WEEKLY NEW ERA.

HOPKINSVILLE, KENTUCKY, JULY 1901.

GREAT GOOD ROADS CONVENTION.

Will Take Place In Hopkinsville, Ky., July 10th and 11th.

"The American is not only what he eats, but what he drives." This is a maxim of great import in these days of good roads, for all the world now realizes the advantage of solid, workable highways. The wheels of industry are rolling over the new roads, and where good roads are plentiful, the cities are growing larger and richer, and making the farmers of the country more prosperous. Hopkinsville is a city that has always been a leader in the advancement of the cause of good roads, and it is expected that the convention will be marked by the display of the most up-to-date machinery and the best of the latest developments in road-building and road-care. The convention will be held at the Hopkinsville Hotel, and the visitors will be welcomed by the mayor and the city council. The convention will open on Thursday, July 10th, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, and will continue until Saturday, July 11th, at 10 o'clock. The program will be filled with speeches, exhibits, demonstrations, and the presentation of prizes. The convention is expected to be a great success, and the city of Hopkinsville is looking forward to a memorable event.

Death is Still Stalking Abroad

Nine persons have been accounted for in the past week's convention.

MORTUARY RECORD IS APPALLING

The death rate for the last week has been higher than usual, but there is no sign of a return to the early day's high level. The number of deaths in the last week is much higher than the average for the same period. The death rate is now over 50 per cent higher than that of last year.

MAGGIE CLACK, ALICE WERE LOUISE

Remette went to Hopkins today on a business trip. She is expected to return soon. The town is reportedly in a state of mourning for the loss of Maggie Clack, Alice Were and Louise Mologio. Training offered are requested at the county superintendent's office.

EDBEESER CHARGE

Edbee's Church will hold its annual encampment this year. The church is reported to be in a state of readiness for the event, and the attendance is expected to be large.

PARIS GREEN

The use of Paris Green is increasing. The government has warned the public against its use, but the sale continues. It is said that the use of the poison is increasing in the West, and that the government is powerless to prevent it.

WHITE MAN TURNED YELLOW

A white man has been found dead in a state of yellow or black. The cause of death is unknown, but the man was found dead in his home, and the police are investigating the case.

MENTIONS THINGS NOW

This week has been marked by a number of unusual events. The most notable is the death of a man who was found to be a robot. The police are investigating the case, and it is said that the man was under the control of a robot operator.
