Last week we erred in stating facts to you regarding the examinations certain public officials must take before they can take public office. Kathryn Kelly reminds me that County Court Clerks must also take examinations to determine qualifications before they can take over that office. I apologize to Kathryn for this oversight and to Claude Holland and to all former, present and future county court clerks for not making this information known in my column last week.

In 25 years of this here now business we've never been quite able to analyze a subscriber's mind when he calls with irritation and says: "Stop the paper." Since we've been in Fulton it hasn't happened often, but it's happened and if we have an opportunity to talk with the irate one I like to ask, "Is there any reason for stopping the paper?"

If he's on the phone he will say, "No, just stop," getting madder all the time and invariably closes the conversation with that. I go back and get last week's paper. I keep the subscriber in mind and look through story after story and wonder what could have irritated him to such an extent. If there's nothing derogatory about him, his family or his close friends I get even more puzzled. But the puzzle to stop all puzzles is to find nothing that might have angered him and then look at his office record and find that his subscription has six more months to go.

Of course if I find something, or know something of the subscriber it's easy, so I deeply regret it and hope that someday the paper can make him happy and he'll join up again.

About a year ago a man whom we considered a good friend sent us a cryptic note saying: "I do not wish the paper any longer." His subscription was just paid. I went through the story-hunting routine and found nothing. I was very sorry. I wrote a letter telling him of our sorrow and hoped that I might someday talk to him about his cancellation. For months I learned nothing. Then one day he said to start the paper again with the same finality that he stopped. Says I: "Could I please know why you stopped the paper, last year?"

Says he: "I just didn't want that paper coming through the mail. I went down every week and bought one but I didn't want to give you all the satisfaction of knowing that I paid for it." Well, why did you stop, I asked. "You wrote something nice about a fellow I hated and I didn't like it at all."

Now that posed a question to me. I wondered for the longest how I could find out the likes and dislikes of every subscriber. What kind of a paper would we have if one week I wrote just good things about people and the next week just horrid things. Could I, in my frail mind write the wrong things about the right people one week, and then the next week write the right things about the wrong people. Could I?

Let's look at it this way. This newspaper is read by people in all walks of life. Homemakers, farmers, merchants, politicians, professional people, and good every day citizens. Each one of them have a particular section that they like most and the rest of the paper be damned. Obviously then, we have to mix up the news, but there's where we meet the problems.

If we write good things about some people their enemies get mad. If we talk about the so-called "enemies" the other people get mad. If we write about public officials, good or bad, we're playing politics. If we write facts about public officials the officials themselves say we're calling 'em crooks.

If we ignore matters of public office-holders we're disinterested in our community.

If we put the emphasis on society, we're social-climbing. If we put the stress on farm news we're too rural. If we keep political news lively we're making way for a public office. If we have no editorial page we're (continued on page four)

ARNETTA DUNN IN COUNTY JAIL; NEW TRIAL FOR HELEN

Illness Prevents Otto Dunn From Early Confinement

Arnetta Dunn, wife of Otto Dunn, one of the operators of the Southern Chicken Shack in the Fulton County Jail serving a 12-month jail service for operating a public nuisance. Arnetta, Otto and Helen Dunn were indicted by a grand jury and tried in this term of court and all three were fined $2500 each and given 12-month jail sentences.

Attorneys for the Duns, following the trial, made motions for new trials, but Judge Elvis Stahl overruled the motions in the cases of Otto and Arnetta and sustained the motion for Helen.

Commonwealth Attorney Flavius Martin told the court that he was not satisfied with the evidence presented in the case of Helen Dunn proving her guilt. A new trial was granted to her.

Otto Dunn has not been confined to jail because of his reported illness. No compromise has been made in the fines imposed by the jury in any of the cases and they remain at $2500 each. It is reported that action may be taken to pad-lock the Chicken Shack.

METHODISTS PLAN BIG ATTENDANCE CRUSADE SUNDAY

500 Attendance
Sought During
10-Week Program

Sunday, February 6th begins a ten week attendance crusade at the Fulton Methodist Church. Each person attending will be given a badge showing that he was present and each succeeding Sunday a new insert will be given showing the number of Sunday's attended.

Those with perfect attendance for the ten weeks will be presented with a loyalty attendance diploma at Easter.

The goals set up by Mr. Ward Johnson, Church School Superintendent, and Mr. J. D. Hales, the assistant include:

An average attendance of 500, three hundred persons with perfect attendance, two hundred visitors, one hundred new members.

Much interest is being shown by the classes and departments of the Sunday School.

It is hoped that many people who are not now attending Sunday School will take advantage of this special opportunity to begin and become regular attenders. It will do you good.

Everyone has a cordial invitation to get up, get ready, and get out to Sunday School at the Fulton First Methodist Church this Sunday.

EARLY REFUNDS NOT EXPECTED IN INCOME TAXES

Many persons who have already filed their Federal Income Tax returns for the year 1954 with the hope of receiving early refunds will be disappointed.

Wm. M. Gray, District Director of Internal Revenue, announced today that several hundred taxpayers have filed their returns on the facsimile copy of 1040-A rather than on the Card Form 1040-A. He added that all of these returns are incorrectly filed, and that the processing will be delayed.

All taxpayers who have adjusted gross income of $5,000.00 or less from wages subject to withholding, and not more than $100.00 of other wages, dividends, and interest should file Federal Income Tax Returns for 1954 on Form 1040-A. Do not use the copy contained in the instruction sheet. USE THE 3" by 7" CARD.

GAME FRIDAY

The Fulton Bulldogs will play the Hickman Wildcats at Fulton High School Gym Friday night, February 4, at 7 p. m.

Popular Helen Link Will Leave Fulton Hospital Soon

Everyone will miss Helen Link, sick folks especially. The popular registered nurse who has been at the Fulton Hospital will leave soon for her home in Tel-City, Indiana to live with her family.

Friendly, comforting Helen has been a resident of Fulton for the past fourteen years and has endeared herself to a wide circle of friends who regret to learn that she will leave Fulton in about two weeks.

It is much happiness we wish Helen in her new home and we hope she will come back to see us often.

NEAL WARD IS LAID TO REST AS CITY MOURNS

Beloved Stock
Dealer Found Dead On Tuesday

Funeral services were held today, (Thursday) February 3, at 2 o'clock at the First Methodist Church for William Cornelius (Neal) Ward, 61, who was found dead in his office Tuesday morning at 8:45 p. m. He was a local stock dealer. The Rev. Dan Overall officiated. Interment, under the direction of Whitel Funeral Home, was in Greenlea Cemetery.

Mr. Ward was a member of the First Methodist Church. He was born December 3, 1893 in Weakley County, Tenn., the son of Mrs. Lucy Thomas Ward and the late Will Ward.

Mr. Ward was owner of the Neal Ward and Son Stock Yard in South Fulton. He had been in the stock business for about 35 years and had been operator of his own business for the past 16 years. He had been a Magistrate in Weakley County for 26 years. He was a member of the Weakley County School Board for 21 years.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Maude Wagster Ward; his mother, Mrs. Lucy Thomas Ward of Brookhaven, Miss.; a son, William Ward, who was his business partner; two daughters, Miss Elizabeth Ward and Mrs. Sonny Puckett, both of Fulton; a brother Charlie Ward of Brookhaven, Miss.; five sisters, Mrs. Frank Samons of Fulton, Mrs. Oscar Cannon of Brookhaven, Miss.; Mrs. L. P. Schwem of Brookhaven, Mrs. L. G. Hudson of Brookhaven, and Mrs. L. Terry of Mobile, Ala.; four grandchildren; four step-grandchildren, and several nephews and nieces.

Pallbearers were Dean Terrell, R. H. Moss, Emmett Caldwell, Wendell Coffman, Ellis Heathcott, D. J. Jones.

Honorary pallbearers were the members of the Men's Bible Class of the First Methodist Church.

Little Calf Goes To Radio, Some Day To Market

This little calf went to radio. Some day this little calf will go to market, but not until she's full grown.

That's what she told me, she did! Norma Bess, that's her name, was formerly owned by Norma and Bess Wilkerson on the E. C. Cook farm. They donated her to the polio auction and she was bought by Mrs. Lee Rucker, who in turn has put the young lady in the hands of Kay Bryan. Kay has named her after her former owners.

Norma Bess, (let's play like) said she was ten-days old and that's a big statement for a lassie to make. She said she didn't mind being sold on the radio auction, but it was awfully hard to leave the farm and especially her little parakeet friend who loves her very much.

Norma Bess is a bottle baby. Just until she's old enough to take on solids and get strong and choose her own food.

Inquiring about her future Norma Bess said that she hopes to grow strong and next year she will be ready to change families again so she can bring a larger sum for the polio drive.

Norma Bess was one of the many unusual items sold on the radio auctions for the benefit of polio and she's happy about the whole thing.

(Ed's note: So there you are, here we are and here's the story.)

Gordon Baird Doffs Type Apron; Plans Make-up Retirement

By Jo Westpheling

Last week something big happened in our office that makes us very sad to tell you and its extremely difficult for us to realize that it has come about. A "young fellow" by the name of Gordon Baird "retired" from the newspaper and printing business after a very long, very fine and I might say sincerely a distinguished career in a business in which only the hearty survive to take that long sought for retirement.

We have been in Fulton eight years come this April and Mr. Baird has been with us seven of those years. He has been in the newspaper and printing business for many years, perhaps many more than he likes to remember. At one time he was in the newspaper business in Union City and Obion, Tenn. and in similar trades in other parts of Tennessee and Kentucky.

Well do I remember the very first time I ever came to Fulton to look over the News plant. It was a day in March, 1947 while I was visiting in Clarksdale from Washington, D. C. that I received a letter from Paul telling me that he had received a letter from the publisher of the News that it was for sale and would make trip up here to look the plant over. I called Mr. and Mrs. Paul Phillips in Tunica, Miss. who own the paper there and asked if they would drive here with me to look things over.

I met Mr. Baird then and in sizing up the situation I well remember telling Paul when he flew here to meet me that while the machinery was not right from the factory, and the offices were not the latest in modern design, that the newspaper certainly had a fine bunch of workers. Among them were A. J. Damron, who is now in Memphis, Robert Jackson, a very fine young fellow, who is with us now after serving in Korea and later working in Detroit.

It was not alone in the advisory capacity that we loved and respected Mr. Baird. It is to him that we owe in large measure the growth of our printing business, for he is a master craftsman in the trade. He takes pride in his work and his goal is infinite perfection when working on the smallest kind of a card or the biggest kind of a complicated form. We have never been ashamed to turn out a job that he finished.

Mr. Baird is the most indefatigable worker you can find anywhere. As long as he has worked with us we have never known him to be idle for a minute of his time. If he had to wait for composition on an ad or a printing form he always took his "waiting" period doing something else. His interest in his work was never failing and here we take this opportunity to thank him as best we can for the great help he has been to us, and the gratitude we feel for his long years of loyal service.

Mr. Baird dropped in the office Tuesday and said that he hasn't quite adjusted himself to his retirement. What is good news to us is that he will be available to lend us a hand and later working in Detroit.

Kay Bryan carefully feeds Norma Bess with a bottle so the little calf can grow real big for next year's polio auction.

Cayce P-TA To For Founder's Day

The Cayce P. T. A. will meet in the high school auditorium, Thursday February 10th at 7:30 p. m. for the February meeting. The theme of the program will be "For a Better World Outlook" and Mrs. Tom Arrington is in charge of the program, assisted by Miss Jessie Wade and the Sixth Grade children. There will be a special Founder's Day Observance and refreshments will be served. Members are urged to attend and visitors are welcome.

SCOUT SUNDAY IS FEB. 6; BLUE, GOLD BANQUET TUESDAY

National Scout
Week Observances
Planned Here

Next week is National Boy Scout Week and will be appropriately observed in Fulton. Sunday is Boy Scout Sunday. All scouts are asked to attend the church of their choice in their uniforms.

Meanwhile plans are being completed for the annual Blue and Gold Banquet which will be held on Tuesday, February 8 at the Methodist Church. Guest speaker will be Rev. John Laid and Gene Williams, scout executive will lead the singing.

An interesting program has been arranged dramatizing the progress of the railroad and appropriate decorations will be used on the tables. Mrs. Guy Fry is chairman of the food committee and you can rest assured it will be a fine meal.

Area Farmers Buy Two Willow-Wilde Guernsey Sires

Grant Bynum, Dukedom, Tenn., has just purchased the young Guernsey sire, Willow-Wilde's King's Robert, from Cecil Burnette, Fulton, Ky., according to the American Guernsey Cattle Club.

This young bull is out of the cow, Willow-Wilde's Lena Ruth, that has once been classified Very Good for type, and is sired by Cowham Farm Tress' King. Lewis T. James, Fulton, Ky., has also just purchased the young Guernsey sire, Willow-Wilde's Sylvan Rex, from Cecil Burnette, Fulton, Ky.

This young bull is out of the cow Silver Forest Kester, that has once been classified Acceptable for type, and is sired by Cowham Farm Tress' King.

DRIVE IS IN HOME STRETCH; $4100 COLLECTED

Two More Auctions
Will Round Up
Year's Campaign

Fulton's very successful polio drive is going into its final stretch this week with a total of nearly $4100 collected thus far. Several projects promoted for the drive have not been added and another popular radio auction will be held on Thursday from two until five o'clock in the afternoon. A broadcast is planned for Saturday to complete the auction of the items now on hand.

The local committee is most enthusiastic in its praise for the outstanding efforts put forth by local citizens in making the drive a success.

Probably no Fultonian in the city or surrounding area has failed in some way to contribute to the various activities and together they have brought about one of the most successful campaigns in the history of local polio drives.

FACTS TO KNOW ABOUT SOCIAL SECURITY

Q. How do I go about collecting my benefits when I quit work at 65?

A. Go to your local Social Security office and apply for your old age income at 65 or later if you delay filing at 65. To be eligible to file you must be 65 or over and fully insured.

Q. How do I find out if I have enough coverage to be eligible for old-age benefits?

A. Write the Social Security Editor in care of the News. This information will be passed on to you.

Q. Is it possible for my wife to get her benefits before she is 65?

A. Yes. Your wife must satisfy all the other conditions she would have to comply with if she were drawing her benefit at 65 and she must have a child of yours under 18 in her care either individually or jointly with you.

Any other question you wish answered regarding social security will be answered by writing to Social Security, The News, Fulton Ky.

J L GROOMS & SONS HAS LIVELY MEET FOR DISTRIBUTORS

Nearly 150 In Attendance At Dinner Gathering

The local Pipeline Distributors, J. L. Grooms and Sons, entertained at a dinner and meeting at the South Fulton School last Thursday evening.

There were approximately 150 present.

They had for their guests all of the dealers in the trade area. The South Fulton P-TA served the dinner with a delicious barbecue meal and all the trimmings.

After the dinner several factory representatives that were present presented the product information. The crowd was then entertained by the Rev. J. T. Hart.

The master of ceremonies was Aubrey Taylor of J. L. Grooms and Sons.

The local employees attending were: J. L. Grooms, Billie Grooms, Aubrey Taylor Charles Browder, A. C. Porter, Ted Hudson, Earl Norman, Odell Britton, Harvey Bondurant, James Robertson, Lewis Stevens and Joel Nabors.

ANNUAL MEETING

The members of the Fulton Country Club will hold the annual meeting Monday night, February 7, at the Club House for the purpose of electing officers for the coming year.

Story of Mayfield Blue Baby, Shows Great Need To Contribute To Heart Fund Drive

During this month we would like to call attention to a very important campaign that will be staged in the interest of the Kentucky Heart Association. Perhaps many of you are not too familiar with the work of this organization, since it is a comparatively new one but in order to acquaint you with their wonderful work we want to tell you a little story we heard in Louisville last week.

Robert Thornberry, who is executive director of the organization, and a very fine fellow was asking us about our local campaign and during the conversation he told us of a case that happened in Mayfield not too long ago.

Dr. Richard Colley, a physician in Mayfield had as his patient a "blue baby" only six weeks old. The parents of the child were medically indigent and the life of this infant was gravely in danger because of the financial condition of the parents. Dr. Colley phoned Mr. Thornberry in Louisville last Friday, a week ago, and revealed that the baby needed expert treatment because of a dangerous congenital heart condition that was not responding to treatment.

Within a half hour of Dr. Colley's call Mr. Thornberry had arranged for the child to be admitted, free of charge, to Children's Hospital in Louisville and had so advised Dr. Colley by phone. The boy was admitted the next day and transportation for the parents and the child were likewise arranged for by the executive director.

We bring this story to you because soon you will be asked to contribute funds to the Kentucky Heart Association. This association is unlike the polio fund in that the largest share of the funds collected are used for research, while the polio fund is also used for care and treatment of indigent patients. The Heart Association maintains a chair of research in a Kentucky university and is constantly becoming interested in other programs to further the research of heart conditions.

Living the busy lives that all of us do in Fulton and elsewhere we never know whether we will become a victim of this disease, which annually takes thousands and thousands of lives. To continue the accelerated program of research on heart disease may eventually save our own lives or the life of a person near and dear to us.

In our own lives we know what it means to see a person living in a virtual vacuum, bereft of all ability to participate in the normal pleasures of life because a doctor has advised the prevalence of a heart condition. The maddening thought that only by heart stimulants can a person hope to survive . . . and survive is all they do, is discouraging.

Through the efforts of the Heart Association some day we may see heart trouble one of our lesser fears and this can only be done through research to find the cause and cure.

When you are approached for funds, be generous. By this means you may be adding years to your own life.

Candidate For Governor Promises State Will Get out Of Motel Business and That's Bad

How would you like to take a little vacation on Kentucky Lake in a year or two and find as you approach the lovely administration building a sign that reads "Sleep, eat here, no bed bugs." Or to drive down the lovely avenues of cottages and see blaring commercial signs inviting guests. How would you like to go down to the beach at Kentucky Lake and have hot dog stands, candy cotton stands, peanuts, popcorn concessions along every foot of the way, with great big signs advertising their wares.

How would you like to see a shotgun type of cabin, unpainted, in poor repair erected next to the deluxe cottages on Kentucky Lake.

How would you like to go to beautiful Cumberland Falls and attempt to watch the moon come up over the falls through a haze of gaudy neon lights.

How would you like to visit the newly developed golf course at Lincoln Homestead Park and find a commercial sign on nearly every green.

How would you like to go to any State Park in Kentucky and be greeted by various and sundry individuals grabbing at your patronage and your vacation dollar.

It would be a discouraging thought and a sad condition that would make none of us proud of the tourist attractions of our State.

These situations are not impossible if a certain candidate for Governor is elected and he fulfills his promise to take the State of Kentucky out of the motel business.

The State Park system, for which Kentucky has become famous, will be turned over to private enterprise and thereby would ensue a fast and complete disintegration of a system well built. As proud Kentuckians we must not let this happen.

Sermonette of the Week

God Is Your Father

By Jerome G. Kerwin, Professor of Political Science, University of Chicago
MAN HAS AN ENDURING FOUNDATION for the exercise of brotherhood. Man is the image of the living God. Each man shares in the common Fatherhood of the same Creator.

Frail human nature finds it difficult to recognize the image of God in a disagreeable, quarrelsome neighbor, in the dissolute derelict lying in the gutter, in the vicious murderer in his cell, in wicked blood-guilty Hitler; but the image of God however distorted is still there.

THERE IS BUT ONE RACE, the human race, existing from the dawn of time till the end of time. There is but one family of people sharing the same weaknesses and the same capacity for the attainment of eternal happiness with God.

No words can adequately describe, and no mind can adequately measure the heights and depths of this great concept of the brotherhood of man and the Fatherhood of God. We can cheapen it by sloppy, sentimental appeals and we create scandal by sidestepping its implications.

THE BROTHERHOOD OF MAN is THE FULTON COUNTY NEWS Post Office Box 485, Fulton, Kentucky Published Every Thursday Of The Year.

WINNER OF KENTUCKY PRESS ASSOCIATION BEST ALL-AROUND NEWSPAPER AWARD 1953 R. PAUL and JOHANNA M. WESTPHLING, Editors and Publishers.

founded in the very nature of man. Man always seeks for happiness. To attain his goal man needs society - - for certain insects have that - - but he needs a true society for the attainment of his happiness.

The true society must promote the opportunities for each man to develop according to his own abilities and restrict all forces that block the realization of what is best in man. This is due each man in justice.

THE DIVINE LAW goes beyond the strict rules of justice, of giving each man his due. The Divine Law leads to divest themselves of riches and even of life itself for the sake of others. Seeing the Image of God in every human being, a man respects even the least of his fellowmen, whatever their material conditions or the errors of their ways.

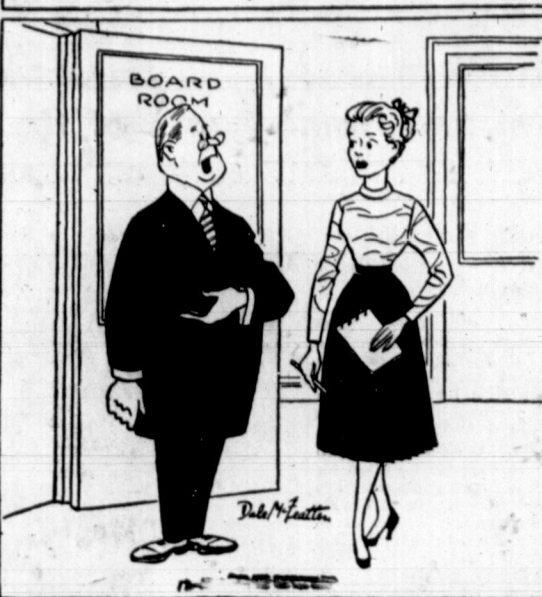

The brotherhood of man derives from both the natural and Divine laws. Brotherhood is not a national concept; it is universal. It obliges every man of every nation to love every other man not because they are members of his nation but because they carry about in their bodies the image of God.

THE BROTHERHOOD OF MAN should be the very spirit of the order we call democratic. As Aristotle says in the Politics: "Fraternity is generally held to be the chief good of states because it is the best safeguard against the danger of civil dissensions." The brotherhood of man should be moving spirit in any democratic society. For without it there can be neither democracy nor human society.

True wisdom is to know— what is best worth knowing, and to do what is best worth doing:

— Edward P. Humphrey

"The directors have finished telling stories—you can come in now and take down the minutes!"

FROM THE FILES: TURNING BACK THE CLOCK

(January 31, 1930)
Tuesday evening February 11, the Fulton Chamber of Commerce will hold its annual banquet at the Usona Hotel when officers for the ensuing year will be elected. The committees on arrangement and entertainment are now at work on the program, including several musical numbers and talks by well known speakers. Mr. Waggoner of the Kentucky Utilities Company is booked for the principal address.

It was announced this week that the well known automobile firm composed of Dr. I. H. Read and Ira W. Little had dissolved partnership, leaving Dr. Read as sole owner of the business, Mr. Little retiring.

This is one of the oldest automobile firms in the city and has enjoyed a successful business career for many years, selling Dodge cars and doing a general garage business.

A New Method Of Seeding Proven

It looks like we never get through finding out new ways of making farm work easier. Mr. Bernie McNeill of the Pilot Oak community has seeded an old pasture field to Rye. Now there is nothing new about seeding rye, but he seeded it with no seed-bed preparation. Mr. McNeill has been preparing his ground for small grain seeding, but this year he used a pasture renovator. There are several on the market now and he says that they are really the thing for new seedings. This drill seeds in bands 10 1/2 inches wide and applies the fertilizer at the same time. Mr. McNeill drilled his field both ways using 1 bushel rye and 100 pounds fertilizer per acre and by double drilling that made 2 bushels of rye and 200 pounds fertilizer per acre. This cuts erosion to practically nothing. Next spring when he takes his cattle and sheep off the field he can get a grain crop and the lespedeza will furnish summer pasture. It took less fuel to seed this one field than it would have to have double disc for a prepared seed bed, so he saved at least one trip over and if he has turned the sod under it would have been a greater saving.

In some cases it would be cold weather in this section, by rain, has brought renewed threat of flood danger to the lowlands of West Kentucky and West Tennessee. The Mississippi River, which has been falling slowly came to a stand Sunday and started another slow rise Monday.

Vernon Owen, manager of the Owen Manufacturing Co., announces today that plans were being perfected to construct a modern brick building adjoining the O. K. Laundry for the manufacturing plant.

The business has grown to such an extent until it is necessary to provide a larger building with all modern conveniences. More equipment will be installed and a larger force employed to take care of the big volume of business.

The Owens Manufacturing Company makes plated skirts from material furnished by merchants and the growth of business has been phenomenal.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Jackson, of Fulton, Mrs. J. R. Elliott and children, of Crutchfield, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Burnett, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Moore, of Detroit were Sunday guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Moore. This included all of the children with the exception of one, Mrs. Murchison, and a very happy occasion for the entire family.

necessary to turn under weeds or under growth to seed a small grain, but where you have a clean field it looks good to cut seeding costs and control erosion.

Plan Now To Fertilize And Sow
Now is the time to make plans to buy your fertilizer for the year. Estimate your needs and buy in quantities and take advantage of the bargain rate whenever possible. Fertilize those pastures before spring growth begins and be careful not to make applications while young plants are damp, sometimes it will burn them. If pellet type fertilizer is being used, you need not have fear of burning plants. Basic Slag and Agricultural Limestone will not harm plants.

Purchase Seed Now
Plan to buy all seeds that will be sown in the spring such as lespedeza, clovers, cotton seed, corn, sorghums, and grasses. Better quality of seeds will be available and no doubt will be somewhat cheaper now than later. Another thing too, some field seeds will be scarce and it would be wise to buy while they are available.

Be sure to look at the tag on each sack of seed you buy, and buy according to the analysis shown on the tag. CHEAP SEEDS ARE NOT ALWAYS THE ONES TO BUY. Remember just one option per ounce doesn't sound like very much, but in a 20 pound seeding it will mean 640. You can bet your last dollar that they will germinate 100%. Let's keep our pastures free of weeds, DOWN ON THE FARM.

Old Enough
A biologist says an egg can remember. If so, a restaurant served us a government egg the other morning that was old enough to reminiscence.

Experienced

Sweeping back his long black hair with an impressive gesture, an actor faced a director in a movie studio. "I have come, sir," he announced in a deep voice; "because I want a job in your latest picture."

"Have you had any experience acting without an audience?" asked the director.

A flicker of sadness appeared for a moment in the expressive eyes of the actor.

"Acting without audiences," he replied, "is what brought me here."

NEW ORGANIZATION

Tired of continuous nagging, henpecked husbands have organized to outlaw nagging. Legal papers were recently filed by the Henpecked Husbands Association, a not-for-profit corporation. Among the purposes of the incorporators is to "set an example to all married males that allow husbands to rededicate themselves to the principles of liberty and free speech."

Rush Creek Homemakers Club Holds January Meeting In Atwill Home

(omitted last week)

The January Meeting of the Rush Creek Homemakers Club was held at the home of Mrs. Clem Atwill, Tuesday, January 11th. Mrs. Tommie Jones assisted as co-hostess. The club was glad to welcome seven visitors and Home Demonstration Agent, Mrs. Bertha McLead. Those visiting were Mrs. Roy Cruce, Mrs. Cliff Wade, Mrs. Larry Cardwell, Mrs. Pauline Owens, Mrs. Bobby Brasfield, Mrs. T. N. Curlin and Mrs. Sam Austin Jones. Mrs. Curlin and Mrs. Jones joined the club as new members.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. Harry Sublette, Jr., Mrs. Robert Adams, vice-president presided.

Mrs. McLead gave a preview of the events schedule for the delegates to Farm and Home Week. She also suggested several ways in which the Homemakers in the County might assist in raising money for the Polio fund. 1954 was a peak year for the disease, and as a result funds are very low. Interested in helping, the club members voted to have a Food Sale, Saturday, January 15th at the Taylor Electric Company in Hickman. Baked goods and dressed chickens and fresh eggs were sold along with various other foods. The sale started at 9:30 a. m. and all proceeds were donated to the Polio Campaign.

Landscape notes as the care of house plants were given by Mrs. John Watts and Mrs. Lewis Atwill and Mrs. Scott DeMyer gave the major lesson on fitting dresses.

In February, the meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Loyd Call and Mrs. James Owens will assist as co-hostess.

Anyone interested in becoming a new member or visiting the Rush Creek Club will receive a cordial welcome.

afraid to express our views. If we express our views, on an editorial page, we're ramming our opinions down the throats of subscribers. If we run a personal column in the first person we've got "I-trouble."

It all just shows to go you, everybody knows how to run a newspaper better than the editors and that's good. It keeps the editors on their toes trying to out-wit the pundits and moreover its the best business a doctor ever had. At the press convention we met more pill-taking publishers than ever before in one group. Why one publisher we know has been living for years with only one-third of his stomach. The other two-thirds he deposited on an operating table in memory of his subscribers.

Ulcers, my frens, ulcers.

when the going gets rough. Although we know he deserves this retirement from a hectic business it is with the deepest sadness that we realize he is no longer with us on a full time basis. It is with sincerity that we put Mr. Baird in our personal Hall of Fame as a grand fellow, a man we respect and love and to whom we give the largest share of credit for the strides we have made in our business.

Lorene Hughes left, Charles Wingate center, and Mrs. Ebba Mattson say a word or two over WFUL's mike during the broadcast at the Derby's Pancake Day.

Chestnut Glade Home Demonstration Club Holds January Meet

The Chestnut Glade Home Demonstration Club held the January meeting, which was an all day session with a bring-a-dish dinner in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Vaughn the 20th. After installing the new officers who are Mrs. Carl Rogers, President, Mrs. Milburn Connor, Vice President, Mrs. Harvey Vaughan, Secretary and Mrs. Myrtle Temple, Treasurer. Mrs. Milburn Connor brought an inspiring devotional and prayer. After roll call and minutes approved the new Projects. Leaders were introduced as follows: Home management, Mrs. Cleatus Reams, Home Furnishings, Mrs. S. C. Atkinson, Family Living, Mrs. Taylor Brown, Health and Nutrition, Mrs. Doug Gibbs, Poultry, Mrs. Jimmie Westbrooks, Gardening, Mrs. Johnnie Simpson, Crafts, Mrs. Jim Burke, Clothing, Mrs. Vascoe Simpson, Red Cross, Mrs. Louis Burke, Recreation, Mrs. Paul Reams, Song Leader, Mrs. Edna Strong, Club Reporter, Mrs. E. I. Brundige. The remainder of the morning was spent in a business session. A contribution was taken for the Polio drive and the 9th of February will be spent in making of crafts in the basement of New Hope Church. Mrs. Milburn Connor will keep our scrap book and Mrs. Orvin Morrison will have charge of the Regional Library books through the club.

Mrs. Adams having met another club in the a. m. arrived in time for lunch and brought a lesson on Home and Farm Planning in the afternoon. Mrs. Johnnie Simpson gave a demonstration on rooting shrubbery. Mrs. Cleatus Reams discussed Home Management and Mrs. Jimmie Westbrooks discussed and "cussed" poultry out look. A Finance Committee of Mrs. Myrtle Temple, Mrs. Cleatus Reams, Mrs. Jimmie Westbrooks and Mrs. E. I. Brundige was appointed. The club adjourned to meet with Mrs. Myrtle Temple third Thursday in February.

FULTON HOMEMAKERS ENJOY MEETING AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Modeling a readymade dress at the meeting of the Fulton Homemakers Club, Jan. 26 at the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Mrs. H. L. Milstead was fitted by Mrs. C. M. Arrington, who demonstrated the proper way a dress should fit.

As major project leaders, gave helpful hints on accomplishing proper fit of a homemaker or ready-made garment, and distributed booklets on the subject issued by the Department of Agriculture.

Landscape notes on care of house plants were read by Mrs. Foster Edwards.

Mrs. Francis Edwards read the citizenship papers on the standard of living in Ceylon.

The recreation leader, Mrs. Edgar Province lead in several enjoyable games. She was assisted by Mrs. Charles Jones in leading two songs, one of which was a very amusing one, entitled "Old Woman."

Nineteen members enjoyed a delicious pot-luck luncheon served by the hostesses, Mrs. Frances Edwards and Mrs. Foster Edwards.

In the afternoon session, one new member, Mrs. Rachel Crocker was welcomed to the club.

A collection was made for a contribution to the Polio auction and $15 was obtained.

Plans were made for a tea to be held in honor of the Farm and Home delegate on Feb. 9 at 2 p. m.

Mrs. A. S. Johnston graciously offered the use of her spacious and lovely home in South Fulton for the event. It is hoped that all members will attend and bring visitors.

Ouch!

"How can you be so positive that a man can't do wrong by marrying a widow?"
"Well, it's plain that if a man marries a widow, he can't marry amiss."

Cayce Homemakers Enjoy January Meeting In W. G. Mayes Home

(omitted last week)

The well fitted dress and alterations that might be made to ready made garments was the topic of discussion when the Cayce Homemakers met in the home of Mrs. W. G. Mayes for their January meeting.

Many New Years resolutions for better club work next year were made as the twelve members present answered roll call.

The care of house plants was discussed by the landscape leader Mrs. J. W. McGough.

After a pot luck luncheon around a table overlaid with a beautiful hand stenciled tablecloth centered by an artistic arrangement of fruit, the major project leaders gave an interesting lesson. Mrs. Roy Cruce demonstrated fitting a dress on her co-leaders, Miss Alice So-well.

A donation was sent to the March of Dimes Polio Drive. The Club will be represented at Farm and Home Work by Mrs. Johnny Wilson.

The two new songs and games learned will be used over and over again as they were exceptionally good to be used with groups of all ages.

The February meeting will be the home of Mrs. L. Y. Shuck on February 24th at 10:30. Visitors are welcome.

Matthews - Freeman Quietly Solemnized Here on January 9th

In a quiet ceremony, in the presence of a few close relatives and friends, Mrs. Mildred Matthews became the bride of William A. Freeman Sunday, Jan. 9, 1954. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. John D. Laidla in the Baptist Parsonage on Third Street at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

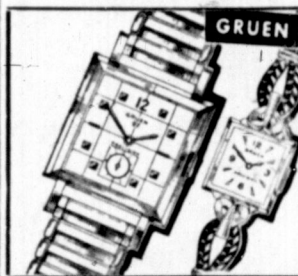

The only attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Leland Adams, the former an uncle of the bride.

The bride wore a Style-Line box suit of Chartruese wool with accessories of luggage and gold. Her Corsage was green Cypedium Orchids. Mrs. Adams wore a gunmetal suit of silk shantung with deep rose and black accessories. Her corsage was of deep rose carnations.

Mrs. Matthews is the daughter of Mrs. C. E. Lowe and the late Mr. Lowe of Pierce and for a number of years has been employed by the I. C. Railroad in Fulton.

Mr. Freeman, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Freeman of Martin, has made his home in Lansing, Mich. for the past several years, and is now in the restaurant business in Sharon, Tenn.

CAYCE'S MUSICAL PROGRAM BIG HIT

The "Night of Old Favorites" presented by the LaCenter Choral Society, at Cayce High School last Thursday was a program thoroughly enjoyed by all who attended. The songs sung by the group consisting of 30 mixed voices, were old, new and gospel numbers. Mrs. Gene Garrett directed the chorus and accompanists were Mrs. Charles Strange and Mrs. Armon Berry.

Some of the 16 songs featured by the chorus were "Liza Jane," "Deep River," "Goodnight Sweetheart," and "My Old Kentucky Home." Perhaps the highlight of the Choral singing came during their rendition of "Dixie," when Mrs. Garrett turned to the audience and asked everyone to rise and sing with the group. Of course, the response was enthusiastic!

The men's quartet featured such songs as, "I have a Mansion" and "When you Wore A Tulip." Popular songs were the choice of the women's quartet, who sang "This Old House," "If I ever Needed Love" and "Lonely Nights." Mrs. Garrett proved to be as fine a soloist as she is director when she sang, "With a Song in My Heart." Other soloists were Mrs. Victor Denton, Jr., who sang the beautiful, "You'll Never Walk Alone," with the chorus in the background; C. M. Hopkins, with "Old Man River" as his selection and Aaron Mayo.

Guest soloist for the evening was Edward Kane, formerly associated with the Metropolitan Opera Company in New York. Mr. Kane has also sung in Paris and South America and displayed his wonderful talent in singing three solos, "Lindy Lou," "It Ain't Necessarily So," and "The Desert Song." The audience wouldn't let him go and he persuaded Mrs. Garrett to join him in singing two duets, "Make Believe" and "Why Do I Love You." Not only does Mr. Kane sing beautifully, but he has an outstanding personality as well, and won the heart of the audience completely. The program was one which pleased everyone, from young to old, and was one of the best ever presented at Cayce.

The concert was sponsored by the Cayce P. T. A.

Best way to tell that you're reaching middle age is when your wife tells you to pull in your stomach and you already have.

LITTLE MACHINE DOES BIG JOB

Illinois Central Railroad Forestry Agent Jimmy Dykes demonstrates new method of killing worthless hardwood in pine forests. The small gas engine strapped on Mr. Dykes' back powers this special hand tool which cuts a groove in the bark around the tree trunk. In a short time the trees so girdled will die, making room for marketable pines.

Millions of acres of timberland in Mississippi and Louisiana are filled with scrub oak and hickory trees that are taking the place of young pines. Until this little machine was perfected, the only practical way to kill these worthless trees was to remove or girdle them with an ax.

DEATHS

Hillary B. Bowen

Hillary B. Bowen died in Los Angeles Tuesday. The body will be brought to the Hornbeak Funeral Home in Fulton, Kentucky.

He is the son of Mrs. Florence Bowen and is the brother of Mrs. Bob Harris of South Fulton.

The funeral services, as of now, are incomplete.

Joseph McIntyre

Funeral services were held Monday, January 31 at 2 p. m. at the Whitnel Funeral Home for Joseph "Joe" Nathaniel McIntyre, a well-known farmer who died at his home near McConnell, Tenn. on the Wolf Creek Road. Mr. McIntyre was found in a back room at his home by his wife. He had shot himself in the head with a 16 gauge shotgun shortly after his wife and grandson had gone to bed. The verdict was determined as a suicide. The Rev. Morris Lee officiated. Interment, under the direction of the Whitnel Funeral Home.

Mr. McIntyre is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Willie McIntyre and was born on August 30, 1888.

Mr. McIntyre had lived in this community for many years.

He is survived by his wife, two sons, Bud McIntyre of Fulton, Route 1, and Abe McIntyre of South Fulton; two daughters, Mrs. Helen Matthews of Fulton Route 2, and Mrs. Edna Jones of Eaulaur, Mich.; a brother, Marvin McIntyre of Russellville, Ky.; four sisters, Mrs. Etta Thompson of Boise, Idaho, Mrs. Nellie Darnell of Colorado, Mrs. Lonnie Powell of Russellville, Ky., and Mrs. Eller Delk of Russellville; 12 grandchildren; and several nephews and nieces.

R. T. Johnston

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon, January 29, at 4 o'clock at the Paul Hornbeak Funeral Home for Reginald T. Johnston, who died in a hospital in Delicias, Mexico last Monday night. The Rev. John Laid and the Rev. R. L. Still officiated. Interment was in Evergreen Cemetery at Greenville, Ky.

Mr. Johnston was the son of a tanker. The exercise at Fort Benning will last for approximately three months.

A member of the 3d Battalion's Company I, Tarkington entered the Army in January 1954.

Down on the Farm

With JIM PRYOR

Agricultural Agent, Illinois Central Railroad

DROUGHT HAY RATE EXPIRES FEB. 15

The cut freight rate on hay to drought disaster areas will expire February 15, 1955. If your county is a drought disaster area, you have until February 15 to take advantage of the reduced rate on hay.

RAILROADS ALWAYS READY TO AID FARMERS

It has been the policy of the Illinois Central and other railroads to assist farmers whenever they are in trouble. This has been brought out by the support of the hay rate reduction to farmers in drought disaster areas. To my knowledge the railroads are the only form of transportation that offered the 1/2 freight rate on hay to the farmer, for the last three years. Last year alone thousands of cars of hay moved into the drought stricken areas at a saving of approximately $12.00 per car of a total savings to the farmer of well over a million dollars.

If your county has been classified as a drought disaster area contact your county agent or write to me at Mayfield, Ky. and I will help you get your hay rolling. This should be done now.

SAVE THOSE LAMBS

For the most part lambing season is in the last stages or should be. Just a few hints on saving those little twenty dollar bills. First be sure to dip the navel in tincture of iodine, next have clean quarters for the new lamb, do not allow the lambs to become chilled, but wipe them dry with sacks or old cloths if the weather is very cold. Now then see that the ewe has milk and that the teats are open and help the lamb with its first meal if necessary. The first milk or colostrum is especially important because it has certain properties which help the lambs to survive. Give the lambs reasonable protection from severe weather. Try not

Gals Juggle Type In Back Shop

(Ed's Note: The following story appeared Saturday in the Louisville Courier-Journal, while the News editors were attending the Kentucky Press Association meeting.)

By Sarah Lansdell

Don't look now, printers, but the women are taking over in the back shop.

"I put type together for 12 pages last week, and just look at my hands," said Mrs. Murray K. Rogers, editor and publisher of The Somerset Journal. With other state newspapermen, she's in Louisville to attend the Kentucky Press Association meeting at the Brown Hotel.

"I beat you, May," said Jo (Mrs. Paul) Westpheling of Fulton, editor of The Fulton County News. "I made up all the pages—and the front page, too."

Mrs. Rogers and Mrs. Westpheling can do anything on a newspaper except run the press.

"We're going to learn to do that, too," said Mrs. Westpheling. "It would come in handy if the pressman got sick."

But Mrs. Rogers and Mrs. Westpheling don't stay in the back shop all the time. They also "write all the paper," news, society, editorials. And Mrs. Westpheling has a weekly column, "Jo's Notebook," in which she aims some pointed editorial opinions at current issues.

"Scheduled" Babies Mrs. Westpheling's two children, a boy, 7, and a girl, 5, were born by Caesarean section and "I scheduled them on a Thursday so I wouldn't miss an edition of the paper."

Before leaving for the hospital for each baby's birth, she wrote a story about it and left a blank for the name. She already had a boy's and a girl's name picked out.

"And I finished the headlines for the front page before I left," she said.

Mr. and Mrs. Rogers were married November 27. Mr. Rogers, former publisher of The Paducah Press, discontinued his newspaper to manufacture a new machine for photo-offset printing. He developed the process during the past two years after 3,000 experiments.

He met Mrs. Rogers when he called at her office to sell her one of his machines. She bought one, and two months later they were married.

"My employees kept telling me to bring home a newspaperman," Mrs. Rogers said, "and I finally got one." She has a daughter, Mary Ann Williams, daughter of the late Cecil T. Williams. Mary Ann's a junior at the University of Kentucky.

The Rogerses threatened to be married in the newspaper office. They weren't, but "we spent our honeymoon at Cumberland Falls and in The Journal shop." The couple lives part of the time in Somerset and part in Paducah, where Mr. Rogers' plant is located.

"I'm a politician, too," said to disturb the flock any more than necessary. To do so or to handle the lambs roughly is almost certain to result in injured lambs, an important cause of deaths.

After about ten days dock all lambs and castrate male lambs. Be sure to begin this operation with care by disinfecting all tools to be used and the area to be worked on. These are not operations which may be carelessly performed. In a few days start the lambs on YELLOW cracked corn in a creep. A high quality hay and phenothiazine salt will just about complete the diet of a frisky lamb. Within a few weeks YELLOW shelled corn should replace the cracked corn. Green pasture is a must for the milk producing ewe.

In town for the Kentucky Press Association meeting, Mrs. Paul Westpheling, left, Fulton; Mrs. James G. Wilson, center, Cynthiana; Mrs. Murray Rogers, Somerset, looking at new printing machine developed by Mrs. Rogers' husband.

Mrs. Rogers. She's a member of the state central Democratic executive committee, the state rules committee for the Democratic national convention, and is Eighth District director for the State Democratic Women's Club.

She was supposed to attend the national Democratic convention in New Orleans in November. "Instead I got married."

Wedding and all, The Journal was printed on deadline. Mrs. James G. Wilson, Cynthiana, whose husband is president of the K. P. A. and president and general manager of The Cynthiana Publishing Company, is a working newspaperman, too.

She keeps her hand in by pinch-hitting when employees get sick or go on vacation. Mr. Wilson's company publishes The Cynthiana Democrat and The Log Cabin.

Mrs. Wilson writes society news, keeps tabs on subscriptions, and helps keep the books when she's needed.

"I don't know much about the back shop," she said.

"You're a smart girl not to," said Mrs. Westpheling.

"Oh, I'd rather work in the back shop than anywhere," said Mrs. Rogers, who has been getting printers' ink on her hands for 12 years—ever since her shop superintendent died in 1943.

"Everybody said I'd never last," she said.

Mrs. Wilson's two children, a girl, 11; and a boy, 6, were each born conveniently on a Sunday, "so we didn't have to be out of the shop."

Mrs. Wilson wrote a column on cooking for several years, but "I ran out of recipes."

Diary of Doin's

—Around Fulton—

The News writes social happenings about you and your friends.

Ever put a piece of paper in the typewriter and just keep looking at it, in all its stark blankness. Ever take it out, measure the size of the sheet and view its astronomical size and wonder how you can ever find enough news to fill up one page, much less three of four, or five.

That's what happens some weeks when its time to do the diary.

This weather seems to gather people in a hole and they just stay warm and cozy and comfortable and let doings pass them by.

This isn't true however of very happy about this real monkey and she let her family know about it. She got so exasperated at the animal recently she told her family: "Either he goes out of this house or I do." Do you know that not a member of the household said a word and Sara took the cue and decided to stay of her own accord.

The girls are between exams, all except Anne, who "don't hardly have to take them no more." The three college girls are among many from UK who took off for Florida for a well-earned (?) rest from their college studies. Now Anne Latta is truly deserving of a rest. She will come home for about five weeks before she takes on another job in Louisville. Anne has been working there since September and got an opportunity to take another job, which she did; got an opportunity to go to Florida, which she did, then will have a chance to visit home for a while, which she will when she gets enough of that Florida sun.

Vacationers already returned home are Mary-Nelle Wright and Mary Swann Bushart who had a wonderful two weeks in Texas and New Orleans. In Houston they visited with Ruth and Leon Bondurant who showed them a swlegant time. Both are looking a little hefty from their dining out and both we believe were glad to get home. In New Orleans they took a birdseye view of the city, French Quarters and all as guests of Louise and Buddy Louche. We don't want you to think we're telling anything out of school or give you any indication of what kind of a time they had, but both couples they visited are bankers and so... If there's anything plusher than a Texas visit its a visit with a Texas banker. We should live so long.

Have you heard about the Enoch Campbell's new house pet called Colonel. If you haven't you should just talk to Sara about Colonel. She's not going along fine. Ruby said that if anybody has extra shrubs around they wish to donate to the club they will be delighted to receive them and asks that contact be made with Caddy-master Spud Edwards.

Tuesday four tables of bridge players enjoyed the afternoon. The following were present: Mary Latta, Ann Holland, Lorene Hughes, Elva Fall, Mary-Nelle Wright, Ruby McDade, Elsie Weeks, Elizabeth Joyner, Ruth Scott, Pearl Hogan, Eron Hill, Lucille Adams, Jane Edwards, Laverne Varden, Virginia Rogers, Sara Campbell, Margaret Hall, Marilyn Stokes, Vivian Williamson, Ruth Callihan and Irene Blankenship.

The gal who reports the Country Club news stumps us nearly every week. She goes along giving the names of the people at the club and along comes Mesdame Cornelius Edwards. One time we thought it was a mistake and we put Spud Edwards. Next time we put Mrs. Edwards, then we decided to inquire if someone else had joined the club. Nope, she said, that's Jane's name and that's Spud's name, so now we know.

Comings and goings: Linda and Kenneth Sams are now living in Mayfield since Kenneth was recently discharged from the service... Rudelle Murphy of Memphis is here visiting with her family... Elva and Ernest Fall and Poss and Charlotte Sanger are planning a neat little visit to Florida sometime this month... a good representation of Fulton folks attended the UK-Vandy basketball game in Nashville last Saturday... those rooting for their teams were Sara and Ward Bushart and Bob and Irene White, the Felix Gossoms and the David Homras, Maree Bushart was the most escorted lady there when she went with Frank Sublette, Bub White, Max McDade and Al Bushart... Mary-Nelle and Doc Wright and Elva and Ernest Fall, Joe McAllister and Mac Ryan were also there... with so little going on families of the college students are really enjoying a visit with their young'uns... Lillian Blagg and little Byron are coming home this week end. Don Wright will come with them.

Just to be sure that Colonel was still around we called the Campbell home and little Cynthia answered the phone. She said indeed that he was still around and that at th moment was in the basement and not in any trouble. Asked if they intended to keep him she was emphatic in her affirmative decision but listen to this conversation from little Cynthia: "Do you want him?" "No indeed, definitely not." "Would you sell him, Cynthia?" "Maybe for three or four thousand dollars."

"Are you kidding child?" "Yes, I am, we wouldn't give him away for anything but you can have mother if you want her."

That friends is a true story, ask Cynthia.

Come rain or snow the ladies of the Country Club will just naturally get together on Tuesday. Twenty-two persons were present this week for the pot-luck luncheon and no matter how inactive things are anywhere else in town those ladies find something to do and talk about. Ruby McDade discussed the shrub-planting project in which the ladies are assisting and its
