Number Fifteen

ARE YOU LISTENING
WFUL
The Best In Daytime
Entertainment

If you failed to see the super presentation of the Cub Scout Minstrel staged at Carr Institute Auditorium Monday and Tuesday nights of this week, then I'm sorry for you. You missed the best local talent show that's been presented here in a very long time. If you did see the minstrel as we did, then I want to talk to you about it.

What we saw amid the spotlights and the glitter was a wonderful production. We saw the little dancers, singers, acrobats and specialty numbers run out on the stage to the tune of their introduction and then go into their act. We saw the beautiful costumes, the stage decorations, the little boys in blue dressed in black for a change. I looked around and saw the audience relaxed and waiting for the curtain to open to see what was in the offering for this year's annual Cub Scout event.

As I looked around from the audience to the stage to the den mothers at the doors and the children all ready for their participation I wondered to myself: How many people in the audience stop to realize just exactly how much work is involved in putting on such a wonderful evening of entertainment. It's terrific. It's colossal. It's stupendous. A two-hour show such as was witnessed on Monday and Tuesday just don't happen, indeed, it certainly doesn't.

Last Fall a nice gent by the name of Nelson Tripp came into the office shortly after the Cub Scout Carnival. "Jo," says he, "now that the carnival is out of the way we're getting to work on the minstrel." I of course thought the man might have his wits a little disturbed after such a big affair as the carnival and I asked him when the minstrel was to be held. He answered that it would be next Spring. Well, for a character like me, who stays a few years behind on almost everything, I thought that perhaps he was looking a little too far into the future. Believe you me, now I know differently and how.

Montelle and Nelson Tripp, the den mothers and the pack committee have reached a new high in our personal Hall of Fame. They still occupy the same spot of honor and esteem they have always held with us, but now something new has been added. Something like deep gratitude and respect for the work they do for your children and ours. . . work that is character-building and long lasting into the future lives of young people today who will guide our destinies tomorrow.

That we all feel about Nelson Tripp and his wonderful helpmate Montelle. The reason I don't is because I am invariably warned by both of them that when I write about Cub Scouts, I must write about Cub Scouts and leave their name out of the story unless it is a matter of grave necessity that it be published. When the last curtain of the two-day event was drawn Tuesday I waited around to tell Nelson and Montelle and Louis Weeks, a pack of committeemen: how much everybody enjoyed the show. Somehow with the show faded into insignificance when I looked at the three of them, all popped, but happy as larks that everything went along well and that they had made a lot of mommas and poppas extremely happy. . . which included other 2000 spectators.

When you talk about Cub Scouting the work that is done here, you somehow don't talk about individuals. . . you talk about a team. . . a team where every member is an important player. You think of Helen Harwood, Vivian Williamson, Margaret Homra, Sook Cullum, Celia Pharis, Margaret McGuire, Jane Carter, Marcella Hancock, Martha Fry, Clara Warren, Blanche Weeks, Naomi McMorris, Dorothy Exum, Nina Freeman, all of them doing their tasks with such efficiency I often wonder how they do it.

Now you take the stage setting for instance. I tried to find out who designed it, who made it, etc. I talked to Helen Harwood and she said "we" did. "We," she said. Nobody takes credit for the individual task, but they all beam when the overall task is done, no matter who did it.

2000 STUDENTS TO ATTEND CAREER DAY AT MURRAY COLLEGE

High School Seniors To Hear Of Opportunities

Invitations to 203 schools to attend Murray State College's fifth annual Career Opportunity day on April 20 have been sent out and approximately 2,000 students from four states are expected to attend, announces M. O. Wraether, public relations director.

High school seniors from Kentucky, Illinois, Tennessee and Missouri will hear speakers discuss the opportunities and training needed in vocational fields of interest to them.

As the program is set up, the seniors will attend the speech on the field of their first choice at 1 p. m., on their second choice, at 2 p. m.

The day begins with registration at 9:30 a. m. At 10:30 a. m. there is an assembly in which entertainment is presented, and at noon there is a free lunch in the new gymnasium.

Speakers for the day are as follows: Prof. A. Carman, agriculture; Miss Clara Eagle, art; Dr. A. M. Wolfson, biological sciences; Prof. T. B. Hogancamp, business; Prof. W. J. Robertson, dramatics.

SON-IN-LAW OF LOCAL COUPLE TAKES HONORS

Charles Williams Wins Top Award In Speech Contest

Charles A. Williams, Paducah attorney, came out first Sunday in another round of the national speech contest of the Toastmasters Club.

Williams topped a field of 10 in a district contest conducted at Purdue University, Lafayette, Ind.

The victory put him in the next-to-last or zone round of the event. This contest will be held in June at Ft. Wayne, Ind.

The final or international round will be held in August.

Williams won the Paducah preliminary and sub-area and area contests at Owensboro and Evansville.

The attorney, former city manager of Paducah, has been a member of the Paducah club ever since it was organized three and a half years ago.

Mr. Williams is the son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lamb.

Chandler's School Tax Proposal Ups Local Rate 33 1-3%

A Chandler-backed bill offered in the Legislature on Wednesday would increase property-tax rates for school districts in Fulton County a whopping 33 1-3 per cent.

It would permit the school districts of Hickman City Schools and the County schools to increase their property tax rates from $1.50 to $2.00 per hundred dollars of valuation.

It would permit the Fulton City School district to increase its tax rate from $2.00 to $2.50 per hundred dollars of valuation. The tax-rate in the Fulton City School district is $2.00 per hundred, because of the $100,000 bond issue voted by the people for school improvements.

Specifically the new tax rate, if passed by the General Assembly would increase the school taxes on property valued at $2000 from $30 to $40 in the Hickman City and county school districts and from $40 to $50 in the Fulton City school district.

A similar proposal was approved by the House 55 to 17 during the regular session, but died in the Senate where, a week before, a bill to raise the school-tax limit to $1.65 was killed 11 to 7.

Governor Chandler amended his call for the present fourth special session of the Legislature to permit consideration of the school tax-limit proposal.

The call amendment listed these subjects in addition to the five subjects specified in the original call:

1. A tax for school purposes.
2. Legislation relating to free textbooks.
3. Legislation relating to terms of circuit courts.

The Administration's bill to raise the state ceiling on local school taxes has been prepared by officials of the State Department of Education. It is a simple amendment to Section 160-475 of the Statutes.

This law requires a school tax of at least 33-cents, but no more than $1.50 per $100 of assessed property value, to be levied for the support of local schools.

The School Foundation Law, enacted in 1954, allows local school districts to levy any tax in excess they desire, provided the increase tax is approved by voters of the school district.

Another law allows school districts to impose an additional 50 cents of tax for school-building construction, again if the

FOUR DIRECTORS TO BE NAMED FRIDAY AT C OF C DINNER

Plans For Year's Work To Be Mapped At Annual Function

The annual membership meeting for the Chamber of Commerce will be held Friday, April 13, at 7 p. m. at the Rose Room of Smith's Cafe.

The order of business includes the election of four directors to replace the four retiring directors.

As a basis for specific program of work, there will also be a discussion of topics that concern immediate and future needs and activities of our community.

Members are asked to make their dinner reservations at the Chamber of Commerce office, by phoning 43.

Members are urged to attend as this meeting is the initial step in the organization of the work for 1956-57.

Supt. W. L. Holland At Lexington Meeting

W. L. Holland, Second vice President of the KEA, and Superintendent of Fulton City Schools, will preside over a section of the 1956 KEA Convention being held this week in Louisville.

Mr. Holland will preside Thursday morning and Thursday evening at sessions in the Memorial Auditorium.

An interesting program is planned for the two days, Wednesday and Thursday.

Get Well, Quale!

Get well wishes are cordially extended to our faithful correspondent in the Chestnut Glade community, Mrs. Harry Vaughn, who has been confined to the Fulton Hospital since March 23. The folks at the News office miss Mrs. Vaughn's interesting weekly reports as much as do the folks out at Chestnut Glade and we are all looking forward to her early recovery.

MAYOR STRESSES IMPORTANCE OF CANCER CAMPAIGN

Fund Drive Is Started Today All Over City

Mayor Bill Browning urged Fulton's people today to give their generous support to the 1956 American Cancer Society Crusade. The annual fund-raising, educational campaign was launched here today.

In a proclamation citing April as Cancer Control Month, Mayor Browning noted that one-third of the cancer deaths in Fulton County last year could have been avoided by earlier diagnosis and adequate treatment.

Fulton's Mayor called for increasing recognition of the society's leadership in the fight against cancer through its programs of research, education and service.

The text of the proclamation follows:

"Cancer is one of the most critical public health problems of our times. Some 250,000 Americans, many of them in our own state, will die of cancer in 1956, if present rates continue. Moreover, at present rates, one American in every four now living will some day be stricken by that disease.

"As a voluntary organization, it depends entirely on the public contributions obtained through its annual Cancer Crusade. As Mayor of Fulton, I, Bill Browning, do hereby proclaim that the residents of this city shall observe April as:

CANCER CONTROL MONTH
Therefore, I urge generous financial support to the Cancer Society's fund-raising campaign, so that it may widen and intensify the battle against cancer until such time as the menace of man's cruellest enemy shall be lifted forever."

Browning Accepts Campaign Post For Senator Clements

W. T. (Bill) Browning, Mayor of Fulton, and a longtime resident of Fulton County today was named Fulton County Co-chairman for the senatorial campaign of Earle C. Clements, Bill Young, State campaign chairman announced today.

Mr. Browning is in the men's clothing business in Fulton.

Senator Clements, who opens his state-wide campaign on radio and television on Tuesday, April 17, said that he was pleased and grateful that Mr. Browning had accepted the chairmanship and felt that the Mayor's wide experience in organizational work would be of great benefit to his local campaign.

A former City Councilman and now Mayor, Mr. Browning has many friends in the city and in the rural areas who have already pledged their wholehearted support to re-electing Senator Clements, who holds the important post of assistant majority leader of the United States Senate.

In accepting the chairmanship Mr. Browning said that he was doing so in the interest of the State of Kentucky, which has benefited greatly by the national prominence and the wide experience that Senator Clements has brought to the office.

Visiting here last month Senator Clements said that he was privileged and honored to have been invited to present the Citizen of the Year Award to Dr. David Lanzo Jones.

In commenting on his appointment Mr. Browning told the News on Wednesday that it was most important to the people of Fulton County to re-elect Senator Clements. "With the uncertainty of the situation that prevails on the national scene both on domestic and international matters, it is extremely important that a man with wide experience represent the State in those matters. Senator Clements has been the watchful guardian of the affairs of farmers, the laboring man, and the businessman.

"He has used his influence and prominence to bring industry and governmental improvements to Kentucky and his campaign will be based on his record of accomplishments, which have been many and varied and worthwhile."

Senator Clements' opponent is Joe Bates, a former Congressman from the mountains of Kentucky.

SOUTH FULTON SCHOOL NEWS

by Martha Weeks

Well, I thought Spring was coming, but I think it turned around and went back into hibernation.

The Junior High boys basketball team was given a banquet last Thursday night, April 5. The whole eighth grade attended, but the coach, Mrs. Mildred Anderson, the Jr. boys team and "Herman," the trophy the team won as winner of the county tournament, were the guests of honor. In appreciation of the fact that the team had a swell coach, they presented Mrs. Anderson with a beautiful corsage of carnations. Dancing followed the banquet.

Jessie Gamblin, Lutricia Bennett, Joan Tune, Norma Henden, Marietta Bennett, Nancy Counce and their supervisor, Mrs. Robert Thompson attended the annual F. H. A. State convention at Nashville, Tenn. They stayed at the Hermitage Hotel while there, and attended F. H. A. meetings in the Memorial Building, which was across the street. While in Nashville they visited the Hermitage, went sightseeing and shopped in Nashville. Everyone had a wonderful time.

Last Friday night, April 7, the Freshman girls honored the Freshman boys with a formal dance in the school cafeteria. The color scheme was green and yellow. The decorations were really lovely. Refreshments were also served.

The Juniors and Seniors will stage their annual trip April 20. They are going to Nashville this year.

Many students and otherwise from South Fulton performed in the Fulton Cub Scout Minstrel. This was really a delightful performance, and the stage set was beautiful.

Many of our students have been out of school with the measles, but we hope to see them back in circulation soon.

KY. GUERNSEY BREEDERS

The Kentucky Guernsey Breeders' Association has as its main objective for the current year, the fostering and stimulation of Junior work in the several Dairy Projects throughout the state. 4 H, FFA, and Boy or Girl owning a Guernsey will come under this program.

In line with this, the Association will attempt to make Guernseys available to Juniors desiring them. A first step in that undertaking is the Association sponsored and managed Spring Heifer Sale to be held at the Sales Arena, University of Kentucky, Lexington, Wednesday, April 4th, at 1:00 p.m.

Although the sale is open, the forty head catalogued were carefully selected and screened with Junior projects in mind and an outstanding group of Sr. Calves, Jr. and Sr. Yearlings will be led into the Sales ring.

With JIM PRYOR
Agricultural Agent, Illinois Central Railroad

Tractors have been rolling day and night this past week. Farmers are taking advantage of the good weather and favorable conditions that we have had recently to get ready for planting. Some have both cotton and corn planted, while others are now ready to begin to plant.

Soil tests are important if you will head the results of the tests and apply food for plants according to recommendations found. The service is easily obtainable and if you are interested in saving money in your operations that you have your fields tested and that you abide by the results. Just as livestock and humans require variety and certain necessary foods we get maximum growth, so do the plants we grow on our farms.

I have personally inspected many fields of grain in west Tennessee this past week. Although the freeze did major damage to some fields and others were not hurt, I believe the outlook for a grain crop is very good at present. Those who top dressed with nitrogen fertilizer this spring have the greenest fields and these are the most promising. Also some are mixed with Vetch and it also shows splendid growth at this period.

Be sure to remain on guard for damage from Army worms and Cut worms. Both can be found in many grain fields. I suggest that you not let a day pass without inspecting your fields. They can almost ruin you overnight.

SHEEP ARE GOOD INVESTMENT

There are available from the West many lambs that will making fine breeding Ewes this fall. If you have a place on your farm for more livestock and really want to make yourself some money, I suggest you try sheep.

We are in touch with sheep dealers throughout the West at all times and will be glad to assist in getting breeding stock for you.

The County Agent in your county and many local Banks have also cooperated in bringing western breeding stock into this area.

Nothing is more beautiful than a flock of sheep with their baby lambs grazing on some hill side this time of the year. With good care and all livestock require it, sheep are real money makers.

Why not buy a flock of these Ewes and start some of the young folks around your house off with them? They, as I have said before deserve good care but what boys or girls interested in the farm would not care for their own flock of sheep.

YOUNG FARMER AWARDED SCHOLARSHIP FOR HISTORY-MAKING CORN CROP

Lamar Ratliff, center, is shown in New Orleans, Louisiana, where he had just been awarded a university scholarship for his achievement of producing an officially-recorded yield of 304.38 bushels of corn from a measured acre. With the 16-year old champion and extending their congratulations to him are Mr. Boyd Campbell, President of the United States Chamber of Commerce, right; and at left Mr. E. D. Funk, Jr. who made the scholarship award on behalf of the Producers of Funk's G-Hybrid corn.

For many years, corn farmers everywhere have been shooting for what at times seemed an impossible goal—a 300-bushel yield of corn. Though only 16, young Lamar Ratliff has himself been trying for this yield since 1950. Last fall, he harvested an officially-recorded 304.38 bushels of corn from a measured acre, to become the first corn grower ever to reach this long-sought, history-making goal.

BANKING AND MONEY MATTERS WAS LESSON OF VICTORY HOMEMAKERS

In the March meeting of the Victory Homemakers, the major project leaders, Mrs. E. L. Cook and Mrs. Gene Dowdy, so pleasantly surprised the club by asking B. J. Pigue, of the City National Bank in Fulton, to meet with the club, who spoke on "Banking and Money Matters."

This lesson helped the women of the county to be better informed of financial matters that all should be familiar with.

Mrs. Ernest Jenkins gave the devotional with lots of good thoughts to remember. Mrs. Raymond Harrison presided over the meeting.

The club made plans with Mrs. Harrison and Mrs. Fred Collier to help serve the dinner for the farmers Tuesday.

Mrs. Harrison and Mrs. Harold Copeland gave a review of the advisory council meeting and plans were discussed and voted upon for the project for another year's work.

Miss Myra Searce gave a report on her trip to the recreation work shop, which was held at Cumberland Falls this year, and she reported a very interesting week. She also demonstrated some of the wood constructed games and some personal things she had made too, from metals, etc.

Mrs. Jenkins gave the reading on historical facts of the state of Tennessee. This had been composed by a local woman and much credit was due her for such an interesting article.

At noon a delicious meal was served to 18 members and four visitors, including Mrs. Bertha McLeod, Home Agent.

The tables were so lovely, being decorated with artistically arranged bowls of jonquils. Mrs. T. M. Merridith was hostess for the month.

After lunch sunshine gifts were exchanged and Mrs. Fred Collier was the lucky person on the gift box. Mrs. Harold Williamson led the group in the recreation, which consisted of a "fishing game."

The April meeting will be held at the Lodgeston Community House with Mrs. J. R. Powell as hostess.

FORMER KY. ADJUTANT GENERAL TO HEAD VETERANS CAMPAIGN FOR CLEMENTS

His acceptance of appointment as veterans campaign chairman for Senator Earle C. Clements was announced here today by Roscoe L. Murray, Elizabethtown, who served as co-chairman of veterans for Governor A. B. Chandler in his campaign last year.

"We were electing a Governor last year, and I favored Chandler for that position," Murray said. "This year we are electing a United States Senator, and the record shows that Earle Clements ought to be re-elected to that post."

The appointment of Murray to the chairmanship of the veterans committee of the campaign was made by William A. Young, state campaign chairman for Clements.

Murray is a veteran of both World Wars I and II. He served as Kentucky adjutant general during Clements' administration as governor.

"I feel strongly that Governor Chandler should not be trying to dictate the voters of Kentucky this year in the selection of our U. S. Senator," Murray said. "One of the reasons I supported him last year was the fact that he put so much emphasis on his claim that he opposed political dictatorship. Now he is completely reversing that position, and seeking to impose his own dictatorship on the people."

"I have known Senator Clements for 30 years, and I feel that his re-election to the Senate is of vital importance to the best interests of Kentucky," Murray continued. "Not one time was I dictated to by him while serving as Kentucky's adjutant general, but instead I had his full co-operation and support in operating the department in the interest of the state."

"I believe the veterans of the state are aware of my long and personal interest in them, and that I have sought by every honorable means to assist a fellow veteran."

Murray has served as a post, district and state vice commander and as state Grande Chef Degree of the 40 and 8.

He is a past state commander of the Disabled American Veterans and is active in Veterans of Foreign Wars activities.

During World War I, Murray served in England, France and Belgium with the 91st (Wild West Division) as sergeant in command of a platoon. He received a battlefield commission which he carried into World War II. He held commands at Ft. Knox and the executive officer's post at Fort Campbell.

Due to a disability, he was retired a full colonel in 1947.

His military career began as a private.

Murray holds AB degrees from both Ogden College and Western State College. He was awarded the MA degree from Peabody College, Nashville, in 1928 and has done work toward a PhD at the University of Kentucky.

After his graduation Murray launched a teaching career that passed through the one room schools to the college class room level.

LIKES TO STAY IN JAIL

Los Angeles. — Joe Vesley, a former janitor, eligible for parole from city jail, recently wrote Judge Joseph L. Call, that he liked it in jail and would prefer not to be paroled. Said Vesley: "I am treated right here. I have good food, good clothing and don't have to pay rent." He was convicted of defrauding an inn-keeper by refusing to pay a $4.02 long-distance telephone call toll.

ELWOOD GORDON TO RUN AGAINST NOBLE GREGORY

Says He Will Be Avowed Anti-
Chandler Candidate

MR. GORDON

Elwood Gordon, Lawyer and farmer of Benton, Kentucky, filed today as a candidate for democratic nomination to the office of U. S. Representative in Congress from the First District of Kentucky.

Announcing his candidacy Gordon said he will be an avowed anti-Chandler administration candidate and that the time has come when the people who do the work, pay the bills and suffer the hardships should have a representative in Congress from this District. He called his opponent, Noble J. Gregory, a rubber stamp for a Mayfield millionaire.

This is the second time for Gordon to challenge Gregory in the house race. He ran against him in 1948, and received the biggest vote of any opponent of the veteran Gregory in 20 years.

Born Near Aurora, Mr. Gordon attended Aurora High school then worked his way through Murray State College, taking his B. S. degree. Mr. Gordon was elected County Court Clerk of Marshall County in 1933. At the time he was only 21 years of age and the youngest County Clerk in the State. He served two terms, leaving office in 1942. He attended the University of Louisville Law School by day and the Jefferson Law School by night, and was admitted to State and Federal Bars in 1946. In addition to his law practice, Mr. Gordon operates a farm in the Cumberland River Bottom of Livingston County.

He is married to the former Miss Bertha Knight of Murray and they are the parents of two sons and three daughters.

Mr. Gordon says he will start his speaking campaign at Benton, April 2 (Tater Day) and will speak at every place he can get a few people to listen from now until election day, May 29. He will schedule Saturday afternoon speaking in each county seat town and will advertise the time and place of these speaking through the local papers and radio stations in advance.

PIERCE - HARRIS COMMUNITY CLUB MEET MARCH 28

The Pierce - Harris Community Club met Wednesday, March 28, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Roberts with twenty-two members and eight visitors present. There was one new member Mrs. M. E. Thorpe.

Mrs. Clarence Roberts opened the meeting with everyone singing "Onward Christian Soldiers" led by Miss Marene Allen. Mrs. Richard Ferguson gave the devotional from Mathews seventh chapter, and also led in prayer.

It was decided to move the library to Mrs. M. N. Parger's. The Club donated $5.00 to the Red Cross.

Some of the project leaders gave some interesting hints. After a delicious dinner, Mrs. Pearson introduced Mr. Clark and he gave some points on gardening.

Miss Cora Livingston announced the dress contest to be April 27 and the frozen food demonstration at the Farm Bureau Hall on April 17.

A contest was conducted by Mrs. L. D. Allen. The Club adjourned to meet in April with Mr. and Mrs. Lit Dedmon.

NO HELP THIS YEAR

Rep. Martin of Massachusetts, the House of Republican leader, also saw Eisenhower. Martin said he believes the House this year will reverse last year's vote for a return to the World War II system of rigid supports.

Sen. Potter (R-Mich.) said he will vote to retain the flexible system. He said the rigid plan was "to a large degree responsible for our present critical surplus."

Potter said that if the 90 per cent props are restored "the markets for basic commodities will be plunged deeper and deeper." He said this would cheap grain flowing into the livestock and dairy markets with the result that those markets would also be forced downward.

Sens. Thye (R - Min) and Carlson (R - Kan) said in Senate speeches that the soil bank is a good idea but that it can't help farmers much this year. They called for other steps to jack up the farm economy as an immediate need.

The Senate today passed a bill which already has gone through the House, to exempt from farming. The Senate made some small changes, however, and these will have to be adjusted before the exemption becomes final.

The agriculture report on farm income was no surprise. The fact that farmers have been making less, while non-farmers were earning more, has been apparent a long time and extensively reported.

WHAT MAKES "THE ROCKET" ROCKET?

'56 HOLIDAY COUPE

Here's why the engine that started the high-compression era still tops the field today!

THE ROCKET BROUGHT high-compression performance to motoring... set the standards... broke the records.

Today it's the same. With a high in compression of 9.25 to 1 and a displacement of 324 cubic inches, the Rocket packs a potent new wallop.

THERE'S AN EFFORTLESS SMOOTHNESS that tells you this one is a masterpiece of balance and precision. What's more this power plant's big-bore, short-stroke design means shorter piston travel for less friction, less wear and longer life.

You'll rarely use the full 230+ horsepower under the hood. But, you'll go for the Rocket's high torque—the force that makes the wheels go 'round. Even at medium speeds, your toe can call a hefty 340 pound-feet of torque into play—to move you away from a light or pass by any emergency. Add Jetaway Hydra-Matic* and you meet Rocket action at its smoothest.

VISIT OUR SHOWROOM TODAY! We invite you to "Rate the Rocket" on the road. You'll get out of the ordinary... into an Olds!

1240 h.p. and 350 lb.-ft. of torque in Super 88 and Ninety-Eight models. *Standard on Series Ninety-Eight; optional at extra cost on all other series.

Diary of Doin's

—Around Fulton—

The News writes social happenings about you and your friends (Listen To Airwave Diary: Thursday, 9:45 A. M., Over WFUL)

Two lovely little girls — one with long blonde curls — the other with soft brown hair — unfurled the NATIONAL EMBLEM as the chorus of 100 voices rang out in the stirring song — "You're a Grand Old FLAG" — And the curtain came down on the 10th Annual Cub Scout Minstrel.

Weeks and weeks of preparation by scout leaders, mothers, dads and children and at long last — came the long-awaited Monday and Tuesday nights of this week when everyone went to the minstrel.

Those of us who have spent long hours working on this worthwhile project know what it means to the scout cause — to the children — and to the town of Fulton. Everyone connected with the project has a job to do and we might add that those jobs are always done well because those who volunteer their services strictly put their hearts into the job.

Your Diarist sincerely hopes that all of you attended the minstrel because it was surely a full evening's entertainment. It gave us an opportunity to see many talented youngsters of our "home town." It was a wonderful show and our hearts are full of gratitude to those of you who made it the success that it was.

Here and there —

Nelle and Robert Graham have lots of activity at their house this week because their charming daughter, Anna Frances Hitchcock and children, Dee Ann and Robert Lee, arrived Saturday to spend a week with them. We talked with them at church Sunday and learned that husband, Dick Hitchcock, was unable to leave his duties at the University of Louisville, where he teaches — to say nothing about his duties as a C. P. A. and his law practice — we have decided — but definitely — that our friend, Dick, is just about the busiest young man we know. Rheidelle Tucker Murphy is here this week visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Tucker on Park Avenue. Rheidelle brought her darling little granddaughter, Sydney Spellings of Memphis along with her. Sydney, you know, is the daughter of Joan Bullock Spellings. Sydney always loves to come to Fulton and go out to lunch with all of "the girls", as she calls her grandmother's friends. She always enjoys going to church in Fulton, too. In fact, she's a real Fultonian — at heart. Come back to see us, Sydney. . . . The many friends of Geneva and Roy Green and children of Cleveland, Ohio, will be happy to know that they are moving back to Fulton in the near future. Geneva is a sister of Pearl Lee Hogan and Beulah May Hutchens. . . . The Greens purchased the James T. Fowlkes home on Route 2. . . . Livingston Read has returned to his home in Chicago after a few days visit with his mother, Mrs. I. H. Read on Jefferson Street.

Dr. Danny Baird, Betty and Parks Weeks, Win Whitel, Dudley Morris and J. C. Hancock attended the Western Kentucky Vanderbilt Club dinner meeting which was held at the Irvin Cobb Hotel in Paducah Friday night. Al Gueppe, assistant Vandy football coach and twin brother of Vandy's head coach, Art Gueppe, was speaker for the delightful occasion. He showed a film of the 1956 Gator Bowl game between Vanderbilt and Auburn. Parks Weeks was elected Vice-President of the club and Dudley Morris was elected to serve on the board of directors.

By way of the grapevine your Diarist heard that six of our young matrons, Mary Louise Gossum, Irene Blankenship, Sara Nell Jones, Marilyn Stokes, Donna Homra Meador Lee Maddox, was so happy last week because her son, J. Mack Scates and lovely wife, Sara, and their children, Susan, Mary King and Julian of Chicago spent several days in Fulton. While here they stayed with J. Mack's sister, Jan, Edwards and family in Country Club Courts. Meador Lee, as you know, has been ill for a few weeks and we know that J. Mack's visit gave her the "lift" that she needed. Our best wishes for you to soon be well again, Meador Lee.

Ann Holland and Ruby McDade left Friday for Louisville where they attended a party Saturday night given by Mrs. Ben H. Collings at her home on Newburg Road, announcing the engagement of her daughter, Elizabeth, to Read Holland. Your Diarist is eagerly awaiting Ann Holland's return to Fulton so that we may be better informed about the lovely affair.

Odie and Bernard Houston and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer McNatt spent Sunday in Tupelo, Miss. The Houstons will visit Shirley and Eddie Holt and the McNatts will visit Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Brasfield. . . . Pat and Bennett Wheeler and children are having a wonderful visit in the sunny Florida climate. They left Sunday for a two-weeks' stay and they will attend a three-day meeting at the Whitehall Hotel in Palm Beach for the President's Club members of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company. Bennett was one of only two salesmen in the state of Kentucky who produced an all time high record in writing insurance in the Paducah District for 1955. Congratulations, Mr. Wheeler! . . . Mrs. Charles E. Holt of Nashville returned to her home Wednesday after a visit with Cammie and Dorothy Newton at their home on Maple Avenue. Many Fulton friends will remember Mrs. Holt as the former Idalene Newton.

Congratulations to Fredrica Gibson, daughter of Nell and Fred Gibson of Fulton, who is the new president of Sigma Kappa Sorority at Memphis State College.

Fredrica is a very prominent young lady on MSC's campus as she is one of the high-stepping majorettes in the band. She has also served as vice-president and activities chairman for her sorority, vice-president of the Kappa Alpha Sweethearts Club, secretary of the German Club, and a member of the History Association, the Southern Historical Association and the West-nessee college!

Mary Ann Hill, daughter of Eron and Don Hill, was also elected an officer for the sorority. She holds the office of Tri-angle Correspondent. We're proud of you girls, because we think it is a singular honor for Kentucky lassies to hold such responsible offices in that Tennessee college!

Miss Betty Johnson, bride-elect of James Butts was honored Thursday afternoon from 3 to 5 p. m. when Mesdames Marvin Stoker, Hobson Mayo, Fred Stoker and Charles Butts entertained with a gift tea in the home of Mrs. Charles Butts. The home was lovely with arrangements of daffodils, ferns and carnations. Mrs. Charles Butts greeted the guests, wearing a navy blue chrysolette dress and a corsage of white daffodils.

She then introduced them to the receiving line, Miss Johnson wearing pink linen and a corsage of white carnations, Mrs. Taylor McKinney, mother of the bride-elect, wearing a black silk shantung and a corsage of pink carnations. The table was overlaid with a beautiful Egyptian lace cloth, with a center arrangement of a fustoria punch bowl and a miniature bride and groom. Assisting in the serving were white satin and net formal and a corsage of yellow daffodils, Mrs. Henry Spikes, in a green net and velvet formal and a cor-

Social Interest Centered In Engagement Of Miss Elizabeth Collings To Mr. Read Holland

Mrs. Ben H. Collings of 2200 Newburg Road, Louisville, Kentucky, has announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Elizabeth Collings, to Mr. James Read Holland, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Lawrence Holland of Fulton, Kentucky. Miss Collings is a graduate of Randolph-Macon Woman's College, Lynchburg, Va., is a member of Pi Beta Phi and Amsam sororities and of the Spinsters Club in Louisville.

Mr. Holland is a graduate of the University of Kentucky, with Master's degree in Metallurgy from the University of Sheffield, Sheffield, England, presently working toward his degree of Doctor of Engineering in Physical Metallurgy at the University of Kentucky. His fraternities are: Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Tau Beta Pi, Omicron Delta Kappa, Lamp & Cross and Lances. An August wedding is planned.

Impressive Double Ring Ceremony Is Read As Miss Betty Sue Johnson Weds James Butts

By Agatha Voelgel

One of the loveliest of the spring weddings was that of Miss Betty Sue Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Taylor McKinney, who became the bride of James Butts, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Butts of Dresden, Tenn., on Saturday afternoon, April 8, 1956. The impressive double-ring ceremony was solemnized at the First Baptist Church with the pastor, the Rev. John D. Laidlaw, officiating.

The altar was beautifully decorated with large sunburst arrangements of white cathedral gladioli and woodwardia ferns.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. J. U. McKendree, organist, and Mrs. Joe Treas, mezzo-soprano, presented a program of nuptial music.

The bride, who was given in marriage by Dr. John Lloyd Jones, wore an ethereal wedding gown of imported lace in a rose pattern and tulle poised over bridal satin. She wore pearl earrings and matching necklace, which were gifts of the groom. Her bouquet was of gardenias sage of yellow daffodils, and little Miss Margaret Ann Butts, wearing pink polished cotton and a corsage of pink and blue forget-me-nots.

The bride's book was kept by Mrs. Hobson Mayo, wearing ice blue broadened linen and a corsage of white carnations.

The many lovely gifts she received were shown by Mrs. Marvin Stoker, wearing red faille and a corsage of white daffodils.

Mrs. Gene Hatfield was elected president of the Junior Department of Fulton Woman's Club last Tuesday night at their regular meeting at the club home.

The club rooms were beautifully decorated with bouquets of spring flowers. Candelabra held glowing candles which added to the beauty of the room.

The meeting was opened with the Lord's Prayer. The roll was (Continued on page ten)

Engagement Of Miss Claudia Manon Scott To Mr. Edward Nations Is Of Wide Interest Here

MISS SCOTT

Mr. and Mrs. Wade Hampton Scott of Fulton, Ky. are today announcing the engagement of their daughter, Miss Claudia Manon Scott to Mr. Wayne Edward Nations, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nations of Cape Girardeau, Mo.

Miss Scott attended Southeast Missouri State College and Missouri University where her sorority was Delta Gamma. For the past two years she has taught school in Sikeston Public Schools where she is now employed. She is a member of the American Association of University Women and holds office as secretary in this organization. She is also an active member of the Junior Woman's Club.

Mr. Nations attended Missouri University where he received his degree in Business and Finance. His fraternity is Kappa Alpha.

He is employed in the advertisement department of the Sikeston Daily Standard until May. He will enter training at Fort Sill, Okla. as a Lieutenant for six months.

An early summer wedding is planned.

Fred Williams, Mrs. Glyn Rice, wore a striking ensemble with Miss Hazel Clark and Mrs. Billy black sheath dress. Her tiny hat was of black metallic Hagan.

Early in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Butts left for a southern wedding trip after which they will make their home in Dresden. For travelling, Mrs. Butts

Congratulations To South Fulton On Factory Bond Issue

From the Kentucky side of the border we extend cordial congratulations to our good friends in the fast growing community of South Fulton for the progressive step taken last Saturday by the voters there. In an overwhelming decision the citizens voted upon a $500,000 bond issue that would enable the city to erect a huge building to accommodate some prospective industry that may wish to locate there.

We believe the people of South Fulton have solved an age-old question among communities that seek to procure industry to bolster the economy of their area.

It has always seemed a question in communities whether to make plans to erect a building after a "sure" tenant has called or to erect the building first in order to have something concrete to offer some industry if they come a-calling. South Fulton has taken the initiative.

They have procured the permission from the voters to issue bonds to erect a building if and when a suitable industry makes its wishes known to locate in South Fulton.

The bond issue voted upon last Saturday would be a revenue-producing one. The revenue secured from the rental of the building would be used to retire the bonded indebtedness and would be set at such a figure to make the interest payment and to make payments on the principal at specified times.

The bonds, if and when issued, would be at no cost to the citizens in the form of additional taxes.

There can be no question that South Fulton is most anxious to have a good industry locate within its boundaries. The city has made that matter quite clear by going directly to the people, who signified their enthusiasm at the polls last week. We congratulate the city officials of South Fulton for taking such action as to get approval from its citizens and moreover we congratulate the citizens who made it known clearly that they will do anything within their power to continue the steady and worthwhile growth of their fine little city.

Children Need Time For Relaxation And Leisure

Is Junior tired and listless in the morning, unwilling to jump brightly out of bed and off to school? Is bedtime a nightmare because Susie hasn't finished her homework and Junior can't be dragged away from the television set? Are both children short on appetite and long on complaints? Do they never want to do any chore around the house?

It could be adolescence of course, but it doesn't necessarily mean that they need a trip to the doctor, around of spring tonic or even the latest vitamin pill. Several prominent physicians have pointed out recently that American children are suffering from a lack of leisure time.

Like their club-mad parents, too many children of today are hurrying frantically from one activity to another without having the proper time to grow in peace. We have gone so far in trying to "orient" our children to society that we do not allow them time for orientation to themselves.

On Monday it's a Scout meeting, Tuesday dancing lessons, Wednesday junior choir, Thursday piano or band, Friday a dance at the Rec, Saturday art classes or a movie matinee, Sunday a full day of Sunday school, church and young people's session in the evening. Sandwiched in between, in every available moment, come homework, radio, television, school plays and movies. A modern child's daily schedule is so complex it has to be worked out a week in advance and set down in an engagement book so nothing will be overlooked and forgotten.

When does today's child have time to live? Junior ought to have leisure to read something he really wants to read, to build a tree-house, to wander in the woods and along the creek, to putter in his workshop. Susie ought to have a chance to play dolls again, to enjoy a play-house in the yard, to explore the family attic, to look at a flower, to lie in the hammock.

Childhood needs its time to dream and dreaming is crowded out by a regimented schedule.

Loss Of Small Farms Means Loss In Business

Ed's Note: The following article appeared last Saturday in the Union City Messenger and we believe it is worth reprinting herewith as food for thought.

"With consolidation of farms in progress as a result of mechanization, Ohio county in the past five years has lost 12 percent of its farms and about that percentage of its farmers. Weakley county has lost 20 percent of its farms and farms and north of Kentucky have lost about 12 percent," Rotarian Jim Tice, who is with the Pet Milk Co., at Martin, told the Union City Rotary club Friday noon at the Lexington.

"This means that many Union City merchants in the last five years have lost 12 percent of their customers; that while as much seed, feed and other such products are being sold as before, the demand for clothing and personal needs necessarily has decreased because of the falling population on the farms.

"Weakley county has lost more farms and farmers than Ohio county because Weakley had more small farmers to begin with.

SERMONETTE OF THE WEEK

The Teacher With All The Answers

By Monsignor Ronald Knox, internationally known scholar and author OUR TIME has seen a great popular interest in comparative religion. Even popular magazine articles point out the similarity of the world's great religion.

But comparative religion is an admirable recipe for making people comparatively religious. Such a study often leads one to conclude "that there isn't much of a difference after all."

CHRISTIANITY, as taught by Christ, is different, however. It is a falacy to think you can compare it with other religions as if it were on the same level.

When you compare Christianity with Confucianism, you are comparing two systems of personal morality. Compare Christianity with Mohammedanism and you are comparing two forms of fighting enthusiasm.

WHEN YOU compare Christianity with Buddhism, you are comparing two streams of mystical tendency. And unconsciously, you have recognized that Christianity is something greater than any of the others. Each of the others corresponds to one particular mood of man; Christianity corresponds to all three.

Christianity is not just a system of morals. Our Lord did not come to give us a set of helpful quotations to print in calendars. He came to tell us about Himself.

Did Confucius ever say, "All power is given to me in heaven and on earth"? Did Mohammed ever say, "Whosoever confesseth me before men, the same will I confess before my Father who is in heaven"? Did Buddha ever say, "No one cometh to the Father but by me"? This was Christ's teaching. Jesus Christ didn't think of Himself as the leader of just

By now, not having written this column for a number of weeks, my desk corner is so full of notes written on scraps of napkins and odd bits of paper that I'm going to write one this week so I can throw the notes away.

Speaking of saving such things, do you ever have occasion to rummage through drawers around the house? I believe we have a ton of odd letters, old Christmas cards, old pictures, old newspaper clippings, and miscellaneous junk that just never gets around to getting cleaned out. I won't let Jo do it for fear she will throw away something I want to save, and vice versa. So there it stays.

Recently I rummaged through a stack of Christmas cards and was delighted to find that we had received one from an old friend of mine. And then I looked at the postmark and discovered it was received three years ago.

Somewhere in those drawers lies a piece of gold mosaic taken as a souvenir of St. Peter's in Rome, as well as an old-fashioned large dollar bill that my father gave me, and after ten years of spasmodic search I am still hoping both will turn up.

Jo was real unhappy last week, and un-happy is a good description of her case. While all the rest of us Ky. Kernels received 2-color engraved invitations to the annual banquet honoring Happy (May 4), Jo didn't, and figures she's been de-commissioned.

Charles Wade Andrews and Bobby Boaz, ace musicians who are freshmen at Murray, have joined another Fultonian, James Windsor, in the elite musical fraternity at Murray, and will go "on tour" soon with the Phi Mu orchestra. Bobby played in the band for the 1956 Campus Lights production, and Charles Wade tried out and won a second-trumpet berth last week, after finally arranging his study schedule to work in the time.

Such accomplishment by Fulton musicians will, I hope, bring about the realization by other, younger boys that right here in Fulton we have a wonderful opportunity for them to learn and enjoy this type of music while they are in high school. Musicians, like athletes, are another religion. He knew, and preached, to men, that, He alone was the way to God.

SOME MEN will point out the great likeness between Christian and Buddhist saints and mystics. But Christianity, is something else besides mysticism, whereas Buddhism is precious little else.

Christ offers us a new supernatural life, complete with all its facilities, in the midst of this troubled world. No one else offers us that. No one else dares claim of us the faith to believe in that.

developed in high school; it's next to impossible to start from scratch in college in these fields and amount to anything.

Received a letter this week from the newspaper at Lexington, Ky. containing a lot of good arguments for keeping the annual State basketball tournament site at the UK campus instead of transferring it to Louisville. I didn't even know that such a move was even thought of, but it must be, with all the array of matter in the mail.

Come May 4, the area around Reelfoot Lake will overflow with movie stars, with filming of scenes for the cinemascope production "Raintree Country" May 4-9, bringing in Elizabeth Taylor, Montgomery Clift, Agnes Moorhead and Ann Francis, to name some of the more important.

So don't be surprised if fishing gets awfully good down that way about May 1st through the 10th.

On the 10th the whole works moves up to Danville, Ky. where most of the picture will be filmed.

Perhaps you read last week that Franklin, Ky. was just selected as the location for a million-dollar industry, expanding from over-crowded quarters out of Chicago's south side. The Bauer and Black Company, manufacturers of industrial tapes, plastic film and other specialties, negotiated with the Franklin Industrial and Development Association for "several months," the report stated, and then bought a 76-acre tract of land in Franklin and will erect a 7-story, air-conditioned building that will employ 100.

Now Lowell Valentine, who runs the newspaper and radio station in Franklin (and a translated Fultonian, by the way) was in town last week-end visiting his in-laws and I asked him about how they managed to get this plant.

Well sir, apparently this outfit walked into Franklin, liked the town, bought their own land and are going to put up their plant (35,000 square feet with possible - enlargement features). It will cost the community association less than $1000 to get the job done, according to my informant.

Minutes of last meeting were read and treasurer's report was given.

A business discussion followed. A donation by the club was given to the Red Cross drive.

With the vice-president presiding the following project leader reports were given:

Clothing, by Valda Puckett; Home Management, by Vera Carlton; Crafts, by Joyce Brown.

During the recreation period Mrs. Joyce Brown was in charge.

Our Urban Citizens Must Be Told

The Truth About Agriculture

She looked me straight in the eye and said "Don't tell me your farm troubles; I have enough of my own trying to feed a family of four on $100 a month for groceries."

She was a city housewife coming out a super - market with a basket of food that had cost her $22.40. She was a little woman, but it wasn't too heavy for her to carry.

Moreover, just parted with a sizable chunk of her husband's weekly paycheck, she was in a mood to talk. "This," she said holding out the basket of food, "won't last us a week."

I peeked into the basket. What I saw included garden - fresh frozen vegetables; cake mixes; warm and serve biscuits; and a couple of top - grade, fancy cuts of prepackaged meats. I refrained from telling her she was paying for a lot more than just food.

"Don't tell me your troubles," she repeated. "I read the papers and I know what is going on. Farmers are crying for more Government subsidies, and they want help to increase food prices still more."

"I read the other day where the Government is hoarding $10 billion worth of farm commodities just to create scarcities and keep prices high. Then they talk about surpluses. If there are surpluses, why are prices so high? I haven't noticed them coming down any."

"And let me tell you something else. If that," she fished out the sales slip, "were all it cost me, I wouldn't be so ripped up. John says he pays some more than goes to farmers when he pays his taxes."

"Don't talk about your farm squeeze to me. How about us consumers getting squeezed? The Government spends more than $1 billion a day just to keep food off the market, then it pays farmers more millions not to grow things - and we foot the bill when we pay taxes as well as the grocery store."

"I'm going to write my Congressman and tell him what I think."

I talked with enough others to conclude that what this lady thinks of farmers is pretty typical of big - city housewives. It all adds up to the result of some very bad public relations on the part of farmers. It points up the need to do something.

Many thoughtful farmers and farm leaders think public relations may be our No. 1 farm problem. Public opinion determines legislation and influences national policy. It is the most powerful force in any democracy.

Legislation has come to have an increasing effect on farmers. If enough consumers become costs, then we will be in even more serious trouble. Fortunately, not enough Congressmen as yet subscribe to that view.

But, many of our friends in Congress are worried. Rep. Harold Cooley of North Carolina, Agriculture Committee, told the House:

"The time has come when those of us who are interested in the welfare of farmers - and, indeed, the welfare of our country - must find a way to present the truth about agriculture to the people - especially to the great urban population of the nation."

Farm organization leaders share his concern. Charles Shuman, president of the Farm Bureau, thinks "it might be a good thing for all of us - farmers and nonfarmers alike - to take an inventory of our public relations problems," and that "when this is done, we farmers and our organizations should take the lead in bringing about those improvements which are shown to be necessary."

Herschel Newsom, Master of the National Grange, told us: "These are the days of organized effort - the days when, as rural people, we must combine our efforts to formulate and develop the soundest possible kind of program of which we are capable; and secondly, having molded a sound public opinion, we must use our organizations to express the opinion and pursue the program for the benefit of ourselves and our total national well being."

Holmer Brinkley from Lake Charles, La., executive vice president of the National Council of Farmer Cooperatives, says, "Significant progress can be made in improving agriculture's public relations through the following means:

"1. A concerted effort should be made by agricultural spokesmen to encourage business concerns which buy from or sell to farmers to devote a portion of their extensive institutional advertising material to calling attention to agriculture's contribution to the national welfare."

"2. Agricultural leaders and individual farmers at every level national, state, and local - should seek out every opportunity to tell agriculture's story to nonfarm people."

"3. Concerted efforts should be directed at promoting greater understanding of each other by agriculture, business, and industry through such worthwhile methods as the National Farm - City Week."

"4. Assistance and encouragement should be given bona fide organizations which bring together representatives of agriculture and those of business and industry to emphasize the interdependence of agriculture and other segments of the economy and to bring about a clearer understanding between the various groups."

Individually and through our farm and other civic organizations, we can talk things over with city people. We need to make greater use of all forms of communication - newspapers, magazines, T. V. and radio. Our story is simple and easily told.

We don't want Government handouts. We are not looking for charity, or pity. All we want is an equal opportunity in a free America to share fairly in the prosperity we feel we have helped create. For several years we have not been getting an even break.

Per - capita farm income is about half that of urban people, figuring national averages. The investment - in land, machinery, livestock, and the other things it takes to make a farm is close to double that invested per worker in industry.

As farmers, we cannot control our output as precisely as can a factory owner. We can't shut production on or off on short notice. We can't always estimate production accurately when we start a crop. Weather has a lot to do with that.

We don't set the price for what we produce. We are the only people who sell for what the buyer will pay, and buy at the seller's price. We lack both the bargaining power of organized labor, and the control over production and pricing exercised by industry.

It has been the history of this and every other nation - that when farmers, the only producers of renewable raw materials suffer economic distress for long, the entire economy is dragged into a depression.

It is in the national interest, as well as that of farmers, that we work with and through our Government to protect agriculture - or any other part of our economy - from unreasonable economic oppression. We, and our city neighbors, are that government - and government in the long run is an expression of the will of a majority of the people.

The only course open to a minority group - and we are steadily becoming more and more a minority - is that we obtain the understanding and cooperation of the majority. That is the public relations job we face in agriculture, and it is time we got on with it.

Its power packin' punch put it No.1 in V-8 sales

And now Ford's new 225-h.p. engine gives you even hotter performance!

Today's trend in automobiles is to the V-8 engine. That's because today's car buyer demands performance. And sales figures show that Ford V-8 with its power-packin' punch is the largest-selling eight in the world! Official figures for 1955 show that 346,373 more people bought Ford V-8's than bought the two other low-priced eights combined!

But now Ford is setting an even hotter V-8 pace by making available the biggest engine ever offered in the low-price field. It's the Thunderbird Special V-8 - and you can order it now in Fairlane and Station Wagon models. With a displacement of 312 cubic inches and 225 horsepower, it whisks you from "whoa" to GO as you've never gone before!

Ford gives you that wonderfully long, low look of the Thunderbird. You get Lifeguard Design, also, to help protect you in case of accident. Test Drive this new Ford... today!

called with each member introducing her guests. Mrs. Morgan Omar introduced Mrs. Pete Cameron and Mrs. Buck Wood. Mrs. Robert Rudolph introduced Mrs. Charles King. The club was glad to have Mrs. Leonard Frazier of Paducah and Miss Patricia Legg as guests. Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

During the business session, a review of the club year was given by Mrs. Tom Kelley in the absence of Mrs. William Sloan. A review of gifts sent the orphan was given. Kindergarten chairman, Mrs. Morgan Omar gave a report, stating that the past year had been unusually successful. The scholarship committee chairman, Mrs. Gene Hatfield, stated that the applications were still coming in at this date and no meeting had been held.

The nominating committee chairman, Mrs. Tom Kelley, gave the following slate, which was elected by acclamation: Mrs. Gene Hatfield, president; Mrs. Arthur Roman, first vice president; Mrs. Robert Rudolph, second vice-president; Mrs. L. M. McBride, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Bill Hagan, recording secretary; Mrs. Bob McGee, treasurer; and Mrs. Arch Huddleston, sponsor.

At the close of the business session, Mrs. Rudolph graciously thanked the club for the flowers sent at the time of her grandfather's death.

During the program, Mrs. Arthur Roman and Miss Patricia Legg rendered, delightful piano duet arrangements.

The hostesses, Mrs. Gene Hatfield and Mrs. Nathan Wade, served coffee and cakes to the 14 members and five guests. The social hour was spent before the fireplace, where there was a delightful arrangement of daffodils in a brass container, flanked by five tier candleholders, with green candles. Before the green fireplace screen was a pink arrangement in a large brass container.

The Music Department of the Woman's Club had a very interesting meeting on Tuesday night when the Dyersburg Music Club presented the program.

Twenty guests from Dyersburg charmed their audience with a delightful program consisting of twelve numbers.

Mrs. Hugh Pigue, chairman of the Fulton Club, has brought many interesting programs to the members during the year. The club has shown a large increase in its membership.

Hostesses for the meeting Tuesday night were Carlene Jolley, Kathryn Bennett, Montelle Tripp, Odie Houston, Lorene Harding and Louise Binford.

University of Tennessee. The U. T. M. B. held their annual Home Economics Club Banquet at Smith's Cafe Monday night. Guest speaker for the delightful occasion was Miss Marian Heard, Professor of related Arts and Crafts from the
