Primary In Obion County Is Saturday

The Democratic party primary election will be held in Obion County on Saturday, August 3rd, at which time nominees will be named for the offices of county judge, county court clerk, county trustee, circuit court clerk, county sheriff and county register of Obion County.

There are races for all the nominations with the exception of that of county register in which Mrs. Rubye Clear Oliver, the incumbent, is unopposed.

The candidates for the other nominations are: County judge, Raymond Mitchell, incumbent; Dan W. McKinnis, Jr. and Frank Ray; county court clerk, James T. Kendall, incumbent; Lowell Beauchamp and Clifford Joyner Jr.; county trustee, Jack Parks, incumbent; and Roy Perryman; circuit court clerk, Dee Ethridge and Marvin Harper, and county sheriff, Ebb Gwaltney, incumbent; Jewel Bone and Glen Griffin.

South Fulton Begins Street Improvements

An extensive resurfacing program on the streets of South Fulton is underway this week, and before it is completed, most of the streets needing repairs will get them, the News learned this week.

The improvement program is being financed by bond issue.

School Area Annexation Chances Felt Brightened Following Frankfort Visit By Local Delegation

Ten From Area Will Get Degrees At MSC

An August record-breaking number of 145 people are expected to receive baccalaureate and masters degrees from Murray State College in an informal graduation service Friday, August 2 at 4 p. m.

The number of applicants for August degrees exceeds the record of 141 set in August 1956 according to Mrs. Cleo G. Hester, Registrar.

The Kentucky Candidates for degrees include the following from this area: Bachelor of Science: Myra Carr Bondurant, Hickman; Robert Joe Palmer, Fulton; Zuaneta Mae Phelps, Fulton; William Creel Robertson, Fulton. Bachelor of Science: Barbara Ann Baker, Wingo; Richard Foy Gossum, Water Valley; Barbara Jean Holland, Wingo; Clarence Jerome Mills, Lynnville.

NAMED TO COMMISSION
Charles Wright, chairman of the Fulton County Soil Conservation District, has been named to the State Soil and Water Resources Commission.

Obion Farmers Have Until August 15 For A. C. P. Sign-Up

Mr. C. C. Vaughn, Chairman of the Obion County ASC Committee, stated today that all farmers who wish to sign-up for 1957 Agricultural Conservation Program have until August 15th, 1957 to do so.

Only a small percent of the farms in county are signed-up to date, therefore, it is very important that we encourage all interested farmers to come in without delay and file request for cost-share assistance.

Among the practices which have been approved for Obion County, and which may be carried out in the second half of the year are:

- Permanent Pasture and/or Hay in Crop Rotation.
- Liming for Legumes and Grasses.
- Tree Planting.
- Improvement of an Established Vegetative cover.
- Ponds for Livestock Water.
- Woodland Improvement.
- Sod Waterways.
- Constructing Terraces.
- Winter Cover Crops.

PTA Announces Study And Luncheon, Aug. 8

On Thursday, August 8, the South Fulton PTA will have a Study Course. The meeting will be a potluck luncheon in the Home Economics Department, beginning at 10 a. m.

Mrs. Ferris Vaden of Union City, who is Chairman of the 13th District of Tennessee, will teach the Parent-Teacher Manual. Mrs. Vaden is a lovely person, and she will make the lesson very interesting as well as instructive. Mrs. Mac Burrow, Parliamentarian of the local organization, will teach Parliamentary procedure.

Beef Producers Plan Sale At Mayfield

Beef Cattle Producers from the eight purchase counties are planning a Feeder-calf Sale again this year at Mayfield on Wednesday September 25th. Calves may be sold through this organization if they grade very good and weigh over 250 pounds.

Any beef cattle farmer who wants more information about the sale should contact Harold Rice of Hickman, Jess Fields of Fulton or County Agent John Watts.

Barbecue, Ice Cream At Cayce Friday

The Cayce Methodist Church will have their annual barbecue and ice cream supper Friday night, August 2 at the church. Serving will begin at 6:00 p. m. There will be both barbecue and fried chicken, along with many other delicious foods.

A group of citizens and taxpayers from this area who had a conference with State Superintendent of Education Robert R. Martin in Frankfort Tuesday on the local school district annexation problem, returned Tuesday night, feeling "well pleased" with the reception Dr. Martin had accorded them.

While none felt inclined to comment on the possibility that Dr. Martin might agree to territorial annexation to the Fulton Independent School District, which the group sought, it is the feeling of the NEWS that prospects may have been brightened considerably as a result of the personal visit to Frankfort.

It had been previously believed locally that Dr. Martin would not be in favor of the Fulton Independent School District adding any more territory, despite the fact that the Fulton District would offer a tremendous convenience to all pupils living in the eastern end of Fulton County that they will not enjoy if they have to take a long bus ride to Hickman every day, or down in some cases totaling over 50 miles.

Local residents in the area that seek to join the Fulton Independent School District are advised today that the State Department of Education expects to make a full and accurate survey of the situation to substantiate one already made, which is the usual Department policy. A decision as to whether or not the annexation to Fulton is approved and from Hickman every day, or down in some cases totaling over 50 miles, the group was informed.

Lions Radio Auction Will Help Park Improvement

The Fulton Lions Club will conduct a "Radio Auction" over Station WFUL on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, August 8-9-10 in order to raise money for the Club's City park improvement fund.

The auction will be aired from 2 to 3 p. m. on Thursday and Friday and from 1 to 4 p. m. on Saturday. It will be held at the K. U. office on Lake Street and will be broadcast from that point. The public is cordially invited to attend the auction in person if they desire to, or else bids may be taken over the phone by calling number 282, a special phone installed for the auction. Col. Charles W. Burrow, popular auctioneer, is contributing his time, and the Station is contributing air time as a salute to the Lions and their civic project.

Donations are now being solicited for the auction. Pies, cakes, candies, almost any kind of items are eagerly being sought. Anyone who can provide a contribution along these lines is asked to call Fred Homra at 437 or Robert Burrow at 56.

The Fulton Lions Club has made many contributions to the City Park area, and its usefulness as a major public playground is becoming more important each year, as additional facilities are added.

Waterfield, Humphrey Will Speak At Fancy Farm
Lt. Gov. Harry Lee Waterfield and Highway Commissioner Robert Humphrey will be the principal speakers for the 76th annual Fancy Farm picnic Saturday, August 3.

For the first time in its history, this year's picnic will not feature speeches by candidates for high political office. There is only one state-wide race to be held in November, and the primary election was held in May, under the new law on primaries.

In anticipation of its usual big crowd the committee will barbecue 70 sheep, 40 hams and a huge quantity of beef. Besides that there will be numerous concessions, prizes and entertainment.

Construction is beginning on a natural gas distribution system at Hickman.

Jasper Vowell Places High In Paducah Tourney
Early Lead Over Entire Field Drops To A Final Fourth

Jasper Vowell, one of Fulton's top-ranking golfers and former Country Club champion, played some torrid golf last weekend at Paducah's Irvin Cobb tournament, leading a large field of pros and amateurs most of the way before faltering and sinking back into a tie for fourth.

As Sun-Democrat sportswriter Bill Carter recounted the play: "For a while Sunday it looked as though a darkhorse from Fulton, Jasper Vowell, would quietly walk away with the big prize. 'Vowell played the front nine in 34 and was the 27-hole leader with a 104 total, one stroke less than Gilbert."

"Dahlbender, 19-year-old Bill Johnson of St. Louis and Jimmy Jackson of St. Louis all had 106 totals.

"Going to No. 14, Vowell had a two-stroke lead over the field and was three under for the tournament. But he bogied the next three holes before finally parring No. 17 and 18.

"Vowell, who almost proved to be the surprise package of the amateur division, lost because he played the course backwards. Most golfers agree the front nine at Paxton Park is from two to four shots tougher than the back side. But Jasper played the front in three-under-par and was three over on the back."

FIRE AT GAMBILL'S
The Moulton Gambill grocery on the Martin highway south of Fulton suffered considerable damage to contents in a fire Wednesday evening, July 24. Fire companies from the twin cities saved the building.

"Hap" Bowden (left) and Gene "Podner" Gardner had to take time out recently from their busy program schedule at WFUL to have photos made for their admiring listeners. The mail you see in front of Hap and Gene is part of their daily haul. And the beverages you see in the huge bottle . . . well, who can say that they don't speak for themselves . . . without filling, too.

Jaycees Plan To Organize Local Unit At Meeting Here August 8

Following a Tuesday night preliminary meeting of young men interested in organizing a Junior Chamber of Commerce unit in Fulton, another meeting was set for Thursday night, August 8, at which time the organization will likely be formed and a charter applied for.

A large group of young men from the twin cities attended the Tuesday evening meeting here, which was organized by Ray Williams, manager of the Friendly Finance office and a charter member of the Murray (Ky.) Jaycee Club. A number from Murray were also present Tuesday evening.

Local men between the ages of 21 and 35 are eligible to join, and all of those who are interested are invited to attend next week's meeting on August 8. The location of the meeting will be announced by Mr. Williams next week.

...jottings from
Jo's
Note Book

Take it from me folks, if everybody has as happy a birthday as I did on Tuesday and Wednesday, then having them wouldn't be bad at all. I say Tuesday and Wednesday advisedly, because I had celebrations both days and each day was as much fun as the other one. Fact is, I've decided next year to have a full week . . . and call it the "Jo Westpheling Birthday Week."

On Tuesday as I was broadcasting on my program "Jo's Notebook of the Air" at nine-thirty a. m. on WFUL I was just about to wind up my news when the door of the studio opened with a wild confusion.

It was Mary Jo and R. Paul bustin' in to sing "Happy Birthday" and to bring me a lovely gift. When they first opened the door I was furious with them, because they have been warned many times never to go into the control room or the studio when someone is talking on the microphone. However, on Tuesday they were aided and abetted by Paul, who dreamed up the nice little gesture so that the listening audience could share my birthday with me.

As in most things we have to arrange in our lives to suit press day, Paul had the little party on Tuesday, because he couldn't get away from the News office on Wednesday. That was all right with me because it gave me the opportunity to have two birthdays.

But my unofficial birthday on Tuesday was made happier for another reason because it was also the 55th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Davidson, so I just dropped everything I was doing and went out and spent a most pleasant afternoon with them. Out there, on that lovely and spacious front porch of their home, we talked of many interesting things and as I sat there I wondered if when the birthdays on my calendar number as many as they have on the calendar of the Davidsons, would I be able to view life with as much cheer and happiness as those two wonderful people.

Out at the Davidsons their daughter, Dixon Graham, served R. Paul and me delicious peach ice cream and cake and in the background we could hear Hap

Hickman Factory Hopes To Double Size, Staff

A meeting of the Hickman Development Corp., stockholders has been called for Monday night, Aug. 12, at the courthouse to vote on an amendment to the corporation by-laws to make possible an expansion program that would add 20,000 square feet of floor space and double the employment at the Hickman Garment Co. plant. The plant now employs a total of 169 persons.

There are 248 stockholders in the corporation, formed to finance the construction of a factory building for Hickman Garment, with a total of 1985 shares. Any change in the articles of incorporation requires a two-thirds vote or in this case 1323 votes to approve any change.

Since the Small Business administration is a public agency using taxpayers funds, the agency has unusual responsibilities as a leader. But the agency has indicated that the Hickman Development Corp. could qualify for a loan to finance the local factory expansion if Articles III or its incorporation is amended.

TOGGERY MOVING

The Tiny Toggerly will soon move from its location in the Fulton Theatre building to one four doors up Main Street at the location recently occupied by the Fulton Beauty School.

FORRESTER'S MOVING

Forrester's Shoe Shop has moved this week to a new location in the same block on Main Street, formerly occupied by the A. Hudson Company. Additional merchandise will be handled in the larger quarters.

Martha Mahan Reports on Sizzling Golf Matches

Diary of Doin's

Guest Columnist, Martha Mahan

Tournament matches are the order of the day at the Fulton Country Club these days and City Championship play for men and women is going into the stretch with the leading golfers hot on the trail for the coveted championship trophies of 1957. Most any afternoon you'll find the crowd gathered on the benches behind No. 9 watching the tournament matches coming in.

Both Max McDade and Virginia Rogers are faced with stiff competition in defending their titles against a strong field.

In Men's Championship play Max McDade eliminated Ernest Fall in the first round. Jack Moore fell before one of the outstanding young players of the tourney, Bud White, who has been gaining fame all over the state this summer with his play in various junior meets. The match was tied on the 16th hole, and White took the 17th and 18th to win 2-up. White and McDade then played a tight one, with the defending champ winning 2-up.

In the lower part of the upper bracket, Morris Taylor, another youngster, who's been burning it up this summer, won from Charles Binford in the opening round, then met his uncle, Boots Rogers, who's won the title several times, in the second round. Taylor won this match but it took 19 holes as he birdied the 19th to win in the "sudden death" play. Rogers had advanced to the quarterfinals by a win over Donnie McKnight.

Morris Taylor and Max McDade now meet in the semi-finals this week.

In the lower bracket, Jasper Vowell, three-times champion, and a strong contender for the trophy, won the first match from Felix Gossum, then advanced to the semi-finals with a win over Pat Nanne, who had eliminated Dick Meacham in a close match.

John Henson defeated Buck Bushart, while David Homra was the victor over Howard Adams. Henson then won his way to the semi-finals with a win over David Homra.

Henson and Vowell will battle it out to the finals this week, and this promises to be quite a contest. Both golfers are capable of going well under par and both are good tournament players. The winner of this contest will meet the winner of the McDade-Taylor match in the 36-hole finals for the championship.

In the Women's Championship play all eyes will be looking to the result of the Margaret Cantrell-Betty Vowell semi-final round this week, as this could be the tightest tilt of the entire meet.

Mrs. Vowell was the 1950 champion and the 1952, 1954 and 1956 runner-up. While Mrs. Cantrell has never won the trophy, she was runner-up in 1955, having to forfeit the final match due to a broken leg, and she is considered by many as the strongest contender in this year's field.

However, the red-haired Mrs. Vowell has served notice to all that she's going strong, scoring a 40 to finish first in a large field at Metropolis last week, and the day before she had been medalist for the large group of Fulton and Dyersburg golfers on the home course. Both are playing great games and all are eager for the outcome of this match.

Virginia Rogers, who holds a record in West Kentucky, for the number of trophies and golfing honors through the years, is all set and ready to go in her latest championship play and will meet

Betty Lou Thomas, who's setting quite a pace with her low scores recently, in the semi-finals this week. Since 1940 Mrs. Rogers has been defeated only twice in championship play, and still rates as the favorite in the tourney this season, although the field is tougher than ever.

Mrs. Roger eliminated Jane Edwards in the opening round, while Glad Moore defeated Sue Moore. Mrs. Rogers and Mrs. Moore played this week, with the defending champion winning the match to reach the semi-finals.

Betty Lou Thomas won from Martha Moore, while Martha Mahan was the winner over Martha Hale. Mrs. Thomas and Mrs. Mahan then played a torrid 18, going all the way before Mrs. Thomas won the contest 1-up on the 18th hole.

In the lower bracket, Betty Vowell beat Lucille Adams and Margaret Ann Newton came out ahead of Sara Campbell. Mrs. Vowell went on to the semi-finals

Many Plants Will Have To Re-Locate

Does Fulton have a chance to get some industry if local businessmen roll up their sleeves and determine to go after it? W think the answer can pretty well be summed up in a recent speech made in Jackson, Tennessee before the Jackson Rotary Club on June 19, 1957.

The speech, made by GM&O Vice-President T. T. Martin, Industrial relations, pointed out that in the last ten years there has been an increase of 67% in the number of manufacturing plants in the nation, and most of them have gone to the South or far West.

Mr. Martin's speech, reprinted in the July 15 GM&O News, is reprinted herewith in part. He has mentioned several points that may give us a little strength in our endeavors.

"In spite of the rapid movement of industry following World War II and Korea, the pace has not appreciably slackened. To give you an idea of the activity of the past ten years — the numbers of firms engaged in manufacturing and construction has increased from 467,000 to 783,000 — a gain of 316,000 or 67%, while the number of business firms has increased from 3.2 million to 4.3 million — a gain of 34%. Many of these manufacturing firms are making products and using materials which were developed in the past twenty years.

"The greatest advances in industrial development have occurred in the South and far West and predictions seem agreed that this trend will continue.

"Even greater than the growth in industries has been the increase in competition for the location of these industries. Today there are more than 6,300 organizations engaged in the effort to attract industry to their respective areas. This work started at the community level, then was increased at the state level; and at the area level. Many states which, a few years ago were highly critical of local inducements have created various aids to industrial location and are examining their tax structures to place themselves in a better position to bid.

"The competition is keen, and many communities which do not have outstanding attraction in the way of low cost fuel or power, large supplies of water or proximity to basic raw materials, get rather discouraged and fear the procession will pass them by. Yet of the existing plants in 1955, only 8% had changed location, another 8% were branch plants, and 84% were where they happened to have been started, usually because the man with the idea lived in that locality. Many of these plants are off center distribution wise, remote from their sources of raw material, and as competition increases will have to re-locate or establish branches. Again, 75% of these existing plants has no special requirement for water, fuel, power, etc. which could not be met by any well organized community."

Start Early; Crowd More Into The Day!

Do you find time within the 24 hours to do everything you would like to do? Time was money to Ben Franklin and a Greek philosopher named Theophrastus said: "Time is the most valuable thing a man can spend."

Using the last phrase as a title, the Rev. Margaret Blair Johnstone, who is pastor of the Union Congregational Church in Groton, Mass., and also of the Christian Union Church in West Groton, in the August Reader's Digest offers four rules for living within your "time" income.

They are:

SERMONETTE OF THE WEEK

The "Mad Bomber" Had A Grudge

By Anne Tansey
writer for Information

MILLIONS of New Yorkers gave signs of relief when prison bars closed behind the "Mad Bomber." For the last 16 years this man had been taking out his grudge on society — by setting bombs in libraries, railway stations and other public places — because he claimed he had been wronged.

Criminal records abound with crimes committed because the culprit was fighting mad at someone. But such crimes would be much fewer if the people who are hurt, or treated unjustly, would fashion that hurt into a cross. That is, accept it for God's sake who sees everything that happens to us, whether it be good or bad. If nobody else ever rights our wrongs for us, He will — in His own good time — if we give Him the opportunity.

COUNTLESS people have been disappointed in love, have lost jobs unjustly, have had all manner of misfortune. It is a good thing for society that the majority of them turn these hurts into crosses.

ever you are doing, start in time.
2. Do it now! Delay wastes time and saps energy.

3. Learn when to say "No", and when to say "Yes". Because our time income is fixed we must learn to be selective in spending it.

4. Take time out. Do something that restores the lilt and zest to your living. A change is as good as a rest.

"You don't need to be a surgeon, or a statesman like Churchill to paint," says the writer. "Nor need you have Bernard Baruch's busy schedule to find that 15 minutes a day spent on a park bench can refresh you for the rest of the day."

I know a widow who was left with seven children to bring up. She knew the loss of her husband to be a cross, and wore it herocially and without complaint. In spite of its burden she found life good and in many ways, and because of her blithe spirits had a host of friends. Now only those who know her well are aware that great sorrow once entered her life.

THE EASIEST people in the world to get along with, and the most understanding, are those who bear the heaviest crosses — who have learned how to carry them and how to profit from them. They are a pleasure to be with because they enjoy the fruit which blossoms from crosses patiently borne. Many a person never discovers what potentials he has inside himself until he is afflicted and has to take up his cross.

Crosses are of all kinds, sizes, and degrees. They have just one thing in common — with God's grace they can be borne. Properly worn, they bring a love of life as well as a love of God — knowing that life is the gift of God and that crosses come from Him for our own good.

A GRUDGE is a horrible thing to lug around. The trouble with them is that they grow bigger and bigger with the years they are carried, until they get completely out of hand. Like the "Mad Bomber", people with grudges begin to look for ways to show their hatred for society instead of their love for God.

No matter which way you take it, crosses are preferable to grudges. The person who nurses a grudge is truly blind because he could have the joy of the cross for the same hurt, the same injustice. It takes a cross to turn injuries into treasures of grace. As Jesus said, "Take up your cross daily and" — then — "follow me."

STRICTLY BUSINESS

by McFeetters

Kentucky Windage

By P. W.

Every organization that tackles anything big knows that to make a success of it the whole membership has to pitch in and put in a lot of hard work into the project. Those around Fulton who have worked on the County Fairs of the past will know what I mean.

I was sharply reminded of the fact twice in the past two weeks. A couple of weeks ago I attended the Marshall County Fair at Benton, which is one of the remaining big fairs in the area. It was a big, glamorous affair, running full steam for five nights. At the Tuesday evening beauty pageant around 5000 spectators attended and overflowed the available seating. We returned again Friday night for the big horse show, and again a big crowd was on hand for the 20 classes in the show.

But with all its glamour (to all the outsiders) it took a lot of hard, unrelenting work on behalf of the civic club that put it on, and several privately admitted to me that it was just about all they could manage and still operate their regular daily livelihood.

Then last week I went to Jackson for the "Miss Tennessee" pageant, a 4-night affair that drew up to 10,000 a night, and it was a dandy. The show itself, spiced up with extra entertainment, was fine. But it sure worked the Dickens out of the Jackson Jaycees, who are proud of having it in Jackson each year, but whose tongues are strictly hanging out before it's all over. The publicity director of the Jackson pageant, a young man in the printing business in Jackson, admitted that he hadn't been near his office the whole week preceding the pageant, which pretty well proves that it takes a big gang of real, civic-proud folks to pitch in and put things like that over like they do.

Nancy Adams entertained with songs and instrumental numbers both at Benton and at the Jackson Pageant, and judging by the applause has a whole lot of real fans throughout the area. At Jackson the current "Miss America" was on hand to see and to be seen, and I understand that she was so strongly impressed by Nancy's looks and abilities that she made a point to have a little private conference with her while she was there.

Nancy has delivered fine performances this summer at the numerous public functions that she has been invited to participate in as a featured performer, and all of Fulton should be proud of her. At Jackson and Benton the audiences were informed that she was from "Fulton, Kentucky" and after her numbers I am sure that any Fultonians in the audience were right proud to let their neighbors around them know that they, too, were from Fulton.

The two performances in Jackson were on TV and radio, too... and on last Saturday afternoon Nancy, Miss America and a few others were guests of the Mayor of Jackson at a special luncheon.

Another performance that you ought to attend if you can, is her appearance at the Memphis MOAT in Overton Park on Tuesday August 27th. The whole show, featuring the best of the younger talent throughout the Mid-South, will be well worth seeing, and a young lady from Fulton, Kentucky may just go steal the whole thing.

My claim to fame in Jackson is that three times straight-running I was mistaken for the strong man who participates in a trampoline act. Puny me, I felt real inflated.

Mollie King's new showroom and shop for his auto business is rapidly taking shape down at State Life and Carr Streets, and when Mollie opens up he will have the nicest display for his Pontiacs of any showroom in town.

Forrester's Shoe shop is getting ready to move up Main Street to the old Huddleston Hardware building, and I understand that a newly-arriving Loan Company or allied business is going in where the shop now is.

Normally about one out of every 50 people in the Chicago area are railroaders or members of their families and the Chicago railroad payroll amounts to nearly $1 million a day. Still another 100,000 Chicagoans draw paychecks from manufacturers who sell equipment and supplies to the railroads. Cook County Railroad takes amounted to more than $12 million in 1955. Nearly $5½ million of which went for schools.

One of civilization's unchangeable laws is that trade follows transportation. Today, more than 4,300 Chicago industries are served directly by railroad.

More than 200,000 freight cars (over 11 per cent of all the freight cars owned by all the nation's railroads) can be accommodated at one time in the city's 206 terminal and industrial yards.

If anyone should make a count at almost any time of the day or night, he would find 3,600 passenger cars within the Chicago area. More than 1,000 locomotives would also be counted.

The revival closed at New Salem the past Saturday night under the leadership of Bro. Dempsey Henderson with Bro. Wilburn Johnson as the visiting minister, who delivered some fine sermons daily. Many visitors came to worship with this church at these services and Pastor Henderson extends a welcome to all.

Mrs. Rex Fields and son, Mike, and Miss Pansy McClain left Sunday for their home in Los Angeles, Calif. after several weeks here at the bedside of their mother, Mrs. J. Lawrence McClain, who has been very sick. Mrs. McClain is much better which delights her friends throughout this area.

Next Saturday, August 3, is the annual date for the meeting at Acree Cemetery where all meet who are interested, to receive the work done by caretaker, Mr. Grant Bynum. The business meeting will be held at 10 a. m. then a memorial service will be held at 11 a. m. Basket lunch will be spread at noon. See the committeemen: Grant Bynum, Gailther Mathis, Bert Davis, and LaVerne Windsor with your contribution. Any donation will be appreciated by the committee in charge.

My Dear Mr. Westpheling: I have been informed by Mr. Ralph Ramsey, our truck driver who comes to your city periodically to pick up discarded household materials, that you have been very helpful in assisting him in this program.

I have just recently been appointed to Memphis as the Commanding Officer of the Men's Social Service Center, and the purpose of this letter is to express to you my sincere appreciation for this kindness on your part.

The purpose of our program is to assist handicapped men to rehabilitate themselves and to help them back to a life of usefulness, and the discarded household materials which our workers get from your community assist us greatly in providing employment for men of our center in connection with our work therapy program. The proceeds derived from the sale of these articles support this phase of our work, and much of it is given to needy families through our Welfare Department.

Praying God's blessing upon you and thanking you again, I am

Sincerely yours,
Major K. E. Moss
Commanding Officer

MARTHA MAHAN

by defeating Miss Newton. Margaret Cantrell won from Ethel McDaniel and Sara Bushart eliminated Margaret Hall. Mrs. Cantrell then won her way to the semi-finals by defeating Mrs. Bushart.

This week's card finds Virginia Rogers, veteran low-shooter of the club, and many times champion, against Betty Lou Thomas, one of the longest drivers and best competitors in the field, and the lower bracket match is Margaret Cantrell vs Betty Vowell and this one should go all the way for this pair is evenly matched. Both can "lobber" the golf ball and they've scored about the same all season. It's a toss-up as to who'll reach the finals.

The Men and Women's First Flight Tournament has also provided many interesting matches and several spills and upsets. In the Men's Division Sparky Newton has already reached the finals (and he's not the only one in his family to be a finalist for his youngest son, Lynn, recently annexed the Junior Trophy) Newton now meets the winner of the Frank Fisher-Don Nelson match in the finals. He defeated C. D. Jones Saturday to advance to the finals.

George Moore won his first match from James Green, then won from Chap Taylor. Baker Cosby fell before Frank Fisher and Fisher then won from George Moore Sunday.

South Fulton's coach, Don Nelson won from Jimmy Weeks, then defeated Milton Exum. John Joe Campbell won from Ward Johnson and fell before Nelson.

In the lower bracket Jack Johnson won from Max McKnight, then took Eddie Crocker, as C. D. Jones won a thriller from Gilbert DeMyer. Jones had a three-hole lead with three to go, when DeMyer suddenly got back in the ball game and took two straight to go into the 18th 1-down. Jones didn't give up easily and went on to take the match on the final hole. Tom Mahan and Arch Huddleston had the longest match of the meet, having to call off the contest after 16 holes due to darkness and rain, and then Mahan won 2-up on the second 18. Sparky Newton won from Bubba Hale, then beat Tom Mahan 2-up, and in the semi-finals defeated C. D. Jones thus reaching the finals.

And let's don't forget the Ladies First Flight, where all kinds of close matches are being played every day. The biggest upset of the meet occurred when Dorothy McKnight shot her best game of the year to eliminate the tournament favorite, Maurine Treas in the first round. Mrs. McKnight then fell to Vivian Williamson in the next round. Nell Newton won from Martha Hornsby and Marce Bushart eked out a close one with Jewell Myatt and then found a tough competitor in Joan Baird, but finally came out ahead on the final hole. Carolyn Hales defeated Bonnie Voorhees and now meets Marce Bushart, while Nell Newton plays Vivian Williamson.

In the lower bracket Judy Brady fell before Jane Fisher and Exie Hill (the gal who recently shot herself into the first foursome with a 49 on Ladies Day) defeated Joye Stokes. Mrs. Hill and Mrs. Fisher now play.

Louise Binford won from Helen King, then defeated Ruby Sawyer. She now plays Mary DeMyer, who was the winner over Ruth Scott.

Margaret Hall took time out to win the 1957 Handicap tournament before taking over her duties as life-guard at the pool. She won from Ethel McDaniel in the finals. She was Handicap runner-up last year.

The Handicap champion, who's always hard to beat in competition, defeated Glad Moore, Jane Edwards and Sara Campbell before reaching the finals, while Mrs. McDaniel won from Betty Lou Thomas, Margaret Cantrell and Virginia Rogers to be a finalist. There were some rugged matches played during the tournament, with Virginia Rogers shooting the lowest score in the meet with a 41 to beat Nell Newton in the opening round. She lost to the runner-up by one stroke in another close contest.

In the B-Division of the Ladies Handicap Joye Stokes took the honors by defeating Maurine Treas in the finals. The happiest loser in the entire tournament was Frances Amberg of Hickman, who dropped well below her best score before losing to Maurine Treas in the first round play. She was all smiles despite the loss.

There have been so many matches at the local club in recent weeks it's hard to keep track of everybody, but as it goes into the semi-finals the field has narrowed considerably and few remain in the running. It'll be a battle to the last putt from here on in and soon we'll crown the champions of 1957.

gathered at the REA building where they were first greeted by Mrs. Stokes, the bride-elect Miss Hornsby, Mrs. Mauldin and Mrs. Hornsby, mother of the bride-elect.

The bride's table was centered with a replica of miniature members of the bridal party surrounded by garlands of spring flowers. Individual tables around the rooms featured small bouquets and a miniature bride and groom. Among the forty guests who attended was Mrs. C. M. Hornsby, grandmother of the bride-elect and Anna Mearl, Miss Hornsby's sister. Honors went to Mesdames Guy Hale, Riley Allen and James Coward of Winston-Salem, N. C.

Miss Hornsby wore a pretty pink linen dress designed with a cummerbund and jacket. The hostesses received in white linen dresses. Paula June was presented a gift and a lovely corsage to complement her costume.

DINNER PARTY

Pink and black were the colors carried out in the dining-room. A large snack boat filled with all kinds of pantry goods from condiments to clothes pins was the surprise awaiting the engaged couple when they entered the dining-room to be served. The centerpiece was a gift from the host and hostess.

Bridge was enjoyed by the 24 guests attending the shower-dinner party. Special guests included Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Hornsby, and Mr. and Mrs. Terrell Garrison, parents of the engaged couple.

Miss Hornsby wore a tulle-trousseau frock of ivory provincial print. The hostess was gowned in black and pink cotton dinner dress.

COCKS IN THE MORNING

A morning cock party was a courtesy to bride-elect Paula June Hornsby last week at the home of Mrs. Fred Stokes, Jr. Cokes and party-dips were served to 30 guests.

While vacationing last week at beautiful Pensacola Beach, Florida, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Campbell and their son, Johnny, spent several happy hours learning the art of sailing. The be-wiskered Captain Jim Pader, who also wears a tiny gold ring in his left ear, demonstrated seamanship techniques while sailing aboard the "Miss Tish."

In Fulton, the Campbells reside at the Country Club Courts. Mr. John Campbell is a member of the Chamber of Commerce and operator of the Parisian Laundry and Dry Cleaners, 220 4th street. They returned to Fulton last Sunday night.

AWAY

where they will enjoy a short visit with Mrs. Helm's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Elkins, and many of Mrs. Helm's home town friends.

Hickman always enjoys Nancy and Neville when they take time off from their busy way of life to come and visit with us.

AWAY

Mrs. J. A. Fisher, our public health nurse has been vacationing in Brighton and Memphis, Tenn.

We certainly have missed her smiling face. You know that feeling you have when your doctor goes out of town — well that is the way we feel with Mrs. Fisher away — So come on Home before something happens.

AND BREAKFAST, TOO

Miss Frances Amberg, Mrs. George Helm and Mrs. Austin Voorhees honored Paula June with a breakfast on Friday at the Grill in Union City, Tenn. An arrangement of daisies banked a wrought iron altar behind a doll bride and groom. The honoree was presented with a very useful cook book.

Miss Hornsby wore a gray cotton dress fashioned with a full skirt. The neckline was bordered in gray and white embroidery and a gift corsage completed her lovely costume. The breakfast was enjoyed by 25 guests.

SUMMER GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. George Helm were hosts at a buffet dinner in honor of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Neville Helm of New London, Conn. The Helms and their two children, George Neville and Nancy Kay were visiting Neville's parents who live on Mirror Lake.

Many of the summer visitors were there. Miss Paula June Hornsby and Harold Garrison were special guests.

Bowden at the station dedicating Anniversary Waltz to the Morgan Davidsons on their 55th wedding anniversary. It was a most pleasant and a very happy afternoon.

Well, on Wednesday I thought the birthday celebration was over but I was wrong. I got back into the studio to broadcast my program at nine-thirty and Gene Gardner and I were broadcasting away as we usually do every morning. I had selected my music for the day and when comes time to air a song, I always say: "And now Gene, let's play..." But Wednesday morning it was different.

When I asked Gene to play a Perry Como selection I sat back to enjoy the music and all of a sudden here comes the prettiest happy birthday music you ever heard. But more than that, all the gang who was on hand gathered in the control room to sing their own happy birthday song. And then Kelly Lowe, good ole Kelly, spoke for them when he said: "Happy birthday to our close friend and our boss, Jo."

And then along comes Marjorie Walker with a big coconut birthday cake, (my favorite) that she had baked especially for me. Now wasn't that the nicest birthday celebration you ever heard of?

It was indeed and when Mrs. Braswell at the Fulton Hospital asked me how old I was and I told her 172, she said: "Why Jo, you don't look a day over 72." That, my fren is what I call real diplomacy and a happy birthday.

Anyhow I had two happy birthdays and they were so much fun I think I'll start counting them again. For several years I just dispensed with the numbers, but I think I'll start adding again... shucks if a person can have so much fun at 43, think what will happen at 73.

UK Fall Semester Begins September 16

New students planning to enter the University of Kentucky in September must submit an application to the Registrar's Office not later than Aug. 15, according to Dr. Charles F. Elton, dean of admissions and registrar.

Registration schedule for the fall term is as follows: Sept. 16-18, classification tests and physical examinations for all new students; Sept. 19, registration of all new freshmen; Sept. 19-21, registration of all other students according to an alphabetical schedule; and Sept. 23, classwork begins.

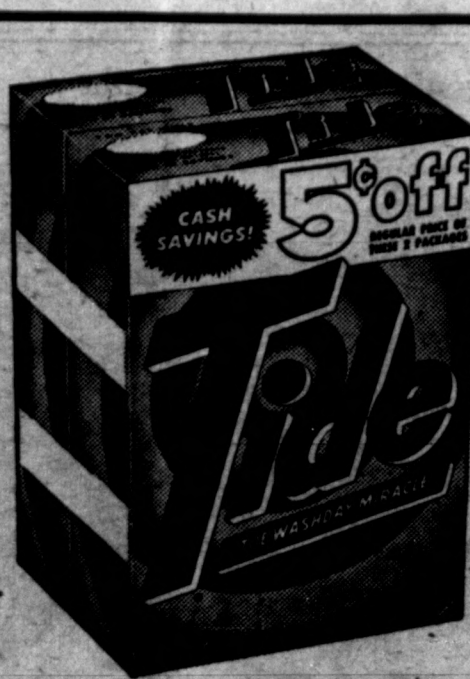

New Egg Law Exempts Farmers Selling Direct

Non-edible eggs are being eliminated through compulsory candling under Kentucky's new egg law, which requires that eggs of inferior quality be discarded and specified that if eggs are being sold on a graded basis, U. S. grading standards be complied with.

Farmers selling eggs produced from their own flocks and restaurants, hotels, and establishments using eggs in manufacturing are exempted from the law.

K. U. PRESIDENT
Floyd I. Fairman, vice president of Kentucky Utilities Company, was elected president of the company Monday, July 22, by the board of directors. R. M. Watt, president since 1935, was named chairman of the board and chief executive officer.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. C. Terry and son, Rudy, of Savannah, Ga., arrived Saturday evening to be the guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Terry.

Photogenic Gaspé Peninsula

Visitors from all 48 of the United States and countless foreign countries will see and photograph this eye-catching scene this summer. It is the tip of Gaspé Peninsula of Quebec Province. The gigantic rock formation at the left of center is fabulous Perce Rock, while in the background is Bonaventure Island, the world's largest sanctuary for the gannet, a rare sea fowl.

News From The TELEPHONE FOLKS

First of all, we'd like to extend our deepest sympathy to Frances McCollum in the death of her uncle, Mr. Wyatt Graves, of Kenton, Tenn.

Hellen Allen enjoyed a pleasant weekend in Evansville, Ind. She went there to meet her husband, Wilburn, and to show him the way back to Fulton, as if he didn't know.

This seems to be the time of year everyone enjoys. It is the time for swimming, sun-bathing and fishing. Right now I'm thinking of one particular time when some of our bathing beauties enjoyed a day at Reelfoot Lake a few weeks ago. They were Virginia Forrest, Mary Frances Roberts, Janie Barber, June McKinney, Helen Campbell, Mary Ann Williams, Sylvia Yates, and Mrs. Don Taylor (Mrs. Taylor is with the Jewell Myatt Beauty Shop). The next day our chief operator, Mrs. Lila Hastings, thought she had a tribe of Indians working for her, only most of them weren't able for a war dance.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ray Brown and Mr. and Mrs. James Paul Campbell spent a pleasant afternoon Sunday at Magnolia Beach soaking up some of the sun, and while they were looking over the hundreds of people there, they spied none other than Mr. and Mrs. Paul Helteley. They seemed to have been enjoying themselves also. Paul is from our Plant Dept.

Tips on Dips

Stick To Your Boat

Don't swim away from your boat or canoe if it upsets. Use it as a life preserver. It floats, even when filled with water. You'll have more fun and be safer in small watercraft if you know how to swim and how to handle the craft. Join a Red Cross swimming class. You can't think of a better sport to save your life.

CHESTNUT GLADE

Mrs. Harvey Vaughn

Two ball games were played by the local baseball team. A game was won on the local diamond Saturday afternoon when they played against Sedalia. The local team lost the game Sunday afternoon at Rives. Several fans went to Rives Sunday afternoon from this community.

Don't forget the revival is in progress at the Mt. Moriah Church this week. Make plans to attend and you will receive a blessing and be proud you came.

I was glad to hear Saturday

SANG IN E-TOWN
Jenny Lind appeared in Elizabethtown, April 5, 1851, and sang to the townspeople from the stone steps of the Aunt Beck Hill's Inn, now the Brown-Pusey Community House.

Operation of farm machinery causes about a third of farm accidental deaths; next in order are drownings, firearms, falls, animals and burns.

The food industry, from grower to retailer, has about 8,000 additional customers to feed each day at the current rate of population increase.
