Nancy Adams And The Tonettes Join Station WFUL Staff

If you haven't been listening to WFUL lately don't say the management hasn't invited you to listen to some of the most sparkling programs ever presented on any radio station in the area. Concentrating on good, "live" talent, the program log is bustling with your favorite radio personalities.

This week, two new programs were added to make WFUL the "live" talent station of West Kentucky and here the News takes great pleasure in introducing them to you by way of the trusty News photographic department.

On Monday, Nancy Adams, star of national radio and TV fame joined the station in a daily afternoon program called the "Disc Jockey House Party", starring Nancy and Kelly Lowe, an old stand-by of WFUL. Kelly and Nancy do their own commercials, review new records, play old favorites, and of course Nancy comes in often with songs presented, as only she can present them on her famous ukelele presented to her by Arthur Godfrey. She also plays the trumpet. Show is aired Monday thru Friday from three to four o'clock in the afternoon. Nancy and Kelly invite you to join them in the studio at WFUL any afternoon.

Following Nancy and Kellie, Dub Hale, that famous disc jockey from "Hickman on the Mississippi River", takes over with the "Dub Hale Show". Dub, a newcomer to radio is doing a wonderful job with the "Rock and Roll Express", "Mystery Tune Time," and late in the afternoon he fills the airwaves with music that fills the heart with happiness. Dub has been toying around with radios and tape recordings since he was old enough to recognize same and taking over the control board was no difficult task for him. Dub, is "on the air" from four in the afternoon to sign-off at 7:15 p. m. Give him a listen, will you?

And here's the panel of 21 Questions fame and the anathema of Station Manager and Quizmistress Jo Westpheling. As you will note the panel members (all seated) are smiling like canaries who just swallowed cats. They have just finished a recording session and are delighted that they again added more wrinkles to already furrowed brow of Quizmistress Jo, standing in the background. "Twenty-one Questions" is aired Monday through Friday at 7:15 a. m. and if you want to hear fresh, sparkling quiz kids, just tune in at that hour. From left to right: Ken Winston, Norma Owen, Al Bushart and Susan McDaniel.

Grover Wright, Badly Burned In Accident, Reported Improving

Grover C. Wright, Cayce, Ky., general superintendent of the Ted H. Climer Co. of Union City for the past 6½ years was severely burned Wednesday, July 17, when a trenching machine which he was operating at the site of the new Fulton County Consolidated school at Hickman burst into flames as it was being refilled with gasoline.

Mr. Wright, doused by the flaming gasoline, ran across an open field but was caught and his burning clothes removed by two other workmen, Dee Robertson of Cayce and John L. Wisdom, Negro, of Union City.

Mr. Wright was carried to the clinic of Dr. Richard H. White of Hickman, given emergency treatment and then transferred to the Jones hospital in Fulton. On Wednesday of this week, his condition was reported by the hospital as "good", and the burns were healing.

A bulldozer covered the trenching machine with dirt to extinguish the flames. The machine was a total loss but was covered by insurance, Mr. Climer said.

Although Cox stated that he felt "mighty sore," he refused hospital attention.

Court Approves Huge $100,000,000 Road Bond Issue For Kentucky

The Court of Appeals in Frankfort Friday gave a bright green light to Kentucky's $100 million road bond issue.

The case was a test of the bond issue to enable Kentucky to participate in the Federal interstate road-building program.

The Court of Appeals left a potential roadblock to easy sale of the bonds by upholding a three per cent limit on interest to be paid. Since passage of the issue, the bond market has risen sharply and observers fear the state will have trouble selling three per cent bonds on a tight money market.

Governor Chandler and Finance Commissioner James W. Martin expressed confidence that the road bonds, with a triple-A rating, will be sold without difficulty.

Not as optimistic as Chandler, Martin said the restriction placed on bond interest definitely will put the state at a disadvantage in the market.

Martin said the state will offer no more than $20 million dollars worth of bonds initially.

Appellate Court reversed only that part of the Franklin Circuit Court ruling which held that gasoline taxes for rural secondary roads — two cents a gallon — were excluded from obligation to pay off the bonds.

This means, in effect, that all road fund taxes collected by the state for state purposes are obligated to secure the bonds and can be used to pay principal and interest.

First Area Encephalitis Death Of Year Is Recorded In South Fulton Last Friday

A 75-year-old South Fulton widow died about 7 Friday morning in a Fulton hospital, "encephalitis lethargic" and it apparently a victim of the dread disease encephalitis.

The death is the first recorded in the South Fulton area this season. Last year some 12 cases were diagnosed and four deaths occurred in this area.

Mrs. Laura Tidwell, widow of Charlie Tidwell, died in Haws Memorial Hospital where she had been a patient since Sunday.

Dr. M. W. Blankenship said Friday that the case had been tentatively diagnosed as encephalitis, commonly known as sleeping sickness. He said that a test was made Tuesday and that he is awaiting the results of the test before making a positive statement as to the cause of death.

He declared, however, that the symptoms were very similar to those encountered in this area last year. Public Health officials say the disease is termed "encephalitis lethargic" and it is believed transmitted to humans by mosquitoes and mites.

Mrs. Tidwell was born and reared in Obion County. She lived in Martin for a short time but spent most of her life in this area. She was married in 1903. Her husband died six years later. She had made her home with a sister, Miss Lillian Lacewell of South Fulton, for the past forty-five years.

Mrs. Tidwell was a member of the Church of Christ.

Services were held at 4 Saturday afternoon at the White-Ranson Funeral Home in Union City. The Rev. A. T. Evans officiated and burial was in East View Cemetery.

Besides her sister, she leaves a son, Charles R. Tidwell of Chicago.

PICNIC, FAIR AUG. 10

The Hickman County rural youth fair, as well as the Hickman County Farm Bureau annual picnic, will be held August 10 on the grounds of Central High School at Clinton.

Some weeks when press day rolls around I get just plum put out with myself. All week before I keep making notes in my notebook about stories I want to write and about little events I want to report to you . . . and then I hear Paul chanting the old refrain . . . "copy deadline is one o'clock today." I realize then that I don't have time to even review my notes, much less write a story.

For instance this week I wanted to do an overall story about all those sizzling golf matches that are in progress at the Country Club. Records are falling right and left among the adult men and women and among the junior players and I haven't had a minute to run out there and see who the latest champion is. Its right discouraging to realize there are so few hours in the day to get accomplished what I want to.

Then there's a wonderful story in the new pony ring that has gone into business in Highlands across from the Derby Cafe. Ronnie Ashley, Katie and Brenda Sue Brown are really giving the small fry a fine time with their pony rides and it would make an interesting story to report how these enterprising young folks have utilized their energies to make themselves some extra money and afford themselves and little children some exciting and happy moments.

There's some interesting news in the fact that Dr. Thomas Callahan and his interesting family, (Wilda and the three children, Carol, Skipper and Bill) are arriving this week-end to spend two wonderful weeks here with his mother, Mrs. L. H. Howard and his sisters, Mrs. Ward Bushart and Mrs. Lois Haws, and their families. Thomas and family have not been home for two years and that's a big story in itself for if there's one thing that Thomas looks forward to every year is coming back to Fulton and visiting with the home-folks.

The Boy Scouts have returned from the Big Jamboree at Valley Forge and I know they must have some wonderful stories to tell. But I will be saved on this story because I am going to have personal interviews with the boys on WFUL at 9:30 a. m. on Friday to let them tell you in person about the trip. I am going to interview as many boys as I can on "Jo's Notebook of the Air" and if time runs out . . . I'll just let them take over my program until I have everyone of them tell you their individual stories.

I know there's an unusually good story in the big Cub Scout Carnival that will be held on August 28. You know this carnival has become the highlight of the early Fall and big plans are already in the making for the Queen's contest, the twenty booths that will line the saw-dust midway and the other big acts that always are featured in this tremendous undertaking by the Cub Scouts.

Too, there's a petition circulating in the city of Fulton to secure a city manager form of government for the city. Names are being secured from Fulton property owners in order that the new plan of government may be presented to the voters in the November general election. If the required number of voters signify their desire to change our present government then Fulton will see some changes made in the way the City of Fulton conducts its city affairs. Persons circulating the petition tell me that all of the names needed will soon be secured and that means that the voters may have an opportunity to vote on the change if they so desire. We'll bring you a story about this when all the names have been secured on the petition.

I can only ask your indulgence in our failure to bring you some Continued On Page Four

We've Got to Stop Migration From Our Area

For those who haven't been too alarmed over the mass migration from West Tennessee and this lower end of West Kentucky during the past seven years, the seriousness of the situation has become more readily apparent during these past two or three months.

Our good farmers, who provide the backbone of the economy of most of the smaller towns in this area, including Fulton, are having a hectic year. Many of them could ease the financial burden by accepting work in a local factory, if there were one in Fulton... and thus would stay with us. If you will check the male rosters of factories anywhere in the area, a substantial number of farmers will be found supplementing their scant farm earnings by regular weekly payroll checks.

Having no factories in Fulton that will offer them steady employment, these people, their sons, and those young men who are "growing up" in Fulton are forced to turn their attentions to other fields, however distant they may be.

We have noted a rather serious upswing of the migration problem in and around Fulton this spring and summer, and it's time we are doing something about it. Even those firms who have apparently been unconcerned over this situation until now are feeling the pinch that comes with less buyers in town, less profits to the firms in town, less business for themselves, no matter what kind of business they are in.

When our 20,000 farm friends and customers lose their buying power, the 5,000 residents of Fulton are going to feel it keenly, even though the reaction is somewhat delayed for certain kinds of business.

What is happening? The State of Tennessee bluntly says that the "Migration problem" is the most serious confronting the State. Adjacent Weakley County, which Fulton depends on for a heavy segment of its retail trade, has suffered the heaviest loss in any County in Tennessee. Fulton County and Hickman County have also lost, and the City of Fulton is dropping, almost month by month.

We are going to have to provide more factory work for men in Fulton and South Fulton in order to stop this migration, and we're going to have to get "on the ball" and get going now. There are factories to be found; there are factories that will locate in Fulton; every month provides fresh news of all kinds of factories locating in the Mid-South. We are not going to witness any industry dropping in our lap; the competition for locations is so keen nowadays that he who waits for an invitation has lost out.

If the 185 business firms in Fulton will band together and determine to go get an industry or two, they can do it. With 185 individuals conscientiously looking for industry, one will turn up, maybe several will turn up.

These comments are no reflection on the hard-working industrial committee of the Chamber of Commerce, which spends as much time as it can at the job, with very little cooperation from the general citizenry. It is not unusual to find that "everybody's business is nobody's business", and obviously we have so operated in the past. But today, to stop this migration, to bring back receding business in general, to see our apartments and empty store buildings again fill up with people and merchandise, "Everybody's business is going to be everybody's business."

Meaning, simply, that you and I and the rest of the community have to get to work and find some payrolls, and get started today. Sure, everybody wants payrolls, but few do more than sit down and wait for them. Let's get active, aggressive searching underway.

SERMONETTE OF THE WEEK

"Big-Business" Filth Is Ruining Our Youth

By J. Edgar Hoover, Director, Federal Bureau of Investigation
"PLEASE do us American teenagers a big favor and get rid of the trash that is trying to kill us." This is the plea that recently came to me by letter, and it is typical of the respectable youngsters across the country.

Many letters which I receive from the younger population implore help against the obscenity bombarding them from all sides. This seventeen-year-old stated that even though lack of family life and absence of religious training were seeds of the youth problem, certain sordid literature, pornography, and other forms of obscenity acted as fertilizers to nourish these seeds into juvenile crime.

IN THESE summer months with their seasonal rise in sex crimes, there is a special need to focus public attention on a despicable business—the sale and distribution of obscene material.

The serious danger of this "big-business" criminal enterprise lies in its degrading influence on youth and American communities. Too often the purveyor of filth in the form of movies, playing cards, books, photographs, and other devices, reap a rich reward as a result of lackadaisical public opposition to his evil occupation. The carefree hours of school vacation time afford these parasitic peddlers of ugly wares many opportunities to claim the inquisitive and impressionable minds of the Nation's youth.

THE MOST effective means of preventing juvenile crime is proper adult guidance and practical moral training, based on Christ's teachings, in the home, school and church. A breakdown in this basic phase of adult responsibility, however, is clearly evidenced by the spiraling youth crime statistics.

To implement the guidance of home, school and church, weapons for combatting this menace must be found or forged in the arsenal of local, state and Federal laws. And there must be cooperative public and police effort to assure that local ordinances against obscenity are adequate and rigidly enforced.

PARENTS, school authorities and law-abiding citizens interested in the welfare of youth must share the duty of reporting sources of obscene material to the proper officials. Most certainly, local civic leaders and legislators have a responsibility to their communities in the matter of controlling this pollution problem.

Public opinion and coordinated action, sparked by a Christian conscience, can sound the death knell for the obscene material peddler. Assuredly, each and every citizen must contribute to the fight against filth-mongering or suffer in the moral contamination spread by this diseased business.

Kentucky Windage

By P. W.

The way they got this Miss Universe contest loused up this year, they had better leave Atlantic City alone and go chew on another project, these promoters out on Long Beach.

First, Miss United States was disqualified when her mother-in-law let it be known that the gal was married and that was against the contest rules. So they tossed her out. After all, she admitted she was a poor girl just trying to make a couple of bucks out of the publicity.

Next, Miss Universe, from somewhere in South America, was discovered to be under the qualifying age of 18. So she comes up with the presumably startling revelation that she was past 17½ and when a person's that age, she might as well be declared 18. Which is the same set of rules we go by up here North of the Pecos, meaning nothing. But the judges discovered that she didn't need the couple of bucks because she was from a wealthy family, so they let her keep the crown.

Or maybe their hangovers hadn't worn off from the previous day.

Any way you look at it, the Miss Universe contest has done the grand flopper. About the only way they're going to salvage another contest next year is to make it "Miss Firmament" and invite contestants from Mars.

KENTUCKIETTE

Douglas Wheeler of the Paintsville Herald writes in a letter to this column:

The first settlement in Eastern Kentucky (all 14 counties) was in Johnson County in the Old Block House Bottom near the mouth of Johns Creek. The site is five miles below Dewey Dam and Dewey Lake State Park.

The old fort, or block house, was established by Matthias

Harman, the Auxiers and others in 1787. Jenny Wiley, noted heroine of Eastern Kentucky, found refuge at the fort from Indians in 1787 after she had been held captive several months at Mud Lick Falls near Paintsville.

Telephone Talk

Your Telephone Manager

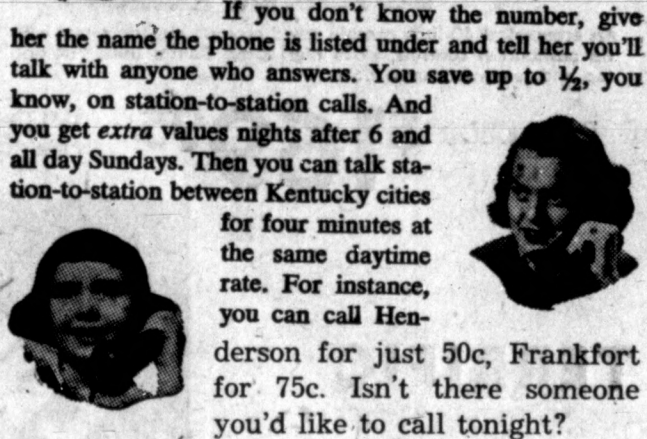

NEWEST DRIVE-IN CREATION—It's really something, this growing trend toward drive-in service. You can shop, you can bank, go to the movies, even have your car washed while sitting comfortably behind the wheel. Our telephone engineers are making field tests to add still another convenience to this motorized age—the drive-in telephone, that will let you make calls without leaving your car. We've selected two cities as test sites. If folks like drive-in phones, you'll probably see 'em one day wherever you go on streets and highways. It's still another way we're working to put telephone service in arm's reach of everybody, everywhere.

MISS SOMEONE OUT-OF-TOWN?

Why not enjoy the warm satisfaction of a "voice visit" by Long Distance? It's fun, it's easy, and it costs so little especially when you call station-to-station. Just give the operator the name of the city and the number you want.

If you don't know the number, give her the name the phone is listed under and tell her you'll talk with anyone who answers. You save up to 1/2, you know, on station-to-station calls. And you get extra values nights after 6 and all day Sundays. Then you can talk station-to-station between Kentucky cities for four minutes at the same daytime rate. For instance, you can call Henderson for just 50c, Frankfort for 75c. Isn't there someone you'd like to call tonight?

MORE THAN YOU SEE—The telephone in your home is just one small part of the equipment that makes it possible for you to call anywhere, any time. Behind it are miles of wire and cables, complicated switchboards and electronic gadgets—and over 4,960 Kentucky Southern Bell folks, 65 of them here in Fulton, all working together to bring people closer together.

Diary of Doin's

A well-known lady hereabouts made a memorable remark at the Fulton Country Club the other day. Said she: "I'm getting to be a bigger fool every day." The record does not reveal that she had any contradiction to her statement, for those around her were participants in the folly that brought about the remark.

Indeed, on Ladies Day at the Country Club on Tuesday nearly 60 ladies played golf in that pouring rain that descended on the area all afternoon. But good. They teed off in the rain, they played the fairway in the rain, and they concluded their games in the rain.

And what is more the local ladies are not the only ones who can be viewed with tongue in cheek, for ten avid golfers came up from Dyersburg, Tenn. and played a tournament with the Fulton gals. No one seemed to question the advisability of playing golf in the rain. They just viewed the skies, made some small comment that it was raining and went on like the sun was shining as bright as all get out. . . which it wasn't.

Golf clubs slipped threw the fingers, water splattered and golf balls went askew, but who cared . . . it was ladies day and that meant golf playing and that they

the Country Club could not be reached for details, but it was reported that a group of Fulton golfers motored to Metropolis, Illinois on Wednesday to take part in an inter-city golf tournament there. These treks to the various cities are much fun, meeting golfers from other cities . . . but the golf wail is the same all over . . . "if I hadn't gone in the rough . . . or the creek . . . if I hadn't blown up on number three . . . I would have had a . . . Just listen to them sometimes when you ask about the score.

Sunday at the Fulton Methodist Church the young people will again be buzzing all around. The Intermediate Fellowship group will do something unusual, in planning a family night dinner at six o'clock in the evening at which time they will be hosts and hostesses to their families. Then too, the Senior Fellowship group will take off for a wonderful all-day outing at Natchez Trace State Park. In the evening the Fulton group will join the Martin group in sharing an out-door worship service. There are many impressive knolls around the park that make such a worship service most effective and most impressive.

Highlighting the social calendar for August will be the marriage of Miss Fredrica Gibson to J. Wayne White and already local hostesses are feting this popular bride-elect with many lovely gatherings.

Such was the event on last Saturday when Mesdames Louis Weaks, Vodie Hardin and Harvey Maddox entertained at tea in the hospitable Weaks home on Third Street.

Enhancing the beauty of the living-rooms were beautiful arrangements of summer blossoms. In this gracious setting more than eighty guests called from four until six in the late afternoon.

The honoree wore a beautiful formal dress of white chantilly lace and net designed with strapless bodice and a voluminous hooped skirt. Side panels of many net ruffles were poised over the lace skirt. Her gift corsage was of pink roses and stephanotis. Mrs. Fred Gibson, mother of the bride-elect, wore a shell pink linen dress with the bodice heavily encrusted with matching lace. Matching chiffon formed a floating panel in the back. She also wore a corsage of roses. Mrs. George C. White of Memphis, mother of the groom-elect, wore an ice blue linen with a deep yoke of matching lace and a corsage of roses. Mrs. Weaks wore white linen. Mrs. Maddox wore black linen with a white Venetian lace collar which was studded with rhinestones.

The tea table was draped with white candles and crystal epergnes holding bells of Ireland and baby's breath. Crystal punch bowls were at each end of the table. Assisting in serving, and receiving the guests were Mrs. Parks Weaks, Mrs. C. D. Edwards, Mrs. Charles Homra of Ridgely, Tenn., Mrs. Jerry Hawks, Miss Norma Owen, Miss Mary Ann Hill, Miss Shirley Walker of Milan, Tenn., and Miss Eleanor Harper of Memphis, Tenn.

On Wednesday morning the home of Mrs. Joe Bennett was the scene of a lovely party when Mrs. Bennett, Mrs. Vernon Owen and Norma Owen and Mrs. Billy Blackstone and Miss Marian Blackstone were hostesses to a bridge-luncheon. Guests gathered at the Bennett home at nine-thirty in the morning when four tables of bridge players enjoyed this delightful pastime.

At noon luncheon was served amidst a decorative scheme of blue and white carried out in the flower arrangements, the table decorations and other appointments around the house.

For this occasion Miss Gibson, the bride-elect was dressed in one of her trousseau frocks of blue and gold embossed cotton. She was presented a corsage of white stephanotis, circled with light blue tulle. As a memento of the occasion she was given a cup and saucer in her chosen pattern of china.

At the conclusion of the bridge games prizes were presented to Mary Latta for high score, Elizabeth Caldwell for second high and Rosalind Sisson for low score.

Prior to leaving Memphis where she was a student at Memphis State College, Miss Gibson was the inspiration for many lovely parties in her honor.

A gift tea was given by Mrs. J. L. Poteet at her home in Memphis, honoring Miss Gibson. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Frances Glover, Mrs. J. M. McCormick and Miss Marian Wilson.

Miss Gibson wore a ballerina length frock of mint green taffeta designed along empire lines with insets of a deeper shade of green. Her gift corsage was a vivid purple orchid. Around sixty-five guests called.

Miss Eleanor Harper and Miss Shirley Walker, who were college roommates of Miss Gibson and who will be bridesmaids in her wedding, gave a luncheon in her honor at the Embers in Memphis.

The honored guest wore a spring frock of pure silk with a flowered print. Her hostesses gave her a corsage of white roses and their luncheon gift was an attractive lazy susan.

The guest list included Miss Gibson, her mother, Mrs. Fred Gibson, Mrs. G. C. White, mother of the honoree's fiancé, Mrs. R. G. Pruett, Mrs. J. L. Poteet, Mrs. William Harper, Mrs. Jimmy George Taylor, Miss Barbara Dowd, Miss Patsy Wright, Miss Barbara Risty and Miss Alida Harper.

On Saturday evening, July 13, Miss Gibson and her fiancé, Wayne White, were guests of honor at an al fresco hamburger supper given by Mr. and Mrs. Jene Roland White and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Pruett at the Pruett home.

Thirteen couples enjoyed the delicious meal, followed by an evening of informal entertainment.

Mrs. Tommy Spraggs of Brookfield, Illinois is in Fulton for an extended visit in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hall. Mrs. Spraggs is the former Peggy Hall.

Franklin high school and Nashville General hospital school of Nursing. She is now on the staff at the hospital.

Miss Mary Ann Hinkle and Lt. Roy Lee Oldham Are Wed At Baptist Church Here On July 7

The First Baptist Church presented a scene of unusual beauty on Sunday afternoon, July 7, for the marriage of Miss Mary Ann Hinkle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Thomas Hinkle, to Lieutenant Roy Lee Oldham, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Oldham of Barlow, Kentucky. The impressive double-ring ceremony was solemnized at 5 o'clock with the pastor of the church, the Reverend John D. Laid, officiating in the presence of a large group of relatives, out of town guests, and friends of the young couple and their parents.

As the guests assembled Mrs. J. U. McKendree, organist, presented a program of nuptial music. James L. Mullenix, baritone soloist, sang "The Sweetest Story Ever Told" (Stultz) and "If God Left Only You", immediately before the exchanging of the vows. Following the pastoral benediction Mr. Mullenix sang "A Wedding Prayer." The traditional wedding marches by Wagner and Mendelssohn were used for the processional and the recessional.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father, wore a terrace length wedding gown of white lace over bridal satin. The elongated bodice had a deep scoop neckline and bracelet length sleeves which were edged with a satin covered cord; the same cording joined the bodice to the widely flared skirts which were worn over crinoline petticoats. Her four tiered veil of imported bridal illusion fell from a scalloped satin tiara which was heavily encrusted with seed pearls. The edges of the veil were scalloped and were touched with seed pearls. Her only jewelry were a pearl necklace and matching earrings which were the gift of the groom. She carried a crescent bouquet of white phalaenopsis orchids and Stephanotis.

Mrs. W. E. Harold was the matron of honor; the bridesmaids were Miss Bevelly Hill, Mrs. William R. Kaler, and Miss Paula Hornsby.

Little Miss Brenda Barker, the flower girl, wore a dainty waltz length frock of white eyelet nylon over taffeta.

Jack Oldham served his brother as best man. The ushers were W. E. Harold, John Oldham, Charles Waldrop and Harold Garrison. James L. Mullenix, Jr., was the ringbearer.

Immediately following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Hinkle entertained with a reception in the formal parlor of the church. Assisting with the reception were Mrs. John D. Laid, Mrs. James Mullenix, Mrs. George Moore, Mrs. F. D. Phillips, Miss Ann Fuller, Miss Paula DeMyer, Mrs.

ADJUSTMENT CLAUSES COVERING INCREASES IN COST OF FUEL, LABOR AND TAXES
(a) These clauses are applicable to rate schedules RS-2, RS-3, RS-4, RS-10, and rider for 3-phase residential service, GS-2, GS-3, GS-4, GS-10, L.P., MP-1, WPS, E, OPWH, M, and 61. These clauses are to be made applicable to all old restricted rates which are to be eliminated within limited time, as outlined in this filing.
(b) To electric service billings rendered during each three (3) month period, beginning with January, April, July and October, in accordance with the provisions of the following clauses:

Fuel Clause
If the average cost of fuel consumed by the Company's steam generating stations is in excess of 21 cents per million BTU, as determined from the Company's three most recent monthly Operating Reports available, an additional charge will be made on the kilowatt-hours purchased by the customer at the rate of .0015 cent per kilowatt-hour for each 1 cent increase, or fraction thereof, in the cost of fuel above 21 cents per 1,000,000 BTU.

Labor Clause
If the average wage rate of production workers in electric light and power utilities, as compiled by the Bureau of Labor Statistics (for its legal successor) in its three most recent monthly publications, exceeds $2.30 per hour, an additional charge will be made for the kilowatt-hours purchased by the customer at the rate of .0015 cent per kilowatt-hour for each 1 cent, or fraction thereof, increase above $2.30 per hour.

Tax Clause
In the event of the imposition of any new or increased tax, charge or levy by governmental authorities (except State, County and City ad valorem taxes, or Federal and State Income Taxes) upon the Company's electric business after July 1, 1957, the Company shall have the right to adjust all billing for electric service, in an amount equivalent to the new tax, charge or levy. Should the application of such new or increased tax, charge or levy be restricted to the limits of any municipality or other governmental unit, the Company shall have the right to adjust the billings for electric service rendered within the limits of such municipality or governmental unit in an amount equivalent to the amount of such tax, charge or levy.

The company also proposes to eliminate several rate schedules. Customers now being served under these rates will be served under one of the company's proposed standard schedules. Rate schedules to be cancelled are: General Power Service Rate KU-22, with riders for service to flour mills, distilleries, and ice plants; General Power Rate GP-1, and RS and GS-21, applicable in Paducah; General Power Rate D, and rider No. 2, applicable in Lexington; General Service Rate GS-16, applicable in Paducah.

KENTUCKY UTILITIES COMPANY

PIERCE STATION Mrs. Charles Lowe

Dear Patricia,

Please answer these questions for me. Will my husband be laid off from work soon? Will he ever work at this job any more? If he gets laid off, will he soon find work? If so, when? Does he want a steady job? Will he get the job we are thinking of soon? Or will he ever get on there? How is my husband's health? Is my husband's health? I ever have to have an operation; if so when? Is my son working now? Why don't he ever write? Will my husband always be high tempered?

Please answer in next week's News.

Thank You

Dear R. L.
Yes your husband will always be high tempered. No, he will not be laid off for quite some time. It looks like he might get mad and quit. No, he doesn't care for regular work. No, he will not get the job you are thinking about. Yes, both of you are in good health. I do not see any operation in store for you. Your son is working and has time to write; just not the type to like to write.

Dear Miss Latane,
In school I lost my ring. Could you tell me where to find it or did someone pick it up, if so please give me their initials.

Your truly,
M. A. H.

Dear M. A. H.
Your ring was lying on the floor and was picked up by J. A. B.

Dear Pat,
I take the paper, read all the letters and answers. I love the way you answer some of them. Please answer one for me. Will our street be regained for business or stay as it is? Will we sell our home or stay here? My husband works quite away from home, will he stay there or not? Thanks so much,
A happy Reader, B. R.

Dear B. R.
I'm sorry but the street you live on will be taken in as a business district. You will sell your home and get a good price for it as it will be used as a business place. Yes, your husband will continue to work on where he is but you will move closer to his work than where you are now living.

Dear Pat,
Would you answer some questions for me?

Does the man I have met and am corresponding with love me? When will I see him again? Will we marry, if so when? Can he be trusted? Is he well liked in the community in which he lives?

Will I continue to live here or go to another state? Will I take a vacation trip this summer? Where?

Anxious
Dear Anxious:
Yes, the man you are corresponding with is in love with you. Yes, you will see him several times. Yes, you will marry him in September of this year. Yes, you can trust this man. You will find he is a very well-liked person and has a good reputation. You will go to another state to live. Yes, you will take a vacation trip; you will visit with him during your vacation.

Dear Patricia,
I enjoy your letters very much. Please answer some more questions for me. What is wrong with

CHESTNUT GLADE

Mrs. Harvey Vaughn

The announcement of the opening of school on August 26 reminded us that the summer would soon be over. As always the youngsters seem as eager for the opening of school as they were for the closing in the spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Bowen attended a Bowen family reunion last weekend in Illinois. Mrs. Hazel Rogers, their niece, brought them home and is spending a few days with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Talley and children from Nashville are spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Harwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ray sold their farm last week to a Mr. Thomas from Friendship, Tenn. This farm had been owned by the Thomas family for more than 100 years and has been bought by another person of the same name which is most unusual.

Mrs. Em Griffin is improving slowly after having two blood transfusions last week. She was dismissed from the hospital Friday.

Mrs. Bertie Robey remains in a critical condition. Her children have been called to her bedside.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Toome and children are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Willie Harwood.

Mr. Alton Simpson went to Memphis for treatment this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Folles and children spent one night with Mrs. Opal Pounds last week. They were returning to their home in Parsons, Kansas after a vacation trip to Nashville, Smoky and Lookout Mountains, Georgia, North Carolina and the Mammoth Cave.

Many relatives and friends were grieved to learn of the passing away of Mrs. George Murray in Oklahoma City last week. Mrs. Murray was a sister-in-law of Mrs. Ada and Dana Reed and Mrs. Martha Croft and visited them many times.

Mrs. Clay McConnell and daughters of Decatur, Georgia are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Reed.

Prince Edward Island Lobster Carnival

One of eastern Canada's gayest and most colorful summer events is scheduled to be held at Summerside in the "Garden Province" of Prince Edward Island in mid-July.

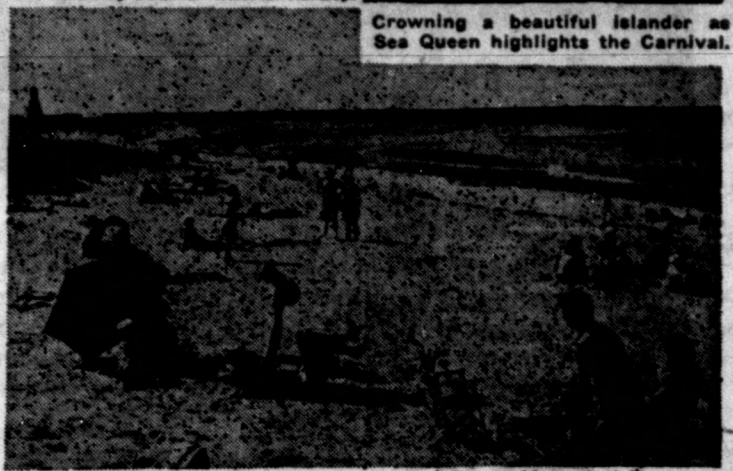

It is the annual Lobster Carnival which each year draws thousands of visitors from the United States and mainland Canada who participate in a week-long festa.

Featured during the carnival are the renowned lobsters which come fresh from the clear waters of Northumberland Strait. The succulent shellfish are prepared by experts and are available in abundance.

The carnival this year is being held from July 15 to 20 inclusive. Attractions lined up for the six gala days include horse racing (for which P.E.I. is famous throughout Canada), parades, a circus, a soap-box derby, speedboat racing, a Maritime track and field meet, a fiddling and step-dancing contest, spectacular fireworks displays, and the crowning of a beautiful islander as the Sea Queen.

Prince Edward Island is reached from mainland Canada by the trains of Canadian National Railways, and the luxury ferry "Abegweit", the largest vessel of its kind in the world. It is one of the regular ferries carrying passengers and automobiles to the island from Cape Tormentine in New Brunswick.

Nearly $7,000 Distributed This Week To Wool Producers For Incentive Payments

Mr. Roy Bard, Chairman of Fultons County ASC Committee, stated that Incentive Payments on 1956 Wool and Unshorn Lambs were mailed to all farmers Monday July 15th. There were 63 farmers receiving $6,972.08. Of this amount, $5,344.62 was for Shorn Wool and $1,627.46 from sale of Unshorn Lambs.

These payments represent payments of applications filed in the county office prior to April 30, 1957 which was for Wool shorn after January 1st, 1955 and from Lambs that had never been shorn which was marketed between April 1, 1956 and March 31, 1957.

Mr. Bard stated that the 1956 Wool Incentive payment was computed at 40% of the dollar returns each producer received from the sale of shorn wool and Seventy One Cents per Hundred-weight of Unshorn Lambs sold. This payment was computed based upon a difference in the National Average from the sale of wool and the price of 62c per pound which had been set as the Incentive level. This difference being 17.7c per pound.

Mr. Bard urged each sheep producer to take good care of his wool and lamb invoices and to be sure that the purchaser placed the proper information on these for him and to file with the County ASC Office when the sale of wool and lambs had been completed.

For further information see your County ASC Office.

Dade Park Racing Opens On July 31

Lester E. Yeager, president and general manager of the Dade Park Jockey Club, has announced that this Western Kentucky racing establishment will hold open house on Sunday, July 28. A cordial invitation is extended to all racing fans of the tri-state area to visit the track on that day and see the various improvements made since the curtain rang down the close on the meeting last summer. The meeting opens a 29-day session, Wednesday, July 31.

SUCCESSFUL HOMEMAKING

By Marie Holland

Home Demonstrator, Kentucky Utilities

The homemaker who makes wide use of her home freezer is never at a loss as to what to serve for what occasion. Days ahead she can bake and freeze foods for contributions to the community "homebake" sale. With a wide selection of delicious foods at hand, tempting tidbits may be prepared easily for invalids. Further, the homemaker who keeps an open door for her children's friends will always have something to serve them without a last minute rush or an upset kitchen. Be it for formal dinners or for fun and frolic, be it for family meals or "catering", the home freezer provides food for every occasion.

Planning meals with freezer foods is simple and fun. Instead of last minute changes to match what happens to be in the market, the homemaker has, right at hand, just what she wants, just when she wants it. Some homemakers plan ready-to-cook whole meals with frozen foods. If, for example, a favorite family menu includes chicken, cranberries, two vegetables, rolls and strawberry pie, the individual package of these frozen foods may be assembled and packaged together, with an outside label listing menu and quantities.

This plan pays dividends when an emergency takes the homemaker away at mealtime, or when unexpected guests arrive. Then, too, other family members enjoy getting an occasional meal with the minimum of effort required by a packaged lunch or dinner. The hostess who prepares and freezes a company dinner days ahead can meet her guests unfurled, able to enjoy the occasion as much as they do.

With frozen complete meals always on hand, the homemaker is free to go and come as she pleases, unhampered by the necessity of three-times-a-day meal planning and preparation.

REAL GONE

Pat Boone drew a bigger crowd this year at Frankfort than Daniel. Daniel's day was observed June 7; Pat's exactly one month later. Pat, who says he's a great-great-grandson of the famous pioneer, and a group of movie people who are making a film in the Blue Grass, were commissioned Kentucky Colonels by Acting Governor Waterfield. The larger turnout for Pat, mostly teenage idolizers of the rock 'n' roll singer, was officially noted during the ceremony on the Capitol steps. Said one teenager: "That Daniel is real gone, man, but Pat's alive, ain't he?"

IT HAPPENED IN KENTUCKY

1817—FIRST STEAMBOAT BUILT IN KENTUCKY

The first steamboat built in Kentucky was the "Pike", made in 1817 at Henderson. The 14th steamboat built in Western waters, the "Pike" was used in passenger service between Henderson and St. Louis. Kentucky's next steamboat was built at Frankfort and was appropriately called the "Kentucky". Of the first 41 steamboats built in Western waters, seven were built in our state.

In Kentucky's historic past, just as today, many of our citizens have always enjoyed a glass of beer. The brewing industry makes jobs for thousands of our residents. The sale of beer under orderly conditions is an important objective of the United States Brewers Foundation. Our continuing educational program helps beer retailers maintain their high standards.

their OK on the state's doubled whiskey production tax and the point system for penalizing dangerous drivers.

Appellate Court's affirmation of the point system reversed Franklin Circuit Court, which had ruled that the Safety Department exceeded its statutory authority in exercising the regulations.

Under the point system, three to 12 penalty points are assessed against drivers convicted of various moving traffic offenses. When the accumulation reaches a total of 12 points, the driver's license is suspended.

Appellate Court held that the Safety Department acted clearly within the scope of power delegated to it under laws authorizing regulations by various governmental departments.

The Court said the regulation neither enlarged nor restricted the application of the terms of the laws, but merely declared an administrative policy.

"These people get a mattress every month!"
by Don Herold

EVERY month, the United States Testing Co. picks a Beautyrest Mattress right off the open market.

You see, this leading testing laboratory once made some really tough tests to see which mattress lasts longer. Beautyrest lasted 2 1/2 times longer! The laboratory was so impressed that it gave the Simmons people its "Seal of Quality" (no other mattress has it!).

BUT—there's a catch! Beautyrest has to meet the laboratory standards every month or lose the seal. So the United States Testing Co. keeps right on testing. Beautyrest still has the seal. Do you have a Beautyrest?

You can see Beautyrest at--
