COUGHLIN DUNGAN ANSWERS
THE DREAD SUMMONS OF DEATH

A VICTIM OF TYPHOID-PNEUMONIA

REGRET IS GENERAL

Shocked by Little-Burt Death Mortified the End.

Mr. James W. Dungan, one of Hopkinsville’s most popular and wealthy young citizens, was taken to his death from the results of typhoid-pneumonia, the disease under which he labored for several days.

He had been settled in his business as a wholesale and retail grocer for a number of years, and his death was unexpected.

He was a member of the First Presbyterian Church, and had reared a large family.

A large crowd gathered at his residence to pay last respects.

The news was a shock to the community, which had been expecting him to recover.

The funeral will take place at the First Presbyterian Church, and the body will be interred in the family plot at Liberty Cemetery.

SOMETHING OF THE DEATH

Mr. Dungan was born in Lincoln County, Kentucky, and came to Hopkinsville when he was a youth.

He commenced business in Hopkinsville about ten years ago, and had built up a large and prosperous business.

He was a member of the First Presbyterian Church, and had served as a deacon for several years.

He was a man of culture and refinement, and was respected by all who knew him.

He leaves a widow and three children.

The funeral will take place at the First Presbyterian Church, and the body will be interred in the family plot at Liberty Cemetery.

CELEBRATED THANKSGIVING

The anniversary of the first Thanksgiving, celebrated in the Province of Virginia, was observed in the following manner: Monday, November 24, 1619, and after the business of the day was transacted, the congregation retired to the house of Mr. S. Wilson, where they were entertained with a sumptuous repast. In the evening there was a sermon on the subject of Thanksgiving, delivered by Rev. S. Wilson, which was followed by prayer and thanksgiving. The day was closed with a hymn and a prayer for the blessing of God on the following day.

Mrs. J. W. Washington, of Waynesburg, Ohio, writes: "I have been afflicted with diabetes for several years, and have been unable to control the disease. I have heard of Life Plant, and have been using the powder for several years. I can truthfully say that I have had no recurrence of my disease since I began using the powder. I am well satisfied with the results, and would not dispense with it for anything."
