HOPKINSVILLE, CHRISTIAN COUNTY KENTUCKY FRIDAY JULY 1 1904

VOLUME XXXIV, NO. 38

TETANUS CAUSES DEATH OF MR. R.D. FREEMAN WHO WAS DRAGGED BY COW.

Sustained Injuries That Resulted In Lockjaw.—Funeral At Universalist Church and Interment In Hopewell Cemetery.

Mr. R. D. Freeman died at his residence on First street yesterday afternoon of tetanus, caused by injuries sustained by his being dragged by a cow.

One day last week while leading a cow the animal became unmanageable and by running around got him entangled in the rope and dragged him for some distance. When picked up he was unconscious and had sustained severe injuries. Prompt medical attention was given him and everything done which offered any hope of benefiting him, but his condition steadily grew worse and the end came yesterday.

He was about fifty years of age and was a carpenter by trade and had been in the grocery business on First street. He was a good citizen and had many devoted friends. Funeral services took place at the Universalist church this afternoon at 8 o'clock, conducted by Rev. H. C. Beckett. Interment in Hopewell cemetery.

UNANIMOUS ELECTION OF MAJOR WATT, OF BOWLING GREEN, ASSURED.

He Becomes Lieutenant Colonel and E. B. Bassett Is Ranking Major.—Tandy Ellis Resigns, Leaving Two Vacancies To Be Filled.

Colonel Jonett Henry has received returns from six of the nine companies in the Third regiment, K. S. G., in the election for lieutenant colonel, and all the companies so far heard from are unanimously in favor of Maj. E. H. Watt, and his election is assured. The election was ordered to be held by the various companies on their regular drill nights and some of them do not drill until Friday night. This accounts for the failure of all companies to report. Maj. J. Tandy Ellis, Congressman's Stanley's private secretary, has also resigned his position, and this leaves two offices of major in the regiment vacant.

Major Watt was the senior major of the regiment and now that he will assume the office of lieutenant colonel the rank of senior major falls to Major E. B. Bassett, of this city.

MRS. STOWE IS DEAD

PASSED AWAY AFTER A LONG ILLNESS.

The Funeral Services On Friday and the Interment Near Julien.

(From Thursday's Daily.)

Mrs. Mary Manson Stowe, the beloved wife of Mr. G. Howard Stowe, died last night at her home in South Christian. She was the victim of consumption and had been an invalid for months, having spent much time in the West in quest of health. She returned home about two months ago after protracted stays in Denver, Col., and El Paso, Texas. Her condition had been critical several days and the end was expected.

Mrs. Stowe was a lady of fine intellectual attainments and noble traits of character and her death causes general sorrow. She was formerly a popular young lady of Clarksville, Tenn., and was married to Mr. Stowe about three years ago. She was a devout Christian and a member of the Methodist Church. The funeral services will be held tomorrow morning at 9:30 o'clock at the late residence and the remains will be interred in the family burying ground near Julien.

Landrum-Allison.

Col. John W. Landrum, a prominent Mayfield citizen, and Miss Besie Allison, formerly of this city, were married Monday night in Mayfield by the Rev. Rogers Clark.

Howell Notes.

Howell, Ky., June 29.—The Misses Allen, of Glenellen, Tenn., returned home this week after a pleasant visit to the family of Mr. W. W. Radford.

Miss Lillian Giles is expecting Miss Wicks of Paducah to make her a visit in the near future.

Mr. Will Moore, of Lafayette, made a pleasant visit in the suburbs of Howell, last Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Dixon visited her brother, J. Walter Knight, of your city, recently.

George Moore, a crazy negro, was carried from here recently and landed in the asylum. He gave much uneasiness to some of his neighbors by accusing them of stealing his turkeys, etc.

Miss Nettie Shanklin, of your city, recently made Miss Jessie Embry a visit at the home of Mr. T. F. Clardy.

Dr. C. H. Nash returned home today after spending a few days with the family of Mr. J. F. Dixon. He spent the early mornings and the afternoons hunting.

Miss Net Turnley, of Clarksville is visiting the family of C. N. Fox. Mr. E. C. Radford threshed several bushels of wheat yesterday.

Have you a skill skirt? If you have not, it should be your aim to possess at least one of these smart garments that are so deservedly popular this season. Their adaptability to almost all fabrics is one of their chief attractions and the long slender lines are another favorable item. A stylish example is shown on page 2 and also at the figure on same page of the Peerless Fashion Sheet for August. Combined with an up-to-date shirt waist a stylish suit for traveling or general use may be realized and since they need no decoration the cost is trifling. The old time surplus waist is again in favor, but, of course, all the latest features are embodied in it. Two new blouse skirts are also shown in this issue which is full of hints for Mid-Summer and the wise woman will get one of these sheets, which are to be given free at the Peerless Pattern Department of FRANKEL'S BUSY STORE before making up her gowns. wlt ddt

Worst of All Experiences.

Can anything be worse than to feel that every minute will be your last? Such was the experience of Mrs. S. H. Newson, Decatur, Ala., for three years' she writes, "I endured insufferable pain from indigestion, stomach and bowel trouble. Death seemed inevitable when doctors and all remedies failed. At length I was induced to try Electric Bitters and the result was miraculous. I improved at once and now I'm completely recovered." For Liver, Kidney, Stomach and Bowel troubles Electric Bitters is the only medicine. Only 50c. It's guaranteed by L. L. Elgin, Cook & Higgins Druggist.

Miss Celia Harrington, 508 Second avenue, Detroit, Mich., writes:
"Weakness has filled many months of my life with suffering. Through carelessness I caught a severe cold two years ago which settled in catarrh and seriously interfered with the regular functions of the body. I began taking Peru-na and found in it a faithful helper, as it enriched my blood and invigorated the whole system. I have no pains now and am always well."

Female weakness is generally dependent upon catarrh of the pelvic organs. Peru-na cures catarrh wherever located.

CABINET CHANGES.

MOODY IS MADE ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Morton and Metcalfe Secretaries of Navy and Commerce.

(Special to New Era)
WASHINGTON, June 25.—A sweeping change in the cabinet of President Roosevelt is announced officially at the White House. The announcement comes in the form of

WILLIAM H. MOODY.
A brief typewritten statement issued by Secretary Loeb as follows:

"The following cabinet appointments are announced:
"Wm. H. Moody, of Massachusetts, Attorney General.

GEORGE B. CORTELYOU.
"Paul Morton, of Illinois, secretary of the navy.

"Victor H. Metcalfe, of California, secretary of commerce and labor.

"The two resignations of Secretary Cortelyou and Attorney General Knox have been accepted, to take effect July 1."

VICTOR H. METCALFE.

It is expected that the further changes will take place in the cabinet next winter. Postmaster General Payne will probably retire from the cabinet after the campaign. He will be succeeded by National Chairman Cortelyou.

Mr McKenzie Passes Into The Beyond

Famous Kentucky Statesman and Orator Stricken By Apoplexy At His Home In South Christian.—Sketch of His Brilliant and Useful Career.

(From Saturday's Daily)
The Hon. James A. McKenzie, one of Kentucky's most distinguished citizens and a noble-hearted gentleman who was deeply loved and admired by all who enjoyed the privilege of an acquaintance with him, died this morning at 5:35 o'clock at his home near Oak Grove. Apoplexy was the cause of death.

Stricken Thursday.
Thursday he was feeling as well as usual and in the morning visited his wheat field and superintended work there while, and then walked to the village postoffice for his mail, remaining there about an hour conversing with friends. He ate heartily at dinner and in the afternoon, as was his custom, sat on his front porch talking with his grandchildren. Without warning the stroke of apoplexy came, and when assistance reached him he was unconscious. He was borne to his bed and Dr. S. J. Rollow was summoned. Prompt medical attention was rendered and he received the tenderest nursing, but he sank gradually to the end. He suffered little and passed away peacefully, surrounded by his family. He leaves a wife and three children, Mrs. Mamie Potter and James A. McKenzie, Jr., of Bowling Green, and Mrs. Lamar Monarch, of Oak Grove.

Shock to Friends.
The news of Mr. McKenzie's death came as a shock to his friends and will be received with genuine sorrow wherever he was known. He was brilliant, brainy and magnetic. In his public career he rendered invaluable service to his countrymen and he was a patriot of the purest type. He was an orator of wonderful eloquence, and diplomat of great ability. To those people who knew him with any degree of intimacy his death comes as a personal loss, for his heart was as big as his brain, and he loved his friends with a loyalty and devotion rarely encountered.

He was a charming conversationalist and his visits to Hopkinsville were always looked forward to with eager anticipation by his acquaintances.

Funeral Monday.
The remains of Mr. McKenzie will be interred in Bowling Green. The body will be taken Sunday afternoon over the Tennessee Central to Clarksville and from there by way of L. & N. to Bowling Green. The interment will take place Monday morning at 10 o'clock at "Fairview" cemetery. Rev. John C. Tate, of Clarksville, a life-long friend of the deceased, will conduct the services.

His Career.
James Andrew McKenzie was born on August 1, 1840, near Bennettsville, the son of William Washington McKenzie, of North Carolina, and Isabella C. Ewing McKenzie, an aunt of former Vice President Adlai E. Stevenson.

Mr. McKenzie attended the common schools of the county until he reached his eighteenth year when he entered Center college, at Danville, Ky., and studied at that institution until compelled by the narrowness of his means to give up the role of pupil and take up that of teacher, by which he earned a livelihood for a period.

In the early part of 1860 he went to Texas and read law in the office of his cousin, Andrew C. McCormick, now United States circuit judge of the district of which Texas forms a part.

When the Civil war broke out he enlisted in the Eighth Texas cavalry, under the command of Col. Benjamin F. Terry, and served in the ranks until his health gave way completely and he was honorably discharged from the service.

At the conclusion of his service as a soldier he returned to his native county and state and again engaged in teaching. He was married to Mrs. Amelia C. Blakey on August 16, 1864. Soon after the close of the Civil war he showed a great fondness for politics, and it was only a short time until he was a prominent factor in this region by reason of his splendid gifts as a public speaker.

Elected to Legislature.
In 1867, at the age of twenty-seven years, he was elected by the Democratic party to the legislature and served in that body until 1871.

In 1872 he was the Democratic elector from the state at large, and Horace Greely dying before the assembling of the electoral college, Mr. McKenzie cast his vote for Thomas J. Hendricks for president of the United States.

In 1876 he was elected to congress from the Second congressional district of Kentucky and was re-elected to the forty-sixth and forty-seventh congresses.

Like the majority of younger members, Mr. McKenzie at first took no conspicuous part in the debates of the house, but during his first term of the Forty-fifth congress he delivered a memorable speech in support of an amendment to an internal revenue measure relative to the tax on leaf tobacco.

On April 30, 1882, he made a speech on the Tariff Tax commission which was widely read and established his reputation, not only as a debater, but as a humorist of high order.

This speech was widely read and quoted and confirmed Mr. McKenzie's reputation as an orator and humorist, and was ranked with J. Proctor Knott's famous Duluth speech, which laughed land grants out of railroad charters, and as a result the clause was struck out of the bill by a vote of 108 to 57, and quinine remained on the free list. As a result of the defeat of the measure, the price has steadily declined from $4 an ounce until now it can be bought from any druggist for 50 cents an ounce, and during the twenty-four years it has been on the free list conservative estimates place the saving to the drug-stricken consumers at not less than $100,000,000.

His term in congress having expired, Mr. McKenzie returned to his home, and in the same year, 1883, was appointed secretary of state of the Commonwealth of Kentucky by the newly elected governor, J. Proctor Knott, and served in this capacity until 1887, performing his duties at all times with the same thoroughness and honesty of purpose which had heretofore characterized him.

He was three times chosen as delegate at large to the Democratic National conventions which assembled in Chicago in 1884, in St. Louis in 1888, and again in Chicago in 1892. At the convention held in Chicago in 1884 he nominated Hon. John G. Carlisle for president in a speech which attracted national attention, and in St. Louis in 1888 he was the first to second the nomination of Grover Cleveland for president, and it was upon his motion that the nomination of Grover Cleveland was made unanimous. His speech on this occasion was a model of eloquence and aroused the utmost enthusiasm.

Tribute to Mrs. Cleveland.

In his speech he referred to Mrs. Cleveland as "the uncrowned queen of American womanhood," a phrase which has often been quoted and at once became synonymous with Mrs. Cleveland's name.

In 1890 he was appointed commissioner from Kentucky of the World's Fair to be held at Chicago, and served as such until the exposition opened in 1893. While serving on this commission he received the honor of being elected vice chairman of the board of control, the next highest in authority to the president of the commission, who was also chairman of the board of control.

Another signal honor was bestowed upon him in 1890, though in this instance not coming as a result of his political services. In his year he was elected grand master of the grand lodge of Free Masons of the state of Kentucky.

Made Minister to Peru.

In 1893 President Cleveland appointed him United States Minister to Peru, and as soon thereafter as he could make his arrangements he sailed for his post of duty, where he served his country well and faithfully until 1897.

Besides his career in public office, he was a prominent speaker for his party in national and state elections, having spoken in more than half the states of the union in the interests of the nominees of his party from 1872 to 1892.

In 1897 Mr. McKenzie was forced by failing eyesight to retire permanently from public life, and took up his residence on his farm near Oak Grove.

His home is a plain one-story cottage, surrounded by several acres of magnificent oak trees, and his manner of living, like his political creed, was democratic to the core. His defective vision deprived him of the pleasure of reading from his fine library of over 8,000 volumes, but his wife, children and grandchildren cheered and entertained him by reading aloud from his favorite authors.

Unlike most men who were ever infatuated with the restless charm of politics, Mr. McKenzie was happy and content to pass the declining years of his life away from the fret and worry of public affairs, and in the seclusion of his own roof-tree, and surrounded by his loved ones awaiting with patience the going out of the tide—a most sublime ending of an active and useful life in the service of his countrymen.

TORTURING DISFIGURING

Skin, Scalp and Blood Humours

From Pimples to Scrofula, from Infancy to Age

Speedily Cured by Cuticura when All Else Fails.

The agonizing itching and burning of the skin, as in eczema; the frightful scaling, as in psoriasis; the loss of hair and crusting of the scalp, as in scalded head; the facial disfigurements, as in acne and ringworm; the awful suffering of infants and anxiety of worn-out parents, as in milk crust, dandruff and salt-rheum—all demand a remedy of almost superhuman virtues to successfully cope with them. That Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Resolvent are such stands proves beyond all doubt. No statement is made regarding them that is not justified by the strongest evidence. The purity and sweetness, the power to afford immediate relief, the certainty of speedy and permanent cure, the absolute safety and great economy, have made them the standard skin cures, blood purifiers and humor remedies of the civilized world.

Bathe the affected parts with hot water and Cuticura Soap, to cleanse the surface of crusts and scales and soften the thickened cuticle. Dry without hard rubbing, and apply Cuticura Ointment freely, to allay itching, irritation and inflammation, and soothe and heal, and, lastly, take Cuticura Resolvent, to cool and cleanse the blood. This complete local and constitutional treatment affords instant relief, permits rest and sleep in the severest forms of eczema and other itching, burning and scaly humours of the skin, scalp and blood, and points to a speedy, permanent and economical cure when all else fails.

Sold throughout the world. Cuticura Soap and Ointment made by J. C. Kennerly, New York, N. Y. Price, 10¢ per box. Cuticura Resolvent, 50¢ per bottle. Write for literature to W. G. Archer, Gen. Supt., for handouts. Illustrated book that tells you all about it. Absolutely free.

MAY HAVE A FAIR

JUDGE GIVENS VISITS THE CITY.

Would Hold One This Summer If Grounds Could Be Leased.

(From Friday's Daily.)

Judge C. O. Givens, of Madisonville was in the city yesterday in the interest of his circuit of county fairs. He has his eye on Hopkinsville as a promising place for an enterprise of this character.

"If there were enclosed grounds and grandstand here," he said to a New Era man, "I would lease them at once and arrange to include Hopkinsville in the fairs I shall conduct this summer. Just what action will be taken in the matter can not be decided until I have a conference with my associates."

Judge Givens partners are Messrs. James Rash, of Earlinton, and James Franceway, of Madisonville. The Givens, Rash & Franceway company are promoters and managers of county fairs, wild west shows and carnivals.

They will hold county fairs this year as follows:

Sedbes, Ky., June 30, July 1, 2, 4.

Madison, Ind., July 12, 13, 14, 15, 16.

Guthrie, Ky., July 19, 20, 21, 22, 23.

Madisonville, Ky., July 26, 27, 28, 29, 30.

Evansville, Ind., August 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6.

Hellville, Ill.

Paducah, Ky.

Judge Givens is owner of the Henderson Gleaner and the Madisonville Hustler. He is county judge of Hopkinsville, but has tendered his resignation to the governor as his newspapers and fairs take all his time.

Triumphs of Modern Surgery.

Wonderful things are done for the human body by surgery. Organs are taken out and replaced and polished and put back, or they may be removed entirely; bones are spliced; pipes take the place of diseased sections of veins; antiseptic dressings are applied to wounds, bruises, burns and like injuries before inflammation sets in, which causes them to heal without maturation and in one-third of the time required by the old treatment. Chamberlain's Pain Balm acts on this same principle. It is an antiseptic and when applied to such injuries, causes them to heal quickly. It also allays the pain and soreness. Keep a bottle of Pain Balm in your home and it will save you time and money, not to mention the inconvenience and suffering which such injuries entail. For sale by L. L. Elgin.

The Value of the Bob White

The ornithologists of the department of Agriculture have been making investigation of the economic value of the Bob White, as a result of which it is now announced that that bird is "probably the most useful abundant species on the farm." Field observations, experiments and examinations show that it consumes large quantities of weed seeds and destroys many of the worst insect pests with which farmers contend, and it does not injure grain, fruit or any other crop. The report urges measures to secure the preservation of the Bob White in this country.—Sportsmen's Review.

LIFE PLANT

FLASH THE NEWS

Across the world that it may be seen by suffering humanity everywhere.

Life Plant

The most marvelous medical discovery the world has ever known, will quickly and permanently cure

RHEUMATISM, CATARRH and all BLOOD DISEASES—It strikes at the very root of the disease—by driving the poison from the blood—and replacing it with pure rich blood—DISEASE can not EXIST when the BLOOD is PURE. LIFE PLANT makes it so, then nature does her part and disease is soon forgotten in the enjoyment of perfect health. Our guarantee is—NO CURE NO PAY.

Mrs. Chas. Speck, of Fifth St., New Philadelphia, O., says: "For three months I had rheumatism in a very severe form. I was so badly swollen that I could not get up. I was standing on my knees. I could walk only with great difficulty and severe pain. The pain was so severe as to give many sleepless hours at night. I was a great sufferer. Could find no relief until I took LIFE PLANT. Two bottles cured me. I cannot say too much for it."

PREPARED ONLY BY THE LIFE PLANT CO., CANTON, O.

HOLDING ON

Lucas Won't Give up Office To Campbell.

Deafness Can Not Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that can not be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Killed By Accident.

News was received in this city this morning that the ten-year-old son of Ham Skaggs, who lives about five miles north of Elkton, fell on a pocket knife and was instantly killed. He was climbing a fence with the knife in his hand and his foot slipped and he fell, striking the knife in his heart.

Sued by His Doctor.

"A doctor here has sued me for $12.50, which I claimed was excessive for a case of cholera morbus," says R. White, of Coachella, Cal. At the trial he praised his medical skill and medicine. I asked him if it was not Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy he used as I had good reason to believe it was, and he would not say under oath that it was not. No doctor could use any better remedy than this in a case of cholera morbus, it never fails. For sale by L. L. Elgin.

Cures Blood and Skin Diseases, Itching Humors, Eczema, Scrofula, Etc.

Send no money—simply write and try Botanic Blood Balm at our expense. A personal trial of Blood Balm is better than a thousand printed testimonials, so don't hesitate to write for a free sample.

If you suffer from ulcers, eczema, scrofula, blood poison, cancer, eating sores, itching skin, pimples, boils, bone pains, swellings, rheumatism, catarrh, or any blood or skin disease we advise you to take Botanic Blood Balm (B. ### For a Hundred Years.

For a hundred years or more Witch Hazel has been recognized as a superior remedy, but it remained for E. C. DeWitt & Co., of Chicago, to discover how to combine the virtues of Witch Hazel with other antiseptics in the form of a salve. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is the best salve in the world for sores, cuts, burns, bruises and piles. The high standing of this salve has given rise to counterfeits, and the public is advised to look for the name "DeWitt" on the package and accept no other. Sold by R. C. Hardwick.

Death of Child.

(From Saturday's Daily)
The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Boyd, living on West Seventh street died last night of inflammation of the bowels. Interment took place this afternoon at Sinking Fork.

That Tired Feeling.

If you are languid, depressed and incapable for work, it indicates that your liver is out of order. Herbine will assist nature to throw off headaches, rheumatism and ailments akin to nervousness and restore the energies and vitality of sound and perfect health. J. J. Hubbard, Temple, Tex., writes, March 22, 1902: "I have used Herbine for the past two years. It has done me more good than all the doctors. When I feel bad and have that tired feeling I take a dose of Herbine. It is the best medicine ever made for chills and fever." 50c a bottle. Sold by Ray & Fowler.

Bowen's Kidney Salve

It's the Best for Infants and Small Children.

LOOK STOP THINK

There are buggies sold in this town for $65.00 and the people who sell them call them A grade. Don't be fooled this way, for an A grade buggy cost wholesale more than this amount. Come to see us; we will deal with you fair and not try to put a cheap D grade off on you for an A grade. Some factories don't make but cheap C and D grades, although parties selling them may tell you they are A grades. Look, stop, think, and don't get caught in this "Flim-Flam trap."

HON. JOHN HOUSE

DIES SUDDENLY AT HIS CLARKSVILLE HOME.

Former Congressman John F. House, who also was a member of the Confederate congress, died at Clarksville Tuesday of heart failure. Although he had begun to show perceptibly the weight of his years, Mr. House, prior to last Friday, had appeared to be in his usual health. He was born in Williamson county, Tenn., Jan. 9, 1837, and, after a fine education located in Clarksville and soon won his way to the front ranks as a lawyer. He was married to Miss Julia Beech in 1861.

KENTUCKY HORSES

To Be Exported to the Philippines to Improve Breed.

John Gilmer Speed, representing the insular department of the United States government, has been in Central Kentucky for several weeks, purchasing horses which the government will export to the Philippines, with a view to improving the stock of those islands. Before coming to Lexington Mr. Speed bought a number of horses in the northern states. After purchasing about fifty mares and three stallions here in Fayette and adjoining counties, Mr. Speed left for Missouri, where he will make other purchases.—Kentucky Farm Breeder.

Clarksville Fair.

The stockholders of the Montgomery County Fair association decided to hold their second annual fair in August or September at Dunbar's Cove. A committee was appointed to confer with the Street Railway company in regard to securing the horse ball park at night for a horse show, and confer with the officers of the Russellville turnpike in regard to toll during the fair.

Can't Race.

The gas-bag of M. Santos Dumont's big airship at the World's Fair, was cut and slashed in twenty places by some unknown persons, rendering it useless for the ascension scheduled for July 4.

A Great Man.

Hon. J. A. McKensie died at his home in Christian county Saturday morning last of apoplexy. Among the great men of Kentucky, the name of McKensie ought easily to have ranked with the greatest. He was a student, scholar, statesman, orator and wit, and many of his public speeches will be remembered as long as the English language is spoken. His latter years were clouded by ill health, culminating finally in almost total blindness; but neither the brightness of his magnificent mind, nor the winning sweetness of his personality were ever dimmed by physical misfortunes.—Glasgow Times.

N. E. A.

The National Educational association is holding its forty-third annual convention of the World's Fair grounds.

At Summer School.

The third annual summer school for the south opened at Knoxville, Tenn., Monday morning and will continue through August 10. The aggregate attendance is expected to reach 1,500 or 2,000, representing teachers and those interested in education from all parts of the south. The school is an outcome of the work of the General Education Board of the South, headed by Robert C. Ogden and others, of New York City. Misses Kate Harrison and Alice Seaboy, of this city, are attending the school.

DeWitt's Kidney & Bladder Pills.

FINEST IN YEARS

IS WHEAT CROP NOW BEING HARVESTED.

Opening Price Is Ten Cents Better Than That of Last Year.

The finest wheat crop produced in Christian county in a number of years is being harvested now. Not only is the grain extra fine and in excellent condition, but the straw also shows up better. The grain matured nicely and under the best circumstances. There is very little fallen wheat in the county, all of it being standing nicely and easily handled by the binders. The yield promises to be most satisfactory and the grade of nearly all of it will be No. 2. The local mills offered 80 cents as the opening price. This is ten cents higher than last year.

There is one thing, however, which threatens to damage the wheat considerably and that is the continued rains which have been falling almost daily over the county for the last ten days or two weeks. These showers have not been heavy enough to beat down the wheat or cause it to shatter, but keep it damp and unless dry weather follows within a few days there is danger that the wheat will be damp, musty or will sprout, which will cause it to deteriorate considerably in value. However, it is hoped that the rains will let up and that threshing will be commenced in earnest next week and continued until the entire crop of the county is safely housed.

FIELD BOOM IS ON

(Special to New Era.)

LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 28.—The Washington correspondent of the Courier-Journal says:

So much attention is being devoted by Democrats to the head of the ticket that little is heard these days of the vice presidency. At the same time it is learned here that quite a campaign is being carried on for Marshall Field, of Illinois, and when the delegates arrive in St. Louis, and strike the hotel lobbies, they will hear something about the strong points of the great Chicago dry goods merchant.

It is also understood here that John R. McLean, of Ohio and Washington City, will make a strong bid for the nomination.

TRIAL IS PUT OFF

A message from Benton states that Special Judge Elk Browa continued the case of L. W. Holland, charged with murder, until the fourth Monday in September.

The prosecution argued against the motion for a continuance, trying to force the defendant into trial.

Hardy Keyes, who was one of the wealthiest and most influential men in Murray, and a brother of John and Ben Keyes, was shot by Holland in a quarrel growing, it is said, out of political difference, both being active Democratic workers. Holland claims self defense.

BEST OF SEASON

Were Prices in This City On Loose Tobacco.

The sales of loose tobacco last week and Tuesday were very satisfactory and the highest price of the season was obtained. R. M. Wooldridge & Co., who conduct these sales, report that at last Friday's sales a lot of extra fine leaf brought $9.60 per hundred. This is the highest mark reached this season. About 150,000 pounds were offered Tuesday. The range of prices for the week were: Leaf, $3.50 to $9.80; lugs, $2.50 to $3.25; trash, $2.00 to $2.50.

NATIONAL PROHIBITION CONVENTION IS IN SESSION AT INDIANAPOLIS.

Organized With Homer L. Castle as Temporary Chairman
—Treasurer's Report.—Gen. Miles Says He Does Not Want Nomination.

(Special to New Era.)

INDIANAPOLIS, June 28.—The National Prohibition convention was organized today with Homer L. Castle, of Pittsburg, as temporary chairman, and W. W. Coldwood, of Minneapolis, temporary secretary. An address of welcome was delivered by Wilson Doan of this city.

After the temporary organization and the roll call of states for committees adjournment was taken until this afternoon when the committee will report. The resolutions committee will report at the evening session. The nominations will be made Thursday.

The treasurer's report shows that $175,000 has been received and expended by the national committee during the past four years, leaving $11,000 in the treasury.

In a letter to John G. Woolley, of Chicago, which was made public following the arrival of New York delegates in Indianapolis, Gen. Nelson A. Miles states that, while the Prohibition nomination for the presidency would be an honor, in his judgment, it would not carry with it the opportunity for beneficial results which would be his only reason for returning to official life.

COMPOSER OF DIXIE DIES OF OLD AGE AT HIS OHIO HOME.

Dan Emmett, Famous Old Time Minstrel, Passes Away At Mount Vernon in His 86th Year.

(Special to New Era.)

COLUMBUS, O., June 28.—A telephone message received from Mt. Vernon, Ohio, announces the sudden death in that city of Dan Emmett, the old-time minstrel, and famous as the composer of "Dixie." Emmett was met with the music of eighty-six years of age. His last public appearance was made about four years ago, when he toured the states with a minstrel company. The circumstances which led to his writing "Dixie" are related by a resident of Mount Vernon. Emmett was playing in New York with the celebrated Bryant Minstrels. Mr. Southern sentiment.

PREACHER AND CHIEF OF POLICE MIX UP IN EXCITING ENCOUNTER.

Officer, Charged With Drunkenness, Tries to Get Even By Using a Cowhide on Minister Well Known in Hopkinsville.

(Special to New Era)
ALBANY, Ga., June 28.—The Rev. Len G. Broughton, of Atlanta, Ga., one of the best known Baptist ministers in the South, and Chief of Police E. W. Westbrook were the central figures in a sensational fight, which occurred yesterday afternoon in a barber shop on Broad street. The result was the outcome of charges preferred against Chief Westbrook in a sermon by Dr. Broughton Sunday in the Chautauque auditorium.

Dr. Broughton charged that Mr. Westbrook was a drunkard, and that he could be found at all hours in the lowest dives in the city. He claimed to have affidavits in his possession to prove his charges, and said he was ready for an investigation if one was desired by Mr. Westbrook.

The quarrel between Dr. Broughton and Mr. Westbrook has been the sole talk of the people on the streets of Albany yesterday morning, and a fight was freely predicted should the two men meet.

When the chief entered the barber shop yesterday afternoon the preacher was in a chair being shaved. As soon as Mr. Westbrook saw him he went for him with a cowhide. Dr. Broughton was struck several times, when friends of the minister interfered and hauled the chief off.

Four or five hundred people collected quickly in front of the shop and for a while a general mix-up was imminent. More trouble is feared over Dr. Broughton's charges.

KNOWN WISH OF MR. M'KENZIE

THAT HIS BODY BE INTERRED HERE.

Willing to Live Only in Native County and Second District.

As stated in a despatch from James A. McKenzie, Jr., to the Kentucky New Era, the remains of the late Hon. James A. McKenzie will be finally interred in Hopewell cemetery.

Owing to the suddenness of Mr. McKenzie's death, little time was had to make the funeral arrangements. For this reason the body was taken to Bowling Green and placed in the Potter mausoleum, but at the proper time it will be disinterred and removed to this city and buried.

It was Mr. McKenzie's wish, often expressed, that when the end of his life should come that his remains should be laid to rest in his native county. He loved with all the ardor of his great heart Christian county and the Second congressional district, which had delighted to honor him, and repeatedly he had refused offers of a most advantageous character to move elsewhere.

Mr. McKenzie's remains arrived in Bowling Green Sunday night at 10:15 and were conveyed at once to the residence of his daughter, Mrs. H. P. Potter, on Upper State street. Monday morning at 10 o'clock, at Fairview cemetery, the remains were placed in the Potter vault. A large crowd of sorrowing friends attended the service, which was conducted by Bowling Green lodge of Masons. The Masonic order attended the funeral in a body, representing the grand lodge of the state of Kentucky, of which Mr. McKenzie was past grand master. The services were conducted by Past Grand Master F. C. Gerard, of Bowling Green, who received from the present Grand Master, O. D. Thomas, of Lebanon, his appointment as proxy. The services were in accordance with the usual Masonic ritual, being brief and appropriate.

A feeling prayer was offered by the Rev. John C. Tate, of Clarksville, Tenn. Many beautiful floral designs were offered.

Those who officiated as pall bearers were: W. J. Potter, W. L. Dunaway, J. E. Potter, R. W. Covington, C. U. McElroy, John L. Stout, S. W. Coombs and Geo. Willis.

Among the out of town persons who attended the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Lamar Monarch; Mrs. F. M. Girard, of Pewee Valley; Mr. Bell McKenzie, Hopkinsville; Rev. John C. Tate, of Clarksville; Misses Catherine and Hubert Potter; and H. M. Hines, of Montgomery, Ala. Mrs. McKenzie, the wife of the deceased, is quite ill and was unable to attend the funeral and Mrs. Potter remained with her.

Mrs. James Bowling will leave tomorrow to visit relatives at Hopkinsville. Abe Singer, of Hopkinsville, Ky., was in the city yesterday. Misses Violet and Carrie Wettstein spent Sunday in Hopkinsville. Clarksville Lead Chronicle.

FINAL INTERMENT IN HOPKINSVILLE.

Remains of Mr. McKenzie Temporarily Deposited in Vault at Bowling Green.

(From Monday's Daily.)
A despatch to the New Era from James A. McKenzie, Jr., states that the remains of the late Hon. James A. McKenzie were today temporarily placed in a vault in Fairview cemtery at Bowling Green. The final interment will take place in Hopkinsville.

The Courier-Journal says:
"James A. McKenzie was true in his manhood, attractive in his personality, sterling in his Democracy.
A brilliant orator, he was much more than that, for his oratory was the expression of a mind sound in its convictions, molded by wide information and supported by a fruitful practical experience. He was a Democrat—a stalwart Democrat of the old days when there was neither doubt nor quibble as to what Democracy meant —and when such a man dies his party and his people are irreparably poorer."

The Henderson Gleaner says:
"Mr. McKenzie was in many respects an extraordinary man. He was a good man. He was a noble man. In all his positions he discharged his duties with marked ability. He was always dignified and courteous, and was easy to approach by the humblest citizen. He was a man of extensive reading, and had the happy faculty of remembering what he read. He was one of the most captivating speakers the state ever produced. In debate on the hustings, he was eloquent, witty and persuasive to a degree that put his opponent to great disadvantage, yet he was fair and generous in debate."

The Clarksville Leaf-Chronicle
says:
"The passing of 'Quinine Jim' will be nationally deplored. He was a personality which drew to him the hearts of all men. He won a place of national renown."

The Nashville Banner says:
"He was one of the most captivating stump speakers Kentucky, famed for her orators, ever produced, full of the milk of human kindness and good-fellowship. He had few equals as a conversationalist, and his company was always eagerly sought by those who knew him. When he went to Louisville he literally had to "hide out" to escape the throng that wanted to see him and hear him talk.
"He was a typical Kentuckian—no man was too poor, no boy too young, to receive his attention, and the man in rags or the beardless youth were treated with the same courtesy as the statesman or millionaire. He was the hero of a thousand anecdotes related by his friends, but one will serve to show his alertness of mind and personal magnetism. At the Chicago National Democratic Convention in 1892 the crowd had been surfeited with long speeches; it was raining in torrents, and the roof of the big improvised convention building was letting a good share of the rain in upon the heads of the "unterrified Democracy." The delegates were anxious to get through and adjourn, when the gaunt figure of the giant Kentuckian appeared upon the platform. He was not recognized at first and was hooted and hissed, as the assembled multitude roared like an angry animal. After a short pause McKenzie called out in a stentorian voice that permeated every nook and cranny, "Just one moment; if I speak over a minute you may hang me to the highest rafter of this leaky tabernacle." The crowd was silent in an instant and McKenzie proceeded with a speech full of wit and humor and flights of oratory, and concluded amid cries of "go on," "go on" from all parts of the immense building.
Indeed, his wit was spontaneous, and it seemed an effort to suppress it.
When it could be held no longer he appeared just to open his mouth and relieve the pressure by letting it escape in a sparkling, electrical cata-

CHILD TAKES LEADING PART IN LYNCHING OF HER ASSAILANT

Placed Noose About His Neck and Then Led Horse From Under Negro Brute Who Dropped to His Death.

(Special to New Era).
EUPORA, Miss., June 27.—Starling Dunham, a negro, wanted on the charge of criminally assaulting the fourteen-year-old daughter of John Wilson, a white man, near Belfontaine two weeks ago, and attempting to criminally assault three young ladies named Dunn near this city, all during the course of the same day, was hanged in the public square here yesterday by a mob.
The noose was placed about the negro's neck by the little Wilson girl, who positively identified him as her assailant. The negro was then placed upon the back of a large black horse and at a signal from the leader of the mob Miss Wilson led the horse from under him.
Over 3,000 persons, white and black, witnessed the hanging. The lynching was as orderly as a legal execution. After being assured the negro was dead, the mob cut down the body and turned it over to relatives for burial.
Dunham was captured Friday near Vienna, Ala., after a running chase, during which he was wounded twice.

With him disappears another, and one of the few remaining, of that brilliant coterie which made Kentucky famous in congress during the twenty years succeeding the civil war, comprising such names as John Young Brown, J. Proctor Knott, Jas.
B. Beck, John G. Carlisle, Oscar
Turner, Frank Wolford, Henry Watterson and Thomas McCreary.

Found a Tarantula.
Mr. T. J. Vowell, the West Seventh street grocer, found a tarantula in a shipment of bananas he opened this morning. It is one of the largest tarantulas ever seen here.

FLOODGATES OPEN

North Christian Visited Sunday by Waterspout.

(From Monday's Daily)
The section of North Christian between Sinking Fork and Crofton was visited by a regular waterspout yesterday afternoon. Hopkinsville citizens noticed the cloud as it went around in that direction. All streams in that section were greatly swollen and fences were washed away in numbers of places. The soil was heavily damaged by washing and the growing crops also suffered considerably.

IT COSTS YOU NOTHING

L. L. Elgin Will Return Your Money
if Mi-o-na Does Not Cure You.

There are hundreds of people in Hopkinsville who were not the least bit surprised when they read in the "New Era" that L. L. Elgin was selling Mi-o-na on a guarantee to refund the money in case it did not cure. This marvelous dyspepsia remedy will cure the worst case of indigestion, headache, dizziness or the general played out condition that afflicts everyone suffering with stomach trouble.

Mi-o-na does not simply relieve; it cures. L. L. Elgin can tell you of many well known people in this city who this remedy has restored to health, often after they have tried many other methods of treatment with little or no benefit.
The best kind of advertising is the praise of a pleased customer. And there are hundreds in Hopkinsville today praising Mi-o-na because it cured them. A few months ago they could eat nothing without wondering what the result would be. Since using Mi-o-na they eat what they want and when they want with no fear of suffering.

This medicine is in the form of a small tablet, very pleasant to take and costs only 50c a box. It is a pure medicine that speedsily and permanently cures all forms of stomach trouble, and is the only one that can be sold under a positive guarantee without any restriction, to refund the money if it does not cure.

PARKER NOMINATED

Precinct conventions were held Saturday in the North Pembroke,
Edwards Mill and Perry School House precincts to nominate a Democratic candidate for magistrate in the Third district, and W. L.
Parker was nominated, defeating J. J. Harned by 94 votes.

W. H. Wright was nominated without opposition for constable.

SKIN DISEASES

The Outcropping of Bad Blood.

While not always painful these are aggravating beyond expression. With few exceptions they are worse in spring and summer, when the system begins to thaw out and the poisons that have accumulated during the winter months.
Then boils and pimples, rashes and eruptions of every conceivable kind make their appearance, and Eczema and Tetter—the twin terrors of skin diseases—Nettle Rash, Poison Oak and Ivy, and such other skin troubles as usually remain quiet during the cold weather, break out afresh to torment and distract by their fearful burning, itching and stinging.
A course of S. S. S. now will purify and enrich the blood, reinforce and tone up the carry off the bodily impurities through the proper channels. The skin, with good blood to nourish it, remains smooth and free of all disfiguring eruptions.
Send for our book on diseases of the skin, and write us if you desire medical advice or any special information. This will cost you nothing.

Gaston, Ohio, August 6, 1900.
S. S. S. is a good medicine. I keep it in the house all the while. It is an excellent tonic to give strength to the system and tone to all the organs. It gives appetite and energy and makes one feel better in every way. I have found it also an excellent blood purifier. For months I was troubled with an itching skin eruption on the face, and tried specialists and many remedies to get a cure, but S. S. S. is the only medicine that seemed to relieve. I am now comparatively free of this eruption. I think a great deal of your medicine, believing it to be the best blood purifier and tonic known to the world to-day.

SuccessClothing

is but another name for Wall's Clothing!

THAT'S the kind we handle. It is the "kind that helps you on in the world" and is ever "considerate of your pocketbook."

"Clothes don't make the man but good clothes have secured many a good position," said a railroad president recently. "If you have $25 and want a job, it is better to spend $20 for clothes, $4 for shoe and the rest for a shave and a hair cut and a clean collar and walk to the place than to go with the money in the pocket of a dingy suit."

The above argument
is all right but you need not pay $20 for clothes that will give you a prosperous, well-kept appearance, when you can come here and walk off with a snappy suit like those shown in the picture

At so little a $10

TO THE IGORROTES

HOPKINSVILLE DOGS MAY BE SENT.

Slaughter of Canines Will Begin After Notice of Ten Days.

The police have received the new dog tags and all persons who do not wish their pets to be killed had better purchase one immediately. After giving ten days notice the police have orders to kill all dogs that are not supplied with tags showing the tax has been paid.

The policemen have already gone to work cleaning up double-barrel shot guns and laying in a supply of ammunition in anticipation of the slaughter which takes place every year.

The headhunting Igorrotes at the World's Fair, who wear only a bland smile and a pair of four-in-hand pants, are offering a dollar apiece for dogs, the flesh of which they regard as a great delicacy, and the animals killed here may be shipped to St. Louis.

Unlucky Thirteen.

Thirteen miles from Hopkinsville Sunday evening, the locomotive drawing the Tennessee Central passenger train due here at 8 o'clock broke down. There were thirteen passengers. The train reached here at three o'clock this morning.

COMFORTING WORDS

Many a Hopkinsville Household Will Find Them So.

To have the pains and aches of a bad back removed; to be entirely free from annoying dangerous urinary disorders is enough to make any kidney sufferer grateful. To tell how this great change can be brought about will prove comforting words to hundreds of Hopkinsville readers.

Mrs. J. T. Johnson, wife of J. T. Johnson superintendent of streets living at 616 N. Main street says: "During the latter part of last summer I noticed growing upon me a small swelling across the small of my back which kept getting worse until finally the pain became so severe that I was hardly able to walk around, and many times could not attend to my household duties. The trouble I believe came from the kidneys for I suffered from other distressing symptoms of this complaint. I was subject to the most severe headaches and frequent attacks of dizziness. I learned about Doan's Kidney Pills and my husband got a box for me at Thomas & Trahern's drug store. They did me a wonderful amount of good. I felt much better and stronger in every way than I had for some years. I do not know what I should have done if it had not been for Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McIlburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

BLOODHOUNDS COULD NOT FIND GRIFFIN'S HIDING PLACE IN HILLS.

Chase Has Not Been Abandoned.—Warner's Condition More Favorable and There is a Chance For His Recovery.

FORTY SHOTS PICKED FROM HIS WOUNDS.

(From Friday's Daily.) The officers who went out to arrest Crit Griffin, who shot and wounded Henry Warner at Fruit Hill, have returned without having found the fugitive. Bloodhounds were put on the trail, but not until in the afternoon, and the trail was so cold they could not follow it to Griffin's hiding place. It is thought that he is in hiding in the rugged country around Fruit Hill and that he will be captured within a few days.

Warner's condition is now regarded as more favorable, and as he is a strong, healthy man his physician thinks he now stands a chance for recovery.

About forty shot were picked from the wounds and these were reported to be about No. 2, although there seems to be some uncertainty as to the exact size of the shot.

was it is for most of us to go through in the battle of life when the command is given clearly and distinctly: "Charge! Let the whole army follow!" Easy it is for many of us to stand when the command is given clearly and distinctly: "Fall back! Let the whole army fall back!" But it is no matter for us to stand still. It is no matter for us to patiently wait. The waiting is a very great element in temporal success, as it is in temporal defeat. How much a factor is "the waiting crisis" in the successes of life can be well learned in the words which Dr. Cuyler taught a few years ago, when he said, "I have been conversant many times with thousands of failures and successes, both in New York and England, and I can bear testimony that sixty-nine hundredths of all our failures were, without doubt, the lack of patience, both in a spiritual sense as well as in a temporal." It is to teach the important lessons of patient waiting, as I am preaching these sermons.

The waiting crisis comes to thousands of men thousands of faithful men in the struggle for a financial success. It comes not to the man who neither knows his the deadbeats, who, as derelicts on the great highway seas of life are a menace to all with whom they come in touch. But it comes to the young man who gets up promptly at 6 o'clock and goes to the store punctually on time. It comes to the conscientious lawyer and doctor and mechanic who are striving with all their power to do right. It comes to men and women who in every sense are noble, who always seem to be on the verge of making a great success and yet never seem to be quite able to reach the goal.

Many a True, but Unfortunate. These men are true and good men, but unfortunate men. They are what worldly people call "unlucky." We know there is no such thing as luck. Men are not lucky or unlucky, but there are some who seem to have more misfortunes than others; who, through no fault of their own, miss the good things of life. The strong man triumphs over them, but as the world witnesses his struggles and his successes, he may be called a fortunate man. The weak man, "unlucky," when old Mayer Anselm Rothschild, the founder of the famous banking house of Frankfurt-on-the-Rhine, was dying, he called his children about him and gave to them this parting advice: "First, my sons, never plan any great movement without first consulting your mother; second, never have anything to do with an unlucky man." Mark this! Anselm Mayer Rothschild did not say, "Do not have any business dealings with a dishonest man." He took that for granted. He said, "Do not have anything to do with an unlucky man. You know who an unlucky man is. He is yourself. You are unlucky in the fact that just after you were about to go to college your father died and you were taken out of school and had to go to work. You are unlucky in the fact that just after you had saved up a little money and put it in the bank the cashier became a defaulter and you lost all. You are unlucky in the fact that just after you had learned to be a good draftsman and had a fine position about to be offered you fell and broke your arm or had your finger cut off by your sawing machine. The logs of a factory wheel and you had to start all over again. You are unlucky because just as you were about to be appointed to a certain position an enemy lied about your character as an enemy lied about a young friend of mine who was about to become pastor of a prominent church in the east. Though your character in one sense was vindicated, yet the damage was done. Another stepped in and got the place, even as the poor invalid at the pool of Bethesda was pushed aside by others again and again when a certain person went out and troubled the waters." After hav-

be born repeatedly struck down by misfortune after misfortune you are today on the verge of complete despair. You are saying to yourself: "Oh, I am always unlucky! What is the use of my trying any longer?"

Be Patient, Not Discouraged.

Discouraged, are you? "Yes," you mutter, "fearfully discouraged!" You have conscientiously done your level best! "Yes, I have done my level best. I can do nothing more." Oh yes, you can, my friend, and I can let God now take up and do the rest. You are simply "escapened before Pi-hahroth, between Migdol and the sea, over against Baaizephon." God is going to open a way for you through the Red sea to escape the pursuing Philistines. How? I do not know. This, however, I do know. God will rescue you if you are patient, only patient. He will, if like Job amid the tragedy of a wrecked ship, you amid a ruined city, and in the midst of physical as well as mental pain, you can say, and still continue to say, "Though he slay me, yet will I trust him." God will show to you a direct means of escape if you will only stand still just where you are and continue to look for the salvation of the Lord. You may not now think it, but all things, even amid the greatest discouragements, all things are working together for good to those who love God. The blackest of nights there always comes the brightness of a light giving dawn. And the blackest of troubles there will always come a pillar of fire to lead God's children to a promised land. Trust him, brother. Continue to trust God. Be patient. Just go on and continue to do your level best. All things will ultimately come out right if you do. That is the teaching of this grand old story of the steadfastness of the Lord.

But there is another class of bearers of affliction, and that is the class that I and today escapened among the Israelitish hosts near Pi-hahroth. They are the men and the women who are not necessarily struggling for a financial existence, but who are unhappy and dissatisfied with the fields in which God has compelled them to labor. They know they could do better work anywhere else under other surroundings. Or they say nothing to themselves; "I do not know why I am here," or "I don't like it." It is that all my labors shall be misdirected and unproductive, if God does not open to me another field of work soon I shall drop this position anyhow."

Do Your Work the Best You Can.

Going to give up your present position? Do you say you are not happy in it? Do you say my brother, When you need in life in this waiting crisis of yours is a great big invigorating dose of patience. Stand still just where you are, and do your work the best way you can and see the salvation of the Lord. God does not, as a rule, call his workmen from nothing to something great, but from a small position of influence to a higher position of influence. When Christ wanted to select his cabinet and to fill the apostle positions of the "fishers of men," he did not go into the market place, where he could find the hawkeye killing around said to Peter and Andrew, his brothers, "Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men." It is nearly always a hard struggle for a man in a small position to climb up into a higher position. But it is nearly always an almost impossible struggle for a man out of a job to be called to a fine position. Christ uttered sound philosophy when he said in his parable: "Take therefore the talent from him and give it unto him that hath ten talents. For unto every one that hath shall be given, and he shall have abundance, but from him that hath not shall be taken away even that which he hath." It is easy enough for the pastor of a successful church of New York to be called to a prosperous church of Chicago. But a minister without a pulpit, though he be a giant among preachers, has an almost insurmountable undertaking to be called to any strong pulpit. The man without a position will have to look for aid upon his brow, and every one looks at him with suspicion. Be patient. Everything will come out all right. Just be patient.

Not as Important as We Think.
But there is still another reason why I do not want you to give up that position which seems to fret you. As far as I can make out, you are getting in life just about as much as you deserve. Instead of complaining, you ought to get down on your knees and thank God for the position which he has given to you. Why should you expect God to make you his favorite child and allow you to rest upon a bed of roses? Are you any different from any of his other children? Are you so smart or so good or so humble that you have a right to expect more than they? Instead of grumbling about your small position, you should see men, in every way your superiors, physically, mentally and spiritually, occupying smaller positions than you. Be patient in that work God has given to you. Most of us—aye, perhaps all of us—have all we deserve in life, and more too. If God wants us to go higher, he will open the way. If he does not open the way, then let us do what he wants us to do. You and I are not so important or so brilliant or so perfectly specified as some of us think we are. In order to impress upon you this fact, I would read you a quotation from the story by James W. Whitcomb killed by a bad cold and encouraged much in life. I hope the readings will make you contented in the field of labor to which God has called you to work.

The signs are bad when folks commence
A-fighting fault with Providence
And balking 'cause the world don't shake
At every prancing step they take.
No man great or small can tell How less than little he would be
If stripped to self, and stark and bare
He hung his sign out anywhere.

My doctrine is to lay aside
Contentions and be satisfied.
Jest do your best, and praise or blame
The folk that follow you be the same.
I've ailers noticed great success
Is mixed with trouble, more or less.
And that's the man who does the best.
That's the man there are no resters.

But, roaming in and out among the Inavellish hanks encamped at Pi-hahroki, I find the ranks of the Moesle army cured and retarded with bangers and bladders. There were many brave men in that army. Men there were like Joshua and Caleb, but there was also a host of laxy, good for nothing, as in every army, who expected others to do all the work. When the tents were to be lifted, they were not there; when the manna was to be collected, they were like the five foolish virgins who wanted to borrow the oil of the five wise virgins. And so today when I see a strong, willing man I inevitably see a lot of human leeches clinging to that man as barnacles stick to a ship's hull.
Furthermore, today I see scores and hundreds of you hardworking men and women rebelling at the injustice by which others are trying to live off the results of the sweat of your brow.

Let me illustrate my thought by drawing a verbal picture of what we all know to be true: There are four of us boys, all brothers, born in a humble farmhouse way back in the country. I am the oldest, and I myself am the first happy-go-lucky boy. Oh, yes, we work hard when we work, but we work just as little as we can, and when we have a dollar we always spend the whole dollar. If there is a country dance, my two brothers and I always go there. If a leisure hour, you can always find us lying around the village store or playing pranks upon the boys. We are not bad, we are just plain boys. We have got to be boys. We do what we like most of boys. We do what we are told to do and do nothing more.

But I have a brother Jack. The young folks say he is queer and mean and stingy. Some people say he is lazy and crazy. My brother Jack is not lazy. He works just as hard as we do, but when he makes a dollar, instead of spending that dollar as we do, he saves it or goes and buys some books. Instead of loafing about the village stores in the evening-Jack is always home studying. If he isn't at home, Jack is certainly queer. One day Jack comes home and tells us he is going to teach winter school in order to go to college. We think then he is crazier still. After awhile Jack, by working all his summers and all winters, gets through college, and then comes home and tells us that he is going to the law school. We think he is crazier still. After awhile Jack, by years of self sacrifice and hard work, is graduated. Then he goes to New York city. After awhile my brother Jack pushes his way to the front of the New York bar. What is the result? Do we boys praise Jack for his labors? Do we say, "If we had worked as he worked we could be where he is?" Perhaps. But that is not the general rule of the average family. We immediately begin to com-when any man honestly tries to make a success out of life, he immediately has a lot of indigent, selfish, lazy folks about him trying to live off the results of his hard-earned toil.

Some one listening to me says, "Yes that is so." Then you turn and says "What shall I do about my drunken brother?" family says, "Give him money to let him keep on drinking." "What shall I do about my daughter?" says another, "I do not want her to leave her husband, and yet I certainly do not want to keep on supporting both of them in their foolish extravagances." "What shall I do about my son?" says another, "Shall I let him go to the dogs and not support him any longer?" "What shall I do in reference to that lazy partner?" says another, "He won't work, and yet he expects half of the profits." "What shall I do in reference to my husband?" says another, "He is a good man, but he is too slow, or entering into wildcat speculations which bring us in nothing to support the family." "What shall I do to inference to my wife?" says a troubled husband. "She spends my money right and left. She is more interested in church parties than in the economy of the home. Shall I leave her?" What shall you do, my friends? Well, I am not here to tell you in detail, but this I do assert in general terms: Do not let the business of the world blind your eyes to the pressing duties of the present. Because your kind and true business partners have been and are now doing wrong to you, do not you do wrong to them. Be patient. Be careful, and if you must err let it be upon the side of mercy. God does not tell you to weigh the past so much as to conscientiously solve the pressing responsibilities directly in hand. "Stand still" before you snatch the golden cords of affection which bind you to that wayward sister, that wayward brother, that wayward child, that wayward husband. "Stand still" if you do not know what to do. "Stand still and see the salvation of the Lord."

Be very patient when sickness comes, and old age comes and the wearing faculties of mind and body seem to unfit you for the active duties of life. Be very patient when you seem to be like an old, wornout horse being led upon the track by a little and sleepy driver. Be patient when a little and sleepy driver leads a little longer and then dies. Some of us with great gusto in the days of our youth used to sing in Sunday school that old hymn:

Oh, to be nothing, nothing

Only to lie at his feet.
A broken and empty vessel,
For the Master's use made meet.
The Right Time to Die.

But when the advancing years pass on, and by sickness or old age we seem to be laid away upon the shelf as useless by a busy world, then most of us do not appreciate the petition of the song prayer. "We do not want to be 'something, nothing,' We want to be 'something, something,'" and have the "something," very active "something." Sometimes at the funeral of a strong man we see a suggestive floral tribune in a broken column. That means the man died in his prime. That means most of us say, "Is it not too bad that he had to go when he had so much to live for?" But I do not think it takes nearly as much divine grace to take your physical and mental prime as it takes to live on in physical invalidism or in decrepit old age. In the first instance a Christian man like a warrior is struck down at a blow. In the second instance a man is like an aged veteran in a soldier's home, like a Job's war charger smelling the battle from afar and yet not able to answer the bugle call for the grand charge. The saddest scene during all my stay in this world was when in the Methodist Episcopal conference five noble men who had served their church as bishops ion and faithfully were retired and placed upon the superannuated list. But, a

God has placed some of you upon the great "waiting list" as physical or mental ineffectives, be it patient or impatient. In your retired field of waiting you have a work to do. It will all come out right. Yes, sick one is engaged one. It will all come out right. You may not be able to understand God's ways now, but it will all come out right.

Thus today, as the "waiting" lesson is the hardest of all gospel lessons to learn, I am going to close in the beautiful words of one whose own life has been a long and deep one. I am preaching against my own impatient feelings just as I am against yours. I know that a parent can never bring his children up right unless he teaches that children learn to trust him and wait; there fore no child of God can ever trust God unless he is at times ready to "stand still and see the salvation of the Lord." These verses embody the whole thought of my text:

When my boy with eager questions,
Asking how and where and when,
Taxes all my store of wisdom,
Asking o'er and o'er again
Questions oft to which the answers
Give me there is no gain,
I have said, to teach him patience,
Wait, my little one, and see.

And the words I taught my darling
Taught to me a lesson sweet,
Once when all the world seemed darkened
And the stores about me went,
In the children's room I heard him,
With a child's sense mimicry,
To the baby brother's questions Saying, wisely, "Wait and see."

Like an angel's tender chiding
Came the darling's words to me,
"The Father in His wisdom hid him, Bidding me still, "Wait and see."
What are we but restless children, Ever asking what shall be
And the Father, in His wisdom,
Gently bids us "Wait and see."

FAMOUS SPEECH

OF THE HON. JAMES A. MCKENZIE.

Epitome of Memorable Address That Kept Quinine On the Free List.

The late Hon. James A. McKenzie's noted speech that laughed the tariff off quinine follows in part, being taken from the Congressional Record. Mr. McKenzie, as is well known, was the author of the free quinine bill, the first, and up to the present time the only successful attack upon the purely protective feature of our tariff system, and the speech appended thwarted the effort to restore the tax on this priceless drug:

"Mr. Chairman: 'I desire to give notice to the committee that at the proper time, if the amendment proposed by the gentleman from Virginia shall pass, I will move to insert on the free list quinine and cinchonidia, sulphate and salts of, so that it may not come under the unenumerated clauses at the average rate of duty of twenty-five per cent ad valorem, but shall be entirely upon the free list.'"

Something Awful.

Continuing, among other remarks, Mr. McKenzie said: "In all this bad bill of 140 pages, which is cumulative in its wickedness and progressive in its devilment, the proposition to restore the duty on quinine is the climactic and ultima Thule of its meanness. (Laughter.) No bill has ever emanated from the ways and means committee, a committee whose name should be changed by resolution of this house to that of the 'friends of the poor' (laughter)—no proposition has ever emanated from that committee which compares with this, either in its aggregated or segregated iniquity. (Laughter and applause.)"

"The agree-stricken people of this country will call this congress accursed if the tax on this drug is restored. They pronounced your party unworthy of confidence last November. They demanded reform in our tariff system, and it comes with ill grace from you, after having been repudiated at the polls, to reinstate a tax for which not one single, solitary voter in America has petitioned, except those who have a pecuniary interest in its imposition."

Tax Air and Sunshine.

"You had as well attempt to lay a tax on air and God's sunshine, which I honestly believe you would do if a single citizen or firm in the city of Philadelphia were engaged in the manufacture of either. (Laughter.) I desire to ask this honorable committee on ways and means if they are willing to go on record as championing a bill which looks to the relief from taxation of all 'proprietary medicines,' preparations that have caused more wry faces and more pained viscera than all other preparations known to human ingenuity in the matter of physical torture, and as still insisting upon the re-imposition of a tax upon quinine, which 'brings healing on its wings' to every bed of sickness in the land?"

"By the way, I got a circular letter this morning from Rosengarten & Sons, telling me of the outrageous injustice being done to the industry they are following. They threatened us in 1879, when the bill was passed taking the tax off this drug, with the stoppage of their factory. But they are running still, and two additional factories have been started since the removal of the duty. Now, Mr. Chairman, the case before the house stands thus: Powers & Weightman against the sick people of the United States; Rosengarten & Sons against the fever hospitals. The majority of the Ways and Means committee appear for the plaintiff, and I desire, Mr. Chairman, to have my name entered as attorney for the defense. (Applause.)"

"I realize that numbers and ability are arrayed against me, but, poor advocate as I am, I feel that my cause is so just I can plead it successfully before that great jury to whom you last appealed, and who brought in a verdict of guilty without the recommendation of mercy. (Laughter and applause.)"

"You may defeat this amendment here; you may fail to strike these two lines out of this infamous bill, but we will appeal it to the American people, and I have no sort of doubt as to the result. If you re-enact this tax you lend yourself to the spread of malarial fever; and I want every man as he passes between the tellers here who desire to promote the establishment of pest houses and fever hospitals, who want to appear as the confederate of death and the friend of the devil, to record himself in favor of the restoration of the duty of quinine. (Laughter and applause.)"

"I want to call the attention of the House to the fact that last year, as members will possibly recollect, I objected to the delegation to the powers of the Committee on Ways and Means to that association of middle-aged and highly unprejudiced specialists known as the Tariff Commission. (Laughter.) I did not then believe that the tariff Commission had any more ability to revise our system of revenue than had the committee on ways and means. But after reading the bill reported by the committee, and comparing it with the report of the tariff commission and its recommendations, I desire to publicly retract every utterance I made on that occasion. (Laughter.)"

Benevolent Free List.
"Now, look on the free list of this bill; it is full of goodness and wisdom and benevolence. I see here, and thank God for it, that the committee on ways and means have put 'blood' on the free list. (Laughter.) Sir, if you were to levy a tax of only one cent a gallon on all the blood which you have extracted, through the means of your infamous tariff, from the American people, you could pay the national debt in twelve months and have a large surplus in the federal treasury. Considering the enormous amount that you have heretofore extracted, you need not levy any prohibitory duties on it, nor need you permit it to come in the market."

"Then I find that the committee has put 'bonedust' on the free list. My God, gentlemen, you are manufacturing bonedust in pauper graveyards whenever you propose to tax quinine, and you are making it very fast. (Laughter.)"

"You have put 'musk and civet' on the free list. Now, when I come to contemplate this bill, looking at it in its altitude and its pulchritude, in its concavity and its convexity, in its obliquity and its iniquity I feel like exclaiming with old King Lear when contemplating the ingratitude of his daughters: 'Give me an ounce of civet, good apothecary, to sweeten my imagination.' (Laughter.)"

"You have exempted 'peccac' from duty. Ah, gentlemen, you need not put that on the free list to create nausea enough in the stomach of the American people to lead them to spew your party out in 1884. (Laughter.)"

"And you have put 'leeches' on the free list. That, I suppose, is for the purpose of exempting the protected 'barons' and the committee on ways and means. (Laughter.)"

"Then you have put upon the free list an article called 'divi-divi.' What that is, God Almighty and a few protected individuals only know. I presume it is meant to protect these 'barons,' and to suggest that the committee on ways and means want a double quantity of what ever 'divi' is. (Laughter.)"

"You have put diamonds on the free list. Now, gentlemen, if there is anything on the face of the earth that grinds the poor people of this and into the very dirt it is the tax on diamonds. (Laughter.)"

"You have put 'joss sticks' on the free list. Still ministering to the spiritual wants of the Chinese. (Laughter.) You are willing that the heathen within our borders may burn incense to his unknown god free from taxation, while the humble American worshiper is taxed twenty-five per cent upon the bible which points his way to heaven. (Applause.) I saw a lot of you at the Chinese minister's the other night, and while you may despise his civilization you manifested a very high appreciation of his punch. (Laughter.) Asiatic civilization, when it comes to the matter of cheap labor, does not suit the average Republican, but the terrapin and champagne frappe of the 'heathen Chinese,' I am forced to conclude, met; with the unqualified approbation of the gentlemen on the other side of the house. (Laughter.)"

For The Committee.

"You have also put on the free list 'junk,' old, not otherwise provided for." This was done for the protection of the ways and means committee. They are fast growing old, and, thank God, an indignant people will shortly relegate them to the shades of private life. They may stray out of this country some time, and if they come back they will have to come in under the head of 'old junk,' not otherwise provided for. (Great laughter and applause.) I am glad you put this on the free list, because it will save you from undergoing inquisitorial processes in a Democratic custom house. (Laughter.)"

Dr. Owens Removed.

Gov. Beckham has removed Dr. C. C. Owens from the office of first assistant physician at the Central Kentucky Asylum for the insane, at Lakeland, and appointed Dr. M. H. Yeaman, of Henderson, to succeed him. Yeaman was the second assistant at the institution. His successor has not yet been named. Dr. Owens is from Maysville, and during Beckham's first term was superintendent of the Feeble-Minded Institute at Frankfort.

SCHOOL BOOKS

Gov. Beckham has called a meeting of the state school book commission to be held in the department of public instruction on Friday at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. The purpose of the meeting is to canvass returns from the various counties in the matter of selecting text books under the uniform text book law, and adopt for five years under the law a set of books for use in the common schools. The contract will be at that time awarded by the commission. Returns from the various county boards have been received by the superintendent, but are yet under seal. There are five bidding companies, the American Book company having submitted the only full list of books from which the county boards might select.
