FINE OF $20 TO $100 FOR CUTTING, TEARING OR MUTILATING BOOKS, NEWS PAPERS OR PERIODICALS BELONGING TO PUBLIC LIBRARIES

WINNER OF Kentucky Press Association BEST ALL-AROUND NEWS-PAPER AWARD 1953

I am sure now that newspaper publishers have rocks in the head... as if maybe you didn't know it.
But life can be crazy or sum-pin... and such goings on are not reserved exclusively for newspaper folks.

The other day as I pounded the pavements on Paul's beat when he was away I saw a fellow walking out of the Postoffice with a good sized load of printed envelopes in his arms. They were printed by the United States Government printing office, at I am told, a cheaper price than any local printer can do them.

Sez I to myself, now that's a heck of a note. I thought about it all day long and I kept figuring it this way. If we made a dollar today our competitor, the United States Government would get so darned much out of it that it would scare heck out of what was left. As a matter of fact I'd have to borrow a little to make ends meet after I figured it this way.

Every week I act as a tax collector for free for the Government, collecting social security and income taxes from our employees. Let's say I was paid 75 cents an hour, which I am not, that leaves 25 cents of the dollar. Out of that I match the employees' two cents on social security and that leaves me 23 cents.

Then at the end of the year we pay two and one-fourth cents for our own social security, since we are self-employed... that leaves about twenty cents.

If I borrowed 25 cents from my reserve to relax from worrying and brought a package of cigarettes I would have to pay about eight cents tax on the package, that leaves twelve cents. If my feet got tired and I used the car for a trip or two and brought a gallon of gas I'd pay about ten cents taxes... that leaves two cents.

If we made a little more than it takes to feed a family of four each year after deductions we pay 22 cents on the dollar in income taxes. That makes us twenty cents overdrawn on our dollar. Then have to pay three cents on the dollar for unemployment taxes for our employees, that's twenty-three cents. We can't get unemployment... we just starve to death.

Every three months I have to report tax collections to the Government and make forms and get balances for all the taxes collected during that period. That takes at least two hours at 75 cents, per. That's $1.50, or fifty cents a month. Time I donate to Uncle Sugar... that's 73 cents overdrawn. Of course the postage in remitting, the envelopes, the time of the front office assistant... I throw in for nothing, since I'm not about to be paid for my services.

Now here I am, sez I, leaving the office to go out and work like mad to meet expenses, and I've got 73 cents overdraw hanging over my head, maybe more, to pay in taxes and yet the fellow to whom I owe that 73 cents is underselling us in our business.

Rocks in the head... brother, the gimmick is to do the Government printing, be subsidized for cost-plus the Government takes on each order of envelopes. When they go to printing over-draft notices and sell to banks to advise us that our bank account is overdrawn... we'll take the rocks out of the head and put holes in it!

Private Citizens Protest $100,000 Park Bond Issue

A representative group of prominent and large Fulton taxpayers appeared before a called meeting of the City Council Monday night to protest the issuance of a $100,000 bond issue for a recreational program. No individual who protested represented any particular group and all appeared as private citizens and taxpayers.

It was the consensus of those protesting that a program of street improvement, sewage and other civic projects were needed greater than the recreational program. While none deemed the program inadvisable they commented in the vein that "first things must come first."

The council met to vote whether or not the bond issue should be put on the ballot this

Hagan Check Voided; Court Hears Motion and Response

Kentucky Statutes got a good work out last week as James Warren and Jennings Kearby local attorneys argued before Judge Elvis Stahr last Thursday in Hickman. Thursday was "motion day" in the circuit court. Jennings Kearby entered a motion to prohibit the City of Fulton from paying its City Attorney James Warren a fee of five dollars, which plaintiff James H. Hagan alleged was collected by Judge Perce for James Warren when Mr. Warren was not present at a police court trial.

Jennings Kearby attorney for the plaintiffs appeared before the Judge at three o'clock last Thursday to present his motion. He was on time.

Kearby contended for his clients that Warren had no right to the fee under Kentucky Statutes. Warren contended in his response that if requested or advised by the plaintiffs or their attorney, he would have disclaimed the fee and that until this suit was brought and summons served upon him he had no notice that plaintiffs contended that the costs or any portion thereof were payable to him. Even though, according to Warren he was not notified, Judge Perce acted on Warren's previous orders to collect the fee.

In his response Warren stated that no claim had been filed by the City Attorney for payment of the five dollars. Records at the City Hall indicate that Warren has never filed an actual claim for a fee, his commissions are tallied and he is paid near the end of each month. Kentucky statute KRS 69.550 stipulates that the city pay the attorney's commission at their next regular council meeting instead of permitting the city clerk to pay it to the city attorney before the next council meeting as has been the practice since January 27, 1954.

At four-thirty the whole thing was over. James Warren appeared at three thirty five with a response, which stated that he disclaimed any interest in the fee which the Hagan brothers were seeking to recover.

The attorney for the Hagens looked the time factor in the face. The suit was filed on August 24. According to records at the City Hall Mr. Warren is paid his salary and commissions on or about 25th or 30th of each month.

In order that the City Clerk, who was also named as a defendant in the suit, would not pay the fee to Warren before the plaintiff had an opportunity to recover it he filed a motion seeking to enjoin the city from paying Mr. Warren the fee.

Judge Stahr in an explanation to this newspaper said that he tried to explain to Kearby that an injunction is an extraordinary writ and cannot be issued by any judge until and after the applicant swears that unless issued great and irreparable injury will result.

In keeping with a practice that has been in effect since January of this year the salary of the City Attorney was paid prior to the regular meeting of the City Council. Kentucky Statute quoted elsewhere in this issue sets forth the time when the City Attorney should be paid his commission and salary.

September 1 a check was signed by the Mayor and City Clerk in payment for Mr. Warren's August salary which amounted to $515, the largest thus far since the new salary arrangement. Warren's commission arrangement amounted to $485 and his salary for other services $110, making a total of $595.

The next council meeting is on September 13 since the first Monday falls on September 6, Labor Day.

able injury will result.

Judge Stahr told the News: "I spent about half the afternoon trying to convince the attorney that I would hear testimony if it would avail anything, but everyone could see that it could not help in any respect and especially so in view of the response filed a few minutes after the motion was filed which admitted the City Attorney was not due the five dollars fee and did not earn it under the circumstances as no fine was assessed was not legally due it."

No explanation has been made to this newspaper concerning other fees collected for Mr. Warren as city prosecutor when he was out of the city. A case in point is a warrant issued on June 9, 1954 against A. L. Albertine for drunken driving. Albertine was fined $107.50. Warren received 30 per cent of this amount as prosecutor. James Warren on June 9, 1954 was in Springfield, Missouri in connection with a grand jury investigation.

The $750 check given to the City of Fulton by the Hagan brothers has been voided and no court costs were collected.

Here's what happened!
On August 17 James Hagan was arrested for operating a coin amusement machine without a license. He was hauled into police court. There he paid the $10 fee for operating the machine. He also paid $2.10 penalty and interest. Judge Perce then told him to pay $7.50 costs for the trial. When Hagan asked why the charges the Judge said that $2.50 was for court costs and $5.00 for Warren's fee as prosecutor. Warren was not present. When Mr. Hagan protested paying the fee for Warren, Judge Perce said that he was instructed by the City Attorney to make the collection in all cases.

Judge Perce told the News last week and again this week that he was instructed by Warren shortly after the ordinance was enacted to make the fee collection, and even in view of the present controversy has not been instructed otherwise.

The Hagan brothers, doing business as the Dairy Queen employed Jennings Kearby to recover fee. In a suit filed in circuit court he stated that the Judge and the Mayor refused to refund the money.

The attorney for the Hagens looked the time factor in the face. The suit was filed on August 24. According to records at the City Hall Mr. Warren is paid his salary and commissions on or about 25th or 30th of each month.

In order that the City Clerk, who was also named as a defendant in the suit, would not pay the fee to Warren before the plaintiff had an opportunity to recover it he filed a motion seeking to enjoin the city from paying Mr. Warren the fee.

DISTRICT SHERIFFS TALK OVER WORK

Sheriffs of the First District met Friday, August 26, at Kentucky Dam Village for a luncheon and open discussion of the Sheriff's work and various problems to contend with. The Sheriff's Association of Kentucky has been broken down to 10 Districts and plan on one such meeting a month in the 10 Districts.

One such problem stressed was upon drunken driving and reckless driving. The extreme danger of school opening and children being run over. It was found that some counties do not have a State Trooper stationed in their territory to work with. The nearest at present time is Mayfield from Fulton County. A great many of the County Sheriff's are furnished sirens and blinkers on their cars by the Fiscal Courts, in order that cars stopped for speeding and other things might know it was an officers car. It is hoped that these meetings may help each officer to better serve his county and understand his work better.

New Retirement Bill To Help Railroad Workers

Ten thousand Kentucky railroad workers and their dependents will benefit directly from a bill passed during the final hours of the 83rd Congress. The bill is H. R. 7840 which amends the railroad retirement laws. Senator John Sherman Cooper, a member of the Committee on Labor and Public Welfare, was floor manager for the legislation during its consideration by the Senate.

In his presentation of the bill to the Senate, the Kentucky Republican listed the following major changes to be made:

1. The eligibility age of widows and dependent parents of deceased railroad employees is lowered from 65 to 60 years.
2. A widowed mother under 60 is entitled to retain benefit payments after her child reaches 18 years of age, provided the child is totally disabled.
3. Widows who have worked for the railroads and are entitled to railroad retirement in their own right are entitled to receive their annuity, as well as benefits to which they are entitled as a result of their husband's service.

4. The benefit and tax base is raised from $300 to $350 per month. This provision will allow approximately 60 percent of the railroad employees to draw higher benefits on retirement.

5. A similar increase in the base is provided for unemployment insurance and a great majority of unemployment beneficiaries will be entitled to at least one-half of their regular earnings for 26 weeks.

In Kentucky, Senator Cooper stated, approximately 10,000 people will be affected, as follows: 600 widows and parents will qualify under the provision lowering age from 65 to 60, with benefits averaging $40 per month; 200 railroad workers will be entitled to additional retirement as a result of the increased tax base; 20 disabled annuitants will qualify for reinstatement of benefits; 6,500 workers will be qualified to receive increased unemployment benefits averaging $8 per week; and 3,500 workers will be entitled to an average increase of $6 in sickness benefits.

Its the Fellow On The Ground Who Should Be Careful

A commercial airline pilot is reported to have told his passengers recently as their plane was landing:

"You are now about to experience the most dangerous part of your journey — the drive from the airport to your homes."

Unfortunately, the pilot was so right. The fatality rate per hundred million miles flown by scheduled domestic airlines last year was 0.7 as contrasted by 7.1 for every hundred million miles of motor vehicle travel.

Why? In spite of clearly marked lanes channeling traffic over mile after mile of smooth pavement — in spite of traffic signals and warning signs at every potential danger point — why is driving on the ground still ten times more perilous than flying thousands of feet above the earth?

To get the answer to this riddle, we must look to the human element — to the man at the controls — whether it be the four-engine airliner or the six-cylinder motor car. He writes your safety record — good or bad.

Airline pilots are trained specialists — experts at their job of carrying people safely from one place to another. They have a healthy respect for both man-made and natural laws, because they realize their own survival depends on strict observance of those laws.

If you're the average motorist, you can't expect to equal the skill of a professional airline pilot. But you can work toward smooth driving, perfect timing, constant control, good judgment and respect for traffic laws.

Above all, it's necessary to remember that you're at the controls of a land vehicle, not a plane. The giant air transport of today can zoom safely through the air at fantastic speeds, but you had better slow down if you want to live.

Until a solution is found for our traffic problems, it can be helped by keeping more cars off the highways, by being more particular about who gets a drivers license. — William R. Sullivan, 720 West Tenth Pl., Los Angeles 15, Calif.

Bar Association Committee To Investigate Ethics

The Fulton County Bar Association, an august and respected body, interested many of us last week when a committee was appointed to investigate the propriety of an attorney delivering copies of a suit to the newspapers for the purpose of self-advertisement. The necessity of the appointment of that committee is a matter for the members of the bar to decide, and of course they did.

We heartily commend the Bar Association for naming a committee to investigate the possible unethical practices by members of their group. And according to the Bar if it is unethical for an attorney to notify a newspaper of a suit filed, with self advertisement in mind, it should be investigated, and moreover stopped.

Activity of the committee will be rather sparse, we are afraid. In the eight years we have been in Fulton never has an attorney brought in copies of a suit he has filed. We have been informed of many suits and asked for copies of them, but as far as actually getting a copy of a suit, for the purpose of inspiring comments from us, the pickings have been mighty slim indeed, even not at all!

Our first reaction to the appointment of such a committee was that there might be some small possibility that news might be suppressed from the public.

But then we realized that such action could not possibly be taken by the Fulton County Bar Association in defiance of their traditions and the high calling of their profession.

FROM THE FILES: TURNING BACK THE CLOCK

(September 6, 1929)

Sunday, Sept. 1st, was an epoch making era in the industrial and agricultural life of Fulton and vicinity when President A. M. Nugent and Secretary J. D. Davis of the Chamber of Commerce, started one of Swift and Company's finest produce plants operating by dumping the first can of cream into the huge vat and receiving the first two chickens, transferring them from a live poultry car to one of Swift's feeding fatteries.

The personnel of the plant is as follows: T. F. Burns, manager; W. P. Ayers, assistant manager; C. H. Waken, chief clerk; Robert Whitehead, Clerk; Lucille McAllister, stenographer; Marie Duncan, cream clerk; Grace Reeves, direct shipping clerk; Fred Lucas, plant superintendent; E. E. Beeink, butter-maker; J. H. Drury, engineer; E. Purcell, night engineer; H. E. Barge, churman; C. C. Howard, field superintendent; H. Stowe, field superintendent.

Kentucky Windage

By F. W.

Here we are, back in the saddle again after a two-week tour of active duty at Ft. Meade, Maryland with the 439th Military Government Company of the U. S. Army.

The summer camp is an annual affair with members of our unit, which includes around 60 officers and somewhere around 45 enlisted men in Western Kentucky. And now that we have the summer camp routine pretty well zeroed in, it has developed into an enjoyable change of pace for the otherwise routine summer months.

I have avoided calling it a "vacation" because on vacations one is supposed to loiter around on beaches or mountain camps just eating, sleeping and resting, whereas we crawled out at 5:30 a.m. every morning for eight hours of field training. While it wasn't tough, the bare fact that one had to crawl out at that hour often cut the sleeping schedule to two or three hours, depending on the previous evening's activities.

All in all, it was a good deal. The day's training ended at 4:30 p.m. and by five one can be bathed, changed and ready to head for Washington or Baltimore. In Washington, we saw

"Caine Mutiny" on the screen, ate fine sea food down at the Wharves, visited old friends and on one evening five of us headed straight for the Capitol, obtained Senate gallery seats from Earle Clements, listened to some debate on the revised social security bill, and then went down and had a short visit with Earle himself. He introduced us to several of his passing colleagues, including Symington of Missouri, Maybank of New Jersey, Hick-enlooper of Iowa and others.

Senator Clements is a respected and influential member of the congressional delegation and it makes us right proud to be from Kentucky. Even so, every passing Senator, learning we were Kentuckians, inquired about Alben Barkley with great warmth and affection.

There's just no doubt about it, whether Kentuckians realize it or not, Alben Barkley holds the number one spot as the ablest, most experienced, most esteemed man in the U. S. Senate, and his great knowledge and store of experiences in that body, gained during his 25 years as a member, are valued highly by it. If Kentuckians can provide such a strong shoulder as this to represent them, we feel as the passing senators expressed themselves:

"The whole nation will greatly benefit by again having Alben Barkley a senator."

In both Washington and Baltimore the major-league baseball teams had home stands while we were there, and the baseball fans in our group had a field day. As a matter of fact, name your activity and it could be found around there somewhere.

Driving the 900-odd miles, we took the "southern" route up through Nashville, Knoxville, Bristol, up the Shenandoah valley and in thru Washington and made it in about 23 hours. Coming back we decided for variety on the "northern" route: through Hagerstown (Md.), the corner of Pennsylvania, Columbus, Indianapolis, Evansville. The latter route was a lot faster and easier, since we had a lot of 4-lane super highways, and also took two days for it.

Before leaving camp, our car (Felix Gossam, Noel Summers of Mayfield and myself) made a tentative rendezvous point in Columbus, Ohio with another car containing J. D. Barclay, Bob Veatch and Joe Johnson of Clinton, and Cecil Anderson of Mayfield.

When we arrived we found our "rendezvous point" in the Hilton hotel, had been closed for two years and nary a sign of the rest of our gang about. Besides that there was a State Fair or something in town and every available motel and hotel was sold out. We waited awhile and then drove on to Springfield and spent the night. When we arrived in Fulton the next day we found that Snow and Holland had missed us about 15 minutes and driven all the way back to Fulton non-stop. The third car is still unaccounted for. We haven't seen them to compare notes.

Just as we left the Washington area the Legion was pulling in for their national convention, some 300,000 strong. On the way back thru Ohio Saturday we passed about one 40x8 locomotive every hour for the 10 hours we were on the road, including the one from Louisville. All of them but one (which had pulled off for repairs) were "wheeling" and dealing up the highway with bells, whistles and sirens going full blast. We'll bet Washington has been a happy mass of confusion this week with the Legionnaires taking over in their accustomed fashion.

Recall seeing a Legion convention as a little boy back in my home town, and laughing uproariously at a couple of delegates who got seated on the cow-catcher of a street car and kept the switches turned so that the car had to circle the downtown area for four rounds before permitting it to finally turn off and proceed to the suburbs. I was on the car.

Those of us who were Rotarians in the 439th had an opportunity to "make up" our Rotary attendance with the Rotary Club at College Park, Maryland, at the University of Maryland. On the second week meeting we had an opportunity to meet the famous Maryland football coach, Jim Tatum, who is a member of the College Park club, and whose team will play Kentucky in late September.

Returning to Fulton, learned to my great dismay that old friend Si Elvert had passed away. I have known Si ever since arriving in Fulton, and I believe that he tried harder than anyone else here to put Fulton on the Grade-A tourist map by encouraging AAA facilities. Si knew this tourist travel business, and operated the first major court here back when Fultonians didn't even know the importance of the travel dollar.

See where the "Blimp" Martin Levy is in town today on exhibition, at 763 lbs. Recall interviewing this fellow back when I worked on a paper in Effingham, Illinois way back in 1937. He was wrestling then, and weighed around 350 or 400 pounds and he "was no spring chicken" then. If he is only 35 now (as advertised), he was only 18 then, and I'm afraid someone has fudged a little on that item. Recall that he used to travel by auto, with a specially-reinforced seat in his Chrysler. At 763 pounds he must have switched to a semi-trailer.

Picked up the Springfield (Ohio) paper Sunday morning and there on page one was an editorial demanding action of the community on a concerted drive to raise money to go out after more industrial expansion of the community. Everybody's in the act now, and the competition must be terrific. With communities of 75,000 and 100,000 population so eager to welcome new industries, a small community such as ours must be in 100% fighting trim to even get a second glance. Would you say that we are?

The local traffic accident toll continues unmercifully, and this was the unhappy news to learn on our return. On the seaboard we drove over 1000 miles in dense traffic (sometimes 8-lane) over a period of two weeks without encountering a single accident. Not that there weren't lots of them, but in the main, eastern drivers have learned by hard experience the importance of driving within speed limits, giving correct and prompt signals, and keeping where they belong. One would think that out here in the mid-south where traffic is not near so dense, there just wouldn't be any accidents at all.

WARNING!

We are having complaints the way some people are driving automobiles, motorcycles, and motor scooters in our city and county.

Drinking while driving, throwing beer cans on streets and highways, reckless driving, improper passing, speeding, cars with cutouts, wrong kind of mufflers, and all unnecessary noise is happening in Hickman and Fulton and small towns and communities in Fulton County.

Cars going to our churches, schools and cemeteries, grounds parking, people drinking and using profane language.

If you are doing any of the above — Stop and Think. You will be caught, fined and lose your drivers licenses.

This is to be stopped if we have to deputize every one in Fulton County. We will use cars that are not marked if necessary.

This is being done for your protection as well as for the safety of others.

It will not be long before our children will be going to school. Let's all drive carefully and have the name of the safest county in which to drive.

It is our sworn duty to enforce the law. With your co-operation and the state police, the city police, and all the citizens of Fulton County, I think this can be stopped.

Remember If You Have To Drink, Don't DRIVE

Sermonette of the Week--

Christ Gave Labor A New Dignity

(By John J. Kirvan)

A WORKINGMAN founded Christianity. That's why Labor Day has a special meaning for follower of Christ.

Until Christ was born work was never much more than a punishment inflicted by God for the original sin of Adam and Eve. "Thou shalt earn thy bread," God told them, "with the sweat of thy brow."

CHRIST'S BIRTH brought the workingman in new dignity. When a man works with his hands today, he is doing what the Son of God has done before him.

The new dignity of work, however, demands a new purpose. As long as work was a punishment, a man could approach his job grudgingly. As long as its highest purpose was the holding of body and soul together, work could be a burden. The coming of Christ changed this.

WHEN THE SAVIOR of mankind chose the lot of the laborer, He set

UNEMPLOYMENT HIGH

Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 3 — Kentucky's unemployment rolls for July hovered around 105,000 persons throughout the month, while jobless benefit payments for the month totaled $3,530,852 or $700,000 under the June totals, highest of any month in the history of the program, according to the Department of Economic Security.

An additional $458,406 was mailed to jobless veterans during July.

The department sent checks to an average of 37,176 persons during July, compared with 44,969 for June. However, some confusion arose due to the fact that several hundred thousand dollars in checks were mailed in June, thought dated July 1 because of the state's fiscal year ending June 30 and a desire to close the books on time.

DUNCAN RESIGNS

Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 3 — Judge Parker W. Duncan, Monticello, tendered his resignation as Judge of the Court of Appeals to Governor Wetherby to take effect September 1. Duncan came to the Court of Appeals in October 1952 by appointment to fill a vacancy, was elected last year to complete the one-year term of the unexpired term of the late Judge C. B. Latimer. Duncan intends to practice law in Bowling Green.

RECEIPTS UP

Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 3 — Total state revenue for July totaled $16,011,317, a 4.7 per cent increase over receipts for July 1953. The State Department of Revenue reported, attributing the increase to higher rates on beer, wine and cigarettes imposed by the 1954 General Assembly.

General fund collections totaled $6,219,027; road fund receipts were $4,984,352 and agency funds $4,807,938.

APPEAL MADE

Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 3 — An appeal from the decision of Franklin Circuit Judge W. B. Ardery holding the 1954 Highway Authority Act unconstitutional was taken to the Court of Appeals by Commissioner of Highways W. P. Curlin. The lower court held the act authorized creation of a debt in excess of $500,000 without submitting the question to vote of the people.

The proposed act would authorize conveyance of certain highways to a road authority for improvement, and allow them to be "leased" or "rented" back to the Department of Highways on an annual basis, until such time as the improvement costs were liquidated.

NO ELECTION

Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 3 — A vacancy in the office of Police Judge occurring this year may not be filled by election at the November election, unless a superior state office is being filled, Assistant Attorney General Walter C. Herdman advised Floyd County officials. The police judge of Wheelwright resigned, and the question arose as to whether to fill the vacancy this year. Herdman held since no superior state officer was running in that territory this year, the vacancy could not be filled until 1955.

The rural businessman is a buyer. In 1953 he used 7 million tons of finished steel, more than goes into a year's output of automobiles. He used 320 million pounds of rubber, enough to put tires on all automobiles produced in 1953. — Kentucky Farm Bureau.

Purdue University states that the wages earned by one-half day of work in the United States will buy: 4 quarts of milk, 1 pound of butter, a dozen eggs, 2 pounds of beef, 5 pounds of sugar, a pound of coffee, 10 pounds of potatoes and 2 pounds of bread. In many countries this same amount of work will not even buy a pound of butter and a dozen eggs, if they were available. — Kentucky Farm Bureau.

Diary of Doin's

—Around Fulton—

The News writes social happenings about you and your friends.

By the time this diary reaches you this week most households in this neck of the woods will be buzzin' with the annual preparations for the beginning of school. The bedlam may be created because Junior or Sissy are off to college, or perhaps little pig-tails will be getting ready to enter the kindergarten. Whatever the case it is a time of the year when social doings stop cold in their tracks and doings of the scholar take precedence over everything, anywhere.

The beginning of school is a sad and happy time. It's a sad time for the little fellows and lassies because they must put away the sun-suit, tape up the dozens of scratches and scars on their feet and put shoes on. A little fellow we know real well said that he's had enough schooling. He said he can read in the Bible and can count to 100 and that's enough for anybody. Who knows but maybe he has the happiest philosophy.

He wants to work though. He talked with Sonny Puckett at the service station and told Sonny that for 25 cents a day, twelve-hour day, he would hand wiping rags to the adult attendants so the windshield can be wiped. We told him we'd pay him that much to assort leads and slugs after school, but he takes a dim view of working for kin-folks.

School bells will ring out next week for the Fulton schools, private and public. They've been ringing out South Fulton way for two weeks.

Mommies and Poppas will be happy. After that hour of hectic maneuvering in the morning to get their breakfast, their lunch fixed, their vitamins down, there's a peace and quite around the house that only those parents know who weather the storm of closing the front door when the kids have gone to school. Storm starts again about three o'clock, but there's happy gratitude for those few quiet hours when all you have to do is wash, iron, straighten the house, fix desserts, do program work for the P-TA, mend socks, let out hems, cook supper and a few other "relaxing" chores.

Ah, to the happy ring of the school bell.

But doings keep getting in the diary anyway. For instance there was that wonderful shower held last Saturday for bride-elect Martha Ann Callison whose engagement to Gerald Harrison was announced last week. The home of Mrs. Parker McClure looked so pretty for the occasion when Mrs. McClure and her daughter, Donna Fay Poe and Mrs. May Kyle were hostesses to the happy party. Martha Ann's striking beauty was enhanced by her wearing one of her, tulle-trimmed frocks of cotton sateen. The outfit was completed with a lovely corsage as a gift from the hostesses.

The guests enjoyed so many clever games during the evening and Martha Ann was right in there having such a good time.

Those present and sending gifts were Mrs. T. J. Callison, mother of the bride-to-be, Mrs. Coy Harrison, mother of the groom, Miss Loretta Gilbert, Mrs. Frank Gilbert, Miss Sandra Scott, Mrs. Leroy Bondurant, Mrs. Aubrey Bondurant, Mrs. Jenny Scott, Mrs. Roy Milton Taylor, Mrs. Joseph Gambill, Mrs. T. B. Neely, Mrs. George Polsgrove, Mrs. Shirley Evans, Mrs. Sam Hibbs, Mrs. J. T. Hart, Mrs. Harry Poe, Mrs. Betty Poe, Miss Dale Henry, Mrs. Carl Lee Denton, Mrs. Lee Henry and the honoree and three hostesses.

At a late hour delightful refreshments of cake, ice cream and cold drinks were served.

The month of August will be a time that will long be remembered by the Weatherford family.

The children were all at home for the first time since all were married.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Weatherford live at Springhill, Ky. and there are five sons and one daughter.

Mr. Weatherford is 80 years old and quite active for a man of his age. He makes his own garden and tends his flock of chickens, which he cherishes very much. Through the winter months he makes guitars and violins. He has made each of the children a guitar.

Those attending the reunion were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Weatherford of Baldwin, Miss. Mr. and Mrs. Rudell Trimble and daughters, Sandra and Nancy of Fulgham, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Grisom and Jackie of Fulton, Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Weatherford of Chicago, Ill., Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Weatherford at home, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Jackson and children, Harlon, Harold and Wanda Sue, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson are the parents of Mrs. Wallace Weatherford also Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Weatherford and James. All left hoping this would happen again next year.

Mr. Weatherford went back home with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Weatherford of Baldwin for a visit.

When families get together they have more fun than anybody. They have more to talk about, they have more memories, they have such complete understanding of each other and that's why family reunions are so much fun. Mr. and Mrs. Norman Croft of Route 5, enjoyed all these things last Sunday when five sisters and two brothers got together for the first time in many years. Their respective families, their friends, their homes all entered into the spirited conversation, which went on all day long and then into the night.

Those who gathered together for the first time in a long time were Mrs. Lula Killebrew, Carl Tibbs, Boone Tibbs, Mrs. John Killebrew, Mrs. Neuman Croft, Mrs. Essie Winters and Mrs. J. C. Davis.

Those attending the reunion were—Mr. and Mrs. Boone Tibbs of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. James Hannah and sons, Jimmie and Ricky of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Davis and granddaughter of Memphis, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Forrest and sons, Charles and Jack of Fulton, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Joe Forrest and son of Waterloo, Iowa, Mr. and Mrs. John Killebrew, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Wall and son, Charles, Mr. and Mrs. James Hadelwood and sons, Davis and Donald, of Fulton, Mrs. Essie Winters and Sonja Faye of Trenton, Tenn., Mrs. Lula Killebrew, Carl Tibbs of Duketown, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Neuman Croft.

To a young fellow a weiner roast is probably the ultimate in entertainment. If the weiner roast is given in his honor, then there is little to be desired out of life. That's the way Donnie McKnight felt last Saturday when his mother and dad, Dorothy and Max McKnight gave a weiner roast for Donnie at their home in the Highlands. The guests arrived at six-thirty and soon thereafter they were munching on good hot dogs and lots of potato chips and drinks. With their tummies were full they enjoyed the rest of the evening playing games.

Dr. and Mrs. F. D. Phillips assisted in helping entertain.

Those present were: Donnie McKnight, Rita Kramer, Jimmy Newton, Lynn Newton, Robert Stephenson, Ruth Louise Butts, Jimmy Stallins, "Tucky" Tinsley, Phillip Jefferies, Susan Bushart, Phillip Andrews, Mary Ann Bennett, Brenda Brown, Katie Brown, Al Benedict, Lydia Wright, Cecelia Wright, Silvia Frazier, Jerry Carter, Johnny Jones and Sandra Stephenson.

Herbie and Ann Hunt are expected home this week-end after a two-weeks wedding trip on the Gulf Coast, New Orleans and other interesting Southern points of interest. They have kept in touch with the home folks by phone a lot and we imagine will be rather glad to see the ole home town again after such a long absence.

Paul Boyd, a fellow yith many accomplishments and we might add hobbies (greenhouse, etc.) is also one of the best cooks in town, so the story goes. The Boyd home on the Union City Highway has one of the prettiest backyards around here and with the patio and side-porch combined its the most conducive place in the world for back-yard suppers. Last Sunday afternoon Paul put on chef's cap, white apron and started barbecuing chickens for three couples who were to eat with them that night.

Irene tells us that Paul built the barbecue pit himself so the whole undertaking was of his own doing. The guests arrived about six and enjoyed watching Paul put the finishing touches to the meal. Those who enjoyed Paul's culinary endeavors were: Mary-Nelle and Doc Wright, Montez and Horton Baird and Louis and Elsie Weeks.

When George Huddleston comes home each year he institutes a practice that would be nice if it could be practiced each week of this year. Its that little informal gathering of afternoons for a visit over a cool drink. Such was the case Monday afternoon when Dee Calmus was here. George invited Dee and her hostess Mayme Bennett and Elsie Weeks, Mary-Nelle and Doc Wright Dudley Morris and Corine Evans over to talk over the old days of their friendship and it was such fun. George manages to see that a lot of folks who haven't seen each other for a long time just take time out to visit. Its a wonderful idea!

George entertained a group of members of the younger social set Thursday afternoon at the lovely home of his parents on College Street. It will soon be college departure time for many of them and George thought it a good time for them to all get together for a nice chat. Those who attended were:

Misses Nancy Wilson, Jane White, Mary-Jane Wyatt of Mayfield, Mary Davis Weeks, Janet Parks of Union City and Mayme Bennett and Cissy Hatfield and Carmen Depp. Also Read Holland, Hunter Byrd Whitesell, Charles Shelton of

Miss Nancy Jones, Dallas Shackelford Married in Sunday Afternoon Ceremony

Stateliness and beauty characterized the early afternoon wedding of Miss Nancy Evelyn Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Myatt Jones, and Dallas Edward Shackelford, son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Shackelford of Murray, Kentucky, which was solemnized at the First Methodist Church on Sunday afternoon, August the twenty-ninth at two-thirty o'clock with the Rev. Dan C. Overall officiating, using an impressive double-ring ceremony.

The altar presented a garden like scene with large arrangements of white gladioli and chrysanthemums interspersed with tall wrought iron candelabra and giant fern balls.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Clarence Maddox, organist, and Mrs. H. N. Strong, soprano, presented a program of nuptial music.

The petite blond bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina length wedding gown of chantilly lace in a Dresden rose pattern over satin.

She carried a bouquet of a fuchsia throated white orchid surrounded by stephanotis mingled with sprays of miniature English Ivy and tied with satin ribbons.

Her attendants wore identical ballerina frocks of ciel blue illusion over taffeta.

Mrs. William Carney was matron of honor; the bridesmaids were Mrs. William Evans, Miss Frieda Lawrence, Mrs. William Terrell, and Mrs. Russell Puckett.

Charles Cissel served the groom as best man and Billy Evans, Charles Uzzle, William Jordan, Charles Uzzle, William Jackson and William Terrell were ushers. Mrs. Jones chose for her daughter's wedding a beautiful afternoon frock of ashes of roses Chantilly lace over taffeta.

Her accessories were black and she wore a fuchsia orchid corsage.

The grooms mother wore mauve linen combined with matching lace.

She had black accessories and also wore a fuchsia orchid corsage.

Mr. and Mrs. Manisfield Martin greeted guests at the door of the church.

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Jones entertained at a reception in the church dining room.

Assisting at the reception were: Mrs. E. C. Grisham, Mrs. John Waters, Jr., Mrs. Ira Waters, Mrs. Fred Cook, Miss Gloria Waters, Miss Amanda Hurdle, Miss Ann Shivers, Miss Sylviadeen Moss, Miss Myra Ann Moss, Miss Marilyn Neal, Miss Katherine Bradshaw and Mrs. Vestal Coltharp.

The bride and groom left for their wedding trip early in the evening after which they will make their home in Murray. For traveling, Mrs. Shackelford wore a bride's blue costume suit of linen crash.

Her accessories were white and she wore the orchid from her wedding bouquet.

Paul E. Morgan, in Loves Park, Ill.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leland Jewell of Fulton and Mr. Sanders is the son of Mr. Edgar L. Sanders of Chicago, and Mrs. Corrine McCannon of Orfordville, Wisc.

The only attendants were I. H. Fagen and Stuart H. Sundberg, friends of the couple.

THE AUGUST BIRTHDAY CLUB DID IT AGAIN

August 19th, the August Birthday Club met in the home of Mrs. Rob Holman near Union City, Tenn., for their annual gathering.

This birthday club was started just 10 years ago this month. There are 12 members belonging to this club. Originally there were 13, but one dropped out this year due to sickness in her family. There are 3 members who have been present for each meeting for the 10 years. They are: Mrs. Ada Finch, Mrs. Claude Williams and Mrs. Bill Smith. The members gathered together for the annual affair about 11 o'clock, and our gracious hostess received each one with her usual pleasant smile to start the "Happy Birthday" Club off to a good start.

For about an hour the women just talked and talked, we did, then we were invited into the dining room where the table was loaded with good things to eat. There the talking slowed up, for we were thoroughly enjoying our wonderful meal. After lunch, we went to the living room, where each member had left her gift to be exchanged and then we had the drawing, each receiving a lovely gift. The hostess was presented a pair of sheets by the members.

The next thing on the program was Mrs. Holman's lovely daughter, Marilyn, who consented to show us some of her colored slides made while she was in "Israel, the Holy Land." She told us about life on Kibbutz. This was how the people lived over there, their mode of travel, occupations, and so many more interesting things she did on her trip. Miss Holman was gone five and one-half months on this trip, and the wonderful pictures she made just made you feel closer when you read your Sunday lesson, for her trip was around part of the places where Paul was on his missionary journeys.

We saw lovely pictures of the Sea of Galilee, Jerusalem, the Mount of Transfiguration, and where some of the miracles were performed by our Lord. The pictures were thoroughly enjoyed, but the way our gracious hostess commented on each slide just kept us spellbound. This went on for nearly two hours, but who would tire of seeing such a lovely array of beautiful things gathered from all parts imaginable — Switzerland, Germany, France, Greece, Italy and not telling where else. Miss Holman made this trip in 1953. I believe she was an exchange student, for different groups helped sponsor her trip. As it was nearing time for the members to depart, we had to bring our wonderful trip to a close, but at anytime if by chance you get an opportunity to see just part of the slides Miss Holman made, it would be well worth your while.

After the show, you might say, the hostess served a very refreshing drink of lemonade. Each left thanking the hostess for one of the very best days of the club has ever had. Mrs. George Swigart will be our lovely hostess in 1955, so you see there are about 12 women who do not care how soon the next August rolls around, for they always have something special to do when they celebrate. So for this year's report, I'll bring it to a close. Those attending this year were: Mrs. J. C. Berry, Mrs. Hugh Adams, Mrs. J. H. Patterson, Sr., Mrs. Ada Finch, Mrs. George Swigart, Mrs. Claude Williams, your reporter, Mrs. Bill Smith, and our hostess, Mrs. Rob Holman.

FIFTEEN MEMBERS OF CRUTCHFIELD CLUB HOLD MONTHLY MEETING

New officers and leaders were installed and appointed. The hostesses for the coming year will be taken alphabetically and next month's will be Mrs. Lee Roy Beard, Mrs. Gerald Binford, Mrs. C. A. Binford. Plans for Farm Bureau supper were discussed.

Mrs. Bertha McLeod, Home Demonstration Agent, discussed the Southern States Talent Show.

Sunshine Friends will be received at the September meeting. Everybody is asked to come and bring a gift for your Sunshine Friend.

It was voted on to start having all-day meetings beginning in September.

There will be a work-day at Lodge Community House Sept. 8 at 1:30 p. m. Anyone wanting to work on stools or place mats, please come.

Five Fulton Golfers Turn In Good Scores In Paducah Tourney

Ere this issue goes to press Virginia Rogers, crack Fulton golfer, is the only one of a five-some to stay in the West Kentucky Invitational Golf Tourney being held at Paducah this week. Making the trip on Monday were Ethel McDaniel, Betty Jean Vowell, Maggie Cummings and Jo Westpheling.

Ethel and Jo were eliminated on the first day of match play, although both turned in good scores. The golfers they encountered did better. Maggie and Betty Jean won their rounds Tuesday, but were eliminated Wednesday. The opponents they met were the best in West Kentucky and both Fulton golfers turned in exceptionally good scores, but the other golfers... yes, they did better.

At press time it was not known whether Virginia won her match over Lois Tiner of Metropolis, one of this area's top golfers.

SWEET POTATO PIE

One pint sweet potatoes, boiled and mashed with a teacup sweet milk, and run through a colander.

Beat separately four eggs; cream one teacup butter with one of sugar. Beat in the yolks, then the potatoes, grate in half a nutmeg, and stir in the frothed whites. Bake in deep pie plates, lined with paste, without a top crust. Sift powdered sugar over the pies.

Serve as a main dish with tall glasses of ice cold beer. Like so many other favorite dishes, sweet potato pie tastes better when enjoyed with beer—Kentucky's beverage of moderation.

The sale of beer under orderly conditions is an important objective of your brewing industry. Our continuing educational program helps beer retailers maintain their high standards.

Locomotive bells and school bells both ring
for your youngsters

When you hear locomotive bells along the Illinois Central, they are ringing for your schools and the education of your children.

The freight hauled behind the clanging engine bells helps your community build schools, buy books and pay teachers. Last year the Illinois Central paid more than $47 million in taxes, nearly twice the railroad's total profits. A considerable share of these taxes went to support schools in communities along the railroad.

Taxes are not the sole contribution of the Illinois Central to education. Thousands of Illinois Central people take an active personal part in local school affairs. Many serve on school boards and participate in school activities. All bear their fair share of individual school taxes.

The Illinois Central is proud to share in the progress of education for our young people. It is one of the many ways in which we are privileged to earn the right to your continued friendship and patronage.
