last it had played, "Say An Revolt But Not Good-bye," and had taken its own departure, Mrs. O'Shaunessy, kneeling at her husband's bedside, asked: "Can ye die any now, Pat?" "I replied Pat. "I can die any now. Hell has nothing worse than that."

HAVE YOU SUSPECTED YOUR KIDNEYS?

There are Two Ways to Find Out Whether the Kidneys are Sick or Weak

Every Picture Tells a Story.
Kidney disease is so dangerous that it is a bad mistake to overlook or neglect it, and if it gets into the back, recurring headaches, or a fretful, nervous, tired condition makes you suspect some kidney trouble, take the trouble to watch the kidney secretions. Look for any of the following signs:
More or less than three and one half pints of urine daily.
Too dark or too pale a color.
Too frequent, profuse, or much reduced or watery and painful.
Sandy, gritty or cloudy secretions.
Red or oily-looking layer which gathers on the surface when allowed to stand, or a fatty-like thickening.
Staining of the linen or bed odor.
Temporary changes may occur for a time, but if they continue, or if they recur, or if you are troubled with any of the above, your kidneys are probably out of order and in need of help. Neglect may be dangerous.

Doan's Kidney Pills act on the kidneys and are intended to stimulate and help them. Their kidney action means rapid relief from any backache, dizziness, rheumatic pain, languor, bloating, urinary disorders, etc., that may have been caused by kidney weakness.

The following case is typical of the cure effected by Doan's Kidney Pills. Grateful testimony is the best evidence.

IN BED FIVE MONTHS.
Health Followed Improvement in the Action of the Kidneys.
J. L. Richardson, Red Key, Indiana, says: "A wrong diagnosis of my case caused me six months of terrible pain. When I had been in bed helpless for three months I was a mere bag of bones. The trouble began with pain in the back, and after a few weeks of it my nerves gave way completely and my eyes got bad. I had frequent dizzy spells, felt tired always and never seemed to get enough sleep. Almost went crazy. The action of the kidneys kept getting worse, and the urine harder to pass. Twenty-four hours would go by without a passage. The doctors began to take the water from me with a catheter. They did this once a day for fifty days. On Christmas Day, five years ago, my doctor told me that my time was about up. I lived through the day and night, contrary to expectations, and the next day a friend gave me a box of Doan's Kidney Pills. I used it and was encouraged to continue. When I had taken five boxes I got out of bed. I kept on and entirely well, and from that day to this—five years—I have never had a twinge in my back."

HAVE YOU SUSPECTED YOUR KIDNEYS?

There are Two Ways to Find Out Whether the Kidneys are Sick or Weak

Every Picture Tells a Story.
Kidney disease is so dangerous that it is a bad mistake to overlook or neglect it, and if it gets into the back, recurring headaches, or a fretful, nervous, tired condition makes you suspect some kidney trouble, take the trouble to watch the kidney secretions. Look for any of the following signs:
More or less than three and one half pints of urine daily.
Too dark or too pale a color.
Too frequent, profuse, or much reduced or watery and painful.
Sandy, gritty or cloudy secretions.
Red or oily-looking layer which gathers on the surface when allowed to stand, or a fatty-like thickening.
Staining of the linen or bed odor.
Temporary changes may occur for a time, but if they continue, or if they recur, or if you are troubled with any of the above, your kidneys are probably out of order and in need of help. Neglect may be dangerous.

Doan's Kidney Pills act on the kidneys and are intended to stimulate and help them. Their kidney action means rapid relief from any backache, dizziness, rheumatic pain, languor, bloating, urinary disorders, etc., that may have been caused by kidney weakness.

The following case is typical of the cure effected by Doan's Kidney Pills. Grateful testimony is the best evidence.

IN BED FIVE MONTHS.
Health Followed Improvement in the Action of the Kidneys.
J. L. Richardson, Red Key, Indiana, says: "A wrong diagnosis of my case caused me six months of terrible pain. When I had been in bed helpless for three months I was a mere bag of bones. The trouble began with pain in the back, and after a few weeks of it my nerves gave way completely and my eyes got bad. I had frequent dizzy spells, felt tired always and never seemed to get enough sleep. Almost went crazy. The action of the kidneys kept getting worse, and the urine harder to pass. Twenty-four hours would go by without a passage. The doctors began to take the water from me with a catheter. They did this once a day for fifty days. On Christmas Day, five years ago, my doctor told me that my time was about up. I lived through the day and night, contrary to expectations, and the next day a friend gave me a box of Doan's Kidney Pills. I used it and was encouraged to continue. When I had taken five boxes I got out of bed. I kept on and entirely well, and from that day to this—five years—I have never had a twinge in my back."

Lord Gullford tells a story of a young lady's resources at a bazaar. Business was in full swing when a young man strolled around the various stalls, with no intention of purchasing anything. As he passed a large, beautifully decorated stall the young lady seller detained him. "Won't you buy a cigarette, hold?" she asked. "No, thank you, I don't smoke," was the curt reply. "Or a pipe?" she asked. "I don't write." "Then do have this nice box of chocolates. I don't eat sweets." The young lady's patience was exhausted. "Sir," she said grimly, "will you buy this box of soap?"

The young man paid up.

Murray High School

AT YOUR SERVICE!

Second Term Began Jan. 1, 1912
70 NEW STUDENTS—ROOM FOR 70 MORE.

EVERYBODY knows that an education pays, that the best is none too good, that youth is the time to get it, that we'll all be a year older in 1913. And yet, there were 388 students in the 8th grades of the rural schools of the county last year, and less than 50 of them are attending high school anywhere!

It ought not to be necessary to advertise a public high school. Did you ever see a Post Office advertisement? The attendance is better than it has ever been before. The teachers are doing better work. And we have reserved some choice seats for our share of the students mentioned above, when their home school is out.

Notice The Following Reasons for Coming to Murray High School

We Have a Good Faculty.

The regular high-school teachers, who do work above the eighth grade only, are three in number: F. E. McKeown, Principal; (A. B. State University of Oklahoma) English, Arithmetic, Geometry; J. W. Jones, (M. A. Georgetown College) History, Science, Algebra, German; Rubie Wear, (Higbee College) Composition, Literature, Latin.

In the work after Christmas, these teachers will be assisted in the special work by the seventh and eighth grade teachers, and by the teachers of the first, second and third grades, if needed. Miss Ruth Catchin, and a number of other private teachers, give instruction in music.

Our Regular High-School Course is as Good as Any in the STATE.

It takes 4 hard years' work to finish this course. Experience shows that there is no short-cut to a successful career. In Kentucky the law will soon demand, as it now does in many other states, that no one be given a certificate to teach unless he has had high school work. It is now impossible to enter a first-class school of law or of medicine without a high school diploma. High school training is necessary for one wishing to enter a profession and it will soon be indispensable for any honorable or lucrative occupation; mechanic, farmer, journalist, manufacturer, business-man, all need a high school education.

Our graduates enter without examination any college in the State. They have entered the State University, Georgetown College, Transylvania, and other colleges. Murray High School is the only one in the county which has special standing. Students with some college work are mentioned in their reports in high schools of the State. The last report places our school in Rank A.

We Give a Course for Teachers.

There are a number of young people in the county who are looking to teaching as a profession. Some of them are not old enough or not well enough prepared to enter the normal school. Some will wish to teach and thus earn their way through the normal, attending between terms. A term at Murray in the teachers' course is a great help towards the first position as a teacher.

This course will be particularly strong this year. We shall attempt not only to prepare for examination, but also for the actual work of teaching. Those who wish to do so will have the opportunity of observing the work of the teachers in the lower grades, and hearing them discuss their work. There will be frequent examinations in the various subjects, to enable the students to find their own weaknesses and correct them.

Many of the best teachers of the county are now in training for the profession in our school.

We shall have beginning classes in all first year high school branches the second term.

Those who have finished the work of the common school may begin at once a regular high school course, ninth grade work. Those who are not entirely thru all the eighth grade work will have special classes in the subjects in which they are deficient, and may in other subjects take up the high school work.

We shall place each student where he can do the best work. No one will have to wait for some one else, and yet no one will be hurried over the work too rapidly to master it. The large teaching force will make it possible for us to have a large number of classes, and plenty of time for each class.

Students who are particularly good in the common branches, who have had some work in the science and higher arithmetic, may be able to finish the ninth grade work in half a year, and take up the tenth and eleventh grades next September.

Expenses are reasonable: Tuition is $3.00, for all students in and above the 7th grade, and $2.00 for all below. This is as nearly as we can estimate, the cost of instruction. Those who live in the district pay the same in taxes as those outside pay in tuition. Board and rooms may be had in good families at fair rates. It costs something to stay at home, a little more to stay away from home. The cost for books for the term will not exceed three or four dollars. What are YOU GOING TO DO ABOUT IT?

FACTS AND FICTION
Experiences of Murray Citizens Are Easily Proven to be Facts.

The most superficial investigation will prove that the following statement from a resident of Murray is true. Read it and compare evidence from Murray people with testimony of strangers living so far away you cannot investigate the facts of the case. Many more citizens of Murray will endorse Dean's Kidney Pills.

George A. Cook, contractor, Murray, Ky., says: "The two years ago I was afflicted with kidney trouble, and was unable to do any work. I tried many remedies, but nothing helped. I then bought Dean's Kidney Pills, and after taking a few boxes, I was cured. I can now do all my work, and am in good health. I can now do all my work, and am in good health."
