WEEKLY KENTUCKY NEW LEA.

ONE DOLLAR A YEAR.

HOPKINSVILLE, CHRISTIAN COUNTY KENTUCKY FRIDAY, MAY 30, 1902

VOLUME XXXII, NO. 37

FRIENDS ARE HERE.

TRY TO MAKE BOND FOR MILLERS.

Accepted in City Court—Given Time By Commissioner Ferguson.

From Thursday's "Herald"

About twenty persons from near Dover, Tenn., friends of the Miller brothers who are in the county jail charged with counterfeiting, came here yesterday for the purpose of making bond for the prisoners.

Three of them, Messrs. Ramsey, Carl and Davenport, were accepted as bondsmen in the city court and the Miller boys were admitted to bail in the sum of $1,000 each, holding them to appear before the circuit court in answer to any indictment the grand jury might find against them at its next session.

Up to the present time, United States Commissioner Harry Ferguson has not accepted any of them as bondsmen in the case of the government against the prisoners. He has fixed the bond of C. J. Miller at $200, and that of J. F. Miller at $200. Commissioner Ferguson has given the friends of the prisoners until 4 o'clock this afternoon to raise those amounts, but says that if they do not succeed in doing so by that time he will issue a mandamus and commit the Miller boys to jail in Bowling Green.

P. C. Dick, of the secret service, is in the city looking into the case. The Miller boys were photographed yesterday.

This afternoon, C. J. Miller gave bond with J. F. Garrison as surety, and was released from custody.

GREAT REJOICING

IN NASHVILLE OVER NEW RAILROAD.

The first train over the Tennessee Central arrived in Nashville Tuesday, and on account of the event there was a general holiday in that city. There was a banquet and speech-making and all the citizens participated in one way or another in rejoicing over securing a new railroad. The L. & N. has heretofore had a monopoly of the railroad business in Nashville. It is mainly due to the efforts of Judge Jero Baxter, president of the Tennessee Central, that the line was built. The project met with great opposition from the L. & N. and other interests. The line will be of great benefit to the city as well as those having business with Nashville. It will give live competition to shippers.

The Tennessee Central will make a junction with the Illinois Central either at Greasy or this city.

SEE EVERY DAY

But Very Few Can Correctly Describe These Objects.

Here are some questions about things you have seen every day and all your life, says the Washington Star. If you are a wonder you may possibly answer one or two of the queries offered. Otherwise not.

What are the exact words on a 2-cent stamp and in which direction is the face of it turned?

In which direction is the face turned of a cent? On a quarter? On a dime?

How many toes has a cat on each forefoot? On each hind foot?

Which way does the crescent moon turn? To the right or left?

Your watch has some words written or printed on its face. You have seen these words a thousand times. Write them out correctly. Few can do this. Also, what is the number in the case of your watch?

AMERICAN DERBY

Big Chicago Race Saturday, June 21.

The American derby is the next important event in racing circles. It is to be run in Chicago about June 21, and the purse will be worth between $50,000 and $60,000. The stake closed with ninety-seven nominations and there will probably be between fifteen or twenty starters.

Three of the horses that started in the Louisville derby are entered in American derby. They are Abe Frank, Allan-a-dale and Inventor.

Frank is quoted at 15 to 1, Allan-a-dale at 20 to 1 and Inventor, 30 to 1. Crusader, a home colt, owned by E. J. Baldwin, is the favorite, at 8 to 1.

The distance is one and one-half miles, the same as the Latonia derby in which Abe Frank repeated his record made in the Louisville derby by running absolutely last. The derby will be witnessed by 75,000 people.

CLOSING EXERCISES

Of M. & F. College—Mr. Feland's Address.

The closing exercises of the M. & F. College, colored, will be held Friday night at Union Tabernacle.

A program of much interest will be rendered by the undergraduates and includes vocal and instrumental music, orations, and recitations.

Following a chorus, "All Hail Liberty's Chieftain," the Hon. John Feland will deliver a public address. An admission of 15 cents will be charged to pay current expenses.

FROM HIGH BLUFF

DIVER JOHNSON MADE A PERILOUS LEAP.

Saved The Life Of A Boy At Bowling Green Monday.

Charles Johnson, the high diver who was one of the leading attractions of the Ellis Jubilee last week, performed a heroic act at Bowling Green Monday and saved a boy's life.

The Times-Journal says: "Yesterday a crowd of small boys were bathing in the river below the ice factory, when Clifton Graham, a negro boy, aged about eleven years, came within an ace of losing his life. The boy, a paralytic, and unable to swim, ventured out too far and had disappeared under the water and when missed created quite a commotion among his comrades, who ran in all directions crying for help. Two strangers standing upon the high bluff near by admiring the beauty of the surrounding landscape were attracted by their cries. Taking in the situation at a glance one of them, who it was learned later, was Charles Johnson, the high diver in the streets of India, in the twinkling of an eye threw off his coat, stepped back ten to fifteen feet, quietly ran, jumped and cleared the bluff, going head-first into the water, a distance of 75 or 80 feet, near the spot where the lad had gone under for the third and last time. Those who witnessed the daring feat stood in breathless amazement and anxiety, fearing he had been killed, as he remained under the water as unusually long time; however, to their delight he appeared and in his grasp held the boy, whom he brought safely to shore and back to life after the usual 'modus operandi'."

STANLEY TO SPEAK

Will Address Voters At The Court House Monday.

Hon. A. O. Stanley, of Henderson, candidate for the Democratic nomination for congress in the Second district, will address the voters of Christian county at the court house in this city Monday afternoon, June 2, at one o'clock.

Mr. Stanley invites other candidates for the nomination to be present and will divide time with them.

IN FEAR AND PERIL

LIGHTNING STRIKES HARRY TANDY'S HOME.

Family's Narrow Escape From Death—A Narrowing Experience.

Nerva has reached this city of the narrow escape from death of Mrs. Harry Tandy and baby during a storm at Frankfort. A dispatch says:

"Lightning struck the residence on Wapping street occupied by Assistant Secretary of State Harry G. Tandy. One chimney, was demolished and a big hole was torn in the roof, but the heavy rain extinguished the flames started by the lightning.

"But for the old-fashioned double ceiling in the house, a mass of brick and stone in the chimney would have crashed into the room where Mrs. Tandy and the baby were sleeping. Mrs. Tandy was asleep, in Paducah, and Mrs. Tandy, and Mrs. Spauldwood Conway, sister of Urey Woodson, who lives in the same house, spent several hours in terror, as the telephone wires were not working and no assistance could be summoned."

DEcoration DAY

From Thursday's "Herald"

Tomorrow will be National Decoration Day and graves of soldiers who fell in the civil war will be strewn with flowers. The occasion will be observed with interesting and appropriate exercises in this city. All who desire to take part are invited to be present at Hopewell cemetery promptly at 9 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. There will be devotional exercises, a program and music, and three addresses. Mr. John Feland will be master of ceremonies, and will deliver an address. The other speakers will be Mr. Charles O. Prowse and Mr. Stanley Leig.

At the conclusion of the program, flowers and flag will be placed on the graves of both Federal and Confederate soldiers. All who can do so are requested to bring flowers.

In most of the Northern states Memorial Day is legally set aside as a day for decorating the graves of soldiers, for holding military parades, for listening to an oration from some speaker. There was no general celebration of this beautiful custom, and no fixed date until General John A. Logan, commander-in-chief of the G. A. R., in 1888, issued an order that all comrades should on that day meet and scatter tokens of respect over the graves of the departed.

DOG WINTER GONE

AND "BLACKBERRY WINTER" IS HERE.

Shivery Mornings For Thinly Clad.—Named By The Indians.

Blackberry winter is with us and those of us who haven't put on our thickest "summers" and sold our spring overcoats, are enjoying the weather. The rest of us are having early morning chills and taking quinine.

Speaking of "blackberry winter" this morning, a citizen said that it was always present at the time the blackberries are in bloom. They are now in full bloom and the winter is here on time. "You may watch this if you will, and if you live to be four hundred years old," said the citizen referred to, "you will invariably find that blackberry winter comes just at the time the berries are in bloom. I have watched it and it never fails."

"Dog winter," comes invariably before blackberry winter. We had dog winter about two weeks ago when the cold spell visited us. This is also an unfeeling weather. It comes at the time that the dogwood trees are in bloom. These winters or cold spells are so named by the Indians who had only signs to guide them as to the seasons and times. Whenever the dogwood blossoms appeared on the trees, the Indians took that as a sure sign that it was time for fishing and that the fish were ready to bite. There was always a cold spell of a few days at the time and they called it 'dog winter' and it has come down from them. In the same way 'blackberry winter' got its name and has come to be a tradition among white people."
