DEATH ON GALLOWES

FOR CURT JETT, PROFESSIONAL ASSASSIN

Murderer of Marcom Is Convicted of Killing Jim Cockrell.

(Special to New Era.)

CYNTHIANA, Ky., Sept. 23.—After a trial lasting eight days the jury in the trial Jett, charged with the murder of John Marshall James Cockrell, at Jackson, Ky., July 21, 1928, brought in a verdict of guilty and fixed the punishment at death.

The jurors deliberated on the case for two hours and twenty-five minutes, and, it is said, twenty-four ballots were taken, one juror holding out to the final ballot against a death sentence. Jett declared that the verdict was what he expected. He expressed the opinion that it would be reversed by the court of appeals.

Reading of the verdict did not affect Jett, but his brother was very much distressed. His mouth quivered and he slowly turned pale.

This was the second trial of Curtis Jett on the charge of murder. In his first trial for the murder of J. B. Marcom at Jackson, Ky., and Thomas White were sentenced to life imprisonment.

Attorney Blanton stated that he will move for a new trial on Thursday on the grounds of absent witnesses, absent counsel and erroneous rulings. Sentence will then be passed on Jett and his attorney will be allowed until the November term to file his bill of evidence for the appeal.

Blanton says Jett has authorized him to say that he has nothing to confess, and that he will have no confession.

Measuring Party.

The boys of Grace church—junior members of St. Andrew's Brotherhood—will give a "Measuring Party" at the residence of Rev. John W. Venable, Friday evening, Sept. 25.

This is their first church work, and it is hoped their laudable desire to begin in youth may be encouraged.

The Brotherhood of St. Andrew is a grand training school in all the virtues that make up a noble manhood.

God bless the boys! Let us help them all we can. They are to be our future statesmen and lawmakers. If they enter the arena strong in the armor of righteousness the world will be better for their living in it.

"If Christ be for us, who can be against us?"

The amusements at the party will be various and calculated to please all.

The occasion will also be a fitting opportunity for the people of Grace church to greet the kind rector who served them so long and so faithfully, and warm his heart with the assurance that in his old age he is affectionately remembered.

The prospect of St. Andrew's Brotherhood is:

"I expect to pass through this world but once. Any good thing, therefore, that I can do, or any kindness I can show to any human being, let me do it now. Let me not defer, or neglect it, for I shall not pass this way again."

GUNS BANGED

And Fence at Park Was Savagely Assaulted.

The drill of Co. D, at the ball park last night was largely attended, but the light was rather inefficient on account of the posts having to be placed so near the fences as to not interfere with the ball games.

The company showed great improvement as a result of the continued and vigorous drill that they have been having under Sergeant Reynolds. Each man was supplied with twenty rounds of blank ammunition and when the command to fire was given the report was tremendous. At one time when the command was given to charge the men reached the fence on Walnut street and made a savage attack on it, and had it not been for a quick command of "to the rear" there would have been several planks knocked off.

The new guns for Co. D arrived this morning.

BRIDGE IS BROKEN

AND DRIVER AND TEAM GET A FALL.

The work of laying rails at this end of the Tennessee Central is being rushed with a vim. Already the track is completed from the junction with the Illinois Central to the crossing of the Canton pike. Several cars of ties and rails have been received here and the work will doubtless continue without interruption until the gang working from Oak Grove is met. The track is naturally very rough and uneven now, but this will soon be remedied when the ballast is put on. The engine which arrived here Saturday is being used in pushing the cars of ties and rails wherever needed.

An accident which, happily, had no bad effects, occurred this morning. A team of mules hitched to a scraper and in charge of a colored driver, were driven from the embankment on to the bridge over the railroad, when the supports at the end of the bridge gave way and the structure fell, but so slowly that neither the mules nor the driver were hurt. In falling the bridge struck a telephone pole and broke it off. The bridge was not wrecked to any great extent but on account of its weight it will require considerable work and expense to get it back into position.

WAS IT GARTH?

Bud Garth, who is wanted at Trenton for murder committed about two months ago, is reported to have been seen in Clarksville early this morning. He went out College street towards Dunbar's Cave. Garth passed through the eastern part of the city and was recognized by a woman who claims to know him. She said that he was walking. She said she knew Garth well, and that she was sure it was he.—Clarksville Leaf-Chronicle.

NEW PACING KING.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—Yesterday afternoon in the presence of 4,000 spectators at the Empire City track Prince Alzet paced a mile in 1:57, beating the world's record two seconds and reducing his own best time three seconds.

The previous world's record was made by Dan Patch at Brighton Beach last month, when he stepped a mile in 1:59.

Two changes are announced in the schedule of Col. Morris B. Belknap, Republican nominee for governor. He will speak at Russellville Oct. 3, instead of at Hopkinsville, the latter appointment being filled the following day. Dr. Ben L. Bruner, of Hart, will speak with Col. Belknap at Russellville and Major W. C. Owens will be with him at Hopkinsville. Dr. Bruner will also accompany Col. Belknap to Greenburg and Campbellsville, Oct. 6 and 7.

A CARD.

Permit us, dear friends, to convey to each of you, as far as words can, the assurance of appreciation of your love, sympathy and confidence during the sad and trying hour of our bereavement, which to our tired and aching hearts were like the loving hands of omnipotent power, and will forever prove a solace in the dark and lonely hours of life's pathway.

HUSTLER AT HEAD

Judge W. T. Fowler has been appointed chairman of the World's Fair committee from Christian county, vice E. M. Flack, resigned. Other members of the committee are George C. Long, treasurer; T. C. Underwood, secretary; E. B. Bassett, C. F. Jarrett, C. M. Meacham and J. D. Clardy. Other committee members are as follows: Joseph Henry, state miscellaneous corporations; J. B. Walker, state agriculture and horticulture committee; William H. Cummings, Jr., tobacco exhibit; John Ballard and R. E. Cooper, tobacco finance; George E. Green, live stock exhibit; Charles E. Barker, chairman committee on agriculture and horticulture. Other gentlemen connected with the movement to have Christian county properly represented in the great Kentucky exhibit are: J. H. Dagg, T. L. Metcalfe, C. A. Brasher, J. G. Cooper, G. H. Stowe, M. B. King, Church Hill; F. C. Clardy, Newstead; R. C. Crenshaw, Pee Dee; E. S. Dudley, J. W. Cross, Pembroke; W. B. Brewer, Fairview; C. R. Hancock, Pembroke.

As one of the largest and best counties in the state, Christian should not need any urging to do her duty, and the citizens should take hold with a determination to lift the county to the level of other counties with no more to show at the exposition but with more enterprise in agreeing to help bear the burden which has fallen on the commercial life of the state since the legislature failed to make an appropriation.

HISER-DIQUID.

Mr. T. G. Hiser and Miss Lella Diquid were joined in the holy bonds of wedlock Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. W. A. Mr. and Mrs. Hiser left shortly after the ceremony for Denver, Colo., and will go from there to California where they will spend a month before returning to their home in this city.

The bride is an attractive and lovely young lady and Mr. Hiser is a popular traveling salesman, representing the O'Brien Brothers, wholesale clothing of Nashville, Tenn.

A Boy's Wild Ride For Life.

With family around expecting him to die, and a son riding for life, 15 miles to get Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, W. H. Brown, of Louisville, Ind., endured death's agony from asthma; but this wonderful medicine gave instant relief and soon cured him. He writes: "I now sleep soundly every night." Trial bottles free at L. L. Elgin and C. K. Wyle drug stores.

Bloodhound Puppies.

Chief of Police Armstrong has purchased from Mr. H. C. Acton, of Dundee, Ky., a pair of finely bred bloodhound puppies. They are just two months old but are large and strong and have already developed the long drooping ears which is a leading characteristic of the breed. They are what Chief Armstrong calls a "bloodhound brindle," a dark brownish, and are very thin in order but if their appetite keeps up like it is now they will soon be rolling fat. The puppies are the property of Chief Armstrong, individually.

DEBT IS WIPED OUT. SQUEDUNG'S NOTES

GOV. BECKHAM'S WAR CLAIM COLLECTION.

Others Failed.—Calhoun's Fee Much Lower Than Paid by Republicans.

One of the most successful strokes of Gov. Beckham's administration and one which has greatly disturbed the Republicans, was the collection of the state of Kentucky's civil and Spanish war claim from the United States government. With the money which was collected the Kentucky soldiers, who served in the Spanish war, received back pay which they had never expected to get but which was rightfully coming to them, and with the money which had been due them for the civil war, the entire state debt was wiped out.

While Gov. Beckham had been criticized for the payment of a fee of $71,000 to Capt. C. C. Calhoun, Gov. Beckham's administration, efforts had been made to collect this money, it must be remembered that the payment of this sum was approved by an act of the Kentucky legislature, and that the fee was much lower than numerous states, whose governors are Republicans, paid for the same service.

It must also be remembered that for forty years prior to Gov. Beckham's administration, efforts had been made to collect this money and all had failed. Therefore, while $71,000 was paid to Capt. Calhoun for his services in the event he succeeded in collecting the claim, this contract was submitted to and approved by the general assembly.

After many months of untiring and intelligent labor the claim was collected and $1,350,000 was turned over to the state less cost of collection. The fee paid for this extraordinary service was, in the opinion of the governor and the general assembly, very reasonable. It was less than had been paid by any other state for the collection of like claims. The following summary shows the amounts collected and fees paid for our services by states on civil war interest claims:

If Gov. Bradley had succeeded in collecting this claim in the first year of his administration, and it had been applied to the payment of the obligations of the state, then outstanding, the state would have saved at least $250,000 of interest. If this claim was so easily collected and only required "clerical labor," Gov. Bradley, who is a lawyer of marked ability and long experience, have it attempted to? Why did he pay out large sums for interest on the state debt, and borrow $500,000 from the bonds of the state, if he knew any means by which this claim could have been collected. He knew of the existence of this claim, because he approved vouchers for $675 for having it investigated.

The Republican platform denounced the fee paid Calhoun as "unnecessary, unjust and exorbitant." For the reduction of this charge we appeal to the action of the Republican states as shown in the above table.

DOINGS IN WEST CHRISTIAN AND TODD

He Finds Both Crops And Politics in a Satisfactory Condition.

Jesup's Grove, Ky., Sept. 23, '33.

Jesup Grove originally included the W. H. and Geo. W. Jesup, Press, Robt. and Benj. Downer, J. Wm. Keeling, the Cash farm, now owned by Col. W. H. Jesup, and Mills Tandy farms. This valuable land was taken up on a land warrant by Col. Croghan, who fought contrary to orders the battle of Lower Sandusky, Ohio, and was successful holding the fort with one hundred and fifty men against 700 British and Indians after repromising and taking from him his command. Gen. Harrison reinstated and promoted him, and the ladies of Chillicothe presented him with a beautiful sword for his gallantry. Col. Jesup's home place is being cultivated by Milam and his Cash farm by John Keeling. They are brothers and up-to-date young men, and I am proud to write, both were pupils of the writer.

Jaeger Hurt, the merchant at Cashville is a hustling young man and reports a fair business.

The Salmon brothers, George and Hamp, are the best tobacco and stock men in this portion of Todd county.

Sam and Bill Crouch, Jas. and Lee Dyeus, Polk Rose, Lewis Salmon, Geo. Gray, Harve Lucas, Clarence Tandy, Dick Shepherd are all successful farmers.

From Jesup Knob a fine view is had of Fairview and surrounding country. I take great delight in visiting this noted spot to view the landscape. If the people would study nature more and grow less they would be happier. It's wrong to complain of the acts of Providence. Men who brag of what they have accomplished fail to give their maker due praise. Kind readers, let us look down less and up more, and occasionally in our hearts thank him from whom all blessings flow.

Gen. Jesup of 1812 and Seminoles was famous married Croghan's daughter.

The invitation of the members of Bethel church, built on the spot where the illustrious chief of the Confederacy, was born, was accepted by the Jeff Davis Confederate Veterans' camp of Elkton, Ky., and a reunion will be held on Saturday, Oct. 3. Ex-Congressman Ellis of Owensboro, and other distinguished speakers have been invited, possibly Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Hayes, "daughters of the confederacy" will be present. The Elkton brass band, Sam Rice leader, will discourse sweet music on the occasion. Come out, every old boy who honorably wore the gray, and let us make it a grand success.

W. G. Layne has just completed a tobacco barn.

Wallace Layne is improving the old George Layne house. He is having it made two stories, with new kitchen and smokehouse in connection.

Prof. W. E. Gray is teaching at Fletcher's and Miss Annie Allen at Jesup's schoolhouse.

Ed Layne a brother of Mrs. John Keeling and Wallace Layne, was a member of Capt. Lewis Garth's company, Woodards cavalry. He was captured at Clarksville in company with John Brane and died at Rock Island prison in 1861.

Inviting everybody to the Confederate Veterans' reunion, I will close. Everything in this section is Democratic.

FOURTH ODDS AGAINST HIM.

Bedridden, alone and destitute. Sick, in brief, was the condition of an old soldier by name of J. J. Havens, Versailles, O. For years he was troubled with kidney diseases and neither doctors nor medicines gave him any relief. At length he tried Electric Bitters. It put him on his feet in short order and now he testifies: "I'm on the road to complete recovery." Best on earth for kidney and liver troubles and all forms of stomach and bowel complaints. Only 50c. Guaranteed by L. L. Elgin and C. K. Wyle, drugists.

STATE MUST PAY
EXPENSES OF TROOPS TO HENDERSON.
While at West Point.

Maj. Bassett today received official notification to mobilize the companies of his battalion at Henderson from which place they will be taken on special train to West Point to participate in the manuevers. It will be necessary for him to secure transportation to Henderson for the soldiers at the expense of the state. Co. D. will leave Sept. 30 for the big encampment.

The government will pay the national guards for the different companies for their services before they leave West Point. As nearly 9,000 troops from the states will be at the maneuvers an enormous sum in cash will be disbursed by the United States paymaster. They will arrive at Camp Young with big bundles of crisp, new treasury notes fresh from the vaults, and it is estimated that it will take them but a short time to transfer the money to the pockets of the soldiers.

The troops from the states will be paid during the encampment at the same rate which regular soldiers of the same rank receive.

Colonels get $1,300 a year; lieutenant colonels, $4,000; majors, $4,400; captains, $1,800; first lieutenants, $1-200. Sergeants are paid $16 a month; corporals, $15 and privates, $12.60, the clothing, food and medical attention being supplied free to soldiers under the rank of second lieutenant.
The regiments from Kentucky, Michigan, Indiana, Wisconsin and Ohio will arrive at the camp on September 30, and remain until October 15, but their pay will begin from the time they leave home.

The Telephone Question.
The Kentucky New Era in the matter of the telephone question, as in all public matters, is on the side that looks to the best interests of the people of the state. We do not believe that the citizens, who have given the question anything like careful consideration, want two telephone systems with the accompanying inconveniences and increased expense. Now that the matter of selling an additional franchise is being discussed, the people should make known their will. The Cumberland Telephone and Telegraph company has just finished putting long distance telephones into the residences and business houses of all its patrons both in Hopkinsville and Christian county, and has improved its service until there is none better anywhere.
It has reduced the number of instruments on every party line in the city to two, and the rates are reasonable and as low as in any other city of the size of Hopkinsville. The company's new building, which is an architectural ornament and a considerable addition to the taxable property of the city, is nearly completed.

In view of the great amount of money that the company has expended in perfecting its system and erecting its handsome exchange, it is not to be doubted that it intends to stay in Hopkinsville. If another franchise is sold, somebody will, of course, buy it. In that event the franchise will be purchased either for speculative purposes, hoping to sell out to the Cumberland, or a new system will be put in without the splendid long distance connections of the Cumberland Telephone & Telegraph Co. This would mean two telephone systems for Hopkinsville, incurring additional expense to the users of telephones and forcing them to put up with the serious annoyances that invariably grow out of having two services.
One thing is certain, if the city should have two telephone systems, it is not possible for the people to derive benefit therefrom. Unlike many other businesses, competition in the matter of telephones, in the very nature of things, must hurt instead of help a city.

(From Wednesday's Daily.) Harry Crenshaw, the seventeen-year-old son of Mr. Tom Crenshaw, of the Roaring Springs vicinity, accidentally shot himself yesterday afternoon and died this morning from the effects of the wound. The unfortunate boy was out hunting in a field about one mile from his father's residence and while climbing over a fence the shot gun was discharged by the trigger catching on a rail. The charge entered the youth's body just above his heart. He was carried home and died at 5 o'clock this morning. Young Crenshaw was a nephew of Mr. M. P. Crenshaw and Senator B. C. Crenshaw.

TELEPHONE MONOPOLY OR COMPETITION

Anything to which the word "monopoly" is attached is commonly regarded as something to be broken up.
It should not be forgotten, however, that the telephone business is in a sense a natural monopoly. The more completely the telephone lines of a city or larger area are under the control of one company the better for the patrons of the telephone. This sort of monopoly is not dependent on patents or franchises. Give to rivals the free right to every appliance the Bell people have and the opportunity to parallel their lines at will, and still forces would be working outside the competing companies to bring them together either by absorption or in friendly interchange of business, or through the creation of a telephone trust. In the towns where independent companies operate, the general usefulness of a telephone decreases in proportion to their success.

Lawyers, doctors, business men and all others who have relations with the general public are obliged to pay for a double telephone service. This robs them of whatever advantage might accrue from lowering of rates under competition. The usefulness of a telephone is largely conditioned by the number of other people who can be reached by it. To find that half of your business or social acquaintances are in some other line and cannot be connected with you is discouraging. In the end the company with the largest patronage must occupy the field exclusively, and as telephones are improved and the area is widened within which cheap and satisfactory conversation is possible, the company that can put the subscriber in communication with the largest number of cities and give the most extended service must win triumph.—New York Daily Tribune.

DUKE DECLINES.
Refuses to Grant Increase Asked By Burley Men.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Sept. 21.—The committee from the Burley Tobacco Association returned after a conference with James B. Duke, president of the tobacco trust, the Continental Tobacco company, which buys 65 per cent. of all the tobacco grown in the United States. The Burley Tobacco association is composed of twenty-five thousand tobacco growers.
The committee asked President Duke to take their contracts at eight and one-half cents increase, or 50 per cent. of the present price paid the farmers. Duke declined. As a result it is probable that an independent warehouse will be established here, according to W. B. Hawkins, chairman of the committee.

A SIMPLE QUESTION
Hopkinsville People Are Requested to Honestly Answer This.

Is not the word of a representative citizen of Hopkinsville more convincing than the doubtful utterance of people living everywhere else in the Union? Read this:
J. W. Tunks, of 312 West Seventh St., who is employed at M. C. Forber planing mill says: "The condition of my health was such as to cause me a great deal of worry about my future.
I had an almost constant aching in the back of my head, and my kidney secretions were highly colorized, excessive and irregular, in fact, the disorder was so pronounced that it had been said it bordered on disease. I also suffered at this time with indigestion which caused me a great deal of distress. At one time I was scarcely able to do any work for nearly a year. I doctored and tried various remedies but nothing did me any permanent good until I used Doan's Kidney Pills which I procured at Thomas & Trahern's drug store. I had taken them only a few days when I noticed a change for the better and by the time I had finished the box I found that they had brought about so decided an improvement in my condition to convince me of their real worth, and I am more than thankful for the relief that I have received."

BUSINESS METHODS
OF REPUBLICAN NOMI-NEE FOR GOVERNOR

Doesn't Know a Shotgun From a Two Horse Wagon.

One of Col. Morris Belknap's chief claims for the Kentucky governor-ship is that he is a practical business man and that if he is elected he will give the state of Kentucky a thorough business administration of its affairs. However the Democrats are inclined to believe that if he conducts the state affairs as the business of the W. B. Belknap company has been conducted the state may become involved in litigation as the W. B. Belknap company became involved in 1894. The Democrats are justified in their belief that the Belknap is making his campaign on the claim that he will give the state a business administration and are perfectly willing that his business record shall be compared with the administration of Governor Beckham.
The following is one of Col. Belk-nap's business methods which became known to the public by reason of an indictment returned against him by the U. S. circuit court for the district of Texas. The indictment charges that he had fraudulently shipped to Beaumont, Texas, in violation of the Inter-State Commerce law, several carloads of mixed hardware, guns, ammunition and divers articles, and was having fraudulently, unlawfully and knowingly made a false entry of the nature and character of the goods so shipped, starting to be wagon material in the rough.

The U. S. court in Texas decided that it did not have jurisdiction of the offense, which it was held was committed in Kentucky at the point of shipment; consequently the indictments were dismissed in Texas.
At the February term, 1900, three indictments were returned in the U.
S. circuit court at Louisville, against John W. Price, secretary of the Belknap company. Each indictment charged that the said Price, acting for and on behalf of W. B. Belknap company, shipped to Beaumont, Texas, a car load of mixed hardware, guns and ammunition, and unlawfully, knowingly and fraudulently made a false entry of the nature and
character of the goods so shipped, stating the same to be wagon material, in the rough, when in truth and in fact, said shipment consisted of guns, ammunition and hardware.

The rate on rough, wagon material from Louisville to Beaumont, Texas, was 48 cents per hundred. Assuming a car to carry 50,000 pounds, the average load, the charge for shipment per car would be $24.00.
Each of these cars was actually loaded with hardware, guns and ammunition. The rate on hardware was $1.21, on guns $1.41 and on ammunition $1.51. The average rate would be $1.28, which would make the charges on each car, if properly filled, from Louisville to Beaumont, $640.00. By shipping the goods as wagon material the Belknap company saved $40.00 on each car.
A plea of guilty was entered in the court at Louisville to two indictments, and a fine of one thousand dollars fixed in one case and five hundred in another. The third indictment was filed away.

Do the people of Kentucky desire their chief executive a man who does not know the difference between a carload of hardware, guns and ammunition, and a car loaded with wagon material in the rough? Do they desire a "business" administration conducted upon such lines?
Theodore Maxfield & Brother, of Batesville, Ark., was another customer of W. B. Belknap & Company.
In order to investigate the character of the shipment of goods under improper classification by Belknap & Company to Maxfield & Brother, Charles L. Wilson, buyer for this latter firm, was sent to appraise before the federal grand jury in Louisville, Ky., and bring the invoices of goods purchased from, and the bills of lading for the goods shipped by Belknap & Company.

Wilson appeared at Louisville in obedience to this summons, and brought the Belknap invoices and bills of lading with him. While Wilson was thus in attendance upon the court, the invoices and bills of lading were unlawfully taken away from him. J. W. Price, who was secretary of the Belknap company, was indicted in the United States circuit court at Louisville for "unlawfully knowingly, feloniously and corruptly obstructing and impeding by "threats and force the due administration of justice in the said court by causing and inducing Theodore Maxfield to covertly obtain possession of the said invoices and bills of lading of lading from the possession of Charles L. Wilson when he, the said Charles L. Wilson, was asleep, and thereby prevent him from being said J. W. Price, and the said J. W.
Price did then and there take possession of the said invoices and bills of lading and by force and unlawfully take, or permit said Charles L. Wilson, or any other person to take them to or file them before or submit them, or any of them, as evidence to said jury."

To this grave charge J. W. Price, "in open court, confessed himself guilty." He was fined five hundred dollars for this interference with the administration of justice.
J. W. Price was the secretary, and Morris B. Belknap the vice-president of the Belknap company. In 1899, at Louisville, he was indicted for the same offense, and was acquitted.
Price is still the secretary and Belknap has knowledge at the time the events transpired that J. W.
Price, secretary of his company, unlawfully, corruptly and feloniously obstructed the investigation by the federal grand jury of the unlawful shipment of goods to Batesville, Arkansas, by causing Maxfield to forcibly take from a sleeping witness the invoices and bills of lading, upon which an indictment was sought against the Belknap company and associated with him as business men?
The people of Kentucky are entitled to know if it is not true that the Belknap company, of which Morris B. Belknap was and is vice-president, paid all the fines, aggregating $2,000, so indicted against J. W. Price, for this fraudulent shipment, and unlawful interference with the due administration of justice?
