BUSINESS MATTERS

STOCKHOLDERS OF DALTON STONE CO. MEET.

New Machinery For Acme Mills & Elevator Co.—Mr. Calhoun's Position.

The annual meeting of stockholders of the H. M. Dalton Stone Co. was held at the office of the company. The same board of directors was elected and officers were re-elected as follows: C. P. White, president; H. M. Dalton, vice president and manager; J. P. Weyerbacher, secretary and treasurer. The directors decided to add another roller crushing machine to the plant to fill orders for this year.

Mr. R. H. Twitvel, president of the Acme Mills & Elevator Co., and Mr. N. Sumner, board member, left this afternoon for an extended trip through the east, visiting Philadelphia and other large cities, to examine machinery now in use in some of the largest mills in the east preparatory to purchasing the machinery for the new plant.

Mr. Nat Galtner has accepted a position as traveling salesman for the "Mogul" wagon manufactured by the Forbes Manufacturing company.

Mr. J. Arthur Wallace has resigned his position with A. Waller & Co., of Henderson, and has accepted a position in the electrical department of the Acme Mills & Elevator Co.

Mr. J. O. Littlehales, former manager of the Hopkinsville Gas & Electric Co., accompanied by Mrs. Littlehales, left Saturday for Seattle, Washington, where he has accepted a lucrative position with the Seattle Gas & Electric Light Company.

Mr. Ed Fyle has gone to Panama, Florida, to take a position as jeweler with the leading jewelry store of that city.

Mr. Francis Bensinger has sold his interest in the Green River News, published at Sebec. He is in the city enroute to his old home in Pennsylvania. Mr. Rhodes P. Roper, former owner of the paper when it was the Herald, will have charge of the mechanical department.

PERSONAL

Mr. W. A. P. Pool is quite sick at his home on Jassy avenue.

Misses Marie Byars and Annie McPherson left this morning for Louisville to visit Miss Anna McComb.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

Mr. Charles S. Jarrett went to Louisville today.

Mr. Ritchie Burnett has returned from Palestine, Tex., and is visiting Mrs. W. R. Howell.

New Trial For Thomas.

Haydon Thomas, formerly of Cadiz, who was tried in Atlanta some time ago and sent to the Georgia penitentiary for seven years, on the charges of perjury and obtaining goods under false pretenses, has been granted a new trial on the four-year sentence of obtaining goods under false pretenses. The court held that it was not a felony, but a breach of trust which is only a misdemeanor in Georgia. His attorney, Denny P. Smith, expects to get a pardon for him in the other case in a short time.

CERULEAN IS INCORPORATED.

The Cerulean Springs Hotel company has filed articles of incorporation with a capital stock of $25,000. Capt. R. S. Pool, W. H. Sims, V. R. Pool and A. J. Sims are the incorporators. R. S. Pool was elected president and W. H. Sims secretary and treasurer.

CLUB ROOMS FOR THE ELKS LODGE.

The Hopkinsville Elks lodge will open club rooms in the Planters Bank & Trust Co. building in the near future. A contract has been signed for the lease of the entire third floor for a term of three years. Committees have been appointed to purchase furniture for the apartments and to make all arrangements for conducting the club. The apartments will be exceedingly handsome and attractive. The rooms will be heated by steam and equipped with all modern conveniences. There will be reception parlors, a billiard hall, bath rooms and library. The members of the order are greatly elated over the new prospects of the club's success.

WARNING SENT OUT

BY THE KENTUCKY BOARD OF HEALTH.

Danger of Widespread Epidemic of Smallpox—New Cases in County.

To the Fiscal and Health Officials and People of Kentucky: It is the duty of this board to again warn you of the danger of a widespread epidemic of smallpox. Although stamped out over and over again, it has been almost constantly imported from other states where less care was observed, and because so many of our more ignorant people are unprotected by vaccination, and so many local cases have failed to provide hospitals for the proper isolation and management of first cases, the disease now exists in many widely separated counties, and everywhere shows a disposition to break over control and assume an epidemic form.

Business people, afflicted families and others, for obvious reasons often attempt to make the impression that the disease is so mild as to be unimportant, but it is due that the public should know that this is not true. It is gradually growing more severe, and deaths from it are often caused or attributed to other causes. It should be known also that there are no such diseases as "Elephant Itch," "African Itch," and that every case investigated by this board in the past five years which had been so diagnosed by ignorant physicians and people was found to be genuine smallpox.

In Germany and other countries where vaccination is universal, smallpox is practically unknown. In every citizen of Kentucky at once obeyed the plain letter of the law and had himself and everyone for whom he is responsible vaccinated, this loathsome disease, which has entailed so much expense on our taxpayers, and so much loss and discomfort of business, would permanently disappear from our borders within the next six weeks.

Vaccination, properly done with fresh virus, is a perfect protection against smallpox, and is entirely free from danger. Persons thoroughly vaccinated will not take the disease in any form, even when directly exposed to it. It is an important operation. An imperfect vaccination will give a false sense of security. The virus should always be inserted at not less than three points on the well-cleaned arm, about an inch and a half apart, and the physician's hands should be well cleaned before he begins the work. The three points of insertion causes less soreness and gives far greater protection. Humanized virus is preferable where it can be obtained from healthy children and young people, being more certain to take, causing less local and constitutional disturbance and giving more permanent protection. The crusade against the use of this virus has been almost entirely unsuccessful.

SLOW-HEALING SORES

Slow healing sores are unsightly, painful and dangerous. They are a constant cause of anxiety and worry. Chronic, slow healing sores are frequently the result of blood poisoning. The condition weakens and the blood is polluted, run down condition, when a scratch, cut, simple boil or burn, becomes a fearful looking ulcer that grows and spreads, eating deeper and deeper into the flesh in spite of everything that can be done to check its progress. Old people whose blood is below the standard and the circulation sluggish, are often tormented with face sores, and indolent, sticky looking sores upon the limbs that give them hardly a moment's rest from pain and worry.

Purify the Blood

When the blood is too weak to throw off the germs and poisons, and so amount of external treatment will heal them, but they continue to grow worse and worse, and many times terminate in that most horrible of all human maladies, Cancer. S. S. Cures slow healing sores by purifying and invigorating the germs, diluting blood and purging the system of all corrupt matter, thus striking at the real cause and removing every hindrance to a rapid cure, and this is the only possible way to reach these deeply seated, dangerous places. S. S. Cures strengthens and tones up the circulation, and supplies rich, nutritious blood for the rebuilding of the constitution and healing the sores, when you get rid of the old plague spot for all time. If you have a slow healing, stubborn sore, write us about it and our Physicians will advise you without charge. The Swift Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga.

FARMERS should not fail to attend Tobacco Growers' convention in Hopkinsville next Wednesday, February 11, at 10:30 a. m. Each and every grower of tobacco is urged by the Growers' Association to be on hand and take part in the proceedings, for they all have much at stake.

TOBACCO GROWERS

TO FIGHT THE TRUST'S ENCROACHMENTS.

How Present Conditions Affect Farmers and What They Promise.

Tobacco growers in many counties are holding meetings and organizing for the purpose of forming some co-operative plan whereby they may protect themselves against the encroachments of the tobacco trust in destroying competition and fixing the price of both the leaf tobacco as it leaves the producer and the manufactured article as it leaves the factory, says the Springfield Herald. So far, these organizations have accomplished nothing. While it is hoped that they may accomplish much good, there can be little doubt as to the final result. Further than that they may serve to stimulate a wholesome education along certain lines.

Trusts have come to stay until they are destroyed by national legislation, and the people might as well make up their minds to that effect. The purchase of the Weisinger tobacco factories of Louisville, a few days ago, by the Continental Tobacco Company, gives the trust a complete monopoly of the whole business, except a few small concerns in different places, and the tobacco growers are at its mercy, with scarcely the semblance of what may be called a tobacco market at home or on the breaks. The farmer has nothing better left than to sell his crop to the local agent of the trust, or sell it on the breaks to the agent of the same party, both of which agents receive and execute instructions from the same head. There is no doubt, however, that it will be some time before the price offered by the local agent and that for which the tobacco will sell on the breaks, but the difference will never be greater than the cost of pricing, shipping and selling the tobacco.

This, if it can be called a market, will be practically the only future one. Just what the ruling price for leaf tobacco will be will depend somewhat on circumstances. A short or bad crop will vary the general average some. The trust must have the tobacco and will hold out some sort of an inducement both for a full crop and a short one, but the rule by which the price will be gauged is fixed and not on competition at that, but it will be the least average price for which land owners will permit tenants to raise the crop, and there, of course, scattered here and there, be a few fancy crops sold at fancy prices. The trust must, for policy, obtain as inexpensive to farmers who believe they grow the fancy crop and obtain the fancy price, while it amounts to nothing with the trust, because it is so little affects the average price for the whole crop.

This is not, we admit, a very rosy view of the tobacco growing business, but we can see a hope for improvement in the market until the life is crushed out of the trust system by national legislation, and conditions freed from monopoly and made such that individuals can safely engage in business on their own hook, without the fear of being crushed by trust combination.

It is a mystery why women endure backache, headache, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, fainting and dizzy spells when thousands have proved that Electric Bitters will quickly cure such troubles. "I suffered for years with kidney troubles," writes Mrs. Phoebe Cherley, of Peterson, Ia., "and a lame back pained me so I could not dress myself, but Electric Bitters wonderfully cured me, although 73 years old, I am now able to do all my housework." It overcomes constipation, improves appetite, gives perfect health. Only 50c at Anderson & Fowler, J. O. Cook, L. L. Elgin, C. K. Wyle drug stores.

Herndon Notes.

—Miss Maud Dawson is visiting her grandmother at Bennettsburg.

—Mrs. W. R. Cherry has returned home after several days' visit to her mother, near Poe Dee.

—Miss George Willis, of South Kentucky College, is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. E. Stone.

—Misses Mattie and Mary Major have returned home after a two weeks' visit to their aunt, near Hopkinsville.

—Mr. W. A. Ladd, of Oak Grove, spent last Thursday night with his sister, Mrs. W. R. Faulkner, of this place.

—Miss Daisy Tilly, of South Kentucky College, is visiting her parents at this place.

—Miss Mary Lou Pace has returned home after a visit to her grandmother, near here.

—Mr. W. B. Cherry, of this town, has opened a spring school at Beverley, and Misses Mattie and Mary Major are attending.

—Mr. W. M. Allen and family, of Louisville, have moved to this place, where they will make their home in the future.

—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lacy gave a delightful party last Thursday night, and everybody enjoyed the occasion immensely.

METEORITE SOLD

Fell in Christian County Several Years Ago.

For the sum of $90 Prof. Ulrich of the United States Geological Survey has purchased a meteorite weighing three hundred and eighty pounds from Capt. Samuel T. Frit of this county. The meteorite will be placed in the National Museum at Washington, and will also probably be exhibited at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition.

The meteorite fell a number of years ago and lay embedded in the field of Capt. Frit several years before he realized that it was other than an ordinary stone. When he was apprised of the fact he dug it up and placed it in a safe place. Prof. Ulrich heard of the curiosity and came here to examine it and made an offer for it which was refused. After he returned to Washington he wrote to Judge J. I. Landess to see Capt. Frit and learn what price he placed upon it. Judge Landess followed his instructions and bought it for $90.

SENATOR H. L. DAWES ANSWERS DREAD SUMMONS

PASSES AWAY RIPE IN YEARS AND HONORS WORKED FOR INDIANS.

Author of Measure That Gives Us Bulletins of The Weather.

NOTED AS A STATESMAN.

(Special to New Era.)

PITTSFIELD, Mass., Feb. 5.—Senator Henry Laurens Dawes died today at his home in this city, aged 81 years.

He was born in Cummington, Mass., Oct. 30, 1845, graduated from Yale in 1869, and after teaching several years became a journalist and lawyer. He served in the state legislature and then in the lower house of congress.

He was elected to the United States senate in 1875 and served until 1885, when he declined reelection.

He was the author of a number of important bills and was particularly conspicuous for his work in behalf of the Indian. He originated the law which made Indians subject to suit protected by United States criminal laws. He inaugurated the measure for completion of Washington monument, and also the "Weather Bulletin" measure.

Child's Death.

An unusually sad death was that of Mary Alma Weeks, the 11-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Will B. Weeks, which occurred this morning at 3 o'clock at the home of her parents on West Jefferson street, after a few days' illness from locked bowels.

The little girl was taken sick Monday, but was not regarded as seriously ill until Tuesday evening, when it became evident that she could not recover. A telegram was sent to her father, who is traveling in California—Paducah News Democrat.

NEW ORLEANS REUNION

Confederates Getting Ready To Attend in Large Numbers

At this early date arrangements are being made for the Confederate reunion, which will take place in New Orleans, La., on May 19 to 22, inclusive. The commanding general, John B. Gordon, announces that 1,490 corps have already joined the association, and he hopes many more will file applications before the reunion.

BURIED IN A BED

INSTEAD OF EARTH IS HART'S SUBJECT.

(From Thursday's Daily.)

Yesterday evening instead of burying a man alive, Hart, the Laugh King, placed his hypnotized subject in F. J. Mitchell's furniture store window, where he is now sleeping peacefully and will continue to do so until tonight when he will be removed to the opera house and awakened on the stage.

Hart's performance at the opera house tonight is said to be the best he has ever given here and no doubt he will attract a large audience.

An old negro woman stopped at the window where Hart has his subject asleep and asked what was the matter with him.

"Why he's hypnotized," said the man in charge.

"You folks got a new name for it, Mr. Mitchell calls it embalming," said the negress as she shuffled on her way.

Sunday School Work.

The officers and teachers of the Sunday school of the Methodist church have organized a society for the promotion and improvement of the Sunday school, and meet every Wednesday night immediately after prayer meeting. At the meeting last night the most important subject discussed was that of using a graded system similar to that used in public schools.

VERSUS

TRUSTS

There are more ways than one of fighting trusts, but very few are successful. The U. S. Government can't budge them. One way would certainly be effectual. Quit patronizing them.

If we all went back to tallow dips, we could break the Standard Oil Co.

If you want to break the Tobacco trust sell to an outsider. If you want to break the Binder trust, buy a machine that is not in trust.
