GARROTT TELLS OF MURDER

Watched White Man's Skull Crushed and Throat Cut, and Then He Fled.—Claims Fear of Slayers' Vengeance Kept Him Silent.

THE PROSECUTION RESTS IN PEMBROKE CASE.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

Judge Thomas P. Cook, who was taken suddenly ill yesterday morning with something like diarrhoea, continued so ill all day yesterday that Governor Beckham was communicated with and he appointed Major John Phelps, of this city, to act as special judge until Judge Cook should recover. Judge Cook was able to be down in town this morning but he was very weak from the attack of yesterday and his physician advised him not to attempt to preside for a few days, and Judge Phelps called court to order.

This afternoon Judge Cook, feeling much better, decided to resume the bench, and is presiding at the murder trial.

The trial of Bill Garrett, one of the nine negroes charged with the heinous Pembroke murder, was begun this morning.

The morning was consumed in securing a jury. Two hundred jurymen have been summoned for the other cases and they will be tried as fast as possible. Garrett is represented by Attorney Robt. Lander, colored. The prosecuting attorneys are Commonwealth's Attorney Denby P. Smith, County Attorney O. H. Anderson, Judge James Breathitt and Judge Charles H. Bush.

The jury is composed of the following citizens:

Ed Boyd, G. W. Davenport, Geo. Fry, R. Boyd, J. H. Johnson, James Sadler, John Long, J. H. Duval, Jim Anderson, Jim Drake, Ed Long, Braut Powers.

W. C. Dossett, who found the body of the stranger murdered on the Chilton farm last November, was the first witness examined.

The Carter will case has been decided by the court's establishing the will of John W. Carter, deceased, making his widow, Mrs. Jennie H. Carter, sole legatee.

The suit of Tom Mobley against W. B. Brewer, of Fairview for $5,150 damages has been settled by the defendant paying the plaintiff $25 and the action was stricken from the docket as settled. The suit was the outcome of the difficulty resulting in the shooting of Mobley by Editor Brewer some time ago.

(From Wednesday's Daily)

Considerable delay was experienced in getting started this morning in the case against Bill Garrett charged with complicity in the Pembroke murder. On account of the witnesses living at Pembroke not being able to get here until the 9:50 train they had to be waited for. Attorney Lander has been indisposed for several days and this morning, supposing the prosecution would continue its testimony, he asked Mr. G. W. Southall to act in his stead in conducting the cross examinations. The prosecution however announced that they rested, and Mr. Southall not being sufficiently advised as to the line of defense, the regular attorney had to be called. He had gone home and it was after eleven o'clock before the trial was again taken up.

The defendant was the first witness introduced by the defense and his testimony consumed the balance of the morning session. He testified that on the night of the murder he left Pembroke in a wagon driven by Mr. Will Hancock, in company with his wife and other members of his family, and went home, on their way seeing the man and his fire on the roadside. After staying there awhile he started to Ned Moseley's and met Frank Masie, Charles Finch, Ed Moseley, Ed Holland and George Holland and went with them to George Holland's house.

They stayed there a short while popping corn, and then some one suggested that they go down in the woods and play cards and they all started out. When they passed the road leading to his house, Garrett stated that he started to leave the party and go home but was prevailed upon by Ed Moseley to continue with them. After walking down the road to near where the man lay sleeping they met Dick Carney, Frank Meriwether, and Frank Sherman who were standing in the woods, and George Holland and Frank Masie went out to where they were, Ed Holland, Finch, Garrett and Moseley continuing their walk down the road, and the other five walking through the woods in the same direction. The witness stated that when he saw they were going to molest the sleeper he told them not to do it.

He testified to having seen Frank Meriwether strike the three blows with a stick and to George Holland's cutting his throat, when he ran home. He denied that he knew anything whatever of any conspiracy being made to murder and rob the sleeping man, and stuck to his tale that he thought the only object in going down into the woods was to have a game of cards as was their custom. He stated that he failed to tell of the murder prior to his arrest on account of fearing the other negroes implicated would either do him bodily harm or would implicate him so deeply he would be hung.

The jury in the case of the commonwealth vs. Bill Garrett, charged with being one of the murderers of the man killed near Pembroke last November, took the case this morning, but had not returned a verdict at the time the New Era's forms were locked for today's edition.

The case went to the jury last night, a special session of court being held after supper in order to hear the closing of the argument. Judge Charles H. Bush spoke for the prosecution before court adjourned in the afternoon and after supper Attorney Lander, for the defense and Commonwealth's Attorney Smith were heard.

Kentucky Solons Finish Labors.

(Special to New Era.)

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 16.—The Kentucky legislature last night adjourned sine die, the night session in both houses being devoted chiefly to the comparison of enrolled bills. The senate received several committee reports and adopted a resolution for the appointment of a tax commission to consider the system of revenue and taxation with a view to its improvement.

The house bribery investigating committee made its report to the house. It was similar to that of the senate committee. The main features were the scathing denunciation of the Louisville Republican paper that made the charges and failed to support them and a recommendation that the Franklin county grand jury take the matter in hand.

The three negroes, Charles Finch, Ed Holland and Ed Moseley, who claim to have witnessed the murder from the road but took no part in it were introduced yesterday afternoon by the defense. In all the testimony given heretofore all witnesses have agreed that the first move made by the murderers was the striking of the dead man by Frank Meriwether. On cross examination yesterday Ed Moseley was asked in regard to the burning of the dead man's valise and coat which the stranger had under his head. The question seemed to confuse the witness but he finally stated that the valise and coat were burned before the murder took place.

All these witnesses contradicted Garrett's statement that he was present at George Holland's house on that night, stating that they met him in the road. Moseley's testimony in regard to the valise and coat is considered important as all testimony heretofore has been that Meriwether's deadly blows were the first move made against the sleeping man. Moseley acknowledged that he saw the burning of these articles, but said it was done before the blows were struck. According to the story of these four who claimed to have been in the road, they all ran when they saw the murder committed and did not know of the mutilation or robbery.

The trial of Frank Sherman was begun this morning, the jury being impaneled as follows: B. F. Fuller, W. C. Word, J. T. East, L. W. Boyd, John Sollee, W. J. Pryor, J. W. Eall, A. J. Burchett, Jas. A. Underwood, J. D. Boyd, J. R. Kelly, J. W. Wilkins. The entire morning was consumed in selecting the jury and taking of evidence did not begin until this afternoon. The defense entered a plea of not guilty and filed a general and special demurrer to the indictment which was overruled.

According to the alleged confession made by George Holland, Sherman is the negro who mutilated the body of the unknown white man in a horrible manner.

GOOD SHOW.

The Columbus Stock company appeared last night at the opera house. The engagement continues the rest of the week, with a Saturday matinee. Prices, 10, 20 and 30 cents.

Miss Bessie Bridgewater, of Hopkinsville, is visiting relatives and friends at new Providence.—Clarksville Times-Journal.

Mrs. J. Nick Thomas has returned from a visit in Trigg county.

Three reports were filed in the senate by the members of the senate printing investigating committee. The majority report, signed by Senators Richardson, McNutt, Gillenwaters and Cantrill, was adopted by the senate, with only four dissenting votes. This report recommended that a committee of three senators be appointed to draft a law to be presented at the next general assembly correcting the defects of the present printing law. The minority report, signed by Senators Carroll and Lancaster, charged the printing commissioners with neglecting to investigate the overcharges and quality of material used by printers. Senator George filed a report in which he said the evidence should be submitted without any recommendation from the committee.

WRECK ON L. & N.

Engine and Three Cars Jumped the Track.

A wreck occurred in the local yards of the Louisville and Nashville railroad yesterday afternoon. A freight train was switching near the Ellis Ice factory when the engine and two cars jumped the track. One of the cars was loaded with wheat and another was one of the largest coal cars. The wheat car was pulled back on the track but was more or less damaged. The coal car was overturned and rolled off the track. The wrecking crew had to be summoned and they were at work until late last night before clearing the wreck away. The accident did not interfere with passage on the main track and no delays of importance resulted.

ABOUT THE TELEPHONE RATES.

(Lexington Democrat.)

The suggested increase of the monthly rates to be charged for the use of the local telephone system by one of the companies operating in Lexington, can only be provocative of a general resentment upon the part of the subscribers thereto. As it is under existing conditions, a business man in order to obtain the full benefits of a telephone at all, is compelled to subscribe for two telephones, or, not infrequently, he would be deprived of a portion of his business. Should the existing rates of the Fayette Home Company be increased, as is now proposed, the very grounds alleged at the time of its organization and which are supposed to have called it into existence would be defeated.

It will be recalled that when this company first started out upon its business career such promises as better service, cheaper service and a more efficient service would be the inevitable result. Following the law of supply and demand, and engendered by the necessity of competition, the rates were reduced. Now it is proposed to increase them and impose additional burdens upon the toll payers. If the company is unable to maintain and operate its system at the prevailing rates with its large list of subscribers, there is indeed no actual necessity, that is a public necessity, for its existence. If the rates are increased, then, instead of being a public blessing, it is transformed into a public disaster, and should not be tolerated. d&w

The following bill affecting Fairview, part of which lies in Todd county and part in Christian, has been passed by house and senate and will be a law when signed by the governor.

An Act To Amend the Charters of Towns of the Sixth Class.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

1. Whenever a town of the sixth class lies in two or more counties all the qualified voters, resident in said town, shall be entitled to vote at any election in said town for the election of police judge, trustees and marshal and any other election held by said town for municipal purposes.

2. Any town, situated as described in section 1, of this act, shall be considered to be in the county in which a greater portion of the inhab-

More Riots.
Disturbances of strikers are not nearly as grave as an individual disorder of the system. Overwork, loss of sleep, nervous tension will be followed by utter collapse, unless a reliable remedy is immediately employed. There's nothing so efficient to cure the disorders of the Liver or Kidneys as Electric Bitters. It's a wonderful tonic, and effective nerve-and the greatest of all around medicines for run down systems. It dispels Nervousness, Rheumatism and Neuralgia and expels Malaria germs. Only 50c, and satisfaction guaranteed by L. L. Elgin, Cook & Higgins Druggist.

The Top Notch.
The top of this year's tobacco market was reached this morning, says the Owensboro Messenger, when a load belonging to C. H. Clements, of near Powers, was sold for $6.80, $6 and 2. The Gallaher limited, purchased the load and it immediately followed another load belonging to Mr. Clements which sold at $5.80, $5 and $2. A local tobacco buyer compared this load with the Henderson market. He said: "The highest sale of the year at Henderson has been $3, $3 and 2. They have been selling several loads of this kind with the price for leaf reaching $5 or even $6, but the lugs always go for $3 or $2, $4, $4 and $2, the average of the Owensboro market, is two cents better on the hundred when averaged up. Now figure out which is the best market yourself."

Proper Treatment of Pneumonia.
Pneumonia is too dangerous a disease for anyone to attempt to doctor himself, although he may have the proper remedies at hand. A physician should always be called. It should be borne in mind, however, that pneumonia always results from a cold or from an attack of the grip, and that by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the threatened attack of pneumonia may be ward off.
This remedy is also used by physicians in the treatment of pneumonia with the best results. Dr. W. J.
Smith, of Sanders, Ala., who is also a druggist, says of it: "I have been selling Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for the past six years. I use it in cases of pneumonia and have always gotten the best results." Sold by L.
L. Elgin.

IS DECIDED.

The Plaintiff Had Sued the Institution For $25,000 Damages.

(From Saturday's Daily)

The jury in the case of P. M. Willingham, administrator of James Y.
Willingham, against the Western Kentucky Asylum for the Insane for $25,000 damages returned a verdict this morning for the defendant.

This was one of the most important suits for damages ever brought in this court. The plaintiff alleged that James Willingham who was a patient in the asylum from Webster county came to his death through the negligence of the asylum employees in allowing him to be fatally scalded while being given a bath.

The trial occupied about three days and a number of witnesses were introduced by each side. The attorneys for the plaintiff were Judge
James Breathitt and Downer &
Russell and for the defendant Hunter Wood & Son and Judge C. H.
Bush.

him and a terrible cough set in besides. Doctors treated him, but he grew worse every day. At length we tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and our darling was saved. He's now sound, and well." Everybody out to know, it's

Do You Want Strength?

If you want to increase your strength you must add to and take from the physical. In other words, the food that you eat must be digested, assimilated and appropriated by the nerves, blood and tissues before being expelled from the intestines.
Kodol Dyspepsia Cure adds to the physical. It gives strength to and builds up strength in the human system. It is pleasant to the taste and palatable, and the only combination of digestants that will digest the food and enable the system to ap-

TALMAGE SERMON

By Rev.
FRANK DE WITT TALMAGE, D.D.,
Pastor of Jefferson Park Presbyterian Church, Chicago

Los Angeles, Cal., March 13.—This sermon is a good natured rebuke to the prevalent lack of decorum among the worshippers in our American churches and a plea for the observance of a certain reasonable etiquette, equal at least to that which we observe in our worldly relations. The text is 1 Timothy III, 15, "That thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in the house of God."

Are you a parent? Have you ever dressed up your little children and sent them forth alone to visit when they were about ten or twelve years of age? Then you have known the anxieties of a mother or father as to their social behavior. Before they go you say: "Now, son, be careful about your manners. When you enter Mrs. So-and-so's home take off your hat and place it upon the hall rack. Be careful and don't handle the vases in the parlor, and don't squirm on your chair. When you are at dinner be sure and keep your hands off the table, and don't spill the food upon the tablecloth, and don't ask for a second helping of anything or talk with your mouth full. When Mrs. So-and-so passes you a plate say 'Thank you.' Remember, my boy, that your mother's home is to be judged by your table manners." When the child leaves the house your mind follows him and stays with him all day long. And, oh, the pride that sweeps into the parental heart when, next day, you meet your friend, at whose home your little child dined, and she congratulates you in these words: "We had such a lovely children's party yesterday. And Mrs. So-and-so, I want to tell you how well your children behaved. Your boy was a perfect little gentleman, and your daughter a little lady." Ah, such congratulation as that is as a sweet savor to the maternal heart.

Refinement in the Church.
If refined social manners are essential in the home, they are equally important in the house of God. So essential are they to a consecrated Christian life that Paul wrote a long epistle to his young lieutenant, Timothy, concerning them. In this letter, wherein are found the words of the text, the great apostle tells how bishops and their wives should act, and also how deacons and deacons' wives. But today, instead of my showing how our ministers and church officers should behave in the house of God, I would preach a sermon on church manners directly to the pew. I would try to inculcate the reverential spirit with which our congregations should assemble for worship. I would try to teach this reverence because there is a tendency to look upon church buildings as places fitted for secular enjoyments rather than as sanctuaries consecrated to the presence of Jesus Christ. "The Lord loveth the gates of Zion more than all the dwellings of Jacob." No man ought to place foot in God's sanctuary unless he can do it with the solemn feelings of Habakkuk, who declared, "The Lord is in his holy temple; let all the earth keep silence before him."

First the church building is the trying place where God promises to meet his children at certain times. That means it is a place of rendezvous, where you have an appointment to commune with Christ at least twice every Sunday and perhaps once or twice during the week. One inference from that fact is that when a congregation assembles on the Sabbath day the worshippers should always be on time and be ready to lift their voices in praise at the first word of the first line of the doxology, as well as with bending head to listen to the last word of the last line of the benediction.

We once read how a young artist lost an opportunity to win immortal fame by not being on time. He had an appointment with Queen Victoria at 10 a. m. to paint her picture, and he delayed his coming until ten minutes after 10. The result was the British queen was gone and, as far as his opportunity was concerned, gone forever. In a spiritual way many a church member has lost a great opportunity for spiritual blessing by not being on time at the beginning of a church service. God does not turn his back upon his repentant children as did the earthly queen upon the young artist, but we may be sure that he marks the implied lack of respect which is indicated by chronic tardiness and habitual unpunctuality and that many a blessing is lost thereby.

Tardiness Disrespectful.
There is not one tardy church member in a thousand who would show the implied disrespect in not keeping an appointment with an earthly ruler which they frequently show to their Heavenly King. Suppose we should take a trip east and stop in the capital at Washington. Suppose while en-journing there one of the California senators or congressmen be a member of the cabinet made an appointment for us with the president of the United States. Suppose that a polite note was sent to us by the president's private secretary informing us that we might be received tomorrow morning at the White House at 11 o'clock. What would we do? Would we sit up tonight until very late, as some of us are accustomed to do every Saturday night? Would we arise very late tomorrow morning, about half past 9, and have breakfast about 10 o'clock, as some of us are accustomed to do every Sunday morning? Then when the clock's minute hand is pointing to a quarter of 11 would we start to dress and at the last moment turn the house upside down and empty all the bureau drawers because we could not find our gloves or hankies or a clean handkerchief, as some of us are accustomed to do every Sunday morning? Then would we rush across Lafayette square over to the White House and get there twenty minutes late, as some of us regularly and systematically always come to the church service late, where we are to meet God?

Respect the Head of the Temple.
Oh, no! That is not the way we should act if we had an appointment with the president tomorrow morning.

We would positively see that our clothes were all right before we went to sleep tonight. Then we would go to bed early, so that our minds would be clear and alert and we could remember all that the president might say. We would not only be on time, but a little ahead of time. At ten minutes of 11, instead of ten minutes after 11 o'clock, we would be standing before the president's private secretary presenting our cards for an audience with the chief executive of the American people. In the same way if you wish to get your chief spiritual blessings from Christ you must keep your eyes fixed upon him. You must start your public worship on time. You must, in your church manners at least, show to your Heavenly King the same respect you would accord to an earthly potentate. A spiritually live church is one whose worshippers always assemble on time. One of the surest signs of a spiritually dead church is the tardiness of the church members, who always expect their seats to be saved until at least the second hymn has been sung, and often until the collection plate has been passed. The pews should be filled on time, just as the organist at the hour sharp should be in her place at the ivory keys and the minister in his place behind the sacred pulpit.

Behaving yourself aright in church implies a second act, which is just as important as promptness at church service. A church member should be in his place when the service starts as surely as he should be at his seat when the train starts. But he should do more than sit down when the minister takes his place. He should, first of all, kneel and render obeisance and homage to the Heavenly Father, whose trust he, the worshiper, has come to keep. The very first act of a guest in a home is to go and pay his respects to the host or hostess. The very first act a worshiper should perform when he enters the church is to pay his respects to Christ, who, in a spiritual sense, is the head of the temple in which the church member has come to worship.

Church No Place for Levity.
The Episcopalian rector begins his service in this wise: "Lord, I have loved the habitation of thy house and the place where thine honor dwelleth." When we enter the house of God, do we one and all feel that we are coming into the presence of the Lord? If we do, would we come laughing and talking and nodding to each other, like a lot of schoolgirls entering their class rooms? If we do, would there be so much whispering among the members, both in the pews and in the back of the church? If we do, would there be so much turning around to watch others who happen to come in late, and a disposition to laugh when anything goes wrong? People who have visited European courts write that there the king is first and last in the thoughts of all the waiting courtiers. As soon as the king enters the room, all the waiting nobles arise and bow. When the king speaks, the waiting nobles listen. When a messenger enters, he not only kneels, but when he leaves the throne room he never turns his back upon the seated king. When we enter the sanctuary of God, which is filled with the presence of God, do we bow as before a king? Do we try to keep our face always toward the divine face? Do we earnestly try to make the prayers of the psalmist our prayer? "Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be always acceptable in thy sight, O Lord, my strength and my Redeemer." The church of God ought to be something more sacred than a concert hall or a theater. It ought to be a place where a joke and a chit-chat should be just as much out of place as a minstrel show would be at a funeral, by the casket of the dead.

In the House of God.
O man and woman, ever keep the face of Jesus Christ before you when you are in the house of God! Every church building dedicated to the worship of God is in very truth his house, in which his presence is manifested as surely, though not so visibly, as in the Shekinah of the tabernacle. Always enter the house of God in the same spirit that the little child of Rev. Charles T. Brady, an American missionary, showed when he entered a great European cathedral. The father was compelled to return to his boarding place for something he had forgotten. He left his little boy in the nave of the church to await his return. When the father came back he found his child standing in the middle of the great church in awe, looking around as though he was expecting some one. The mellow sunlight streaming through the stained glass windows fell upon his curly head and made him look like a little angel. When the child heard his father's returning footsteps he turned his inquiring eyes upon his parent and said: "Papa, where is Jesus? Where is Jesus?" Childlike, he felt that the house of God implied the presence of Christ. So, with childlike faith, when we assemble to worship Christ, we must come with this holy question upon our lips: "Where is Jesus? Where is Jesus?" If we come in such a spirit a great deal of the irreverence exhibited by some of our modern congregations would forever cease.

Behaving oneself aright in church implies not only due respect to the four walls of the edifice or to the habitation of the divine presence, but also due respect to God's ministers who preach in the sacred pulpit and due respect to God's musicians who sing in the church choir. When the members of a church choir arise to sing the praises of God they become part of that mighty host who in every Christian land on earth and in the heavenly mansions are occupied with the same theme. When the minister rises to preach he comes as a messenger from God to utter the words that the Holy Spirit has commissioned him to speak. The truly consecrated Christian minister is a representative of the Most High and is entitled to the deference that was paid to the representatives of the European kings when they entered the United States senate and were given the foremost seats, as I saw them file in when Vice President Garret A. Hobart took the oath of office preceding the inauguration of President McKinley. They were not welcomed as men. They were honored in their official capacities as personal representatives of the British, the German, the Italian, the Russian and the Austrian thrones. Never forget when you criticize the preacher's message that you may be criticizing the very words that God has given him to deliver to you.

Avoid Flippant Criticism.
Honor God's representatives in the Christian pulpit and in the Christian choir loft if you would honor Christ in the church. Mr. Champlin, the botanist, tells us that in his explorations through Panama some of the most beautiful flowers growing there immediately die and become withered, shriveled, brownish weeds as soon as plucked by the human hand. The beautiful truths of the gospel as floral treasures will lose their power to help and serve us if with rude, irreverent hands they are torn from the pulpit and choir loft and submitted to harsh and flippant criticism. The ministering hands of the church service, scattering the good seed which may be sown in our sinful hearts, may not be perfect hands; but for the time being at least, such hands should be considered as representing the hand of God. John McNeill, the Scottish evangelist, in a late address illustrated the importance of the respect which should be shown in churches to God's ministers as his representatives. He said, "One of the greatest powers of spiritual strength which came to Scotland in the days that are gone was due entirely to the respect which the Scottish congregations gave to their Scottish pastors." When all Edinburgh went forth with tears and lamentations to bury Thomas Chalmers the people did not feel they were honoring Thomas Chalmers so much as the Christ of whom he was the earthly representative.

"Not criticize the church music or the minister's preaching! Why," some one says, "that is almost an impossibility. Some church choirs smash every law of musical harmony. Some ministers are absolutely stupid. They are impracticable men—men of no force, without any two logical, consecutive thoughts." That is true, my brother. Some choirs are noted more for their discords than their musical perfections. Some ministers' mental depth it does not take a very long line to fathom. But I can give you this as my own personal experience—I never entered any church with the spirit of God in my heart, to try to consider the leaders of that service, God's representatives, without receiving great spiritual good out of that service. In contrast to this statement I never entered a church building with the spirit of criticism in my heart but I found something to criticize about the minister and the service before I got through with it, and, furthermore, when I did enter a service in the spirit of criticism I always found that I received more harm from that service than good. If William E. Gladstone, with the greatest brain in all England, could sit Sunday after Sunday in the little church of Hawarden and get spiritual food from young, inexperienced rectors who came there to break for him the "bread of life," surely you can afford to honor the ministers of Jesus Christ as God's representatives.

Respect God's Presence.
But behaving yourself aright in church implies not only due respect to God's presence, in whose sanctuary you assemble, and to his representatives there, but also due respect to the strangers who come in to worship with you at your church altars. If not only means that we should bow before God's altars and in reverential tones say, "Our Father," but it also means that we should give a warm, loving, Christian welcome to God's children who would sit by our side. It means that no church is a consecrated Christian church unless all the men and women alike, whether clothed in silk or in homespun, whether rich or poor, whether master or servant, shall be cordially greeted with an open church door and an open church pew.

Christian etiquette should run exactly along parallel lines with social etiquette. Suppose I am invited to your home to visit for a week. Supposing at this country house party you should have ten or fifteen guests, including some of your own children. Supposing at this house party I should be rude to one of your guests or make fun of your old mother because she murmured the king's English or because she once did her own washing. What would you do? Would you consider me one of your friends? Would you say, "Well, if you don't like my mother or my children I will turn them out of doors in order that you may feel a little happier?" Oh, no; you would rather say: "What is good enough for my mother and my children is good enough for you when you are in my house. When you are rude to my kith and kin and loved ones, then you dishonor me." So the members of a congregation cannot honor God unless at the same time they are ready to welcome and honor all of God's children, no matter to what social caste they may belong.

Honor the Church.
But, though Christian etiquette in the house of God should mean much, how many churches are sinfully trying to become the churches of class instead of the churches of a great Christian democracy? Can we not, one and all, be large hearted enough to know that there is only one true gospel aristocracy, and that belongs to the noble serving class which Jesus described when he said, "Whoever will be chief among you, let him be your servant?" As you would never be rude to my child because you love me, so may we in our church etiquette never cast a slur upon God's children. May we never jostle or push any one away from us! We should all belong to the gospel clan. We should feel that we are all brothers and sisters in Christ and that, by the gospel firebrand there shall be plenty of room for all the members of the gospel family.

Lastly, refined and consecrated church behavior is demonstrated as much in the way a congregation disperses as in the way it assembles. If I make a social call upon you and you are polite and respect me, you do not try to show your impatience even though I do stay a little longer time than I ought. You do not gape and yawn and take out your watch again and again to look what time it may be. You do not get up and go out into the hall and put on your overcoat and then hold your hat in your hand as though you were ready to run away at the first opportunity. If you acted thus I would certainly take the hint and leave as soon as possible. Neither should you be rude in church etiquette.

During the last part of the sermon you should not be sighing and turning around to watch the clock. During the last hymn and the last prayer you should remember that you are there to sing the praises of God, to hear his message or to commune with him, and you should not meanly steal that time away from him to button up your coat and fix your wraps and put on your gloves. From the beginning of the service to the end you should honor the church, the church altar, the sermon and the music, because in so doing you are honoring Christ.

As we began with the words, "That thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in the house of God," let us close with the psalmist's words which he wrote for the temple when David sang, "I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the house of the Lord." He meant it. Let us prove by our actions and our observance of church etiquette that public worship is not a drudgery and a repulsive slavery, but a joy, a happiness and an opportunity for continuous gospel pleasure. Let us worship "the Lord in the beauty of holiness" with refined and consecrated church manners.

EASY WAY TO CURE CATARRH.

Breathe Hyomei and Kill All Catarrhal Germs.—"Money Back If It Fails," Says Mr. Elgin.

There is no dangerous stomach-dragging when using Hyomei. The healing and aromatic balsams which compose this wonderful treatment are breathed through a neat pocket inhaler that comes with every $1 out fit.

In this way the germ-killing and health giving Hyomei penetrates to the most remote cells of the lungs. It searches out and kills disease germs in the hair passages of the head, throat and nose, soothes and heals the irritated mucous membrane, and absolutely drives catarrh from the system.

Such remarkable results have followed the use of Hyomei by the best people in Hopkinsville, that Mr. Elgin has the greatest confidence in its power to cure catarrh. He believes in it so thoroughly, that he will give his personal guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure, the purchaser to be sole judge.

This is an unusual offer and the first time that any medicine or treatment for the cure of catarrh has been sold in this way. If it cures, the expense is trifling, while if it fails, the cost is absolutely nothing.

If you are fortunate enough not to be troubled with catarrh, tell your friends of Mr. Elgin's offer and get them to take advantage of it.

Death's Shadow Lingers Over Home.

Reaper Claims Two Members of Family and the Third Is Critically Ill.—Other Demises.

(From Monday's Daily)

Mr. Joseph Meacham died at the home of his son, Mr. Thomas Meacham, four miles east of town on the Butler road Sunday afternoon of catarrhal fever. He had been confined to his bed about three weeks.

He was eighty-nine years of age and was a highly respected citizen. Five children, all married, survive him. Interment took place at Ebenezer church this afternoon at 1 o'clock.

This is the second death in this home within the past few days, his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Gussie Meacham having died last Thursday. Mr. Thomas Meacham is also critically ill, his condition being such that two physicians are in attendance.

Mrs. Sallie Logan, daughter of Mrs. Chiles Barker, of this city, and a sister of Mrs. William Jessup, died Friday of a complication of diseases at her home in the Kennedy vicinity.

Funeral services, conducted by the Rev. Lord Cave, pastor of the Clarks-ville Christian church, were held Saturday.

After lingering in a semi-conscious state for several days, Mrs. Carrie Wood, who was a native of Christian county, died Saturday evening at her home in Paducah, as a result of a fall. She was seventy-six years of age, and was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Coon, pioneer citizens of Christian county. She was married Nov. 24, 1855 to Capt. William Wood, a noted steamboat man. She made her home with James Wood, chief of the Paducah fire department.

"Uncle" Billy Criseman, aged about 82 years, died at the home of Mr. Abe Cravens, near Otter Pond, says the Princeton Leader. He had been in the Confederate home up till last fall when he decided to come back to Caldwell county, where he had lived most all his life, especially since the war. He served through the entire war with the Second Kentucky cavalry. Uncle Billy was an honorable man, and belonged to the Blue Springs Baptist church. He was never married and had no relatives living in Caldwell county.

BAPTIST BANQUET PASSES INTO ANNALS AS A GREAT SUCCESS.

Large Number of Men Enjoy Substantial Collation Followed By a Veritable Feast of Reason and a Flow of Soul.

SOME EXCELLENT ADDRESSES WERE MADE.

(From Friday's Daily.)
The first annual banquet of the men of the Hopkinsville Baptist church took place last night in the Sunday school room and was an unqualified success. Over one hundred and fifty men enjoyed a fine menu and heard with thorough interest and appreciation a number of excellent addresses, while a spirit of utmost good fellowship prevailed.

From 7:30 to 8 o'clock the guests were received in the auditorium of the church, and were treated to a delightful organ recital by Miss Kilbourne. Then the rolling doors to the Sunday school room were elevated, and a perfectly appointed dining hall was discovered. Long tables were arranged in rows in the room with a special table at one end for the speakers of the auspicious occasion. The decorations were very attractive, a yellow, white and green color scheme being tastefully carried out. On the snowy linen of the table ferns trailed in graceful relief and stands of golden jonquils were used effectively. Lovely cut flowers and potted plants further enhanced the beauty of the adornments. And, as

REV. CHARLES HARRIS NASH, D.D.,
Pastor of the Baptist Church.

Senator Utley said in the course of his remarks, a finer looking body of men than those who sat around the tables could not have been found. The tempting collation consisted of salads, sandwiches, biscuits, celery, pickles, salted almonds, ices, cakes, and coffee, and was served by well drilled waiters under the skillful supervision of the ladies of the church who had so nicely prepared the viands and had assisted Chairman Mescham and the committee on arrangements in attending to many other important details of the banquet.

After the Rev. Edmund Harrison, president of Bethel Female college, had earnestly and impressively invoked divine blessing upon the assembly, the menu was thoroughly discussed, and then the program of addresses was given. Owing to pressing business engagements, Judge James Breathitt, who was to speak on benevolent orders, was unable to be present, and, as announced earlier in the week, Rev. J. N. Prestridge had to withdraw his name from the list of speakers on account of the death of his mother. The Rev. Dr. Charles Harris Nash, pastor of the church, presided, and spoke cordial words of welcome to the guests, and introduced the several speakers. Mr. Lucian H. Davis, clerk of the church, responded on behalf of the men of the congregation. He told of the growth of the church during the pastorate of Dr. Nash, and lauded him for his labors and the results he had achieved. Dr. Nash, in expressing his gratitude for the praise accorded him by Mr. Davis, said he desired to give honor to whom honor was due, and paid a glowing tribute to Mrs. Nash.

Rev. Dr. T. T. Eaton, of Louisville, the noted minister and editor of the Western Recorder, spoke on "The Girl and the School." His talk was terse, epigrammatic and full of good things. He declared that woman should not be man's slave, his plaything or rival, but his helpmeet. He showed that great care should be exercised in selecting proper schools for girls and gave it as his opinion that Bethel Female college of this city was one of the most worthy institutions of learning in the country.

Prof. William H. Harrison, president of Bethel Male college, at Russellville, told about "Boys and Birds." Prof. Harrison is a delightful speaker, and he handled his subject in a most happy manner, convincingly setting forth that nothing was of more importance than Christian education.

NONAGENARIAN PASSES AWAY.

Mr. August Dies at Residence of His Son-In-Law, Rev. Mr. Abbitt.—Other
Death Notices.

(From Friday's Daily.)

After a protracted illness, Mr. Nathaniel August, the venerable father of Mrs. George C. Abbitt, died last night of ill incident to extreme age. He passed away at the residence of Rev. Mr. Abbitt on Liberty street.

The deceased was born in Richmond, Va., October 3, 1813, and was a member of a prominent family of that state. Before the war he was president of the Planters Bank at Richmond and was cashier for many years of the First National Bank of that city.

Mr. August had made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Abbitt during the last four years, and came to Hopkinsville when Mr. Abbitt became rector of Grace church. Though incapacitated by the infirmities of age he retained to the end his unusually fine mental qualities. He was an accomplished conversationalist and his reminiscences were always delightful. When Mr. August was a boy, he was captain of a company of children who welcomed Gen. Lafayette on the occasion of the great Frenchman's visit to Richmond.

Mr. August was seriously injured in a wreck on the C. & G. railroad at Greenbrier, White Sulphur Springs, Va., about four years ago, his leg being broken, and blood poisoning developed.

Three children survive him. They are Col. James C. August, of Washington, D. C., Mrs. George C. Friend, of Danville, Va., and Mrs. George C. Abbitt.

Mrs. Abbitt and one of her children left this morning on the I. C. with the remains which will be interred in Richmond. Mr. Abbitt accompanied the body part of the way.

Mrs. Matilda J. Bartley, mother of Mr. T. E. Bartley, of this city, died yesterday at her home near Orange Va. Paralysis was the cause of death. She was seventy years old.

Mrs. Gussie Meacham died yesterday afternoon at her home on the Butler road about four miles east of town after a week's illness of pneumonia. Interment will take place tomorrow at 1 o'clock at Ebenezer church. Her husband and two children survive her.

Robert Garth, of Chicago, died of pneumonia at Trenton, where he was visiting relatives. He was fifty-two of age, and a native of Todd county, but had been in business in Chicago for thirty years.

Mrs. Lucinda Brown, aged eighty-three years, died Monday at her home in Fairview. She was the widow of Julian Brown.

Commercial Club.

An interesting meeting of the Commercial club was held in Levy's grocery Tuesday night. The matter of a farmers' institute was brought up and President Dudley was authorized to co-operate with the farmers club in arranging the details of the meeting and call upon the Commercial club for whatever expense may be incurred. The members of the club present at the meeting were heartily in favor of holding the institute, and the Farmers' club may count upon them for any aid that is needed or desired.—Pembroke Journal.

An order was entered in circuit court this morning on the state treasurer for $500 in favor of J. B. Harlan for the arrest and conviction of John Woodruff and Francis Drake for the murder of Officer Robert H. Coffey at Empire October 28, 1901. The governor at that time offered a reward of $250 each for the arrest and conviction of the parties implicated and as the sentence against Drake and Woodruff was recently affirmed by the court of appeals the money was due the officer making the arrest.

KENTUCKY WOMEN

ARE ASKED TO AID IN MOVEMENT.

Samples of Their Work Wanted For the State Building.

To the Women of Kentucky:—

The woman's department of the Kentucky exhibit at the St. Louis World's Fair is now ready to receive for display in the Kentucky building needle work and artistic manufactures made by the women of the state. To beautify the "New Kentucky Home" there is needed the finishing touches that can only be given by the hand of the wives and daughters of Kentucky. The pride and interest of every Kentucky woman should be stirred to enable us to make the building beautiful.

Antiques in needle work of every kind, modern needle work in all its branches, lace work, crochet, knitting, bead work, lace and many more varieties are requested. Samples of past years' home-made quilts, black-etc., etc., the products of the loom, and many other specimens are desired. Send the best work you have on hand, not to exceed five pieces.

Relics of past years owned by Kentuckians and souvenirs of interest of all varieties and from every source are wanted. All exhibits of delicate material and all small articles will be carefully preserved under glass in securely locked cases.

Mark your work with a card upon which your name and address are plainly written, and if for sale, the price. Remember your contribution is to remain in the Kentucky Home from April 30th to December 1st, and can not be returned to you nor delivered to your order until after the latter date. See that your work is carefully packed and shipped to "Woman's Department Kentucky World's Fair Commission, Halde-man Warehouse, Louisville."

We will pay the freight both ways. Mail us a bill of lading upon shipment. All shipments should reach Louisville not later than March 25. The superintendent will cheerfully answer any letters upon this subject and will be glad to give any information whenever called upon.

Now let the women of Kentucky come forward and show the sister states that we are as far ahead in this kind of work as any other state in the Union. Respectfully,

Mrs. William Burke Carothers, Superintendent.

P.S. We hope to display everything sent in, but if too much is received, that not used will be returned.

LAWS ARE STRICT

AGAINST THE KILLING OF BIRDS.

Warning the Pot Hunters.—Some Other Important Prohibitions.

The birds common in this climate in spring and summer are returning from the far South. Wrens, robins, blackbirds and jack snipe have already appeared, and within two or three weeks hundreds of other varieties will make the woods and thickets ring with song.

Inasmuch as this is the season of the year when pot hunters usually begin to kill robins, yellow hammers and meadow larks, it is well to remember that the laws of Kentucky on the subject of slaughtering birds are stricter than ever before.

It is now a violation of the statute also for any one to have in his possession eggs of any bird unless he hold a permit from the state to collect eggs in the interests of nature study.

The laws of Kentucky make it a criminal act, punishable by fine or imprisonment, for any person to cruelly beat, torture, use or otherwise mistreat any horse, beast or other animal, whether his own or that of another; to leave or cause to be left any wounded animal, diseased or worn out horse or mule, on any street, alley, lot or commons to die a lingering death; to catch, kill or pursue with intent, or have in possession after same has been caught or killed, any song or insectivorous bird, except where the same shall be done for the purpose of saving the same from destruction.

destructive to the grain or fruit crops. The fighting of dogs, chickens or any other animals is also prohibited by law, as well as the use of gum or leather slings for the purpose of throwing stones, shot or hurtful missiles.

Through Trains.

It is said the Illinois Central will soon publish a schedule for a daily and permanent service from St. Louis and Evansville via Hopkinsville to Nashville over the Tennessee Central. The trains from St. Louis will use the I. C.'s own tracks to Cairo and thence to Princeton and Hopkinsville, says the Evansville Courier.

The Evansville trains will go as usual by way of Princeton to Hopkinsville, and there take the Tennessee Central's line into Nashville.

The I. C. has long sought this arrangement. It will make Nashville a still greater competitive point.

Wants Colored Families.

Mr. Thomas L. Morrow has returned from Itta Bena, Miss., where he made arrangements to locate for the rest of the year. He will be time-keeper and paymaster for five cotton plantations. Mr. Morrow will leave Saturday for Itta Bena with the last party of negroes. Between eighty and one hundred have already gone, and already Mr. Morrow has arranged to move eight or ten more families, and will take a larger number if they wish to go.

Mrs. Leigh Takes Charge.

GOVERNMENT WINS

Against Combine in Big Merger Suit.

(Special to New Era) WASHINGTON, March 15.—The Northern Securities merger case was decided yesterday in an opinion handed down by Justice Harlan, of the United States supreme court in favor of the government. The opinion was concurred in by Justices Brewer, Brown, McKenna and Day. Chief Justice Fuller and Justices White, Peckham and Holmes dissented. Every claim made by the government was sustained in the opinion delivered by Justice Harlan. He held that the merger of the Northern Pacific and the Great Northern railroad companies was a plain violation of the Sherman anti-trust act. Justice Harlan said the two roads were consolidated, which he construed as a violation of the law in restraint of trade and commerce.

Mrs. Marietta Burnett Dies in Paducah.

The Paducah News-Democrat says: Within less than twenty-four hours' time, three of the oldest ladies in Paducah passed into eternity.

Mrs. Marietta Burnett, aged seventy-eight, was the third to go. She died at 6:30 o'clock Sunday morning at the home of her son, Magistrate John H. Burnett, 315 North Fifth St. after a long illness from paralysis and diseases incident to age.

Mrs. Burnett was born near Hopkinsville, May 24, 1825. She was married August 11, 1840, to Rufus K. Burnett, of Christian county, and the couple moved to Paducah forty-five years ago, where Mr. Burnett subsequently died.

TRAVELING MAN TELLS OF HIS EXPERIENCE WITH TWO 'PHONES.

Declares That Double System is Not Worth Trouble and Advises People to Stand By Cumberland.

Change of Sentiment in Favor of the Present System is Growing Daily—Business Men Add Testimony.

(Courier, Evansville.)
The Cumberland Telephone company is receiving new indorsements with the passing of each day. The change in sentiment in favor of the present local and long-distance service of Cumberland people is so rapid that it is actually hard for the casual observer to keep pace with it. The fact that two 'phones are not wanted has always been uppermost in the minds of the majority of the people of the city, and since the company which is now holding the field has reconstructed its plant and is offering the best service enjoyed by the inhabitants of any city in the state the people are satisfied and with one accord use the trite phrase in expressing their opinion, "let well enough alone."

William Evans, a traveling man from Youngstown, O., who makes Evansville once or twice each month, expressed his views on the double telephone service to a representative of the Courier Saturday afternoon at the St. George Hotel. There are two telephone companies holding franchises in the Ohio town and the people are sorely tried in being compelled to pay two prices for the service which might be easily given and with less trouble and worry by one company.

"Why, the double system is doing more toward running the religion of the inhabitants of Youngstown than anything I know of," said Mr. Evans. "They have the old company and the new company and after they made a cut on rates and got them down to just about as much as you have to pay for service in Evansville the warpped and both companies have been struggling along since."

"Now just take this for instance. A family is using the new 'phone, but the family physician uses the old system. Somebody gets sick in that family and they have to call the doctor. The people have discovered the neat trick of ringing up the police station or some morning newspaper and ask them to call Dr. Sawbones on their old 'phone and have him to go to such and such a number to see the sick person. Of course the police and the newspaper folk grant the request, but they make the air blue in the meantime, and never fail to pronounce a few curses on the double telephone system."

"Every big office and store is compelled to have two sets of 'phones. In my own house they have a boy whose sole business is to take care of those two 'phones and the little fellow is on the jump all the time trying to ascertain which bell is ringing. I have been in the police and fire headquarters when the telephone bell rang and have seen the men answer the wrong 'phone time after time. To the unacquainted this does not seem much of a bother, but imagine the time that is lost, the worry to the subscribers, to the girls at the central offices and all that and you will see just what the people who adopt two telephone systems are up against."

"There is not a business man in the city but who does not wish that either one of the two companies could be frozen out. The double system does not in any way increase the valueableness of the service, does not cheapen the rates or does not tend to make the people any more happy."

"The long-distance service out of Youngstown is something terrible. They had let the old company one, the service would have been good enough to answer all demands they have it all in the air now the business men worry over the of affairs, lose money and business."

"If the Evansville people are up against the same thing, let them stand by the Cumberland company."

two company proposition they will endorse the present company, which I find gives excellent service, and not spoil what seems to me a mighty good thing."

Because he has business interests with some of the people who are connected with the municipal company, one of the leading wholesale grocers asked that his name be withheld in giving his views. He was emphatic, however, in his indorsement of the Cumberland Company and declared himself as being entirely satisfied with the long distance as well as the local service afforded subscribers by that concern.

"We have agents in every small town tributary to Evansville and they often call us up for instructions. By the use of the 'phone they are enabled to increase their business, and, of course, the central house is benefited. We could hardly do without it."

"As for a double system we are opposed to it. One set of 'phones in our plant is enough to carry on the business and we would only have increased expense and trouble if we had two sets to answer. The new company has little call on Evansville just now and we say let the present company stay in the field so long as they give us as good service as they are now."

F. E. Francisco, local manager of the Prudential Insurance company, said: "We use the long-distance 'phone a great deal and have no complaint to make against the service. I frequently call up outside agents and tell them where they can secure business. The service is always good and a very valuable aid to our company."

"I do not believe in two 'phones. I cannot see where they would better the condition any. The present company gives good service in all departments and should be recognized."

DEATH CAME WHILE SLEEPING OFF A DRUNK

J. B. DRAUGHON DIED IN LOCK-UP.

HAD BEEN IN A STUPOR

He Resided at Springfield, Tenn., and Was a Standard Oil Co. Traveling Salesman.

RESULT OF THE INQUEST

(From Wednesday's Daily.)
J. B. Draughon, of Springfield, Tenn., died suddenly in the city lock up this morning.

About 8 o'clock this morning a message was received at police headquarters from Hotel Latham saying that a drunken man was lying in a hallway with whom nothing could be done. Chief Shanklin and Officer Lee Morris answered the call and found the man lying at the entrance seemingly in a drunken stupor from which all efforts failed to arouse him. His condition was such that a wagon had to be secured in which to carry him to the police office. The hotel employees had tried in vain to get him to his room. He was placed in a cell and left, the police thinking he was merely drunk and would sleep off the effects.

When Prison-Keeper Charles Hord carried his dinner to him, however, he found that the man was dead. It is not known what time he died as no one had been to the cell after he was locked up. Coroner Allensworth held an inquest and the jury returned a verdict stating that death was due to heart failure.

The dead man was about forty years of age and was a traveling salesman for the Standard Oil company. He came here last night and stopped at Hotel Latham and had been drinking this morning. It is said he had been taken from a saloon by some men and put inside one of the entrances at the hotel. He had relatives at Springfield and Cedar Hill, Tenn., who were notified of his death.

Ray & Fowler to Move.

The firm of Ray & Fowler will shortly remove their drug store from Hotel Latham block to the store room on Main and Ninth streets, formerly occupied by the First National bank. The stand is now being remodeled for them and will be modern and commodious.

The World's Greatest Fair.

Mr. J. M. Stadebaker, of South Bend, Ind., president of the Stadebaker Bros. Manufacturing Co., says in a letter addressed to Chief Willard A. Smith and Commander A. C. Baker of the department of transportation exhibits: "My son and I desire to convey to you our sincere thanks for the courtesy shown us during our recent brief visit to St. Louis. We are interested beyond all manner of expectation, St. Louis is plainly to have a World's Fair far surpassing anything the world has yet seen. Its present promise challenges the wildest flights of the imagination. No one can conceive of what has been accomplished without seeing it. The scope of the enterprise is gigantic, its detail is bewildering, and the beauty and artistic combination of buildings, grounds and water make of the place a region of enchantment. The visitor to the World's Fair at St. Louis will find himself in fairyland, in wonderland, and this without reference to what his experiences in sight-seeing have heretofore been. My fear is that this impressive fact is not going to be sufficiently well known either at home or abroad. The press should blaze with the subject from this time forward."

JAPAN'S FINANCES.

LONDON, March 15.—The correspondent of the Morning Post at Tokio throws a light upon Japan's financial intentions, and says it is estimated that Japan will be able to maintain a war for eighteen months without borrowing abroad. The policy is to retain the gold in Japan and it is believed that it will not be necessary to spend abroad more than one-eighth of the cost of the war, this expenditure being chiefly on coal, cordite and steel.

Lord Roseberry created a scene in the house of lords by bitterly re-proaching Premier Balfour for using the word "calumny" in a speech di-use the language employed by the Premier was unfit for the high posi-

WHY MOTHERS WORRY

Did you ever hear a mother worry over a plump child?
There is no better bank of health for a child to draw from than a good supply of healthy flesh.

Scott's Emulsion not only gives a child weight and plumpness, but it feeds the brain, bones and nerves with strength and active power.

Fewer mothers would worry if they knew more about Scott's Emulsion.

called "cutting down" the estimates.

Senator Teller estimates that twenty million of the government money will go to the lobbyists who put the deal, through. That's economical.
A similar deal cost the French peo-

Senator Hale of Maine exhibits tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough

WITH BIT OF GLASS

ASYLUM PATIENT CUTS HIS THROAT

Found Dead in Bed at The Institution by the Attendants.

(From Saturday's Daily)
Jack Rogers, an inmate of the Western Kentucky Asylum for the Insane, committed suicide last night by cutting his throat with a piece of glass.

He was found dead in bed by attendants this morning, the instrument of self-destruction still clutched in his hand. He had succeeded in severing the jugular vein. It is supposed that he picked up the glass, which was part of a broken bottle, while out walking yesterday with the other patients on the road in front of the asylum grounds.

Coroner Allensworth held an inquest at the institution this morning and a verdict in accordance with the foregoing facts was returned.

Rogers was thirty-eight years of age and was committed to the asylum from Carlisle county on October 4, 1903. His relatives have been notified of his death, but arrangements for the burial have not yet been made.

A SIMPLE QUESTION.

Hopkinsville People Are Requested to Honestly Answer This.

Is not the word of a representative citizen of Hopkinsville more convincing than the doubtful utterances of people living everywhere else in the union? Read this:

J. W. Tunks, of 812 West Seventh St., who is employed at M. C. Forbes planing mill, says: "The condition of my health was such as to cause me a great deal of worry about my future. I had an almost constant aching across the small of my back and the kidney secretions were highly colored, excessive and irregular.
In fact, the disorder was so pronounced that it had been said it bordered on diabetes. I also suffered at this time with indigestion which caused me a great deal of distress. At one time I was scarcely able to do any work at all for nearly a year. I doctored and tried various remedies, but nothing did me any permanent good until I used Doan's Kidney Pills which I procured at Thomas & Tra-hern's drug store. I had taken them only a few days when I noticed a change for the better and by the time I had finished the box I found that they had brought about so decided an improvement in my condition as to convince me of their real worth, and I am more than thankful for the relief that I have received."

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

Digests what you eat.

What WALTHER'S PEPTONIZED PORT is and does

It is simply a good, honest, commonsense food tonic—a combination of rich Port Wine and Pure Pepsin,— nothing else. It is not a cure-all, or a medicine for acute or chronic diseases.

It does not take the place of the doctor. It does strengthen weak digestive organs, tones and builds up the impaired, impoverished nerves, muscles and blood, and promotes a perfect condition of vigorous health. It is a valuable remedy for dyspepsia, indigestion, and stomach troubles generally—for weakened vitality and impaired strength. It is a preparation of great worth for nursing mothers, tired women, old folks, invalids and conva-lescents. It is highly recommended by physicians and prescribed by them —both its constituents being of long demonstrated worth.

MAKAROFF LEADS ATTACK ON JAPS

Torpedo Boats Clash Before Port Arthur With About Equal Losses.—Russian Admiral Driven Back.

MASKING A BIG GUN WITH PAINT.
The Russians at Port Arthur, taking a leaf from the Japs' book, have begun to have recourse to strategy. Their most recent attempt in this direction is the painting of the large guns mounted on the many fortifications about Port Arthur for the purpose of disguising their presence. The method is to cover these guns with alternate spots of light and dark gray paint. It would appear at first blush to be a rather elementary sort of device, but it is a fact that a gun treated in this manner is invisible at a comparatively short distance. The illustration shows a squad of men in the central fort on Golden Hill, Port Arthur, giving the biggest gun there, as well as its mount, a couple of coats of paint.

(Cablegram.)
ST. PETERSBURG, March 12.—A fierce encounter between torpedo boat flotillas has taken place off Port Arthur, in which the Russians and Japanese each lost a torpedo boat. Vice Admiral Makaroff transferred his flag to the Novik during the fight and made a bold attempt to save the Russian torpedo boat, but was driven back to port by the Japanese squadron. Subsequently the Japanese bombarded Port Arthur. Admiral Makaroff, in his official report, says three Russians were killed and a score or more wounded in the two engagements. The crew of the sunken Russian torpedo boat, he says, was captured or drowned.

Cured Consumption.
Mrs. B. W. Evans, Charwater, Kan., writes: "My husband lay sick for three months and the doctors said he had quick consumption. We procured a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup, and it cured him. That was six years ago and since then we have always kept a bottle in the house. We cannot do without it. For coughs and colds it has no equal." 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by Ray & Fowler.

Middle Aged But Romantic.
Mr. John A. Williams, of Boston, Tenn., and Mrs. Bettie A. Potts, of Whiteoak, Tenn., were married in this city late Friday afternoon. The couple were middle aged and said they came here for the novelty of the trip.

Favorite Remedy for Babies
Its pleasant taste and prompt cures have made Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a favorite with the mothers of small children. It quickly cures their coughs and colds and prevents any danger of pneumonia or other serious consequences. It not only cures croup, but when given as soon as the croupy cough appears will prevent the attack. For sale by L. L. Elgin.

Good Spirits.
Good spirits don't all come from Kentucky. Their main source is the liver—and all the fine spirits ever made in the Blue Grass state could not remedy a bad liver or the hundred-and-one ill effects it produces. You can't have good spirits and a bad liver at the same time. Your liver must be in fine condition if you would feel buoyant, happy and hopeful, bright of eye, light of step, vigorous and successful in your pursuits. You can put your liver in fine condition by using Green's August Flower—the greatest of all medicines for the liver and stomach and a certain cure for dyspepsia or indigestion. It has been a favorite household remedy for over thirty-five years. August Flower will make your liver healthy and active and thus insure you a liberal supply of "good spirits." Trial size, 25c; regular bottles, 75c. At all drug stores.

Will Give Dinner.
The ladies of Grace Episcopal church will give a dinner on Easter Monday, April 4th, for the benefit of the church. The place has not yet been definitely selected but it will be somewhere convenient to the business portion of the city.

If troubled with weak digestion belching or sour stomach, use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and you will get quick relief. For sale by L. L. Elgin.

Judge Kelly Out.
Judge J. E. Kelley, who was taken suddenly very ill about two weeks ago and for several days was thought to be in a very critical condition, was able to go to Wallonia Tuesday to spend a while with some of his children. His friends hope to see him fully restored to health in a short while.—Cadiz Record.

Invaluable for Rheumatism.
I have been suffering for the past few years with a severe attack of rheumatism and found that Ballard's Snow Liniment was the only thing that gave me satisfaction and tended to alleviate my pains. March 24, 1902, John C. Degnan, Kinsman, Ill. 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by Ray & Fowler.

Our Want Column.

Classified notices are much more valuable than those scattered about in a newspaper. Whoever uses the New Era's want column will get results.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know It.
How To Find Out.
Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidney, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.

A Chattanooga Druggist's Statement.
Robert J. Miller, proprietor of the Read House Drug Store, of Chattanooga, Tenn., writes: "There is more merit in FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR than in any other cough syrup. The calls for it multiply wonderfully and we sell more of it than all other cough syrups combined."

SOLD AND RECOMMENDED BY All Druggists of Hopkinsville

"Do It Today."
The time-worn injunction, "never put off till tomorrow what you can do today," is now generally presented in this form: "Do it today!" That is the terse advice we want to give you about that hacking cough or demoralizing cold with which you have been struggling for several days, perhaps weeks. Take some reliable remedy for it today—and let that remedy be Dr. Boecher's German Syrup, which has been in use for over thirty-five years. A few doses of it will undoubtedly relieve your cough or cold, and its continued use for a few days will cure you completely. No matter how deep-seated your cough, even if dread consumption has attacked your lungs, German Syrup will surely effect a cure—as it has done before in thousands of apparently hopeless cases of lung trouble. New trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists.

Have your cake, muffins, and tea biscuit home-made. They will be fresher, cleaner, more tasty and wholesome.

Royal Baking Powder helps the house wife to produce at home, quickly and economically, fine and tasty cake, the raised hot-biscuit, puddings, the frosted layer-cake, crisp cookies, crullers, crusts and muffins, with which the ready-made food found at the bake-shop or grocery does not compare.

Royal is the greatest of bake-day helps.

MAJ. HORNE COMING SCHOOL CENSUS.

The Hopkinsville company of the state guards will be inspected Saturday night by a government officer, and the inspection will determine whether or not the company shall share in the appropriation under the provisions of the Dick bill.

The census blanks for the enumeration of the children of school age in the various districts of the county have been received at my office and are now ready for distribution. The trustees will please call or send for the blanks as the list must be taken in April. Parents will confer a favor upon the trustees by having the list ready when they call for it. They will want the name and the date of birth of every child living in the district on the first day of April 1904, who will on the first day of 1904 be between the ages of six and twenty years; that is, include every child born on or before July 1, 1898, but exclude those born on or before July 1, 1884. It is necessary to be careful not to report a greater number of pupils than that to which each district is entitled; but it is equally necessary and important not to omit the names of any one who are entitled to be listed. A letter of instruction has been mailed to every board of trustees. Please follow it carefully.

Very truly,
Katie McDaniel, Co. Supt.
