Within recent years "togetherness" has become a new word in the English language. I recently heard a group of learned grammarians discuss the subject of the new word and some of them took a dim view of it. But out in the Connaughton-Arnold Subdivision in South Fulton they have put a real meaning into the word... and what is more they live it.

Proof of this was seen last Sunday afternoon and evening when nearly sixty residents of the new and fast growing residential section gathered to have an old-fashioned community visiting session. It was a wonderful gathering and has become an annual affair. It was held last year also.

Everything about the new subdivision is the embodiment of "togetherness." The families are building toward their future, the subdivision is building toward the growth of South Fulton and the Connaughtons and the Arnolds are building so that their children may have a part in the growth of their community.

The subdivision has about twenty families. Almost all of them own their own homes, which they watched grow from the first brick to the last shingle. All the residents out there share a common enthusiasm and that is why each year they get together and enjoy the happiness of eating, visiting and swapping community stories.

This year the event was potluck... which in this area is something of a misnomer. Nothing about a pot luck supper is pure luck, for the best meals in the world can be had at such designated events. Anyway all the families in the neighborhood put their carefully planned meals on the long tables in the beautifully shaded park in the subdivision and with cheery greetings, children romping all over the place, an evening of cheer, great fun was enjoyed by all of them.

To prove that the project is one of "togetherness" even the streets have names that mean something. For instance there are three streets in the subdivision and they are called Barbara, Richard and Franklin Streets. The first two names come from the children in the Connaughton household... the other one from the Arnold household.

Indeed, "togetherness" has no controversial meaning out in the Connaughton-Arnold Subdivision... they live it every day because together they are making happy lives for themselves and everybody else.

Nancy Adams And "The Tonettes" To Be In Memphis

Stars Of WFUL To Perform At MOAT On Tuesday Night

Talent from Radio Station WFUL will take the limelight in Memphis next week when Nancy Adams and "The Tonettes" appear before a capacity audience at the Memphis Open Theatre for a big program of stars of today and tomorrow. The program will be staged on Tuesday night, August 27, in Memphis.

Nancy will be the star of the show as the female star of today, while Jimmy Demopolis, of Memphis will be the star of today. Both Nancy and Jimmy are winners on the Arthur Godfrey national Talent Scout program. However Nancy has the record of nearly 35 national radio and television shows, while Jimmy appeared for one week with Godfrey.

"The Tonettes" who have an hour's program on WFUL each day will furnish background music for the event. "The Tonettes" are Mrs. Brownie Burkett and Miss Janice Walker of Clinton and they are artists on the vibraphone, organ and piano.

While in Memphis Nancy will be interviewed on the Kitty Kelly Show, (WREC-TV-Channel 3) at 4:30 p. m. on Monday.

Services Held On Saturday For H. Williamson

Fulton Grieved At Death Of Kindly, Beloved Citizen

Fulton was saddened last Saturday morning when it was reported that Herman Williamson, father of Gene Williamson had succumbed to a heart attack. Friendly, kindly Mr. Williamson had only lived in Fulton for two years, but he had made many friends who were grieved at his passing.

A familiar figure around the Browder Milling Company where he enjoyed talking with the many people who visited the plant, he was a man who enjoyed people and people in turn loved him. He was a devoted father and husband, and probably one of his greatest devotions was to his grandchildren with whom he spent many happy hours.

Services were held at the Tucker Funeral Home at Georgetown, Ky., Tuesday at 10 a. m., for Mr. Williamson who died early Saturday morning of a heart attack. Burial was in the Georgetown cemetery. He was 79.

Mr. Williamson was born in Scott County, Ky., March 23, 1878, son of George and Amanda Fleming Williamson.

He spent most of his life as a farmer, except for a few years in Norfolk, Va., and Lexington, Ky., where he worked for the Street Railway Company. He and his wife moved to Fulton from Georgetown in June 1955.

Mr. Williamson leaves his wife, Mrs. Ruth R. Williamson; a son, E. E. Williamson, General Manager of Browder Milling Company of Fulton; a brother, Raymond Williamson of Georgetown, Ky.; a sister, Mrs. Charles P. Fields of Sadeville, Ky.; three grandchildren, Gary, Greg, and Janet Williamson, all of Fulton; a nephew, Charles C. Fields of Louisville, Ky.; a niece, Mrs. L. W. Tudor and two great-nieces, Sharon and Joyce Tudor of Fayetteville, W. Va.

Waterfield Meets With Local Leaders To Discuss Cooperation Between Fulton And Administration; To Help With Industry

Bringing State Government to the home-town level and learning the needs of each individual community, was the keynote of a dinner meeting at Smith's Rose Room Monday night. Acting Governor Harry Lee Waterfield and a group of State officials met with some forty business and civic leaders to bring about a better understanding of State Government functions and local community needs.

Presided over by Smith Atkins, and attended by the various segments of Fulton businesses the meeting was both informal and informative. Acting Governor Waterfield, explaining the functions of State Government and the manner in which it can work hand in hand with individual communities, cited the record of this State Administration and the progress and accomplishments it has made in the past eighteen months.

"We have made mistakes," he said, "but what State Administration does not make mistakes in its attempt to bring about needed improvements to the State it serves."

Mr. Waterfield, speaking to the guests at the meeting revealed that the present Administration was in the process of administering the largest road program in the history of Kentucky. "The road improvement program in Kentucky is three times larger than any other road program in

Sara Nell And Jerry Jones Leaving Fulton To Live In Corpus Christi

Along with the greetings and camaraderie evidenced in a small town — there is always a note of sadness — because there are always "GOODBYES", too. And our GOODBYE this week goes to one of the loveliest families that has ever lived in Fulton.

Mrs. Boyd Alexander. Jerry is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Jones. A few years ago Jerry and Sara Nell bought the lovely old Felts home on Walnut Street. Knowing of Sara Nell's love for antiques — we think they had selected a home that seemed to be "just right" for them. It is just down the street a few doors from the Alexanders, so we are sure that Sara Nell always felt completely at home — there.

But our best wishes go along with the JONESSES — because we are confident that they will make a happy home — no matter WHERE they go. We'll miss them, Jerry and Sara Nell — but the BEST OF LUCK to you — and we'll surely be looking forward to seeing you in the not too distant future.

Tuesday he resigned this office and he will continue his legal work in the Land Department of Tidewater Oil Company in Corpus Christi, Texas.

Fulton Loan Co. To Open Here On Friday Morning

Making its formal opening on the Fulton business scene on Friday is the Fulton Loan Company, which has opened up at 204 Main Street in the building formerly occupied by Forrester's Shoe Shop.

Completely remodeling the building and installing the latest in office furniture and accommodations for its customers, the company will make loans from $25 to $300.

Dick Stubblefield and Charlie Maddox of Mayfield have been in Fulton this week making final arrangements for the opening of the new business and will open its doors formally on Friday. The News joins other business houses and residents in wishing this firm much success in its new venture here.

Scout Carnival Ready For Best Season Of All

Everything Points To One Of Best Events Ever Held

Step right up folks — and spend your money. The Cub Scout Carnival is on its way. The date for the big midway at the Fulton Ball Park is August 28. The gates will open at five o'clock sharp.

Taking some cues from the "midway boys," Elson McGuire and his crops of workers are working feverishly to make this year's carnival the big event of the season. Twenty four booths will form the midway and there'll be everything along the way from a "Sack-Your-Pop" booth to "Flying Saucers." There'll be a pony ring for the kids and a big concession stand where you can eat to your heart's content. Don't bother to have supper at home. Just bring the family and have an "evening out."

field asked the local leaders to express their views on the cooperation between local communities and State Government. If Fulton County wants industry then it is a prime function of our Administration to work hand in hand to bring about that industry."

Here with Mr. Waterfield were Harry G. Davis, the Governor's administrative assistant to the Governor, Charles Blackburn, Commissioner of Transportation and Bob Humphreys, Commissioner of Highways. The five men constitute a committee appointed by Governor Chandler to bring about a greater cooperation between State Government and local communities. Several other State leaders and officials were in attendance.

Each of the men pledged their support to working with business and civic leaders in Fulton to seek better roads, better health and welfare programs and greater and sounder economy in the individual communities.

It was Commissioner Humphreys who said: "If Fulton negotiates with any industry who requires road building in order to locate here I will see to it that the roads are built."

Primary discussion at the meeting was to appoint a liaison contact with Fulton and State Government to advise Frankfort officials of the needs of this community. A committee was selected to discuss the possibility of such an appointment. On the committee are: Smith Atkins, Bob White, Charlie Stephenson, J. D. Hales, Charles Rice, Billy Blackstone and Joe Treas. The committee will meet next Monday night to select a member from its ranks to represent State Government in Fulton.

Bert Yarbro, Jr. was selected from Hickman to serve in that capacity.

Following the meeting, which resolved as a constructive approach to cooperation between officials in Frankfort and local leaders, a News reporter further discussed the possibility of closer cooperation between Fulton and the Agricultural and Industrial Development Board for securing industry for Fulton. That committee member said:

"Within the next few weeks a member of the A & I Board will be in Fulton and I can assure you that Fulton will get the greatest help in its history in getting an industry. I personally will see that you get one."

Gip McDade Says Goodbye To Local Police Department

25 Years Of Loyal And Courageous Service Rendered

A cheerful, gray-haired, man wearing a blue uniform is missing from the streets of Fulton today. And we believe that the whole town is saddened by this fact. Chief of Police G. J. McDade (Gip) has submitted his resignation. It was announced on Monday of this week.

Gip McDade, who has been on the police force for many years and chief for the past 10 years, was critically injured in a gun battle with a negro man in Missionary Bottom on July 3. He was in the hospital for several weeks and although he is able to be at home now, his arm is still giving him trouble. Friday he had an examination at the Baptist Hospital in Memphis.

Mr. McDade has been a police officer for the past 25 years, having served as deputy sheriff two years, constable for two years, and the rest of that time has been spent on the city police force. He has made no plans for another job.

Our Community Owes Great Responsibility To Teachers

Next to parents, no one deals more intimately than school teachers with a youngster's talents and deficiencies, failures and achievements, during the crucial, formative early years.

Every citizen has only himself to commend or to blame if schools in our free society are superb, average, or below average.

Teaching is the largest of all professions; sometimes it is the most misunderstood, perhaps, because many people tend to look upon teaching as an occupation separate and apart from the day-to-day activities of community life.

Pointing out these facts we should make on earnest effort to bring citizens and communities closer together in effective work to bring about greater understanding of the school teachers vital role in our society.

We must realize our responsibility to the teachers of today and tomorrow. If we do so, each child will have the opportunity to know teachers who will make every school day the challenge and opportunity it should be.

State Magazine Sets Forth Financing Of $100,000,000 Highway Bond Program

(Editor's Note: How will the $100 million worth of bonds, to be issued for highway improvements, be paid off? Here is the explanation, prepared by the Department of Revenue.)

The Administration proposed a "package plan" to finance the $100 million bond issue. This package consisted of:

(1) revenues arising from operation of the motor fuel use tax law applying to interstate trucks over 18,000 pounds; (2) revenues from the 2c per gallon motor fuels surtax levied on heavy trucks (trucks with more than three axles); and (3) revenues from disallowance of the federal exemption on single purchases of motor fuel of less than 2,000 gallons; reduction of certain dealer allowances; and a trailer license tax.

Based upon the present trend of collections, these items are expected to yield approximately $5,500,000 during the fiscal year 1957-58. These revenues will increase as traffic volumes increase. The truck traffic, in particular, undoubtedly will accelerate greatly as the highway system is modernized.

An important factor in the anticipated expansion of truck traffic, and revenues therefrom, is the increased truck weight limits authorized by the General Assembly in 1956. Truck transportation facilities are an important factor in the promotion of industrialization.

A year ago, in order to secure better enforcement of the motor fuel use tax and the motor fuels surtax on heavy trucks and interstate trucks, the Department of Revenue inaugurated a spot roadblock system. Largely as a result of this check, permit holders increased from 3,000 to 7,000. An additional 2500 carriers were licensed, bringing the total to 9500 as of April 1, 1957.

However, because of continued widespread evasion of the fuel use and surtax laws, the Department on April 1 established an around-the-clock roadblock program at 32 strategic locations. As a result, 3257 additional licenses have been issued. The increased emphasis on enforcement will result in substantially higher collections from the motor fuel use and surtax laws.

The financing plan is more than ample to retire principal and interest at 3 per cent even if it were possible to issue all $100 million of bonds within the next year. In such event, the cost is calculated to be less than $5,200,000 annually. The likelihood is that the bonds will be issued over a period of years as needed.

SERMONETTE OF THE WEEK

Democracy Is Not Religion

By Will Herberg,

Author of Protestant, Catholic, Jew
AT ITS deepest level the conflict between the Soviet menace and the free world is a religious conflict. It is not just an economic struggle or a fight for political power. It is literally a struggle for the soul of modern man.

How to win this struggle? We can't simply toss off slogans or clichés. We must re-examine the spiritual foundations of our society — and we must rededicate ourselves to these values.

BASIC TO American democracy is the ideal of equality. And this basis must be essentially religious. Men are equal in their relationship to God. They are His children; He is their Creator. Before Him they stand alike.

But apart from a religious basis this ideal of equality is meaningless. Look around you. There is as much apparent equality among men as there are individuals. They are alike only in their root relationship to their maker.

ANOTHER ESSENTIAL element in the American idea of government is the knowledge of man's limitations. Our founding-fathers were not wide-eyed idealists trusting blindly in the goodness of man.

Our democracy has always been essentially realistic with a realism based on religious principles. It requires a strong sense of human dignity and of the inviolable rights of the human person as a being ordained to God. Our form of democracy has always had a notion of the temptations and corruptions of society, stemming directly from that great initial tragedy, original sin.

AMERICAN DEMOCRACY has always realized the limitations of democracy and of government in general. It appreciates the force of Jesus injunction, "Render unto Caesar that which is Caesar's and unto God that which is God's".

True democracy, based on sound religious principles, refuses to allow itself to be made a religion. Democracy is essentially an instrument. It acknowledges a "higher law" and a higher sovereignty.

DEMOCRACY recognizes that it, and its expression through the wishes of the people, is not above criticism, change or reform. It sees that God alone is absolute and that every human idea or institution stands under His judgement and command.

Democracy then is rooted in faith, and not just a vague indeterminate faith, but in the firm beliefs of our Judaeo-Christian tradition that has always seen man and his institutions as God's subjects.

The best teacher is not life, but the crystallized and distilled experience of the most sensitive, reflective, and most observant of our human beings, and this experience you will find preserved in our great books and nowhere else.

GUIDE OF HIS FORMATIVE YEARS

County Committee Reviews Soil Bank Wheat Practices

(Ed's Note: Feeling that the general provisions of Soil Bank's 1958 Acreage Reserve program is of vital importance to farmers in this area, the News prints herewith, in the first of several articles, the many applications of the program.)

First In A Series

General provisions of the Soil Bank's 1958 Acreage Reserve program, including its application to the winter wheat crop which will be planted this fall, were announced by Acting Secretary of Agriculture True D. Morse, following Congressional action authorizing continuance of the program for the coming year.

The Acreage Reserve is that part of the Soil Bank under which farmers agree to reduce their acreage of "basic" crops below their established acreage allotments. It was in effect on a limited basis in 1956, and for the full 1957 crop-year. The Conservation Reserve, the other Soil Bank program calls for shifting general cropland to conservation uses under contracts running for 3 or more years.

Changes in Acreage Reserve provisions for 1958, as compared with previous years, include the following:

1. Establishment of a total crop acreage figure for each farm to be based primarily on past production history and known as the "Soil Bank base", with the requirement that total harvested acreage in 1958 be held below the "base" by the equivalent of the number of acres placed in the Soil Bank. (This "Soil Bank base" provision has been in effect for the Conservation Reserve since the beginning of that program. For 1958, it will apply to farms taking part in either or both of the Soil Bank programs).

2. A limit of $3,000 on the total of 1958 Acreage Reserve payments which can be made to any one producer, as required by legislative action.

Commenting on the announcement of the 1958 program, Acting Secretary Morse said, "The Acreage Reserve is an emergency program to encourage needed adjustments in the production of surplus crops. It provides special payments to offset loss of net profits while the adjustments are being made."

"With their recent experience with such hazards as drought, hail, and flood in mind, farmers will have a special interest in a secondary but very important income-protection of the program. Producers who put acreage in the reserve are guaranteed substantial income for this land, even if later on national disaster hits their farms."

"Farmers with limited financial reserves or with debts are finding this over-all income insurance an important protection while it is available."

"The primary objective of the Acreage Reserve, of course, is to help cut down the accumulated surpluses which are such a load on the back of agriculture. In carrying out the program for 1958, we want to make major progress toward this goal. Based on experience of the past two years, we are making the announced changes in operating procedures to increase the effectiveness of the program."

"One major problem has been the tendency to shift production from Acreage Reserve crops to other crops which contribute to over-all surpluses. The Soil Bank base provision, with its limit on total harvested crops, will help to check this undesirable diversion."

"We regret the need to impose further controls on farm production, adding limitations to make other limitations work. In the present emergency, however, we must try to make the Acreage Reserve more effective in adjusting 1958 production."

"This tightening up of the program is in line with recommendations made by the Senate and House conferees, in their report on the Department's 1958 appropriation bill."

Soil Bank Base

Crops making up the "Soil Bank base" will, in general, be all crops produced for harvest on a farm, except hay crops. In addition to the six "basic" crops, they will include among others such crops as the grains, annual grasses cut for seed, oilseeds, cowpeas, potatoes, commercial vegetables, field and canning peas and beans.

The Soil Bank base for individual farms will be established by county ASC committees primarily on the basis of the average acreage of land devoted to Soil Bank base crops during the past two years — 1956 and 1957. Where a farm already has a "base" established under the Conservation Reserve program, that base will apply.

In the Acreage Reserve agreement, participating farmers will agree to limit their harvest of Soil Bank base crops. The limit, called the "permitted acreage," will be determined by subtracting the number of acres in the Acreage Reserve from the total in the Soil Bank base. (Provisions of the Conservation Reserve program also call for reductions below the Soil Bank base. If both programs are in effect on a farm, the required reduction in harvested acres, below the Soil Bank base, will be the total of the acres in the Acreage Reserve and the Conservation Reserve for that year).

Harvesting more total acreage from a farm than the "permitted acreage" will make the producer subject to a civil penalty, in addition to the loss of Acreage Reserve payment. The civil penalty is 50 percent of the payment which would have been made for compliance provisions of the program. (This is the same civil penalty which applies if the producer permits grazing of the Acreage Reserve, takes a crop from it that year, or harvests more acres of the "Acreage Reserve" crop than the difference between the farm allotment and the Acreage Reserve).

Payment Limitation

In accordance with legislative provision, not more than a total of $3,000 in Acreage Reserve payments for 1958 can be made to any one producer. If Acreage Reserve, the $3,000 limit applies to the total of all Acreage Reserve payments. (This limit does not include payments under the Conservation Reserve program. There is a separate limit of $5,000 in the total of Conservation Reserve annual payments which can be made in any one year. If a producer puts acreage from the farm in both the Acreage Reserve and the Conservation Reserve, he could be eligible for payments up to $3,000 and $5,000, respectively — or a total of $8,000 for the year.)

Other Provisions for 1958

Individual payment rates for the 1958 Acreage Reserve will be determined primarily on the basis of average pre-acre rates. For each reserve crop except tobacco, there will be a "national" average rate of payment per acre. Then state and county rates will be established. These will vary in accordance with productivity and other factors, but in total will reflect the "national" rate. For tobacco, individual rates will be determined on the same basis as for 1957 — the established unit rate per pound multiplied by the yield figure for the farm.

County ASC committees will determine per-acre rates for individual farms. These will be based on the county "average" rate for all crops except tobacco, but they will vary among farms primarily according to relative productivity.

The individual farm per-acre rates will be available before Acreage Reserve agreements are signed. There will be provisions for appeals to county and state ASC offices if a producer is not satisfied with the per-acre rate — or with the "Soil Bank base" established for his farm.

Farmers who took part in the 1957 Acreage Reserve program will be paid a 10 percent premium, above the 1958 compensation rates, if they put the identical land in the Acreage Reserve program for 1958.

happy hickman happenings by joye stokes

A column devoted to the social events of our friends around Hickman. Call Joye at Hickman 2059 for your social news.

Weddings are so much fun — old and young get together — people you haven't seen in fifteen years — people you don't remember, but they remember you, soooo you rush over and ask "Who is the lovely lady in the light green dress?" — and people you know — and they pretend to know you, but at last when their husband walks up — they want to fall through the floor, but they don't! They confess — "I can't seem to remember your last name!" But all in all weddings are fun — even for the father of the bride!

Hornby-Garrison vows are pledged in candlelight ceremony Sunday.

The altar of the First Methodist Church banked with white gladioli, English white stock, and softly lighted tapers used profusely in a luxuriant setting reflected an impressive nuptial scene Sunday, August 18, when Miss Paula June Hornby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hornby, pledged her marriage vows to Harold Monroe Garrison. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Terrell Garrison.

The Rev. Lester B. Eason, pastor, assisted by Rev. Joe Harris, pastor of the West Baptist Church, performed the double ring ceremony at 5 o'clock before a large assemblage of relatives and friends. The center arrangement was a bouquet of white gladioli and stock interspersed with greenery, and on either side were wrought iron tiered candelabras. Near the choir rail were trees of greenery adorned with large wedding bells tied with white satin ribbon reflected by candelabras with slender tapers. Other wedding bells were clustered at each side on tall wrought iron vases filled with gladioli and stock. The communion rail was decorated with potted split-leaf philodendrons interspersed with huckleberry. The pews were marked by large white satin bows of ribbon, gladioli and greenery.

A program of music was presented by Mrs. Jessie McNeill, organist, who played softly as the guests arrived. "Indian Love Call" was played as the tapers were lighted by Bill Oliver, cousin of the bride, and Rayburn Garrison, brother of the groom, who served as acolytes. The mothers entered as "Wonderful Mother of Mine" was played. Mrs. Festus Robertson, soloist, sang "Sweetest Story Ever Told", "I Love Thee", and "The Wedding Prayer". During the pledging of the vows, Mrs. McNeill played "Ave Maria". The traditional wedding marches were used.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an original by Maurer of nylon tulle over Bridal satin. The Priscilla pointed basque fastened with miniature buttons, and the Sabrina neck was completed with nylabrode in Bridal rose design which extended into the front panel. The long fitted sleeves, buttoned over the elbow to petal points over the hand, these were centered with the distinctive embroidery. The outer skirt was paneled with rows of nylabrode. The three gathered skirts developed over Southern Belle pettihoops into voluminous of fullness extending into a Chapel sweep. Her double-tiered hip-length circular veil of misty Bridal illusion with hand-rolled hems fell from a Bridal half-hat of the nylabrode roses. She carried a white Bible, gift of her maternal grandparents, adorned with a white orchid showered with lilies of the valley, pearl sticks, and white streamers tied in love knots.

The maid of honor was Miss Anna Merle Hornby, sister of the bride. The other attendant was Miss Lee Johnston, cousin of the bride. They wore Pearl Pink taffeta dresses with roseglow accent which were identical in design. The Empire bodices with decolletage scoop necks and brief sleeves joined the skirts with the co-ordinating darker shade cummerbunds which developed into twin poufs centering the back with panels cascading to the hems of the ballerina skirts. Their head dress were Madonna bands of complimenting velvet petals with one single rose showered with pearls. They wore tiny pearl earrings and wrist length white gloves. Their shoes were dyed to match their dresses.

The pretty little flower girl was Becky Sue Newton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Newton. She wore a long, full dress of white embroidered organdy over pale pink taffeta. The dress was accented with a pale pink cummerbund and large bow. The V-shaped neck was trimmed in lace. Becky Sue wore a pearl necklace and bracelet, and her head band matched the other attendants.

All of the attendants carried cascade bouquets of white asters accented with white velvet leaves, net, and pink sticks showered with white and pink satin. Billy Terrell Garrison served his brother as best man. Groomsmen were Rupert Hornby, Bill Newton, Bobby Garrison, and Joe Taylor of Garden City, Michigan.

Mrs. Louis Hornby, mother of the bride, wore a Franklin original sheath of mauve shantung styled with a pearl and rhinestone V-neckline with matching trim on the pockets. Mrs. Hornby chose jewelry to match her costume. Her hat was of mauve satin with feather trim. Mrs. Garrison, mother of the bridegroom, chose a blue linen original model. The low scoop neckline was trimmed with self-material medallions centered with matching blue pearls. She wore a small white sequined hat accented with white velvet leaves. Mrs. Garrison chose to wear a necklace and earring of pearls. Both mothers wore a purple orchid and each carried a white lace handkerchief. These handkerchiefs were love gifts from the bride.

Following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained at a reception in the church dining room. The bride's table was draped with an embroidered cutwork cloth and centered with an arrangement of white gladioli, pink carnations, and double wedding rings of white styrofoam tinted gold. One of the rings was adorned with tiny pink flowers, signifying the bride's ring. Ropings of stringed smilax gracefully draped the sides of the table and were caught at the corners with pink carnations. Smilax caught at the base of a five-branched candelabra bearing burning white tapers extended to the punch bowl at one end of the table and the three-tiered wedding cake at the other end. The wedding cake was topped with two satin wedding rings and garland with carnations, puffs of pink net and a miniature love bird. The room dining room was decorated throughout with ivy and vases of white flowers. Greenery and candles adorned each window of the room.

Assisting in serving were Mes-

James Rupert Hornby and John Harwood, Jr. of Nashville, Tenn., who presided at the bride's table. Miss Mary Swann Bushart of Fulton presided at the register. Others assisting were Mesdames Julius Falkoff, Billy Terrell Garrison of Woodland Mills, Tenn., Billy Bob Kaler of Clinton, and Roy Lee Oldham of Fulton, Misses Carolyn Brisidine of Paris, Tenn., Sidney Stone of Hickman, Mrs. Paul Stahr rendered a program of piano music. The ladies serving wore pastel dresses with matching corsages.

The couple left for a wedding trip to Florida. The bride wore a black Irish linen Carlye sheath dress with a self-belt and a beige stand-up collar. The jacket was all-over Italian black embroidered on beige linen. She chose beige gloves, gold jewelry, and black patent accessories. The orchid from her bouquet was pinned at her shoulder.

Paula June and Harold waved good-bye to all their friends as they drove off in a new Chevrolet given to them by the bride's parents.

Rehearsal Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hornby, grandparents of the bride-elect and Mr. and Mrs. Rupert L. Hornby honored the Hornby — Garrison wedding party with a delicious dinner Saturday night at the Rupert Hornby home.

The dining table was centered with sweetheart roses with white tapers on either side. Individual tables around the rooms featured small bouquets of rose buds. There were 27 guests who enjoyed the rehearsal dinner.

The Hornby home was aglow with candle light and beautiful spring flowers. On the mantel was a large cool arrangement of snow on the mountain.

Paula June was all a glow in a blue tissue cotton original with a sebrina neck line, accented with rhinestone pens. She chose rhinestone jewelry.

Dessert Bridge

Mrs. Carlos Lannom and daughter, Phyllis, were hostesses at the R. E. A. building Wednesday night for a dessert bridge party honoring Paula June Hornby.

Centered with rose buds the bride's table was one in seven. A long table covered in white linen and centered with a large arrangement of snow on the mountain and yellow mums was where the fourteen tea guests were seated.

Honors were claimed by Mrs. R. B. Golder, Mrs. Harold Rice, Miss Jean Sanford, and Miss Margaret Townsend. The hostesses presented Miss Hornby with a honoree gift.

Paula June wore a yellow linen dress and gift corsage.

Luncheon

Mrs. Pete Oldham of Fulton and Mrs. Billy Bob Kaler of Clinton were co-hostess for a lovely luncheon at the Park Terrace, Wednesday at one o'clock. Small green net bags of rice tied with pink satin ribbon marked the places for 12 close friends of Paula June's. The center of the table was filled with pink carnations.

The hostesses presented the bride-elect with a gift, and pink corsage which she pinned on a lovely pink dress with lace trim.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

The wisdom of basing thought on constructive, perfect, spiritual models will be emphasized at Christian Science services Sunday.

Keynoting the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Mind" is the Golden Text from Romans (11:33): "The depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out!"

Selections to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include the following (248:26-29): "We must form perfect models in thought and look at them continually, or we shall never carve them out in grand and noble lives."

Scriptural readings include the following (Philippians 3:15): "Let us therefore, as many as be perfect, be thus minded: and if in any thing ye be otherwise minded, God shall reveal even this unto you."

Diary of Doin's

By Mary Nelle Wright

Hear Mary-Nelle's program, "My Fair Lady" every day on WFUL at 9:30 a.m., Monday through Friday.

Hello... is such a NICE word... a friendly sort of greeting... And I'm happy to say HELLO! to all of you today. I think we get so involved in our own busy lives that we sometimes fail to include as many cheerful HELLOS to our friends and neighbors... as we should. How many of us can remember when an acquaintance would come into the yard... or onto the porch... and call out a cheerful HELLO... instead of using the door knocker? I'll admit, sometimes it was a little shocking to hear a loud voice boom forth... but, just the same... there was a great deal of psychology involved because by the time one reached the door we were in a much better frame of mind than we would have been from the loud RAPPING of a door knocker. (Try it... sometime... when you call on one of your favorite friends.)

I have been ever so happy to say hello to the many visitors who have been in our midst for the past week or so. Hugh Mac and Mildred McClelland and their two fine boys are here visiting their parents, Pearl Hogan and Polly and E. E. Mount. All three families were at church together Sunday... and they made a PRETTY picture.

Was ever so interested in the LADY with the LOVELY white "beflowered and beribboned" hat who sat a few pews ahead of me... guess WHO? 'Twas Bertie Sue Meacham of Silver Springs, Md. who is here visiting her parents, Maxie and Dudley Meacham in Highlands. Bertie Sue has an ever so interesting job in S. S. and is here for her vacation. But before she took her flight down this 'a way... she spent four fabulous days at Ocean City. (We're GREEN... with envy.) Came in from the golf course a day or so ago and was so pleased to find Bertie Sue visiting with other members of our family. Last time I saw her was out at the Dr. Thomas Callahans at Manor, Club Estate in Maryland. She spends many weekends out there. They're cousins, you know.

Peggy Williams Koelling is always a welcome visitor. You may well know how delighted the golfers are... as Peggy is always in the front flight of golf. She and her children are visiting her parents, Ruth and Clyde Williams. She hails from Dallas, Texas. We were so pleased that James McDade stayed with the Koellings recently while he was on a business trip to Dallas. It seems that he just met Robert Koelling on the street in Dallas. It's always that way... Fulton people are ALWAYS nice to FULTON people... no matter where they are.

Around the swimming pool at the Country Club I had a delightful chat with Mary Nell Nolan of New Orleans. Mary Nell, you know, belongs to Mary and Jerry Porter of Clinton. Have always looked forward to meeting her... it's nice to know someone with the SAME name. 'Twas back in 1940 that Mary Nell was the MAID OF COTTON and how well I can remember reading about all of the wonderful things that came her way as a result of this honor. The Porters were living in Memphis at the time. But how happy WE are that they came back to their home in Clinton a few years ago. And what a nice family Mary Nell and her husband, Ulisse have... four little girls, Nelle, Margie, Nancy and Betty... and three boys, William T., Phil and Jerry. All of the children were having such fun in the swimming pool with Mary and Jerry (their grandparents) trying to keep an eye on ALL of them while Mary Nell and Dorothy Tittsworth played a round of golf.

Lil Blagg and son, Byron of Nashville are in Fulton for a visit. They will divide their time, while here, with the Frank Beadles, the Harvey Caldwells and the Bob Whites. How nice 't would be if Ruth Askew of Whittier, Calif. could be here. That would be ALL of the five WADE sisters together, once more.

Here and There
Marian and Harry Murphy are "down to earth" again after having returned by plane on a TWA Jetstream from Bitburg, Germany. They have spent the past five weeks with their son, Lieutenant Billy Murphy and his lovely wife, Susan, and their little girl and boy.

It must have been a happy, happy time for the two Murphy families as it had been rainy, many moons since they had been together. In fact, Marian and Harry had never seen their youngest grandson. Lieut. Billy and family have been in Bitburg for the past year and a half as Billy is stationed at the U. S. Air Force Base there. And added to the joy of just being together again... both Murphy families enjoyed an extensive tour of Germany. Fortunately people... we think, don't you? But we know that Marian and Harry will be the happiest when another year and a half have passed... and Billy and his family are back in the U. S. A.

Those of you who are acquainted with Pat Wade (Mrs. Nathan) will agree with your diarist that she is a PETITE young matron. We were amused when she told us that her "little sister" is visiting her. Pat had to convince us that her sister actually IS LITTLER than she. Her name is Mrs. Allen Nieminen and she hails from Blytheville, Arkansas. With her is her little son, Chuck. They will visit in the Wade home until Saturday.

Margaret Ann and Charles Taylor and little son, Chuck, of St. Louis spent last weekend in Fulton with her parents, Judy and Frank Brady at their home on Edgings Street. Tom Brady and Lynn Williamson accompanied them home and will visit there for a few days.

We were happy to see Marguerite Muzzy in town Sunday. She and hubby, Claude are visiting Lena and Jim Hutcherson. Claude is attending the University of Illinois at Champaign.

Alan Scott Caldwell was a happy six year old Friday afternoon when his mother, Mrs. Louis Cardwell, honored him with a birthday party given at the city park.

The party was between the hours of 2 to 4 p. m. The little guests enjoyed many games and contests at which time prizes were won by Sandra Polsgrove and Thomas Powell.

The children gathered around the table and sang "Happy Birthday" to Alan as he blew out the candles.

Drinks and individual, decorated cupcakes, with pink icing and ice cream, were served to the guests by the hostess, assisted by Alan's grandmother, Mrs. Scott, Miss Sue Ramsey, Mrs. Almus Polsgrove and Mrs. Flynn Powell.

Alan received many nice birthday gifts. Balls and bubble gum were given as favors as the little guests left, and all wished Alan many more happy birthdays.

Nell Graham was hostess to the members of her bridge club Friday afternoon at her home in Highlands.

Lucille Luther was high scorer for the afternoon and Lena Evelyn Taylor of Baton Rouge, La. won the bridge-bingo prize.

At the conclusion of the games Nell served a delicious ice course to her guests.

Martha Logan and Gail Sawyer were hostesses for a pink and blue shower given for Peggy (Mrs. Tommy) Spraggs at the attractive Logan home in the Connaughton Addition Thursday

Hunter Byrd Whitesell Pledges Vows With Miss Eugenia Baird on Friday; Garden Wedding Is At Bowling Green

Miss Eugenie Baird, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Herring Baird, of Bowling Green, Ky., became the bride of Hunter Byrd Whitesell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hunter Whitesell, of Fulton, in a beautifully appointed wedding at 8 o'clock Friday evening, Aug. 16.

The ceremony took place in the garden of the home of Mrs. Roy G. Cooksey, 1318 Chestnut Street, Bowling Green, with the Rev. Charles Edward Ford, assistant rector of St. John's Episcopal Church, Versailles, officiating.

The marriage vows were exchanged on the upper terrace at the south end of the garden before an altar improvised of ferns, palms and other greens and white summer flowers. Urns of white flowers were placed on each side of the garden steps at the end of an aisle formed by tall standards bearing lighted tapers.

Preceding the ceremony, a program of wedding music was played by a string quartet which included Mrs. Claude E. Rose, Mrs. Hugh Gunderson, Miss Cheryl Rose and Dick Rose. The selections were numbers by Hayden, Mozart and Tchaikovsky. The traditional wedding marches were used.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was attired in a lovely gown of angel white, hand-clipped shadow Chantilly lace in a rose pattern. The portrait neckline of crushed lace was accented with a scalloped edge. Other features were long lace sleeves and a voluminous skirt. Delicate beading of iridescents traced the lace pattern from the portrait neckline to the windswept chapel train.

Her long silk veil of illusion was caught to a halo of matching lace and identical beading which finished with a scalloped edge.

The bridal bouquet was of tube roses and Stephanotis.

Miss Nancy Disher, of Cincinnati a college roommate of the bride, was her maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Alma Jo Coleman, Miss Patti Peete and Mrs. William Monin, of Bowling Green, Miss Judy Patton, of Athens, Ala., Miss Betsy Whitesell, of Fulton, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Kenneth Elliott, of Kewanee, Ill.

They wore frost white cotton lace princess frocks featuring sabrina necklines. The interest was focused on the back by the use of a panel of white silk organza beginning at the neckline and brought in at the waistline with a lace yoke to release circular fullness of the organza. In their hair they wore bandeaus of pearls and iridescents and they carried French bouquets of summer flowers in pastel shades.

Cora Jane Spiller, daughter of Captain and Mrs. Robert E. Spiller of Easton, Pa., was the flower girl and scattered rose petals in the path of the bride. She wore a frock of white silk organza. Roy Cooksey Deemer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Deemer, Jr., was the ring bearer.

Mr. Whitesell was his son's best man. Ushers were Dr. Daniel M. Baird, of Fulton, George Shadon of Wickliffe, Eugene Pigue, of Lexington, and Fulton, John R. Zeitler, of Nashville, Thomas H. Baird, of Bowling Green, brother of the bride, and William Biven, of Frankfort.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Baird chose a sheath dress of imported light blue linen with pure silk of the same shade forming the trim. She wore a white orchid.

The bridegroom's mother wore a beige lace dress over taffeta. An orchid complemented her costume.

Mrs. Thomas H. Baird, of Adairville, grandmother of the bride, wore a Navy chignon dress with a corsage of gardenias.

The ceremony was followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents, 1308 Chestnut Street, Bowling Green.

The reception rooms were profusely decorated with arrangements of white flowers. Bou-

Miss Gibson Makes Known Plans For Her Wedding To Mr. White Sunday; Ceremony To Be At Methodist Church

Miss Fredrica Gibson, bride-elect, has announced her complete plans for her wedding.

Miss Gibson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gibson, will be married to Wayne White, son of Mr. and Mrs. George C. White, of Memphis, Tennessee, on Sunday afternoon, the twenty-fifth of August at the First Methodist Church. The Reverend Henry E. Russell, pastor of the church will officiate at the double ring ceremony. The wedding will be at five thirty o'clock.

A program of nuptial music will be presented by Mrs. G. G. Bard, organist, and Miss Beverly Hill, soloist.

The bride will be given in marriage by her father. She has chosen Miss Eleanor Harper of Memphis, Tennessee for her maid of honor. The bridesmaids will be Miss Mary Ann Hill, Miss Norma Owen, Mrs. Jerry Hawks, Mrs. Charles Homra of Ridgely, Tennessee, Miss Shirley Walker of Milan, Tennessee and Mrs. James Poteet, a cousin of the groom, of Little Rock, Arkansas.

The flower girls will be Julie Ann Hall and Lynn Lashlee of Camden, Tennessee; Lee Hall of Camden, Tennessee will be the ringbearer. The three children are cousins of the bride.

Mr. White has chosen his father as his best man; the ushers will be John Wyly Lashlee of Camden, Tennessee, a cousin of the bride, Jerry White, brother of the groom, Richard Pruette, DeWayne Anderson, James Greenhill, all of Memphis, Tennessee, and James L. Poteet, cousin of the groom, of Little Rock, Arkansas.

Immediately following the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Gibson will entertain with a reception at the Fulton Country Club. Assisting at the reception will be Miss Betty Nunn, Miss Anne Abernathy and Miss Anne Smith of Jackson, Tennessee, Miss Phyllis Carmen, a cousin of the bride, of Camden, Tennessee, Miss Betty Gregory, Miss Marian Blackstone, Mrs. Vernon Owen, Mrs. O. P. Lashlee, grandmother of the bride, of Camden, Tennessee, Mrs. E. C. Florence, the bride's aunt, of Camden, Tennessee, Mrs. Parks Swain of Grand Junction, Tennessee, Mrs. Vodie Hardin, Mrs. Billy Blackstone, Mrs. Harvey Maddox, and Mrs. Maxwell McDade.

Since the announcement of Miss Gibson's engagement a series of attractive pre-nuptial parties have been given in her honor in Fulton, Memphis, Jackson and Camden, Tennessee. Several others will be given for her prior to her marriage.

Fredrica Gibson, bride-elect of

J. Wayne White of Memphis and Helena, Ark. has been the inspiration for many lovely parties. She was honored Wednesday from 2 to 5 p. m. with a dessert-bridge at the Park Terrace Restaurant with Mrs. Ben Schwerdt and Mrs. Vick Voegeli as hostesses. The guest list included Fredrica, the honoree, her mother, Nell Gibson, Norma Owen, Mary Lou and Marlon Blackstone, Ann Fall, Doris Wiley, Roselyn Sisson, Shirley Hawks, Betty Gregory, Donna Pat Mills, Mrs. Ralph Puckett, Janie Sue Hudleston and Kay Cherry.

On Thursday, Mrs. Robert Smith II, her daughter, Ann, Mrs. Briggs Abernathy and daughter, Ann and Mrs. Eules Joyner of Jackson, Tenn. honored Fredrica with a lovely three course luncheon held in the home of Mrs. Smith on Northwood.

Those attending were Miss Gibson, Mrs. Fred Gibson, Mrs. E. J. Nunn and daughter, Betty, Mrs. Parks Swain of Grand Junction, Mrs. Ralph Poinexter, Mrs. Robert Smith II, Mrs. Dwayne Hopper, and Mrs. Gerald Bellike.

Saturday a luncheon was given for the Fulton bride-elect at the Paris Landing Hotel, by Mrs. Wayne Cherry and Mrs. Fred Brown of Paris, Tenn.

Miss Gibson was presented a linen hot roll cover.

The honoree was lovely in a cotton satin in fall colors of olive green and gold print. The dress had an empire waist with drapes extending down the back.

A delicious three-course luncheon was served to the following: Miss Gibson, her mother, Mrs. Fred Gibson, the four bridesmaids from Fulton, Miss Mary Ann Hill, Miss Norma Owen, Mrs. Jerry Hawks and Mrs. Charles Homra; Mrs. W. L. Hall, Sr., Mrs. W. L. Hall, Jr., Mrs. Phil Carmen and Mrs. Ernest Fry of Camden.

A lovely luncheon honoring Fredrica was given on Friday at the Park Terrace with Monira Homra and her daughter, Shirley (Mrs. Charles) Homra of Ridgely, Tenn. as hostesses.

The guests were seated at a long table which had a beautiful arrangement of white and red and white variegated carnations, mingled with huckleberry, puffs of illusion and clusters of white wedding bells as a centerpiece. Bridal place cards were also used. A delicious two course luncheon was served.

Miss Gibson chose for the party a striking tulle-trousseau frock of bright red linen. The cowl neckline had bands of black and white linen which emphasized the pointed design; a laced cummerbund encircled the tiny waistline. She wore a large black velvet hat and carried black accessories. She was given a corsage of white carnations and stephanotis by her hostesses and they also gave her a white embroidered luncheon set.

Other parties given recently for the popular bride-elect were a lovely tea with invited guests being members of the wedding party, out-of-town guests and hostesses who had entertained previously for Fredrica.

This enjoyable affair was held at the Gayle home on Vine Street with Agatha Gayle Voelpel, Mr. Gus Bard, Mrs. William Hill and daughter, Beverly, as hostesses. About 25 friends called between the hours of 3 to 5 p. m.

Mrs. Maxwell McDade and daughter, Ann Hunt of Mayfield, Mrs. Gilson Latta and daughter, Ann, entertained with a lovely luncheon at the Rose Room at Smith's Cafe. Twenty five guests enjoyed the occasion.

Fredrica was presented with two beautiful brass plaques, a gift from her hostesses.

Wednesday afternoon, August 21, Mrs. Jimmie Sisson and Mrs. Freddie Mills were co-hostesses at a delightful coke party in honor of Fredrica Gibson.

The party was given at the Sisson home and 25 friends of the honoree were included in the guest list.

Presiding at the bride's table were Mrs. Robert Frederick, Mrs. William McKenzie, Miss Betsy Miller, of Springfield, and Miss Lucy Meade, of Danville.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitesell left later on their wedding trip after which they will reside in Frankfurt. The bride chose for her going away costume a two piece suit of Thomas Cotton in brown and with it she wore brown accessories and a white orchid corsage.

Among the many out-of-town guests was Miss Jessie Whitesell of Union City, Tenn., and Dr. and Mrs. Danny Baird, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Terry and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Davis of Fulton.

UK To Award New Education Degree

The University of Kentucky now offers a six-year program in education leading to the degree of Specialist in Education (Ed. S.).

Adopted within the College of Education, the new graduate degree represents a year of planned study beyond the masters level. Before being accepted as a candidate for an Ed. S. degree, a student must have a masters degree, a teaching certificate (or appropriate credentials), have completed 30 semester hours of education courses (undergraduate and graduate) and have a 3.4 standing or higher on all graduate work.

UK Welcome Week Is Sept. 16-21

All freshmen and new students planning to enter the University of Kentucky this fall are to report Sunday, Sept. 16, for Welcome Week.

Kenbar and Dayton Varieties Tops In Murray Barley Tests

Two recommended varieties of barley, Kenbar and Dayton, were in the highest yielding group of 25 varieties tested this year at the Murray State College farm, Murray, says Verne Finkner, Kentucky Experiment Station plant breeder.

Yields were lower than registered in three other testing locations, Finkner said, due to the land on which the varieties were tested. The plot was on rather poorly drained soil, he said, which cut yields.

However, he said, the test showed what the recommended varieties could do under less-than-ideal conditions. Kenbar was the highest in the whole test, yielding 36.2 bushels an acre. Dayton yielded 29.4 bushels and Ky. 1, an old standby variety, 25.6 bushels. Some experimental varieties were in the highest yielding group, he noted, averaging about 30 bushels per acre.

Yields of all varieties at Murray were about half the yield of the same varieties in a test at Lexington, due to the inadequate ground drainage.

The varieties averaged about 25 bushels an acre for the total group, Finkner said, showing again that Kenbar and Dayton are better than any other barley varieties available. Producers should capitalize on this, Finkner said, by using Kentucky certified seed of Kenbar and Dayton.

Science Institute Attracts 107 to UK

A total of 107 high school and college science teachers are on the University of Kentucky campus taking part in a 26-day National Science Institute.

The institute will continue through Aug. 30. Instructors are Dr. Beth Schultz, Pennsylvania State Teachers College; Dr. William C. Forbes, Willamette (Conn.) State Teachers College; Dr. Julian Greeley, Florida State University; Dr. Theodore Benjamin, Columbia University, and Dr. Cecil Hamann, Asbury College. Specific objectives of the short course are to develop a more effective understanding of appropriate subject matter for science instruction, and encourage an active interest in science.

SUCCESSFUL HOMEMAKING

By Marie Holland

Home Demonstrator, Kentucky Utilities

With a little forethought and wise use of your food freezer, you can plan ahead for a party or for holidays. Here are a few ideas:

Bake special cakes and decorate them appropriately for birthdays, anniversaries or holidays. They'll be as beautiful and taste as good as the day you made them. Frost cupcakes from the freezer are handy to serve when friends drop in for tea. Ever take your cake out of the freezer and wish you did not have to take time to frost it? It's bound to happen since there are some cakes you prefer to freeze unfrosted. Why not freeze the frosting separately — like this:

Frozen Orange Topping. To 1/2 cup frozen orange juice (after diluted) add 1/4 lbs. of marshmallows. Stir over direct heat until the marshmallows just melt. Then remove and cool. When the mixture is partially set, fold in one cup of whipped cream. Pour into an ice-cube tray and freeze. When the topping is frozen, cut in individual squares. Take topping out about 15 minutes before serving time and put one on each piece of cake. (If you prefer, store in one piece and cut into cubes just before serving.) SUPER TASTE DELIGHT: Add this topping to warm squares of spice cake.

Also have in the freezer a few extra cans of frozen juice concentrates for cool drinks. They might be just right for that afternoon snack, especially for the younger set just home from school.

PARTY PUFFS, an easy and attractive party food is a cream puff, filled with ice cream and topped off with a creamy smooth sauce. For an extra special delight, fill the cream puff with maple ice cream and top with warm maple nut sauce. Your guest will be back for more.

So you can see planning ahead gives you good food, with very

Clinton Man Is Fatally Injured In Clinton

Cecil Byassee, 53 Probably Had Fall On Railroad Tracks

Cecil Byassee, 53, Clinton, was found fatally injured between the double tracks of the Illinois Central Railroad a mile south of Clinton at 11 p. M. Sunday, Aug. 11.

He died about two hours later in Clinton-Hickman County Hospital.

A coroner's jury empaneled by Dr. V. A. Jackson, Hickman County coroner, decided at an inquest Monday morning that Byassee apparently was fatally injured when he fell from a bridge over the railroad tracks. His chest was crushed.

The injured man was discovered by the crew of a southbound freight train which reported that the body was not on the tracks. Before Byassee died he said he fell from the bridge and was not thrown or pushed.

Funeral services were held at 2 p. m. last Wednesday at Assembly of God Church with the Rev. Truman Davis officiating. Burial was in Clinton Cemetery.

He is survived by his widow, his mother, Mrs. Mildred Byassee, Clinton; three sons, David, Billy and Larry Byassee, all of Clinton; four daughters, Mrs. Elizabeth Nichols, California; Mrs. Helen Vaughn, Columbus; Miss Bonnie Byassee and Miss Carolyn Byassee, both of Clinton; five brothers, Mitchell, Horace, Tommy and Burgess Byassee, all of Clinton, and Eugene Byassee, Memphis; a sister, Mrs. Ovell Valentine, Alabama, and three grandchildren.

Dear Pat,
Please answer some questions for me. Where did my husband go the night he stayed out till 4:00 o'clock in the morning? Does he care anything about me and our baby? Will I have more children? Will I always live here? Please answer.

Thank you,
B. J.

Dear B. J.,
Your husband was riding around. Yes he cares for you and the baby. Yes, you will have two more children. Yes, for several years to come you will live here.

Dear Patricia,
Read your letters every week. Just wondered if you could help me. Is my husband interested in another woman, if so give initials? Does he love me? Am I in bad health? If so, what is wrong with me? Will my daughter and husband live together again, or will she marry again? Is she happy? Why doesn't my husband spend money for things I need so bad? Please answer these questions in the next paper.

Thank you,
Worried very much.

Dear Worried Very Much,
No, your husband is not going with another woman. Yes, your husband loves you. No, your health isn't bad. Your daughter and her husband will live together if you will leave them alone and stop trying to run their lives. The things you think you need so bad you can do without as they are not the needs of every day life and your husband is not a rich man, just a common worker.

Dear Patricia,
My billfold is missing from my purse. I would like for you to tell me if I have misplaced it at home, or lost it in some place of business while shopping in town. I missed it only a few days ago, so must have lost it in the past week. I know it was in my bag last Tuesday the 21st. I would like very much to find it, as it can.

Thank you,
I. M. K.

Dear I. M. K.,
You will find your purse in a drawer at home where you hid it.

Dear Pat,
I've been reading your articles and consider it very interesting. I have several questions I would like to ask and would like very much to have them answered. Please try to find room in your column, if possible.

First of all, how old am I? Second, will I get married? And if so, when? Third, will I marry the boy I'm going with now. Fourth, how long will I go with the boy from out of town? Fifth, why didn't I get the job I was trained on for two nights.

Thank you very much.
Yours truly,
B. P.
(Wondering)

P. S. I hope to see the answer soon.

Dear Wondering:
You are 17 year old. Yes, you will get married in May 1958. No, you will not marry the boy you're going with now. You and the boy from out of town have already quit. You didn't get the job because you had your mind on everything but your work.

Dear Pat,
I have two questions to ask you. Was our car driven the extra miles that is thought to have been put on it? If so, give me the initials of the person who drove it.

Answer soon,
Anxious

Dear Anxious:
No, your car doesn't have any extra miles on it.

Dear Patricia,
Can you tell me where I can find my husband's ring. It has been either misplaced or stolen.

DEATHS

Guy Harris

Guy Harris, operator of a grocery store at McConnell, Tenn., died suddenly in his backyard Tuesday shortly after 11 a. m. His death was attributed to a heart attack. He was 54.

Mr. Harris was born May 28, 1903 in Weakley County, Tenn., son of Joe and Mary Leviser Harris.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. Zelma Atkinson Harris; three sons, James Harris of Fulton, Joe Thomas Harris of McConnell, Paul Harris of Fulton; two daughters, Mrs. Thomas Osteen, and Miss Doris Harris both of McConnell; five brothers, Sank, Eulas and Burch Harris, all of Martin, Route 3, Buck and Joe Harris, both of Martin; three sisters, Mrs. Mack Brown and Mrs. Eugene Taylor, and Mrs. Everett Terrell, all of Fulton, Route 5; six grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

Services will be held Thursday afternoon at 2:30 at the McConnell Baptist Church. The Rev. Allen Rhorer, pastor of the Liberty Church at Folsomdale, assisted by the Rev. J. R. Hamlin of Martin and the Rev. Lewis Elliott, pastor of the McConnell Baptist Church, will officiate. Whitnel Funeral Home of Fulton will be in charge of arrangements.

Lubie Hargrove

Mayfield, Ky., Aug. 12—Lubie Hargrove, former Mayfield and Fulton resident, died Saturday, August 10, at his home in Portland, Ore.

Mr. Hargrove lived in Mayfield for a number of years before he moved to Fulton, where he was a member of the state legislature near the turn of the century. Mr. Hargrove moved to Portland 25 years ago.

Funeral and burial services were held in Portland.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Capple Hargrove, one brother, Claude Hargrove, Boise, Idaho; and an uncle George J. Covington of Mayfield.

Mamie Wright

Miss Mamie Wright died Thursday morning, August 15, at 9 at her home in Riceville.

Miss Wright was born March 15, 1892 in Union City.

She leaves a brother, Frank Wright of Detroit; and a cousin, Mrs. Marian Kitchens of Louisville.

Services were held Monday morning, August 19, at 9 o'clock at the Saint Edwards Catholic church. Father Carroll officiated. Burial, under direction of Whitnel Funeral Home, was Fairview Cemetery.

John Stubblefield

John Houston Stubblefield, 84, retired farmer, formerly of the Walnut Grove community in District No. 16 south of South Fulton, died at 8 a. m. Saturday, August 10, at the residence of a son, Macon Stubblefield of 434 Florida avenue, where he had lived for the past 2 1/2 years.

Mr. Stubblefield, bedfast for the past two months, had been ill for the past three years.

Services were held at 4 p. m. Sunday, August 11, at the White-Ransom Funeral home. The Rev. Daniel B. Cameron, pastor of the First Baptist church, officiated. Burial was in the Greenlea cemetery at Fulton, Ky.

Funeralbearers were Milton Counce, Tom Counce, Leon Rice, Harold Holaday, Ernest Caldwell and George Finch.

Mr. Stubblefield, who was born Dec. 18, 1872, in Calloway county, Ky., the son of John Carter and Clarissa Taylor Stubblefield, moved to Obion county at the age of six and spent the rest of his life here. He was a member of the Walnut Grove Methodist church. He was the last of 13 children.

Others who survive include: his wife, Mrs. Undine Hall Stubblefield whom he married June 11, 1908; a daughter, Mrs. Leon Brown of 514 East Palmer street, Union City; two other sons, Mr. H. of 1814 East Church street, Union City, and Harry of Childersburg, Ala.; and eight grandchildren.

Arthur Russell

Arthur Russell, 75, of Wingo died Sunday morning at 10:15 at the Mayfield Hospital, Mayfield, after being ill for some time.

Mr. Russell, now retired, had worked as a policeman in Chicago and as a carpenter in Wingo.

Services were held Tuesday afternoon at 2 at the Wingo Baptist Church. The Rev. H. M. Suthard officiated. Burial was in the Wingo Cemetery. The body is at the Hopkins, Hopkins and Brown Funeral Home at Wingo.

Mr. Russell leaves three brothers, Odie Russell of Tampa, Fla., W. M. Russell of Cincinnati, Ohio, and N. A. Russell of Hammonds, Ind.; three sisters, Mrs. Louise Piper of Glendale, Calif., Mrs. Debbie Sherwood of California, and Mrs. Addie Bohlen of San Francisco, Calif.; two nieces and two nephews.

News From Our Boys In The SERVICE

Five local young men from the Hickman, Ky. area enlisted in the United States Navy in the month of July. They are Harold Clay Jackson, Route 4; Bobby Gene Newsome, Route 1; Bobby Gene Moore, Route 1; Paul Edward Werner, Route 1; and Charles Gordon Glaeser, Route 4. All are participating in recruit training at San Diego, California.

The Navy Recruiting officer of Union City said that this was the best group of men to be enlisted at his station in several years.

Men enlisting in the Navy are classified by mental groups of I, II, III, IV, V and VI. These men all were in the top three groups, with Charles Gordon Glaeser leading the field by making a perfect score. This happens about one time in one thousand among men taking their mental aptitude test, as proven by the ptial. He was 67.

Services were at 4 Thursday afternoon, August 15, at Sanders Chapel Methodist Church. The Rev. Loyd Hynds and the Rev. Edwin Bond officiated. Burial was in the church cemetery with White-Ransom Funeral Home in charge.

Mr. Cochran was born and reared in Choctaw County, Miss., and moved to Obion County 35 years ago.

For many years Mr. Cochran taught singing classes in rural churches of this area. He was a member of Central Union Methodist church and lived in Crockett community, east of Rives.

Besides his wife, he leaves eight sons, Leland Guin Cochran, Wayne Graden Cochran, Union City; Claude Albert Cochran of the Navy; and D. L. Cochran, Marion Estes Cochran, Wayne Cochran and Larry Cochran of Crockett; seven daughters, Mrs. J. G. Owens of Fulton, Mrs. Leroy Anna of Chicago, Mrs. Hugh Ragdale of Sheffield, Ala., Mrs. Robert Parrott of Detroit, Mrs. James Thurmond of Tacoma, Washington, Mrs. David Gene Pinion and Mrs. Ira Tuck of Union City; a stepdaughter, Mrs. L. G. French of Newbern; two brothers, Jo Martin Cochran of Jackson, Miss., and Aaron Cochran of McComb, Miss.; three sisters, Mrs. Tom Beech of Cleveland, Miss., Mrs. Foster Powers of Ackerman, Miss., and Mrs. Johnnie Seitz of Crawford, Miss., and 28 grandchildren.

Buster Seay

James E. (Buster) Seay, 54, who operated Seay's Breeze on the Mayfield-Paducah highway for many years, died Saturday night at 9:45 at the Fuller-Morgan hospital in Mayfield.

Mr. Seay sold his restaurant three years ago and had been in semi-retirement since that time.

Services were held Monday afternoon at 3:30 at the Byrn Funeral Home in Mayfield. The Rev. J. Howard Baxter and the Rev. John Huffman officiated. Burial was in the Highland Park Cemetery.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. Lois Watts Seay; a son, James W. Seay of Mayfield; a daughter, Mrs. John Roland of Pontiac, Ill.; two half-brothers, two half-sisters, and six grandchildren.

records kept at Nashville, Tennessee over a period of years.

All of these men were enlisted under the High School program which guarantees the recruit a trade school in one of the five different occupational fields of the Navy. With the beginning of their Naval careers, the high scores made on their entrance examinations lay a fine foundation for rapid advancement in the Navy. Those public spirited citizens of Hickman are invited to watch the development of these outstanding young men as they progress from one stage to higher planes in the noble occupation of the defense of our country, the U. S. Navy.

Roy Bard Warns Of Noxious Weeds In Acreage Plan

Fulton County farmers should check the land they have under Acreage Reserve to be sure it is not helping spread noxious weeds, Roy Bard, Chairman, Fulton County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, cautioned today. He advises farmers to keep in mind the fact that, under their Acreage Reserve Agreements, they agreed to control noxious weeds on the land put in the Acreage Reserve. The cost of controlling the noxious weeds must be borne by the farmer.

Mr. Bard points out that the list of weeds designated as "noxious" is compiled by the Kentucky ASC Committee, and copies of such are available at the County ASC Office. Weeds listed locally are: Buckhorn, Canada Thistle, Corn Cockle, Dodder, Johnson Grass, Quack Grass, Sorrell, Wild Onion and Oxeye Daisy. The Acreage Reserve regulations state that farmers should take such steps as may be prescribed by the county committee to prevent Acreage Reserve land from becoming a source of spreading the designated noxious weeds.

Mr. Bard suggests that Fulton County farmers, who see a noxious weeds problem developing on their Acreage Reserve land call at the county office for advice on what action to take.

Winter Rates To Be Applied At Kentucky Parks

Frankfort, Aug. — Winter rates for Kentucky's State Parks were announced here by Mrs. Ben Killgore, director of parks.

The new rates will be effective November 1st to April 1st. Guests have a choice of the American or the European plans at the three state parks which have lodges and dining facilities open throughout the year — Kentucky Lake, Cumberland Falls, and Kentucky Dam Village.

Under the American Plan, a guest will receive both room and meals for $40 a week or $7.50 a day. The European Plan, with lodging only, gives the visitor a flat 33 1/3 percent reduction from the regular daily rate.

DUKEDOM RT. 2

Joyce Taylor

We had another rainy week. Quite a bit of hay was damaged and lost in this community because of the rains. There's a lot more hay to be taken care of and some tobacco is ready to house. Jasper Williams plans to cut some tobacco the first of this week if the weather is suitable.

Bro. and Mrs. Clyde Ervin, Susan and Philip of California, a former pastor in this community were supper guests in the Oliver Taylor home recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Tremon Rickman and Mrs. McNatt were Sunday afternoon visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hanline and Gary. Other guests were Mesdames Marguerite Stephens and Mildred Yates.

The revival meeting started Sunday night, August 18, at the Dukedom Methodist Church. Bro. Norman Crittenden of Manlyville, Tenn. is doing the preaching. Mr. Bill Matthews is leading the singing. A. L. Mayes of Fulton is the pastor. Services are at 2:00 and 7:30 p. m. Come out and hear Norman. You will be glad you did.

Mrs. Cassie Taylor visited Mrs. Jess Rogers and Miss Alice Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Yates called to see Sam Crittenden Sunday in Fulton at the home of his brother, Tom Crittenden. Mr. Crittenden has been ill quite a while and is not improving any. Miss Constance Jones returned to her home Wednesday after visiting a few days in Sedalia last week.

A terrible tragedy happened in our vicinity Saturday night when
