Jo's Note Book

If what the Republicans say about the Democrats and vice versa is true, it's a waste of time to get out of bed in the morning. It's not only a waste of time, but it's dangerous too. Harry Truman called the Republicans a "bunch of racketeers" and the Republican keynote speaker says the Democrats started wars, raided the treasury, and deceived the public, which for my money sounds a little like racketeering, too.

I think that in November thousands of voters will cast their ballot for Betty Furness, the queen of the refrigerators. At least Betty kept her speeches from turning to garbage by the new thin-sliced ice cubes. And what is more her platform was the only refreshing change in pace of both conventions. . . at least she changed her wardrobe with every commercial. That was different.

For months now I have been studying like mad to get on some one of the many quiz programs on the airwaves hoping to make a quick buck. And until the conventions started I didn't even know that the Government has been conducting some "give-away" programs that make the $100,000 question a small pile of peanuts. What I want to know is how come some liver pill manufacturer hasn't sponsored some of the Government's "give-away" loot.

I heard a fellow on TV say that the Democrats had given away China, Poland, Korea and half of the rest of the world to Joe Stalin and his band of quiz kids. That doesn't count the victory they gave away at Yalta and Potsdam, half of Germany, and the hot-seat at Hell's Canyon. And here we sit out in the Highlands having to pay through the nose for a 65x200 foot lot with a little ole two-story frame cottage sitting on one end of the yard. For years we've dreamed of a little ole piece of ground somewhere along Kentucky Lake for a place to rest our weary bones in our waning years. And yet, if we'd only plugged up this hole in our head we might have been a contented house frau in the Bavarian Alps if we had only known about those Government give-aways.

On the other plateau, and far from an isolation booth, the Democrats keep ding-donging the give-away program of the Republicans. Truman said the natural resources of this great American nation had been tinkled away like Christmas bells. I guess the natural-resources give-away means rivers, lakes, mines, oil wells, prairies, and sand-lot baseball diamonds. But these scrawny prizes the Republicans gave away make the Democrats' jack-pot look like something for a revolving show. But so . . . I could do fine with even a runt-sized oil well right in the middle of the bed-room floor. I'd be glad to sleep in an oil puddle often the well was gave to me. I don't want no part of China . . . rice is fattening.

I want to know how you get in on one of these Government give-aways? Let's see. Maybe if I sent in the embalmed bodies of 550 starvation-farmers and 25 cents maybe I would have a chance to get in on the Yellowstone Park give-away and come away with a couple of tree-stumps. Or maybe I could send in a million empty cans for motor oil and perhaps I have a chance to compete in the Tidelands oil give-away. I'm eager. I've been saving tax-payment stamps for 25 years and I haven't filled up a book full enough to bring home a one-cup percolator.

We're living in an age of contrasting delirium. Here one political party picks up a whole country of nearly 5,000,000 miles (China) and 500,000,000 people and just plunk gives it away. . . I don't know who in the world got it . . . unless it's Hugh Fly, at the Derby Cafe. . . he serves Chinese food. But that couldn't be; Hugh pays for everything he gets.

On the other hand other folks pay and pay and pay. Take Happy Chandler for instance. He goes to Chicago to try for the Democratic nomination for President. Nobody gave him a thing, and especially the Democratic party. He reported that his campaign for the nomination (Continued on page five)

Burnette and Hamlin Show Champions Fulton Teachers To

Get Average $780 Annual Pay Boost

The payroll for the Fulton City school faculty will be increased a total of $19,343.96 for the school year 1956-57. The total annual salary for the school year 1955-56 of all teachers in the Fulton City School system was $64,963.54. The budget for 1956-57 calls for a total annual salary outlay of $84,297.50.

The average annual salary per teacher for the year 1955-56 was $209.80 while for the year 1956-57 it will be $280.92. This means that the average teacher has received an average annual raise of $70.12. Not every teacher has received this much raise, for the raise was based on preparation and experience. Some teachers will receive as little as a $30.00 raise while some will receive as much as $1,000.00, the average for all being $70.12. Broken down into average monthly salaries the increase has boosted monthly average pay from $213.99 per month to $303.73.

Since it is estimated that 95% of a teachers' take home pay is spent at home, their increase should reflect some in the volume of business for local merchants.

A new lighting system has been installed in Fulton High School which is deemed to be adequate. Next year the entire school system is to be given a new coat of paint. New heating systems, new lights, fully repaired roofs, new rest rooms, lockboards, teachers lockers, green blackboards etc. are the fruit of the Special Tax. In addition the Milton school has had a complete remodeling job done on it to the extent that it is modern throughout.

FULTON SCHOOLS TO OPEN ON SEPT. 4; FACULTY TO MEET

Bookstore Opens Earlier For First Grade Students

School will officially open in the Fulton City Schools at 9:00 a.m. Tuesday, Sept. 4. However there will be a faculty meeting held in Fulton High School at 9:00 a.m. Friday, August 31. After this the different faculty members will go to their respective schools for the rest of the school day. Students above the first grade and new to the system will register in the different schools at 1:30 p.m. on August 31.

In order to make the first day of school easier for both the first grader and his mother, the bookstore will open for first grade business only, on Friday, August 31 at 9:00 in the Fulton High School basement. The first grade from Terry Norman and from Carr may purchase books in the Bookstore at this time while those from Milton may purchase their books at the Milton School.

Books for the second, third, fourth, and fifth grades will be placed on sale on Tuesday, Sept. 4 from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. Grades six, seven and eight may purchase their books from 2:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. Sept. 4. High School students will purchase their books on Wednesday morning Sept. 5 at available times. It will save confusion and lots of delay if parents and students will respect this schedule. Mrs. G. B. Butterworth and Mrs. Glenn Clark will be in charge of the sale of books at the Fulton High School Bookstore.

BREEDERS REVEAL RESIGNATION OF MR. WARREN BARD

Warren Bard, who for the last three years has served for the Artificial Inseminator at the Jackson Purchase Artificial Breeders' Cooperative No. 1, has resigned, it was announced here today by Thomas Bruce, president of the organization.

Mr. Bard has had a very excellent record of progress as indicated by a continual increase in service offered and performed for dairy producers in Fulton and Hickman counties, and in some cases in Obion and Weakley Counties, Tennessee.

"It is necessary that we continue this high level of service promotion by obtaining a top notch replacement immediately," said Mr. Bruce.

"The Board of Directors of the association has requested that application forms be picked up at the Agricultural Center in Clinton and returned to that office or to David Graham, Secretary of the Association, Box 11, Clinton, on or before August 27th, this being the last date applications will be received. These applications will be processed by the Board of Directors at their regular meeting Monday evening, August 27th," said Mr. Bruce.

EXPERT TO SPEAK

4-H Cooking Class Show Mothers Tips With Morning Party

The 4-H Cooking Class entertained their mothers with a coffee party Tuesday morning in the Kentucky Utilities Auditorium. The girls prepared and served delicious refreshments of cookies, donuts, cinnamon rolls, coffee and hot chocolate.

This was the breakfast unit of the 4-H cooking class. These girls have worked faithfully all summer, under the guidance of Mrs. Robert Holland, Home Demonstrator for Kentucky Utilities Co., learning the art of serving the morning meal with taste appeal and nutritious value.

Due to the beginning of school, this was their last class of the summer season and as a token of their devotion they presented Mrs. Holland with a lovely set of cocktail glasses.

Those attending the class were: Charlotte Muzzall, Reta Thompson, Josephine Hancock, Ann Hardy, Judy Hoodenpyle, Judy Stanfield, Margaret Poe and Jennie Lou Hardy.

Money-Raising Plan Offered To Groups By Mid-Way Theatre

Any schools, churches or organizations in and around Fulton who might like to raise money by sponsoring a motion picture and selling tickets to it are invited to get in touch with Ed Fritts, manager of the Mid-Way Drive-In Theatre. Fritts states that this method of fund raising has been very successful in some localities.

TIRES, CAKES AND WHAT-YOU-WANT WILL BE AUCTIONED

Many More Items Needed For Lions Auction On Friday

Everything from an automobile tire to home-made cake, with sugar, country ham and dry cleaning in-between will be auctioned off on August 31 when the Fulton Lion's Club conduct their auction to raise funds for equipment at the City Park.

Generous Fultonians are responding to the appeal made by the local Civic club for donations to auction, but many more items are needed to make the auction a success. If you have not made your donation to the auction inventory call any member of the Lion's Club or 43 and your donation will be picked up.

Again on Sunday, August 26 the Lion's will make a house to house canvass for items, so open up your hearth and let the donations flow out.

The Bond's Trio, an outstanding singing trio will add entertainment to the auction when it is held, Friday, August 31 at one o'clock in the old Atkins Motor Company building on Fourth Street.

CITIES NEAR HERE SEEK NATURAL GAS SERVICE

The resumption date of a hearing in which six cities and a utility district are seeking natural gas from two interstate pipeline companies was advanced from Sept. 26 to Sept. 17 by the Federal Power commission Tuesday.

Five Kentucky towns—Hickman, Clinton, LeCenter, Bardwell and Wickliffe, and the Lake County utility district in Tennessee want orders directing Trunkline Gas Co. to serve them.

Franklin, Ill., is seeking gas from the Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Co.

Southern States To Have Membership Meet On Thursday, Aug. 30

The annual membership meeting of the Southern States Fulton Cooperative will be held at the Fulton Baseball Park on Thursday August 30th.

The evening will begin with a fish fry at 6:00 p.m. (c.s.t.), followed by the annual business meeting at 7:30 p.m.

GRAND CHAMPION BEEF at the Fulton County show in Fulton Wednesday was won by Robert Hamlin, (above) shown with his entry.

Registration Friday For South Fulton School Students

South Fulton teachers are having service training at the school this week. This is a meeting of all the teachers to get together and discuss the coming year of school work.

Registration will be Friday, August 24, beginning at 8:00 o'clock, for all grades.

Monday, August 27, the regular work will begin. All students will attend school all day as this is the start of a new year of work.

Three new teachers have been added to the faculty. Mr. Ual Killebrew, Manual Arts teacher; Mrs. M. W. Haws, language and Mrs. Curtis Hancepek, sixth grade teacher.

Mobile Milling Co. Appointed Dealer For Dixie Mills Feeds

The Fulton Mobile Milling Company announced today that it has been appointed local dealer for "Dixie" feed, and is now stocking the complete line of farm feed produced by the Dixie Mills Company of East St. Louis, Illinois, a 44-year-old firm.

The local company has just put into service its second mobile "mill-on-wheels" to serve customers in this area, this one providing the additional service of a corn sheller.

A new retail feed store of the Fulton Mobile Milling Company has been opened on East State.

Line in the building formerly occupied by the Austin Potato House. Hughey Butler is manager and H. C. Sams, Jr., assistant manager.

BROWNING FAMILY TO SING SUNDAY AT GOOD SPRINGS

A big Fourth Sunday singing, featuring the Browning family of Olive Branch, Illinois will be held at the Good Spring Cumberland Presbyterian Church on Sunday, August 26. The Browning family was featured at the Weakley County Convention and at Greenfield and returned for the Hatler Camp Ground singing in June.

The Browning family is a well-known and popular quartet group much in demand by singing audiences in many States. A cordial invitation is extended to all music lovers in the area to attend the singing.

The singing starts at 2 p.m.

To Get $168,527 In Soil Bank Funds

Hickman County farmers will receive $168,527.26 under soil bank agreements signed up to July 27, the deadline for signing the agreements, according to figures compiled by the Hickman County ASC committee, Chairman Willis R. Hilliard announced.

The agreements covered withdrawal of acreage for corn, cotton, wheat and the three kinds of tobacco grown locally, including burley, dark fired and dark air cured. Total acreage involved in the county is 5,462.11.

Pond Stocking Deadline Nears

Applications for bluegill to stock new or renovated farm ponds should be submitted to the Kentucky Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources by Sept. 10.

Assistant Commissioner Minor Clark said farmers should consult with their conservation officers at once to arrange for pond inspections.

The State will stock the ponds with adult bluegill this Fall and the bass quota will be added next Spring, Clark said.

WFUL ARTISTS TO ENTERTAIN SUNDAY AT BEELERTON SING

Two Groups From Gospel Hymn Time At Wesley Singing

The public is invited and have a cordial welcome to attend the big community singing that is to be held next Sunday afternoon, August 26, in the Wesley Methodist Church in Beelerton, Ky., beginning at 2 p.m.

Two very fine groups of singers from the "Gospel Hymn Time" program on WFUL will be featured on the program, the Gospel Light Quartet and The Temple Trio. The Gospel Light Quartet, which consists of Bobby Gene Wilson, Glynn Tyler, Bubba Crider and Don Neil, with Mrs. Sylvia Wilson as accompanist; and The Temple Trio which consists of Miss Geraldine Gatewood, Miss Patricia Orr and Miss Sandra Dawson, with Mrs. Laverne Cunningham as accompanist. Ray Jackson will be the master of ceremony.

Another very good program has been planned for the next presentation of "Gospel Hymn Time Program" that will be aired on WFUL next Sunday afternoon from 2:00 to 3:30 p.m. Bro. J. Wesley Richardson is extending to the many, many friends and listeners a very special invitation to be listening in.

The program will be as follows: On the first part from 2 to 2:30 will be the Chapel Tones Quartet from Jackson Chapel Methodist Church in Hickman County, Ky. On the next portion 2:30 to 3:00 the Goodwill Quartet with Patricia Jones as accompanist from WKRO, Cairo, Illinois. The talent on the last part 3:00 to 3:30 will come from the West Baptist Church in Hickman, Ky. which will consist of Mrs. John B. Castleman and daughter, Sarah Ruth and their guest.

Squirrel Season Gets Good Start

The 1956 squirrel hunting season which opened August 15 promises to be one of Kentucky's best shooting periods, Earl Wallace, commissioner of the Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources, said.

The first phase of the split season will continue through October 15, with a bag limit of six and possession limit of 12 after two or more hunting days.

Kentucky's squirrel population this year is probably greater than in any recent year, preliminary reports by conservation officers indicate.

Conventions, Now Adjourned, Reveal Political Leaders Have One Track Thinking

Now that the national conventions of the two major political parties of America have now become a part of history our feeling on the matter is, SO WHAT?

We were a delegate to the Democratic National Convention in Chicago in 1952 and we saw without reservation that we saw more and heard more of the 1956 proceeding than we could possibly have heard in person at the meeting in 1952. Which virtually convinces us that every phase of the meetings are more geared to the television and radio audiences than they are for the delegates who actually attend the meetings.

And we were not particularly moved or impressed with what we saw and heard in 1956. We didn't have to stay glued to the television and radio as we did, but actually we did so more out of curiosity than to glean any knowledge from the meetings.

We were amazed that by and large American political leaders have so little diversification of thought and ideas. Perhaps you will not agree with us, but in reflecting on the dozens of speeches we heard by men and women, Republicans and Democrats, that the basic content of the speeches was fraught with monotonous repetition.

Think back for a moment on the speeches you heard. Was not every American, a g-r-r-e-e-a-a-t American? Was not every State, a great State, heaped in tradition and honor? Was not every principle of both the Democrats and the Republicans based on an honored heritage? Did not nearly every speech in both conventions begin with calling the opposing party a bunch of thieves, unprincipled, do-nothing-no-gooders and then ending on a pious note asking the help of God in throwing out the bums.

The Republicans, with the activities of their Administration fresh in their minds, boasted of an era of peace, prosperity and progress. The Democrats, blasting at the bumbling of the present Administration talked of twenty years of peace, prosperity and progress. With all the words in the American language defined to spell out the same nouns, it is uncanny to us that the leaders of both parties could not have chosen at least one other word to join the other two hackneyed and prosaic platitudes.

The bodies of Roosevelt, (Theodore and Franklin) Lincoln, Jefferson, Jackson, etc. were exhumed, resurrected and autopsies made. Eisenhower was given a clean bill of health, immortalized and eulogized. Harry Truman was prepared for sainthood in a mink coat and a deep freeze and re-vitalized in retirement as one of our g-r-r-e-e-a-a-t American presidents, still living to defend himself.

Hell's Canyon, some controversial bit of Governmental procedure, was praised and condemned by so many speakers of both parties, we got the idea that perhaps a great drive was being made to run the devil for Congress and solicit votes of inhabitants of that over-heated State of the here-after.

On the first day of the Republican convention a silver-throated orator came to the stand and began his speech by saying: "We will all grow old, that is in the Divine plan." We turned up the radio as high as we could not to miss a word . . . we thought surely the Republicans had written the plank of everlasting youth into its platform. We're for that, but on listening a little closer we found that the Republicans were not.

By the same token a Democrat took to the rostrum amid the rollicking circus of the Democratic convention and first off said: "I do not intend to make the President's health a subject of my talk . . ." Whereupon he went straightforward into the rigors of heart trouble, the pitfalls of surgery and the inefficiency of a man with a belly-ache.

By the time the last great words of the last great American had fallen upon our fast-developing ear-ache we were fully competent to hire out as a tele-prompter. We could almost anticipate the exact sentences of every speaker who ascended the stand with the great American speech typed out in his or her hands.

Several times we nearly turned off the dab-blasted gadget that brought the speeches to us, but we didn't, as we said before, you know we're the curious type.

Nor did either convention pass up the corn and the ham. Stars of the $64,000 question, the movies and the circus were employed to add alleged color to the proceedings. What a way to spend $20,000,000 to inform the great American public.

We heartily concur with Edward R. Murrow, the competent CBS commentator who said: "Politics is the art of exaggeration oftentimes to the point of being ridiculous."

And there is no doubt that the political leaders of America, and that includes Kentucky, lived it up, but good.

Farmers Need Much More Than Lip Service

After six months, the slightly upward trend in farm prices has dipped again. The Agriculture Department has announced that, as of the middle of last month, farm prices were down one per cent.

Prices were lower for fruits, animals and vegetables, among other things. Prices for milk, chickens and potatoes were up.

Though prices were one per cent lower than they were in mid-June, the July report was not considered discouraging by Undersecretary of Agriculture True Morse. Morse said the Department believes farm prices for the rest of this year will be higher than in 1955.

Farm prices have a long way to go before they will reflect genuine prosperity on the farms. While the Soil Bank Bill will do some good to some farmers this year, its results will not be so widespread that other aid will not be necessary for the country's farmers. A rise in prices received for the farmer is necessary if he is to increase his income and enjoy the prosperity that much of the rest of the nation is now enjoying.

Since another round of inflation is expected this fall, it is absolutely essential for the farmer to receive higher prices for his crops. Otherwise, the spiral which has engulfed the farmer — that is rising costs and lower prices — which has continued for four or five years, will continue to put small farmers out of business and keep hundreds of thousands of others on the brink of bankruptcy.

ers and distributors of filth resist restraint under the "freedom of the press" guarantee in our Constitution. The U. S. Supreme Court has never given a flat 'yes' or 'no' to the question of whether we can stop obscene matter from reaching the newsstands.

LEGAL THINKERS take opposing views. One group says that our Founding Fathers wanted all prior restraint to be unconstitutional. But it seems to me that if our Founding Fathers gave the government the power to protect its citizens from poison food harmful to the body, certainly it can protect its citizens from poisonous literature harmful to the mind.

The other group, I include myself among them, argues that prior restraint of obscene literature is not offensive to the historic American tradition of freedom of publication. Our Founding Fathers were fearful only of the existence of a governmental power which might choke off political criticism and the freedom to express opinion.

THE SUPREME COURT in the Zorach case said, "We are a religious people whose institutions pre-suppose

TURNING BACK THE CLOCK —

September 4, 1931

A wedding of much interest was performed Tuesday morning at seven o'clock at the home of the bride on West Street when Miss Ruth Evelyn Moss became the bride of Mr. Seldon N. Buggs, of Clinton, Ky.

The bride who is the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Moss, was becomingly dressed in a fall ensemble of black and white satin with fox trimmings. Her accessories were black and white and she wore a corsage of bride's roses and baby breath.

The groom is the son of Mrs. Eugene Bugg of Clinton and is now Circuit Court Clerk of Hickman County.

After a southern wedding trip they will reside in Clinton.

The New Hope Homemakers' Club and families enjoyed a picnic supper at Mt. Vernon Saturday evening. After the meal, a number of games were played and the occasion was enjoyed very much by all.

In special courtesy to their charming house guest, Misses Elizabeth and Sara Butt invited their friends and music lovers to meet Miss Olive German, of Tulsa, Okla., Monday evening. Miss German received her bachelor degree of music at Cincinnati last spring. She presented a very splendid program, comprising songs of serious nature and contrasting type.

Miss Sara Butt, a musician of whom Fulton is so proud, was the sympathetic accompanist.

The Lambs gathered at their old childhood abode Sunday at the home of Mrs. G. J. Lamb, east of town, where a flock of Lambs were bred. All Sunday morning a constant caravan of Lambs from far and near, with their children, moved toward their old home with heavy-laden baskets.

They were about 30 or 35 present and all enjoyed the day very much.

School began at Loggston last Monday with Miss Jessie Wade as teacher.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Hatdy are moving back to town. Sorry to have them leave our community (Route 6), but wish them much joy in their new home.

Mrs. Roper Fields and little daughter, Bettie Jean, of Fulton, spent Wednesday and Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Sugg, Sr.

TID BITS

of Kentucky Folklore
by The Philosopher

"WHAT'S THAT?"

One of my long-time friends and I are distressed about the younger generation in that they are not inquisitive enough about things that they do not know. In the days when we had only a few things to satisfy our mental hungers, we welcomed any new experiences; we even may have seemed a bit too inquisitive about things in general. Both of us were reared in an atmosphere of oral education, where both of us learned to read early and read extensively. We were close enough to folk days that much of our learning, both good and bad, was traditional rather than printed. What we knew about farming was told us or we acquired it by experience in the fields. When we did not understand, we asked questions, often with no hope of getting a satisfactory answer but to put our questions into form, to establish the fact that here were questions yet unanswered. I kept myself in hot water in my younger days by inquiring about the mysteries of things; sometimes I got some sensible answers, sometimes not. But I did not give up asking questions.

A few days ago, while camping in a national park, I went with the naturalist on his scheduled hike with visitors to the park. The naturalist is a very personable young man, widely acquainted with plant and animal life. He explained many a valuable fact about the things we saw and gave many occasions for people to ask questions. The group was well-bred and attentive, but you would have thought that not a one of them had ever wondered what any tree was or was for, what any bird or quadruped ate or said or did. Of course, the very fact that they went on the long hike showed that they wanted to learn something, but they did not know an oak from a dogwood and failed to recognize poison ivy after it had been pointed out and explained for the tenth time. There was no "So what?" expression from any of the men, women, or children, but I wish I could have, in my capacity as a teacher, given a test to see a Supreme Being." Our legislators have always respect for God's moral law. Our government has from its first days excluded from the mails matter injurious to public morals. U. S. Customs laws as well authorize the banning of obscene books.

After all, isn't it a pious and proper function of government to protect its citizens against pollution and harm from physical objects, against poisons and dangerous and offensive nuisances? I have never understood how similar protection against filthy books could be unconstitutional.

IN 1874 Justice Swane of the U. S. Supreme Court said, "The foundation of a republic is the virtue of its citizens." Today obscenity is a serious public evil undermining the virtue of young and old alike. When obscenity requires effective control, and such control is consistent with our American heritage, I see no reason why democratic government should not use democratic processes to eliminate obscenity.

what each one brought back some day as detachable collars and cuffs are now. I wonder from what to the, an experience whether we have not lost much hiker of more than half century by losing the folk wanting to of walking behind me, was one know, even though this attitude is called by such uncomplimentary names as nosiness of of ever been a part of. ficiousness.

When my grandchildren come to see me from across the continent, I find them still inquisitive, wanting to know what everything is, what it does, what it is good for. I hope that becoming adolescent and self-satisfied will not wholly destroy this native questioning. "Here is a rock, Granddaddy. What kind is it?" "What kind of a nest does a Hummingbird build?" "How did caves come to be?" And I tell all I know and am often caught short-handed. I enjoy being drained dry by the little fellows, especially since their questions have answers. Of course, some of my students still have this innate wanting to know, but far too many of them seem thoroughly satisfied with the little that they know. They have become specialists early and seem unable to find other fields interesting. In recent years only a mere handful of our students enroll for Ornithology; formerly so many came that it was hard to find a room big enough to hold them. The credit is the same that it was then; the inquisitiveness of the students has lessened. After all, will knowing interesting facts about nature help you buy a car more expensive than the other fellow's? Maybe this general hostility to questioning is a passing fad among young people, one that will be as outdated

NO WAY OF KNOWING

Until an accurate seagoing clock, or chronometer, was perfected in England in 1735, navigators had no reliable way of determining longitude. On voyages beyond sight of land, ships customarily sailed north, or south until they reached the latitude of their destination, then east or west until landfall was made, the National Geographic Society says.

SERMONETTE OF THE WEEK

Obscenity Is Poison

By Hon. Charles S. Desmond, New York Court of Appeals

IN 1954 a New York State committee displayed a collection of so-called "comic books." These wildly lurid picture stories opened our eyes to a serious public evil. How could we keep the lurid pictures and filthy literature from reaching our newsstands?

The only effective way to keep obscenity from reaching the public is by some kind of restraint. Yet print-

Diary of Doin's

By Mary Nelle Wright

The News writes social happenings about you and your friends (Listen To Airwave Diary: Thursday, 9:45 A. M., Over WFUL)

As we sit here typing away — with the gas-lags aglow in our living room — oblivious to the C-O-L-D RAIN outside — we find ourselves WONDERING if it is the time of the year to take a VACATION. But some of our bags are already packed — clothes are hanging from every hook — ready to be packed and on our way!

For weeks and weeks, now your Diarist has enjoyed writing about ALL of those FORTUNATE ones who were going here — there and EVERYWHERE for a dream of a vacation and as we wrote line after line a little voice inside kept soothing us and saying, "Never mind, YOUR TIMES 'a COMIN'."

AND — sure enough — it's here — just like the little voice said — but WHAT WE want to KNOW, Mr. Anthony — WHAT are we going to DO with all of those starched summer dresses, shorts and white shoes? Should we just push them ALL back to the rear of the closet — and start from SCRATCH — all over again?

We're leaving in the wee hours Wednesday morning — destination, Annapolis, Maryland where we will attend Parent's Week-end at the United States Naval Academy where our son, Don, is a Midshipman.

Maybe you think the clothes situation doesn't pose a MAJOR problem — but it DOES to all WOMEN and frankly, I'm stymied. Maybe I'll never get this Diary written because most of the morning has been spent walking back and forth to the window — hoping that Old Man Sol will stop this funny business

The swimming pool out at the Country Club was surely filled to the brim the past week — what with ALL of those sweltering days. And it's a good place to have FUN! EVERYONE, we mean — because FUN isn't just for children, you know — or for the rich — or the happy-go-lucky. Everyone needs fun just like we need food. It just keeps one feeling young!

Dotted here and there in groups around the pool we had interesting chats with ever so many nice people. Mozelle Hamby Travis (looking so chic in a black swim suit) introduced us to her two lovely nieces, Agnes Burnette of Chagrin Falls, Ohio and Sidney Stone of Hickman. Sidney teaches school in Louisville during the winter months and visits with her mother, Helen Stone, during the summer months. These three gals were busy absorbing some sun while they watched their little girls, Melinda Travis and Helen Burnette enjoy a swim.

Caught a glimpse of Jerry Porter from Clinton as he watched his two granddaughters enjoying the pool. And we might add — these two lassies are exceptional swimmers. We found ourselves so absorbed in their superb diving and swimming strokes — it was hard to "pull ourselves away."

Shug and W. R. Butt of Louisville who were visitors of her parents, the Sangers of Hickman, came over several times for their boys, the three "B's"—Biff, Bill and Bob — to have a swim. Shug and W. R. spent most of their time on the golf course...

Mary Louise Gossum and her boys, Pat and Mike were having fun — and Marcy Snow and her children also spent a lot of their time at the pool because hubbies, Jack Snow and Felix Gossum, Jr., have been at Fort Meade, Maryland for the past two weeks. They arrived home Sunday night... Cissy Murphy Hatfield took advantage of a nice vacation for herself while Lieut. Gene took his summer training at Meade. She and two other wives from Paducah vacationed at Laurel, Md., during the two weeks training period. Gene and Cissy took their fine son, Mike, up to West Point, Ky. to visit with his paternal grandparents. They stopped by on their return to Fulton for two days with Gene's parents — picked their "pride and joy" up and returned to Fulton Tuesday. Billy Gregory and his lovely bride, Shirley, enjoyed a short swim and sun bath, Sunday afternoon at the Club. (Confidentially, we think she is just as attractive as anyone we've seen in D-A-Y-S!)

The J. D. Parhams are really enjoying life this week. They are in Texas City, Texas visiting their son, Stanley and his wife, Mary Eleanor and children, Sue Ellen and Mike. The "youngster" Parhams moved to Texas — just recently and they are surely missed by all of their friends and families here in Fulton...

Parks and Betty Weeks and girls, Mariana and Carmen, Lois Jean and Rodney Miller and their girls, Meredith and Alison are having a wonderful vacation down near McMinnville, Tennessee. They left Fulton Saturday and are staying at the McMinnville Manufacturing Company's clubhouse on the T.V.A. Lake, as guests of the company.

Charlotte Sanger and Bonnie Voorhees are frequent visitors to the pool. Charlotte keeps busy watching her three "smaller" ones, Ellen, Joe and Nancy while they are in the water. Jane Voorhees seems very capable of taking care of herself...

The Clarence Baras have returned from a vacation in the Smokies, Portsmouth, Va., Ocean View and Virginia Beach. Other places they visited were interesting places along the Chesapeake Bay. Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Cobb of Paducah accompanied them on the nice trip... Polly Thompson is home after having spent the summer in a Girl Scout Camp in Alpine, Texas. She also visited Tucson, Ariz. and the Grand Canyon. Jane Austin visited a college friend, Kay Whitsett at her home in St. Louis last week...

Congratulations to Jerry Goates! Jerry has been contracted by Paul Wiseman of Los Angeles, Calif., a professional photographer for magazines, who wants the local boy to pose for a group of pictures for magazines...

Mrs. Ina Byrd of Detroit visited friends on the Rock Springs Community last week... Mrs. D. C. Linton and Mrs. Eula Gordon were in Nashville last week where they visited Mrs. Gordon's son, James Wallace and wife, Mary... Mr. and Mrs. Lucian Nannery left Saturday for Los Angeles, Calif., where they will visit the James Willis Bonds family... Mrs. E. E. Mount has returned home after visiting in Memphis.

Richard Myatt displayed his culinary skill as well as celebrated his birthday one night last week when he cooked a back-yard steak dinner for a group of his friends. By way of the grapevine we heard that he is almost in the

Grandson of Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Austin To Wed Miss Barbara Ann Wyatt Of Atlanta, Ga.

The announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Barbara Ann Wyatt of Atlanta, Ga., to May Lynn Valentine of Atlanta.

Miss Wyatt is the daughter of Mrs. Ruth Brewbaker Wyatt of Palm Beach, Fla., and Uriah Daniel Wyatt of Elizabethtown, Tenn.

Parents of the future bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Doris Lynn Valentine of Oklahoma City, Okla. They are formerly of Fulton and Memphis.

The couple will be married September 15 in the Peachtree Road Lutheran Church in Atlanta.

Officiating at the 8 p.m. ceremony will be Rev. Paul J. Renz of Atlanta.

The future bride-elect is a graduate of Reynolds High School, Winston Salem, N. C. She attended Woman's College of the University of N. C. at Chapel Hill. She was a member of Dikane Society.

The prospective bridegroom was graduated from South Side High School in Memphis, Tenn.

Cissy Gregg echelon of cookery because those steaks were simply DELICIOUS! The lucky ones who enjoyed the gay affair were Mavis and Phil Parker, Dorothy and Dr. Virgil Barker, Marcy and Dr. Shelton Owens — and we might add that Richard let his wife, Jewell attend, too.

A lovely pre-nuptial party was given by Mrs. Roy Latta Friday night, August 8, complimenting Miss Carolyn Hicks, bride-elect of Joe Young. The honoree was lovely in a white cotton frock with multi-colored dots. She was presented a corsage of red roses by the hostess.

Games were enjoyed with all of the prizes eventually going to the honoree. She was also presented gifts of silver in her chosen pattern.

The dining table, overlaid with a drawn work grass linen cloth over pink, held as its central appointment a floral pyramid with roofs of pink net, topped with a miniature bride and groom, flanked on either side with candelabra holding pink tapers.

Tiny open faced sandwiches, individual cakes, nuts, mints and punch were served. Mrs. P. L. Pillow assisted in serving the guests.

Those attending the evening were—Mrs. Mary Virginia Hicks, mother of the bride-elect, Miss Benita Bennett, Miss Donna Jo Laird, Miss Rita Copeland, Mrs. Billie Pirtle, all of Water Valley, Mrs. Gary Alexander of Mayfield, Miss Nancy Wood and Miss June Holland of Fulton, Mrs. P. L. Pillow, Mrs. Serena Elliott, the honoree, Miss Hicks, and the hostess.

cause we quit playing." Next on the program, Mrs. Harvey Vaughn, having charge of the recreation, conducted a contest with Mrs. Jim Burke and Mrs. Cletus Reams being winners. The song "Good Old Summertime" was led by Mrs. Edna Strong. Mrs. Ada Rhodes read the scripture lesson, and roll call was answered by giving a Bible quotation. After the business session the Home management leader and the Reading chairman made their reports. Miss Odom brought a good lesson on laundry. After adjournment the hostess served cante-loupe, cake and cold drinks.

RUSH CREEK HOMEMAKERS ELECT NEW OFFICERS FOR COMING YEAR

Mrs. Harry Sublett Jr. was hostess for the August 14 meeting of the Rush Creek Homemakers Club. Thirteen members and one visitor attended the afternoon meeting which was held in the Rush Creek Methodist Church.

Mrs. Clem Atwill, vice president, presided during the meeting. The following officers were elected for the new year which begins in September, President—Mrs. Scott Demeyer; Vice President—Mrs. Clem Atwill; Secretary and Treasurer—Mrs. Robert Adams.

The chairman and leaders for project work were appointed. Reading chairman—Mrs. Leon Jones; Publicity chairman—Mrs. Albert Moss; Citizenship chairman—Mrs. Larry Cardwell; Recreation leaders—Mrs. Harry Sublett Jr. and Mrs. John Watts; Home furnishings—Mrs. Ray Adams; Home Management—Mrs. Charles Adams and Mrs. John D. Brown; Foods—Mrs. Donald Mabry and Mrs. Joe Atwill; Health—Mrs. T. N. Curdin and Mrs. Larry Cardwell; Landscaping—Mrs. Loyd Call; Crafts—Mrs. Charles Everett and Mrs. Clint Workman; 4-H Leaders—Mrs. Donald Mabry, Mrs. Clint Workman, Mrs. Leon Jones and Mrs. Tommie Jones.

The program for the meeting was a book review given by the reading chairman, Mrs. Leon Jones. In a very interesting way Mrs. Jones reviewed the book "Hope of Earth" written by Margaret Lee Runbeck.

MARK TWAIN STORIES STILL LIVE IN HANNIBAL BY THE MISSISSIPPI

Beside the Mississippi River, in north-east Missouri, is a Main Street home town that attracted more American visitors last year than Hawaii, and a fourth as many as saw Europe.

The town is Hannibal, Mark Twain's boyhood home and scene of the adventures of Tom Sawyer, Huckleberry Finn, and other youngsters of fiction who are better known to millions today than many real-life persons in their daily newspapers.

Jerry Allen—author of a recent biography on the writer—humorist who is seldom remembered by his actual name, Samuel Clemens—tells in the July issue of the National Geographic Magazine how Hannibal lives its literary legend.

Many of the buildings Mark Twain knew are still in use, Miss Allen points out. The city shows its pride in its famous citizen of a century ago by restorations, monuments, and landmarks. His name is everywhere, in shop signs for Mark Twain printers, jewelers, cleaning company, confectionery; at hotel, taxi office, movie house and rest home.

Hannibal's best known address is 208 Hill Street. Out of his upstairs bedroom window, young Sam Clemens climbed to join his friend, Tom Blankenship (Huck Finn) for the moonlight deeds he later immortalized in the Adventures of Tom Sawyer. Against the Clemens' modest clapboard house leans a high, white board fence, copy of the one Tom graciously permitted his pals to whitewash for him.

Next door to the old home-stand is the Mark Twain Museum. Opened in 1937, it exhibits the author's early typewriter, the scarred cherry desk at which he wrote, and a huge pilot's wheel from a Mississippi steamboat.

Behind such a wheel Mark Twain learned to steer his craft so as to "shave steamships as close as you'd peel an apple." His pen name came from the river term "Mark twain," for a safe depth of two fathoms (12 feet).

Caradfree Youth
Hannibal treasures the law office of Mark Twain's father, and the home of his first girl, Laura Hawkins, immortalized as Tom Sawyer's Becky Thatcher.

At the foot of Cardiff Hill the city has set up a bronze monument showing young Tom and Huck marching along barefoot and carefree. In a riverside park stands a giant statue of Mark Twain in late years, looking out on his beloved Mississippi. Farther along is the white Mark Twain Memorial Light-house, and nearby the Mark Twain Memorial Bridge.

So closely is Hannibal linked with the author, says Miss Allen, that its history is usually ignored before 1839, when a four-year-old red-headed boy came there to live and stayed until he was 17. Actually the town, older than the Oregon Trail, was settled in 1819. When the Clemenses lived there, it was an important steamboat center of some 1,000 people.

Today, Hannibal has more than 21,000 residents. Watching the Mississippi traffic flow by, it looks for livelihood to factories, business, and trade with a prosperous farming countryside.

Yet the river is still a living force in the community and a mold of young. Fishing is an industry as well as pastime for every man and boy. On hot summer days Jackson's Island (where Huck and Jim set out on their famous raft) is a happy haunt for kids to camp, fish and swim. With a mile-wide river as back yard, growing up is still as much fun in Hannibal as in the days of its famous pair of boys.

All experience hath shown that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed.

A successful man keeps looking for work after he has found a job.

Down on the Farm

This is the time of the year when you should be thinking and planning to lime any fields to be sown to alfalfa and other legumes that require a sweet condition in the soil. The time for seeding such crops is sufficiently ahead that the lime, if applied within a reasonable time will be able to place the soil in proper condition for growing such crops.

Of course you do not want to apply agricultural limestone to your fields until soil tests have been made to determine the exact needs of your soil.

Straw Is Important

Farmers throughout the south this year have certainly used good judgment by attempting to save all of the straw, following combining of small grains. We have made one of the finest small grain crops this year and although there may not be any immediate need in sight for using so much straw, it has many uses, one of which is that it provides the finest deposit for preserving fertilizer when used for bedding. It is widely used for mulching strawberries and is usually in good demand during the season when strawberries are to be mulched.

I have known many livestock farmers to use it as a filler in feeding concentrates to their livestock and of course when it is used in the right proportion, no doubt beneficial results are obtained.

MANAGER GLYN BARD WILL GIVE REPORT OF LOCAL CO-OP AT MEETING ON AUG. 30

A "What's The Answer" Contest — leading to prizes valued at nearly $25,000 — and elections of local board and Farm Home Advisory Committee members, will be among the highlights of the annual Southern States membership meeting for the Fulton area to be held at 6:00 p.m. CST 8 o'clock August 30 at Fulton Baseball Park, Fulton, Ky. The session is being sponsored by Southern States and Southern States Fulton Cooperative.

There will also be a showing of the movie, "Partners," which is the story of how the farmer cooperative has become an important part of the farmer's business operations and how it benefits all the people. The movie was produced and distributed by the American Institute of Cooperation, of which Southern States Cooperative is a member. The film has an all professional cast.

The "What's The Answer" contest—there will be about 450 such contest held throughout the six-state operating territory of Southern States Cooperative within the next few months—will be built around a slide report of Southern States Cooperative and local agency operations for the past year.

To be eligible, contestants must be 18 years of age or older as of August 1, 1956, and be a member or patron of Southern States or be a member of their families, or be a member of any farm family. He or she must attend the local Southern States meeting in the community.

There will be three contests, based on "What's The Answer" questions, to be held at local meetings. All winners will have their names entered in the grand prize competition which will be held as part of the Southern States annual Stockholders meeting scheduled for Lexington, Ky., in November. Two winners at the local meeting will receive electric skillets.

A total of 15 grand prizes, all of them with cash options, will be awarded at Lexington. Included among these are $1,200 worth of Southern States supplies for use on the winner's farm; a 35-cubic-foot food freezer; a fertilizer spreader; $1,100 worth of Southern States supplies for use on the winner's farm; $1,000 worth of seed; a milk machine; a bulk milk tank $1,000 worth of fertilizer, and other prizes.

Charles Roberts of Union City will serve as chairman of the local meeting. Rev. J. T. Hart of Fulton will give the invocation.

A report on local operations and services will be given by Glyn D. Bard, Manager of Southern States District Manager Arthur S. Fox will report on over-all Southern States operations for the year ended last June 30.

Nominees for the local Southern States board for the Fulton area are R. B. Watts, H. M. Pewitt, Charles Wright and Dudley Morris, all of Fulton.

Nominees for the Farm Home Advisory Committee are Mrs. W. H. Harrison of Hickman; Mrs. Harry Hancock of Water Valley; Mrs. Robert Holland and Mrs. Hillman Collier, both of Fulton. Other nominations may be made from the floor.

Members of the board whose terms expire this year are Billie Clark and Charles Hancock.

Members of the Farm Home Advisory Committee whose terms expire this year are Mrs. Charles Fields and Mrs. Robert Holland.

Members of the general committees assisting with the meeting are Parking — Billy Clark, Chairman, Fulton; Patron's Tickets — Harry Watts, Chairman, Fulton; Greeting — Thomas Bruce, Chairman, Fulton.

HIGHEST ROAD
The highest automobile road in the United States winds up to the 14,260-foot summit of Mount Evans in Colorado, says the National Geographic Society. There scientists study cosmic rays in a University of Denver laboratory. Far better known and more traveled is the second loftiest highway, which climbs to the top of Pikes Peak at 14,110 feet.

The sands of Arabia's deserts sometimes reach a temperature of 170 degrees Fahrenheit.

STATE CEASES TO TRANSPORT SURPLUS GOODS

The State Highway Department has ceased supplying trucks and labor to haul federal surplus commodities in various counties.

Highway Commissioner Bert Kiser recently advised county judges by letter of his order that the practice be discontinued.

The Department's Division of Maintenance has been supplying trucks and men to haul the commodities from freight terminals to warehouses for distribution to needy persons in some counties.

Maintenance Director J. A. Spears reported that a study showed the operation, begun as an emergency measure several years ago, has been costing the Department about $100,000 a year. Kiser said the State needs this money to match federal highway funds.

Spears said transporting the commodities had deprived roads of needed maintenance equipment and labor. Workers frequently have been required to leave highway jobs to haul the commodities, he said.

The wealthier counties as well as the poorer ones have requested this service from the Department, Kiser said. He added that many times trucks have been asked for to haul loads small enough to have been carried in a sedan. An added problem, he said, has been storage of the commodities in State warehouses and garages. In some instances, Kiser said, the Department even has been called upon to distribute the commodities.

The legitimate object of government is to do for a community of people whatever they need to have done, but cannot do for themselves.—Lincoln.

IT HAPPENED IN KENTUCKY

March, 1750—THOMAS WALKER'S FIRST KENTUCKY VISIT
Walker's exploring party left Charlottesville, Virginia, on March 6, 1750. They came to a wide pass in the Alleghenies which Walker called "Cave Gap" (Cumberland Gap). Near what is now Barboursville, the party established a base of operations. They explored the Eastern mountain range until June, then returned to Virginia. The Cumberland River was named by Thomas Walker.

In Kentucky's historic past, just as today, many of our citizens have always enjoyed a glass of beer. The brewing industry makes jobs for thousands of our residents. The sale of beer under orderly conditions is an important objective of the United States Brewers Foundation. Our continuing educational program helps beer retailers maintain their high standards.

AUSTIN SPRINGS

Mrs. Carey Fields

Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Jones and children of Akron, Ohio, arrived Sunday for a vacation here with parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Mathis and the Jones relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Eric Cunningham and son, George Ed, of Dresden, Tenn. visited parents Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Cunningham in Dukedom Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hammatt and son, William Roy Jr., of Hollow Rock, Tenn., and Misses Juanita and Maurine of Clarksville, Tenn. spent Saturday here with their brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Buton Lassiter attending the bedside of Mrs. Lassiter who is very sick.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred McCoy Jr. and children were in our midst Sunday, guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Clyde Johnson. Rev. and Mrs. Dempsey Henderson were Wednesday night dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Fields in Fulton and their attending revival service in Fulgham, Ky. where Rev. Henderson is holding a series of meetings. There has been three conversions up to this writing.

Hay baling was much in progress despite the extreme heat. A lot was baled and stored. Some tobacco is now being cut and housed and the busy housewives are processing food, canning and drying, jelly and preserving and making up a supply of grape juice.

Master Bobby Rickman spent a few days last week with his aunt, Mrs. Hattie Gibson in Fulton.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Lassiter, of Martin, Tenn., visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Buton Lassiter the past Friday night.

Funeral services were held at Old Bethel Baptist Church the past Saturday at 2 p.m. for Mr. Birk McClain 62, farmer, and citizen of District No. 1, by Revs. Sommerville and Bowden.

Mr. McClain served as magistrate for a number of years in that area. He had been in declining health for a few years, but his death came unexpectedly at his home Friday night at 10.

He was stricken while working in the tobacco field on Friday, but his condition was not thought to be serious until he became worse and death followed quickly from heart condition.

He is survived by his companion, a sister, Miss Larvie McClain, at home, and two brothers, Ed McClain who resides near here, and Reuben McClain of Mayfield, Ky.

Burial was at McGuire cemetery with Bowlin and Riggs of Dresden in charge of arrangements.

FIVE VISITS TO ANTARCTICA

Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd has made five visits to Antarctica between 1928 and 1956. Even today, however, scarcely more than half of the continent's 6,000,000 square miles has yet been seen by man, the National Geographic Society says.

visualize a room you'd enjoy living in. Then put your planning into effect. Forget the traditional clinical white of yesterday's utility rooms. What is your favorite color scheme? Yellow and grey? Brown and pink? Good: Go ahead. Anything goes. The only limiting factor is "maintenance." finishes fabric and wallpapers should be washable. When you get through you will marvel at the result.

Be sure that your kitchen has good overhead lighting plus lights over each work area. Just putting light over work areas or the bathroom mirror is not sufficient. Accent light, cove lighting, recessed fixtures, combinations of these and other will put the finishing touches on your pride and job.

It's a great time to buy a Buick!
Today you can have what other cars may not have for years

JUST BETWEEN US—don't you get a kick out of keeping a step ahead of the other fellow—especially when it comes to cars?

So wouldn't you find it fun to boss the newest thing in motordom—a car with the greatest advance in transmissions since the gearshift left the floor?

And wouldn't you like to have all this at a price that is right—and when the weather is right—and right when your car is at its top worth?

Well, sir, we've got that kind of situation for you—now.

Because this very day you can step into a 1956 Buick with Variable Pitch Dynaflo* and drive away with a transmission so modern, so responsive, so smooth that you may not find its like in other cars for years to come.

You can have the thrill of split-second action from the merest nudge of the pedal—and with the good-news gas savings this economy range brings.

You can have the safety-surge of power that comes from pushing down on the pedal and switching the pitch.

All with the walloping might of Buick's 322-cubic-inch V8 engine. All with the new luxury of a ride that's built on 4 brawny coil springs for buoyant levelness. A ride with new steering ease and sweeter handling.

Best of all, you can make the buy of a lifetime. For today's low prices have helped move Buick into America's best-selling 3 more firmly than ever.

That means we can come to terms on the trade-in value of your car in a way that's bound to tickle you pink.

Why not stop in and take us up on that—today?

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.
