Kentucky Windage

(By P. W.)

A couple of weeks ago I was on my way to the office and as I crossed over the railroad tracks on State Line I spied what looked like a pretty fair fire down in the new yards. So, being in the business that I am, I turned off at the foot of the overpass and headed up toward the ice plant where the smoke was, to be greeted by a distressing sight.

That famous ice-loading platform at the Fulton ice company... that quarter-mile-long landmark that was used to ice down a whole train at once... that tourist attraction that has been synonymous with bananas and Fulton's claim to fame as a Banana Town... that elongated, elevated wooden structure with a full-length conveyor belt that has been pictured in metropolitan papers with 200 gleaming blocks of ice on it at once... is no more. Quietly (at least to my knowledge) and without fanfare, the whole darn thing had been torn down by the railroad. The fire was being used to burn up the scraps.

Coming back from doing the adjoining "Inquiring Reporter" interview and picture, I couldn't help musing what an unintentional but nevertheless real gap there is between the Railroad and its operations, and the rest of the Fulton business community. In the downtown business area, pretty well everyone knows what is going on with everyone else, but out there in the railroad yards it's a different world. An interesting world. A world full of activity, communication, schedules. A world in which Fulton is linked with microwave and radio and telephone direct to Chicago, Memphis, New Orleans and every point on the railroad system. A world in which the object of the game is not to sell merchandise, but to keep trains moving. A modern world, in which they have quit signalling with lanterns and fuzees and instead, talk back and forth with powerful transistor radios in the yard, on the trains; and a lot of their calculations are now handled by computers.

When the southbound City of New Orleans was ready to leave the Fulton station, guess who told the engineer (or maybe it was the conductor, I don't know) to leave? Why, the yardmaster, sitting out there a mile out of sight in the New Yards, that's who. And before he gave the radio go-ahead, he picked up the radio and talked to the engineer on the northbound City of New Orleans somewhere between here and Memphis, found out where he was, and told him where to meet the southbound. It's all very interesting to me. And, as I say, quite a different and bustling foreign world, whose bridges we cross over umpteen times every day.

It seems that a certain gentleman finally got title to a nice saddlehorse he'd once hoped to buy. The horse, however, was dead stiff when the man went to pick him up. Nonetheless, he loaded him in the truck without a spiteful word and drove away.

The seller, alarmed, called the buyer in a few days to test his anger. The gentleman informed him he'd sold 1,500 raffle tickets—at a dollar apiece—on the horse, and given it away.

Wasn't everyone furious?

"No, only one guy was upset," the gentleman told him, "and I gave him his dollar back."

Dwain Taylor and his wife left last Saturday on a European tour, which, I understand, includes Switzerland and adjoining countries. When he gets back I aim to find out if he can top any of Gaylon Varden's stories.

"Mac" McMorries is right proud of that new glassed-in back entrance that has been completed at his Dimeco store, and well he should be. It looks very nice and will surely serve a useful purpose for his customers who are using busy Mears Street. By the way... do you reckon we will ever get a center stripe of some kind painted down Mears Street?

Did you hear about the tree surgeon who broke his leg? He fell out of his patient.

The Fulton Beat by the Inquiring Reporter...

G. M. Wilkinson, Yardmaster

Question: Is it true that the entire ice run (overhead loading platform used to ice railroad refrigerator cars) has been taken down and refrigerator cars are no longer iced here in Fulton as they used to be?

"Yes, as you can see from the picture, the ice run has been taken down and we do not ice whole trains here as we used to do. The Railroad is still handling iced cars, but it is moving them fast enough so that it doesn't have to re-ice them.

"Of course, there is a lot of mechanical refrigeration now, too, and especially the trucks that are carried piggy-back.

"We are using ice from the Fulton Ice Company for other railroad use on this part of the system."

Chamber Board Votes To Return To Quarterly Membership Meet

So that all members will have the opportunity to discuss community progress and problems, quarterly meetings of the general membership of the Twin Cities Chamber of Commerce will once again be held. These meetings will be held on the fifth Monday of each quarter, beginning June 29. The next will be August 31 and November 30, and then the annual dinner meeting held in February.

The following committees have been named:

Industrial - Stanley Jones and Ron Laird, Co-Chairmen, John Sullivan, Foad Homra, Harold Henderson, Kenneth Turner, Harvey Vick, Bill Fossett, James Needham, Bob Morgan and Dick Armstrong, Ex Officio Members - Nelson Tripp, Mike Blake, and Bob Graham.

Townlift - Charles Reams, Chrm., Louis Weeks, Nathan Wade, Mrs. Hugh Pigue, Nelson Tripp, Mike Blake and Bob Graham.

Finance - Bill Fossett, Chrm., George Brock, and James Needham.

Membership - Frank Woolf, Chrm., Shelton Owens.

Citizens of the Year Award - Bob Morgan, Chrm., Billie Bushart, Paul Kasnow, Carolyn Needham and Hendon Wright.

Representative to the Banana Board - Sara Bushart.

VA REP. COMING

H. S. Miles, contact representative of the Bureau of Veterans Affairs, will be at the Fulton Chamber of Commerce from 9 a. m. until 3 p. m. on Friday, April 17, to assist veterans and their dependents with claims for benefits due them as a result of their military service.

FRESH COAT

Fulton's "little red caboose" on Lake Street received a coat of bright red paint last Sunday from a group of volunteer workers of the I. C. Service Club.

JOHN STAYED HOME TO BE A FARMER—

We May Look Alike, But We're Different, Say MSU Triplets

A big problem faced by triplets is the "me too" expected by the public; so many persons think of triplets as one unit rather than three distinct personalities.

"I can't understand," declared Jim Green of Route 2, Hickory, Ky., "why people always compare me with my brothers rather than with other men here at Murray State." His infectious smile belied his strong feeling on the matter.

Immediately a major difference was brought out. When they graduated from Symsonia High School in 1966, only two of Mr. and Mrs. Joe B. Green's triplet sons decided to go to college.

John, who is described by Tom "as always definitely an extrovert and lover of the outdoors," decided to farm rather than go to college. "Jim and I were introverts and studious."

Roommates for their first three years at Murray State University, Tom and Jim have lived on different streets this year and in the fall will enter different medical schools. Tom will be at the University of Kentucky and Jim will enroll at the University of Louisville. Attending different medical schools was "not part of a set plan," Jim said. Tom added that "should we decide to practice together we might find different training had given us different ideas that would be beneficial."

Neither senior has selected a field of medical specialization. "Doctors have advised us against an early decision," Jim said. But Tom admitted he has special interest now in heart surgery, adding quickly "probably because I know more about the heart than other organs; that interest may change."

Despite many physical similarities, "Doctors say we are not identical triplets," Tom stated. There is less than a quarter-inch difference in their heights and less than five pounds difference in weight. "John and Jim are the same height and weight; I am the tallest and lightest."

"All three" and "both boys" are among Jim's pet abominations. "Each of us is different; we are individuals," he said. "Tom and I are active in different special-interest organizations here at Murray State, although we are both Circle R Club members."

Census Taker Is On The Way So Get 'Em Ready

"Be Patient—Your Census taker is coming!

Do not destroy the census form you have completed. It will be picked up." So cautions Miss Anita Brown, District Manager, who reports that work is progressing according to schedule on the 1970 Census.

Census takers began visiting households on April 1, and have been working continuously to cover their territories. It takes time to cover all of the vast area and call at 160,000 households, but all will be called on.

The District Manager asks that householders hold their questionnaires and have them filled out, ready for the census taker to pick up.

The census taker will be wearing a red, white and blue identification badge which is her official identification. It bears her signature and certifies that she is authorized to perform the duties of a Census Enumerator.

City-Wide Phone Survey Will Seek Information To Benefit Residents

The "Marketing I" class at South Fulton High School will conduct a local consumer trade survey for the Fulton-South Fulton Retail Merchants Bureau, Wyatt Cunningham, class teacher, announced this week.

The survey scheduled to begin next Monday, will cover four particular areas of interest to the local retail merchants: (1) Shopping habits of the public; (2) advertising media; (3) store hours; (4) Banking hours.

Each of the 23 students in the class will take one page from the Fulton telephone directory and will make calls after school hours, beginning April 20. Residential phone numbers only, will be called.

The survey stands to achieve a worthwhile cause for the householder, inasmuch as it seeks to determine answers to questions that will benefit the public. It is hoped that each person called will take a few minutes of his or her time to provide honest answers to the questions asked. No attempt will be made to identify any individuals called with any of the answers in the survey summary.

Bob Bay, Chairman of the Retail Merchants Board of Directors, said this week:

"We are most grateful to Mr. Cunningham and the Marketing I Class of South Fulton High School for conducting this survey. Our object is to inaugurate a program of improvement leading to better merchandising in our stores and improved community services to you — our customers.

"We feel that the residents who live in and around our community are the ones who can best tell us what they want and what our city needs, to become the best possible trading center. Therefore, we are asking you to take a few moments of your time to talk to these students of Marketing I Class of South Fulton High School.

"We would like to have your frank answers and opinions. Your efforts will help us make the Twin Cities a better place in which to shop."

Leaders Asked To Conference At Hickman

The University of Kentucky in cooperation with the Kentucky Division of Civil Defense and Fulton County officials will conduct a special emergency preparedness conference in Hickman, Dr. R. D. Johnson, Dean of UK Extension announced today.

County Judge James C. Meenes and Hickman Mayor R. H. White will serve as host officials. Topics to be discussed include the status of the current civil defense program and the requirements for an effective community preparedness capability.

The meeting is scheduled at Hickman Elementary School on Monday night, April 20. Registration will begin at 6:30 p. m. and the program will start at 7:00 o'clock.

Speakers, in addition to Dr. Johnson, will include Leon J. Reed of the Kentucky Division of Civil Defense and Wayne Berry of the University of Kentucky Extension Service. Other UK staff members will serve as discussion leaders.

Community leaders and local officials from throughout Fulton County are expected to attend, according to Waudell Yarbro, Fulton County Civil Defense Director.

Public Invited To Campus Tour Sunday

The Faculty Women's Club of the University of Tennessee at Martin are inviting area residents to a Campus Tour on Sunday afternoon, April 19 from 2:00 - 4:00 p. m.

Members of the Hospitality Committee of the Student Government will serve as guides for the tour, and faculty women will act as hostesses at the seven buildings which will be open.

Martin residents, as well as interested people from the surrounding area, are invited to park their cars at the University Center parking lot. Guides will be stationed in front of the University Center and tours will run continuously from 2:00 until 4:00 p. m. The buildings included in the tour will be:

Paul Meek Library, Engineering-Physical Sciences Building, Humanities Building, Hall-Moody Administration Building, Home Economics Building, Atrium Dormitory, University Center.

Two Hickman Youths Die In Auto Accident

Two 20-year-old Fulton County youths were killed in a one-car traffic accident here last Monday afternoon, April 13.

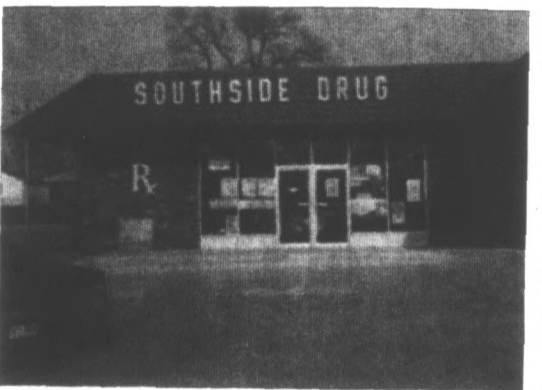

The victims were identified by State Trooper Harold Dacus, Fulton as:

Jewell Taylor Morse, 20, Hickman Route 1, son of Mrs. Ernest Morse.
John Dickerson Jr., 20, Hickman, Route 1, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dickerson.

Southside Drug Opens Spacious New Store In Shopping Center

Friday and Saturday will be gala "Grand Opening" days at Southside Drug Company's new location at the Southern Village Shopping Center, located on Broadway Street in South Fulton.

This large new building, more than double the size of the former location at the corner of Broadway and State Line, was built especially for the drug firm by Stanley Jones Mechanical Contractors of South Fulton. It has a drive-in window, a beautifully-arranged and spacious carpeted interior, modern prescription department and roomy displays and stocks for toiletries, gifts, cosmetics, sickroom supplies, candies and many other lines.

THE NEW SOUTHSIDE DRUG STORE in South Fulton, located in the Southern Village Shopping Center.

A feature of "Grand Opening" days this weekend will be the free giveaway of a large number of prizes, one being a new portable television. There are also a great number of specially-priced items featured during "grand opening" days. For a more complete list see page 5, second section of this issue.

Southside Drug Company, now owned by Hendon O. Wright and Charles Wade Andrews of Fulton, was founded by W. E. Jackson here some twenty years ago. It was first located on Broadway Street in South Fulton, across from the

Kindergarten Begins 18th Year April 28

Tuesday, April 28, has been set as the date of registration for the private kindergarten sponsored by the Junior Department of the Fulton Woman's Club.

Children who will be eligible for the first grade in 1971-1972 will be registered at the Fulton Woman's Club building from 12:00 to 2:00 p. m. Mrs. William Sloan is the teacher.

The Fulton Kindergarten is a private association, sponsored by the Junior Woman's Club. This will be the eighteenth year of operation.

SEPARATE WAYS: These Murray State University seniors, Tom (left) and Jim Green, who are two of Hickory, Ky., triplets, will attend different medical schools this fall. Tom will be at the University of Kentucky and Jim at the University of Louisville. (Photo by Wilson Woolley)

With a 3.9 (on a 4.0 basis) overall grade standing, Tom was elected this year to Alpha Chi, a national collegiate honorary society. Jim was just under the required minimum average.

Tom is president of the youth group in the Independent Christian Church here; Jim is active in the Baptist Student Union.

In the summers of 1968 and 1969 Jim and Tom worked in different southern cities selling Bibles. "It was a most rewarding experience," Tom said, "both in net earnings and learning to meet people." They ranked in the top 40 of the company's 2,000 student salesmen in 1969.

With double majors in chemistry and biology and minors in mathematics, Tom and Jim have had many classes together. "When we were in separate sections of a class, we would make better grades," Tom said.

Jim's explanation was that separate sections caused them to rely less on each other and to be more independent.

Despite each's determination to be independent of the other, neither could recall ever having

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Lawrence

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Lawrence Are Gracious Hosts On Anniversary

About one hundred and thirty friends and relatives attended the open house on Sunday, April 5, when Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Lawrence, of 525 Maple Avenue, Fulton, celebrated their 65th wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence were married on April 4, 1905.

Flower arrangements and blooming plants, gifts from friends and relatives, were seen throughout the house. A floral arrangement in an antique glass bowl, flanked by yellow candles in hard cut crystal holders, centered the refreshment table, which was overlaid with a cutwork linen cloth.

Toasts by Harry Kresky and John Ruckdescher, husband of the Lawrence's granddaughter, were made as the couple cut the white three-tiered beautifully decorated cake. Guests were served the wedding cake, decorated cake squares, assorted cookies, nuts, mints and punch from crystal bowls.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence have two daughters, Miss Allene Lawrence, who lives at home, and Mrs. William Egbert of Mohawk, N. Y., and one son, J. T. Lawrence, who, with his wife Ruby and two children, lives in North Ridge, Calif.

Mrs. A. B. Thacker greeted guests at the door and Mrs. Paul Turbeville was at the register. Assisting in serving were Mrs. A. S. Johnston, Miss Adolphus Latta, Mrs. Boyce Heitcock, and four nieces, Mrs. Paul Gholson, Mrs. Gus Alexander, Mrs. Jo Scruggs and Miss Deborah Scruggs.

and appeared regularly in The News and some 100 state newspapers.

He was a native of New Concord in Calloway County, Ky., and taught for a time in Hickman County as a rural school teacher. He joined the Western faculty of the English Department in 1912 and became head of that department in September, 1928. Dr. Wilson once calculated that he had taught 36,000 college students and had graduated 1,300 English majors.

Ky. Folklore Author Dies In Bowling Green

Dr. Gordon Wilson, Sr., 81, died Sunday at the Bowling Green-Warren County Hospital after a short illness. He was widely known as a folklorist and author and retired as head of the English Department at Western Kentucky University in 1959.

Dr. Wilson continued his research in folklore and linguistics, particularly of the Mammoth Cave area of Kentucky, and had published over 50 scholarly articles since his retirement. He was widely read as the author of a column on folklore, Tid Bits of Kentucky Folklore, which was begun in 1935

CLEAN-UP SQUAD

Ann Landers

— Your Problems Bring Answers —

Dear Ann Landers: Your Column on gifts for departing employees hit me where I live. A few months ago I became completely disenchanted with my job. Personnel changes created three armed camps in our company. (In all fairness I must admit I was not blameless in the office unpleasantness.) When it became apparent I could no longer work effectively in such a hostile environment, I resigned.

Even though I was not on speaking terms with several colleagues, the office do-gooder took it upon herself to solicit money from EVERYONE for a goingaway gift. The farewell party was in the worst possible taste and the costly gift an embarrassment. I tried to handle the situation with grace but it was a nightmare.

Most people who leave jobs would prefer to go quietly. The gift I received was intended to make me feel better. It only made me feel worse. It serves as a reminder that my fellow workers were glad to get rid of me.

Please pass the word, Ann — no farewell parties, please, unless the person is retiring or moving, with a heavy heart, to another city, for a beautiful promotion. — F. N.

Dear F. N.: Here's your letter. Consider the word passed.

Dear Ann Landers: Your answer to "His wife" concerning her non-reading husband who had been bluffing his way through life was kind—but not sufficiently helpful to live up to your usual high standards.

It is estimated that at least six per cent of the adults in this country are functional illiterates and in need of immediate rescue. Cincinnati has a group of 60 volunteer tutors who are trying to help some of our 30,000 adult non-readers. The program is on a one-to-one basis. It costs nothing except the price of a book. Ten

Engagement Of Judith Muzzall To Orville Pickering Is Told

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Muzzall, South Fulton, Tenn., announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Judith Ann, to Orville Eugene Pickering, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Pickering, South Fulton, Tenn.

Miss Muzzall is a 1968 graduate of South Fulton High School and is presently employed at Donna's Beauty Salon.

Mr. Pickering attended South Fulton High School and is presently employed by the I. C. Railroad.

A June wedding is being planned.

Artists, Craftsmen To Meet At Martin Saturday To Exhibit, Sell

An "Art Demonstration Market" will be conducted in Martin on Saturday, April 18, from 10 a. m. to 5:30 p. m. at the Martin Public Library. A select group of artists and craftsmen have been invited by the Martin Arts Commission to come to Martin for the day, and they will be exhibiting, selling and demonstrating wood crafts and carving, candles, hand weaving, leather work, basketry, beaded articles and original art work.

A special feature of the "market" will be the appearance of Wood Bell and his CHOCTAW INDIAN family of Gold Dust, Tennessee. They will be demonstrating and selling their age-old crafts of making baskets, moccasins, Indian head-dresses, beaded articles, blow guns, rattles and tomahawks.

Other artists and craftsmen who will be there are Mr. Woodrow Collier of Martin who does wood carving and makes furniture; Robert Richardson of Dresden who works with wood and makes candles; Cayce High of Dresden who designs and makes miniature doll furniture; Trudy Thompson of Fulton, Kentucky who designs and creates rugs, wall hangings and fabrics on her loom; and Betty Jones Larsen, "The Gourd Painter" from Newbern, who paints not only on gourds, but also on burlap, old shingles, smokehouse doors, as well as more conventional medias, and creates unique animals from pinecones and papermache.

A spokesman for the Arts Commission stated that all of the items at the market will be for sale. "We think this event will be both entertaining and educational and hope that public participation and support of this market will enable us to make this an annual event in Martin that will attract people from all over Western Tennessee and Kentucky to come to our city," they added.

McConnell News Mrs. L. T. Caldwell

Brother J. R. Stockard of Martin has been engaged by the McConnell Church of Christ congregation as full-time minister. He has been delivering some very wonderful messages. Services are every Sunday morning at 11:00, Sunday evening at 6:00 and mid-week services on Wednesday evening at 7:30. Sunday School commences at 10:00. The public is cordially invited to attend at any and all of these services.

Mrs. Jordan Ferguson was delightfully surprised with a birthday dinner at her home on Sunday, April 12th. When she returned home from church services, her children and their families were waiting for her with delicious baskets of food and a full evening of surprises.

We want to congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Ancil Jordan on their 50th wedding anniversary celebrated recently.

We extend our deepest sympathy to the Harry Wallace family of Fulton, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace lived in our vicinity for many years and reared their two children, Harold and June, in this area. We extend our sympathy in the losing of their husband and father.

We extend our sympathy to Mrs. Clara Blackwell in the death of her brother, Mr. W. O. Smith of Texas.

Mrs. Moulton Gamble of Gary, Indiana, is visiting her mother, Mrs. H. E. McCord and other relatives.

Miss Teresa Ferguson, student at Freed-Hardeman College, Henderson, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Ferguson and Vicki.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter McAlister and children of Saskatchewan, Canada, have returned to their home there after having visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Coates and daughter, Carolyn, and other relatives at Fulton for several days.

Mrs. Ava Levister of Martin and Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Wilson of Muskegon, Michigan, visited Mrs. L. T. Caldwell and family and Mrs. Veneda Moss and family Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Wilson were enroute to Huntsville, Alabama, where he will be stationed with the United States Army.

Hickman Family Night

Family night is a once-a-month "happening" at the Hickman Country Club. Last Saturday night approximately 125 members gathered to enjoy a pot luck dinner, which never ceases to amaze this reporter since nobody consults each other about what to bring, but the table always ends up with a bountiful, well balanced feast.

The event Saturday night was made more enjoyable by the incomparable organ music rendered by Herbert Morris of Obion.

Hosts and hostesses for the occasion were: Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Tipton, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Cates, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Sullivan and Mr. and Mrs. Perry Butler, all of Tiptonville.

"Lighted Dogwood Trail" Will Open April 20 In Paducah

Spring in Paducah is heralded annually by a city-wide, week long festival, the Lighted Dogwood Trail. This year trail week will be held from Monday, April 20, through Sunday, April 26. Sponsored and activated by The Civic Beautification Board this festival has become a major spring attraction in the area.

The natural beauty of pink and white flowering dogwood trees along the parkways and streets of the city is enhanced and dramatized by spotlights during the evening hours of trail week. The effect thus created is a fairland scene of ethereal and haunting loveliness. One spot of particular beauty is the memorial to Irvin S. Cobb, located in the Oak Grove Cemetery, the grave site surrounded by pink and white dogwoods, and at his request a dogwood planted by the memorial stone.

Opening the festival a reception will be held Monday night, April 20, from 7:00 p. m. to 8:00 p. m., at trail headquarters in the Market House Art Gallery, Broadway at Second Street, from which point the trail tour will start. Adding to the gaiety of the occasion will be a musical program provided by the Paducah Tilghman High School Band.

The public is invited to attend the reception and also to view the art on display in the exhibition during the Lighted Dogwood Trail is a collection of oil paintings entitled "The Face of Kentucky". The collection is being circulated by the Kentucky Art Commission and consists of the works of Ken-

Welcoming a new member of the Hickman Country Club are R. R. Tipton and Robbie Morris of Obion. The new member is Jo Westpheling (center), editor of the Hickman Courier and the Fulton News at Fulton.

There were many unusual door prizes for the many guests at the family night affair at the Hickman Country Club Saturday night, but Betty and Brantly Amberg received the most unusual of all . . . a huge bag of fertilizer. Brantly is an attorney.

Drug Films Available For Public Use

tucky artists over the state.

Buses will be available on Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights for those who want to take the conducted tour. The fare is fifty cents per person. Others who prefer to drive their own cars may join the procession following the buses, or they may make the tour at their convenience guided by the signs marking the trail route. Each year The Civic Beautification Board has improved and expanded the festival program. New dogwood trees are added to the parkway plantings, and homeowners are encouraged by various promotional projects to plant more of the beautiful trees on their grounds and to spotlight them during the Lighted Dogwood Trail Week. Permanent signs marking the trail route have been erected by the board this year, and more and better lighting has been installed in the city.

Gratified by the interest shown in the Lighted Dogwood Trail in the past, The Civic Beautification Board and Paducah residents are this year anticipating being lost to an even greater number of their neighbors from nearby cities and the surrounding areas.

TRUCK AVAILABLE

A cruising trash truck will be working the streets of Fulton this week to pick up any rubbish or trash set out for it.

NEW CITY HALL ???

Boyce Ross, Paducah architect, has been engaged by the City of Fulton to make preliminary studies for the construction of a new city hall for Fulton.

An important step in the fight against drug abuse was taken Thursday, March 26, as Paul Dotson, Lt. Gov. of Division 1 of the Kentucky-Tennessee District Kiwanis International presented two films concerning the drug abuse problem to the first district of the Kentucky Department of Mental Health, at the weekly meeting of the Murray Kiwanis Club. The six Kiwanis clubs in this area, Benton, Mayfield, Murray, Paducah Downtown, Paducah Southside and Paducah Westside presented the films which were accepted for the district, which includes Calloway, Ballard, Carlisle, Graves, Hickman, Fulton, Livingston, Marshall and McCracken counties, by Willard Alls, pharmacist at Murray-Calloway County Hospital.

In accepting, Mr. Alls noted that this area was extremely fortunate to be able to have these films since the same films, available through the State Department of Mental Health, must be scheduled six months to a year in advance.

The films, entitled "Drugs and the Nervous System" and "The Seekers" will be available for showing to school groups, P-TA organizations, churches and civic clubs in this district. They can be scheduled by contacting local Kiwanis club members, county drug education councils or Mr. Alls at the Murray-Calloway County Hospital.

President Nixon Expresses His Views On His Supreme Court Nominations, And Conclusions

In order for the subject to be read and digested at leisure, The News felt that the following communication would be of interest to our readers, inasmuch as it deals with a recently-concluded and hotly debated issue. Our communications follow:

THE WHITE HOUSE

Washington
April 10, 1970

Dear Editor:

The rejection by the Senate this week of the President's nomination of Judge Carswell to the Supreme Court, coming as a sequel to the earlier rejection of another Southern-born judge to sit on the High Court, has become the center of much discussion nationally. I am enclosing a copy of the President's statement issued following the vote to reject Judge Carswell so that you may know the views and the conclusions the President has drawn from the Senate's successive votes to reject the nominations of Judges Haynsworth and Carswell for the Supreme Court.

With best wishes,
Sincerely,
Herbert G. Klein
Director of Communications for the Executive Branch

STATEMENT BY THE PRESIDENT

April 9, 1970

I have reluctantly concluded — with the Senate presently constituted — I cannot successfully nominate to the Supreme Court any Federal Appellate Judge from the South who believes as I do in the strict construction of the Constitution. Judges Carswell and Haynsworth have endured with admirable dignity vicious assaults on their intelligence, their honesty and their character. They have been falsely charged with being racist. But when all the hypocrisy is stripped away, the real issue was their philosophy of strict construction of the Constitution — a philosophy that I share and the fact that they had the misfortune of being born in the South. After the rejection of Judge Carswell and Judge Haynsworth, this conclusion is inescapable.

Both are distinguished jurists; both are among the finest judges in the Fourth and Fifth Circuits; both had previously been approved by the Senate for the second highest Federal court; yet, both were rejected. In my opinion, neither would have been rejected had he not been born in a Southern State.

In selecting both men, I had several criteria in mind. First and foremost, they had to be men who shared my legal philosophy of strict construction of the Constitution — men who would help to restore to the United States Supreme Court the balance that it genuinely needs — that balance I pledged to the American people that I would help to restore.

Secondly, I set the criteria that both have experience on the highest Federal appeals court — next to the United States Supreme Court itself.

Third, I chose them because they were both men of the South.

I do not believe that any segment of our people or any section of the country can lay claim to one or more seats on the High Courts as its own preserve. But controversial and far-reaching decisions of past and coming years are far better received — when each section of the country and every major segment of our people can look to the Court and see there its legal philosophy articulately represented.

Four of the present members of the Court are from the East, one from the Midwest, two from the West and one from the South. More than one-fourth of the people of this nation live in the South — they deserve representation on the Court.

But more important than geographical balance is philosophical balance — the need to have represented on the Court those who believe in strict construction of the Constitution as well as others who believe in the liberal construction which has constituted the majority on the Court for the past fifteen years.

With yesterday's action, the Senate has said — that no Southern Federal Appellate Judge who believes in a strict interpretation of the Constitution can be elevated to the Supreme Court.

As long as the Senate is constituted the way it is today, I will not nominate another Southerner and let him be subjected to the kind of malicious character assassination accorded both Judges Haynsworth and Carswell. However, my next nomination will be made in the very near future; a President should not leave that vacancy on the Court when it can be filled. My next nominee will be from outside the South and he will fulfill the criteria of a strict constructionist with judicial experience either from a Federal bench or on a State Appeals Court.

I understand the bitter feeling of millions of Americans who live in the South about the act of regional discrimination that took place in the Senate yesterday. They have my assurance that the day will come when men like Judges Carswell and Haynsworth can and will sit on the High Court.

"Made In Mayfield"

The News joins the Paducah Sun-Democrat and other area newspapers in congratulating the civic and industrial leaders of Mayfield for bringing to successful conclusion their extended effort to land the $20 million Ingersoll-Rand Co. manufacturing plant.

The plant, which will employ approximately 300 persons for its initial operation, will be a boon to all West Kentuckians. The economic benefits to be derived from its construction will be shared by many area workers and firms.

Ingersoll-Rand is a highly respected firm and its products are sold and used throughout the free world. It will be a source of pride to all of us when packing cases start leaving the new plant bearing the legend: "Made in Mayfield, Ky."

BIBLE DIGEST

"And whosoever of you will be the chiefest, shall be servant of all." Mark 10:44

How sad it is that so many of us have yet to realize what a noble position it is to be just a servant.

POET'S CORNER

INVICTUS

Out of the night that covers me,
Black as the Pit from pole to pole,
I thank whatever gods may be
For my unconquerable soul.

In the fell clutch of circumstance
I have not winced nor cried aloud.
Under the bludgeonings of chance
My head is bloody, but unbowed.

Beyond this place of wrath and tears
Looms but the Horror of the shade,
And yet the menace of the years
Finds and shall find me unafraid.

It matters not how strait the gate,
How charged with punishments the scroll,
I am the master of my fate:
I am the captain of my soul.

— William Ernest Henley

FULTON'S

Library Corner

BY LUCY DANIEL

I hope you people haven't forgotten the wonderful selection of books on gardening we have at the Fulton Library. These books will give you information on flowers, shrubs, fruit trees, etc., that you wish to know about. Some of these books are listed below:

10,000 GARDEN QUESTIONS ANSWERED by F. F. Rockwell
This book is indispensable to both the novice and the experienced gardener. Its pages have information on the everyday, practical gardening problems to which thousands of novices as well as long-time gardeners have sought answers — and so often sought in vain.

EVERGREEN AND FLOWERING SHRUBS, by Katherine Cloud.
In any planting scheme, shrubs are the frame, the background, the foundation. And in addition to their decorative function, they have become a must in the ever more popular trend to outdoor living. This book is for the homeowner who wants to landscape his grounds attractively without too much burden on his garden budget.

WILD FLOWERS TO KNOW AND GROW, by Jean Hersey.
Here is a book that shows you how to identify, grow and protect wild flowers. In these days of more and more informal gardening, there is an increasing interest in growing these lovely plants in the home garden. There is helpful information for propagating by seeds and cuttings and for transplanting to new environments. Also information on making terrariums and enjoying native plants as food.

FLOWERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS, by Enid Tangye.
Few aspects of home decoration are as rewarding — and irresistible — as flower arranging. And to guide you on your way, after you have grown your own, is this book on step-by-step instructions. It illustrates the basis of the art; how best to choose and utilize seasonal varieties displays for those extra-special occasions; and how to use different backgrounds to set off your display to best advantage.

A PERFECT LAWN THE EASY WAY, by Paul N. Voykin.
A "golf course lawn" is the envy of every homeowner. In this book the author gives simple, practical, month-by-month guidance appropriate to the particular region in which the homeowner lives. He tells which type of grass to plant ... how and when to fertilize ... plus scores of how-to tips discovered in a life time of professional lawn work.

1001 QUESTIONS ANSWERED ABOUT FLOWERS, by Norman Taylor.
In this informative and delightful book, the author presents a thousand questions and their authoritative answers which lovers of flowers in all their forms and varieties have been eagerly awaiting. Although the book is written in question-and-answer form there is an engaging continuity in its pages. It is move-over, crowded with information of both flowers and plants.

THE MAGIC WORLD OF ROSES, by Matthew Bassity.
Here is an exciting book on roses, as enjoyable to read as it is practical. It records interesting legends about the enthralling Queen of Flowers, traces the history of roses from fossilized flowers to modern varieties, and takes you on an exciting armchair excursion into famous rose gardens of the world.

THE GUIDE TO GARDEN SHRUBS AND TREES, by Norman Taylor.
This book will enable anyone to answer three significant questions: "What is that shrub or tree?" "How do I grow it?" "What can I use it for?" Fortunately most of the plants in the book can be grown in a great variety of garden soils, as evidenced by the fact that they are widely cultivated. This is a book of thoroughness and authority.

GARDEN GUIDE, by Ludwig Koch-Iseburg.
New plants, new materials, new designs call for fresh skills in garden design and layout. The smallest plot can be landscaped to create the best possible visual effect. Stone, concrete, lily ponds, pergolas and benches, if well placed, can enhance the formal or natural surroundings. Here is a book that explains how to gain the fullest enjoyment from fresh-air surroundings at seasonable cost and effort.

FROM THE FILES:

Turning Back The Clock

TWENTY YEARS AGO
April 14, 1950

The Fulton High School Band received an "excellent" rating in its performance at Murray last Saturday, held as a regional preliminary for the State Festival later in the spring. Bandmaster M. C. Cothran stated he was well pleased with the rating and performance of his group, which rated above both Murray and Marion in its class.

Leo Greengrass, manager of the Henry I. Siegel Factory, announced today that about one-half of the company's employees are being called to report for work Monday. Within a week, he stated, all of the nearly 500 employees will be working again.

Jerry Jones, University of Kentucky student from Fulton, was elected by a substantial majority, to head the U. K. Student Government Association for the coming year in an all-University election. He is a fourth-year student in the U. K. College of Law and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Jones of Fulton.

Mrs. R. C. Hutchens, prominent member of the Terry-Norman Parent-Teacher Association, was elected head of that group at the final meeting of the year on Tuesday. Other officers elected were: Mrs. T. J. Kramer, Jr., vice president, Mrs. Jodie Tanner, secretary, and Mrs. Clyde Wood, treasurer.

Erl Sensing, former local newspaperman, has received outstanding recognition via the air waves, when his original story "Silas Deal's Well" was produced over station WNBS in Murray.

Among the recent parties given for Miss Betty Jane Grisham, bride-elect of Bobby Lynch, were:

A lovely dinner at the Derby Cafe honoring the couple, given by Mr. and Mrs. Leon Fields, the guest list including members of the wedding party and out-of-town guests, Sunday evening, April 9th;

Open house by Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Grisham, parents of the bride-elect, on Sunday afternoon, April 9, at their home in Fair Heights, the guest list including out-of-town guests, friends and relatives;

A kitchen shower on Friday, April 7, by Mrs. Joe Bennett, Mrs. Mansfield Martin and Mrs. Robert Batts in the home of Mrs. Bennett on Edgings Street;

Mrs. P. J. Trinea complimented Miss Grisham with a lovely breakfast Monday morning, April 10, at her home on Walnut Street. Miss Grisham was presented two compotes in her crystal pattern. The guests were members of the wedding party and out-of-town guests.

Mrs. J. L. Crockett left last week for Plainville, Kansas, where she will make her home with her daughter, Mrs. R. M. Kirkland, and family.

FORTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

April 7, 1925

Headline: April 20 to 27 is "Hospital Week in Fulton." Don't be a slacker. Buy some stock in Fulton's hospital.

The contract with South Fulton for fire protection service was renewed by the City Council this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Weeks are the proud parents of a son, born Saturday night.

The City Council discussed the paving of Lake Street, but plans to consult with property owners before any action is taken.

New models in Chevrolet for 1925 now being shown by Earle & Taylor include the following: roadster, $525; touring, $525; coupe, $715; sedan $825; coach, $735. These prices are F. O. B. Flint, Mich. Models available with balloon tires and disc or special artillery wheels.

Letters To Editor

House of Representatives
Washington, D. C. 20515
April 10, 1970
Mr. and Mrs. Paul Westpheling
Fulton County News
Fulton, Kentucky
Dear Jo and Paul:

It has been my privilege to represent the First Congressional District of Kentucky since January, 1959, and I am asking to continue the privilege of serving you in the House of Representatives in Washington.

At this particularly critical time in our country, I feel there is no substitute for experienced leadership, and it is my earnest hope that you will return me to Washington that we may continue our work to upgrade West Kentucky that it may truly become an area with all the facilities and benefits that our people deserve.

I am sure you have seen in the news media that I have declared as one of my foremost goals the continuous seeking of Federal financial cooperation looking toward full development of our water and recreational resources that the economic opportunities of the whole area may be broadened for all our people. Naturally, there are too many aspects of Federal help and local cooperation to mention in a letter of this nature; but I want you to know that, as always, I am going to do the very best I can to represent all the people of West Kentucky as I feel they should be represented in the Halls of Congress.

Between now and Primary Election Day on May 26, I am going to spend as much time as I possibly can in the District. With the Congress in session, however, it may be impossible for me to get to see you personally; therefore, I am taking this means of soliciting your help and support.

Kindest, personal regards.

Sincerely,
Frank A. Stubblefield
Member of Congress

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Westpheling
Fulton, Kentucky
Dear Paul and Jo:

My good and trusted man, Rupert Hickerson, mailed me a copy of the Hickman Courier, which was your first as editors and publishers. I congratulate you on your first effort, which I am sure was published under difficult circumstances, but which also indicates what you ultimately will do for Jackson Purchase's oldest continuous publication.

I regret that the Ro Gardner era with the Courier came to such a sad ending, but I was happy to see that you were able to acquire the paper. I am sure you will do a good job with it.

I always had a very warm spot for the people of Fulton County in general, and especially in the Hickman area below the M & O Railroad. I guess because several times they kept me alive politically in the district.

Incidentally, I assume I would be remiss if I didn't express my appreciation for the story on me as released by Mancel Vison and the alumni association at Murray University.

I hope that when you are in Frankfort, you will drop by to see me; and better than that, I look forward to seeing you in West Kentucky soon.

Sincerely,
Harry Lee Waterfield

LETTER OF INTEREST
BROOKS MEMORIAL ART GALLERY
Memphis, Tenn.

Mr. Jubie Henderson
Fulton, Ky.

Dear Mr. Henderson:

Congratulations! You have been chosen to exhibit in this year's annual Artists' Registry. It was the decision of the Board of Governors to exhibit two paintings from each of ten artists.

Please fill in the enclosed form and return it to the Gallery before May 4, 1970. Work should be at the Gallery on or before May 22, 1970.

Again congratulations, and if you have any questions, please feel free to contact me at Brooks Memorial Art Gallery.

Sincerely,
Assistant Curator

To Continue Tobacco Quota

Dark tobacco producers across the Nation voted by mail ballot on whether or not to continue marketing quotas for the next three marketing years. Results for Fulton County are as follows: Air Cured Tobacco - There were 23 votes "Yes" and 4 "No" for a total of 27 votes cast. Fire-Cured Tobacco - There were 15 "Yes" and 4 "No" votes for a total of 19 votes cast.

At least two-thirds voting favorably is required for marketing quotas to be in effect Nationally.

This announcement was made by Roy Bard, Chairman ASC Committee for Fulton County. Ballots for Fulton County were tabulated on February 25, 1970, at the Fulton County ASCS Office.

ANSWERS

THE PEOPLE

Your questions relating to the Commonwealth of Kentucky will be answered. Write Governor Ford at Frankfort, Ky.

A high school senior, Mary G., writes, "I am interested in becoming a registered nurse, but do not have money for nurse's training. Could I get a scholarship?"

Dear Mary: To apply for a nurse's scholarship, write to the director of the nursing school you wish to attend. More nurses are needed in Kentucky, and training is available at most public and several private universities and colleges in Kentucky; also at hospitals in Louisville, Harlan and Ashland, Elizabethtown Community College and Western Kentucky University, at Bowling Green, both near you, are among those offering nurse's training.

Nursing scholarships or loans are readily available for good students, and I encourage you to follow through if you would like to become a nurse. It's a wonderful profession.

Sincerely,
Wendell Ford
Lieutenant Governor

Mr. G. B., of Greensburg, writes: "I have tried through Production Credit Corporation and other sources to get a loan to build a house on my small farm. So far, no luck. Does the State have a farm loan program? I can get character references."

Dear Mr. B.: Last month, the Legislature passed a bill creating the Kentucky Farm Development Authority. If a proposed state bond issue passes, the Authority will have funds with which to guarantee up to $7,500 of loans for purchase of farm lands and for purchase or construction of buildings on farms.

Many people of honest reputation deserve the opportunity to own their own farms, but are prevented by limited assets. The 36 representatives who sponsored this bill hope it promotes farming as a gainful occupation.

If you cannot get a loan from other sources this year, perhaps you would want to check with the Kentucky Farm Development Authority after November.

Sincerely,
Wendell Ford
Lieutenant Governor

Mrs. J. C. W., from Pineville, writes: "We plan a trip to the bluegrass area this spring. Could we sight-see at the lieutenant governor's residence?"

Dear Mrs. W.: Visitors are always welcome. The lieutenant governor's residence is open to sight-seers five days a week (Monday through Friday), 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. Mrs. Ford will show you through. If your visit doesn't fit those hours, let us know and special arrangements can be made.

In Frankfort you'll also enjoy visiting the Capitol building, Daniel Boone's grave, the State Game Farm, the museum in the Old Capitol and the Corner of Celebrities (a pretty square where many famous people were born).

Sincerely,
Wendell Ford
Lieutenant Governor

NEW RECORD

A record 86 new industries came to Kentucky during 1969.

Mrs. W. C. Morrison
● LATHAM

Billy Rea has purchased the old grist mill lot from Leon Mosley and is wrecking the building, preparing it for his mobile home.

Clint Harris is recuperating nicely, following major surgery in a Memphis Hospital recently.

Raymond McNatt is improved sufficiently from major surgery on his foot that he is staying at his home place by himself.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerald McNatt and family spent the week-end on the lake.

Huel Wright, of Dukedom, was a patient at the Fulton Hospital last week, suffering from vertigo.

Mr. and Mrs. Hobart Woodruff spent last Wednesday with their daughter, Mrs. Mildred Melton, and went on a fishing trip. Hobart has been ill for a few months, nice to know he is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Mack Hall (nee Synthia Smith) have secured work in Dresden and will live in the south for a while.

Mr. and Mrs. Z. C. Wheeler spent the week end in Memphis, the guest of their daughter, Yvonne Stevens, and family. They also attended the wedding of Miss Teresa Ann Prince to Joe Brown, of Memphis, Saturday evening. Teresa is the granddaughter of the late Joe Blackard and Montell Jones of Martin and the great niece of Mrs. Ann Durich and Carlos and E. Blackard of Latham.

Mrs. Mollibet Simpson visited Mrs. Ima Harvey in Nashville last week and say Mrs. Harvey isn't any better. Mrs. Severa Mansfield remained with her.

Mrs. Mollibet Simpson had as her guests last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Ray Thomas and family of Dresden, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Puckett and family of Dukedom, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Pounds and family and Mrs. Iva Pounds of Fulton.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Cummings of Lexington, Ky., had the misfortune of losing their compact trailer in the storm last week, by a large tree blowing on it and completely demolishing it. They were thankful that it struck the compact one instead of the one they lived in.

Late reports from Mike Pierce, who was involved in a car wreck last Sunday, in which Mrs. Gable Levister was killed, are that he is in a serious condition. He is the nephew of Mrs. Mavis Parker of Fulton.

Chess Morrison remains about the same. His visitors last Sunday were: Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Blackard, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. McGuire, Mrs. Laura Mathis, Mrs. Madge Cummings, and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Vaughan.

● Chestnut Glade
By Mrs. Harvey Vaughan

All indications are that spring has really arrived during the past week, with much gardening and other farm work causing everyone to be very busy.

Mrs. Durell Terrell honored her mother, Mrs. Jessie Brown, her brother, Billie, and her son, Ray, with a family birthday dinner last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Reed, from Nashville, spent the week-end with his mother, Mrs. Mart Reed, and attended service at Oak Grove Sunday morning.

Mrs. Harvey Vaughan attended the meeting of the Nursing Homes of Weakley County Auxiliary in Dresden last week. A very interesting report was given by those who have participated in the volunteer assistance at each of the homes and of the deep appreciation the patients express. It is hoped that this will be a growing project, with an invitation to any person in the county who has an interest in the work in the Nursing Homes to volunteer their services for an afternoon.

Mrs. Neal Graves or Mrs. Philip Miller, at Martin, will be pleased to arrange a date for anyone who would wish to spend an afternoon to bring cheer to the residents of the homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Brundige visited Mr. and Mrs. George Newberry in the Central Community Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Newberry will be remembered as the first teacher of the first grade at Chestnut Glade School. Best wishes for a speedy recovery to Mrs. Ruby Thompson, who is a patient in the Fulton Hospital.

Friends of Mrs. Henson Jones are very happy to learn the very encouraging report that was given following the major surgery she had at the Obion County Hospital last Friday.

Mrs. Romie Brundige is reported to be improving nicely at her home, following recent surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Vaughan, Mrs. Laverne Owensby and Mrs. Jim Burke attended a meeting, preparing for the annual Cancer Crusade, last Thursday. Plans are being made to visit each home in the county during April. Reports of the many persons who have been cured of this most dreaded killer are most encouraging and it is hoped that everyone will be as generous as possible.

The Chestnut Glade Home Demonstration Club will meet in the home of Mrs. Harvey Vaughan, with Mrs. Lucy Gibbs the hostess, for the regular April meeting. Visitors are welcome.

OLDEST RESIDENT DIES

Miss Savannah Eakers, reportedly Fulton County's oldest resident, died last week at her home in Hickman at the age of 101.

Rev. Bobby Copeland filled his appointment at New Salem Baptist Church the past Sunday at 11 a. m. Sunday School was held at 10 a. m. The evening worship was called off due to the Bible Institute being in progress at Hodges Chapel and Pastor Copeland was engaged for Sunday night service there. Many of the New Salem members were attending the service at Hodges Chapel.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Vincent and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hicks, near Pilot Oak, were Sunday afternoon visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Grover True. Mrs. Chap Johnson was also a visitor of the True family.

Get well wishes are extended to Mrs. LaVada McClure, who is a patient in Hillview Hospital, undergoing treatment and tests. We hope she will improve very soon.

Mr. and Mrs. David Lassiter, of Akron, Ohio, arrived Friday morning to spend the week end with parents, Mr. and Mrs. Buton Lassiter. Visitors Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Lassiter and sons, Mark, Steven and Barry, of Martin.

While working in the Welch school building the past week, Johnnie Scallion was injured by falling debris. He is in Volunteer Hospital, suffering from a broken pelvis bone and bruises. We hope he will respond and very quickly be restored.

Hal, young son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bynum, has returned home, after several days treatment in Hillview Hospital the past week, where he was suffering from an infection. He is able to re-enter the Palmersville Elementary School today (Monday).

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Mathis, of the Weakley County Rest Home, spent the week end with children. Mr. and Mrs. Basil Mathis, and visited Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Buton Lassiter. Each is feeling much better and returned to the home Sunday afternoon.

It was family gathering time for the Bynum children Sunday, and Miss Margaret Bynum was the hostess for Sunday dinner. Those attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Sam Mathis and daughters, Sammie Jane, Liz and Becky, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Hawks, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bynum and son Hal. All enjoyed the day and the bountiful meal.

Bro. Dennis Crutchfield filled his regular appointment at Knob Creek Church of Christ the past Sunday at 11 a. m.

● GOOD SPRINGS
Mrs. Hillman Westbrook

Sermon topic for Bro. Stover's sermon on April 18 at Good Springs will be "The Chosen Community." This is the first in a series on "The Church." You have an invitation to join in this worship service at 9:45.

Homecoming Day is getting closer and closer. The Family Five Quartet have promised to be on hand the fourth Sunday in May. You come.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Matt Cunningham are the parents of a new 9-pound, red-haired son, born in Fulton last Thursday.

Joe Williamson bought the B. G. Casey home-place last Friday and Velda Hawks and son bought the two Tucker places.

Grace Armstrong and Jimmie were guests of Mrs. Myrtle Latta for lunch at Park Terrace Restaurant last Saturday.

Theda Sanderson continues unimproved at her home.

Mrs. Oren Stover has not been as well as usual and is under a doctor's care at her home.

Mrs. Carl Young has gone to a special hospital at Columbus, Ohio, for further tests and treatment.

Mrs. Randall Brown entered Fulton Hospital Saturday for treatment of a deep and persistent cold.

Mrs. Loyd Wilds is in the Fulton Hospital since Sunday and is very sick.

Good Springs C. P. W. met in the home of Mrs. Loyd Watkins for an all-day meeting on Thursday. The study book, "China In Change," was presented by various members.

There will be a pot-luck supper at the church on Friday night at seven o'clock, with a program following. Mrs. Loyd Watkins is in charge of this meeting. Everyone is invited.

Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Ainley were in Murray Sunday, visiting her sister and husband.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bruce spent Sunday with her uncle, Crafton Milner, at Bardwell.

Due to so much sickness, the attendance was off some, compared with former Sundays.

Farmers all over this area got busy last week and did quite a bit of discing and breaking of crop lands. Tobacco seed beds are getting up to a good stand, indicative of transplanting the early part of May. Early gardens are looking better and planted. House cleaning is now the order of the day.

Obion County Rabies Clinics Will Be Held April 20-30

The Obion County Sanitarian has announced that the Health Department will sponsor Rabies Clinics from April 20 to 30.

The clinics will be held throughout Obion County in 26 locations. Citizens should be reminded that rabies is a disease that cannot be treated or cured after it develops. However, the disease can be prevented and mainly by these two ways: (1) by keeping at least 80 percent of the community's dog population vaccinated at all times,

(2) by getting immediate medical attention after being bitten by a suspected rabid animal. If bitten by a suspected rabid animal, the County Sanitarian suggests these three steps be taken immediately. (1) Wash the wound immediately with soap and water. Scrub thoroughly. Consult a doctor or report to the Health Department quickly, to find out if further treatment is necessary. (2) DO NOT KILL the animal. In the early stages of rabies, examination of the dead animal's head may not show evidence of the disease. (3) Capture the animal, if possible, and keep it penned up for ten days. If it remains alive and well during this time, it proves it was not rabid at the time of biting.

The cost of the vaccinations is $1.50 for one year and $3.00 for three years.

CHEMICAL WEED CONTROL ON THE INCREASE

From all indications we will have a tremendous increase in the use of chemical herbicides to control grass and weeds in Obion County this year on corn, cotton, and soybeans. The big increase will be in the use of preemergence herbicides since a large percentage of corn has had 2, 4-D applied as a postemergence spray in past years. Atrazine gave excellent results on several thousand acres of Obion County corn last year. A few farmers that had trouble with smooth crab grass or fall panicum this year will be going to Simazine, Lasso, or Sutan.

Since corn planting has started we have observed Obion County farmers either buying, installing on tractor, or reworking preemergence outfalls. The preemergence chemical herbicides that we recommend on corn this year include: Atrazine, Simazine, 2, 4-D, Lasso, or Sutan.

The recommended preemergence chemicals for cotton include: Cotoran, Dacthal, Karmex, Herban, Caparol, Treflan, and Planavin.

The soybean preemergence chemicals include: Amben, Dacthal, Dinoseb, Alnap Plus, Treflan, Planavin and Dyanap and Lasso.

DOGWOOD BORERS

Mid-April is the time to start control of dogwood borers. The adult borer is a blue-black moth with some yellow markings and narrow, transparent wings. The larvae, the destructive stage of the borer, is white or cream-colored with a reddish-brown head. It is an inch long when full grown.

The female borer lays eggs from mid-April through mid-October. The newly hatched larvae bore directly into the bark and feed just under the bark of the tree, seriously damaging and often killing the tree.

To control borers, spray the trunk of the tree and the main branches with Lindane, Dieldrin, or Thiodan. Spray at 28 day intervals, beginning April 15 and ending October 15 for a total of seven applications. This will insure maximum protection.

Brady Williamson Gains 110-Bushel Corn Yield With "No-Till" Planting

Corn planting time is here! It is time to think about planting your corn and soybeans by the no-till method of planting.

There are several advantages to this type of planting your row crops. Some of these advantages are: (1) Land with steeper slopes can be used for crop production more often with reduced erosion hazards if properly managed. (2) Sods and past crop residue mulch on the surface of the soil will conserve moisture needed later in the growing season. (3) Cost of production may be reduced from three to five dollars per acre from reduced labor requirements. (4) Soil structure remains in good condition by doing away with tillage operations. (5) With good management, yields are equal or better than those from conventional planting methods. (6) Can plant earlier due to lack of the need to plow before planting. Planting can be done in small grain or sod crops without plowing.

Brady Williamson, as well as many other farmers in the county, planted several acres of no-till corn last year. One of the methods of planting he used was in aerial seeded small grain. The cover crop was sprayed after planting with herbicide to kill present growth and to prevent weeds and grass competition in the corn crop. Fallen vegetation will conserve moisture and help reduce erosion. His yield was 110 bushels per acre with this type of planting last year.

For more information on no-till planting, contact the U. S. D. A. Soil Conservation Service in the Post Office Building at Hickman, Ky., or call 236-2418.

Brady Williamson of the Logeston School Community inspects corn being planted by the no-till method. The corn was planted last year in aerial seeded wheat. Yield for the field was 110 bushels per acre.

SOUTHSIDE—

(Continued from Page One) Bard Texaco Station around 1950 and was known as the Jackson Drug Store, and was run by Jackson and Kate Foy. After a short few months in this location, the store was moved on Main Street next to what was at that time the Haws Hospital and shortly thereafter sold to Dr. Eddie Crocker and associates. Employees during this period included Douglas Taylor, pharmacist, Vivian Brown and Dorothy McKnight.

Around 1959 the store was again moved to the Tennessee side, this time to the corner of Broadway and State Line. On January 1, 1961, Hendon Wright and Dr. Crocker became sole owners. On July 15, 1961, Charles Wade Andrews purchased the interests of Dr. Crocker in the firm and joined it as an active partner and registered pharmacist.

Philip Andrews, a young brother of Charles Wade and also a registered pharmacist, joined the firm following his graduation from Pharmacy school in 1966.

Employees during this period included Douglas Taylor, Dorothy McKnight, Thelma Covington, Mrs. Ancil Hall, Estelle Hill, Mrs. Margie Lowery, Donna Brown, Carolyn Ross, and Donna Chandler.

Southside's growing clientele, plus a lack of adequate parking facilities at the State Line location, have contributed to its desire to move to more spacious quarters where it could better serve the needs of its customers. It was this, plus the attractive location of the new Southern Village Shopping Center, that have brought about the construction of the new building in its new location.

The firm handles many well-known lines of perfumes, cosmetics, candies, cameras and gift items.

Besides H. O. Wright, Charles Wade and Philip Andrews, other fulltime employees now include Marjorie (Mrs. Bob) Lowery, Carolyn (Mrs. Billy Joe) Chandler, Carolyn (Mrs. Harold) Ross and Gene Wilson, delivery.

ing "a real fight" with the other as small boys. "Seldom do we disagree now," Tom said; "when we do, our arguments never last over a minute or two." A big smile lit up his face, a smile just as infectious as Jim's.

As they look back on their four years at Murray State they think of the professors' confusion. "Although most professors made no real effort to distinguish between us, those under whom we have had more than one course know us individually," Jim said. "Sometimes an instructor would ask, 'Are you Tom or Jim?'"

One major difference between the brothers is that Tom is engaged to be married in June, 1971. His fiancée is Miss Lois Wooten, a senior from Madisonville, Ky., who is one of identical twin girls.

The mention of Tom's engagement prompted the question whether either had ever substituted for the other on a date. "No," they chorused, each flashing a big smile.

As they near graduation and entrance to different medical schools, Jim and Tom share the desire to deal directly with people and serve them—and, in Jim's words, "to be a Christian witness to people."

Seek To Limit Doctors' Fees

WASHINGTON — The House Ways and Means Committee is considering a proposal to control the soaring costs of government health programs by limiting doctors' fees to those charged by most physicians—not the highest-priced ones.

The limitation proposal described as the "75th doctor plan," is reported to be gaining favor at closed-door meetings of the committee, although no votes have been taken.

Fees charged by doctors in a community for comparable services would be tabulated and the limit set at the highest level charged by any doctor in the lower 75 per cent.

There is no fixed ceiling now on payments to doctors under Medicare, the Social Security program of health care for persons 65 or older, or Medicaid, a similar plan for low-income persons.

The committee also is trying to work out a system for fixing hospital charges in advance.

Forest Fires In State Destroy 1,115 Acres

FRANKFORT, Ky. — The Forestry Division says 130 forest fires were reported around Kentucky Wednesday, causing the death of a Columbia man and destroying 1,115 acres.

An outbreak of 90 fires last month burned more than 1,000 acres of timber.

Officials warned that generally dry conditions and lack of greenery so far make woods and fields easy prey for wind-swept fires.

The two big fires Wednesday were in Grayson County and a second occurred later in Bullitt County.

Eugene Bell, 36, Columbia, died from burns after trying to move a truck from a flaming barn on a farm owned by Lindset Wilson College.

Firefighters said Bell, the father of nine, was burning a tobacco bed when wind swept the flames into a nearby field.

Debbie Wins Spelling Bee For 3rd Time

Debbie has done it again. For the third consecutive year Debbie Osborne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Osborne of Rives, has captured the Fulton County Spelling Championship.

It was three years ago that little Debbie first spelled down everyone in sight to become one of the few sixth graders to ever win the contest for youngsters of grades six through eight.

WANTED

Swarms of honey bees March 28 to June 1 are the swarming season, weather permitting. I will pay small fee for them. Call 479-1733, South Fulton, Peep living within 20 miles of Fulton may call collect.

Anyone I promised honey for swarms of bees last year, come by July 1st and pick it up.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture is the authority for the statement that at least fifty of our planted crops are dependent largely or in part on the honey bee for proper fertilization.

Anyone wanting bees for pollination of alfalfa, the clovers, vetch, etc., may contact

Allen's Apiary
311 Holmes Street
South Fulton, Tennessee

However, this will be the last year other spellers will have to contend with Debbie as she is now an eighth grader and will no longer be eligible to demonstrate her skills in the contest.

Taking second place was Cathy Robison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cletus Robison of Cloverdale.

Ironically the third place winner, Lynne Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W.H. Barker of South Fulton, captured that same honor last year.

"Paralyze" was the word that floored Cathy and, when Debbie corrected the spelling and spelled the next word, "disguise," correctly she was the queen of the mountain once again.

The big stumbling block for Lynne was "supersede."

Debbie will now represent Fulton County May 1 in the Mid-South Spelling Bee in Memphis.

Other spellers were Cindy Jones of Central, Crispy Cooper of Hornbeak, Melinda Abbott of Obion, Kelly McDaniel of Dixie, Barbara Cooper of Kenton, Denise Miller of Westover, Kathy Weeks, of East Side, Verna Albee of Miles, Donna Turner of Troy and Kathy Wheeler of Woodland.

Intercity Golf

Tourney Planned

The first Intercity Golf Tournament of the season will be held Tuesday, April 21, at the Fulton Country Club, a spokesman for the local Ladies Golf Association announced today.

The 18 hole handicap tournament will begin at 9 a.m. and lunch will be served at the conclusion of play.

Reservations should be made with Lavanche Nailling, Ph. 885-3223, by April 12th.

Fulton BPW Celebrates Anniversary

FULTON, Ky. — Approximately 75 members and guests attended the 11th anniversary dinner meeting of the Fulton Business and Professional Women's Club at the Park Terrace Restaurant.

There were guests present from Murray, Mayfield, Paducah, Union City, Martin and Benton.

Following the dinner, special music was provided by Mrs. Freddie Bugg of Clinton, accompanied by Mrs. T. W. Templeton, also of Clinton.

Miss Anna Lou Caldwell, president, introduced the speaker, Mrs. Marie C. Humphries, chairman of the Kentucky Commission on Women.

Mrs. Humphries gave a talk on the status of women in Kentucky, as well as in the nation, using self-evaluation and objectivity as her main theme.

In speaking of women's struggle for equal pay for equal work, Mrs. Humphries stated that, in most instances, women have only themselves to blame for their inability to obtain this goal. They under-value themselves.

Special guests of the club were Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Jones, the Rev. and Mrs. James Best, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Speight, whose homes were opened for the Christmas tour; also Cynthia Humphries, daughter of the speaker, who accompanied her mother from Louisville.

McCartney Says

He's Leaving The Beatles

LONDON — Paul McCartney announced today that he's split from the Beatles but said he may be back.

This first open rift in the world's top pop group was announced from Apple, the company which manages Beatles affairs.

Paul, 27-year-old song writer, lead guitar and singer, blamed the break on "personal differences, business differences, musical differences—but most of all because I have a better time with my family."

McCartney is married to an American, Linda Eastman. They have a 7-month-old daughter, Mary, and Linda has another daughter, Heather, by an earlier marriage.

McCartney's statement, issued alongside his first solo album, said he does not know whether the rift is permanent or temporary.

Mavis Smith, a spokesman for Apple, said today it has been months since McCartney saw John Lennon, his song-writing partner, and the other Beatles, Ringo Starr and George Harrison.

All four in recent months have gone separate ways, although all are tied to 10-year Beatles contracts that don't end until 1977.

Officers Confiscate 600 Cases Of Beer

CLINTON, Ky., — Two Mississippi residents will be tried in Hickman County Court April 21 on two charges regarding alcoholic beverages.

The men, Hollis A. Jourdan Jr., and Cecil C. Searcy, appeared today before Judge Willis Jackson. Judge Jackson granted the men a continuance of their case until the trial date on a motion by their attorney, Tom Garrett of Paducah.

Jourdan and Searcy were arrested by State Police Detective Joe Hill about 5 p.m. Tuesday on the Purchase Parkway in Hickman County. They were charged by Hill with transporting beer on a state highway without a malt beverage transporter's license. Hill said he found a total of 600 cases of beer in the two-ton truck which was driven by Searcy. The vehicle was owned by Jourdan, he added.

The men also were charged by Kentucky Alcoholic Beverage Control agent Carmi Page with possession of alcoholic beverages in local option territory for resale.

Jourdan, 28, of Roenli, Miss., and Searcy, 48, of Baldwin, Miss., were permitted to remain free under a bond of $2,000 each.

Hill said he confiscated both the truck and the beer as contraband. The 600 cases of beer was purchased in Paducah, and was valued at $2,610 wholesale.

If Jourdan and Searcy are convicted, they face penalties of fines of $100 to $200 and/or six months in jail on the first charge and a fine of $20 to $100 and 30 to 90 days in jail on the possession charge.

If they are convicted, the truck and beer can be declared contraband by the state.

Waterfield, Doran Named Regents

FRANKFORT, Ky. — Gov. Louie B. Nunn announced Friday appointments to a number of universities and colleges.

Dr. Coy E. Ball of Owensboro was named to the Western Kentucky University board for a four-year term, replacing Dr. Chalmers Embury of Owensboro whose term expired.

Joe Lane Travis of Glasgow was named to Western for a four-year term replacing Douglas Keen of Scottsville whose term expired. Travis, an attorney, was a law partner of Nunn.

Former Lt. Gov. Harry Lee Waterfield of Frankfort was named to Murray State, replacing Bill Powell of Paducah, whose term expired.

Harold Glenn Doran of Murray was named to Murray, replacing O.B. Springer of Henderson whose term expired.

Doran is president of the People's Bank at Murray.

Lester G. Mimms of Earlington was named to the Kentucky State College board to succeed F.E. Whitney of Hopkinsville whose term expired. Mimms is a principal at Earlington High School.

Nunn made these appointments to the commission on higher education:

Dennis F. Kinlaw, Asbury College president, to replace Georgetown College President Robert Mills.

Lees Junior College President Troy Eslinger to replace Sue Bennett Junior College President Earl Hays of London.

Eastern Kentucky President Robert Martin reappointed.

Mrs. Faye Ward Little of Paint Lick to replace Mrs. Judy Babbage of Lexington. Mrs. Little is a retired teacher, principal and superintendent in the Garrard County school system.

Luda V. Dixon of Louisville to replace George T. Ross of Richmond. Dixon is a teacher at Jefferson High School.

Ed Schottenstein of Louisville to replace Frank B. Simpson of Hopkinsville. Schottenstein is an attorney.

The governor reappointed

Marshall Eligible For Aid

BENTON, Ky. — Organizations and individuals in Marshall County now are eligible to apply for financial assistance made available by the Economic Development Administration.

U.S. Rep. Frank Albert Stubblefield has announced that the county has designated a Redevelopment Area under the Public Works and Economic Development Act of 1965, making residents eligible for application for the funds.

Stubblefield said he feels that the federal assistance will be of benefit in attracting additional industry to the county, since federal funds will assist in supplying the facilities industries need.

It's about time, he said, to do your bit to help make America beautiful again.

'Miss West Kentucky' Contest Is Planned

West Kentucky Area Vocational School has set up six working committees for its annual "Miss West Kentucky" contest.

James Floyd and Miss Juana K. Anderson, general chairman, Harris, to coordinate activities has announced that the grand prize for this year's winner will be a color TV.

Committee I, chaired by T. R. Wright, is planning a kick-off assembly program at which time the purpose of the contest will be explained and the contestants day activities set for Friday, representing each department May 29. The coronation ball will be held at the Jaycee Civic Center.

A faculty committee, chaired by C. Hixon, will work with a student committee, chaired by James Floyd and Miss Juana K. Anderson, to coordinate activities for the "Miss West Kentucky" Day, which will be celebrated in the fashion of a picnic at WKVS campus.

The crowning of "Miss West Kentucky" and the coronation ball will culminate the student day activities set for Friday, representing each department May 29. The coronation ball will be held at the Jaycee Civic Center.

MVP Awards Presented At South Fulton's All-Sports Banquet

SOUTH FULTON, Tenn.—
 Most Valuable Player awards went to Johnny McGuire (football), Ralph Jackson (basketball) and Marilyn Hardy (basketball) at South Fulton's first annual All-Sports banquet held at the South Fulton cafeteria
 Monday night.

This is one of the highest athletic awards a player can receive, and the selection is made by secret ballot of the teams.

All three MVP award winners are seniors.

McGuire is the son of Mr.
 and Mrs. Elson McGuire; Jackson's parents are Mr. and Mrs.
 Ralph Jackson; and Miss Hardy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
 W. W. Hardy.

Other athletic awards included the 110 per cent award,
 a new honor at South Fulton, given for the boy or girl, who has given a little extra effort in each game. This, too, is a coveted honor. John Douglas was the football winner, Jerry Oliver and Nancy Bagwell, the basketball winners.

Best defensive football player was Ralph Jackson and Tommy Bodker was the best offensive player.

In boys basketball, Dale Yates was the best free throw shooter and Gary Jetton had the best field goal percentage.

For the Devillets, Julie Bard was the best free thrower and Judy Henderson's field goal percentage was the best.

All awards were trophies and presentations were made by coaches Terry Beades, Kerry
 Curling and David Brann.

Mrs. Philip Andrews cheerleader sponsor, presented the
 "Miss Congeniality" award to Jackie Hollie, and Barry Blackwell and John Dunker tied for the "Most Enthusiastic" student. This award is given by the cheerleaders squad.

Bill Furgerson, head football coach at Murray State University, was the principal speaker and delighted the crowd with many funny stories. Then he spoke briefly in a serious vein, telling the young athletes that pride, loyalty, dedication, and sincerity are all necessary for the athlete.

Milk Output Up; Russia Still Leads

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. — World milk production in 1969 was about 717 billion pounds, up 1 per cent from 1968. Russia was again the leading producer, with 167.3 billion pounds, up 3 per cent. The United States continued in second place with 116.2 billion pounds, off 1 per cent.

'Black Power' Lecture Series Set At MSU

MURRAY, Ky. — A chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People and currently chairman of the Black Methodist Church Renewal program.

The Rev. Otis Moss, Cincinnati, a former associate of the late Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.; Charles Billings, Department of Education, University of Kentucky, and an advisor to the Black Student Union at UK.

Preston Ewing, a black community leader at Cairo, Ill.; Dr. P. C. Brooks, a Hopkinsville physician; Jimmy Baxter, president of the student body at the University of Tennessee.

Dr. Pchike Onwauchi, professor of political science at Fisk University, Nashville; and James A. Crumlin, a Louisville attorney.

"The basic purpose of Umojo," Disman said, "is to promote a conducive atmosphere for the understanding of this most controversial term of 'black power'."

"We hope, through these representatives of many facets of the black movement in America, to foster a better understanding among the listening audiences of 'black power' so the fact that it is a part of the American mainstream of life will be accepted more readily," he added.

Tickets for the entire series are on sale in the Waterfield Student Union Building on the Murray State campus at $2.00 each, and individual session tickets are priced at 50 cents each.

Failure To Invest Costs Counties Millions A Year

NASHVILLE — Many of Tennessee's 95 county governments are losing a total of $2 million annually by just putting their money in banks rather than investing it, officials of the state comptroller's office said Thursday.

State auditors noted Robertson County as an example, saying the county had $1.6 million available at the end of February that could have been invested.

However, the officials said that tiny Overton County has long had an investment program which has saved the residents an increase in the tax rate.

Ralph Harris, assistant comptroller for county audit, said that Sumner County also had a working investment program with more than $1 million invested which will earn more than $100,000 this fiscal year.

"In view of what has been called a government financial crisis," the comptroller auditors reported, "it is difficult to conceive that any agency of local government could disregard the need for and rewards of proper money management."

The money used in investing is tax collections made early in the year which are not needed usually until the middle of the calendar year—the end of the county fiscal year.

The state officials said objections to the investments because they take money out of the hands of the county when it may be needed to meet emergency demands can be met with a planned investment program.

Blanket Tax Increase Warned By Commissioner

FRANKFORT, Ky. — State Revenue Commissioner James Luckett said orders may go out for another assessment increase in counties where property valuation standards are not up to the court-ordered 100 per cent level.

Luckett said Saturday it is too early to tell which counties may get the increases imposed by the state this year, but noted that recent figures show 51 counties are eligible unless their assessments have been raised since 1968.

The counties had assessment levels below 85 per cent in the figures released for 1967-68 by Luckett's department earlier this year.

The property assessment levels are normally determined by the county property valuation administrator (the new legislative-approved title), but state law gives the Revenue Department power to raise or lower assessment levels.

"Many counties are doing a fairly effective job of looking at their assessments and equalizing the low ones," Luckett said. "It is our judgment that there will be a much better assessment this year than in past years."

He declined to say what assessment level would be applied this year, but implied it would be higher than the former 85 per cent level.

Luckett said no state increases were ordered last year because the department did not want to become involved in the election of county officials including property valuation administrators.

Discipline is something for every child to learn but the lesson requires a wise teacher.

Injunction Sought By Students

A second request for a temporary injunction against Fulton County High School officials has come from eight Negro students.

The students asked for the court order against the Hickman school dress and appearance code in a complaint filed with the U.S. District Court Clerk in Paducah.

The complaint also requested a "speedy hearing" on merits of the students' charge that the dress code was unconstitutional.
U.S. District Judge James Gordon is expected to hold court sessions in Paducah April 20.

The complaint against the dress code stems from the expulsion of the students Feb. 2 for not shaving. The group was readmitted to classes after Judge Gordon held a hearing on the case in Louisville March 11.

The new dress and appearance code was adopted afterward by the county board of education and the students were again expelled for not shaving.

The county board on March 27 ruled that the dismissals would stand.

The complaint contends the school board failed to show that the students appearance "disrupted decorum, prevented proper scholastic discipline."

The complaint also charged the code with denying individual freedom of expression.

Negro To Teach
At Murray State

MURRAY, Ky. — Ernest
T. Brooks, a native of Hopkinsville, will become the first
Negro ever to teach at Murray
State University next fall.

He will be an assistant professor of guidance and counseling.

The MSU board of regents
also approved a general fund budget of $13,591,742 for the 1970-71 fiscal year Monday.

People who enjoy resting should not mind working;
without labor there can be no
real recreation.

Named Tennessee

Merit Mother

JOHNSON CITY, Tenn.
— Irene Miller of Johnson City has been named Tennessee Merit Mother of the Year.

Mrs. Miller was chosen for the honor because of her hard-working caring for her 26-year-old son, David Kent, who has been 95 per cent paralyzed since the age of 6.

David, a victim of bulbar
polio, can move only his fingers and head and has been confined to an iron lung most of the time for the past 20 years.

Mrs. Miller was singled out because she didn't allow her son to become an invalid.

She wanted him to have an education and she worked diligently to get him to college. The young man is now an honor student at East Tennessee State University with a 3.9 grade point average out of a possible 4.0.

Mrs. Miller drives her son to school each day, lifting him in and out of her car in his wheelchair. She earns her living as a seamstress.

Mrs. Miller was chosen for the merit mother honor by the Tennessee representatives of the American Mothers Committee, Inc., of New York City.

The best advice for modern young people, facing all sorts of propaganda, is the single,
simple word: Think.

State Teachers To Get $100 To $300 Pay Raises

NASHVILLE — Tennessee's teachers will get raises this year ranging from $100 for those with less than a B.S. degree to $300 for those with doctorates.

The State Board of Education approved the raises Friday after the 1970 legislature granted
what amounted to an average raise of $200 per teacher from revenues accruing from the growth of the state's economy and another $100 from the extension of the franchise tax to national banks.

The board also approved the establishment of doctorate programs in biology, home economics teacher education and medical record library science at Memphis State University; a baccalaureate program for a major in both education and home economics and a masters in geography at Middle Tennessee; and an associate degree in accounting technology at Memphis State Technical Institute.

The board authorized the installation of artificial grass at the stadiums in which Austin Peay and Tennessee Tech play their home football games. Austin Peay will pay $300,000 for its share of the cost of the artificial turf at the Clarksville Municipal Stadium. Tennessee
Tech's turf will be paid for by Putnam County and Tech will grant Putnam County Schools
the right to use the stadium under a long-term lease arrangement.
